GAME

28

(10-17, 4-11 Patriot League)

(15-12, 10-5 Patriot League)

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 2017 // 1:30 P.M. // CBS SPORTS NETWORK
ANNAPOLIS, Md. // ALUMNI HALL (5,710)

OPENING TIP: Army travels to Annapolis, Md., to face off with archrival Navy on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. That contest is the second of a doubleheader with the women and marks the teams' annual Army-Navy Star game. The game will be broadcast live on CBS Sports Network with Jason Knapp and Mo Cassara on the call. In the last 11 outings between these two nemesis, three have been decided in overtime, two in double overtime. Army is 2-1 in those games. The Cadets' one loss came earlier this season when the Mids outscored them 21-5 in the extra period to steal a 96-80 victory in Christl Arena. This came however after the Black Knights used a 17-7 rally over the final 76 seconds of regulation to force the game into overtime. What was more impressive was that Army scored eight-straight points and forced two turnovers in the last 19 seconds to cut the Mids deficit to 74-73 with six seconds remaining before the final sequence of plays. The Cadets are coming off a much-needed 52-47 victory at Holy Cross on Wednesday night in which Jacob Kessler posted career highs in points and rebounds. With that win, Army sits in a tie with Lafayette for eighth place with a league mark of 4-11. Navy boasts a conference record of 10-5 which is good enough for sole possession of third place. During the Mids last outing at Lehigh, Navy saw the Mountain Hawks register an impressive 74-55 win. Prior to that game the Mids had gone 9-1 over the course of their last 10 contests.

INSIDE THE SERIES: Navy Leads: 78-48
First Meeting: 1919-20 (L, 24-18)
Last Meeting: Jan. 21, 2017 (L, 96-80 - OT)

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Requests for working media credentials for Army basketball home games at Christl Arena must be made in advance to Kat Castner, Associate Director of Athletic Communications. Credentials will be held at the ticket office "will call" window located in the main lobby of Holleder Center.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers attending Army basketball home games must wear proper credentials. Requests for credentials should be made in advance and directed to Kat Castner. Limited space is available along each baseline and positions will be made available on a priority basis.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Army practice sessions are closed to members of the media, unless accompanied by a member of the athletic communications staff. Please contact Army's Office of Athletic Communications in advance to determine the status of practice and to gain clearance into the workout. Office of Athletic Communications policy requires 24-hour notice for those media members wishing to attend practice. Practice will generally begin at either 3:30 p.m. or 4:15 p.m. during the week.

INSIDE INFO

In March of 2016, Army handed the head coaching duties over to Jimmy Allen, who spent six seasons on staff as an associate head and assistant. He has been tasked to replace the Black Knights' entire starting five, who had tied for the Patriot League's best overall record at 19-14 last season. Sophomore guard Jordan Fox is one of just three players on the roster that started a game last season, joining senior forward Mac Hoffman and sophomore guard/forward John Emezie. Army, who fell in last season's Patriot League semifinals to eventual champion Holy Cross, has a youthful roster with 10 sophomores and 10 freshmen.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN

Army's roster features just six upperclassmen with four seniors and two juniors on the team. The Black Knights lost 75.8 percent of their scoring and 69.6 percent of their rebounding from last season. The Black Knights added 10 players as part of the Class of 2020.

Army's roster has players from 14 different states. North Carolina is home to six players, the most of any single state.

ABOUT THE MIDSHIPMEN

Navy dropped a 74-55 decision at Lehigh during its last outing on Wednesday. The only Mid to reach double digits was Edward Adale, who registered 10 points. Bryce Dulin and Tim Abruzzo added eight points each, while Shawn Anderson and George Kiernan chipped in seven points apiece. Alade also led the Mids on the boards with six rebounds to go along with Hasan Abdullah's team-best four assists. Navy shot just 39.7 percent from the floor and 31.6 percent from long range compared to 57.4 and 52.6 percent, respectively, for Lehigh.

On the year, Anderson is leading the team with 11.9 points per outing. Dulin has added 9.4 points per outing, while Kiernan and Abdullah are chipping in 8.6 and 8.5 points, respectively. Junior Tom Lacey is third in the league and leads the Mids with his 7.7 rebounds per contest. Abdullah sits third in the conference as well with his 1.9 steals per game.

LAST TIME OUT

Army ended a three-game skid with a thrilling 52-47 victory at Holy Cross on Wednesday night. Jacob Kessler was the man of the night, notching a career high in points and rebounds. The sophomore finished 6-of-9 from the floor, 3-of-6 from behind-the-arc and 2-of-2 at the free throw line for a team-best 17 points. He added nine rebounds, including three on the offensive glass to lead the Black Knights in that category as well. Jordan Fox added 10 points, while Matt Wilson chipped in nine after going 4-of-5 from the floor and 1-of-2 at the charity stripe. Rookie Tommy Funk dished out a team-best four assists to go along with John Emezie's two steals and two blocks.

Army held the 32-25 edge at the break, but an 8-0 run from the home team to start the second half quickly erased any deficit and handed Holy Cross the one-point lead at 33-32. A little more than 10 minutes later, Emezie converted on a layup with six minutes left to hand Army the 46-39 advantage. Neither team scored over the next four minutes until the Crusaders sparked an 8-3 run to make it a two-point game at 49-47 with 34 seconds remaining. A few ticks later, Funk converted on 1-of-2 at the charity stripe to keep it a one possession game. The Crusaders then worked the clock down to 13 seconds when Patrick Benzan found an opening and tried to lay it in. Emezie came from behind though and blocked his attempt before Fox grabbed the rebound ultimately securing Army the victory. Holy Cross quickly fouled Fox and the sophomore calmly stepped to the line and finished off both free throws to hand the Black Knights the five-point win.

The Cadets ended a three-game slide and improved to 4-11 in the Patriot League. They also notched their 10th win of the season, making it 11-straight years in which the Black Knights have recorded 10-plus wins in a year.

Austin Price scored a game-high 19 points to lead five Mountain Hawks in double figures as Lehigh defeated visiting Navy, 74-55, on Wednesday evening to split the season series. The Midshipmen entered the contest winners of 10 of their last 11 games, but lost for just the second time since January 5. Lehigh jumped on Navy early, leading by as many as 18 points in the first half en route to a 35-23 halftime advantage. Navy rallied early in the second half to cut the margin to four points, but Lehigh responded with a 20-2 run over six minutes to put the game out of reach at 58-36.

Edward Alade led Navy with 10 points and six rebounds, while Bryce Dulin and Tim Abruzzo each scored eight points. George Kiernan and Shawn Anderson scored seven points apiece.

HOFFMAN NAMED TO COSIDA ALL-DISTRICT TEAM

Army West Point men's basketball saw senior Mac Hoffman named to the 2016-17 College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Academic All-District® Men's Basketball Team. Hoffman has been recognized as one of the nation's top student-athletes for his combined performance athletically and his efforts in the classroom. He and six others make up the NCAA Division I District 1 Team.

The Pleasanton, Calif., native boasts a 3.71 cumulative grade point average and is set to graduate in May with a degree in Systems Engineering.

Hoffman has started every game this season, averaging 21.4 minutes. He is second on the team with a field goal percentage of .563 and is recording 6.7 points and 6.8 rebounds per contest. In his senior campaign alone, Hoffman has notched six double-digit scoring nights, including a career-best 20 points in an outing against Holy Cross on Jan. 18. He finished 9-of-10 from the floor and 2-for-4 from the free throw line. The senior has also registered three double-figure rebounding nights with a career-high 12 coming in a victory over Binghamton on Dec. 21.

Hoffman is a team captain and a two-time Patriot League Honor Roll member. He is one-of-three conference players to post a GPA of 4.0 or higher during back-to-back spring semesters (2015 & 2016). He is also a two-time Distinguished Cadet Award Recipient and has been named to the Dean's List on six occasions. Hoffman earned the academy's Certificate of Achievement for highest course average in engineering economy & system dynamics simulation. He was a company executive officer and is a current member of Tau Beta Pi Engineering Honors Society.

First Team Academic All-District® honorees advance to the CoSIDA Academic All-America® Team ballot, where first-, second- and third-team All-America® honorees will be selected later this month.

STARTING FIVE

Of Army's starting five, three are averaging a .400 field goal percentage or higher with Mac Hoffman's .538 leading the way. Four of the five are also averaging more than 3.3 rebounds, while two are handing out 4.3 assists per game.

TWIN FIGURES

Junior Luke Morrison rode a team-best six-game double-digit scoring streak from Jan. 8 - Jan. 25. He has currently hit twin figures in 12 of Army's 27 contests. Sophomores Jordan Fox and John Emezie, along with rookie Matt Wilson, have recorded five-game double-figure scoring streaks so far this year as well. During Fox's streak (Nov. 30 - Dec. 19), he led the Black Knights in scoring on three different occasions. Emezie's and Wilson's streak dated from Nov. 20 - Dec. 3. Wilson then skipped two games, but found twin figures again in Army's next five outings (Dec. 19 - Jan. 5).

A WIN OVER NAVY WOULD...

Split the season series with Navy and hand Army its fourth win over the Mids in 10 tries. It would also give Army its first Star game win since Feb. 16, 2013. Lastly, it would hand the Cadets their fifth win in Patriot League play, pulling them to 5-11.

ARMY VS. PATRIOT LEAGUE TEAMS

The Black Knights are 267-386 all-time against current members of the Patriot League. Of the nine other schools in the league, Army has faced Navy (126 times), Colgate (121 times) and Lehigh (105 times) the most. Army leads three series against Patriot League schools in Colgate (61-60), Lehigh (63-42), and Loyola (5-4). The Cadets have also competed against American (11-27), Boston University (8-15), Bucknell (21-53), Holy Cross (22-63), Lafayette (28-44) and Navy (48-78).

SHARP SHOOTIN'

Rookie Matt Wilson is currently leading the Black Knights with his .648 field goal percentage. The first-year has converted on 105 of his 162 attempts from the floor. Mac Hoffman is also having a solid senior campaign and sits second on the team holding a .538 field goal percentage (64-of-119). Luke Morrison is one of the best 3-pointer shooters in the league and boasts a .347 shooting percentage from downtown. The junior is averaging 2.4 treys per outing, which is good enough for fourth in the conference.

SHARING THE ROCK

Two names stand out on the Army team when it comes to sharing the basketball - Jordan Fox and Tommy Funk. Fox currently leads the team and is second in the Patriot League with 4.8 helpers per game. Funk isn't far behind, averaging 4.3 for fifth in the league, making him the only rookie in the league's top-10. As a team, the Black Knights are tied for 43rd in the nation in assists per contest with 16.1.

EFFICIENCY IS KEY

Strong shooting and the ability to spread the ball around are both keys to Army's success. The Black Knights' 1.1 assist-to-turnover ratio is second in the Patriot League, while their 16.2 assists per game and .351 percentage from long distance rank first and fifth, respectively. With no one truly dominating the ball offensively, it is helping to create open looks for shooters on the outside where the Cadets are first in the conference with 9.2 made 3-pointers per game. That mark also has them tied for 34th in the NCAA.

SOPHOMORE SWAG

Jordan Fox has emerged as a leader for the Black Knights. He currently leads Army with 11.8 points per game. What's more impressive though is how he's scoring. The sophomore has converted on 112 of his 261 attempts from the floor, which is good enough for .429 percent shooting. Things don't stop there as Fox is among the leaders in the conference with a .377 mark from behind-the-arc. He is averaging 1.7 treys per outing, which is 12th in the league. In addition to that, Fox is first on the team with a .803 percentage from the charity stripe. The Jackson County, Ky., native is first in the conference and 53rd in the nation with a 2.4 assists-to-turnover ratio, recording 130 assists to just 55 turnovers. Lastly, Fox has posted double figures in 17 of Army's 27 contests, including four games with 20-plus points.

BY THE NUMBERS

Army's current starting five have accounted for 1,156 points and 556 rebounds this season. They are averaging 59 percent of the Cadets' scoring and 55 percent of the Black Knights' rebounding. Tommy Funk or Jordan Fox have led Army in assists in every game this season but two (Jacob Kessler - vs. Arkansas State (11/19) and John Emezie - vs. Colgate (2/8)). The Cadets have drained 10 or more 3-pointers on 11 different occasions throughout the year. All season, Army has allowed just two opponents to hit 10 or more treys (vs. Holy Cross - 1/18 and at Colgate - 2/8).

CARDIAC KIDS

More often than not, Army's games seem to come down to the final few minutes. 17 of the Black Knights' 27 contests so far this season have been decided by single digits, including 11 of their 17 losses. Seven of those 11 were by five or fewer points.

According to Kenpom.com, the Black Knights are the 14th most unlucky team in the NCAA. This youthful Cadets' squad is 0-5 in games decided by three or fewer points and is 0-3 in overtime contests.

The Black Knights have lost by double digits in league play four times - to rival Navy on Jan. 21, and to Bucknell on Jan. 28 before sustaining back-to-back road double-figure losses to Loyola on Feb. 4 and to Colgate on Feb. 8.

On the other side of things, Army is a team that has the ability to rally at any time, more importantly in the final few minutes. The best example of this was on Jan. 21 against the Mids when the Black Knights overcame a 10-point deficit with 1:16 remaining on the clock to force an extra period. In those final 76 seconds, the Cadets sparked a 17-7 run, which was highlighted by back-to-back 3-pointers from Kennedy Edwards 10 seconds apart. During that stretch, the Black Knights scored eight straight and recorded two turnovers in a 19-second span to keep themselves alive.

NEXT UP

Army closes out its final regular season home game on Feb. 22 hosting Boston U. in Christl Arena. That contest is slated for a 7 p.m. and will be streamed live on the Patriot League Network with Rich DeMarco on the call. Boston U. took the teams' first meeting of the season back on Jan. 25 in which they recorded a 90-89 overtime win in Boston. The Terriers host Patriot League frontrunner Bucknell this Sunday on CBS Sports Network before heading to West Point three days later.

CBS SPORTS NETWORK

The two Army contests against rival Navy were selected to be broadcast live on CBS Sports Network. One of the most storied rivalries in all of sports was televised to a national audience on Jan. 21, but will happen again on Feb. 18 when the Black Knights and Midshipmen square off in the Star match during their second meeting of the Patriot League schedule. The Feb. 18 game is slated for a 1:30 p.m. start in Alumni Hall.

West Point does not utilize the traditional Monday-Wednesday-Friday/Tuesday-Thursday scheduling model. Schedules at the Academy are based on an alternating Day 1-Day 2 template.

*Schedules are from the fall semester.

WEST POINT LINGO

Class	West Point Nickname
Freshmen	Fourth Class Cadet, Plebe
Sophomore	Third Class Cadet, Yearling
Senior	First Class Cadet, Firstie

OBC Officer Basic Course

A cadet's first stop after graduation from the Academy. OBC preceeds a cadet's first assignment.

BRANCH (i.e. Field Artillery, Infantry)

Specific part of the Army that each cadet chooses to join upon graduation. Cadets receive their "branch" toward the end of the first semester of their senior year. The branch determines where a graduate is stationed for OBC.

WEST POINT HONOR CODE

"A Cadet Will Not Lie, Cheat, Steal or Tolerate Those Who Do."

The creed, or oath, each cadet takes upon entering the Academy. It is the code by which all cadets must live.

"Duty, Honor, Country"

Three attributes of paramount importance to a soldier are Duty, Honor, Country. Each is equally important. Together these words form the motto of the U.S. Military Academy.

CAMPUS INSIDERS

The Patriot League announced that two of Army's games will be broadcast by Campus Insiders. The first of the two games was Dec. 7 when the Black Knights hosted Air Force at 7 p.m. in Christl Arena. That game marked the lone non-league tilt picked up by Campus Insiders. The other contest is on the road when Army heads to Worcester, Mass., for a league matchup with Holy Cross on Feb. 15 at 7 p.m. There is the potential for a third Army game to be broadcast on March 2, but those teams and site have yet to be determined. That game will be one of the Patriot League's quarterfinal contests.

NEW COACHES

When Coach Allen took over the reigns of Army basketball, he started to search for two additional hires to join his staff. Ben Wilkins was the first coach to come to the banks of the Hudson. Wilkins came to West Point by way of Mount St. Mary's (Md.), where he spent four seasons as the associate head. While there he served as the team's defensive coordinator, and was responsible for working with the perimeter guards, recruiting, scouting, academics and scheduling. The last two seasons The Mount had the top-rated defense in the Northeast Conference (NEC) and ranked in the top four of the NEC in defensive efficiency each of Wilkins four years with the team. The Mount defense was ranked nationally (top 20) in turnover percentage during two of Wilkins four years.

To complete his staff, Allen then hired Zak Boisvert, who had previously spent the last two years at Maine. While at Maine, Boisvert saw the Black Bears win total jump from three in his first season to eight wins in his second. The Black Bears' resurgence was aided by an impressive batch of young talent with freshmen and sophomores accounting for 69% of the Black Bears' scoring (including the team's top four scorers). Maine had back-to-back America East All-Rookie team members (Kevin Little in 2014-15 and Issac Vann in 2015-16). Prior to the 2015-16 season, Boisvert was tabbed by Maine head coach Bob Walsh as the program's "Offensive Coordinator." The Black Bears quickly upheld the pace, raising their scoring average from 60.4 points per game to 76.6. The 16.2 increase in points per game marked the largest season-to-season scoring jump in Division I between the two seasons.

CLASS RINGS

CLASS MOTTO

The class mottos are:

- 2020: With Vision We Lead
- 2019: So Freedom Will Reign
- 2018: So Others May Dream
- 2017: With Honor We Lead

ARMY WELCOMES BACK N.Y. KNICKS FOR TRAINING CAMP

The New York Knickerbockers held their training camp at West Point from Sept. 28 through Oct. 1. This was the third consecutive year and sixth time in franchise history the Knicks have used the Army West Point facilities for their camp.

The Knicks used Christl Arena, the home of the Army men's and women's basketball programs, for their practices throughout the week. They also trained in the O'Meara, Malek, Dawkins, Class of 1959 Strength Development Center inside Kimsey Athletic Center. Three years ago, Team President Phil Jackson brought the Knicks back to West Point for training camp for the first time since 1967. The Black Knights had the opportunity to spend time with the Knicks, as did the Corps of Cadets at different points during that week.

ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL

Mac Hoffman and Luke Morrison represented the Army West Point men's basketball team on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll for the 2015-16 season. To be eligible for the Spring Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn at least a 3.20 GPA in the spring semester and participate in one of the Patriot League's winter or spring championship sports.

As a rising senior, Hoffman was one of three Patriot League men's basketball players to earn a GPA of 4.0 or higher during the spring, as he finished the semester with a 4.037 GPA as a Systems Engineering major. This year's honor marks Hoffman's second after being named to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll in 2014-15. A native of Pleasanton, Calif., Hoffman averaged 1.5 points and 2.8 rebounds per contest just a season ago.

A Comparative Politics major from Charlotte, N.C., Morrison made his first appearance on the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll, following his 3.211 GPA. Morrison averaged 5.0 points per game as a sophomore last season to lead all returning Army players heading into 2016-17.

THE CLASS OF 2020

Almost 1,300 cadet candidates, including 282 women, 425 minorities, 15 international cadets and 13 combat veterans reported to West Point on Reception Day. The incoming class was selected from a pool of nearly 16,000 applicants. There are 282 women, who comprise 22 percent of the class.

Minority enrollment, roughly 33 percent, includes 180 African-Americans, 122 Asian-Americans; 123 Hispanic Americans and 14 Native Americans. The Class of 2020 includes cadets from every state in the nation and 15 international cadets entering under the sponsorship of their respective countries. The countries represented include Bahrain, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Colombia, Egypt, Georgia, Honduras, Kosovo (two), Moldova, Pakistan, Philippines, Singapore, South Korea, Taiwan, and Turkey.

Upon graduation, these cadets will return to their respective countries as officers in their armed forces.

BRANCH NIGHT

On Nov. 17, all members of the First Class (senior) assembled inside Eisenhower Hall for Branch Night. The Commandant, Brig. Gen. Diana M. Holland, spoke about the importance of the evening in relation to the future officers' chosen profession in the Army.

For the first three years at the Academy every cadet receives information about each of the 16 Branches. By the time Branch Night occurs they will understand what the normal duties, responsibilities, assignment patterns and locations are for each of the Branches. Late in their junior year (Cow year) each cadet must indicate, by order of preference all specialties for which they are qualified and eligible. Branches are then assigned according to performance, preference and current Branch goals [which means what the Army needs at that time].

Envelopes are handed out to the Firsties that contained the insignia of the Branch to which they were assigned. On order the cadets open their envelopes at one time. Exultation, cheers, groans, high-fives and more could be heard coming from Ike Hall once the envelopes were opened. Relaxation and refreshment with the Branch representative and the other members of their Branch "family" followed the news.

Here are the branches each senior received:

- Richard Brown - Transportation Branch
- Scott Mammel - Air Defense Artillery Branch
- Kennedy Edwards - Field Artillery Branch
- Mac Hoffman - Aviation Branch

JIMMY ALLEN

@ARMYCOACHALLEN
THE LEE ANDERSON MEN'S HEAD BASKETBALL COACH
1ST SEASON
EMORY & HENRY, 1993
RECORD AT ARMY: 10-17 (.370)

Jimmy Allen, who spent the previous six seasons on Zach Spiker's coaching staff, was named as Army West Point's new head men's basketball coach, Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Boo Corrigan announced on March 30, 2016. Allen is the 31st head coach in the program's 114-year history.

"As we studied our diverse and talented pool of coaching candidates from across the nation, Jimmy Allen's name and body of work continued to rise to the top," Corrigan said at the time of his hiring. "Jimmy played an integral role in our team's most recent success, helping lead our program to four straight 15-win seasons for the first time in nearly a century. He is a passionate leader, a dynamic recruiter and a man of great character. We feel Jimmy Allen is the ideal fit to lift our men's basketball program to even greater heights."

"We're excited to have Jimmy at the head of our men's basketball program," said Lt. Gen. Robert Caslen, Jr., USMA Superintendent. "As an associate head coach, Jimmy played a key role in the team's recent success. As the son of a graduate who spent a large part of his childhood on West Point, he's internalized the ideals of Duty, Honor, Country and is committed to our mission of developing leaders of character. We're confident that, under Jimmy's leadership, the program will continue to contribute to the development of our Army's future leaders without missing a beat."

Allen held the position of associate head coach during the 2015-16 season as Army returned to postseason play for the first time since 1978.

In addition to Army's participation in the 2016 CollegenInsider.com Postseason Tournament, the Black Knights won 19 games for the first time since 1977-78 and set a program record for road wins with 11.

Allen was an integral part of Army's success over the past four seasons. The Class of 2016 finished their careers with 65 victories, the most wins for a class since 1971. The Black Knights have had 11 All-Patriot League selections over the last four years, the most in a four-year span in program history. Seniors Tanner Plomb (First Team), Kevin Ferguson (Second Team) and Kyle Wilson (Third Team) highlighted Army's All-Patriot League picks in 2015-16, and Ferguson was also chosen to the inaugural Patriot League All-Defensive Team.

Plomb, Ferguson, Wilson and Dylan Cox became the first four classmates in Patriot League history to all score 1,000 career points. The foursome, along with Larry Toomey, made up the only starting five in the nation consisting entirely of seniors in 2015-16.

"This opportunity means the world to me," Allen said. "I feel like West Point has been part of my DNA since I was born. I lived here a couple different times growing up, and with my father being a graduate of the Academy, this is a very special day for me.

"This is not just an opportunity to be a head coach. It is an opportunity to be the head coach at Army West Point," Allen continued. "To be able to continue to work with the guys who have been part of this program, and continue to do the things that have made our program successful, is something I am extremely excited about."

In 2014-15, Allen helped the Black Knights reach 15 victories for the third consecutive year, marking the first time the program recorded three straight 15-win campaigns since Bob Knight's teams each won at least 15 from 1967-70. Army has won at least 15 games in the past four seasons, which is the best run of 15-win seasons since 1920-24.

Allen also saw Army capture the 2014 All-Military Classic presented by USAA Championship with victories over Air Force and VMI. In addition, the 2014-15 Black Knights defeated USC, 85-77 in overtime, to secure their first win against a Pac-12 team since 1964.

Allen mentored All-Patriot League Second Team selection Plomb and third-team honoree Wilson in 2014-15. Plomb was second on the team in scoring and rebounding, while Wilson led the conference in points per game.

The program also excelled in the classroom in 2014-15 and posted its highest team grade-point average in 10 years with a 2.84 GPA in the fall semester as seven players were honored with places on the West Point Dean's List.

Since his addition to the Black Knights' coaching staff, 16 All-Patriot League honors have been handed out to Army West Point players, including Nathan Hedgecock's Scholar-Athlete of the Year recognition, a pair of first-team nods for Ella Ellis and Wilson's Rookie of the Year award in 2013.

Allen joined Spiker's coaching staff in April 2010 after serving six seasons as the head coach at Averett University in Danville, Va.

His father, James, graduated from West Point in 1967 and later returned as a chemistry instructor. During his father's tenure as a professor, Allen attended West Point elementary school for three years and James I. O'Neil High School through the 10th grade.

In his six seasons with the Division III Cougars, Allen posted a 97-70 (.581) overall record, guiding the program to three 20-win seasons, three USA South Athletic Conference titles, three USASAC tournament championships and three NCAA Tournament appearances.

A three-time USA South Coach of the Year (2005, 2007, 2008), Allen inherited a team that was 0-25 the season prior to his arrival and posted a 13-14 overall record in his first year. The next season, the Cougars won 20 games and captured a share of the conference regular-season crown. In 2006-07, Allen's squad went 20-7, winning both the USASAC regular-season and tournament championships and earning the school's first NCAA appearance since 1990.

While the team's overall record slipped to 14-15 in 2007-08, the Cougars made a run in the postseason to capture the league tournament and earn their second straight NCAA berth. The 2008-09 squad returned to the 20-win plateau and not only won a conference regular-season championship and its third straight league tournament crown, but also scored its first NCAA Tournament victory since 1990. Allen's 2009-10 team went 10-16 overall and advanced to the semifinals of the USASAC postseason.

In addition to the team success, Allen mentored 13 all-conference performers in his six seasons. One of those players, Jonathan Rumley, is the school's only first-team National Association of Basketball Coaches All-America selection. Allen helped develop Rumley into the schools' all-time leader in steals per game (2.9). He also finished his career ranked fifth all-time at Averett in scoring (1,186) and fifth in rebounds (511).

There was also no shortage of off-the-court accolades for Allen's program during his tenure at Averett. The Cougars earned the USA South Athletic Conference Sportsmanship Award three straight times from 2007-09. The team was also honored with the Community Youth Service Award by the Dan River Center for Voluntarism in 2007, and in 2008 received recognition from the Big Brothers Big Sisters of Danville. In the classroom, 18 of Allen's players were named to the conference all-academic team.

Prior to his arrival at Averett, Allen spent 11 seasons as an assistant coach, including eight at the Division I level. Before taking his first head coaching position, Allen worked for two seasons as the associate head coach at Wofford College where the 2002-03 squad won six games against the RPI's top-ranked non-conference strength of schedule.

Allen got his first taste of coaching at a service academy while spending six years as an assistant at Navy under Don DeVoe from 1996-2002. During his tenure with the Mids, Navy won the Patriot League championship and earned NCAA Tournament berths in 1997 and 1998. Allen helped the Mids to three 20-win seasons in his six years in Annapolis.

Prior to his stint at Navy, Allen began his coaching career at Emory & Henry, his alma mater, working with the Wasps from 1993-96.

A 1993 graduate of Emory & Henry with a bachelor's degree in accounting, Allen played in four consecutive NCAA Tournaments during his undergraduate career. The Wasps won 20 games each of his four seasons and advanced to the "Sweet Sixteen" of the NCAA postseason on two occasions.

A four-year starter at point guard, Allen holds the program's record with 117 consecutive games played and ranks second on the school's all-time assist ledger. He was inducted into the Emory & Henry Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.
