THIS WEEK: REMATCH

The Army West Point hockey team welcomes Niagara to Tate Rink with a big four points on the line this weekend in a rematch from an early November series. The Black Knights and Purple Eagles split the two games with Army taking a 3-1 victory on Nov. 10, fueled by three-unanswered goals by Trevor Fidler, Zach Evancho and Michael Wilson. The following night, Niagara came away with a 3-2 win. This weekend, fans are welcome to join the team for a Skate with the Black Knights event with the team after Saturday's game. Anyone can participate, fans are just asked to bring their skates and helmets to the game.

LAST TIME OUT: RILEY VS. RILEY & RILEY

Army battled to a 2-2 draw against Mercyhurst on Friday night here at Tate Rink before dropping a 6-1 decision to the Lakers in the series finale. Head coach Brian Riley's squad clawed its way back to force overtime after Wilson scored an unassisted, short-handed goal with four minutes to play on Friday. His sons had a hand in seven of Mercyhurst's eight goals on the weekend, including a hat trick from Jack. Evancho tallied Army's lone goal in Saturday's game.

BRIAN RILEY

HEAD COACH
14TH SEASON
BROWN, 1983
TWITTER: @COACH_BRILEY

When Brian Riley was named Army hockey's 16th head coach in 2004, he was familiar with West Point.

Following 14 years as an assistant to his brother Rob, and a lifetime of hockey education from his father Jack, Brian Riley knew all about the U.S. Military Academy.

The knowledge, preparation and hard work have all paid off for Brian as he adds to the Riley legacy and Army hockey.

Just the third Army hockey coach in the past 66 years, Brian Riley has made his mark on a program coached by his father and brother in just 13 seasons.

The Vice President for Membership of the American Hockey Coaches Association, Brian Riley is a three-time Atlantic Hockey Association Coach of the Year, has guided Army to eight consecutive Atlantic Hockey Association playoff berths, led the team to its first regular season championship in program history and had four players chosen to participate in the NCAA Frozen Four Skills Competition. Riley was recently appointed to the NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey Committee, which is responsible for the management of the NCAA Championship.

Brian Riley has posted a 163-255-71 mark during his tenure behind the West Point bench after succeeding his brother Rob, who briefly retired from coaching in 2004. Prior to Rob, Jack Riley, their father, stood behind the Black Knights bench for 36 seasons. In addition to his success at Army, Jack Riley also coached the U.S. Olympic hockey team to a stunning gold medal in the 1960 Games.

Utilizing a defensive system that focuses on physical, intense play and opportunistic scoring, Riley has led his squad to the Atlantic Hockey Association playoffs in all 13 of his seasons.

The last two years he has led the Black Knights to the semifinals of the Atlantic Hockey Championships. Riley, along with Associate Head Coach Zach McKelvie and Assistant Head Coach Chris McKelvie, have continued to develop Army's players into national contenders.

In 2016-17, Army's four-year starting goalie and all-time saves leader, Parker Gahagen, retired the West Point sweater. He graduated amongst the best in the Army hockey record books with 3,172 career saves, boasted a program-best .926 save percentage and was second in shutouts (10). His and Cole Bruns' efforts in net combined for a program-best save percentage with a .930.

In 2014-15, Riley's team earned points every weekend in the final month of the Atlantic Hockey schedule going into the league's playoffs, including a win over eventual tournament champion RIT on the road in Rochester. He tutored his first Atlantic Hockey Rookie of the Year in Tyler Pham, and he was also named to the All-Rookie Team.

In 2013-14, the Black Knights took eventual Atlantic Hockey Champion Robert Morris to three games in their first round series. Riley's team forced a game three in the series with a 4-2 win in the second game. C.J. Reuschlein was named as part of the AHA All-Rookie Team after leading the Black Knights in scoring with 22 points, becoming the first rookie since Rob Ross had 17 as tops in 2004-05.

An upstart Riley club opened the 2012-13 season as one of the hottest teams in the AHA with early wins over Sacred Heart (2), American International and then 19th-ranked Robert Morris - all in the friendly confines of Tate Rink.

The Black Knights sat in the upper echelon of the AHA standings throughout much of the first half of conference action, which ultimately helped the USCHO name Riley its mid-season Coach of the Year.

Army went on to finish the year with an AHA playoff berth, forward Joe Kozlak earned AHA All-Rookie Team honors and senior Andy Starczewski was among the initial candidates for the Hobey Baker Award. In addition to the on-ice success of his players, Riley had the pleasure of coaching 2013 Men's Hockey Senior CLASS Award winner Cheyne Rocha, who also earned first team Academic All-America honors for the second year in a row.

In 2011-12, Army posted seven ties and four wins, including victories over Canadian rival Royal Military College (9-1), ECAC Hockey's Rensselaer (3-2) in the Toyota/UCConn Classic and a dramatic 4-4 overtime tie with Air Force. Riley helped Army resume its rivalry with its military brethren for the first time since 2006, and then watched as 12 players registered points in the eight-goal victory. Army qualified for the Atlantic Hockey Playoffs but dropped a pair of games to Holy Cross in the opening round.

The 2010-11 team won 11 games and earned home ice for the playoffs while a pair of players - Marcel Alvarez and Cody Omilusik - earned All-AHA accolades. Among the victories was a 5-2 triumph at UMass at the Mullins Center, a dramatic 5-4 win at Air Force, a three-point weekend against Robert Morris and a 4-1 victory over AIC outdoors at Rentschler Field in Hartford, Conn.

During the 2009-10 season, Riley helped the Black Knights to an 11-win season and the No. 6 seed in the conference playoffs. Among the victories was a three-point weekend against Air Force at Tate Rink, a 4-4 overtime draw at Colgate and a 2-1 win at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, the second consecutive year of a non-conference win.

In the postseason, Riley was selected as an assistant coach of the East squad at the NCAA Frozen Four Skills Competition where he coached Army's Owen Meyer, the fourth Black Knight selected for the honor, joining Brad Roberts (2006), Luke Flicek (2008) and Zach McKelvie (2009).

In 2008-09, with a team of 12 freshmen, Riley guided the Black Knights to the Atlantic Hockey Association playoffs for the sixth straight season. Included in the wins was a shocking upset of No. 2 Miami, 3-2, in the consolation game of the Ohio Hockey Classic.

Army went 19-14-4 in 2007-08, winning the AHA regular season title and the top seed in the conference tournament. For the second straight year, Army advanced to the semifinal round.

During the 2007-08 season, Army put together a league-best nine-game unbeaten streak (8-0-1) to clinch the regular season title. Army won the first two games of the best-of-three series with Sacred Heart to advance to the semifinals where a loss to Mercyhurst ended the season.

In 2006-07, the Black Knights hosted a league playoff game at Tate Rink for the first time and beat Bentley, 6-2. They followed that with a 3-1 win over Connecticut in the semifinals before losing to Air Force in the finals.

Riley was named the league's coach of the year for the first time in 2005-06 when the team finished fifth in conference play after overcoming a 0-7-1 start.

In his first campaign behind the Black Knights' bench, Riley engineered one of the biggest upsets in the NCAA when Army stunned Colgate, 3-2, in Hamilton, N.Y., for his first career win.

Riley led his team to 11 wins during that initial season, setting the Academy record for most victories by a rookie head coach. He broke the record established by his brother, Rob, in 1986-87. In addition, the younger Riley also piloted the Black Knights to their first postseason win in more than a quarter century when Army defeated American International College, 5-3, in the first round of the Atlantic Hockey tournament.

Riley's father, Jack, started it all in 1951 when legendary football coach and athletic director at West Point, Earl "Red" Blaik, hired him to head the hockey program. What began as a one-year contract, turned into a 36-year Hall of Fame career that culminated in 542 victories.

Riley's brother, Rob, took the reins from his father in the fall of 1986 and racked up 306 victories of his own over 18 winters.

When Rob officially stepped down in the summer of 2004, he passed the torch (and family tradition) on to his younger brother.

Brian brings an extensive resume to his "dream job" at the Academy. No stranger to West Point or the "West Point Experience," the younger Riley had spent 14 years as an assistant coach to his brother, eventually rising to the position of associate head coach.

Brian played an integral role in recruiting many of the athletes that helped Army put together back-to-back 20-win seasons and tutored Corey and Ian Winer, former Colorado Avalanche forward Dan Hinote.

Riley also recruited Zach McKelvie, a hulking defenseman who was a part of the Calgary Flames organization and returned as the Associate Head Coach in 2015. He originally signed two free agent contracts with the Boston Bruins while he was serving his country. McKelvie is just one of Riley's defensive gems, as his expertise in working with the defense has molded Army's squads into one of the most stingy blue line units in college hockey.

A 1983 graduate of Brown, Riley began his coaching career in 1984 with a three-year stint as an assistant coach at SUNY Plattsburgh. During that period, the Cardinals advanced to the NCAA Division III Tournament three times, reaching the championship game twice.

In 1988, Riley moved to the Division I ranks at the University of Massachusetts-Lowell. There, he teamed with his cousin, Bill Riley, for one season, directing the River Hawks to the NCAA Tournament, giving him his fourth straight postseason appearance.

The following winter, Riley joined his brother's staff at West Point for the first time where he spent the next seven seasons. In 1996, the West Point native left the comfort and familiarity of the Academy, where he grew up, for the great Midwest and a head coaching position at Shattuck St. Mary's Prep School in Faribault, Minn.

There, Riley carved out a stellar two-year coaching career in which his teams compiled an impressive 94-19-10 record. In his first season, Riley directed the squad to a 40-9-7 record before improving to 54-10-3 in 1997-98.

In 1999, Riley returned to West Point, where he served at his brother's side until assuming the head coaching position in 2004.

During his collegiate playing days, Riley co-captained Brown's hockey squad his senior season, earning honorable mention All-Ivy League. He was presented the Class of '36 Trophy for his outstanding contributions over his four-year career and the Patrick Jones Trophy for most team spirit.

Prior to starring for Brown, Riley attended New Hampton Prep and led the hockey team to a No. 1 national ranking among prep schools. He was chosen as the school's most outstanding athlete while captaining both the soccer and hockey teams.

Riley completed course work on his master's, earning a graduate degree in Education from Boston University, in May 2003.

Riley is married to the former Marybeth Feldman of Highland Falls, N.Y. The couple has three children: Jack, Danielle and Brendan. Jack is a redshirt senior and captain of the hockey team at Mercyhurst, while Brendan begins his sophomore season this fall. Danielle is in graduate school at Mercyhurst and is an assistant for the women's lacrosse program for the second year.

STORY LINES

SHARING THE CREASE

Senior Cole Bruns opened the year as Army's starting goalie, manning the blue paint for the first 15 games before missing a month due to injury. Rookie Jared Dempsey filled in against some tough opponents, facing four ranked teams in his first five career starts. The rookie held his own, going 2-3-1 in Bruns' absence. Now that Bruns is back, however, the duo has shared the crease over the past two series with near identical stats. Dempsey owns a 2.44 goals-against average to Bruns' mark of 2.65, with the net-minders posting save percentages of .923 and .913, respectively. Each have recorded one shutout this season as part of the third-best scoring defense in Atlantic Hockey.

KILL IT OFF

Army and Niagara have been the two best penalty killing units in Atlantic Hockey this season with the Black Knights owning the third-best success rate in the nation at .885. The Purple Eagles are the only other team from the AHA in the top 10 nationally on the PK, killing off 84.8 percent of its penalties.

SCOUTING NIAGARA

The Purple Eagles sit three points ahead of Army in a tie for fourth place in the Atlantic Hockey standings entering this weekend as we near the end of the regular season. Niagara has struggled of late, dropping six of its last seven games to conference opponents. Derian Plouffe leads the team with 30 points and 15 goals, including five on the power play and three short-handed tallies. Noah Delmas ranks second on the team in points with 25 and has dished out a team-high 22 assists. In net, Brian Wilson has shouldered the majority of the burden, owning a 9-14-2 record in 25 starts to go along with a 2.72 goals-against average and .902 save percentage.

MAJ. THOMAS KENNEDY

The Army hockey team remembered the legacy of Maj. Thomas Kennedy with a locker room dedication and an honorary puck drop on Saturday night by his family. A 2002 graduate of the U.S. Military Academy and former player and Officer Representative of the hockey program, Maj. Kennedy was killed in action in 2012 and received the Bronze Star Medal and Purple Heart. The locker room received updates in his honor this past fall.

JACK RILEY MEMORIAL TROPHY

The Atlantic Hockey Association announced the naming of its new trophy as the Jack Riley Memorial Trophy. Riley still holds the record for the most wins in Army coaching history across all sports. He is still the only coach to eclipse 500 wins on the banks of the Hudson. Riley was West Point's hockey coach from 1951-1986, boasts a 542-343-20 mark in his career and won Team USA's first hockey gold medal when he was the head coach in 1960. He was named the NCAA Coach of the Year on two occasions in 1957 and 1960, and was part of the inaugural class of Army's Hall of Fame.
