MICHIE STADIUM PRESERVATION PROJECT MISSION

Usher in a new era at Army West Point Athletics through the enhancement of Michie Stadium to take the academy's prestiage and excellence to the next level while supporting more than 1,000 cadet-athletes.

Enhance the overall gameday environment through new premium seating & hospitality opportunities while creating a world class experience for our cadets, donors, alumni, and fans.

Ensure that the cadets are a central focus as well as amplifying gameday support of the cadet-athletes on the field by stretching the corps of cadets seating section end zone to end zone.

Michie Stadium, one of America's most prestigious and iconic venues, began its renonvation on Monday, April 15, 2024. The project, known as the Michie Stadium Preservation Project, aims to preserve the stadium's rich 100-year history while providing a world-class experience for cadets, graduates, families, and fans alike.

The groundbreaking marked the beginning of extensive construction aimed at rebuilding and modernizing the current East Stands. Anticipated completion for this endeavor is set for the summer of 2026. Despite the construction, Army West Point will continue to welcome fans to Michie Stadium for various events, including men's and women's lacrosse, football, graduation and other special occasions.

During the renovation period, which will encompass the 2024 and 2025 seasons fans can expect some adjustments to the usual game day experience as construction progresses. Director of Athletics Tom Theodorakis acknowledged that while these next two years may present challenges with construction ongoing, the ultimate goal is to enhance the stadium's facilities and amenities, ensuring an unparalleled experience for fans.

This renovation project, combined with recent enhancements, will distinguish Michie Stadium as a premier venue for sports and special events. The Michie Stadium Preservation Project aligns with the institution's commitment to excellence and tradition, ensuring that future generations of fans can continue to enjoy the storied history and excitement of Army West Point Athletics.

AAC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME • DEC. 5 OR 6, 2025

The American Conference, which has established itself as a preeminent NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision conference, is poised to continue its remarkable ascension to national prominence under the leadership of Commissioner Tim Pernetti, who began his tenure in May of 2024.

The American consists of 15 prestigious institutions: the University of Alabama at Birmingham, the United States Military Academy (in football only), the University of North Carolina Charlotte, East Carolina University, Florida Atlantic University, the University of Memphis, the United States Naval Academy (in football only), the University of North Texas, Rice University, the University of South Florida, Temple University, the University of Texas at San Antonio, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

The American has modernized its brand, marking a bold new era for the league. More than a simple facelift, this evolution aligns the conference's identity—through written voice, visual design, and strategic direction—with a clear purpose and forward-looking vision.

The result is a unified, confident brand designed to fuel growth, increase national presence, and elevate the conference's competitive positioning on the collegiate stage.

To ensure consistency and clarity, please follow the naming style guidelines outlined below:

- Use American Conference on first reference.
- Use American in all subsequent references.

These conventions reflect the strength, clarity, and cohesion of our brand and help reinforce our distinct identity across every platform and audience.

Formal Naming Conventions

The official name of the conference is American Conference.

BUILT TO RISE

Do not use outdated or informal references such as:

- The American Athletic Conference
- American Athletic Conference
- AAC

This applies across marketing, media, storytelling, and stakeholder communication.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

HOFFMAN PRESS BOX
Hoffman Press Box is available to working members of the media only. Cheering is neither permitted nor tolerated. The press box is located atop the West Stands of Michie Stadium, with the main press box located on the fourth floor. All radio, visiting athletic director, game operations, and coaches' booths are located on the fifth floor and accessible via elevator.

Admission to Hoffman Press Box requires an issued credential only.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
Requests for working media credentials (print, electronic, photo) for 2025 Army Black Knights home games must be made online via GoArmyWestPoint.com located under the football page and only members of the working media will be granted credentials.

https://goarmywestpoint.com/sports/football

Anyone violating this media policy will be removed from the press box. Credentials will be mailed the week of the game. Those not mailed, or requested late, will be left at the "Will Call" window located at the box office at the Holleder Center (Basketball/Hockey). Proper identification will be required. Media gates to the stadium open three hours prior to kickoff.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
The NCAA has established a sideline control policy to keep those areas free from congestion. Only photographers on assignment and working members of the television media will be issued sideline passes. For admission to the sidelines at Michie Stadium, a photographers credential must be clearly displayed. Under NCAA rules, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside of the restraining lines surrounding the playing field.

The previous "Halftime" photographer work room is NO LONGER in use as of the 2024 season due to the Michie Stadium Preservation Project. The photo work room will be located OUTSIDE of MIchie Stadium, across the street in the Holleder Center's media room on the first floor. Media members can re-enter and exit Michie Stadium through Gate 7 to access the Holleder Center.

ARMY-NAVY CREDENTIALS
Questions on credentials for the Dec. 13, 2025, Army-Navy Game at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md., can be directed to Scott Strasemeier, Navy Senior Associate Athletic Director for Sports Information at sstrasem@usna.edu.

Credential Request Deadlines
All media requests made by noon on Monday, Nov. 24, will be mailed by standard U.S. mail. Requests received after that time will need to be sent via FedEx. All FedEx requests within this late time frame will need to be paid for by the media member or organization making the request.

The deadline to request credentials for the game is noon on Wednesday, Dec. 10.

RADIO INFORMATION
The U.S. Military Academy will provide one hardwired internet line for one visiting radio station, with commercial groups granted preference over student stations. The lines must be reserved through Eric Szczepinski.

The visiting radio booth in Hoffman Press Box is located on the second level, Room 214. For additional information on reserving phone lines, contact Nick DeGennaro at 845-938-6971.

FOOTBALL MEDIA POLICIES

PRACTICE COVERAGE
Members of the media are invited to attend practices at all times, unless prior notice of a closed practice is given. Video and photos are allowed only during individual portions of practice. A weekly media schedule with Head Coach, Coordinators and Player availability will be distributed via Football Communications. A member of the Athletic Communications staff must accompany media members at all practices and the use of cameras will be subject to Army West Point Football Photography Policy. To gain entry to West Point, media will need to attain the proper entry badge by stopping at the Visitor's Center, outside of Thayer Gate.

HEAD COACH MEDIA AVAILABILITY
Black Knights Head Coach Jeff Monken will be available to the media on a weekly basis on Tuesdays and postgame. The media availability will be held at Nowak Auditorium.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS
All Army West Point players will be available to the media following each practice during the 2025 season. Select players will be available via a post-practice press conference. Additional player requests will be individually scheduled around cadet-athlete availability.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
Head Coach Jeff Monken, quarterback, and select players will be available following each game during the 2025 season. While all postgame media availabilty for Army West Point home games will take place in the Nowak Auditorium, located just off the building's main entrance, press conferences will be conducted in-person and also on Zoom. The visiting locker room is located in the FEN Lacrosse Center for 2024 and 2025. Postgame interviews will be conducted in a room located in the FEN.

TRANSCRIPTS
Full transcripts of all Army West Point Black Knights media availability following games will be distributed and published via GoArmyWestPoint.com located in the Army football 'media center'. Opponent postgame transcripts will be subject to availability.

Army was named one of 11 recipients of the annual Super 11 Award for the 2024 season by The Football Writers Association of America. The award honors football programs and sports information departments that exemplify excellence in media relations.

Army Athletic Communications, led by primary football contact Eric Szczepinski and assisted by secondary contact Conor McCorry, spearheaded efforts during a historic and media-rich season for the Black Knights. The team won a program-record 12 games, captured the American Athletic Conference championship in its inaugural season as a league member, earned a spot in the College Football Playoff rankings for the first time, and saw quarterback Bryson Daily finish sixth in Heisman Trophy voting.

This award marked the first time Army's football communications department has been honored as part of the 'Super 11'.

In January of 2009, the FWAA released the first Super 11 Awards – a concept supported by the College Sports Communicators (formerly CoSIDA). The FWAA has now awarded at least one Super 11 Award to 82 different FBS programs.

CBS SPORTS

BLACK KNIGHTS ON TELEVISION

CBS Sports Network and the Army Athletic Association announced an exclusive five year agreement in 2021, guaranteeing live television coverage of every Army West Point home football game and select neutral-site games in which Army is the home team on CBS Sports Network, continuing through the 2028 season.

The deal was announced by David Berson, President, CBS Sports, and Mike Buddie, former Director of Athletics at West Point.

The partnership provides that all Army home football games will be played on Saturday afternoons. Additionally, a live web stream of all Army's home broadcasts will be made available free of charge to soldiers and military personnel around the world. Since the Jeff Monken era of Army Football began in 2014, the Black Knights have played on national television 122 times.

Army West Point is one of just three schools in the country guaranteed to have home games televised nationally. In addition to the Black Knights' home games, CBS will televise the Army-Navy Game, presented by USAA, to a worldwide audience for the 22nd consecutive season.

BLACK KNIGHTS ON RADIO

While owning one of the nation's most comprehensive television packages, Army boasts one of the country's most unique radio arrangements. All Army football games are available to listen free of charge on any mobile or desktop device through The Varsity Network app. A groundbreaking initiative launched by LEARFIELD in 2021, The Varsity Network provides a consistent home for listeners, wherever they are, and can be downloaded for free from any app store. Army West Point and its multimedia rights holder, Army West Point Sports Properties, continue with the Army Base Network to take Black Knight games and programming to military bases across the United States.

The list for 2025 includes 18 stations across seven different states. The Army Base Network will provide an exclusive opportunity for military personnel to hear Black Knight football games over the airwaves. Local flagship stations, WBNR 1260-AM and WLNA 1420- AM, air the weekly "This Week in Army Football" radio show, which originates from West Point's First-Class Club, throughout the season, as well as the popular "Army Football Tailgate Show". The fast-paced "Army Football Tailgate Show" originates from Black Knights Alley outside Michie Stadium on game days, beginning two hours prior to kickoff. The 90-minute show is heard from the press box at Army road venues before each of the Black Knights' away contests as well. For the eighth-straight season, all Army football games can also be heard through TuneIn radio. Fans can search for "Army Black Knights Sports Network" on the TuneIn app.

Complementing its local affiliate lineup, the Army Sports Network returns to Sirius XM Satellite Radio for its 21st season this fall, and for the 24th consecutive year, Army West Point's radiocasts can be heard via the internet. All ASN game calls, as well as "This Week in Army Football", the "Army Football Tailgate Show", pregame and postgame shows, weekly press conferences and postgame press conferences can be heard and/or viewed live online at GoArmyWestPoint.com. Rich DeMarco returns for his 21st year with the Army West Point Athletic Association. An Associate Athletic Director, DeMarco enters his 15th season calling football play-by-play. DeMarco has hosted Army's football coach's show, "This Week in Army Football," since 2004, handled sideline reporting duties for Army football broadcasts from 2004 to 2009, and previously hosted the "Army Football Tailgate Show." During the winter months, DeMarco serves as the play-by-play voice for the Army men's basketball team.

Joining DeMarco in the booth on football game days is veteran color analyst Dean Darling, who fans have listened to across the Army Sports Network for more than 40 years. Tony Morino enters his 14th year as sideline reporter, while Joe Beckerle returns as program host, continuing an affiliation with the Army Sports Network that has stretched for more than three decades. John Minko once again will be part of the "Army Football Tailgate Show" along Black Knights Alley for home games, while booth engineer Danny Ginsberg and spotter Will O'Toole round out the game day radio crew.

TOM THEODORAKIS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

4TH YEAR | 1ST AS AD | SYRACUSE, 2006

Tom Theodorakis was named the 31st Director of Athletics of Army West Point Athletics in February 2025.

Theodorakis was previously promoted to Army West Point's Deputy Athletics Director, External Operations & Chief Revenue Officer in 2024. He came to West Point as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Operations in July 2022. Throughout this time, he worked closely with former Athletic Director Mike Buddie as a member of Army Athletics' senior staff.

During his time as Deputy AD at West Point, Theodorakis led all external units for Army West Point Athletics which included the areas of Development (in the context of a $600M comprehensive campaign for the Academy), Strategic Communication (athletic communications, digital and social strategies, creative and video services, and broadcasting), Licensing and Branding, and Business Development & Revenue Generation (Marketing, Fan engagement, Ticketing, Ticket Sales, and Sponsorships).

Theodorakis previously served on the Athletics Director's Senior Leadership Team and Executive Staff and as the Sport Administrator for the Men's Basketball and Men's Lacrosse programs at Army. He also serves as a member of the Army-Navy Steering Committee that bids, organizes, and executes America's most traditional and enduring rivalry game in the sport of Football.

Theodorakis arrived at Army West Point with over 16 years of college athletics experience at the NCAA Division I level as an administrator, coach, and national champion student-athlete.

Most recently, he served as the Senior Associate Director of Development at Harvard University since 2021. At Harvard, he developed and implemented strategies in partnership with institutional leadership and served in a management role as a member of the athletics external leadership and revenue generation team focusing on all external facets including development, marketing, branding, licensing, broadcast, corporate sponsorships, and ticket sales.

Before his time at Harvard, Theodorakis spent six years at Arizona as the Associate Athletics Director for Development. While at Arizona, Theodorakis led a staff that contributed to over $67M in capital campaign support and served in several key leadership roles on the senior staff, sport administration, and revenue generation units. Theodorakis was responsible for strategic planning of revenue generation, focusing on all external facets of athletics and was also a sports administrator for several varsity programs. Theodorakis also worked on several other initiatives, including health and wellness and COVID-19 emergency response, among others.

Theodorakis was previously at UCLA, where he served as the Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs and supervised the day-to-day operations of the development office. He was integral in producing exponential growth in Westwood with the groundbreaking of two comprehensive training centers, the Wasserman Football Center, and the Mo Ostin Basketball Center.

Theodorakis poses with Brian Riley before his last home game as the head hockey coach on Feb. 22, 2025.

Before UCLA, Theodorakis spent five years in a first stint at Arizona as Assistant Athletics Director for Development. He was an important part of two major capital campaigns undertaken by Arizona Athletics, the state-of-art Lowell-Stevens Football Facility and Phase 1 of the McKale Center Renovation Project, while also serving as the Pac-12 conference representative for NACDA. Before Arizona, Theodorakis worked in the Marketing and Development office at the United States Air Force Academy and was a volunteer coach on the men's lacrosse team.

Theodorakis earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Syracuse University in 2006 where he was a four-year letter winner and member of the 2004 national champion men's lacrosse team. He received his master's degree in sport administration from the University of Northern Colorado in 2008. He is also a graduate of the Sports Management Institute (SMI) Executive Program and attended instruction at the University of Michigan Ross School of Business and the University of Texas McCombs School of Business. He is currently pursuing his Doctorate in Education Leadership at Arizona, focusing his dissertation on student-veterans in higher education, and was the recipient of the Distinguished Leadership Fellowship Award. Theodorakis and his wife Robyn, a former collegiate swimmer at Arizona State, have a daughter, Olivia.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP TEAM

DAN McCARTHY, PHD

DEPUTY ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

9TH YEAR | USMA, 1990

Dan McCarthy enters his ninth season working for Army West Point Athletics but has a lifelong roots at Army West Point.

McCarthy serves as the Deputy Athletics Director, Chief Operating Officer.

McCarthy has been instrumental in the 2024 groundbreaking of the Michie Stadium Preservation Project, a $170-million-dollar project that will rebuild and modernize the current East Stands, slated for completion in summer 2026.

He also played a pivotal role in helping the Army football team transition from being an FBS Independent to joining the American Athletic Conference (AAC), Army football's first conference affiliation in over 20 years. Along with that, he served as a scheduling puzzle master, helping cancel, reshuffle and move future opponents that had previously been scheduled under the Independent schedule to make way for the AAC schedule.

In his current role, McCarthy assists the Director of Athletics in setting the strategic vision for Army West Point Athletics and represents the athletic department in various governance functions within the United States Military Academy. McCarthy oversees the department's internal operations including game and event operations, team support, procurement and contracting, camps, and equipment operations for all 27 teams. He manages the department's capital projects that support the sustainment and modernization of athletic facilities as well as the construction of new facilities. He also leads the department's planning and operations efforts for the annual Army-Navy football game. In addition to serving as the Sport Administrator for the football, hockey, and baseball teams, he represents Army West Point as a member of the Patriot League Sports Management Committee and as a director of the Atlantic Hockey Association.

He was promoted to Deputy Athletic Director by Army West Point former Director of Athletics Mike Buddie in August 2019. He had previously served as the Senior Associate Athletic Director of Administration and was appointed as the Interim Director of Athletics in the Spring of 2019 during the transition to a new director of athletics.

McCarthy has been with the department since June 2017 and was added to former Athletic Director Boo Corrigan's executive staff before the 2018-19 academic year. McCarthy first joined the department as the Director of Football Operations on Head Coach Jeff Monken's staff after retiring from the military after 27 years of service, attaining the rank of Colonel. During his season as the Director of Football Operations, the team recorded its most successful season in program history up until that point with a 10-3 record, including wins over rivals Air Force and Navy winning the Commander in Chief's Trophy for the first time in 21 years. The team also won the Armed Forces Bowl to record back-to-back bowl wins for the first time in program history.

In 2018, McCarthy joined the executive staff as the Associate Athletic Director for Administration where he oversaw capital projects and the department's equipment staff while serving as the Sport Administrator for the men's soccer and softball teams. He later was given the responsibility of overseeing the Athletic Training and the Strength and Conditioning staffs for the department and serving as the Sport Administrator for the football team. He was later promoted to Senior Associate Athletic Director. During the 2018 season, the Army football team experienced its most successful season in program history recording its highest win total with an 11-3 record, winning the Commander in Chief's trophy in back-to-back seasons for the first time, and winning its third consecutive bowl game.

McCarthy is no stranger to West Point, having served for fifteen years on the faculty as an Academy Professor in the Department of Systems Engineering. During that time, he held several different positions including serving as the Director of the Systems Engineering Program, the Director of the Operations Research Center, and the Deputy Department Head.

He also served as the Head Officer Representative of the Army West Point sprint football team for more than eight years where he worked closely with the cadet-athletes in all aspects of their off-field development. McCarthy was involved in several strategic initiatives undertaken by the Academy and the athletic department during this time as well.

While assigned to West Point, McCarthy was deployed to Afghanistan in 2009 with the 82nd Airborne Division serving as the Chief of Assessments. He later deployed to Iraq in 2010 where he served as the Chief of Strategic Assessments for US Forces Iraq. His most recent deployment was in the spring of 2014 to Djibouti in support of the Combined Joint Task Force-Horn of Africa (CJTF-HOA).

A 1990 graduate of the United States Military Academy, McCarthy was a three-year letter winner on the Army Sprint Football team earning all-league honors his junior and senior years. During his three years with the program, the team won two league championships including his senior year when McCarthy served as team captain and led the squad to an undefeated season. Following his senior season, McCarthy was named an Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Scholar-Athlete. McCarthy later returned to the team from 2001 to 2003 as an assistant coach where he tutored the wide receivers and tight ends while also coaching the kicking specialists.

Following his graduation from West Point in 1990, McCarthy was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Aviation Branch. Following his completion of Flight School at Fort Rucker, Ala., he served as a flight platoon leader in the 1st Armored Division in Germany and deployed his platoon of Blackhawk helicopters to Mogadishu, Somalia, as part of Operation Restore Hope. He was later reassigned to the 82nd Airborne at Fort Bragg, N.C., and served in multiple capacities including Commander of the Headquarters Company and as the Brigade Personnel Officer for the Aviation Brigade of the 82nd.

After his time at Fort Bragg, McCarthy earned his Master's in Systems Engineering from the University of Virginia. Following graduate school, he returned to West Point as an assistant professor in the Department of Systems Engineering, where he served from 1999 to 2003. He then attended the Sloan School of Management at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology where he earned his Ph.D. in Management. He returned to USMA in 2006 and rejoined the Department of Systems Engineering as an Academy Professor where he served until he retired from the Army in 2017.

McCarthy and his wife Patty are the proud parents of four boys: Matthew, Shane, Michael, and Jack.

TRICIA BRANDENBURG

DEPUTY ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, CHIEF LEADERSHIP OFFICER & SENIOR WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

4TH YEAR | CORNELL, 1999

Brandenburg enters her fourth season with Army West Point Athletics, now as the Deputy Athletics Director, Chief Leadership Officer & Senior Woman Administrator, a title that she was elevated to in 2024.

She serves as the sport administrator for several programs including Football (secondary), Men's Soccer, Women's Basketball, and Wrestling.

Brandenburg joined the Army staff as the Executive Associate Athletics Director in August 2022 and added the Senior Woman Administrator designation in October 2022. As the SWA, Brandenburg represents Army West Point Athletics on various Patriot League and American Athletic Conference committees.

As the Executive Associate Athletics Director and SWA, Brandenburg is a member of the Athletics Director's Senior Leadership Team and Executive Staff, leads the sport administrator team and oversees the areas of Compliance, Sports Medicine, Sports Performance, and Nutrition.

In her time at Army West Point, Brandenburg implemented the Sport Administrator Mentoring Program, providing mid-level staff with opportunities to learn about sport administration while building a bench of sport administrators. She also currently serves as a member of the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions and the NCAA Division I Wrestling Championships Committee.

Brandenburg arrived at Army West Point with over 20 years of experience at the NCAA Division I level. For 10 years, Brandenburg served as the Deputy Director of Athletics and SWA at Towson University. During her stint at Towson, she also served as the Interim Director of Athletics.

At Towson, she developed and implemented a model for a sports performance team to improve the healthcare for student-athletes and reduce the time lost due to injury. She also initiated collaborative sport performance planning across high-performance areas while leading the Total Tiger Wellness program. Prior to Towson, Brandenburg also worked at Ohio University, the University of Massachusetts, Northeastern University and the NCAA.

A 1999 graduate of Cornell University, she received a Bachelor of Science degree from the School of Industrial & Labor Relations, where she also earned four varsity letters in wrestling as the team manager. She earned her Master of Science degree in Leadership (2008) and a Graduate Certificate in Nonprofit Management (2002) from Northeastern University.

Tricia graduated from the NCAA Fellows Leadership Program (2008), the Women Leaders in Sports Executive Institute (2009 & 2015) and the Towson University Professional Leadership Program for Women (2017). She has also served as an adjunct faculty member at Ohio University in the Department of Sports Administration and is a former President of the National Association for Athletics Compliance.

ABIGAIL HOWARD

DEPUTY ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER & GENERAL COUNSEL

4TH YEAR | OHIO STATE, 2005

Howard enters her fourth season with Army West Point Athletics.

In 2024 she was promoted to Deputy Athletics Director, Chief Administrative Officer & General Counsel.

She originally joined the Army staff in the fall of 2022 as Senior Associate Athletics Director & Corporate Counsel.

Howard arrived at West Point with over a decade of legal and administration experience spanning collegiate athletics, local government, and USA Swimming.

She oversees daily operations in the areas of legal affairs, employment contracts, policy & procedure, and diversity, equity & inclusion initiatives while consulting and providing guidance to the Director of Athletics on all matters of importance for Army West Point athletics. Howard serves as the sport administrator for selected programs.

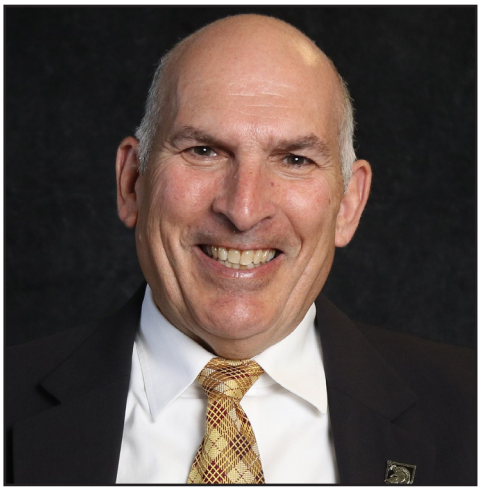
Before joining Army, Howard spent four years at USA Swimming, Inc. in Colorado Springs, Colo., most recently as the Senior Director for Legal & Membership Affairs. She was responsible for the strategic vision and implementation of USA Swimming's Safe Sport program, member services, diversity, equity and inclusion, and USA Swimming governance matters. She provided oversight and management to USA Swimming's Membership Affairs division.

Before joining USA Swimming, Howard was the Associate Commissioner for Legal, Governance and Compliance/Senior Woman Administrator for the America East Conference from 2016-18. She represented the conference in all legal matters including contractual negotiations, licensing and sponsorship agreements, policies and procedures, and labor and employment issues as in-house counsel. She administered the conference's compliance program, managed student-athlete academic programs, and coordinated NCAA legislation and governance strategy. She was the primary liaison to general counsels, senior woman administrators, compliance administrators, faculty athletics representatives, and academic advisors for the nine-member conference. She was also the sport administrator for men's and women's swimming and diving.

Howard also gained experience interpreting and enforcing rules while working at the NCAA office in the enforcement division. From 2008-12, she was the Assistant Director of Enforcement where she developed, investigated, and processed cases involving violations of NCAA Division I men's basketball recruiting legislation.

In between stints at the NCAA office and the America East Conference, Howard was the Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for the Marion County Prosecutor's Office in Indianapolis from 2013-16.

Howard earned a B.S.B.A. with honors in marketing, transportation and logistics from the Ohio State University in 2005. She was a four-year letterwinner on the women's swimming and diving team. She received her JD with a certificate in taxation from the University of Kansas School of Law in 2008.



PHIL BUTTAFUOCO

DEPUTY ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT & FAN EXPERIENCE

1ST YEAR | HOBART AND WILLIAM SMITH COLLEGES

Phil Buttafuoco was hired in March of 2025 as the new Deputy Athletics Director, Business Development & Fan Experience, after an extraordinary 18-year career with Kraft Sports + Entertainment.

He oversees all of AWPAA's external operations areas, including Strategic Communications (athletic communications, digital and social strategies, creative and video services, and broadcasting), Licensing and Branding, and Business Development & Revenue Generation (Marketing, Fan engagement, Ticketing, Ticket Sales, and Sponsorships).

Buttafuoco joined Army after spending the last 18 years (2007-2025) as the executive director of special events for Kraft Sports + Entertainment.

Most notably, he was responsible for the successful bid to bring the historic Army-Navy Game presented by USAA to New England and Gillette Stadium for the first time in 2023. He developed the game plan for the organizing committee (Boston, Foxborough, Providence) to establish new standards for America's Game and worked closely with key stakeholders from each service academy to ensure an exceptional experience and event was held.

Other notable events that he helped drive to Gillette Stadium include the 2016 NHL Winter Classic, five NCAA men's and women's lacrosse championships, high school and college football games, Super Bowl parades, and various international soccer matches including Copa America and Gold Cup competitions.

He was a primary driving force in securing the 2026 FIFA World Cup to be played in Boston and has been coordinating the stadium responsibilities with every internal department and numerous external entities along with FIFA and the Boston Soccer 2026 organization.

Buttafuoco has also worked closely with college athletics, serving as the commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (1998-2006) and the assistant director and senior assistant director of championships for the NCAA for 10 years (1988-98). As the commissioner of the ECAC, he was responsible for membership growth from 282 schools to 323 in five years and the establishment of new leagues for men's lacrosse. He developed the country's first online officiating assignment system to effectively communicate with members and officials.

He also spent 12 years (2005-2017) as the executive director for the Intercollegiate Men's Lacrosse Coaches Association (IMLCA), assisting in the creation of the association to serve men's college lacrosse coaches. He managed membership data and board of directors and committee responsibilities, leading the effort to host the annual IMLCA Convention. He also served as a liaison to the NCAA.

A native of Garden City, New York, Buttafuoco graduated from Hobart and William Smith Colleges with a bachelor's degree. Buttafuoco and his wife, Janet, have two sons, Nicholas (29) and Jameson (26).

This Week in Army Football — the weekly coach's show featuring Army West Point head football coach Jeff Monken — will kick off on Monday, August 25 from 7:00-8:00 p.m.

The show will air each Monday during football game weeks.

Radio listeners can tune in on the following local affiliates:

920 AM / 92.5 FM WGHQ in Kingston, NY
1260 AM / 96.5 FM WBNR in Beacon, NY
1420 AM / 94.3 FM in Peekskill, NY

The show is also available nationwide via the Varsity Network app, and fans can watch the live video stream on the Army West Point Athletics YouTube channel.

Army football play-by-play announcer Rich DeMarco will host the show, joined weekly by Coach Jeff Monken to recap the previous game and preview the upcoming opponent.

Special guests will also join throughout the season, including Army West Point Director of Athletics Tom Theodorakis and other Army Athletics head coaches.

This Week in Army Football will originate from the First Class Club at the United States Military Academy. The show begins at 7:00 p.m., and the general public is welcome to attend. Food and beverages will be available for purchase.

ARMY AND NAVY WILL BATTLE FOR THE 126th TIME ON DECEMBER 13 AT M&T BANK STADIUM

For the third time in its history, the 126th edition of the storied Army-Navy rivalry will find the Black Knights and Midshipmen playing at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md., on Dec. 13, 2025. Only 10 Division I-A rivalries have featured more games than the Army-Navy series.

This revered series began when Cadet Dennis Mahan Michie accepted a "challenge" from Naval Academy Midshipmen for a football game against the Cadets. That first contest was held on "The Plain" at West Point on Nov. 29, 1890. The more experienced Mids, who had been playing organized football since 1879, defeated the Cadets 24-0. Army has claimed victory in the two of the last three matchups, defeating the Mids this past season by a score of 17-11 from Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass., to secure the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy. 2022 saw the first-ever overtime contest between the two teams, with a game-winning field goal giving the Black Knights a 20-17 victory in double-overtime from Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia, Pa.

Other venues include: Municipal/John F. Kennedy Stadium (41), Franklin Field (18), Veterans Stadium (17), Lincoln Financial Field (14), Polo Grounds (9), West Point (4), Giants Stadium (4), Annapolis (3), M&T Bank Stadium (3), Yankee Stadium (2), Baltimore Stadium (2), FedEx Field/Northwest Stadium (2), Palmer Stadium (1), Soldier Field (1), Rose Bowl (1), MetLife Stadium (1), and Gillette Stadium (1).

The Army-Navy series has been tied on seven occasions (five times since 1979). The latest tie came following Navy's victory in 2004. The Mids' win in 2005 gave Navy its first edge in the series since 1993. Until winning in 1980 to break a 37-37-6 stalemate, Navy had not led in the series standing since 1921, just after the 24th meeting between the academies.

CBS Sports will remain the home for one of the greatest rivalries in sports, the Army-Navy Game presented by USAA, with a new all-encompassing 10-year deal extending the Network's multiplatform rights through 2038. The announcement was made in 2025 by David Berson, President & CEO, CBS Sports, Mike Buddie, former Director of Athletics at the United States Military Academy and Chet Gladchuk, Director of Athletics at the United States Naval Academy.

The extension of the partnership ensures that CBS Sports will remain the exclusive home of America's Game for more than four decades, as the Network has carried the game every year since 1996.

Service academy supremacy is at stake on the gridiron each season when Army, Navy and Air Force battle in a round-robin schedule for the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy.

This year, the Trophy enters its 54th season as the preeminent indicator of football bragging rights among the three major service academies.

The Black Knights took back the coveted trophy in 2023, marking the fourth time in the past seven seasons in which Army won the trophy outright. Army began its quest with a 23-3 rout over Air Force from Empower Field at Mile High in Denver. The win also ended #17 Air Force's undefeated season, having entered play 8-0, and marked Army's first win over a ranked opponent since 1972. Army then completed the mission to the secure the CIC with a 17-11 win over Navy from Gillette Stadium in Foxborough, Mass. on December 9th.

Army's also collected the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in 2020 when the Black Knights assured that the Trophy would return to its original home by shuting out arch-rival Navy 15-0 before trouncing Air Force 10-7 the following week. Both victories were earned at Michie Stadium, helping the team capture its third Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in four seasons. To help commemorate the Trophy's 25th birthday, President Bill Clinton was on hand at "The Vet" to present the Black Knights with the glimmering silver Trophy following their come-from-behind victory. It marked the first time that a standing President attended an Army-Navy clash since President Gerald Ford looked on in 1974 to see Navy defeat Army 19-0.

President George W. Bush witnessed the Army-Navy game in person three times during his two terms in office, attending the classic in 2001, 2004, and 2008. President Donald J. Trump was on hand for the 119th installment of the Army-Navy game played at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia in 2019 and then the following season at Michie Stadium at West Point for the first game played on West Point's campus in 77 years. Trump also attended the 2024 game, the 125th edition in Landover Md. as the president-elect.

Prior to 1996, Army had last acquired sole possession of the Trophy in 1988. In 1993, each team split its two academy games, marking only the fourth time that all three teams shared possession of the Trophy.

Army captured the inaugural Commander-in-Chief's Trophy by defeating Air Force, 17-14, and Navy, 23-15, in 1972.

The Trophy has resided at West Point in 1972, 1977, 1984, 1986, 1988, 1996, 2017, 2018, and 2020. Navy, which ruled the 1970s, has acquired sole ownership of the trophy nine times since 1981. The Mids captured the hardware seven straight seasons from 2003-09 before Air Force claimed the trophy in 2010, 2011 and won it in 2014, after Navy won two straight.

The Trophy is named in honor of the President of the United States as Commander-in-Chief of the armed forces. The three-sided structure, which weighs 170 pounds and stands 2 1/2 feet tall, is engraved with the seal of each academy and displays a reproduction of each school's mascot. The year in which the Trophy is won is engraved on the appropriate academy's side.

The idea for the establishment of an interservice football trophy originated with the late Gen. George B. Simler, commander of the Air Training Command and a former Air Force Academy athletic director. The 1972 season was seen as an appropriate time to consider such an idea since it also marked the first season of the round-robin competition among the three teams.

Simler proposed the idea to the USAFA Association of Graduates early in 1972. The Association, in turn, proposed the project to the alumni associations at West Point and Annapolis as suitable for joint sponsorship by the three institutions. Following formal adoption of the project, designs for the Trophy were sought from manufacturers.

After Army's inaugural title in 1972, Navy captured possession of the Trophy eight of the following nine years before Air Force first staked claim to the honor in 1982. The Trophy remained in the Falcons' possession the following season when they swept the Black Knights and Midshipmen.

Army recaptured the Trophy in 1984, its first outright title since 1977.

The Black Knights begin the quest for this year's CIC title on Nov. 1 when they take on Air Force at Falcon Stadium. Army will then square off against Navy on Dec. 13 at M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore, Md., home of the Baltimore Ravens.

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH JEFF MONKEN

12TH SEASON | MILLIKIN, 1989

Jeff Monken enters his 12th season leading the Army West Point football program in 2025, having been named the 37th head coach in program history on December 24, 2013.

Monken boasts an impressive career head coaching record of 118-73 (.618), including an 82-57 (.590) mark at Army.

Entering 2025, Monken and his Black Knights hold a 16-2 record in their last 18 games dating back to November 2023.

In the 2024 season, Jeff Monken led the Army Black Knights to a historic, record-breaking campaign. Army posted a 12–2 record, marking the first 12-win season in the program's 135-year history, and captured its first-ever conference championship, winning the American Athletic Conference (AAC) in its debut season as a league member. For his team's remarkable accomplishments, Monken was named AAC Coach of the Year.

Army's 12 wins also marked just the third time in history that a service academy recorded 12 or more victories in a season.

Monken garnered national recognition for his leadership, earning several prestigious honors, including:

- Andy Talley Regional Coach of the Year (Maxwell Football Club)
- Paul "Bear" Bryant Group of Five Coach of the Year
- AFCA Regional Coach of the Year
- ECAC Division I Coach of the Year

He was also a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year award.

The Black Knights broke onto the national stage in 2024, appearing in the College Football Playoff rankings for the first time and rising as high as #19 in late November. They also maintained a position in the AP Top 25 Poll for nine consecutive weeks, the program's longest such streak since being ranked every week during the 1958 season. Army concluded the season ranked #21 in the AP Poll, just the third time since 1996 the program has finished in the Top 25.

During the season, Army built a 13-game winning streak, the longest active streak in the nation before it ended with a loss to Notre Dame. It was Army's longest winning streak since the 1949–50 seasons, when the program was led by legendary coach Earl "Red" Blaik.

The Black Knights capped their storybook season with a victory over Louisiana Tech in the Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl.

Army was also perfect at home, going 6–0 in the regular season at Michie Stadium and 7–0 overall including the AAC Championship Game. It marked the fourth time under Monken (2017, 2018, 2020, 2024) that Army went undefeated at home. Under his leadership, the Black Knights boast a 45–17 (.725) home record from 2014 to the present.

Army also became just the sixth team in AAC history to go a perfect 8–0 in conference play, joining UCF (2013, 2017, 2018), Cincinnati (2021), Houston (2021), SMU (2023), and Tulane (2023).

Monken's squad was powered by senior quarterback Bryson Daily, who emerged as one of the nation's premier players. Daily led the NCAA with 32 rushing touchdowns, the most ever in a season by a quarterback, and shattered multiple Army records, including:

- Most touchdowns responsible for in a season
- Most rushing touchdowns in a season
- Most rushing touchdowns in a single game

Daily's remarkable season earned him sixth place in the Heisman Trophy voting, the highest finish by an Army player since Pete Dawkins won the award in 1958.

Monken has led Army to great success against the other service academies during his tenure, winning 13 of the last 18 contests against Air Force and Navy. This includes winning six of the last eight matchups vs. Air Force (2017, 2018, 2020, 2021, 2023, 2024) and six of the last nine against Navy (2016, 2017, 2018, 2020, 2022, 2023). Monken has captured five bowl-game victories (2016, 2017, 2018, 2021, 2024) and has led Army to win the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy—a series among the U.S. service academies—four times (2017, 2018, 2020, 2023) in the last eight seasons, also retaining the trophy in 2021.

Since 2017, Monken and the Black Knights have enjoyed a 68-34 (.667) win-loss record, the best among the service academy programs.

In 2023, Monken led Army to recapture the coveted Commander-in-Chief's Trophy for the 10th time in school history, awarded annually to each season's winner of the triangular rivalry series between Army, Air Force, and Navy. The CIC Trophy was Army's fourth in the past seven seasons at that time, as Army only had four combined in the previous 39 years.

The Black Knights rallied to win four in a row to end the 2023 season to finish 6-6, including over Air Force and Navy. One of the biggest victories in Monken's career and school history came as Army upset rival undefeated #17 AP-ranked Air Force, 23-3 at Empower Field at Mile High, snapping their 13-game winning streak which dated back to the previous season. The win was Army's first over an AP-ranked opponent since 1972, when it also defeated #19 Air Force. It was also Army's first win of 20 or more points vs. an AP-ranked opponent since 1958 beating #18 South Carolina, 45-8. It was only the second time that Army had beaten a team that entered the game 8-0 or better. The other instance was November 13, 1976, vs. Colgate, winning 29-13.

Monken's team was led by several notable contributors which included quarterback Bryson Daily, who started 10 games, becoming only the second Army QB to rush and pass for over 900 yards in a season. Daily accounted for a team-high 14 touchdowns (seven rushing, seven passing). Daily was joined by standout freshman running back Kanye Udoh in the backfield who was named the ECAC Division I FBS Rookie of the Year. Udoh rushed for 524 yards, trailing only Daily for the team lead. His 524 yards on the ground ranked 10th among all FBS freshmen in the country on the season.

Defensively, team captain Leo Lowin led the unit in tackles for the second consecutive season with 92 total tackles. He added 4.5 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks, and four forced fumbles that ranked tied for third most in the country. Lowin was also selected as one of 16 finalists for the William V. Campbell Trophy, college football's premier scholar-athlete award that annually recognizes an individual as the absolute best in the nation for his combined academic success, football performance and exemplary leadership. It is considered by many to be the "Academic Heisman" and nicknamed as such.

Thirteen players were selected to the 2023 Phil Steele Postseason All-Independent Team. Army saw four first-team selections, OL Connor Finucane, DB Quindrelin Hammonds, LB Leo Lowin, and DB Bo Nicolas-Paul. LB Jimmy Ciarlo, QB Bryson Daily, OL Jackson Filipowicz, TE Joshua Lingenfelter, K Quinn Maretzki, DB Jabari Moore, RB Kanye Udoh, DB Jabril Williams (Special Teams) and WR Isaiah Alston were named to the second team.

On September 18, 2023, Monken agreed to a multi-year contract extension with Army West Point.

In 2022, with a Week 3 home victory over Villanova, Monken logged his then 59th career win at Army West Point, breaking a tie with the legendary Army coach Charles Daly and surpassing his mark for second place on the Academy's all-time win list. First is Red Blaik with 121 career victories.

In the 2022 campaign, he led Army to overcome a difficult 1-4 start by winning five out of its last seven games to finish 6-6, culminating with a double-OT victory over arch-rival Navy, the first-ever overtime game in the history of the Army-Navy Game series. The win over Navy marked victories for Army in five of the last seven meetings since 2016. The offense was led by senior QB Tyhier Tyler, who posted a career-high 12 rushing touchdowns, which was second in the FBS by all quarterbacks. He also was the first Army quarterback with 10+ rushing touchdowns since Kelvin Hopkins Jr totaled 17 in 2018. The senior quarterback finishes his Army career with 24 rushing touchdowns, T-3rd most by an Army QB, which is also good for T-10th on Army's all-time rushing TD list. With Tyler primarily at the helm, the Black Knights ranked second in the country rushing for 289.4 yards per game. Army's 38 rushing touchdowns were tied for second-most only behind Tennessee (39).

The defense also saw consistent improvement throughout the season. During Army's 5-2 finish, the defense only gave up 15.0 points per game. During this span of the season, Army's 105 points allowed were tied for the sixth-fewest in the country. The special teams units made big plays throughout the season, including a punt return touchdown by Tyrell Robinson and two blocked punts for touchdowns against UConn and Navy. Army's three special teams TDs were second most in the FBS.

Seven Black Knights were selected to Phil Steele's Postseason All-Independent Team in first-team selections, C Connor Bishop, LB Andre Carter II, S Marquel Broughton, and Tyrell Robinson, who was selected as a punt returner. QB Tyhier Tyler, OL Connor Finucane and LB Leo Lowin were named to the second team. Additionally, Andre Carter participated in the Reese's Senior Bowl, a post-season college all-star game for top NFL prospects. Carter signed as an undrafted free agent with the Minnesota Vikings.

Outscoring all opponents 427-290 in 13 games in 2021, the Black Knights finished the season 9-4, recording the sixth winning season in the eight seasons under Head Coach Jeff Monken. The Black Knights' success led him to earn 2021 ECAC Coach of the Year honors.

The Black Knights won a fourth-consecutive Armed Forces Bowl in their fifth Bowl game in six years. Facing Missouri for the first time in 40 years, the Black Knights secured their fourth Armed Forces Bowl victory in 11 years. The win also marks as Army's first win against an SEC opponent since 2009. The Black Knights started the season 4-0 for the first time in 25 years as well as having an unbeaten record in November, accounting for only the third time in 21 years to mark the feat, two of those coming under Monken (2018, 2021). A dynamic Black Knight explosive attack was led by QB Christian Anderson who threw five touchdowns for 34 yards-or-more, while also rushing for the most single-game yards by a quarterback in the NCAA with 236 (Week 4). Anderson also marked three 50 yard-or-more rushing touchdowns. 2021 also saw Army's first Associated Press All-American in 31 years, where LB Andre Carter's career-high 15.5 sacks set a new Academy record for total sacks in a single season. Carter was additionally named an All-American by Phil Steele, marking also as an Academy first. Nine Black Knights were selected to Phil Steele's All-Independent Team, along with Team Captain LB Arik Smith selected as the 2021 Defender of the Nation and to the Associated Press All-Bowl Team. Smith, the team's leading tackler in back-to-back seasons was also a Campbell Trophy semifinalist and the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl MVP.

The 2020 season Monken led the Black Knights to post a 9-3 record including rivalry wins over both Navy and Air Force. Army was led by the nation's top defensive unit, as the Black Knights ranked first in the FBS in Total Defense, allowing only 275.3 yards per game. The Black Knights also ranked in the country's top five in scoring defense (2nd - 14.83 ppg), red-zone defense (2nd - .645 scoring pct.), and passing yards allowed (2nd - 160.8 ypg).

On the offensive side of the ball, Army displayed one of the most successful and diverse rushing attacks in the country thanks to Monken's triple-option scheme. The Cadets totaled over 250 rush yards in seven contests, including 441 vs Abilene Christian (Oct.3) and 439 vs. Louisiana-Monroe (Sep. 12). Those marks were good for the 6th and 7th highest totals in a single game in the FBS during the 2020 season, respectively. Paced by a balanced rushing attack, the Cadets dominated time-of-possession over their opposition in 2020, holding the ball for an average of 34 minutes per game. The 2020 season started strong, as the Black Knights defeated Middle Tennessee State, 42-0, in the season opener, the first Army shutout since blanking Air Force in Colorado Springs, Colo., 21-0, on Nov. 4, 2017. The 42-0 victory was Army's largest shutout victory over an FBS school since 1963, when it defeated Wake Forest, 47-0. In the 2020 version of America's Game, Army's defensive unit held Navy's rushing attack to just 108 yards, the least amount of rushing yards by the Mids since 2001. The 15-0 shutout of Navy was the first time since Nov. 29, 1969, that Army shut out the Mids. The 2020 Commander-in-Chief Trophy Champions also climbed into the national rankings throughout the season, twice finding themselves in the AP Top 25 (22nd - Weeks 3-4). It was just the fourth time since 1970 that Army won at least six games in its first seven tilts. Monken coached several players to postseason honors in 2020 including USA Today Second-Team All-American Jon Rhattigan.

The 2019 season featured five wins for the Black Knights as Army averaged 297.2 rushing yards per game (3rd nationally) and had 3,863 net rushing yards total (3rd). The Black Knights' 45 rushing scores were tied for second in the nation, while their 5.2 yards per rush was 17th. The Black Knights were fifth nationally in passing defense (178.9), tied for 27th in fumble recoveries (10), 27th in first downs allowed (234) and 30th in total defense (342.3). West Point was eighth nationally in fewest penalty yards per game (38.2) and 12th in fewest penalties per game (4.6). Army is now 17-2 in its last 19 games played at Michie Stadium dating back to the 2016 season. The Cadets' 3,863 yards on the ground this season was good for sixth in program history at the time. In the VMI win, Army finished with 594 rushing yards, good for third-most in program history and the most since Nov. 18, 1989, vs. Colgate. Army's defense held UMass to 125 total yards, a program record for the fewest allowed to an FBS opponent. UMass was limited to just 19 yards in the second half. The Black Knights held the Minutemen to 26 rushing yards on 26 attempts, the fewest since allowing 10 to Lafayette on Oct. 15, 2016.

In 2018, Monken led the Cadets to a historic year as his squad became nationally ranked in early November for the first time in 22 years (1996). They remained in the Top-25 throughout the rest of the season and finished ranked No. 19 in the Associated Press Poll and No. 20 in the Amway Coaches Poll. The year was highlighted by a program-record 11 wins, marking the first time in Academy history the Black Knights registered 10-plus wins in back-to-back seasons. Army also won the Commander-in-Chief's trophy in consecutive seasons for the first time in program lore, while also garnering the Lambert Trophy for the first time in 60 years. The Black Knights became the first three-time winner of the Armed Forces Bowl as well that season after they routed Houston, 70-14, on Dec. 22. The 70 points put up by Army in that contest tied an FBS record for points scored in a bowl game. To cap the 2018 season, the Cadets won 13 games in a row at home and finished their second-straight season going unbeaten at Michie Stadium. They held five consecutive opponents to 14 or fewer points to end the year as well and finished 11-0 when leading at the half. Army closed the year ranked first nationally in third down conversion percentage (.571), fourth down conversion percentage (.861), and time of possession (38:33), while also sitting second in rushing offense with 312.5 yards per game. Twelve cadet-athletes were named to Phil Steele's All-Independent Team, and Monken received national praise after winning the George Munger Collegiate Coach of the Year Award and the Vince Lombardi Award for National College Coach of the Year. He was also named a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant and Eddie Robinson Awards for Coach of the Year.

In 2017, Monken led Army to its most successful season in over two decades, earning 10 victories, the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy, and a victory in the Armed Forces Bowl. The Black Knights won the NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision rushing title by averaging 362.3 rushing yards per game and finished with 50 rushing touchdowns, which broke the program record for a single season set a year prior. On the other side of the ball, Army was third in the nation in red zone defense and 14th against the pass. The Black Knights held opponents to 22 points per game, ending Air Force's 306-game scoring streak with a 21-0 victory at Falcon Stadium. It was the first shutout against a service academy since 1969. The Black Knights were also rewarded for their success as the ECAC Division I FBS Team of the Year.

The 2016 season was a memorable one for the Black Knights under Monken. He led them to their first win over Navy since 2001 and a victory in a Bowl game. The last time the Black Knights accomplished both feats in the same season was in 1984. Army was second in the nation in rushing offense and ran for a then Academy single-season 46 touchdowns, which eclipsed the 1945 national championship team. Defensively, Army was consistently in the top-10 in total defense and closed out the year fourth in the nation.

In 2015, Monken coached Army to a pair of wins over Bucknell and Eastern Michigan. The Black Knights had five players reach 100 yards rushing in a game that year and had three different quarterbacks throw for 100 yards. Signal callers Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter ran and threw for 100 yards in their career debuts. Army won on the road for the first time since 2010 with a 58-36 win over Eastern Michigan as well. The Black Knights closed the season ranked 12th in the country in rushing offense at 244.3 yards per game. Linebacker Andrew King finished 21st in the nation in tackles for loss with an average of 2.1 per game and 26th in fumbles recovered with two.

In his first season at Army, Monken guided the Cadets to home victories over Buffalo, Ball State, and Fordham, in addition to a dramatic win against Connecticut at Yankee Stadium. Under his guidance, running back Larry Dixon, linebacker Jeremy Timpf, defensive back Josh Jenkins, and offensive lineman Matt Hugenberg earned 11 citations on postseason all-star teams. Two players, Joe Drummond and Dixon, competed in The Medal of Honor Bowl Game and East-West Shrine Game, respectively, as well. Army was fifth in the country in rushing offense at 296.5 yards per game in Monken's inaugural season and sixth in fewest penalties per game with just 4.08 infractions per contest. Timpf was seventh in the nation in solo tackles per game and 23rd in tackles per game. Dixon was nationally ranked in rushing yards per carry (30th), rushing yards (39th) and rushing yards per game (41st). With the Black Knights' 47-39 win against Buffalo, Monken became the first head coach to win his first game since Bob Sutton did so in 1991 with a victory over Colgate.

Monken came to the banks of the Hudson River following a successful stint as head coach at Georgia Southern. He spent four seasons as head coach of the Eagles after learning the triple-option offense under one of the nation's premier option proponents, , during assistant coaching stints at Navy and Georgia Tech.

In his four seasons at Georgia Southern, Monken authored a 38-16 mark and spearheaded the program's transition to the elite Football Bowl Subdivision level from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) ranks. Georgia Southern, which joined the Sun Belt Conference following Monken's tenure, was a member of the FCS and qualified for the NCAA playoffs in all three eligible seasons under him. The Eagles advanced to the national semifinals each year, while also posting double-digit victory totals. Monken guided tradition-rich Georgia Southern to some of the biggest wins in school history, with the most memorable arguably being a 26-20 victory at Florida at the vaunted "Swamp." Despite that headline-grabbing victory, the Eagles were not eligible for the FCS playoffs that season due to their transitional status.

A finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Monken guided the Eagles to 10 wins his first season, 11 in his second and 10 in his third. His 2013 squad posted a 7-4 mark, including the stunning, season-ending upset of Florida in Gainesville. Under Monken's guidance, Georgia Southern was one of the top rushing teams at the FCS level, claiming the NCAA rushing title in 2012 at 399.36 yards per contest. Walter Payton Award candidate Jerick McKinnon and running back Dominique Swope established the NCAA record for rushing yards by teammates with 3,063.

Georgia Southern was ranked No. 1 in both FCS polls for seven weeks in 2011 and stopped Wofford, 31-10, to win its ninth Southern Conference championship. Five players were named All-America, Brent Russell was selected Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Monken earned conference Coach of the Year plaudits and Swope was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. Home playoff wins against Old Dominion and Maine were part of the Eagles' memorable 11-3 campaign. Monken got off to a great start in his first year a Georgia Southern, knocking off top-ranked and previously unbeaten Appalachian State en route to a 10-5 season. The Eagles ended the year with three straight wins to qualify for the postseason and registered three playoff victories to advance to the national semifinals.

Monken was named Georgia Southern's head coach in November of 2009, continuing a family history of football coaches. Jeff's father, Mike, and a dozen family members have coached at the high school, collegiate or professional ranks. Monken's first head coaching job came after accumulating 20 years of experience as an assistant, 13 of them with his mentor Paul Johnson. Monken coached slotbacks at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001 before joining Johnson first at Navy and then Georgia Tech.

As an assistant coach at Georgia Southern, Monken was part of two NCAA FCS National Championship squads (1999 and 2000) and five-straight playoff teams. Georgia Southern was among the top-five rushing teams in all five seasons and twice led the nation in rushing. The Eagles ranked in the top-15 in scoring four out of five seasons as well.

After serving as an assistant at Georgia Southern, Monken accepted a position on Johnson's coaching staff at Navy. Monken not only mentored slotbacks, but he also later added special teams coordinator duties. In Annapolis, Monken helped the Midshipmen to five straight Commander-in-Chief's trophies and five consecutive bowl game appearances, including a 10-win season in 2004. Following his time at Navy, Monken moved to Georgia Tech where for two seasons he served as the slotbacks coach and special teams coordinator. The Yellow Jackets posted double-digit wins in 2009 and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, although that title was later vacated. Monken began his coaching career in 1989 as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i and later spent one season at Arizona State. Monken moved to Buffalo as the wide receivers and tight ends coach who also handled recruiting. He served on the staffs at Morton (Ill.) High School as the head coach and at Concordia University in Illinois as the offensive line coach.

A native of Joliet, Ill., Monken played wide receiver for four years and earned two varsity letters in track and field while earning his bachelor's degree from Millikin University in 1989. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame in October 2013 and collected his master's degree from Hawai'i in 1991.

Monken and his wife Beth reside at West Point with their three daughters, Isabelle, Amelia, and Evangeline.

CODY WORLEY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS

6TH SEASON | FURMAN, 2010

Cody Worley enters his sixth season on the Army coaching staff and second as the offensive coordinator in 2025.

Worley originally joined the staff as the team's quarterbacks coach in 2020.

In his first season as the offensive coordinator in 2024, Worley orchestrated one of the best offensive seasons in program history. Worley's offense placed first in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 300.5 yards per game, first nationally in time of possession and second nationally in passing yards per completion (17.09). Army's 300.5 rushing yards per game average was the best mark for the Black Knights since 2018, averaging 312.5 yards per game. Army became just the fifth FBS team since 2000 to run for 200+ rushing yards and 2+ rushing touchdowns in each of its first 12 games.

Army's 4,207 total rushing yards, including 1,659 yards from senior quarterback Bryson Daily, rank fourth in program history and are one of only six times an Army team has rushed for 4,000 or more yards in a season.

His unit was led by Daily, who emerged as one of the top players in the nation, leading the NCAA with 32 rushing TDs, the most ever in a season by a quarterback. Daily shattered long-standing Army program records such as touchdowns responsible for in a season, rushing touchdowns in a season, and rushing touchdowns in a single game on his way to finishing sixth place in the Heisman voting, Army's highest finisher in the esteemed award since Pete Dawkins won in 1958. Daily took home AAC Offensive Player of the Year honors and was ranked as the No. 39 college football player out of 100 for the 2024 season by ESPN.

Paving the way for Daily was the best offensive line in the country. Worley's starting five of senior LT Connor Finucane, sophomore LG Paolo Gennarelli, sophomore C Brady Small, senior RG Bill Katsigiannis, and senior RT Lucas Scott were recipients of the Joe Moore Award, given to the most outstanding offensive line unit in college football. This historic achievement marked the first time a unit from a military academy or the Group of five has received this prestigious honor. Army managed to still lead the nation in rushing despite facing the highest percentage of plays (80.2%) with eight or more defenders stacked against them in the box. The offensive line's consistency and execution were unmatched, allowing the fewest percentage of rushes for zero or negative yards (11.0%) since 2020 by an FBS team.

Daily's 1,659 rushing yards led the offensive rushing attack and were the second most by a player in an Army season, only bested by Ahmad Bradshaw (2017, 1,746). Army's 48 rushing touchdowns as a team rank second in program history (2017, 50).

One of Worley's highlights came in October when the offense was firing on all cylinders, scoring 40 or more points in four consecutive games (Temple, Tulsa, UAB, and East Carolina). It was the first time Army accomplished this feat since 1945.

Worley and his unit made their mark by capitalizing and striking early in games. Army began the season by scoring an opening drive touchdown in the first seven games. Additionally, Army became just the third FBS team to score a touchdown on each of its first two possessions through four games of a season over the last 20 seasons, joining Tulsa (2008) and Baylor (2013).

In January 2024, Worley was promoted to offensive coordinator while still serving as the quarterbacks coach.

Before the 2023 season, Worley was promoted to run game coordinator/quarterbacks.

In 2023, Worley oversaw the development of junior quarterback Bryson Daily, who started 10 games and played in 11 for the Black Knights, becoming only the second Army QB to rush and pass for over 900 yards in a season, joining Kelvin Hopkins Jr. (2018). Daily accounted for a team-high 14 touchdowns (seven rushing, seven passing). Daily passed for 913 yards and seven TDs and rushed for a team-high 901 yards and seven TDs. Daily's best performance came in a victory over Air Force when he finished with 170 rushing yards (the most vs. Air Force since Ahmad Bradshaw's 265 yards in 2017) and had two rushing scores to become one of four Army players to rush for over 150 yards and rush for two touchdowns vs. Air Force (since 1996), joining Carlton Jones (2004, 213 yards, two TDs), Michael Wallace (2000, 201 yards, three TDs) and Joseph Hewitt (1996, 161 yards, two TDs). Daily was also the first Army ballcarrier to rush for 150+ yards in a game and two touchdowns since Christian Anderson did so in 2021 vs. Miami (Ohio).

Daily's 170 rushing yards were the most vs. Air Force since Ahmad Bradshaw's 265 yards in 2017.

In 2022, Worley helped the Army quarterbacks set several record-breaking marks, including passing for the first 300-yard game vs. UTSA since 2007. Additionally, Army completed touchdown passes of 54 yards and 73 yards at Coastal Carolina. It was the first time since 2002 that Army had completed two touchdown passes over 54 yards in the same game. Following the season, senior quarterback Tyhier Tyler was named Second Team Phil Steele All-Independent, rushing for a career-best 663 yards and 12 touchdowns. He also threw for 301 yards and two passing touchdowns.

In 2021, Worley aided Senior Christian Anderson to his best season at West Point, totaling career bests in rushing yards (619), rushing TDs (8), passing yards (713), passing yards per attempt (11.3), and passing TDs (5).

In his first season with the Black Knights in 2020, Worley helped bring stability to a position that saw five different players start a game. The quarterback room was decimated by injuries a season prior, but thanks to the veteran leadership of Worley and his staff, Army's QB room led the squad to a 9-3 record and its third Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in the past four seasons.

- Worley played collegiately at Furman,where he threw for 1,496 yards and 19 touchdowns as a senior in 2010.

MILESTONES

- RII Sports Technology 2024 Graphite Award, (Most efficient offensive play caller)
- 1st in the nation in rushing offense (2024, 300.5 ypg.)
- 1st nationally in time of possession (2024)
- 2nd nationally in passing yards per completion (2024, 17.09)
- 3rd nationally in fewest penalties (2024, 45)
- 12-2 record as an offensive play-caller.
- Mentored successful Army QB's such as: Bryson Daily, Tyhier Tyler, and Christian Anderson.

Worley coached a group of signal callers that helped Army finish as the fourth-best rushing offense in the country after averaging 273 yards per game in 2020. His group of QBs also helped Army start the season 6-1, which was just the fourth time in program history a team won six of its first seven contests.

Under his guidance, Tyhier Tyler became an All-Independent talent and led the Cadets to five wins, including two over service academy rivals Air Force and Navy.

Worley came to West Point after a six-year stint at Kennesaw State, where he was the quarterbacks coach.

In 2019, Kennesaw State had the No. 1 FCS rushing offense, having averaged 342.4 yards per game. The Owls quarterbacks additionally averaged 21.4 yards per completion, which was also the highest in the nation. Under Worley's mentorship, Chandler Burks has emerged as one of the top quarterbacks in the nation, earning back-to-back Big South Offensive Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year accolades in 2017 and 2018, the first player in conference history to earn both awards in the same season. He also became the first player in league history to finish with both 1,000 yards rushing and passing during the 2017 campaign.

A runner-up for the 2018 Walter Payton Award, Burks led all Division I (FCS or FBS) rushers with 29 touchdowns on the ground to tie the Big South single-season record. He led the FCS in scoring (174 points) and points responsible for (18.3 per game) while ranked fourth in the Big South for rushing yards (905) and total offense (149.8 yards/game).

Worley also mentored the development of reserve QB Daniel David, who stepped in to log 31 completions for 629 yards and five touchdowns while accounting for 388 rushing yards and six touchdowns on the ground. In 2017, David was crucial in securing a road win over Duquesne, helping lead the Owls to a comeback victory after Burks was hurt in the first half.

In the 2016 season, Kennesaw State's quarterback trio of Burks, White, and David accounted for 1,100 rushing, 18 rushing TDs, 1,719 yards passing, and 17 passing TDs with just six interceptions.

The Owls also received major production from the B-back position with Jake McKenzie racking up 415 yards on the ground in 2018, finishing his career with 1,932 total yards.

Worley came to Kennesaw State staff after coaching the quarterbacks and B-backs at The Citadel in 2013. He served the previous two years (2011 and 2012) as the Bulldogs' quality control coach.

During the 2013 season, Worley mentored senior quarterback Ben Dupree, who surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark while tying The Citadel's single-season touchdown record of 21 after rushing for 18 scores and passing for three. His 18 rushing touchdowns were a single-season record by a quarterback.

Worley was also instrumental in developing senior B-back Darien Robinson into a 2013 TSN Second Team All-America selection. Robinson led the Bulldogs with 183 receiving yards and was second on the team with two touchdown receptions. He rushed for 987 rushing yards and seven touchdowns.

Worley played collegiately at Furman, where, as a senior in 2010, he threw for 1,496 yards and accounted for 19 touchdowns. He merited a spot on the Southern Conference's Academic Honor Roll in 2007-08 and received his bachelor's degree in communication studies from Furman in December 2010.

He completed work on a master's certification in health, exercise, and sport sciences from The Citadel in July 2012.

Worley and his wife, Adrienne, were married on April 11, 2015. They reside at West Point with their two daughters, Parker (6) and Reese (4), and their son, Rollins.

NATE WOODY

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

6th SEASON | WOFFORD, 1984

A 34-year coaching veteran and a coordinator for 23 years, Nate Woody enters his sixth season with the Black Knights in 2025.

Woody came to West Point in 2020 after stints as a defensive analyst at Michigan (2019), defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach at Georgia Tech (2018), defensive coordinator at Appalachian State (2013-17) and defensive coordinator at Wofford (2000-12).

Woody has played a major role in Army's recent success against service academy rivals Air Force and Navy, helping the Black Knights to a 7-3 record since 2020. In the 10 service academy games in his tenure, Woody's defense has yielded an average of only 11.6 points per game to the Falcons and Midshipmen, holding them to 11 points or less in five of the 10 contests.

Furthermore, Woody's unit has not allowed Air Force to score a touchdown in the last nine quarters of play against them and has only allowed two field goals (six points) in the last two meetings versus the Falcons. Army has forced nine turnovers in the last two meetings vs. Air Force (six, 2023 and three, 2024).

Woody's defense played an instrumental role in the historic 2024 season, which saw Army win a program-record 12 games and win the American Athletic Conference Championship. The Black Knights' defense ranked first nationally in red zone defense. The defense finished with the best red zone mark in the country, only allowing 24 red zone scores (only 18 touchdowns) in 40 opponent opportunities (60.0%).

Army also finished an impressive fourth nationally (first in AAC), only allowing 15.5 points per game. It marked only the third season since 1996 (1996, 2020, 2024) that an Army defense surrendered under 220 total points on the season, and Army played its longest season ever, playing in 14 total games.

The defense also led the AAC in the fewest total yards allowed per game (297.9), the only team to yield 300 or fewer per game in the conference.

The defense was led by strong secondary play by safeties Max DiDomenico and Casey Larkin as the secondary logged 18 interceptions, the sixth most in the country, and it was Army's most interceptions in a season since 1988. DiDomenico was named to the AAC-All Conference First Team.

The middle of the Army defense was anchored by strong linebacking play from juniors Andon Thomas and Kalib Fortner. Thomas posted 98.0 tackles and Fortner 81.0 to pace the unit. Coming off the edge was sophomore Elo Modozie who led the team with 6.5 sacks.

Army's defense also went on an impressive stretch of holding opponents to under 14 points in 10 of 14 games. Army's defense held its opponents to 14 or less in seven straight games from Navy (2023) through UAB (10/12/24). It was Army's longest streak of holding its opponent to 14 or less since between the 1966-67 seasons when Army did so eight times.

Army's defense did not yield a touchdown in two consecutive games (Air Force and North Texas). The eight-quarter stretch was the longest by an Army defense since not allowing a touchdown in two consecutive games in 1984.

In 2023 Woody's defense was instrumental in the Black Knights' four-game winning streak to conclude the season. In Army's four wins to end the season (Air Force, Holy Cross, Coastal Carolina and Navy) the defense only gave up an average of 12.25 points per game. Woody's unit also had major performances in both service academy games, only allowing three points to Air Force and 11 points to Navy, marking only the fourth time in school history that the Army defense held both Navy and Air Force to 11 points or fewer in the same season (1981, 1986, 2020, 2023), as two of those have come under Woody. The Army defense finished as the 18th best redzone defense in the country, only allowing 16 TDs in 34 red zone opportunities by opponents.

His defense was led by major contributions from team captain LB Leo Lowin, S Quindrelin Hammonds, LB Kalib Fortner and CB Bo Nicolas-Paul. Lowin led the unit in tackles for the second consecutive season with 92 total tackles. He added 4.5 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, and four forced fumbles that ranked tied for third most in the country. LB Kalib Fortner, Lowin's understudy, made the biggest defensive play of the season on the biggest stage in the Army-Navy Game, strip-sacking Navy QB Tai Lavatai in the fourth quarter, picking up the fumble and returning it 44 yards for an Army touchdown to take a 17-3 lead, marking the first defensive touchdown scored by Army vs. Navy since 1958. Fortner was selected as the game MVP, also recording 10 tackles. Hammonds became the third Army defender (since 2005), to record a final stat line of at least 60+ tackles, 4+ TFLs, 2+ sacks, 3 INTs and 4 PDs, joining former Army defenders Elijah Riley (2019) and Brandon Jackson (2015). Nicolas-Paul recorded a career-high three interceptions which was tied for the team-high and had 33 tackles (23 solo), and two PDs.

In 2022, the defense saw consistent improvement throughout the season behind Woody. During Army's 5-2 finish, the defense only gave up 15.0 points per game. During this span, Army's 105 points allowed were tied for the sixth fewest in the country. Army's pass defense was also stellar throughout the entire season, finishing as the third-best pass defense in the country, yielding only 160.0 passing yards per game. Woody's defense played a big role in the standout seasons of senior safety Marquel Broughton and junior linebacker Leo Lowin. Broughton, a two-time team captain totaled a career-high 88 tackles (46 solo), three interceptions, eight passes defensed, three tackles for loss, and forced two fumbles. His season totals marked the first time since 2014 (Jeremy Timpf) an Army defender has had 85+ tackles and 3+ INTs in a campaign. He finished his Army career with seven interceptions, which is tied for 2nd most by all Army defenders in interceptions since 2000, only trailing Donovan Travis, 2008-10 (11). After the season, Broughton was a first-team Phill Steele All-Independent selection. Lowin, accumulated a team-high 100 tackles, marking the first Army player to surpass 100+ tackles since Cole Christiansen (112) in 2019. He was also one of only three FBS players to record 100+ tackles, 3+ sacks, and 2+ INTs on the season.

MILESTONES

- Broyles Award nominee (2015, 2024)

- His Army defense has yielded an average of only 11.6 points per game against Air Force and Navy.
- Has held service academy rvials to 11 points or less in five of the 10 contests in his tenure.

In 2021, Woody oversaw a defensive unit that surrendered under 20 points in five straight games to close out the season before the Armed Forces Bowl. The unit finished 15th in the country in total defense, only giving up 328.4 yards per game. They also finished 38th in the county yielding 211.1 passing yards per game. Woody's unit was led by OLB Andre Carter who logged 15.5 sacks, which was second in the nation and the most in Army history beating Josh McNary's mark of 12.5 sacks in 2009. Carter went on to become the first Associated Press All-American in 31 years.

In his first season as the defensive coordinator, Woody helped Army finish as the nation's top defense, allowing just 275.3 yards per game in 2020. The Cadet's 9-3 record was powered by Woody's defensive 3-4 scheme that helped the Black Knights dominate in both the passing and ground game. Army allowed the second-fewest passing yards in the nation, giving up only 160.8 yards per game. Additionally, Woody's run-stopping unit finished 18th in the country allowing only 114.6 yards per game on the ground against a schedule full of run-heavy offenses. The Black Knights also ranked in the country's top five in scoring defense (2nd - 14.83 ppg), red-zone defense (2nd - .645 scoring pct.) and passing yards allowed (2nd - 160.8 ypg).

Woody helped Army bring the Commander-In-Chief's Trophy back to West Point in his first season as the defensive coordinator, after his defense held Navy (W, 15-0) and Air Force (W, 10-7) to a combined seven points. The 15-0 shutout of Navy was the first time since Nov. 29, 1969, that Army shut out the Mids in America's Game. Led by Woody and a veteran defensive unit, the Black Knights defense held their opponents to fewer than 10 points six times this season, a feat that had not been accomplished since 1966. Under Woody's guidance, six Cadets earned spots on the Phil Steele 2020 All-Independent Team, including Second-Team All-American John Rhattigan. Woody brought his attacking 3-4 scheme to Army which he used to run Georgia Tech's defense in 2018. He worked under then Georgia Tech head coach Paul Johnson, whom Monken was an assistant coach for with the Yellowjackets (2008-09), at Navy (2002-07) and at Georgia Southern (1997-01).

In 2018, the Yellowjackets' defense had a nose for the football, as they were tied for fifth nationally in fumble recoveries (13), tied for 16th in total takeaways (25) and tied for 17th in defensive touchdowns (3).

Woody directed Appalachian State's defense for five seasons. He took over a defense in 2013 that ranked eighth in the nine-team FCS Southern Conference in total defense the season before his arrival. Under Woody's leadership, his unit led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense three times and ranked among the top 30 in NCAA Division I FBS each of his last four campaigns at Appalachian State (2014-17).

Over his final three seasons at Appalachian State, the Mountaineers had average FBS national rankings of 15th in scoring defense, 19th in total defense, 28th in rushing defense, and 28th in passing defense. Appalachian State also averaged 24 takeaways, 19 interceptions and 35 sacks per season over the last three campaigns.

During those three years, the Mountaineers won 30 games, two Sun Belt championships and became the first program to ever win bowl games in each of its first three seasons at the FBS level.

Appalachian State blanked Mid-American Conference champion Toledo, 34-0, at the 2017 Dollar General Bowl. The Mountaineers limited the nation's eighth-ranked offense to just 146 total yards (364 yards below the Rockets' season average) and had four takeaways.

Prior to Appalachian State, Woody spent the first 22 years of his collegiate coaching career at his alma mater, Wofford (1988-93, 1997-2012), including 13 successful seasons as defensive coordinator (2000-12).

In his 13 seasons leading the Wofford defense, Woody built one of the Southern Conference's most successful units. Wofford led the SoCon in total defense three times under Woody's direction, including twice in his last three campaigns with the Terriers (2010 and 2012), and produced nine all-Americans and three SoCon Defensive Players of the Year.

In his final season at Wofford, the defense allowed just 16.6 points, 125 rushing yards and 305.9 total yards per game, good for top in the SoCon in all three categories. The Terriers ranked among the top 10 in the FCS in total defense twice in his last three seasons — seventh in 2010 and ninth in 2012 — and led FCS (then known as Division I-AA) in takeaways with 41 in 2003.

Woody was a four-year starter at Wofford from 1980-83, playing two years at defensive back and two at outside linebacker. He was an honorable-mention all-American, a two-time all-district honoree, and served as the Terriers' team captain in 1983. He graduated from Wofford with a B.A. in business economics in 1984.

Born in Burlington, N.C., Woody spent part of his childhood attending high school at T.L. Hanna high school in Anderson, S.C. At Hanna, he was a four-sport standout (football, basketball, baseball, and soccer) and played in the 1979 Shrine Bowl of the Carolinas. He and his wife, Rebecca, have two sons, Nicolas and Jacob.

SEAN SATURNIO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

12th SEASON | HAWAI'I, 1992

Sean Saturnio enters his 12th season in 2025 as a member of the Army Black Knights coaching staff and returns for his seventh season as the special teams coordinator.

In 2024, Saturnio was named the AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year. The award honors assistant coaches who excel in community service, commitment to the student-athlete, on-field coaching success, and AFCA professional organization involvement. On the field, Saturnio helped mentor senior kicker Trey Gronotte, who was serving as the primary kicker for the first time in his career, to have a standout senior season. Gronotte broke the Army program record for most PATs made in a season with 57. He broke the previous mark of 47 held by Dick Walterhouse (1944) and Blake Wilson (2017). Gronotte finished his career a perfect 57-for-57 on PATs, which stands as the third-longest made PAT streak in program history.

Saturnio dove into his bag of tricks at times during the season, which was highlighted in Game 2 at FAU when Matthew Rhodes, the holder on the field goal team got the snap and sprinted to his left down the sideline for a 23-yard touchdown run. The trick play gave Army a cushion, extending the lead to 24-7.

In 2023, Saturnio's unit did what it was expected to do: block kicks. Army's special teams unit blocked punts, resulting in touchdowns in back-to-back games. The special teams unit made its mark in the win vs. Holy Cross, as DB Jabril Williams blocked a punt, which was recovered and returned for a touchdown by LB Elo Modozie. The following week vs. Coastal Carolina, LB Brett Gerena blocked a punt that DB Jabril Williams recovered and returned 37 yards for a score.

Leading the kicking unit was senior Quinn Maretzki, who finished a perfect 25-for-25 on PATs, the first Army kicker perfect on PATs since 2018. He was 12-for-14 on FGs on the season and was 25-for-31 for his career, finishing his career as No. 2 on the school's all-time career field goal percentage list at 81%. Maretzki made a career-long FG of 47 yards vs. Navy. Since 2021, Army kickers are 25-for-27 on FGs from 40+ yards (93%). Saturnio was named a First Staff All-American by Matrix Analytical Solutions following the season.

Saturnio's special teams units continued to perform at a high level in 2022. Army blocked three punts which were tied for seventh in the country, two of which resulted in touchdowns. Army's two blocked punts that both resulted in touchdowns made them one of seven teams to do so, joining Bowling Green, Middle Tennessee, San Diego State, South Carolina, UAB and UCF. The first block for a score came vs. UConn on Nov. 19 when Freshman DB Jabril Williams blocked a punt on the game's opening drive, which was recovered in the endzone for a touchdown by RB Miles Stewart. At the time it marked Army's first blocked punt returned for a TD since 11/11/2017 vs. Duke, when Javhari Boudreau blocked a punt and returned it 25 yards. The second block came on the biggest stage and was arguably the turning point of the biggest game of the season vs. Navy. Freshman DB Noah Short blocked Navy Punter Riley Riethman's punt right before halftime with freshman DB Jabrill Williams chasing down the ball down in the end zone and recovering for a touchdown by the thinnest of margins, using every inch of the end zone to remain inbounds for the score.

Blocked punts weren't Army's only method of special teams scoring, as RB Tyrell Robinson returned a punt 73-yards for a touchdown in Week 3 vs. Villanova, marking Army's first punt or kickoff return for a touchdown since Jeremy Trimble did so in 2007 vs. Temple. Army's three special teams touchdowns were second most in the FBS. Army finished as one of only three teams in the country that finished in each the Top-10 in punt blocks and the Top-20 in punt returns. The Black Knights also finished 13th in the country in kick return defense, only allowing returners to average 16.8 yards per return. It was Army's second-highest finish in this category since 2000. The special teams units cumulatively ranked 17th overall in the country in the Special Teams FEI (Fremeau Efficiency Index Rankings), marking the highest-ever ranking for an Army special teams unit since Football Outsiders began tracking advanced statistics in 2007. Following the season, Saturnio was a finalist for the 2022 AFCA (American Football Coaches Association) Assistant Coach of the Year award. This award was created to honor assistant coaches who excel in community service, commitment to the student-athlete, on-field coaching success and AFCA professional organization involvement.

In 2021, Saturnio's unit blocked three punts, which was tied for seventh best in the country. Saturnio helped develop punter Zach Harding, who established himself as one of the best punters in the nation. Prior to the 2021 season, he was named to the Ray Guy Award Watch List twice and was selected to the Phil Steele Preseason All-Independent First Team before the 2021 season. For his career, he punted 4,400 yards with an average of 44.6 per punt in his 32-game career. He had 44 career punts land inside the 20 including a career-high five at Wisconsin.

He rejoined as the leader of the special teams unit after two seasons (2018-19) as Army's tight ends coach. In his first season back with the special teams in 2020, Saturnio mentored one of the best units in the nation. Under Saturnio's guidance, Army led the nation in both blocked kicks and blocked punts with seven and three, respectively.

Saturnio's special teams unit was a key piece of the Army defensive effort, as opponents were continually pinned deep in their own territory by Second-Team All-Independent Punter Zach Harding and the exceptional Army punt coverage team. Long snapper Kyle O'Connor also earned a spot on an All-Independent team, landing on the first team for his efforts in the 2020 campaign.

Army's special teamers also played a crucial role in helping Army capture the 2020 Commander-In-Chief's Trophy with near-perfect performances against both Navy and Air Force. Saturnio played an integral role in his two years coaching the tight ends, as the unit assisted the offensive line in having one of the best rushing attacks in the country each year. During the 2019 season, Army averaged 297.2 rushing yards per game (third nationally), while its 45 rushing scores were tied for second in the nation.

In 2018, Saturnio helped Army capture Commander-in-Chief's Trophy titles for the second straight year and earn a bowl victory for the third year in a row following a 70-14 win over Houston. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked 19th in the nation. Saturnio tutored tight ends Quinten Parker and Zach Saum to become an integral part of the offensive line that helped Army rank second in the nation in rushing yards per game at 312.5 during the 2018 campaign. The group was instrumental in leading Army to the best third and fourth down conversion rate in college football. The Black Knights were also third in the nation with 47 rushing touchdowns.

MILESTONES

- 2024 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year

In 2017, with help from Saturnio, the Black Knights brought home the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history. As special teams coordinator, he mentored punter Nick Schrage into a weapon for field position in 2017 as he was named a nominee for the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top punter. Schrage improved his average by over seven yards per kick and had six boots over 50 yards after just one in 2016. That year the Black Knights' Special Teams unit finished with their highest STE (Special Teams Efficiency) rating since 2010 according to the college and pro statistical analysis site Football Outsiders. The unit was tied for eighth nationally in block punts in 2016 and tied for ninth in 2017.

Football Outsiders also ranked the jump from the 2016 to the 2017 season as the greatest one-season improvement in the last decade of Army football. In 2016, Saturnio took over the special teams for the first time at West Point. He mentored Blake Wilson, Schrage and J.D. Mote in the kicking game in their first full season. Rookie Malik McGue averaged eight yards per punt return and had a season-long 58-yard return at Wake Forest.

Saturnio spent his first two seasons coaching the fullbacks. In 2015, he mentored Aaron Kemper into Army's top rusher with 544 yards on the ground and three touchdowns. Kemper had a pair of 100-yard rushing games, including 140 yards against Eastern Michigan. Under Saturnio, Matt Giachinta gained 286 yards and scored a touchdown as a senior. He was named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Society and was a finalist for the Pop Warner Award.

In his first season at Army, Saturnio helped mentor 1,000-yard rusher Larry Dixon who topped the 3,000-yard mark for his career. Dixon was named to three postseason all-star teams and competed in the East-West Shrine Game. Saturnio also coached Giachinta, Kemper and Richie Smith, all key parts of a rushing attack that was third in the country at 296.5 yards per game. He also oversaw the punters and helped Alex Tardieu average 39.3 yards on 44 punts. Tardieu pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line on 18 occasions and totaled six kicks of 50 yards or more.

Saturnio came to West Point following two seasons at Georgia Southern, where he coached the tight ends and assisted Brent Davis with the offensive line. In addition, he coached the punters and coordinated the punt return team. Saturnio also had responsibility as the Director of Player Development in 2011 before assuming coaching responsibilities. In 2012, Saturnio helped wide receiver/tight end Tyler Sumner collect honors on Phil Steele's 2012 All-Southern Conference squad.

A native of Hilo, Hawai'i, Saturnio spent 12 seasons as the head coach at Waipahu High School, culminating with a semifinal appearance in the Oahu Interscholastic Association (OIA) White Conference playoffs in 2011. Saturnio was an assistant for two seasons before taking over as head coach at Waipahu where his team qualified for the playoffs in six of 10 seasons with him at the helm. He was named the OIA Division I Coach of the Year for the Western Division in 2008 and OIA Division II Coach of the Year in 2004.

Saturnio began his collegiate playing career at Division III Beloit College in Wisconsin before transferring to the University of Hawai'i. He was a walk-on for the Warriors and earned a spot on the team as a wide receiver. He earned his degree in elementary education in 1992.

Saturnio and his wife, Sharon, were married in 2014. They have four children, Caitlin, Christina, Zachary, and Isaiah, and two grandchildren, Maya and Ezekiel.

MIKE VITI

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / OFFENSIVE LINE

10th SEASON | USMA, 2008

Former Black Knight fullback Mike Viti, a 2008 West Point graduate, is in his 10th season as an assistant coach on the Army coaching staff and his 11th overall, having previously served as Director of High School and Alumni Relations in 2015.

In the winter of 2025, Viti was promoted to Associate Head Coach / Offensive Line.

In 2024, Viti mentored an offensive line that played together as the best collective unit in the entire country. His group paved the way for a dominant rushing attack led by quarterback Bryson Daily as the Black Knights won a program-record 12 games and won the American Athletic Conference Championship. His starting five of senior LT Connor Finucane, sophomore LG Paolo Gennarelli, sophomore C Brady Small, senior RG Bill Katsigiannis, and senior RT Lucas Scott were recipients of the Joe Moore Award, given to the most outstanding offensive line unit in college football. This historic achievement marked the first time a unit from a military academy or the Group of five has received this prestigious honor. Army managed to lead the nation in rushing yards/rushing yards per game despite facing the highest percentage of plays (80.2%) with eight or more defenders stacked against them in the box.

Army's 4,207 total rushing yards, including 1,659 yards from senior quarterback Bryson Daily, rank fourth in program history and are one of only six times an Army team has rushed for 4,000 or more yards in a season.

The offensive line's consistency and execution were unmatched, allowing the fewest percentage of rushes for zero or negative yards (11.0%) since 2020 by an FBS team.

Daily's 1,659 rushing yards led the offensive rushing attack and were the second most by a player in an Army season, only bested by Ahmad Bradshaw (2017, 1,746). Army's 48 rushing touchdowns as a team rank second in program history (2017, 50). Daily emerged as one of the top players in the nation, leading the NCAA with 32 rushing TDs, the most ever in a season by a quarterback.

Under his mentorship, Katsigiannis was named an AAC All-Conference first teamer, a Sports Illustrated first-team All-American, and a second-team All-American by ESPN. Finucane, Gennarelli, and Scott were named to the AAC All-Conference second team.

Gennarelli was also selected to the Associated Press Third-Team All-American, Army's first sophomore All-American since RB Bob Anderson in 1957. Scott was named to the All-America Team by the Football Writers Association of America. Viti and Matt Drinkall were named the Football Scoop offensive line Coaches of the Year.

Following the 2024 season, Viti was elevated to the title of associate head coach for offense / offensive line

In 2023, Viti was instrumental in the development and success of freshman center Brady Small. Small started all 12 games, becoming the first freshman to start in the season opener in their first-ever game for Army since 2017, when WR Kevin Waites started in the season opener vs. Fordham. Team captain OL Connor Finucane and OL Jackson Filipowicz garnered First Team Phil Steele All-Independent selections as anchors on the offensive line. As a team, Army averaged 208.0 rushing yards per game, ranking seventh best in the country.

In 2022, his first season coaching the offensive line, Viti's group helped Army finish second nationally with 38 rushing touchdowns and totaled four games of over 450+ rushing yards, the Army's most since 2019. Starting offensive lineman Connor Bishop was named a First Team Phil Steele All-Independent selection, and Connor Finucane was selected to the second team.

In 2021, Viti's running back group picked up where they left off a season before, aiding the offense to finish the season ranked No. 2 in the country in average rushing yards per game (286.4) and total rushing yards (3,648), as well as leading the nation in total rushing TDs (46). Viti's running backs were led by Jakobi Buchanan, who had a team-high 12 rushing TDs, rushing for 504 yards on 136 carries (3.7 avg.).

With 2020 finding the Black Knights securing their second Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in three seasons with a 9-3 overall record, the season's success hinged on a NCAA Top 5 Army rushing attack. Averaging 273 yards per game on the ground, Viti's position group saw RB Jakobi Buchanan rush for a team-most 111 rushes for 474 yards amongst all running backs. Ranked No. 2 in the nation for most rushing touchdowns, the team's 36 total rushing touchdowns were only one shy of matching Alabama for the top ranking for total rushing touchdowns (37). The Black Knights' rushing attack finished second-best in the country, totaling 3,276 yards on the ground.

Selected as the AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year, 2019 saw Viti help develop a No. 3-ranked rushing attack in the nation, with the Black Knights averaging 297 yards per game on the ground. Army's 45 total rushing touchdowns matched with the Clemson Tigers to account for the second-most in the NCAA. RB Connor Slomka and RB Sandon McCoy combined for 283 rushes for the Army rushing attack that posted 3,875 yards on a schedule with Power Five opponents, including the Michigan Wolverines.

2019 also saw Viti selected as the eighth recipient of the Armed Forces Merit Award, presented by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). The Merit Award is presented annually to honor an individual and/or group with a military background that has an impact within the realm of college football.

In 2018, Viti helped Army capture the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy titles for the second consecutive year and earn a Bowl victory for the third year in a row in a 70-14 win over Houston. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked No. 19 in the nation.

Viti tutored a fullback group that saw three rush for 300 or more yards on the year, with RB Darnell Woolfolk leading the way with a career-best 958 yards. He also averaged 73.5 yards per game, including a season-high 117 yards against rival Air Force. The fullbacks combined for 24 rushing touchdowns with Woolfolk leading the position group with 14. Woolfolk concluded his career tied for third in program history with 37 touchdowns and ended his tenure ninth all-time in Academy lore with 2,368 yards and a selection to the 2018 East-West Shrine Game.

The 2017 season saw the Black Knights bring home the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996, winning 10 games for only the second time in Academy history. Viti developed four different fullbacks that made a significant impact on the field in 2017. Woolfolk ran for 812 yards in 10 games and tied for the team lead in touchdowns with 14. In his third season, RB Andy Davidson ran for 627 yards. RB Calen Holt and RB Connor Slomka logged 214 yards and a touchdown, while Slomka finished with four touchdowns and 216 yards.

In 2016, Viti tutored Andy Davidson to over 900 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns. The 12 scores were the most by an Army Black Knight since QB Trent Steelman posted 12 in the 2011 season. Davidson finished the year with five 100-yard rushing games, including 121 yards and two scores in the season-opening win over Temple. Woolfolk also rushed for 600 yards on 109 carries and nine touchdowns under Viti in 2016. 119 yards and two of those touchdowns were spotlighted against North Texas in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. Before developing fullbacks at West Point on the field, Viti spent the 2015 season as the Director of High School and Alumni Relations.

As a player at West Point, Viti, a team captain, earned four varsity letters and served as a Regimental Commander during his senior year. A powerful blocker, Viti paved the way as part of the talented rushing attack from 2004-07. Part of a rushing attack that averaged 306 yards per game, Viti carried the ball 91 times in 31 games played for 321 yards and three touchdowns. He also hauled 30 passes for 198 yards, which records as the most for a Black Knight fullback since 2000.

Following graduation, Viti served a deployment as a platoon leader in Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom, earning a Bronze Star and a Combat Action Badge.

After retiring from the military as a Captain, Viti embarked on Mike's Hike for Heroes, a cross-country trek where he walked one kilometer for every service member killed in action in the global war on terror. As documented by a breadth of national media, Viti concluded the walk covering 7,100 kilometers (4,400 miles) beginning in Washington with the final steps made entering the 2014 Army-Navy Game, presented by USAA, in Baltimore, Md.

Viti is also a co-founder of the Legacies Alive Foundation, which is a non-profit organization whose mission is to strengthen and support the Gold Star families of our nation's fallen heroes and bring national awareness to the life and character of all service members who paid the ultimate sacrifice.

JOHN LOOSE

ASST. HEAD COACH / OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

20th SEASON | ITHACA, 1987

John Loose is in his second stint with Army and 20th season overall on the Banks of the Hudson. He enters his 39th year in college football.

In recent seasons, Loose has been the driving force in recruiting standout players to West Point who went on to sign NFL contracts, including Andre Carter ('23), Jimmy Ciarlo ('24), Elijah Riley ('20), Lucas Scott ('25), and Malkelm Morrison ('22).

In 2024, Loose supported defensive coordinator Nate Woody and the Army defense to have an impressive season on its way to finishing first nationally in red zone defense. The defense finished with the best red zone mark in the country, only allowing 24 red zone scores (only 18 touchdowns) in 40 opponent opportunities (60.0%).

The defensive unit was pivotal in Army winning a program-record 12 games and taking home the American Athletic Conference Championship. Army also finished an impressive fifth nationally (first in AAC), only allowing 15.5 points per game. It marked only the third season since 1996 (1996, 2020, 2024) that an Army defense surrendered under 220 total points on the season, as Army played its longest season ever, playing in 14 total games.

Loose mentored sophomore Elo Modozie to record a team-high 6.5 sacks on his way to being named to the AAC All-Conference Third Team. Loose also developed senior Chance Keith, who became a starter for the first time in his career, starting 13 of 14 games. Keith turned in a solid senior campaign, logging 43 tackles (20 solo), two TFLs, a sack, and three passes defensed.

In 2023, Loose led senior team captain Jimmy Ciarlo to his best season, being named to the Second Team Phil Steele All-Independent team. Ciarlo finished with career highs with 58 tackles, 5.5 tackles for loss, and three sacks. Senior Jackson Powell also emerged to produce three sacks and was tied for the team lead with Ciarlo and Leo Lowin.

In 2022, Loose oversaw a position group led by senior Andre Carter and saw a breakout in the performance of junior linebacker Jimmy Ciarlo. Carter turned in a solid season, highlighted by being named a First Team Phil Steele All-Independent selection. Carter played in 10 out of 12 games, logging 41 tackles (21 solo), 3.5 sacks, seven tackles for loss, and two pass deflections. Carter's signature game came in Week 2 vs. UTSA, recording 2.5 sacks. He finished his West Point career with 20 career sacks, good for second on Army's all-time sacks list. Ciarlo, seeing major playing time for the first time in his career, logged 55 tackles, the third most on the team, and totaled 3.5 tackles for loss.

In 2021, Loose oversaw the breakout campaign of OLB Andre Carter, who set the program record for sacks in a season with 15.5, surpassing Josh McNary's mark of 12.5 set in 2009. Carter's mark finished second in the entire FBS behind Will Anderson (17.5, Alabama).

He was elevated to assistant head coach/linebackers coach prior to the 2020 season after spending the 2019 season as the team's defensive coordinator. Loose helped coach up a defensive unit that finished first overall in total defense in 2020, allowing only 275.3 yards per game. The Black Knights also ranked in the country's top 5 in scoring defense (2nd - 14.83 ppg), red-zone defense (2nd - .645 scoring pct.) and passing yards allowed (2nd - 160.8 ypg).

With his help, Army secured the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2012-13. Army's defense was dominant in the rivalry games against Navy and Air Force, holding the Falcons to only seven points and shutting out the Mids for the first time since 1969. He served as the interim defensive coordinator during Army's 2018 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl victory over Houston, in which the Black Knights held the Cougars to just 14 points while registering a program record 10 sacks. Loose is no stranger to the defensive coordinator position, having been in that role at Lafayette College for 14 seasons from 2000-13 and at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy for three years from 1989-91. Since making his second stop at the Banks of the Hudson in 2014, Loose has been at the forefront of the Black Knights' safeties. In the last two seasons he helped guide a secondary that ranked 21st and 14th in the nation against the pass.

In 2018, Loose mentored junior Jaylon McClinton and senior James Gibson to the fourth and fifth most tackles on the team, respectively. McClinton accumulated 54 tackles, including 37 solo shots. The Charlotte, N.C., native added four tackles for a loss of 17 yards, one sack for a loss of nine yards, and two interceptions for 11 yards. He also registered six pass breakups and two forced fumbles. Gibson did much of the same this past season, earning 41 total tackles with 25 of those being unassisted. The Centreville, Va., native tallied four tackles for a loss of 21 yards and two sacks for a loss of 11 yards. Gibson posted two pass breakups and one forced fumble as well. The Black Knights were also eighth nationally in total defense, allowing just 295.5 yards per game, while their third-down conversion percentage defense was fourth in the country at 26 percent.

In 2017, Gibson teamed up with then-senior Rhyan England in the backfield. Gibson was instrumental in Army's success with 45 total stops, including a game-saving one against Eastern Michigan on a two-point conversion that sealed the Black Knights' victory over the Eagles. England missed a few games due to injury that year but had 33 tackles and one fumble recovery. Max Regan, who saw significant time with England injured, made 33 stops along with a team-leading two interceptions and a fumble recovery. He returned one of the interceptions for a touchdown in the 49-12 victory over Rice.

During the 2016 season, Loose tutored senior Xavier Moss and England to 57 and 53 tackles, respectively. The pair also had two interceptions on the year. Moss led the team with five pass breakups and had an interception and a forced fumble in the win over Navy. Loose was a key leader on the defensive staff that year as he helped guide Army to fourth in the nation in total defense and sixth against the pass. Army improved from six interceptions in 2015 to 17 in 2016.

In 2015, Loose mentored Moss in his transition to the secondary after spending two seasons on the offensive side of the ball. Moss was third on the team with 67 tackles along with one interception and five pass breakups. England had 64 tackles in 2015 under Loose with three tackles for loss, four pass breakups and a fumble recovery. During the 2014 season, Loose coaches a young safeties group. Hayden Pierce, the lone senior starter, registered 45 tackles, despite missing a game. Pierce broke up three passes. Junior Luke Proulx made 28 tackles in eight games and classmate Michael McFadden competed in nine contests.

Under Loose's guidance, Lafayette consistently was among the top 25 defenses in the Football Championship Subdivision. In the 2013 season, Lafayette topped rival and 15th-ranked Lehigh 50-28 and advanced to the national playoffs. During that season, he also led his Lafayette defense to an upset of then-unbeaten and No. 5-ranked Fordham, 27-14. In 2012, Lafayette featured four All-Patriot League selections, while the 2010 squad boasted three all-league choices. The American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008, Loose and his wife, Marianne, started Lauren's First and Goal Foundation. The organization was founded in 2004 and raises money for pediatric brain tumor research. The Foundation has generated more than $2 million and blossomed into the largest one-day football clinic in the country. Among the many all-stars Loose has coached is Andy Romans, a two-time Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year who helped the Leopards finish the 2008 season eighth in the nation in scoring defense (17.6 points per game), 10th in rushing defense (just 92.2 yards per game) and 20th in total defense at 303.2 yards per contest. Lafayette boasted the top defense in the nation in 2007. Under Loose's leadership, Lafayette allowed an NCAA-best 260.9 yards per game and ranked fourth in rushing defense at 85.7 yards per game. The Leopards led the Patriot League in rushing defense in 2006 at 139 yards per contest, while the 2005 team ranked in the top 20 in five categories. Linebacker Maurice Bennett helped pace the defense before his graduation in 2006, was a finalist for the Buchanan Award and was chosen as an All-American by five organizations. Blake Costanzo played linebacker the same season and completed eight years in the NFL. Before Lafayette, Loose coached at Army for eight seasons under Bob Sutton. In 1996, Army ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense during a 10-2 campaign that included an appearance in the Independence Bowl.

Prior to his time at Army, Loose worked as a defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy. Loose started his coaching career at the University of Albany in 1987, where he coached the secondary and earned his Master's in Program Development and Evaluation. Loose was a track and field star at Ithaca College where he was an All-American in 1986 and a five-time NCAA qualifier in the high jump. At one time he held the school record at six feet, 10¼ inches for outdoors and six feet, 10 inches for indoors, both of which were marks that stood for more than 30 years.

He earned four letters in indoor and outdoor track and field prior to his graduation in 1987. He earned a degree in physical education with a minor in psychology.

Loose, a native of Watkins Glenn, N.Y., and his wife, Marianne reside at West Point with their two daughters, Lauren and Grace.

CHESTON BLACKSHEAR

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

2ND SEASON | FLORIDA, 2000

Blackshear enters his second season on the Army coaching staff.

In 2025, it was announced that Blackshear would transition to the role of assistant offensive line coach, working alongside Associate Head Coach/Offensive Line Coach Mike Viti.

In 2024, he coached the tight ends for the Black Knights. Under his mentorship, senior tight end David Crossan started in 13 out of 14 games, serving as a key blocker to the nation's top rushing attack.

Before Army, he spent two seasons as an offensive line quality control coach with the Florida Gators (2022-23).

While at Florida, he was a part of the 2022 team that played in the Las Vegas Bowl. OL O'Cyrus Torrence went on to become a second-round draft pick by the Buffalo Bills in 2023 and went on to start all 17 games as a rookie.

Before Florida, he spent four seasons (2018-21) at Dartmouth, where he was the offensive tackles and tight ends coach. In 2019, he developed offensive line convert Jake Guidone and helped him become one of the best blocking tight ends in the conference, earning an honorable mention without catching a pass. In 2021, Blackshear coached two all-conference tight ends in J.J. Jones III and Robbie Mangas.

Blackshear was in the same role in Nevada from 2014-17, New Mexico from 2009-12, and at Columbia from 2006-08. He was also the tight ends coach at Georgetown for the 2013 season and a graduate assistant at Illinois in 2005. Blackshear began his coaching career at Florida as a graduate assistant from 2002-04.

A native of Jacksonville, Fla. he guided Lucas Reed to Freshman All-America honors in 2009 and was selected as a candidate for the John Mackey Award (Most Outstanding Tight End). Also, at UNM, he coached former NFL offensive lineman Byron Bell.

He has participated in the NFL's Bill Walsh Internship Program and worked with the Atlanta Falcons, Cleveland Browns, Jacksonville Jaguars, and Miami Dolphins during training camp.

Blackshear was a four-time letter winner for the University of Florida, playing in 41 games with 28 starts from 1995-1999. A member of the 1996 National Championship team, he was tabbed both a 1999 Coaches' and AP Second-Team All-SEC selection and awarded the Fergie Ferguson Award in his senior year.

Following graduation, he signed with the Carolina Panthers and then played guard for the Orlando Rage of the XFL from 2000-01 and helped them lead the league in rushing. Blackshear was an All-State and Super Prep All-American at Ed White High as well, becoming the first offensive lineman ever awarded Player of the Year honors by the Florida Times-Union.

CHANDLER BURKS

RUNNING BACKS

1ST SEASON | KENNESAW STATE, 2018

Burks was hired to Army's coaching staff in January 2025, joining the staff after spending the previous five seasons at Kennesaw State (2020-2024).

Burks will coach the running backs in 2025.

In 2024, he served as interim head coach for the final three games of the season with Kennesaw State. He also held the role of co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach that year. From 2020 to 2023, he was the quarterbacks coach for the Owls.

Every KSU passing or quarterback rushing record was either set by Burks himself, a teammate of his who benefited from his leadership, or a player under his guidance.

In the 2022 campaign, Burks guided KSU quarterback Xavier Shepherd to being named the ASUN Conference Preseason Offensive Player of the Year and a preseason All-American by STATS Perform, Athlon Sports, Lindy's Sports, and Phil Steele.

Burks played quarterback at Kennesaw State from 2015 to 2018, where he was coached by Cody Worley, the current Army offensive coordinator.

Under Worley's mentorship, he emerged as one of the top quarterbacks in the nation, earning back-to-back Big South Offensive Player of the Year and Scholar-Athlete of the Year accolades in 2017 and 2018, the first player in conference history to earn both awards in the same season. He also became the first player in league history to finish with both 1,000 yards rushing and passing during the 2017 campaign. He was named the 2018 FCS National Performer of the Year at the College Football Performance Awards.

As Kennesaw State's first signee, Burks helped build the foundation of the Kennesaw State program during his five years on campus (2013-18). He finished his career with 2,813 rushing yards and 56 rushing touchdowns. During his career as the signal caller for the Owls, he threw for 3,638 yards and 33 touchdowns, which tops the Kennesaw State record book. As the most decorated player in program history, he played in 42 career contests and had an astounding 31-6 record as the starting quarterback.

A runner-up for the 2018 Walter Payton Award, Burks led all Division I (FCS or FBS) rushers with 29 touchdowns on the ground to tie the Big South single-season record. He led the FCS in scoring (174 points) and points responsible for (18.3 per game) while ranked fourth in the Big South for rushing yards (905), total offense (149.8 yards/game).

Burks was an offensive juggernaut for the Owls, starting in 37 consecutive games at quarterback for the Owls and leading KSU to a 17-2 home record and back-to-back FCS Playoff quarterfinal appearances.

After an illustrious career at Kennesaw State, Burks spent the 2019 season as part of the defensive quality control staff at Wofford College. Burks helped guide the Terriers to a 2019 Southern Conference Championship and a berth in the FCS Playoffs. The Wofford defense led the SoCon in total defense (335.3), first down defense (198), and team passing efficiency defense (121.65), among many other categories.

Burks and his wife, Teddi, were married on June 16, 2023.

DARYL DIXON

DEFENSIVE PASS GAME COORDINATOR / CORNERBACKS

10TH SEASON | FLORIDA, 2003

Daryl Dixon enters his 10th season on the Army West Point coaching staff.

He was promoted to Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Cornerbacks coach on February 7, 2023. Dixon coached the cornerbacks for four seasons (2019-22) and the outside linebackers (2016-18).

Dixon mentored two young starting cornerbacks in 2024, sophomores Donavon Platt and Jaydan Mayes, who combined to start 27 of 28 possible games. Mayes tied for the team lead with four interceptions as the defense recorded 18 interceptions, the sixth most in the country, and it was Army's most interceptions in a season since 1988. Platt and junior Justin Weaver each recorded two interceptions.

Dixon's unit helped Army only give up an average of 185.9 passing yards per game, the 25th fewest in the country, and fourth fewest in the AAC.

The defense also led the AAC in the fewest total yards allowed per game (297.9), the only team to yield 300 or fewer per game in the conference.

In 2023, Dixon led a veteran cornerback room comprised of three key seniors, Jabari Moore, Cam Jones, and Bo Nicolas-Paul.

The defensive backfield was able to help yield opponents to only 187.9 passing yards per game, which ranked 23rd best in the nation.

Moore finished his Army football career as the all-time games played leader with 58 (accurate data going back to the 1956 season). Moore logged 165 tackles (111 solo) and six interceptions. His 26 career passes defended (INTs and PBUs) rank fourth-most in Army records (since 1971). During his senior campaign, Moore registered 36 tackles and a team-high six pass breakups.

Nicolas-Paul tied for the team lead with three interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown in the season opener vs. ULM. Jones added 38 tackles and an interception, finishing his career with an interception in all five years he played.

Nicolas-Paul was named a First-Team Phil Steele All-Independent selection while Moore was named to the Second Team.

In 2022, Dixon oversaw a defensive backfield that was spectacular against the pass. Army's pass defense finished as the third-best pass defense in the country, yielding only 160.0 passing yards per game. DBs Cameron Jones, Jabari Moore, and freshman Jaydan Mayes each recorded interceptions on the season. Dixon has played a key role in starting cornerback Jabari Moore's development. Since 2019, Moore had 14 passes defensed which is the most by an Army player in that span.

In 2021, Dixon led a secondary group that only yielded 211.2 passing yards per game.

In 2020, Dixon helped build the nation's top defensive unit. Under his guidance, the Black Knights' secondary allowed the second-fewest passing yards in the nation, giving up only 160.8 ypg.

Dixon's defensive backfield was a force to be reckoned with throughout the season, especially in the team's rivalry matchups with Air Force and Navy. In those two contests, the Black Knights held the offenses to a combined 118 passing yards while allowing just seven total points. The defensive effort powered Army to its third Commander-in-Chief's Trophy in the past four seasons.

Defensive backs Cedrick Cunningham and Julian McDuffie both earned spots on the Phil Steele All-Independent First team in 2020 while being mentored by Dixon.

In 2018, with help from Dixon, Army captured back-to-back Commander-in-Chief's Trophy titles for the first time in school history and earned three-straight bowl victories, which is a program record. The Black Knights also finished the year with nine consecutive victories, went undefeated at home for the second year in a row and finished the year ranked 19th in the nation.

Dixon tutored Campbell Trophy Finalist Kenneth Brinson and Chandler Ramirez in 2018. Ramirez was a newcomer to a starting role and made 31 tackles and had two fumble recoveries. Brinson was the steady force once again with 29 tackles, 6.5 for a loss and had 5.5 sacks, which was second on the team. He also added two forced fumbles and a recovery. He sealed the win against Navy with a strip sack and recovery in the fourth quarter.

He helped guide the 2017 Black Knights to their first 10-win season since 1996 and they won 10 games for only the second time in academy history. They captured the CIC Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won the Armed Forces Bowl with a victory over San Diego State.

In 2017, Aukerman finished with 70 tackles for third on the team and had the most tackles for loss and sacks on the team with 15.5 and 7.5, respectively. He combined with Brinson to recover three fumbles and record two forced fumbles. Aukerman also had a key interception in the Armed Forces Bowl, which allowed Army to complete its comeback over San Diego State.

Dixon tutored outside linebackers Alex Aukerman and Kenneth Brinson in 2016 to 59 and 45 tackles, respectively. Aukerman led the team in sacks with 7.5 and tackles for loss with 15, while Brinson was vital in passing situations with two interceptions.

Dixon was part of a defensive staff that guided Army to fourth in the nation in total defense, sixth against the pass and 16th versus the run.

Dixon came to West Point after seven seasons at Ball State as an assistant coach, where he tutored outside linebackers, cornerbacks and safeties throughout his stint with the Cardinals. He was on the Ball State staff for a pair of bowl games, including the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg after the 2012 season and the GoDaddy Bowl after the 2013 campaign.

During his time at Ball State, Dixon tutored Eric Patterson to All-Mid-American Conference Third Team honors in 2012 and Jamill Smith to third team honors as a punt return specialist in 2012 as well. In addition, Dixon coached Sean Baker, who finished his career at Ball State as the program's leader in interceptions with 18. He also tutored 2010 Second Team All-MAC defensive back Jason Pinkston.

He was named ESPN MAC Recruiter of the Year in 2012 and ranked as the No. 2 MAC recruiter by 24/7 Sports in 2012.

Prior to the Cardinals, Dixon spent the 2008 season as a graduate assistant with the defensive line at Illinois. He started his coaching career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Illinois from Feb. 2006 through Jan. 2008.

Dixon is a 2003 graduate of the University of Florida, where he starred as a defensive back. He played 49 games with 25 starts for the Gators and was a team captain as a senior. He was named to the 2003 All-Southeastern Conference Second Team and reached four bowl games with Florida. Off the field, he was a two-time Academic All-SEC selection and was voted Florida's Male Outstanding Senior Leader among the entire student body for the fall of the 2003 graduating class.

Following graduation, Dixon spent two seasons (2004 and 2005) as a member of the Indianapolis Colts.

Dixon and his wife, Katie Daily live at West Point with their son, Jack, and daughter, Avery.

TIGHT ENDS

1ST SEASON | WARTBURG COLLEGE, 2017

Hestness joined the Army coaching staff in 2025 after spending the 2024 season as the tight ends and fullbacks coach at Tennessee State.

He will coach the tight ends for the Black Knights in 2025.

Before 2024, he spent two years (2022-23) at North Dakota State University as the offensive quality control coach and the assistant offensive line coach, where the Bison compiled a 23-7 combined record and an appearance in the 2022 D-I FCS National Championship game.

Hestness coached three seasons (2019-2021) at Minnesota as a graduate assistant, working primarily with the offensive line. While with the Gophers, he helped develop two eventual NFL Draft picks, Daniel Faalele and John Michael Schmitz. Faalele was a First Team all-Big Ten selection in 2021 and was then selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens in 2022. Schmitz was named Second Team All-Big Ten in 2021 and was then selected in the second round by the New York Giants in 2023.

He spent the 2018 season at Liberty, where he was a graduate assistant for tight ends, fullbacks, and special teams.

Hestness graduated from Wartburg College in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in fitness management. He played tight end for the Knights and began his coaching career at Wartburg in 2017, assisting with special teams and tight ends.

DANE ROMERO

SLOT BACKS

2ND SEASON | WOFFORD, 2009

Romero enters his second season as the slot backs coach with Army in 2025.

In his first season with the Black Knights, Romero was instrumental in the development and success of junior slotback Noah Short. Short totaled 887 yards from scrimmage, averaging 9.6 yards a touch, and scored five total touchdowns as a threat in both the pass and run game. He rushed for a career-high 160 yards in the season's second game at FAU. Short also had a career-high 121 receiving yards on three receptions, scoring two touchdowns in a win at Tulsa.

Romero came to Army in 2024, after spending eight seasons (2015-23) as an assistant coach at his alma mater of Wofford.

During the 2022 season, he served as co-offensive coordinator while coaching the offensive line. Switching to the pro spread offense from the triple option, the offensive line helped block for the running game to combine for 1,058 yards and 16 touchdowns. In addition, the passing game set new single-season records for completions, attempts, and passing yards.

In 2021, the rushing offense was fourth in the Southern Conference and 13th in the nation at 208.6 yards per game. A total of four different running backs had over 200 yards each, and five backs scored touchdowns. During the 2020-21 spring season, the rushing offense recorded 232.8 yards per game to rank fifth in the nation and second in the Southern Conference. Four different backs had over 100 yards rushing in the abbreviated five-game

The rushing offense led the Southern Conference in 2019 and was third in the nation at 305.8 yards per game. The team secured the third straight Southern Conference Championship and played in the NCAA FCS Playoffs for the fourth consecutive season. Five different backs had over 200 yards rushing, led by Blake Morgan with 751 yards and nine touchdowns.

In 2018, the Wofford rushing offense led the Southern Conference and was fifth in the nation at 311.7 yards per game. Fullback Andre Stoddard led the team with 913 yards and 11 touchdowns, earning All-Southern Conference First Team honors and Second Team All-America honors. Five different running backs had over 200 yards rushing, with seven backs scoring touchdowns. Overall, the team was 9-4 on the season and won the Southern Conference Championship. He reached the NCAA FCS Playoffs for the fifth time (two as a player, three as a coach), advancing to the second round.

During the 2017 season, the rushing offense was second in the Southern Conference at 244.8 yards per game and was eighth nationally. Fullback Andre Stoddard was named All-Southern Conference First Team by the media and Second Team by the coaches with 825 yards and 15 touchdowns. The 15 touchdowns by Stoddard were tied for the most in the league. Four different running backs had over 100 yards rushing, while five had touchdowns. The team posted a 10-3 overall record and won the Southern Conference Championship with a 7-1 mark.

In 2016, the Wofford rushing offense was second in the league and fourth in the nation at 279.6 yards per game. Fullback Lorenzo Long led the team and the Southern Conference with 106.3 yards per game. His 1,424 rushing yards were the fifth most in a single season in school history. He was named First Team All-Southern Conference by the coaches and media, along with being named a Third Team All-American by the Associated Press. He scored 18 rushing touchdowns and ended his career third in school history with 43 rushing touchdowns. Six different running backs scored touchdowns on the season, while seven had more than 100 rushing yards.

In his first season with the Terriers, the rushing offense was second in the Southern Conference and fourth in the nation at 300.2 yards per game. Fullback Lorenzo Long was named Second Team All-Southern Conference by the coaches and media, as he rushed for 962 yards to finish fourth in the league. His eight rushing touchdowns ranked seventh in the conference.

Romero, a former player for Wofford, ranks 15th in school history with 1,954 career rushing yards and is fifth in school history with 32 rushing touchdowns. He earned First Team All-Southern Conference honors in his senior season as he led the league in scoring. He ran for 23 touchdowns, which is second in school history. He was named a First Team All-American by The Sports Network as he posted 1,078 yards on 210 carries in 12 games. As a junior, Romero played in ten games for the Terriers with 41 carries for 360 yards and five touchdowns. He started ten games as a sophomore and was Wofford's fourth-leading rusher with 335 yards on 51 carries. He was inducted into the Wofford College Athletics Hall of Fame in 2014.

He initially came to Wofford as a quarterback, earning a backup role as a freshman. He was named SoCon Freshman of the Week following his efforts against Gardner-Webb with nine carries for 110 yards and two touchdowns. Romero ended his freshman year with 181 yards rushing and two touchdowns on 18 carries. He was inducted into the Wofford College Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2014.

Romero earned a bachelor's degree in finance from Wofford in 2009. He also earned a master's degree in special education and teaching. He and his wife, Kristen, have a son, Stone, and a daughter, Whitley.

AARON SMITH

WIDE RECEIVERS

4TH SEASON | UCONN, 2010

Aaron Smith enters his fourth season at West Point as the wide receivers coach for the Black Knights in 2025.

He joined the coaching staff in March of 2022.

In 2024, Smith mentored a group of receivers led by the breakout senior campaign of Casey Reynolds. Reynolds recorded career and team season highs with 20 receptions for 457 yards (22.9 avg.) and three receiving touchdowns. He logged three games with 80 or more receiving yards, becoming the first Army receiver to do so in a single season since Edgar Poe in 2015. Senior Cam Schurr added seven receptions for 83 yards and one touchdown.

In 2023, Smith's group enjoyed success as three separate wideouts totaled over 200 receiving yards. His receivers accounted for 1,014 of the team's 1,234 total receiving yards. Sophomore Noah Short, who transitioned to receiver from defensive back, led the team in receptions with 18. He totaled 252 yards and two touchdowns. Short recorded touchdowns in back-to-back weeks vs. UTSA and Syracuse. Junior Casey Reynolds also emerged, hauling in 16 passes for 237 yards. He played a pivotal role in the Army-Navy Game, catching three passes for 32 yards.

In his first year at Army in 2022, Smith helped sophomore receiver Isaiah Alston log a season-best seven receptions for 123 yards and a touchdown at Wake Forest. It marked Alston's second career 100-yard receiving game, making him one of 13 Army receivers with multiple 100-yard games. Alston finished with a team-high 16 receptions for 269 yards and a score.

Smith, who played for head coach Randy Edsall at UConn from 2004-06, spent the four seasons before joining Army as the wide receivers coach/recruiting coordinator for the UConn Huskies (2017-21).

In 2019, he led a group of wide receivers that had six players account for touchdowns. Led by true freshman Cameron Ross, who totaled 60 catches for 723 yards, both record-breaking performances for a freshman WR at UConn. Ross' breakout year ranked him top five in the nation among true freshman wide receivers for catches, yards, and touchdowns.

In 2017, Smith's unit helped the UConn offense jump from 122nd to 49th in the nation in total offense and from 94th to 34th in passing offense. Led by Hergy Mayala, who totaled 43 catches, 615 yards, and seven touchdowns in 10 games. After the 2018 season, Mayala was selected with the 8th pick in the CFL draft by the Calgary Stampeders. 2017 also saw the emergence of Aaron McLean, who totaled 31 catches, 472 yards, and two touchdowns.

Before UConn, Smith spent four seasons on the University at Albany football staff (2013-16), serving as recruiting coordinator, pass game coordinator, and wide receiver coach. Under Smith's direction in 2014, Josh Gontarek was named the CAA Offensive Rookie of the Year, boasting the best freshman receiving numbers in program history with 58 receptions, 687 receiving yards, and eight receiving touchdowns.

Aaron spent the 2012 season as the wide receivers coach at Boston College. He helped junior Alex Amidon develop into one of the top pass catchers in the ACC. The First Team All-ACC WR ranked 11th in the country and 2nd in the ACC with 100.8 yards per game. Amidon also broke two Boston College single-season records with 78 catches and 1,210 yards, while tying the single-season record for 100-yard games with six. He was selected as the 2012 Boston College Football MVP (William J. Flynn Award)

Smith spent the five seasons prior (2007-11) as the receivers coach at Columbia University, coaching two All-Ivy League honorees, including Austin Knowlin, Columbia's all-time leader in receptions (210) and receiving yards (2,484). Smith also served as the Lions' recruiting coordinator in 2011.

Smith began his coaching career at the United States Coast Guard Academy in 2006.

A native of Richmond Hill, Ga., and Washington D.C., Smith played football at both the University of Maryland and the University of Connecticut, helping his teams to appearances in the Peach, Orange, and Motor City Bowls. While competing at UConn, he was presented with two Scholar Athlete Awards and graduated with a degree in political science in 2006.

Smith resides at West Point with his wife Kristin and their four children: Mia, Cash, Briana, and Simone.

ALLEN SMITH

DEFENSIVE LINE

1ST SEASON | WOFFORD, 2012

Smith comes to the Banks of the Hudson in 2025 after a three-year stint (2022-24) at Georgia State, where he served as the defensive line coach.

Smith will coach the defensive line for the Black Knights.

Before his stint at Georgia State, Smith spent one season with the Houston Texans (2021) as an assistant defensive line coach.

Before his year coaching with the Texans, he spent three years (2018-2020) as the defensive line coach at Wofford, helping the Terriers to back-to-back berths in the NCAA FCS playoffs in 2018 and 2019.

In both playoff seasons, Smith helped coach the top defense in the Southern Conference. In 2018, the Terriers led the conference in rushing defense, total defense, and scoring defense, ranking No. 12 or higher in FCS in all three categories.

In 2020, Wofford once again led the league in total defense and sacks, while ranking second in both rushing defense and scoring defense.

Smith developed and coached All-American and All-Southern Conference nose tackle Miles Brown, who signed a free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals, appearing in nine games in 2019 and then spent time on the Tennessee Titans' practice squad in 2020.

Smith served one season as the defensive line coach at VMI (2017) and one season at Duke as a defensive operations assistant (2016). In 2015, as a defensive graduate assistant at Appalachian State, he worked with Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year Ronald Blair, who was a fifth-round draft pick by the San Francisco 49ers in 2016.

He began his career as an assistant coach at Calhoun County High School in 2014.

As a player, Smith was a standout defensive lineman at Wofford who helped the Terriers to four straight NCAA FCS playoff berths, including SoCon titles in 2010 and 2012. He served as team captain as a senior, playing under Army defensive coordinator Nate Woody, when he was the defensive coordinator at Wofford from 2000-2012.

Smith earned his bachelor's degree in business economics from Wofford in 2012. He and his wife, Joy, have two daughters, Harleigh and Emori.

DANNY VERPAELE

SAFETIES

5TH SEASON | SOUTH FLORIDA, 2009

Verpaele enters his third season as the safeties coach after rejoining the Army coaching staff in 2023. He was no stranger to West Point, as he previously served as a quality control coach for Army on Jeff Monken's staff from 2014-15.

Under Verpaele's tutelage, senior safety Max DiDomenico had a sensational season. DiDomenico logged two interceptions and finished third with 62.0 tackles (41 solo). DiDomenico was named an AAC All-Conference First Team selection.

Opposite of DiDomenico in the starting secondary was junior Casey Larkin, who enjoyed a breakout season under Verpaele's guidance. Larkin totaled 51 tackles (fourth most on the team) and logged four interceptions, which was tied for the team lead with cornerback Jaydan Mayes. The defense recorded 18 interceptions, the sixth most in the country, and it was Army's most interceptions in a season since 1988. Seven of the 18 team interceptions were hauled in by the safeties (Larkin, 4; DiDomenico, 2; Collin Matteson, 1).

DiDomenico and Larkin started together in all 14 games of the season.

The secondary helped Army only give up an average of 185.9 passing yards per game, the 25th fewest in the country, and fourth fewest in the AAC.

The defense also led the AAC in the fewest total yards allowed per game (297.9), the only team to yield 300 or less per game in the conference.

In 2023, Verpaele helped guide senior safety Quindrelin Hammonds to have his best career season, where he became the third Army defender (since 2005), to log 60+ tackles, 4+ TFLs, 2+ sacks, 3 INTs and 4 PDs, joining Elijah Riley (2019) and Brandon Jackson (2015). Hammonds finished with 64 total tackles (third on the team), tied for the team-high with three INTs and had 2.5 sacks. Hammonds was named to the ECAC D-I FBS All-Defensive Team, Phil Steele's Postseason First-Team All-Independent Team and College Football Network's All-Independent First Team.

Verpaele also oversaw the development of junior safety Max DiDomenico, who started in 11 games alongside Hammonds. DiDomenico logged 53 tackles and recorded two INTs, one of them coming in the Army-Navy Game, a pivotal play in the course of the game.

Before rejoining the Black Knights staff, Verpaele spent 2019-22 at Kennesaw State.

In 2021, Verpaele led the Owls to the top-ranked scoring defense in the Big South Conference and 18th-ranked in the FCS, allowing 19.5 points per game. The defensive coordinator also helped guide KSU to the top-ranked red zone defense in the FCS at 57.6%.

Verpaele was key in the development of linebacker Evan Thompson, who went on to earn First Team All-Big South honors. Under Verpaele's play calling, Thompson set a new school record for total tackles in a single season (118) and became the first player in KSU history to record 10+ tackles in three consecutive games.

In 2020, the Kennesaw defense finished the season with the No. 3 total defense in the nation, while also ranking in the Top 25 in the country in a slew of other categories, including rushing defense (5th), fumble recoveries (15th), third down defense (18th) and passing yards allowed (22nd).

Prior to Kennesaw State, he spent three seasons as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Valdosta State (2016-18). Under his defensive leadership, the Blazers captured the 2018 NCAA Division II National Championship with a perfect 14-0 mark for the first time in program history.

In 2018, Verpaele's defense led the Gulf South Conference in turnovers (27) and red zone defense (65.2 percent), which ranked eighth and ninth nationally.

He is familiar with developing NFL talent, as two members of his defense, Stephen Denmark and Iseoluwape Jedede, found themselves in the league after the 2018 season. Denmark was selected in the seventh round by the Chicago Bears, while Jedede was signed by the Indianapolis Colts.

Before his time at Valdosta State, Verpaele made stops as an assistant coach at Jacksonville University (2010-12), Mississippi State (2013), and Army (2014-15). He began his coaching career at the Virginia Military Institute as an assistant coach in 2009.

Verpaele was a three-year letterman as a strong safety at the University of South Florida from 2004-08 and was named a Sporting News Freshman All-American following his rookie season. He played in 31 contests and registered 110 total tackles, including 14 tackles for loss during his career.

Verpaele lives at West Point with his wife, Melissa, and their one-year-old son, Miles.

JUSTIN WEAVER

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

5TH SEASON | LEHIGH, 2008

Justin "Juice" Weaver enters his third season in his second stint on the Army coaching staff, rejoining as the inside linebackers coach in 2023. Weaver's first stint on the Army coaching staff came as the director of on-campus recruiting in 2017 and was Army's defensive quality control coach in 2018.

Weaver oversaw the breakout campaigns of junior inside linebackers Andon Thomas and Kalib Fortner in 2024, who anchored a defensive unit that held opponents to under 14 points or fewer in 10 out of 14 games.

Thomas posted a team-high 98.0 tackles, and Fortner was right behind with 81.0 tackles to pace the unit. Fortner's 9.5 tackles for loss marked a team high.

Thomas was an AAC All-Conference Third Team selection, and Fortner was named as an honorable mention.

In his first season serving as the inside linebackers coach in 2023, Weaver oversaw team captain Leo Lowin's senior campaign and the emergence of sophomore Kalib Fortner.

Lowin led the team in tackles for a second consecutive season, registering 92.0 total tackles, 4.5 tackles for loss, and 3.0 sacks, garnering Phil Steele First Team All-Independent honors. Fortner emerged to play in all 12 games and started in nine alongside Lowin, finishing second on the defense with 68.0 total tackles. He made arguably the biggest play of the season when he strip-sacked Navy QB Tai Lavatai in the fourth quarter of the Army-Navy Game, picking up the fumble and returning it 44 yards for an Army touchdown to take a 17-3 lead. The score was the first defensive touchdown scored by Army vs. Navy since 1958. Fortner was selected as the Army-Navy Game MVP, also recording 10 tackles.

In 2022, Weaver was the Head Coach of the United States Military Academy Preparatory School (USMAPS), leading Army Prep to wins over Navy Prep and Air Force Prep. He also served as the USMAPS defensive coordinator from 2019-21.

Weaver came to West Point after spending three years at the University of Wisconsin as the "Beyond the Game" coordinator. The program assists student-athletes with the transition to the next level in their lives, including professional sports. He also developed and implemented programs and workshops that enhanced the student-athlete experience.

Prior to Wisconsin, Weaver was the defensive coordinator, special teams coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Chicago from 2012-14. During his time, the Maroons finished second in the UAA Conference and ranked in the top 30 nationally in five defensive categories. In 2012, senior linebacker Alex Dzierbicki played in the All-American Bowl, and Weaver's three starting linebackers earned First Team all-league honors in 2012 and 2013.

Before this time at the University of Chicago, Weaver spent the previous two seasons as the outside linebackers coach at his alma mater, Lehigh University. During those two campaigns, the Mountain Hawks won 21 of 26 games, captured back-to-back Patriot League titles, and made a pair of NCAA playoff appearances.

As a collegiate athlete, Weaver played for Lehigh from 2004-07, during which time he was a member of two Patriot League champion squads (2004, 2006). He began his coaching career at Lehigh in 2008 as a student assistant concentrating on the defensive line and moved to Morgan State University, where he served a two-year stint as an assistant defensive line coach from 2008-10.

Weaver resides at West Point with his wife, Shevez, and daughters Sariah and Stormi

- He also served as the USMAPS defensive coordinator from 2019-21.

TUCKER WAUGH

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

24TH SEASON | DEPAUW, 1993

Tucker Waugh is in his 24th season as a member of the Army Black Knights staff. Following 20 seasons serving on the coaching staff, Waugh enters his fourth season as Executive Director of Player Personnel in 2025.

In his role, he oversees the daily recruiting and personnel operations, which include prospect campus visits and evaluations.

Waugh coached at Army from 2000-04, departed to coach at Stanford (2005-06), and returned to coach at West Point (2007-21). With Army, Waugh has coached the slotbacks, wide receivers, and running backs.

The Army offense thrived under Waugh in 2020, as the team finished the year with a 9-3 record, paced by the nation's fourth-best rushing attack. Waugh's slotbacks aided in a ground game that averaged 275.3 yards per contest and controlled the ball for over 34 minutes per game, a total that was good for sixth in the country. Running back Tyrell Robinson earned All-Independent First Team Honors in 2020 with help from Waugh, as he rushed for 424 total yards in just his first collegiate season. Paced by a dominant rushing attack, Waugh and Army secured the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy for the third time in four seasons with convincing victories over service academy rivals Air Force and Navy.

Waugh's leadership and expertise with the triple option have helped spark the recent era of success under Head Coach Jeff Monken. With Waugh's help, Army won back-to-back CIC trophies in 2017-18 for the first time in program history while simultaneously making - and winning - three straight bowl games. Under Waugh's guidance, Army has been among the nation's top rushing teams since 2010, holding a top-five ranking on nine occasions. In 2018, with help from Waugh, the Black Knights earned back-to-back Commander-in-Chief's Trophy victories for the first time in program history. It was also the first time Army recorded consecutive 10-plus win seasons after breaking an Academy record with 11 wins.

Waugh helped teach slotbacks Kell Walker and Jordan Asberry to an impressive 2018 season. Walker was fifth on the team in rushing with 320 yards on 67 attempts. He posted a career-long 51-yard run against rival Navy, finishing with 109 total yards in the game. Asberry became Army's leading receiver during the year. The senior finished with 219 yards on 11 catches with four touchdowns. In the Black Knights' triumph over Houston in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl, Asberry ran for a season-best 63 yards in five carries. In 2017, Waugh and the Black Knights brought home the Commander-in-Chief's Trophy for the first time since 1996 and won 10 games for only the second time in academy history at that time.

The Cadets claimed the NCAA rushing title, averaging 362.3 yards per game and scoring 50 rushing touchdowns to finish second in the nation and set a new program record. Army also led the country in total rushing yards with 4,710 on the year. Waugh's slotback corps, led by Walker, finished with a career high of 629 rushing yards and six touchdowns. He averaged 7.3 yards per carry during the 2017 season, which was the best average on the team. Walker recorded two 100-yard rushing games, including a career best 129 and three scores in a 42-19 win at Rice. Walker was also Army's top receiver with 111 yards on the season. In 2016, Army was ranked second in the nation in rushing offense and was helped by slotbacks Asberry, Walker and Tyler Campbell. Asberry led the group with 421 yards and five touchdowns. Campbell was steady all season with 326 yards on the ground and two scores.

In 2015, he guided then-sophomore John Trainor to an average of 8.7 yards per carry and two rushing touchdowns. Trainor was also Army's top receiver out of the backfield with eight catches for 176 yards and a touchdown. Then junior Joe Walker racked up 203 yards on the ground on 27 carries that season as well. Waugh tutored a pair of rookies in Asberry and Campbell, who made significant contributions throughout the 2015 season. Asberry had 30 carries for 213 yards, while Campbell had 118 yards on 17 rushes, including a 29-yard touchdown run in the Army-Navy Game.

In 2013, Army racked up 3,950 yards rushing and 4,678 yards of total offense. Waugh mentored freshman wide receiver Xavier Moss, who established an Army rookie record with 35 receptions. The total shattered the previous mark of 20 set by Jeremy Trimble in 2004, which was also set under Waugh's guidance. Moss led the team with an Army freshman record of 463 receiving yards. Waugh has also mentored two-time 1,000-yard rusher Raymond Maples, one of just three players to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark twice in their career and was part of the 2010 staff that led Army to a victory in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

During 2008, Waugh's first season coaching running backs in Army's triple-option system, he guided fullback Collin Mooney to a record-breaking season of 1,339 yards. Mooney had just 22 rushing yards before establishing the Academy single-season record. Waugh was a member of Bobby Ross' coaching staff and then departed the Academy to work with head coach Walt Harris at Stanford in 2005. At Stanford, Waugh coached NFL All-Pro Richard Sherman to Freshman All-America honors as a wide receiver with the Cardinal. He had 34 catches for 581 yards during the 2006 season. In 2008, Waugh was recognized as one of the up-and-coming assistants in the nation. He was chosen to attend the NCAA Expert Coaches Forum in Dallas, Texas. The Forum is designed to improve and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in head football coaching positions at the intercollegiate level. In 2009, Rivals.com named Waugh one of its top 10 recruiters among all non-Bowl Championship Series schools.

When Waugh first arrived at Army, he inherited a group of receivers that had caught a total of 14 career passes. Over the next three years, his Black Knight wideouts registered 322 receptions. During that time, he oversaw the development of Aaron Alexander, who graduated in 2005, ranking second on Army's career charts for both receptions and receiving yards. Waugh mentored Alexander to an Academy-record 64 catches in 2003. His 861 receiving yards that season ranked third on the Army ledger at that time.

Prior to arriving at West Point, Waugh coached for five seasons at Illinois State (1995-99). He worked with the Redbirds outside linebackers in 1995, running backs in 1996 and wide receivers in his final three years. He mentored an All-Gateway Conference selection during each of his three seasons as receivers coach, with Marquis Mosely earning recognition in 1997 and Ricky Garrett copping laurels in both 1998 and 1999. Waugh helped to establish the Redbirds' passing attack as one of the most prolific in the nation. Illinois State advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 1998 and reached the Division I-AA national semifinals in 1999. A 1993 graduate of DePauw University, he earned a bachelor's degree in English Composition and Physical Education. Waugh began his coaching career at Otterbein College in 1993 overseeing the Cardinals' quarterbacks. He returned to his alma mater in 1994 as a wide receivers coach. He also completed a coaching fellowship with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League. Waugh lettered at quarterback while playing at DePauw from 1990 to 1992 and was named the school's "Outstanding Physical Education Major."

RYAN STARACE

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

3RD SEASON | SUSQUEHANNA, 2019

Starace joined the football staff in 2023 as a graduate part-time assistant, working with the defense.

He enters his second season in 2025 holding the role of offensive quality control coach.

Prior to arriving at West Point, he served as a quality control coach at Monmouth University in 2022 and as a graduate assistant at St. Lawrence University from 2020 to 2021.

Starace played offensive line at Susquehanna University from 2015 to 2018, serving as a team captain during his senior season. That year, he helped lead a rushing attack that ranked third in yards per carry in the Centennial Conference.

He graduated from Susquehanna in 2019 with a degree in business administration.

MATT PANKER

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

2ND SEASON | COLBY COLLEGE, 2023

Panker was promoted to defensive quality control coach before the 2025 season.

Panker spent 2024 as a defensive analyst on the Army coaching staff, supporting the previous quality control coach with opponent film breakdowns and weekly scouting reports of opposing offenses. On the field, he worked with the cornerbacks, safeties, and scout team wide receivers.

Prior to his time at West Point, Panker was an assistant coach at Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle, N.Y.

Panker graduated from Colby College in Waterville, Maine, in 2023.

PEYTON YANAGI

SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL

2ND SEASON | OREGON, 2022

Peyton Yanagi enters his second season on the Army coaching staff in 2025.

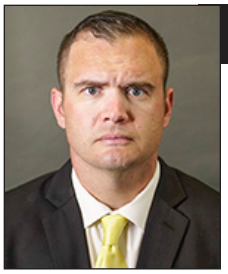
Yanagi works closely with special teams coordinator Sean Saturnio to develop the special teams units, primarily working with the long snappers.

Yanagi comes to West Point after spending the 2023 season as the special teams coordinator at the University of Nevada, mentoring K Brandon Talton, who finished his career as Nevada's career leader in field goal makes (81).

Before the 2023 season at Nevada, he spent a short stint as a special teams intern at Tulsa and in 2022 was the Special Teams/OLB graduate assistant at Nevada.

Yanagi is a graduate of the University of Oregon in 2022, spending four seasons (2018-21) as a long snapper for the Ducks, taking home several academic honors, such as being on the Pac-12 Conference Academic Honor Roll and twice being named an Oregon Scholar-Athlete. As a member of the Ducks, he was a two-time Pac-12 Champion (2019-20) and was a Rose Bowl Champion (2019).

A Honolulu native, Yanagi helped lead Saint Louis School to back-to-back Division I state titles in 2016 and 2017. Following his senior season in 2017, he was selected to play in the Polynesian Bowl.



CONOR HUGHES

Head Football
Strength & Conditioning
10th Season
Springfield, 2008

Conor Hughes enters his 10th overall season at Army West Point and his seventh as the Head Football Strength and Conditioning Coach, a role he assumed in the spring of 2019 after serving two years as an assistant (2017–18).

During the 2025 offseason, offensive lineman Paolo Gennarelli set a new bench press record by lifting 505 pounds, while defensive lineman Javon Smith broke the squat record with a lift of 635 pounds.

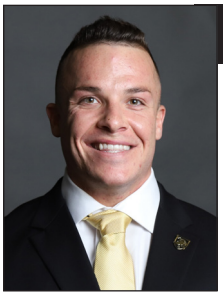
In 2023, Hughes played a key role in the offensive line's significant weight gains as Army transitioned to a new offensive scheme. Eight of the top 10 returning offensive linemen gained 20 pounds or more from the previous season. While only one offensive lineman weighed over 300 pounds in 2022, that number increased to 11 in 2023.

Hughes joined Army West Point after spending six seasons at the University at Albany, where he served as the Director of Football and Men's Basketball Strength and Conditioning. He led the physical development of the 2011 and 2012 NEC championship football teams and the 2013, 2014, and 2015 America East champion men's basketball teams.

Prior to his time at Albany, Hughes served as Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at Iona College in 2010, overseeing all aspects of training for the school's 21 Division I sports. Earlier that year, he had returned to Albany as an assistant strength and conditioning coach, working with women's basketball, women's soccer, men's soccer, and track and field.

A four-year member of the Springfield College football team, Hughes graduated in 2008 with a degree in Applied Exercise Science. He then interned with the football strength and conditioning staff at Georgia Southern before returning to Albany as a graduate assistant from 2008 to 2009, earning his master's degree in Liberal Studies in 2010.

Hughes and his wife, Bridget, reside in West Point, N.Y., with their daughter, Ruby.



KYLE DICKINSON

Assistant Football
Strength & Conditioning
1st Season
Baldwin Wallace, 2020

Kyle Dickinson enters his first season as an assistant football strength and conditioning coach at Army West Point in 2025. He works directly with the Black Knights football program, specializing in velocity-based training, Olympic lifting, and return-to-play protocols in collaboration with the athletic training staff.

Dickinson previously served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Army, overseeing programs for sprint football, women's lacrosse, men's lacrosse, and men's ice hockey. His career also includes stints at the University of West Florida, where he contributed to a national championship football program, The Ohio State University, and the University of Georgia.

A native of Ohio, Dickinson holds a master's degree in human performance and physical education from the University of West Florida and a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Baldwin Wallace University. He is Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) through the CSCCa and a USA Weightlifting Level 1 coach.

JOHN MORRIS

Assistant Football
Strength & Conditioning
2nd Season
MERRIMACK, 2021

John Morris enters his second season with the Black Knights in 2025.

Morris came to West Point after spending the 2023 season working for North Texas. With the Mean Green, he was responsible for managing all sports science and technology while assisting with implementing mobility, weightlifting, speed, and conditioning programs.

Before North Texas, Morris spent the 2022 season as an intern with The Ohio State football program.

This is his second stop with Army football, as he spent two months as a summer intern under Hughes' guidance in 2021. He also spent time with Harvard University assisting with all 42 sports programs.

Morris graduated from Merrimack College, where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees.

TANNER ANDERSON

Assistant Football
Strength & Conditioning
1st Season
South Dakota, 2018

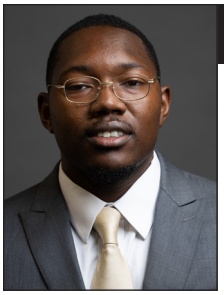
Anderson arrives at West Point after serving as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at Robert Morris University, where he oversaw the training programs for 17 NCAA Division I teams. During his time with the Colonials, he led sport-specific performance plans for football, women's basketball, and men's and women's lacrosse while managing a staff of assistant coaches and interns and coordinating operations across multiple training facilities.

Prior to his tenure at Robert Morris, Anderson spent four seasons at Missouri Western State University in a variety of roles, including Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach and Interim Head Strength and Conditioning Coach. In these positions, he directed programming for several sports, contributed to football player development, and helped implement performance technology such as STAT Sports GPS tracking.

His coaching journey also includes internships with football at Virginia Tech and Olympic sports at the University of South Dakota, where he gained early experience designing workouts, teaching technique, and supporting athletes through data-driven performance strategies.

Anderson received his Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology and Sport Management from the University of South Dakota in 2018. He earned his Master's Degree from Missouri Western State University in 2020.

A certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS), Anderson also holds certifications from USA Weightlifting (Level 1) and Reflexive Performance Reset (Level 1). His training philosophy centers on cultivating discipline, maximizing athletic potential, and building resilient, accountable teams.



ANTHONY MCARTHUR

Associate Football
Strength & Conditioning
4th Season
West Florida, 2020

Anthony McArthur enters his fourth season on the strength and conditioning staff with the football team at Army West Point in 2025.

He previously spent time at McNeese State University, holding the role of strength and conditioning graduate assistant (2021). At McNeese State, he served as the head strength and conditioning coach for women's volleyball and women's tennis teams as well as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for football. He also aided in programming for football in-season and off-season training.

Before McNeese State, he spent a year (2020) at the University of Florida as a strength and conditioning intern. He also spent time at EXOS Gulf Breeze as a performance specialist intern, assisting with training for NFL combine athletes and in speed mechanics and development.

McArthur received his bachelor's degree from the University of West Florida (2020) in Health, Leisure, and Exercise Science/Fitness & Conditioning, receiving his master's from McNeese State (2022) in Health & Human Performance/Health Promotion.

CLAYTON KENDRICK-HOLMES

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR FOOTBALL – CHIEF OF STAFF

8TH SEASON | USNA, 1992

Clayton Kendrick-Holmes enters his eighth season at Army, overseeing and managing the day-to-day operations of the Army Black Knights football program.

He was named Chief of Staff before the 2018 season. In 2023, he was promoted to Associate Athletic Director for Football – Chief of Staff.

Kendrick-Holmes came to West Point as Director of Football Operations in August 2018, after serving as head coach at SUNY Maritime College with a 63-55 (.534) overall record in the first 13 years of program history. In his tenure as head coach, Kendrick-Holmes was also a key figure in the establishment of the Eastern Collegiate Football Conference (ECAC) and served on several regional and national leadership committees including the NCAA East Region Advisory Committee, NCAA National Football Championship Committee, American Football Coaches Association Board of Coaches, AFCA Division III Coaches' Poll and the AFCA Region 1 All-American Committee.

Starting the Privateers NCAA Division III football program in 2005, Kendrick-Holmes quickly turned it into a formidable championship-level program where he earned a 39-22 (.639) conference record and marked a 15-5 (.750) record against Maritime Industry rivals Massachusetts Maritime, Maine Maritime, and the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy.

In 2010, Maritime achieved its first undefeated regular season and earned a berth in the NCAA tournament playoffs. In Kendrick-Holmes' final two seasons, the Privateers received bowl game invitations. Over his 13 seasons at Maritime, he also served as offensive coordinator for seven years (2005–09, 2014–15) and stepped in as defensive coordinator for two seasons (2016–17).

In his sixth season at the helm, Maritime received unprecedented levels of national attention from harnessing an unbeaten record to the impending mobilization to serve in Afghanistan as a Naval Reservist in 2010. The team finished the regular season ranked 33rd in the national poll and ninth in the ECAC Lambert-Meadowlands D3 poll. Kendrick-Holmes received Coach of the Year honors from the American Football Coaches Association (Region 1), D3Football.com (East Region) and the Eastern Collegiate Football Conference. Named as a national finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Kendrick-Holmes was also nominated by the New York Jets for the inaugural Don Shula NFL Coach of the Year Award. Nominees display the integrity, achievement, and leadership exemplified by the winningest coach in NFL history, Don Shula. The 2010 undefeated season and berth in the National Championship Playoff remain the crown jewel in the program's brief history.

Under Kendrick-Holmes' leadership, the Privateer program received numerous on-field accolades for individual and team accomplishments. Players were twice named as All-Americans, and the roster saw All-East Region honors eight times. In eight seasons of membership in the Eastern Collegiate Football Conference (ECAC), four separate players received Conference Player of the Year accolades and the program boasted 121 All-Conference players with 40 First Team selections.

The Privateers also excelled off the field, upholding academic excellence and community service. From 2011-17, the program placed a player on the CoSIDA Academic All-District First Team. The 2017 season (9-2) saw seven players acknowledged by the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society. Seven players were also awarded the prestigious SUNY Chancellor's Scholar Athlete Award, with 29 players receiving Academic All-ECFC honors. In 2011, defensive lineman Ricky McClain was named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works Team for his work on and off the field with volunteer efforts surrounding the Adaptive Sports Foundation, where he taught disabled veterans and handicapped youth how to ski and snowboard.

In 1999, Kendrick-Holmes left the active-duty Navy to pursue a coaching career and was hired by The Citadel, where he was the outside linebackers coach for one season and the recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach for two seasons.

Kendrick-Holmes began his coaching career at the Naval Academy Preparatory School (NAPS), where he coached seven seasons split into three tenures. His first coaching appearance came in 1992, following graduation from the Navy as an Ensign. From 1996-98, he served on staff while also on active duty as a Lieutenant instructor at the Surface Warfare Officer's School. Additionally, while serving as a contracted coach from 2002-04, the last two seasons saw Kendrick-Holmes as the head coach/defensive coordinator and led the NAPS team to a 14-6 overall record.

A 1992 graduate of the United States Naval Academy, Kendrick-Holmes holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Oceanography and was a two-time letter winner at linebacker for the Midshipmen. He served a total of seven years on active duty, spending three years as the Assistant Navigator, Administration Officer, and Damage Control Assistant onboard the USS ROBERT G. BRADLEY (FFG-49).

Kendrick-Holmes retired from the United States Naval Reserve in September 2021, at the rank of Commander, having served in various units over the past 21 years. His decorations include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal (two awards), Joint Service Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal (two awards), and Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (two awards).

A native of Lafayette, Ala., Kendrick-Holmes is married to his wife, Johanna, and they have two sons, Bo and Wills. Bo graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 2020, where he was a member of the rugby team. Wills is a recent graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he played on the hockey team and served as the Executive Officer of the NROTC Unit. He has since been selected for Naval Aviation and is currently stationed in Pensacola, Florida, where he is attending flight school.

2024 GAME RECAPS

ARMY TAKES CARE OF LEHIGH TO OPEN NEW SEASON, 42-7

WEST POINT, N.Y. --- Army West Point opened a new era of Army Black Knights football on Friday night under the lights at Michie Stadium routing FCS Lehigh, 42-7. Army totaled 432 yards of total offense, 375 on the ground. The Black Knights scored on every offensive possession minus when receiving the ball back before halftime with just a few seconds left. QB Bryson Daily and RB Kanye Udoh each had two touchdowns on the ground.

Army won the coin toss and deferred to the second half sending Army's defense out on the field to begin the game. Lehigh QB Dante Perri connected with Mason Humprey on an early 20-yard pitch and catch to push Lehigh into Army territory. Army's defense would hold strong and force a punt.

Army Head Coach Jeff Monken and Special Teams Coordinator Sean Saturnio dove into their bag of tricks early as it appeared Army was punting on fourth-and-two but a direct snap to the personal protector LB Andon Thomas extended the drive as Thomas raced down the left sideline for 35 yards to ignite the Army sideline.

Several plays later Daily connected with WR Casey Reynolds for 22 yards which brought the Black Knights down to the Mountain Hawks' one-yard line. Daily finished the drive with a one-yard touchdown push up the middle to take a 7-0 lead. The score was Daily's 10th career rushing score.

Lehigh immediately answered Army's score, marching 75 yards on nine plays taking 5:14 off the clock which was capped off by Mountain Hawks RB Luke Yoder's 18-yard scamper into the endzone to knot the score at 7-7 with under a minute to go in the first quarter.

In the second quarter, Daily was back at it punching in another one-yard touchdown run which was set up by his 17-yard run a play before. It was a methodical 13-play, 76-yard drive taking 5:17 off the game clock to put the Black Knights back in front, 14-7.

Army then made it three-for-three on touchdown drives to begin the season, utilizing ten rushing plays for a 79-yard touchdown drive. Sophomore RB Kanye Udoh accounted for seven rushes for 50 yards on the drive, including a bruising 13-yard carry with a full extension at the pylon to score his second career touchdown with 2:52 to go in the half.

Lehigh took the ball into Army territory in the last minute of the half, before sophomore CB Jaydan Mayes made the first turnover of the season for the Black Knights with an interception on a fourth-down Hayden Johnson pass.

Army took a 21-7 lead into the locker room.

Army drove down the field once again to begin the second half, with a 47-yard pitch to Noah Short setting up a first and goal from the Mountain Hawks' nine-yard line. It took four plays to find paydirt, with Short then taking another pitch on fourth-and-three for his first career rushing touchdown. K Trey Gronotte converted his fourth extra point which gave Army a 28-7 advantage.

Lehigh put together a 69-yard drive, getting down to the Army six-yard line, but sophomore CB Donavon Platt put the clamps on the drive, intercepting a Lehigh QB Hayden Johnson pass just before the fourth quarter began.

In the fourth quarter, Udoh scored his second touchdown of the night, the second from one yard out and RB Jake Rendina scored his first career touchdown as the game came to a close on a drive led by junior QB Dewayne Coleman.

ARMY WINS FIRST-EVER AAC GAME OVER FAU IN HEAT, 24-7

BOCA RATON, Fla. --- Army West Point football (2-0, 1-0 AAC) played its first game in Florida in 20 years (a win over South Florida, 2004) when they faced off against the Florida Atlantic Owls (0-2, 0-1 AAC) in the two programs' first ever meeting as the Black Knights collected a 24-7 victory in what was also Army's first American Athletic Conference contest as a member of the conference.

Army's offense quickly faced a third and long on its opening drive of the game in which SB Noah Short was able to convert on a 13-yard option pitch to the left side from QB Bryson Daily. Three plays later, Short busted off on a 49-yard run down the right sideline in which he was one more block away from a score. Inside the redzone, RB Kanye Udoh finished the drive on a pounding eight-yard run up the middle for a touchdown, his third of the young season. It marked an eight-play, 82-yard drive taking off 4:57 from the game clock.

The offense led by Offensive Coordinator Cody Worley continued to thrive as Daily connected to a wide-open WR Casey Reynolds for a 44-yard touchdown, Reynolds' first career touchdown as the Black Knights jumped out to a 14-0 lead. Army rushed for 130 yards as a team in the first quarter on 11 carries, led by Short who had four rushes for 88 yards.

The teams traded punts to open the second quarter, as the Army defense eventually forced its third three-and-out of the half on the Owls' second possession of the quarter. On the ensuing Army drive, a third-and-thirteen conversion from Daily on the ground put Army into the Owls' territory once again, but Army eventually turned the ball over for the first time this season on a third-and-short fumble by Udoh at the FAU 35-yard line.

FAU got the ball back with 3:40 remaining following the turnover and put together a nine-play touchdown drive capped by an eight-yard pass from Cam Fancher to Omari Hayes which made it 14-7 with 53 seconds to go in the half. Army took the seven-point lead into the half, having outrushed the Owls 194-32 in the opening half hour. Short led the way with 102 yards on the ground on six carries while Daily logged 35 yards on five attempts. In the first half, the Army defense forced four punts and a turnover on downs.

Coming out of the locker room on the first play, Daily busted through the middle for a 30-yard rush to push Army out near midfield. Much like the first half, Short busted loose on another long run, this time for 28 yards to push Army inside the FAU 25-yard line. The Black Knights drive would be halted but K Trey Gronotte was able to knock in his first collegiate field goal attempt, from 35 yards out to extend Army's lead, 17-7.

On FAU's first offensive drive of the second half, Fancher tried to go deep into double coverage, but S Max DiDomenico soared over the intended receiver for the interception. Getting the ball back, Army went on an Army-like drive, marching 15 plays, 96 yards, and chewing up 10:33 off the game clock going into the fourth quarter.

After Daily missed a wide-open Short in the back of the end zone on a third down from the FAU 23-yard line, Army sent out the field goal team. However, Coach Sean Saturnio dove into his bag of tricks for the second consecutive week as Matthew Rhodes, the holder, got the snap and sprinted to his left down the sideline for a 23-yard touchdown run. The trick play gave Army cushion extending the lead to 24-7.

On the Owls' ensuing drive, they marched down the field with the help of a fourth-down conversion eventually setting up a first and goal at Army's three-yard line. With third and goal at the one, the Army defense pulled off a true goal line stand, stuffing the Owls on back-to-back plays with DiDomenico making the play on fourth down.

Getting the ball back with 8:42 left in the game and a 17-point lead, the Army offense got first down after first down to bleed the clock down until victory formation was called. Army kept the ball for 38:39 total in the game while the Owls had just 21:21 with possession.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Army began the season eight-for-eight in touchdown drives minus when receiving the ball back before halftime with just a few seconds left against Lehigh.
- The Black Knights also went seven-for-seven in scoring touchdowns in the red zone to begin the season. Army began the season 2-0 for the first time since 2021 and for the fifth time in the Jeff Monken era.
- SB Noah Short rushed for a career-high 160 yards on 11 carries.
- Short is the first non-quarterback to have 160 rushing yards in a game for Army since Larry Dixon had 188 yards on Oct. 4, 2014 against Ball State in Jeff Monken's first season.
- Short and QB Bryson Daily each had over 100 yards on the ground, a feat last achieved by Daily and RB Hayden Reed on Sept. 15, 2023, at UTSA.
- It is the sixth time that Army has had multiple 100-yard rushers in a game since 2017.
- S Max DiDomenico logged his third career interception.
- Army's win extended its winning streak to six games.
- The matchup in Boca Raton was Army's first game in the state of Florida since 2004 when they played South Florida, a 42-35 win which also was Army's last win as a conference member.
- This was the first-ever meeting between Army and Florida Atlantic.
- P James Wagenseller made his punting debut, punting twice for 89 yards.
- K Trey Gronotte converted his first career field goal attempt, a 35-yarder in the second half.

ARMY POWERS PAST RICE BEHIND DAILY'S FIVE TOUCHDOWNS

WEST POINT, N.Y. --- Army West Point football (3-0, 2-0 AAC) defeated the Rice Owls (1-3, 0-1), in a dominant 37-14 fashion on a beautiful day on the banks of the Hudson.

On the game's first play, slot back Miles Stewart received his first rush of the season for a gain of 18 down the right sideline. Four plays later, QB Bryson Daily connected with playmaker Noah Short for a 41-yard touchdown pass down the middle. It was Daily's second touchdown pass of the season and the first receiving score of the year for Short.

Army started its second possession from its own nine-yard line, with Daily rushing three times for 29 yards to help move Army down the field. The Black Knights eventually faced a fourth-and-one from its own 40-yard line, with Daily converting with ease via an eight-yard gain. The Black Knights continued to collect first downs on the ground, with Daily eventually hitting WR Casey Reynolds with a 14-yard pass on a critical third-and-eight to set up Army in the red zone. Army outgained Rice 157 yards to 24 in the opening quarter, with the Owls having possession for just five plays and 1:56.

On the second play of the second quarter, Daily used the quarterback keeper for a seven-yard touchdown run. It capped the season's longest drive, marching 17 plays for 90 yards, taking a whopping 10:52 off the game clock. Army used four conversions on third or fourth down to extend the drive.

Rice advanced the ball into Army territory and the red zone for the first time on its second drive, settling for a 36-yard field goal attempt with 7:43 to go in the half. Army's special teams continued to make plays as it has all season, with LB Elo Modozie blocking the kick with a recovery from S Casey Larkin who then returned it 25 yards to the Army 43.

On the ensuing drive, Army got a chunk play with Daily pitching to Short who collected 23 yards on the play down to the Rice 24-yard line. Daily began the day four-for-four through the air, connecting with WR Cam Schurr for an 11-yard gain to set up first-and-goal. Facing a fourth-and-goal from the two, Daily went left and dove headfirst for his second rushing score of the day which made it a 21-0 Army lead.

With Rice needing a score before halftime, a tipped ball from QB EJ Warner on the second play of the drive fell into the hands of LB Andon Thomas for his first career interception which set up Army at midfield with 1:41 left in the half. Daily hit RB Hayden Reed for an 18-yard gain through the air on the drive, before slinging a 17-yard pass to Reynolds in the end zone for Daily's fourth total touchdown of the half, marking back-to-back games Daily and Reynolds have connected for six. It marked the second time in Daily's career that he's accounted for four touchdowns in a single half, becoming the first Army player to do so since at least 1996.

Rice received the second-half kick trailing 28-0 and was forced to punt after a three-and-out with Larkin blowing up a screen pass for a three-yard loss on third down. The long snap for the Owls sailed over punter Alex Bacchetta's head and into the end zone, resulting in a safety which made it 30-0.

Rice found paydirt with a 16-yard touchdown pass from Warner to Matt Sykes which marked Army's first points allowed in the second half this season.

Getting the ball back, Army and Daily marched right back down the field for an eight-play, 72-yard touchdown drive just before the end of the third quarter. Daily was pushed out of bounds at the one-yard line on a 36-yard run before the QB kept it on the next play for his career-high third rushing touchdown of the contest. It also marked Daily's fifth total touchdown of the game, as he became the first player since at least 1996 to have multiple five-plus touchdown efforts in an Army uniform. The extra point from K Trey Gronotte made it a 37-7 game entering the fourth.

The Owls drove down into the red zone with Warner hitting Graham Walker for a 33-yard gain, before the Army defense held once again and forced a turnover on downs.

Rice found the end zone on its final drive with a five-yard pass from Warner to RB Christian Francisco making it a 37-14 final score. Army outgained the Owls 288-41 on the ground while controlling possession 39:05-20:55, continuing its trends from the wins over Lehigh and Florida Atlantic. Army once again totaled over 400 yards of total offense with 408 and converted an impressive 9-for-15 on third downs.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Daily accounted for four first-half touchdowns (two passing and two rushing), which was only the seventh occurrence an Army player accounted for four touchdowns in a single half since 1996 as Daily has two of them (five touchdowns in the first half vs. Delaware State, 2023).
- Daily is also the second player since 1996, joining Ahmad Bradshaw (9/4/15 vs. Fordham), to have each 100 passing and rushing yards and two passing and two rushing touchdowns in the same game.
- Daily's five touchdowns accounted for is the sixth occurrence by an Army player since 1996, as Daily has two of those.
- It was Daily's second career multi-passing touchdown game and his fourth multi-rushing touchdown game.
- The three rushing touchdowns was a new single-game high for Daily as he now has 14 career rushing scores.
- The touchdown reception was Short's third of his career.
- LB Andon Thomas logged his first career interception on what was a great effort to keep his foot in before halftime.
- LB Baylor Newsom intercepted his first career pass in the fourth quarter.
- LB Adam Cash led the defense in tackles with five.
- Rice's touchdown in the third quarter were the first points Army has allowed in the second half this year.
- Army forced its first safety since 2021 vs. Ball State.

ARMY ROLLS IN PRIMETIME OVER TEMPLE

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. -- The Army Black Knights (4-0, 3-0 AAC) steamrolled over the Temple Owls (1-4, 0-2 AAC), 42-14 on Thursday night at Lincoln Financial Field.

QB Bryson Daily was once again spectacular, rushing for 152 yards, his third consecutive 100-yard performance while adding three rushing touchdowns. Daily has scored three rushing touchdowns in back-to-back weeks. RB Kanye Udoh aided Daily on the ground, rushing for a career-high 128 yards of his own, including a 28-yard touchdown run.

The Black Knights once again totaled over 400 yards of offense (489), eclipsing that mark in all four games of the year. Army's defense was equally impressive, generating seven sacks by seven different players and holding Temple to –5 rushing yards, the fewest the Army defense has allowed since at least 1996.

On the game's opening drive, the Temple offense had a touchdown negated on a holding penalty when QB Evan Simon hit Antonio Jones for 49 down the middle of the Army defense. Army's defense would hold, forcing a punt following the holding penalty.

On Army's third offensive play from scrimmage, slot back Noah Short took a pitch from QB Bryson Daily and raced down the left sideline for a 61-yard touchdown, the longest rush of his career. The drive started with a 22-yard run by Daily. On the ensuing drive, the defense forced another punt as OLB Eric Ford logged his first career sack, bringing down Simon for a loss of seven. Army led 7-0 after one quarter.

Army's second offensive drive continued into the second quarter, as the Black Knights moved methodically driving 13 plays, 89 yards and taking 8:29 off the clock, capped off by a Daily 8-yard touchdown run to take a 14-0 advantage. Daily connected with Short on a 27-yard pitch and catch to get into the red zone.

Army forced another punt on the Owls' second drive, with Josiah Banks tipping a third-down pass at the line of scrimmage to halt the drive. Temple answered with a stop of its own as the Black Knights punted with 3:23 left to play in the half. The Army defense got the ball right back to set up the offense with a two-minute drill, forcing a three and out. However, Army's offense was stymied once again and was forced to punt back with just over a minute to play in the half.

On the first play of the drive, DL Jacob Tuioti recorded his first career sack to force yet another three and out from the Temple offense. Army got a 27-yard completion from Daily to WR Casey Reynolds to start the drive, but time ran out on the Black Knights as the first half ended with Army holding its 14-0 lead.

Coming out of the locker room, Daily hurdled a defender on an impressive 36-yard run to get inside the red zone yet again. Daily finished the drive himself, on a 9-yard touchdown run, his second of the game as Army went up 21-0. Army forced its third consecutive three and out on Temple's ensuing drive.

RB Kanye Udoh joined the scoring party in the third quarter on a bruising 28-yard run to extend the lead to 28-0. Temple drove down its next drive and found the end zone with Dante Wright hauling in a 29-yard touchdown pass from Evan Simon with 1:10 to go in the third. The Owls attempted a pass on a two-point conversion, when Josiah Banks broke up the pass.

Simon hit Daniel Evert for a 54-yard touchdown on Temple's next drive, cutting the score to 28-14 following a successful two-point conversion. With the Owls within two scores, Army answered with an efficient six-play drive led by a career-long 41-yard scamper from Udoh. Daily then made it consecutive three rushing touchdowns, scoring from 12 yards out to make it 35-14.

Jayden Mayes got the ball back for Army with his second interception of the season, diving along the far sidelines to pick off Simon with just over six minutes to play.

QB Dewayne Coleman entered following the interception, finding WR Cam Schurr for an 18-yard touchdown pass which marked the first career touchdowns for each. K Trey Gronotte knocked in his sixth extra point of the game to bring the final score to 42-14.

Elo Modozie, Adam Cash, Kyle Lewis and Brett Gerena added sacks in the closing quarter as Army recorded seven total sacks after not recording one through the first three games.

ARMY ROLLS PAST TULSA, 49-7

TULSA, Okla. -- The Army Black Knights (5-0, 4-0 AAC) rolled past the Tulsa Golden Hurricane (2-4, 0-2), 49-7 on a hot and sunny day in the Oklahoma Plains.

Senior quarterback Bryson Daily accounted for four touchdowns (two passing & two rushing), passing a perfect five-for-five for 140 yards, while adding 110 yards on the ground. Daily was aided by slot back Noah Short who totaled three receptions for 121 yards and two touchdowns and RB Kanye Udoh who rushed for 137 yards and two rushing scores.

The Golden Hurricane won the toss and elected to receive, leading to a three-and-out on its opening drive as Kyle Lewis got in for a strip-sack on third down, but Tulsa was able to recover the fumble. The punt on fourth and 14 became nullified after a roughing the kicker penalty by Casey Reynolds to extend the drive. The defense held once again, forcing a turnover on downs as Army's offense would then start its first drive in Tulsa territory.

QB Bryson Daily and the offense wasted no time in scoring its fifth-straight opening drive touchdown this season as Daily hit SB Noah Short for a 37-yard touchdown strike on the third play from scrimmage to make it 7-0 Army.

The Golden Hurricane found the end zone on the ensuing drive after being helped by a roughing the passer penalty. The score came courtesy of a Cooper Legas one-yard touchdown run to make it 7-7. After one quarter, Tulsa dominated the time of possession 10:25 to 4:35. After Army's first punt on one of its first two drives in a game this season, Army's defense held once again on a fourth down conversion attempt to get the ball back with 8:38 remaining in the first half.

Daily connected with Short again through the air down the right sideline for 26 yards, pushing Army into Tulsa territory again. Army's drive continued into the red zone with a 21-yard rush from Daily and a 16-yard pass to Hayden Reed to set up first and goal. Daily finished off the drive on a four-yard touchdown run, his ninth rushing score of the year as the Black Knights retook the lead 14-7 with five minutes to go in the half. Tulsa went three-and-out on its next drive to give Army another chance on offense before halftime.

Late in the first half, it was Daily and Short once again combining for a long touchdown, with Short taking a screen pass 58 yards to the house for his first career multi-touchdown effort. Daily finished the first half, passing five-for-five for 140 yards, two touchdown passes and also added a score on the ground.

On the opening drive of the third quarter, RB Kanye Udoh joined the party, breaking loose on a 61-yard touchdown run as Army jumped out to a three-score lead, 28-7. Tulsa continued to test the Army defense on fourth down, resulting in its third turnover on downs in six drives to begin the game. Mirroring his most recent attempt, Udoh took a carry to the house from a new career-best 63 yards out down the right sideline on Army's second play of the drive to quickly make it 35-7.

It was then more of the same from Army's defense forcing another three-and-out to set up another touchdown drive. Daily found paydirt again with a 27-yard rushing score to mark his third straight effort with multiple scores on the ground. Army's first six touchdown drives were all took up under five minutes of game clock.

After another three-and-out from the Tulsa offense in the fourth quarter, QB Dewayne Coleman led the Black Knights down for a seventh touchdown drive of the game. Coleman, RB Jake Rendina and SB David Clerk accounted for all 49 yards on the ground on the drive with TE Will Montesi securing his first career catch for 20 yards. Coleman punched in the touchdown from four yards out on the ground for his first career rushing score which made it a 49-7 game with just over seven minutes remaining.

The score remained 49-7 to the final whistle as Army extended its nation-leading winning streak to nine and secure its first 5-0 start since 1996.

The Black Knights outgained the Golden Hurricane 481-268 for the game including 321-159 on the ground.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Army started the season 5-0 for the first time since 1996 and fourth since 1950 (1950, 1985, 1996).
- Army's 49 points scored was the most scored this season and the most since putting up 57 against Delaware State in September 2023.
- Daily has rushed for over 100 yards in four consecutive games.
- Short registered a career-best 121 receiving yards while tabbing his first career multi-touchdown effort. It was his second career 100-yard receiving performance. Short became the 14th Army player to record multiple 100-yard receiving games in their career.
- Udoh's 100-yard effort on six carries is the fourth-fewest rushing attempts in program history to reach the century mark.
- He is the first to reach 100 yards on six carries since Ahmad Bradshaw versus Lafayette on 10/15/2016.
- It was the first time since at least 1995 in which Army has had multiple 100+ yard rushers and a 100+ yard receiver.
- The offense is 19-for-20 scoring in the red zone (16 rush TDs, two passing TDs, one FG). The one missed scoring chance came from kneeling the ball to end the game vs. Temple.
- Army has logged over 400 yards of total offense in every game this season, racking up 481 today at Tulsa.
- Army had eight offensive plays gain at least 20 yards.

ARMY TAKES DOWN UAB 44-10, EXTENDING WIN STREAK TO TEN

WEST POINT, N.Y. -- The Army Black Knights (6-0, 5-0 AAC) continued its hot start, defeating the UAB Blazers (1-5, 0-3), 44-10 on a beautiful sunny autumn day at Michie Stadium. With the victory, Army became bowl-game eligible, the earliest in a season ever being eligible.

QB Bryson Daily was sensational again, accounting for five touchdowns (four rushing and one passing) passing for 102 yards and rushing for 136, becoming the first Army rusher with a four rushing touchdown game since Kelvin Hopkins Jr. (2018).

Army's defense set the tone for the day on the opening series of the game, forcing a turnover on downs. The Blazers went for it on fourth-and-one from their 34-yard line which was stuffed by LB Elo Modozie.

Army's offense wasted no time with the great field position as QB Bryson Daily took the first offensive snap 29 yards down the left sideline for a touchdown. Army continued its streak of scoring a touchdown on every first drive of the game this season.

UAB got into Army territory for the first time on its next drive with the help of a fourth down conversion, a nine-yard pass from QB Jalen Kitna, son of former NFL quarterback Jon Kitna to WR Amare Thomas. The Army defense would hold as the Blazers settled for a 50-yard field goal converted by Jonah Delange, bringing the score to 7-3.

On the second offensive drive of the day, Daily and the offense marched eight plays, all on the ground for 65 yards for another touchdown drive without facing a third down. Daily and RB Kanye Udoh each had 14-yard rushes to lead the drive, as Daily punched in the score from nine yards out for his fourth consecutive game with multiple rushing touchdowns. Army's two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful on a rush from freshman QB Ethan Washington, as the Black Knights led 13-3.

Two plays after the Black Knights score, junior S Casey Larkin intercepted a Kitna pass, his first career interception to give Army the ball in good field position again at the UAB 37-yard line. Daily completed the first-quarter hat trick, rushing for his third touchdown in the game's opening quarter, from 13 yards out. After an action-packed opening quarter, Army led 20-3. Udoh joined the scoring efforts, taking in a touchdown run from 12 yards out as Army scored a touchdown on its first four drives of the contest to take a commanding 27-3 first-half lead.

UAB got down to Army's goal line after Kitna connected with WR Kam Shanks for gains of 20, 40, and 18 on three consecutive plays. The Blazers were unable to find the end zone as the nation's top red zone defense flexed its muscle, stopping UAB on three consecutive rushing plays, before LB Eric Ford came up with a sack of Kitna on fourth down.

Backed up on their own five-yard line, Daily hit WR Casey Reynolds for a 34-yard gain on Army's first pass attempt of the game. After a pair of Udoh runs, Daily hit Reynolds once again for a big play, this time a 50-yard touchdown as Reynolds broke free through the middle of the field. UAB drove down into the red zone once again, with Larkin coming up with another huge play and his second interception of the game. Heading into the locker room, Army held a 34-3 lead, racking up 312 yards of offense, 210 of which came on the ground.

Army bled 7:26 of the clock on offense after getting the ball to begin the second half, culminating in Daily's fourth rushing touchdown of the game which marked a new career-best. Army's drive totaled 12 plays in total to gain 75 yards and the Black Knights extended the lead to 41-3 as freshman K Dawson Jones knocked in his first career PAT. In the fourth quarter, K Trey Gronotte made it a 44-3 game, knocking in his second field goal of the season from 23 yards out.

The Blazers found the end zone on their final possession of the game as Army rotated in many of the younger players on the roster.

- Army scored 40+ points in three consecutive games for the first time since 1985.
- Army eclipsed 400 yards of total offense in all six games this season, tied for second most in a season since 2000 (2011, 2013, 2016, 2017). Army's high in a season is eight such games, coming in the 2012 season.
- Army's 6-0 start was only its third since 1950 (1950, 1996 and 2024).
- Army's defense has held its opponents to 21 or less points in the last 11 games dating back to October of 2023.
- Daily scored a rushing touchdown in four consecutive games, all of which were multi-rushing touchdown efforts. Daily has seven career multi-rushing touchdown games. Trent Steelman (2009-12) has the most with 12, since 2000 in the Army record books.
- Daily's four rushing touchdown performance was the first since Kelvin Hopkins (5, vs. Houston, 2018). It was the ninth such performance in Army annuals since 1996.
- Reynolds' 50-yard receiving touchdown was his longest reception of the season and was his third score of the season. Reynolds finished with two catches for 84 yards, a career high.
- S Casey Larkin recorded the first two interceptions of his career.
- LBs Eric Ford and Brett Gerena each recorded their second sack of the season while LB Elo Modozie registered two sacks.

DAILY'S RECORD-SETTING DAY LEADS ARMY OVER EAST CAROLINA, 45-28

WEST POINT, N.Y. -- The No. 23 Army Black Knights (7-0, 6-0 AAC) continued their undefeated season, dominating the East Carolina Pirates (3-4, 1-2), 45-28 on a picturesque October day at a sold-out Michie Stadium. QB Bryson Daily had a record-setting day, breaking two single-season program records, most rushing touchdowns in a season, and most touchdowns responsible for in a season.

The Black Knights came out of the gates strong as Army's defense forced a three-and-out on the first possession. On Army's first offensive play from scrimmage, QB Bryson Daily connected with his go-to receiver Casey Reynolds for a gain of 37 down the middle of the East Carolina defense. Army finished off the drive five plays later as Daily found slot back Miles Stewart for a 13-yard touchdown reception in the right corner of the end zone as Army's streak of scoring on all its first drives this season continued. It was Stewart's first career reception and first career offensive score.

On East Carolina's second drive, the Black Knight defense again forced a three-and-out. Army's offense faced a third-and-nine as Daily found slot back Noah Short for a gain of 29 down the middle of the defense getting down near midfield. Army faced a fourth-and-one on the drive which Daily was able to convert by way of a three-yard run. At the end of the first quarter, Army led 7-0, driving and facing a fourth down from the ECU 17.

On the first play of the second quarter, K Trey Gronotte booted in a 32-yard field goal, to extend the Army lead, 10-0 as he remained perfect on kicks this season. On the drive, Army marched 14 plays, 64 yards and took 8:38 off the clock. Gronotte's kickoff left the Pirates on their own 13-yard line where Army's defense was able to force another three-and-out, as the defense forced a punt on each of the first three series of the game.

On the ensuing drive, Daily continued to find success through the air, finding Short again, this time for a gain of 14 yards. Daily finished the drive himself with an impressive spin move on his way to a 15-yard touchdown run as the Black Knights went up 17-0. Army's defense continued to excel, forcing the Pirates into a fourth-and-one at their own 31-yard line in which LB Eric Ford batted down the pass from ECU quarterback Katin Houser.

On the first play following the turnover, Daily broke free for a 31-yard touchdown run, his sixth multi-rushing touchdown game of the season and his fifth straight game doing so, as the Black Knights raced out to a 24-0 first-half lead. The Black Knight defense once again stifled the Pirates' drive, forcing a second consecutive turnover on downs and allowing only four yards on the drive.

On their next drive, a personal foul by the Black Knights allowed ECU to advance to their 45-yard line with 1:30 remaining in the half. ECU continued to move the ball, reaching a first-and-10 at Army's 40-yard line. However, their momentum was halted when cornerback Justin Weaver snagged his first career interception, giving Army's offense the ball at their own 16-yard line with less than a minute remaining in the half.

Army entered the locker room, leading 24-0, only allowing 95 yards to East Carolina.

In the second half, sophomore RB Kanye Udoh joined the fun, breaking off a 42-yard run down at the one-yard line. Daily then capitalized, finishing the drive off, scoring his third rushing touchdown of the game and breaking Army's single-season touchdown responsible-for record. On the Pirates' first offensive drive of the half, the Army defense forced a third-and-11 at the ECU 48-yard line, however, Houser completed a 53-yard strike to WR Chase Sowell in the end zone to put the Pirates on the scoreboard, cutting the deficit to 31-7.

Senior Tyrell Robinson, making his season debut, received his first offensive touch in the third quarter, a 23-yard rush. The Black Knights continued their momentum, driving down to the red zone. On first and goal, Daily ran three yards into the end zone, scoring his fourth rushing touchdown of the game and breaking yet another Army record for most rushing touchdowns in a season, surpassing the mark of 17.

Army's defense continued to roll as they did not allow ECU to get into Army's territory in for the remainder of the third quarter, starting the fourth quarter with a 38-7 lead. East Carolina was able to score two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, but Army never wavered in controlling the game, hanging on to a 45-28 victory.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Daily scored six touchdowns, five on the ground and one passing, the first six-touchdown-accounted-for-game by an Army player since Elmer Oliphant's six-touchdown day in 1916.
- Daily totaled 171 rushing yards on 31 carries (5.5 avg.), while also passing seven-for-10 for 147 yards. His five rushing touchdowns tied the program record for most in a single game, the most recent occurrence being Kelvin Hopkins Jr in 2018.
- With his fourth rushing touchdown of the game and his 18th of the year, Daily broke the record for most rushing scores in a single season breaking Carlton Jones' (2004), Trent Steelman's (2012), and Kelvin Hopkins Jr.'s (2018) mark of 17.
- Army's 7-0 start is only its third since 1950 (1950, 1996, and 2024).
- CB Justin Weaver logged his first career interception, Army's ninth INT of the season.
- Daily logged his sixth consecutive 100-yard rushing performance, breaking Trent Steelman's record (2012) for the most consecutive games eclipsing 100 yards on the ground.

No. 21 ARMY VICTORIOUS, 20-3, OVER RIVAL IN DAILY'S ABSENCE BEHIND UDOH'S CAREER DAY

WEST POINT, N.Y. -- The No. 21 Army Black Knights (8-0, 6-0 AAC) defeated service academy rival Air Force (1-7, 0-4) at a sold-out Michie Stadium on Saturday afternoon, 20-3.

Missing starting quarterback Bryson Daily, Army relied on sophomore RB Kanye Udoh who rattled off a career-best 158 rushing yards and scored two touchdowns to propel Army to win its second consecutive game over Air Force. Udoh rushed 22 times for 158 yards (7.2 avg.) and two touchdowns. Junior Dewayne Coleman made his first career start at quarterback in place of Daily who was ruled out for the game (injury or illness). In his starting debut, Coleman passed 5-for-8 for 48 yards and rushed 16 times for 42 yards, playing turnover-free football.

Army's defense forced a quick stop when LB Kalib Fortner and DL Jack Latore combined to stop Hayes on a third-and-three that forced an Air Force punt.

Finding comfort early in his starting debut, Coleman completed a 24-yard pass to WR Casey Reynolds on third-and-six to get the offense down to the Air Force 17-yard line. The opening drive stalled out and K Trey Gronotte booted in a 30-yard field goal to give Army an early 3-0. It was the first drive Army failed to score a touchdown on the game's opening drive this season.

The Air Force offense went nowhere once again on its second drive, with DL Kody Harris-Miller and then LBs Kalib Fortner & Elo Modozie recording sacks on back-to-back plays which forced another punt. Army's offense began its second drive with good field position at its own 46-yard line, but the Falcons' defense forced a quick three and out. P James Wagenseller hit a 41-yard punt that was downed at Air Force's 7-yard line.

Nate Woody's defense continued to control the game, forcing another three-and-out with the Black Knights' offense receiving the ball back at the Air Force 44. On the first play of the second quarter, Army went for it on a fourth-and-two with RB Kanye Udoh taking a direct snap and moving the chains. Army got into the red zone after a pass interference was drawn in the end zone by WR Liam Fortner, with the Black Knights settling for another Gronotte field goal, this time from 32 yards out which made it 6-0.

Air Force answered with a field goal drive of its own, with Matthew Dapore knocking in a 32-yarder. The Black Knights' final drive of the half saw Army run out the clock after taking a sack in its own territory, taking a 6-3 lead into halftime. Air Force outgained Army in total offense in the first half 103-98. Army only rushed for 50 yards, a season-low.

On the opening drive of the second half, Army's offense faced a fourth-and-two that RB Kanye Udoh took up the middle for eight yards and a big first down. Udoh and Coleman did all the work on the eventual nine-play scoring drive on the ground, with Udoh scoring from 12 yards out for the game's first touchdown. Army led 13-3 after the 65-play drive. Coleman had runs of seven and 15 yards on the drive.

DL Kody Harris-Miller then logged his second sack of the day, bringing down Hayes for a loss of seven yards as the Black Knights defense forced another Falcons punt. Early in the fourth quarter, S Casey Larkin intercepted a Hayes pass that halted a promising Air Force drive that got down to Army's 22-yard line.

Following the interception as Army ran off game clock, Udoh busted loose on a 40-yard run which put him over the century mark for the fourth time this season. Later in the drive, the Black Knights lined up for a 48-yard field goal, before changing the formation to have holder Matthew Rhodes take a direct snap. Rhodes launched a pass to the end zone which fell incomplete to Reynolds.

On the ensuing Air Force drive, Army S Max DiDomenico intercepted Hayes and returned it 71 yards back the other way. On the next play from scrimmage, Udoh busted loose again for his second score of the day, a 25-yard touchdown run to seal the game, 20-3. CB Jaydan Mayes would intercept Army's third pass of the game with just under a minute left to play.

No. 18 ARMY GRINDS OUT 14-3 WIN AT NORTH TEXAS

DENTON, Texas -- The No. 18 AP-ranked Army Black Knights (9-0, 7-0 AAC) hit the road and defeated conference foe North Texas (5-3, 2-3), 14-3 for what was the Black Knights 13th consecutive win dating back to 2023. QB Bryson Daily returned to the starting lineup after missing the previous week's game (injury or illness) and didn't miss a beat rushing for 153 yards and two rushing touchdowns on 36 carries (4.2 avg.).

On the first drive of the game, North Texas drove 18 plays to convert a 31-yard field goal by K Kali Nguma to take a 3-0 lead, the first-time all-season Army had trailed. The Army defense held in the red zone with a sack from DL Kyle Lewis, and a tackle for a loss of –3 from DL Kody Harris-Miller. On the drive, the Mean Green converted two fourth downs to extend the drive. Following the field goal, North Texas did a surprise onside kick that Army was ready for and was recovered by LB Hamilton Baker as Army received the ball on the North Texas 48-yard line.

On Army's opening drive with advantageous field position, slot back Tyrell Robinson had a rush of eight for an early first down to break into North Texas territory. Army faced a third-and-one on the North Texas 17-yard line in which Daily converted on a four-yard run. Daily capped off Army's opening drive with a 10-yard touchdown run, to recapture the lead 7-3. It was Daily's 20th rushing touchdown of the season.

North Texas converted another fourth down conversion on its second drive of the game, a fourth and two on a short quick pass from QB Chandler Morris to WR Blair Conwright. On the first play of the second quarter, Morris threw a strike to Damon Ward Jr. for a gain of 28 yards. North Texas was down to the Army one-yard line and looked poised for a touchdown opportunity, but Army's defense was up for the challenge forcing a turnover on downs with three consecutive stops from within the two-yard line, the fourth down stop by Lewis and NB Chance Keith.

Army's offense took over on its own two-yard line and went on a methodical 'Army-like' drive, chewing up 10:50 of the game clock, running 14 plays and marching 46 yards. However, Army got behind the sticks on a holding penalty, an incomplete pass and then Daily would get sacked to stall out the drive, forcing a punt. Army's defense quickly got the ball back forcing a turnover on downs as the Mean Green went for it from its own 41-yard line.

Army was in a prime position to get a field goal before half, getting down to the North Texas 14-yard line. However, Army faked the field goal, as Matthew Rhodes took the direct snap and raced to the right sideline gaining 12 yards but was tackled at the two-yard line as the first half clock expired. Army took a 7-3 lead into the locker room leading time of possession 17:58 to 12:02.

Army received the second-half kickoff and after picking up a first down on a fourth and short, Daily would throw his first interception of the season trying to find WR Casey Reynolds who was racing to the right sideline by Brian Nelson II. The Black Knights defense forced a quick three-and-out and got the ball back for the Army offense. After several positive runs to kick off the drive, Daily broke free up the middle for a gain of 17 to the North Texas 36-yard line, breaking the 1,000-yard mark for the season, Army's first 1,000-yard rusher since Kelvin Hopkins Jr in 2018. It also put him over 2,000 career rushing yards.

Facing a fourth-and-four from the North Texas 30 yard-line, Army rolled the dice and went for it, going from a gun-empty formation in which slot back Noah Short jetted across, taking a handoff from Daily and nosing the football to the first down marker on the left sideline. The third quarter came to a close with Army still maintaining a slim 7-3 lead, driving and facing a third-and-three at the North Texas 19.

Daily would pick up the first down as the fourth quarter started and four plays later Army would take a two-score lead, 14-3, on what was the longest drive of the season, a 21-play drive marching 94 yards and taking off almost a full quarter of play (13:54) off the game clock on Daily's second touchdown of the day, a two-yard touchdown run.

North Texas would threaten twice in the red zone to narrow the deficit late in the fourth quarter, but Army came up with two huge stops, as CB Donovan Platt and CB Justin each had interceptions in the end zone to keep North Texas from scoring.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Daily scored his 20th rushing touchdown of the season in the first quarter. Since 2020, only 14 college football players have scored 20+ rushing touchdowns in a given season.
- Daily logged his seventh multi-rushing touchdown performance this season and his sixth consecutive.
- Daily eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark on the season on a run in the third quarter, Army's first 1,000-yard rusher since Kelvin Hopkins Jr in 2018. Daily is only the fourth 1,000-yard rusher in the Jeff Monken era (Hopkins, 2018; Bradshaw, 2017; and Dixon, 2014).
- His nine multi-rushing touchdown games are T-3rd most by an Army player for their career since 2000.
- RB Kanye Udoh added 65 yards rushing on 13 carries.
- Army converted 9-for-13 on third downs and a perfect three-for-three on fourth downs.
- Nate Woody's defense has not allowed a touchdown in eight consecutive quarters. Entering today, Army's defense ranked No. 1 in the country in scoring defense (11.25 points per game).
- S Max DiDomenico totaled a team high nine tackles (seven solo).
- Army's defense, the nation's best red zone defense had three red zone stops of North Texas, resulting in zero points (turnover on downs and two interceptions).
- Army's 13-game winning streak is its longest since the 1949-50 seasons.

No. 18 ARMY FALLS TO No. 6 NOTRE DAME AT YANKEE STADIUM TO END 13-GAME WINNING STREAK

BRONX, N.Y. -- The No. 18 AP-ranked Army Black Knights (9-1, 7-0 AAC) fell by a score of 49-14 at Yankee Stadium to the No. 6 Notre Dame Fighting Irish (10-1) on Saturday night.

QB Bryson Daily totaled 139 yards on the ground on 39 carries (3.6 avg.) while scoring two rushing touchdowns, giving him eight 100-yard games on the ground this season in nine games played, tying for the most 100-yard rushing games in a single-season in Army history.

Notre Dame totaled 462 yards of total offense, 130 on the ground from sophomore RB Jeremiyah Love, who scored two touchdowns to power the Irish offensive attack. Irish QB Riley Leonard passed an efficient 10-13 for 148 yards and two touchdowns.

Notre Dame won the coin toss and deferred to the second half. Army went three-and-out after three Bryson Daily runs for eight yards, punting from its own 34-yard line.

Notre Dame wasted no time on its opening drive of the game, marching five plays and 68 yards scoring on a 28-yard touchdown pass from QB Riley Leonard to WR Jordan Faison.

Army's offense again went three-and-out as P James Wagenseller's punt attempt was blocked by Notre Dame's Bryce Young and the Fighting Irish recovered at the Army seven-yard line. Notre Dame would score three plays later on a six-yard touchdown pass from Leonard to RB Jeremiyah Love to take a commanding 14-0 early in the first quarter.

Army began moving the football on its third drive which went into the second quarter, marching methodically on a 12-play, 75-yard drive absorbing 7:37 off the clock that was finished off by Daily's 22nd rushing score of the season, from four yards out to cut into the deficit, 14-7. Army's longest play from scrimmage on the drive was a pair of eight-yard runs from Daily.

Notre Dame moved quickly, having a first and goal from the Army five-yard line. However, the nation's top red zone defense was up for the test, stopping four straight Irish runs including CB Jaydan Mayes stuffing a Jeremiyah Love fourth-and-goal rush attempt to force a turnover on downs.

The Army offense could not capitalize on the punt going three-and-out, yielding the ball back to Notre Dame. The Irish would score three plays later on a 14-yard run by Love to retake a two-score lead, 21-7.

After forcing another three and out, the Irish got the ball back with just over two minutes remaining in the half, eventually having a first and goal from the one-yard line. Army's goal line defense stuffed two runs up the middle from Leonard, before RB Jadarian Price found the end zone on third down with 26 seconds remaining which made it a 28-7 game.

Daily ran for a first down on Army's opening play of the next drive, but the ball was punched out and recovered by Notre Dame with 19 seconds on the clock. The Irish settled for a 47-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half, but the kick was no good and it remained 28-7 at the break.

Wasting no time coming out of the locker room, Jeremiyah Love took the handoff on the first play of the second half for a 68-yard touchdown to extend the Irish lead, 35-7.

Army's Elo Modozie would block a Mitch Jeter field goal attempt from 30 yards away, recovered by Casey Larkin to halt an Irish scoring opportunity in the third quarter.

The Irish added another score late in the third quarter, a 10-yard touchdown run by RB Jadarian Price to extend the lead to 42-7.

In the fourth, Notre Dame scored again on a 58-yard run by Aneyas Williams to make the score, 49-7.

Army drove down on its final possession for a touchdown, with Daily finding paydirt from one yard out for his 23rd rushing touchdown of the season, making the final score 49-14.

HIGHLIGHTS AND GAME NOTES

- Army's 13 game winning streak of 13 games came to an end with the defeat. It was the longest active streak nationally and it was Army's longest winning streak since between the 1949-1950 seasons.
- QB Bryson Daily's 23 rushing touchdowns were the second most in the country, only four behind Boise State's Ashton Jeanty (27).
- Daily has rushed for 100 yards in eight games, tying for the most 100-yard games in a single-season in Army history with Mike Mayweather (1990).
- Notre Dame leads the all-time series, 40-8-4.
- Army has dropped its last 16 games vs. Notre Dame. Army's last win over the Fighting Irish came 10/11/1958, a 14-2 Army win in South Bend, Ind.
- Daily has totaled eight multi-rushing touchdown performances and now has 10 for his career, tied for the second most by an Army rusher since 2000.
- LB Elo Modozie blocked his second field goal of the season in the third quarter.
- Both of Modozie's blocked field goals were returned by Casey Larkin for over 25 yards.

No. 25 ARMY DEFEATS UTSA 29-24, TO FINISH 8-0 IN AAC PLAY

WEST POINT, N.Y. -- The No. 25 AP-ranked Army Black Knights (10-1, 8-0 AAC) finished the AAC regular season a perfect 8-0 on Saturday afternoon at Michie Stadium defeating the UTSA Roadrunners (6-6, 4-4), 29-24.

After receiving the opening kickoff, the Black Knights faced an early fourth-and-one on its own 34 in which QB Bryson Daily snuck forward for a fresh set of downs. Army again faced a fourth down on the opening drive, a fourth-and-four at its own 42-yard line that Daily converted on a quick outside pass to slot back Noah Short for a gain of six. Army faced its third fourth down on the opening drive, a fourth-and-three from the UTSA 45-yard line that was converted by an outside run. On the next play, Daily took a deep shot to slot back Tyrell Robinson for a 41-yard touchdown, Robinson's first touchdown of the season to take a 7-0 lead.

The Roadrunners wasted no time responding to Army's score, scoring in seven plays, 53 yards and 2:32 on a 10-yard touchdown run by RB Brandon High to knot the game at 7-7. Army drove into UTSA territory on its next drive before being stopped on a fourth-and-three, as the drive was kept alive by a third-and-11 conversion from the Army 24-yard line where Daily hit WR Casey Reynolds down the left sideline for a 21-yard gain.

The Army defense quickly answered to force a punt with a sack for a loss of eight by LB Kalib Fortner, his first of the season. Army moved the chains on its ensuing drive with Daily hitting Reynolds for a gain of 27 yards into UTSA territory. The drive stalled just outside the red zone as Army settled for a 39-yard field goal attempt which was converted by K Trey Gronotte to mark a new career-long from the senior to give Army a 10-7 lead. UTSA converted on a 33-yard field goal of its own from K Tate Sandell to re-tie the game at 10-10.

With 22 seconds remaining until the half, UTSA fumbled on a muffed shotgun snap from center and quarterback that gave Army the ball back at the UTSA 47-yard line. Daily broke free for a rush of 17 yards to set up Gronotte's second field goal of the afternoon from 35 yards out to take a 13-10 lead into the locker room.

Beginning the second half, UTSA marched 11 plays, 75 yards and scored to take the lead, 17-13 on a 23-yard pass from QB Owen McCown to WR Devin McCuin. Army answered when WR Liam Fortner hauled in his first catch of the season for 28 yards to get the Black Knights down to the Roadrunners' five-yard line. However, a false start by TE David Crossan at the one-yard line set the offense back off the goal line and had to settle for Gronotte's third field goal from 22 yards away to bring the score within one, 17-16 UTSA.

The fourth quarter began with a fourth-and-one for UTSA from its own 16-yard line, as the Roadrunners looked to replicate Army's success in the game on fourth down and leave the offense on the field. Attempting a halfback dive, Fortner and NB Chance Keith were there to meet the ball carrier behind the line and force a pivotal turnover on downs. Starting in the red zone, the Army offense needed five plays to march 16 yards as Daily punched in his 24th rushing touchdown of the season from one yard out. Army's two-point conversion was unsuccessful, and the Black Knights secured a 22-17 lead.

UTSA picked up a pair of first downs on its next drive, before McCown was picked off by S Collin Matteson who returned it 41 yards to the UTSA 46. On the second play of Army's drive, Daily surged for a 42-yard rushing score to match the AAC single-season record with 25 touchdowns on the ground this season. The Gronotte extra point gave Army a 29-17 lead. UTSA wasted no time answering, needing just four plays and 1:16 to march 75 yards for a touchdown as High ran into the end zone from six yards out with 9:10 remaining.

Army bled clock and moved the chains with its 29-24 lead, settling for a 47-yard field goal attempt by Gronotte coming out of the two-minute timeout, but the attempt was no good which gave UTSA an opportunity to win the game with a touchdown. After getting the ball into Army territory, McCown went for a deep pass over the middle which was broken up by S Gavin Shields with the ball falling into the hands of S Casey Larkin to seal the victory for the Black Knights.

- Army finished a perfect 6-0 in the regular season at Michie Stadium for the fourth time under Head Coach Jeff Monken (2017, 2018, 2020). Army is 44-17 (.721%) at home under Monken (2014-pres.).
- Army is now 4-1 all-time vs. UTSA as this matchup marks the third straight season facing off, with Army winning in each of the last two seasons.
- Daily has rushed for 100 yards in nine consecutive games this season, now the most 100-yard games by an Army rusher in single-season history, breaking Mike Mayweather (8, 1990).
- Daily scored his 25th rushing touchdown of the season. Since 1956, only 31 players in FBS college football have totaled 25+ rushing scores in a single season. With one more rushing score Daily will have the most rushing touchdowns in AAC single-season history.
- Slot back Tyrell Robinson found the end zone for the first time this season on a 41-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter. Robinson has 13 career offensive touchdowns (seven receiving, six rushing).
- With 54 yards today, Robinson now sits No. 10 in Army program history in all-purpose yards with 3,100.

No. 24 ARMY WINS AMERICAN ATHLETIC CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP, 35-14 OVER TULANE

WEST POINT, N.Y. -- The No. 24 AP-ranked Army Black Knights (11-1, 9-0 AAC) won the American Athletic Conference championship on Friday night, defeating the Tulane Green Wave (9-4, 7-2), 35-14 at Michie Stadium on a cold December night. Army was propelled by quarterback Bryson Daily, who scored four rushing touchdowns and tied the record for most by a player in an AAC Championship game. Daily finished with 126 yards on 25 attempts (5.0 avg.) Daily took home The Mike Aresco Most Outstanding Player award.

After receiving the opening kickoff, Tulane QB Darian Mensah hit WR Mario Williams for a pitch and catch of 30 yards to get down to the Army 27-yard line. Army's defense held strong, forcing a field goal attempt in which Tulane's holder and kicker were not on the same page for. Army's Jaydan Mayes ran in off the edge and jumped on the ball as the Tulane holder attempted to get the ball down and the kicker failed to try to get the kick off.

With momentum, Army slot back Noah Short broke off on a run of 17 yards on the first offensive play from scrimmage. Later in the drive, Army faced a fourth-and-one in which QB Bryson Daily put his head down and ran for four tough yards to move the sticks. Daily put the exclamation mark on the drive with a five-yard touchdown run to take a 7-0 lead. It was Daily's 26th rushing score of the season, which gave him the single-season AAC rushing touchdown record.

The first quarter ended with Tulane on the move. The Green Wave threatened from the Army 11-yard with a fresh set of downs, but a third-down sack by OLB Elo Modozie for a loss of eight on Mensah forced another field goal attempt in which K Patrick Durkin missed from 38 yards to the right as Army's defense came up with a key stop once again.

Two plays later, Army running back Kanye Udoh broke free on a 72-yard run down the right sideline down to the Tulane three-yard line. Daily finished off the run on a bruising three-yard touchdown run as the Black Knights jumped out to a 14-0 lead. On the ensuing kickoff, K Trey Gronotte raced down on the kickoff coverage and forced a fumble, hitting Tulane kick returner Rayshawn Pleasant and forcing the ball out that was recovered by Army's Tommy Zitiello.

Army got down within the Tulane five-yard line, but were stopped on a fourth-and-three pitch attempt and the Green Wave took over on their own four-yard line with 3:59 remaining in the half. One the third play of the drive, Mensah was intercepted by LB Andon Thomas at the Tulane 37-yard line as Thomas brought it down to the 21-yard line on the return to set up Army before the half. Daily then punched in his third rushing touchdown of the half on third down from four yards out at Army took a 21-0 lead.

Getting the ball back with with 1:40 remaining, the Green Wave needed just four plays to find the end zone with Mensah hitting WR Mario Williams for a 42-yard touchdown to give the Green Wave life before the half. The Black Knights took a 21-7 lead into the break.

Coming out of the locker room the Army offense faced a fourth-and-five, which Army went for and converted on a rare pass attempt of the night as Daily found go-to receiver Casey Reynolds for a gain of nine yards to move inside the Tulane 30-yard line. Daily capped off the drive with his fourth rushing touchdown of the night from seven yards out to give Army a three-possession lead, 28-7, tying the record for the most rushing touchdowns in an AAC Championship game.

The Green Wave took over and marched to the Army 16-yard line where they faced a fourth-and-eight that CB Donavon Platt broke up a pass to the intended receiver to force a turnover on downs. Army then faced a fourth-and-one from its 25-yard line to begin the fourth quarter. Monken rolled the dice once again on fourth down, with Daily plunging forward for six yards to keep the drive and clock moving.

Army kept the ball on the ground and chewed up over ten minutes of clock overall on the drive, capped by a one-yard touchdown run from Udoh to extend the lead to 35-7. Tulane drove down for a touchdown on its final possession, but the Black Knights kept the ball in front of them with the score coming with just 1:17 left in the game as Mensah hit Alex Bauman on a two-yard touchdown pass.

Army finished the game with zero penalties and zero punts while outrushing the Green Wave 335-115.

With the win, Army clinched a perfect 8-0 AAC record in the regular season along with improving its home record this season to 6-0.

No. 22 ARMY FALLS 31-13 IN THE 125TH ARMY-NAVY GAME

LANDOVER, Md. -- The #22 AP-ranked Army Black Knights (11-2, 9-0 AAC) fell by a score of 31-13 to the Navy Midshipmen (9-3, 6-2) at Northwest Stadium in Landover, Md. With the victory, Navy won its 17th Commander-in-Chief's Trophy its first since 2019.

Navy quarterback Blake Horvath accounted for four total touchdowns, two rushing and two passing while rushing for game high 196 yards to lead the Mids' offensive attack. Navy outgained Army 378-178 in total yardage.

On the night, Army QB Bryson Daily ran 19 times for 53 yards, passed seven-for-16 for 65 yards and a touchdown, but threw three interceptions.

From the opening snap, Navy played well. The Midshipmen hit an explosive play on the game's first drive on a slip screen pass for 31 yards to FB Alex Tecza to get down to the Army 22-yard line. Several plays later Navy QB Blake Horvath punched in a one-yard touchdown on a QB sneak to take an early 7-0 lead, a rare deficit for the Black Knights this season.

Army's offense picked up one first down before punting the ball back to Navy. The Army defense settled in and forced a punt after a bad option pitch by Horvath, resulting in a fumble and a loss of 14 yards. Army faced a fourth-and-one from its own 21-yard line as the first quarter came to a close.

Army QB Bryson Daily was intercepted by CB Dashaun Peele on its second drive of the game, only his second of the season trying to get the ball to WR Casey Reynolds on a third and long. Three plays later, Navy struck again as Horvath hit Brandon Chatman on a wheel route for an 18-yard touchdown to take a two-score lead, 14-0.

The Black Knights faced a pivotal fourth-and-three at the Navy 46-yard line on the ensuing drive, with the Midshipmen calling a timeout. Daily dropped back to pass and hit Reynolds down the right sideline for a gain of 18 yards. Two plays later, Daily hit RB Hayden Reed up the seam on a jump pass for a 21-yard touchdown for Reed's first touchdown of the season. K Trey Gronotte knocked in the extra point to make it a 14-7 game.

Navy then moved the ball into Army territory but was forced to punt, giving Army possession back inside its own 10-yard line. The two sides then traded punts to end the half, and Navy took a 14-7 lead into the break. Army only had 55 rushing yards on 20 attempts (2.75 avg.).

Army rolled the dice again on a fourth-and-short at midfield to begin the second half, with SB Noah Short drawing a pass interference penalty on a deep shot where Short had his man beat. The drive stalled and Gronotte booted in a 39-yard field goal attempt to bring Army within four, 14-10.

The Midshipmen quickly answered as Horvath hit Eli Heidenreich on an out route that he raced down the sideline for a 52-yard touchdown, to extend its lead to 21-10.

Trailing by two scores once again, Army moved the chains on a pivotal fourth-and-sixth from its own 45-yard line as Reynolds drew a pass interference call while Daily was also roughed on the play for a personal foul. The Black Knights got into the red zone as the fourth quarter started working on a 10+ play drive, settling for a 31-yard field goal by Gronotte to make it a one-score game at 21-13.

The Army defense got the stop it needed forcing a fourth and five. However, Navy faked the punt with a direct snap to nose guard Landon Robinson who raced down the left sideline for 29 yards and a first down. Navy capitalized several plays later on another one-yard touchdown run by Horvath on a QB sneak to extend the lead to 15 points, 28-13, with 8:50 remaining.

Daily was intercepted for the second time on Army's ensuing drive as Navy then kicked a 27-yard field goal to take a 31-13 lead with under four minutes remaining.

The score remained 31-13 as Navy claimed its first victory of the series since 2021 and third since 2016.

No. 19 ARMY WINS INDEPENDENCE BOWL; BECOMES FIRST 12-WIN TEAM IN SCHOOL HISTORY

SHREVEPORT, La. -- The No.19 AP-ranked Army Black Knights (11-2, 9-0 AAC) played in the postseason for the first time since 2021, defeating the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs in the Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl, 27-6, its 12th win of the season, the most wins in a season in school history.

QB Bryson Daily rushed for 127 yards and three touchdowns on 27 carries, with the third score breaking the record for most rushing touchdowns from a quarterback in FBS history with 32. Daily was named Independence Bowl Offensive MVP for his performance.

As the feature back for the first time this season, RB Hayden Reed ran 20 times for 114 (5.7 avg.) yards and a touchdown. Army's offense held the ball for 40:08 of game time while converting on four-of-five fourth-down conversions. Army finished with 325 yards rushing while allowing just 60 yards on the ground.

LB Kalib Fortner was named Independence Bowl Defensive MVP with a team-high seven tackles including a third down sack and pass breakup.

Louisiana Tech won the toss and chose to receive the ball, and Army forced a punt after DL Trey Sofia forced a pressure and rushed throw on the game's opening drive.

Army's offense wasted no time on its first possession as RB Hayden Reed broke off a run up the middle for 15 yards and slot back Noah Short got loose on the edge for 17 yards. QB Bryson Daily capped off the drive with his NCAA-leading 30th rushing touchdown of the season, from 15 yards out for the Black Knights to take a 7-0 lead. It was an eight-play, 80-yard drive for Army.

The Bulldogs converted one first down on the ensuing drive before punting into the end zone for a touchback. Daily then plunged forward on a fourth-and-short from Army's own 29-yard line to keep an eventual touchdown drive alive. Aided by a 16-yard rush from RB Tyrell Robinson, the drive was capped by a 12-yard touchdown run by RB Hayden Reed to make it 14-0 in the first quarter, his first rushing score of the season.

Louisiana Tech responded to Army's 14 unanswered points by converting on a 27-yard field goal by K Drew Henderson. The field goal was set up by an Evan Bullock 27-yard pass to Eli Finley.

Army drove down for its third consecutive touchdown drive to begin the game, chewing up 12:21 of game clock as Daily converted a pair of fourth downs on the ground to continue to move the chains. He capped the drive with an eight-yard touchdown run to match the FBS record for rushing touchdowns from a quarterback in a season.

Army got a stop on defense to end the half with DL Deshontez Gray and LB Kalib Fortner getting home for sacks as the Black Knights took a 21-3 lead into halftime. Army scored a touchdown on all three of its drives in the first half.

The Bulldogs got three more points, as Henderson connected from 44 yards out, to cut the deficit to 15 points, 21-6.

Early in the fourth quarter, Daily found the end zone for the third time on the night, his 32nd of the season, breaking the NCAA record for most rushing touchdowns in a season by a quarterback, formerly held by Keenan Reynolds (Navy, 31). The score was set up on a 52-yard reception by TE David Crossan, the first reception of his career. On the play, Daily eclipsed 1,000 passing yards on the season, the second Army QB to have 1,000 rushing and passing yards in a season (Kelvin Hopkins Jr., 2018).

With the score 27-6 after a failed two-point conversion for Army, the Bulldogs drove down into the red zone for the third time, having a first-and-goal from the two-yard line. After getting three consecutive stops, CB Jaydan Mayes intercepted Bullock's pass on fourth down.

Louisiana Tech got the ball back twice in the final ten minutes as Army ran the clock out, as the Bulldogs turned the ball over on downs each time.

HISTORY

The Army Athletic Association debuted the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004, inducting the charter class into its own shrine of top athletic achievements. The purpose of the Army Sports Hall of Fame, located within the Kenna Hall of Army Sports, is to honor the athletes, coaches, teams, administrators, and others who have brought distinction to Army athletics over its many years of existence. Eligible candidates include former athletes, athletic teams, coaches, administrators, support staff, or any other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the long history of athletics at the United States Military Academy. Most importantly, these individuals, in addition to specific criteria, must have been of high moral character and must have upheld the values of "Duty, Honor, Country."

The Army Athletic Association inducted its charter class into the Army Sports Hall of Fame at a "black-tie" banquet at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York City on Oct. 1, 2004. Five former members of the Army football program helped comprise that esteemed initial grouping.

TOM CAHILL (HEAD FOOTBALL COACH, 1966-73)

Cahill coached Army football for eight seasons, composing a record of 40-39-2, which ranks sixth on the academy's career wins list. In his first season at the helm, Cahill improved Army from a 4-5-1 win-loss record in 1965 to an 8-2 record in 1966, which led him to be named National Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association, the Football Writers Association of America, and Touchdown Club of Washington, D.C. He became the first coach to win the FWAA award in their first season as a head coach. He posted a 5-3 record against Navy.

THE 25TH EDITION OF ARMY FOOTBALL WENT UNDEFEATED WITH A 9-0 RECORD.

The United States Military Academy at West Point had played college football since 1890, and never went undefeated until its 25th season in 1914. Over 200 out of the 600 members of the Corps of Cadets turned out in early September for the first practice of the football team, and the coaches selected sixty for the varsity team. Between six days of classes, military drills and parades, and the dangers of learning to ride horses, the Cadets practiced one or two hours late on Wednesdays and Saturdays to prepare for the season. Due to injuries and academics, 68 Cadets were on the varsity squad and 47 played during the year.

Head football coach Lieutenant Charles Daly, in his second season, led a staff of 12 active-duty Army officers (half were full-time USMA instructors, the others, including Daly, were on a temporary posting for the football season). Daly, who was a four-time consensus All-American quarterback for three seasons at Harvard and his plebe season at West Point, utilized the emerging modern football coaching techniques employed by Harvard and Yale.

The Cadets played eight straight home games before playing Navy at Franklin Field in Philadelphia, with six shutouts and allowing only three touchdowns. Army beat Stevens (1-7-1), Rutgers (5-3-1), #14 Colgate (5-2-1), Holy Cross (2-5-1), Villanova (4-3-1), #15 Notre Dame (6-2), Maine (6-3), Springfield (6-3), and Navy (6-3). Army handily defeated a Notre Dame team that had beaten them, 35-14, in their first match-up ever in the 1913 season.

Six players were named to All-American squads (end Louis Merillat, center John McEwan, tackle Alexander Weyand, guard Joseph O'Hare, guard Laurence Meacham, and quarterback Vernon Prichard). Running back Paul Hodgson led the team with nine touchdowns and 55 points, followed by running back Charles Benedict with 30 points. Merillat, Joseph Tully, and Robert Neyland each had two receptions for touchdowns. The team scored 32 touchdowns and 219 points, giving up only 20 points.

Ten seniors on the team lettered. They were all members of the USMA Class of 1915, the "Class the Stars Fell Upon," and six of them went on to become general officers. Nine coaches and 24 players were promoted to general and fought in three major wars. Six were named to the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame (Charlie Daly, Lawrence Jones, John McEwan, Alex Weyand, Robert Neyland, and Elmer Oliphant).

Daly was head coach for eight years at Army (58-13-3); and five out of the next seven Army head coaches, including Red Blaik, played for Daly. Ten players went on to lead teams like Tennessee, Nebraska, Oklahoma, and LSU to national championships or winning seasons. Lieutenant Clyde Selleck and Cadet Dwight Eisenhower coached the Cullum Hall (junior varsity/plebe) team against local high and preparatory schools.

An NCAA committee of sports historians (Steve Boda, Robert Rosiek, and others) determined in 1988 a listing of major selectors who picked national champions for seasons prior to the first The Associated Press Poll in 1936. The NCAA published a listing of national champions back to the 1869 season in their 1994 Football Records Book. Army (Helms Athletic Foundation, Houlgate System, National Championship Foundation, and Parke H. Davis), Illinois (two selectors), and Texas were named 1914 National Champions.

ARMY FOOTBALL PERFECT (9-0) FOR THE SECOND TIME IN THREE SEASONS.

Head football coach Captain Charlie Daly, in his fourth season, led a staff of active duty officers to their second undefeated and perfect season, following a disappointing 5-3-1 record in the 1915 season. Center John McEwan was the team captain of a squad of 56 Cadets. Matthew Ridgway was the team manager.

The Cadets played eight straight home games at Cullum Field on The Plain before playing Navy at the Polo Grounds in New York City before 45,000 fans. The team had three shutouts and allowed four touchdowns during the season. Army beat Lebanon Valley (4-4-1), Washington & Lee (5-2-2), Holy Cross (4-5), Trinity (1-50), Villanova (1-8), #10 Notre Dame (8-10), Maine (0-4-3), Springfield (5-2-1), and #19 Navy (6-3-1). It was the fourth-straight victory over the Midshipmen. The win over Notre Dame evened the series.

Two players were named to Walter Camp's and other All-American squads (fullback Elmer Oliphant and center John McEwan). Camp said, "Until Oliphant graduates, Annapolis will have to be 25% stronger than Army in order to win." For the season, Oliphant led the nation in individual scoring with 112 points (13 touchdowns, four field goals, and 22 extra-point kicks). World War I prevented Oliphant from playing the Midshipmen again. The team scored 235 points, giving up only 36 points.

23 players lettered. Five coaches or players on the 1916 team were named to the National Football Foundation's Hall of Fame (Charlie Daly, Lawrence Jones, John McEwan, Alexander Weyand, and Elmer Oliphant).

In 1994, the NCAA published in its Football Records Book the teams selected as national champions in seasons going back to 1869. For the 1916 season, Pittsburgh (five selectors), Georgia Tech (one selector), and Army (Parke H. Davis) were named national champions.

Coach Daly Believes It Could Defeat Any Team in the Country.

Special to The New York Times.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Lieutenant Charles D. Daly, head coach of the Army football team, gave out the following statement for publication today:

"The Army coaches believe that the 1916 Army team could defeat any team in the country. The 1916 team was as effective as the Army team of 1914, and its exceptionally high-grade personnel rates it with the strongest teams in the history of the game. Except for one period in the final game it was never pressed. Only those really expert in the game of football can appreciate properly the great power of this year's Army team."

THE 1944 ARMY TEAM WENT 9-0 CLAIMING THE FIRST OF ARMY'S THREE STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

The numbers bound off the page with the explosiveness of a "Doc" Blanchard burst up the middle. Fifty-six points per game ... five-hundred-four points scored ... thirty-five points allowed ... four shutouts ... nine wins without a loss ... six First Team All-America selections. Never before had a college football team authored such astonishing credentials. No squad has been able to duplicate that dominance since. Many college football historians contend the 1944 Army squad ranks as the finest college club ever assembled. Critics are hard-pressed to build a substantive argument against those bold assertions.

It was the prelude to a dynasty, a decade of success never experienced along the banks of the Hudson. It began with the hiring of Earl "Red" Blaik as Army head coach following the 1940 season. Blaik enjoyed immediate success at West Point, leading the Cadets to three consecutive winning records during his first three years at the Army helm. With World War II raging, colleges all over the country suspended the eligibility rule for freshmen. West Point was no exception, and Blaik's teams benefitted greatly. The crafty mentor was able to secure appointments for some of the nation's top young players.

The most important addition to the 1943 club was a standout halfback named Glenn Davis. Though only a plebe, Davis starred for the Cadets that year. Another one of Blaik's prized recruits arrived at West Point the following year in the form of Blanchard. Together "Mr. Inside" (Blanchard) and "Mr. Outside" (Davis), as they were labeled, would form one of college football's greatest running duos.

Still the hard-running backfield tandem was but a single component within Army's vast arsenal. In fact, Army's depth was so great that Blaik fielded two squads. The "Lombardo Team," quarterbacked by Tom Lombardo, consisted primarily of plebes, including Blanchard and Davis. The "Kenna Team," led by senior signal caller Doug Kenna, started every game before yielding to Lombardo's unit at the start of the second quarter. Once asked to select the best game he saw these teams play, Blaik responded, "That's easy. It was a Wednesday afternoon in October when they scrimmaged each other. Each scored two touchdowns, but the intensity and execution were the best I ever have seen on any gridiron, any place."

As a whole, the unit was awesome, easily becoming the first unbeaten and untied team at West Point since 1916. In order, the Cadets pounded North Carolina (46-0), Brown (59-7), Pittsburgh (69-7), Coast Guard (76-0), Duke (27-7) and Villanova (83-0). The Cadets set their sights on mighty Notre Dame next. It had been 13 years since Army had defeated the Irish, but that streak ended at Yankee Stadium as the Cadets registered a surprising 59-0 rout. Fears of a letdown the following week versus Pennsylvania were quickly quelled when Army blitzed the Quakers 62-7. That verdict set the stage for a climactic showdown with arch-rival Navy. The matchup, pitting the top-ranked Cadets against the second-ranked Midshipmen, would decide the national championship. A crowd of better than 70,000 packed Baltimore's Municipal Stadium to witness Army roll to a 23-7 victory. That night Blaik received a telegram: "The greatest of all Army teams—STOP—We have stopped the war to celebrate your magnificent success. MacArthur." Still one of the most inspirational tributes came from Blaik, himself. "Seldom in a lifetime's experience is one permitted the complete satisfaction of being part of a perfect performance. To the coaches, the 23-7 is enough. To the squad members, by hard work and sacrifice, you superbly combined ability, ambition, and the desire to win, thereby leaving a rich heritage for future Academy squads. From her sons West Point expects the best—you were the best. In truth, you were a storybook team."

THE 1945 TEAM RECORDED FIVE OF ITS NINE VICTORIES BY SHUTOUT.

As the Army football team prepared for the 1945 season, victory had been declared in the Pacific and Gen. Douglas MacArthur called for a "better world" to emerge from the ashes of World War II. Soldiers were returning from Europe, and the United States was celebrating the end of almost four years of global conflict. West Point's 1945 grid squad, meanwhile, faced the daunting task of replicating the accomplishments of Army's 1944 team, which included the Cadets' first perfect season in nearly 30 years, a national championship, and collegiate records for scoring and scoring margin that still stand today.

Fortunately, Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis, and Arnold Tucker returned to see if they could create a football dynasty. The team dubbed "Blaik's Black Knights" by New York Sun sportswriter Will Wedge would ultimately measure up to the task. During an easy 32-0 season-opening victory over Personnel Distribution Command of the Army Air Force stationed at Louisville, Ky., a new star emerged in the Black Knights' constellation. Thomas "Shorty" McWilliams, a plebe who had been a standout at Mississippi State in 1944, guided Army's Wing-T offense to a lopsided win.

The Cadets followed with lopsided verdicts over Wake Forest (54-0), Michigan (28-7), Melville, R.I., USN (55-13), Duke (48-13), and Villanova (54-0). The Cadets expected a stern battle against Notre Dame the next week at Yankee Stadium. More than 75,000 fans witnessed an awesome Army display as the Cadets proved their convincing win over the Irish one year earlier was no fluke, cruising to a 48-0 victory. A week later, Blanchard and Davis combined for five touchdowns as Army crushed longtime nemesis Pennsylvania 61-0, handing the Quakers their worst loss since 1888. Moreover, that game has been called "Army's peak game of all time." According to noted sportswriter Tim Cohane, "The Black Knights were invincible on the attack, overpowering on the defense. Their blocking and tackling were murderous; their team speed blinding."

The Cadets would need every bit of that talent two weeks later against undefeated Navy in Philadelphia. As was the case in 1944, the game would decide the national championship. Army raced out to a 20-0 first-quarter lead and the Midshipmen could never recover, falling 32-13 as Blanchard finished with three touchdowns and Davis with two.

Honors came pouring in for the team and its players. Army was the unanimous national champion and Blanchard captured the Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Davis was runner-up. Blanchard also received the Maxwell Cup and Walter Camp Trophy as college football's outstanding player, and the Sullivan Award as the outstanding amateur athlete in America. Six Army players were tabbed as First Team All-America picks. Evaluating the squad that year, Blaik called it the greatest team he had ever coached. Some have argued that the 1945 Army team was the best in the history of college football. One look at the team's accomplishments makes it hard to debate that assessment.

THE ONLY BLEMISH ON THE 1946 TEAM'S RECORD WAS A 0-0 TIE WITH NOTRE DAME IN A BATTLE OF NO. 1 VS. NO. 2.

Only eight starters from Army's 1945 national championship team returned to the West Point fold the following year as the Cadets attempted to capture a third consecutive national championship. Fortunately for head coach Earl "Red" Blaik, the returning players included standouts Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis, and Arnold Tucker. The Cadets kicked off their 1946 campaign against Villanova, racing to an easy 35-0 victory, but the win was tainted when Blanchard suffered a serious knee injury. Diagnosed as a torn anterior cruciate ligament and a torn membrane, Blanchard's ailment would have sidelined lesser players for the entire year, yet Blanchard would return the following month.

Defeats of Oklahoma (21-7) and Cornell (46-21) followed, setting the stage for a rematch against No. 4 Michigan in the Wolverines' new stadium in Ann Arbor, Mich. Playing for the first time since his knee injury, Blanchard proved little threat to the Wolverines until scoring the game-winning touchdown, sparking second-ranked Army to a 20-13 win. Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

Blanchard began to regain his form against Columbia the next week, scoring four times in the Cadets' 48-14 whipping of the Lions. Consecutive 19-0 shutouts of Duke and West Virginia preceded another showdown with No. 1 Notre Dame. The nation's two top-ranked teams went head-to-head at Yankee Stadium in a classic defensive struggle that ended in a 0-0 tie. Notre Dame stiffened six times with Army inside the Irish 30, while the Cadets allowed Notre Dame past midfield just three times all day. The scoreless deadlock snapped Army's winning streak at 25 and each team maintained its national ranking.

Army shrugged off early offensive lethargy to deal Pennsylvania a 34-7 setback heading into the annual season-ending battle with arch-rival Navy. The season had taken a dreadful toll on the Black Knights, who nonetheless were unbeaten entering the fray. A crowd of 100,000 jammed Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium for one of the most stunning contests in the history of the series. Army jumped out to a 21-6 halftime bulge, but Navy came roaring back, closing to within 21-18. As time wound down, Navy drove to the Army 3-yard line, but two late plunges by fullback Lynn Chewning and another by Pete Williams, who was corralled by Barney Poole, proved fruitless. As the ball sat just four yards from paydirt and a Navy upset, the clock ran out on another frenzied service academy classic, providing Army with a 21-18 win and its third straight undefeated season.

Notre Dame was named national champion in five polls that year with Army claiming top honors in two others. The teams were listed as co-champions in three additional rankings. Still, Army had much to be proud about. Davis accepted the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding football player in the nation. Tucker received the Sullivan Award as the country's outstanding amateur athlete. And Blaik was named "Coach of the Year" by the Football Coaches Association of America. In all, four Cadets garnered first team All-America honors. Looking back on his players and the teams of Army's glory years, Blaik said, "'Doc and Glenn did more for West Point football than any other player or coach in history."

That fact still holds true today.

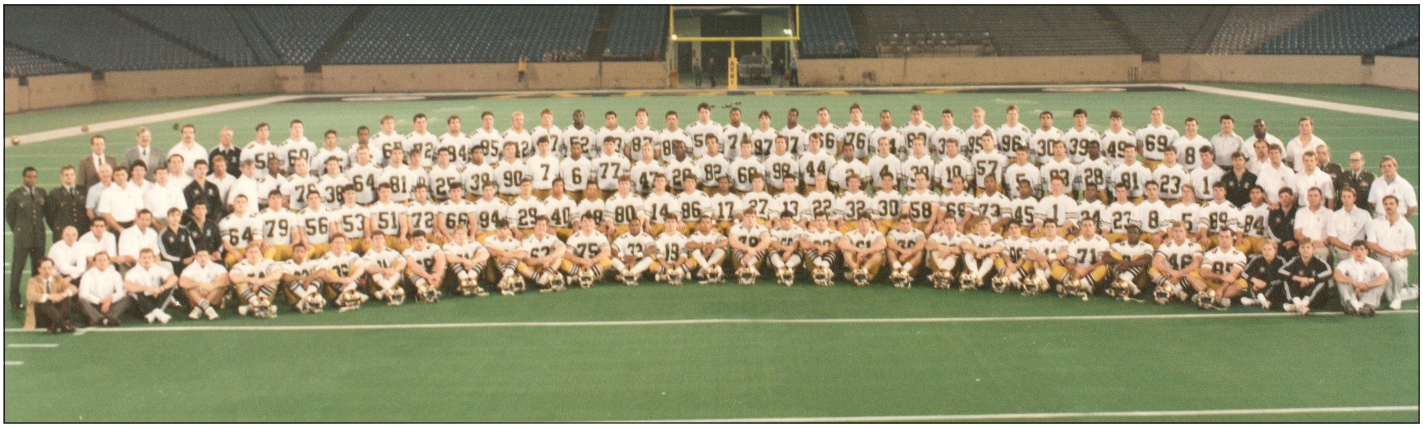
1984 CHERRY BOWL



PONTIAC, Mich. — Army had claimed three national championships and seven Lambert Trophy titles, had three Heisman Trophy winners, and countless All-Americans; but had never participated in a postseason bowl game. That was prior to 1984. After a 7-3-1 slate during the regular season, the Black Knights were chosen to battle Michigan State in the inaugural Cherry Bowl at the Pontiac Silverdome. Army scored only one touchdown during the game, but that proved to be enough in a 10-6 win over the Spartans.

The Cadets converted on two MSU miscues for both their scores. In the second quarter, State quarterback Dave Yarema lost the ball when hit by Bob Kleinhample, before teammate Jim Gentile pounced on the fumble on the MSU 46-yard line. Eight runs later, the leading rushing team in Division I-A got on the board when Clarence Jones scored from the 4-yard line. Late in the third quarter, Gentile forced another State fumble; this time it was Jim Jennings covering the loose ball. Craig Stopa capped off the ensuing drive midway through the fourth quarter with a 38-yard field goal, upping the Black Knights' lead to 10-0.

The Spartans also cashed in on a turnover for their only points in the game. Following a Doug Black fumble, Yarema hit Robert Wasczenski with a 36-yard scoring strike. Quarterback Nate Sassaman, who joined Black in the 1,000-yard rushing club that season, was chosen the "Offensive Player of the Game" with 136 rushing yards. The Black Knights limited Michigan State to 89 yards rushing, capping a stellar 8-3-1 showing and a season that heralded Army football's return to the national spotlight.

ATLANTA, Ga.— For the second year in a row, Army was invited to a postseason contest, won the game and defeated a Big Ten Conference team in the process. This time, Army's ground forces outlasted Illinois' high-powered passing attack 31-29 in the rain and mud of Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium.

However, it was the foot of Army's Craig Stopa that provided the margin of victory. With the Black Knights leading 28-23, Stopa nailed a 39-yard field goal in the final quarter to stretch the lead to eight points. Illinois quarterback Jack Trudeau hit David Williams on a 54-yard scoring strike with just 34 seconds left, but his two-point pass attempt was batted down by reserve safety Peel Chronister. His two interceptions and outstanding overall play earned him "Defensive Player of the Game" honors. Cadet quarterback Rob Healy, who was cited on offense, picked up 107 yards on the ground, including a 22-yard TD. Two other Army backs added to the scoring, but through the air. Halfbacks William Lampley and Clarence Jones each threw an option pass for six points, hitting split ends Benny White and Scott Spellmon, respectively. Fullback Doug Black scored on a 1-yard scamper.

The win gave the Black Knights a 9-3 final mark, tying the Academy record for victories in a season, last achieved by the undefeated Army team of 1949. Trudeau enjoyed a stellar passing day for Illinois, completing 38-of-56 attempts, but it was not enough.

1988 SUN BOWL

EL PASO, Texas — Following a two-year absence from postseason play, the Black Knights returned to bowl action after going 9-2 in 1988. Looking to extend its unblemished record in postseason bowls to 3-0, Army faced its stiffest holiday-time test, meeting perennial Southeastern Conference power Alabama in the 55th John Hancock Sun Bowl.

The Crimson Tide entered the contest heavily favored—by as much as two touchdowns—yet trailed 14-3 less than one minute into the second quarter, unable to solve the Black Knights' polished wishbone attack. Army rolled up 232 yards on the ground in the first half alone, including 96 by fullback Ben Barnett, who finished the day with a career-high 177 rushing yards.

In the first half, Tide All-America linebacker Derrick Thomas blocked a pair of Keith Walker field goal attempts. After the Crimson Tide had taken its first lead of the game on a 23-yard scoring pass from Mike Smith to Greg Payne in the third stanza, the Cadets answered back when Mike Mayweather just reached the flag on fourth-and-goal from the 'Bama three. A little more than one minute later, that advantage swelled to 28-20 when Army defensive back O'Neal Miller intercepted an errant Smith toss at his own 43-yard line and returned it 57 yards for a touchdown.

Alabama owned the final 15 minutes, rallying for nine points while limiting Army to just 14 offensive plays and 33 total yards.

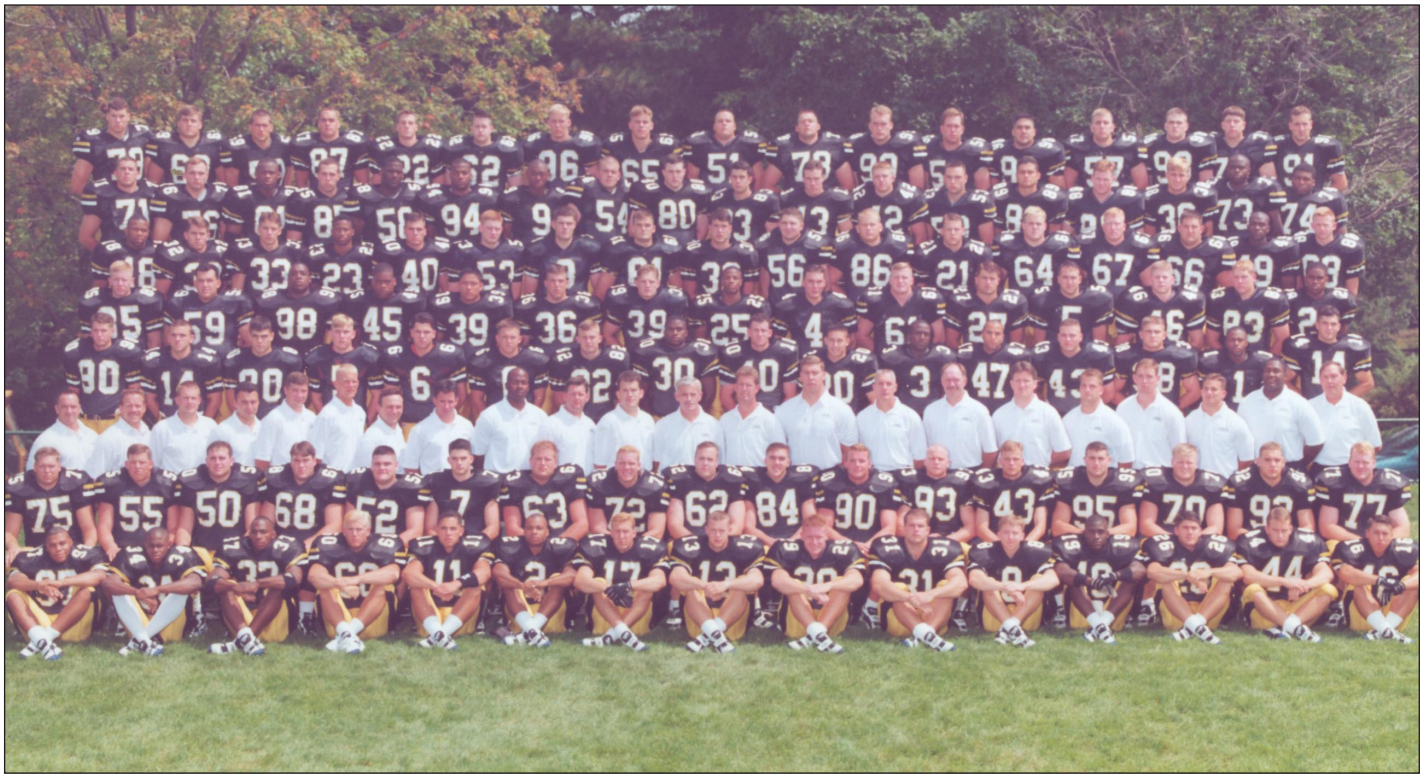
1996 INDEPENDENCE BOWL



SHREVEPORT, La. — After compiling the Academy's first 10-win regular season, Army's compelling 1996 season was capped by a furious fourth-quarter rally that just fell short against heavily favored Auburn in the 21st annual Poulan/Weed Eater Independence Bowl.

Trailing 32-7 in only their fourth postseason bowl appearance, the Black Knights turned the tide on Southeastern Conference stalwart Auburn and posted 22 points in the final stanza as quarterback Ronnie McAda masterfully brought Army to within the shadow of the end zone once again as time ticked away.

Facing a third-and-6 on the Auburn 10-yard line with 33 seconds left, head coach Bob Sutton called upon senior Joe Parker for a potential game-tying 27-yard field goal. Parker, who closed his career ranked fourth on Army's field goals made list and had not missed from inside the 40 all season, pushed his kick to the right and Auburn escaped.

Demetrius Perry and Bobby Williams delivered fourth quarter scoring runs to bring Army close. After Auburn was unable to move the ball, McAda marched the Cadets 70 yards in seven plays. His 31-yard scoring pass to Rod Richardson pulled Army within a field goal in the waning moments. A successful onside kick set the stage for Army's final drive.

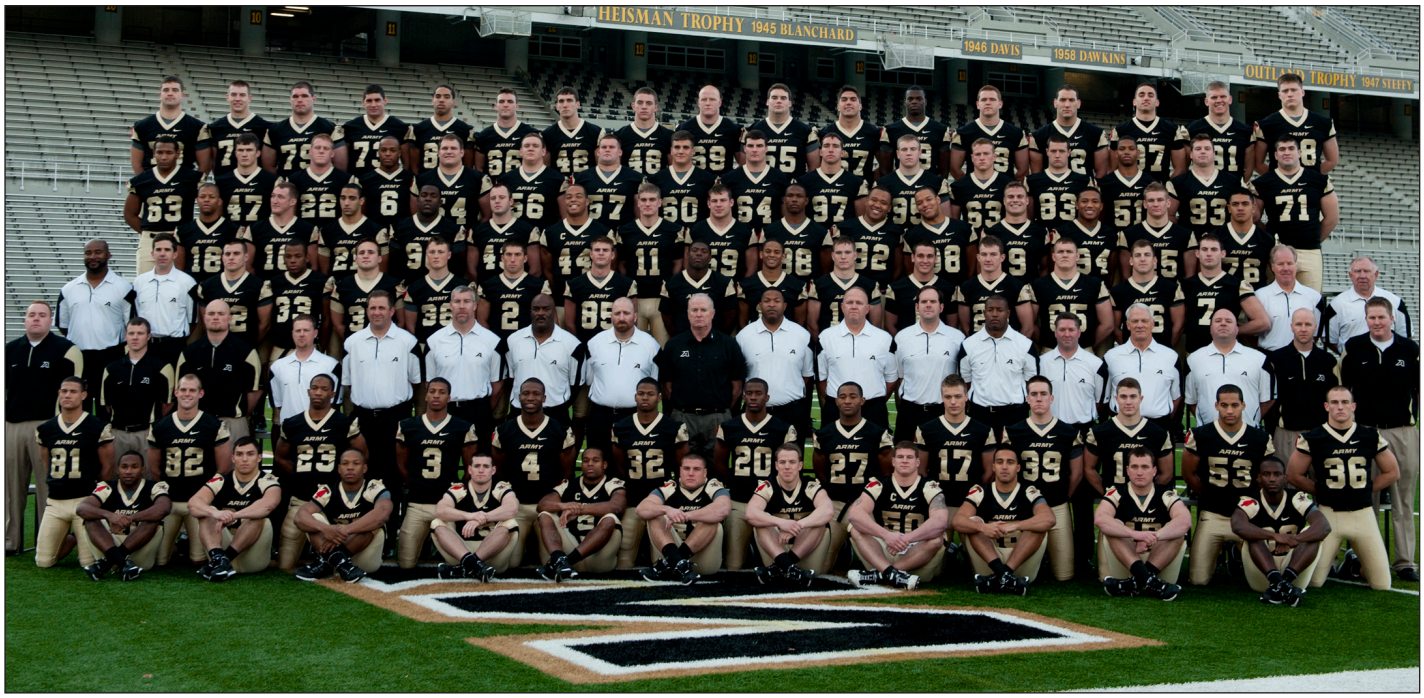
2010 ARMED FORCES BOWL



DALLAS, Texas — Army forced three turnovers, including a 55-yard fumble return for a touchdown by Josh McNary, to build a 16-0 halftime lead, and hung on for a 16-14 win over SMU in the 2010 Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl in front of a stadium-record crowd of 36,742 at Gerald J. Ford Stadium.

Army led 13-0 less than 10 minutes into the game and tacked on a 44-yard field goal by junior Alex Carlton with 2:39 left in the second quarter to claim its largest lead.

SMU scored a pair of unanswered touchdowns to close within two points and had a 47-yard field goal try to take the lead with less than five minutes to go, but the kick sailed wide left. Army was able to run out the clock, including converting a pair of key third-down plays. A 22-yard pass from Trent Steelman to Davyd Brooks on third--and-4 from the Army 47 sealed the victory.

The win clinched Army's first winning season since the 1996 squad went 10-2, and snapped a two-game losing streak in bowl games. The Black Knights shifted to 3-2 in their five bowl games after securing their first postseason win since a 31-29 win over Illinois in the 1985 Peach Bowl.

Stephen Anderson was named Army's Most Outstanding Player after registering a season-high 14 tackles, including 1.5 for loss, and an interception. In addition to Anderson and McNary, Josh Jackson accounted for the third takeaway with a second-quarter interception.

Offensively, Jared Hassin led the Army ground game with 82 yards on 18 carries. Patrick Mealy ran for 57 yards on 11 carries, while Malcolm Brown had 31 yards on five carries, including Army's only offensive touchdown, a 13-yard run. Brown scored the Black Knights' final three offensive touchdowns of the season after catching two scores versus Navy.

Steelman was 2-for-7 for 30 yards through the air, coming just five yards shy of being the first Army player to record 1,000 passing yards and 500 rushing yards in the same season. Both of Steelman's completions went to Brooks.

2016 HEART OF DALLAS BOWL

DALLAS, Texas — The Army West Point football team got some revenge when it defeated North Texas 38-31 in overtime to win the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl.

The victory marked Army's first bowl win since 2010 and the first time the Black Knights reached eight wins since the 1996 season.

Army closed out the year with three straight victories including an iconic win in Baltimore over rival Navy.

This game was much different from the two teams earlier meeting on Oct. 22 in which the Black Knights turned the ball over a season-high seven times.

Army controlled much of the opening two quarters but a late rally from North Texas pulled the Mean Green to within 24-21 at the break.

Heading into the final quarter, Army maintained a slim 31-28 edge until there were 28 seconds remaining. The Mean Green, forced with fourth-and-two, kicked the game-tying field goal from 37 yards out to eventually send the contest into overtime.

Army started with the ball first in the extra period and worked it all the way to the North Texas 3-yard line. With fourth-and-goal looming, head coach Jeff Monken opted to 'go big or go home' and sent his offensive unit back out on the field. On the ensuing play Jordan Asberry broken free and finished off what would be the game's final score to hand the Black Knights a 38-31 advantage.

North Texas gained four yards on its first play of overtime but never went past the line of scrimmage again. Jeremy Timpf tackled Jeffery Wilson for a three-yard loss on the next play before two failed passes sealed Army's win.

Quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player with 129 yards rushing, including a score. He was the second quarterback since 1930 to run for 129 yards or more in Cotton Bowl Stadium history.

2017 ARMED FORCES BOWL

FORT WORTH, Texas – In what has become typical Army West Point football games, the Black Knights persevered in thrilling fashion to win the 2017 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl 42-35 over San Diego State.

In a contest that featured four tie scores and four lead changes, a gutsy two-point conversion call by Army head coach Jeff Monken determined the outcome. After a Darnell Woolfolk one-yard rush pulled Army to within 35-34 with 18 seconds left, SDSU called two timeouts which allowed the Black Knights enough time to draw up the perfect two-point attempt call. With team captain Ahmad Bradshaw under center, the senior stepped back and pitched it to sophomore Kell Walker, who dashed home for the score.

SDSU did have 12 seconds to work with, but after returning the kickoff to the 40-yard line, the Aztecs were sacked for a loss of 10 yards before also being tagged with an intentional grounded call. Senior Alex Aukerman was credited with his seventh sack of the season when he took down Christian Chapman. Timeout San Diego State. On the ensuing play, the designated visiting team tried some laterals before fumbling at the 29-yard line into the hands of Elijah Riley who dashed into the end zone.

Pandemonium ensued, and the entire Black Knights team met the sophomore in the corner of the field to celebrate their second-consecutive bowl victory in as many years. Army has now won back-to-back bowls games for the first time since the 1984 and 1985 seasons (Cherry Bowl and Peach Bowl).

The Black Knights matched their program record for wins with Saturday's outcome (10) and broke last season's rushing touchdown mark with 50 on the year after five in the contest.

Woolfolk chipped in 87 yards and two touchdowns to register his sixth multi-score game of the year. Andy Davidson muscled key yardage all game and finished with 81 on the day.

Bradshaw did complete a pass with a six-yard connection to Camden Harrison in the third quarter.

Jaylon McClinton racked up a team-best six tackles. He was followed closely by James Nachtigal with five. To go along with his sack, Aukerman also notched his first career interception.

2018 ARMED FORCES BOWL

FORT WORTH, Texas – The Army West Point football team put on a show when it ran past Houston 70-14 in the 2018 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl.

The Black Knights earned their second-straight Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl win, their fourth consecutive bowl win, and sixth overall as a program. They became the first school to win three Armed Forces Bowls.

Kelvin Hopkins Jr. was named the bowl MVP after putting up impressive numbers. The junior scampered for 170 yards, while compiling 70 through the air on a perfect 3-for-3 day.

With those numbers, Hopkins Jr. became the first cadet-athlete to run and pass for over 1,000 yards in a season.

James Nachtigal led the Cadets defensive corps registering 3.5 sacks and a career high 16 tackles. Army recorded 10 sacks as a defensive unit, which broke a program record. The 56-point margin of victory tied for the largest in the history of college football bowl games.

The 42 points scored in the first half were the most scored by the Black Knights in an opening half since they did so against Fordham on Oct. 29, 2011.

The 77-yard touchdown run by Hopkins Jr. in the first quarter was the longest touchdown run for Army in its bowl history. The junior ran for over 100 yards for the third time in his career, while he also recorded his fourth multiple touchdown game of his career.

On the day, Hopkins Jr. rushed for five scores, which tied Carlton Jones' program record achieved against USF in 2004. Hopkins became the 17th player in Army history to rush for over 1,000 yards in a season and third player under head coach Jeff Monken.

The Cadets registered at least 40 rushing touchdowns in each of the last three seasons.

The 70 points scored on the day were the most put up by Army in it's bowl history. It also set a bowl record for points in a game. The points were also the most in a game since scoring 81 versus Furman in 1955.

Army held an opponent to 14 or less points for the fifth consecutive game.

2020 LIBERTY BOWL

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – The Army Black Knights fell 24-21 to West Virginia in the 62nd AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

The Black Knights went down 3-0 in the first quarter and though they rebounded to lead 14-10 at the half and 21-16 in the third quarter, their scoreless fourth quarter allowed the Mountaineers to score eight and grab the win.

The defense set the tone early, forcing two turnovers in the first half, including an interception of West Virginia quarterback Seth Doege by Javhari Bourdeau on West Virginia's second drive of the game.

The Mountaineers got on the board first, however, as Tyler Sumpter drilled a 31-yard field goal with 1:47 left in the first quarter after he missed a 37-yard field goal attempt on the first drive of the game.

Quarterback Tyhier Tyler answered back with a drive of 74 yards on 14 plays that ate up 7:12 before capping things off with a one-yard rush for the first touchdown of the day. An extra point by Quinn Maretzki followed and the Black Knights took a 10-7 lead with 9:31 left in the first half.

West Virginia then replied with a sustained drive of their own, going 77 yards on 12 plays as a five-yard touchdown pass to reverse the lead, 10-7.

The Black Knights cashed in on a Mountaineer turnover and Tyler rushed for six yards for his second touchdown of the day. The extra point by Maretzki put the Black Knights up 14-10 and that score carried into the half.

Army went on to extend its lead to 21-10 after an eight-minute drive to open up the third quarter, as Tyler tied the Liberty Bowl record with his third touchdown of the day, a two-yard rush.

The Mountaineers refused to go down easily, and eventually scored 14 unanswered points down the stretch that proved to be the difference in the game.

The Black Knights had a chance to tie the ballgame up, as they drove down the field and had kicker Maretzki lined up for a 39-yard field goal attempt with 1:50 left in the game. However, he missed the kick wide left.

The Army defense got the ball back one more time, and with 1:28 on the clock the Black Knights started with the ball on their own 31 yard line. However, on a last-chance fourth-and-seven, the Mountaineers intercepted a desperation heave, ending the Black Knight's chances.

2021 ARMED FORCES BOWL

FORT WORTH, Texas – A game-winning field goal from kicker Cole Talley was the difference in the Army Black Knights' 24-22 victory over Missouri in the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl on Wednesday night at Amon G. Carter Stadium. Though Army (9-4) did not gain the lead until the fourth quarter, which saw 16 combined points scored, Talley's 41-yard boot helped the Cadets improve to 4-0 in the Armed Forces Bowl as the game clock expired.

In addition to Talley's efforts, the team was also boosted to the win by linebacker Arik Smith, who was named the game MVP. The team captain finished the night with 12 tackles and a pair of sacks for 13 yards. In the fifth all-time meeting between the programs, the first half was controlled by Missouri (6-7, 2-5 SEC). The Tigers used a game-opening touchdown and a 22-yard field goal to jump out to an early 10-0 lead. Army had a chance to respond on its first drive of the night, but its field goal attempt went wide left. After struggling in the opening quarter, the Black Knights' offense found its rhythm in the second quarter. Quarterback Christian Anderson started a possession with a 42-yard pass to running back Tyrell Robinson, and the Cadets cruised from there as Anderson later found pay dirt with a 22-yard run that cut the Tigers' lead down to 10-7 two minutes into the second quarter.

Missouri answered the push with back-to-back field goals to extend its lead ahead of the halftime break. Both linebacker Malkelm Morrison and Smith made crucial plays on each drive to prevent the team from reaching the end zone. Morrison came up with a huge tackle on third down, while Smith's five-yard sack limited the Mizzou lead to 16-7. Army started to regain momentum after the pause, striking on its first possession of the second half. Though the drive was nearly stopped by the Tigers' defense, running back Jakobi Buchanan prolonged the attack by converting a fourth-and-one. Two plays later, he recorded a 10-yard touchdown run that cut the Mizzou advantage down to 16-14 with eight minutes left in the quarter.

The Black Knights got to work quickly in their overtaking of the SEC foe in the fourth quarter. After marching down the field and into the red zone, quarterback Tyhier Tyler connected on a 14-yard touchdown pass to Brandon Walters for Army's first lead of the night at 21-16 with 6:30 remaining. Missouri's initial chances to respond were crushed by Army's defense, as safety Marquel Broughton forced a fumble before the team could cross the 50-yard line. Linebacker Andre Carter II recovered the ball to give Army's offense another chance to work, but the team went three-and-out. Mizzou took advantage of its final possession of the night, working its way down the field after punter Zach Harding forced the drive to start on the two-yard line. Eventually, a six-yard touchdown pass allowed the Tigers to regain the lead at 22-21 with less than 90 seconds left.

The Black Knights, who have proven their resilience throughout the season, refused to go down without a fight and used a full-team effort to rally past the Tigers. Appearing for the first time all evening, quarterback Jabari Laws came in under center and led a heroic, eight-play, 51-yard drive that was highlighted by a pair of long passes to wide receiver Isaiah Alston. Though Laws was unable to reach paydirt, he set up Talley's game-winning kick in his final game as a Black Knight.

With the result, the Black Knights improved to 7-3 in Bowl games, which included a 4-1 record under head coach Jeff Monken. The victory additionally moved Monken (58-43) up the program's all-time wins list, and tied him with former head coach Charles Daly (58-13-3; 1913-16, 1919-22) as the second-winningest Army Football coach.

2024 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

SHREVEPORT, La. – The No. 19 AP-ranked Army Black Knights (11-2, 9-0 AAC) played in the postseason for the first time since 2021, defeating the Louisiana Tech Bulldogs in the Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl, 27-6, its 12th win of the season, the most wins in a season in school history.

QB Bryson Daily rushed for 127 yards and three touchdowns on 27 carries, with the third score breaking the record for most rushing touchdowns from a quarterback in FBS history with 32. Daily was named Independence Bowl Offensive MVP for his performance.

As the feature back for the first time this season, RB Hayden Reed ran 20 times for 114 (5.7 avg.) yards and a touchdown. Army's offense held the ball for 40:08 of game time while converting on four-of-five fourth-down conversions. Army finished with 325 yards rushing while allowing just 60 yards on the ground.

LB Kalib Fortner was named Independence Bowl Defensive MVP with a team-high seven tackles including a third down sack and pass breakup.

LA Tech won the toss and chose to receive the ball, and Army forced a punt after DL Trey Sofia forced a pressure and rushed throw on the game's opening drive.

Army's offense wasted no time on its first possession as RB Hayden Reed broke off a run up the middle for 15 yards and slot back Noah Short got loose on the edge for 17 yards. QB Bryson Daily capped off the drive with his NCAA-leading 30th rushing touchdown of the season, from 15 yards out for the Black Knights to take a 7-0 lead. It was an eight-play, 80-yard drive for Army.

The Bulldogs converted one first down on the ensuing drive before punting into the end zone for a touchback. Daily then plunged forward on a fourth-and-short from Army's own 29-yard line to keep an eventual touchdown drive alive. Aided by a 16-yard rush from RB Tyrell Robinson, the drive was capped by a 12-yard touchdown run by RB Hayden Reed to make it 14-0 in the first quarter, his first rushing score of the season.

Louisiana Tech responded to Army's 14 unanswered points by converting on a 27-yard field goal by K Drew Henderson. The field goal was set up by an Evan Bullock 27-yard pass to Eli Finley.

Army drove down for its third consecutive touchdown drive to begin the game, chewing up 12:21 of game clock as Daily converted a pair of fourth downs on the ground to continue to move the chains. He capped the drive with an eight-yard touchdown run to match the FBS record for rushing touchdowns from a quarterback in a season.

Army got a stop on defense to end the half with DL Deshontez Gray and LB Kalib Fortner getting home for sacks as the Black Knights took a 21-3 lead into halftime. Army scored a touchdown on all three of its drives in the first half.

The Bulldogs got three more points, as Henderson connected from 44 yards out, to cut the deficit to 15 points, 21-6.

Early in the fourth quarter, Daily found the end zone for the third time on the night, his 32nd of the season, breaking the NCAA record for most rushing touchdowns in a season by a quarterback, formerly held by Keenan Reynolds (Navy, 31). The score was set up on a 52-yard reception by TE David Crossan, the first reception of his career. On the play, Daily eclipsed 1,000 passing yards on the season, the second Army QB to have 1,000 rushing and passing yards in a season (Kelvin Hopkins Jr., 2018).

With the score 27-6 after a failed two-point conversion for Army, the Bulldogs drove down into the red zone for the third time, having a first-and-goal from the two-yard line. After getting three consecutive stops, CB Jaydan Mayes intercepted Bullock's pass on fourth down.

Louisiana Tech got the ball back twice in the final ten minutes as Army ran the clock out, as the Bulldogs turned the ball over on downs each time.

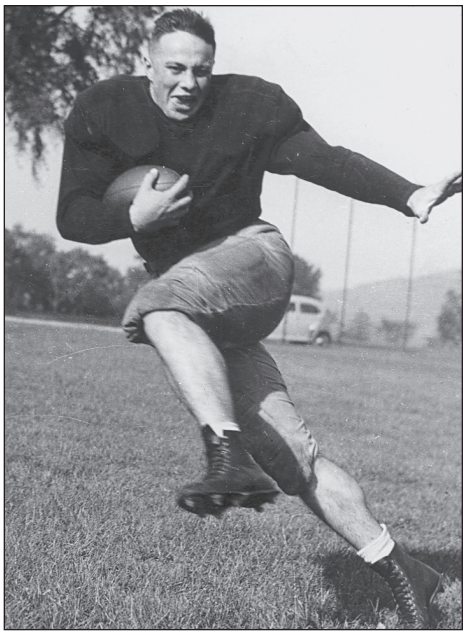
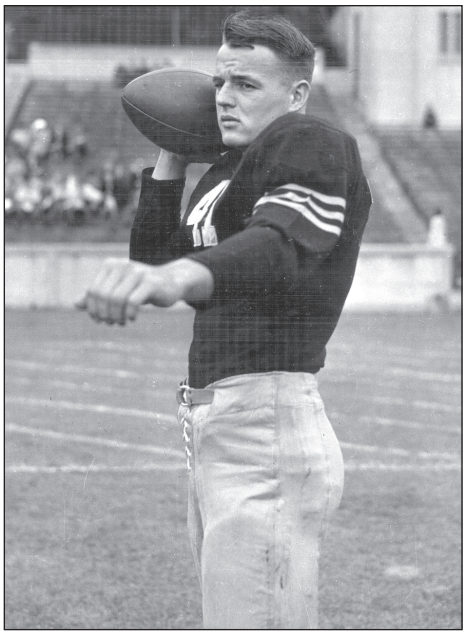
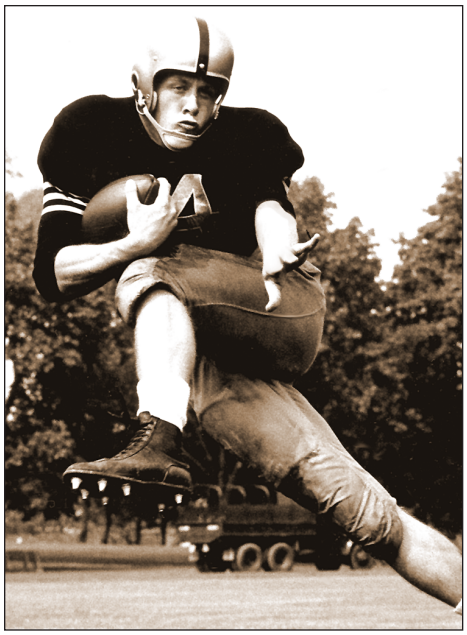
- Jeff Monken is 5-1 in bowl games at Army. Army's last bowl game was a 24-22 win over Missouri in the 2021 Armed Forces Bowl.
- Army is 8-3 all-time in bowl games.
- QB Bryson Daily scored his 30th rushing touchdown of the season in the first quarter. Daily is the sixth player in NCAA history to total 30+ rushing touchdowns in a season.
- Daily rushed for 127 yards, his 11th 100-yard rushing performance of the 2024 season.
- RB Hayden Reed scored his first rushing touchdown since Oct. 7, 2023 (vs. Boston College) on a 12-yard rush in the first quarter. Reed scored in back-to-back games, scoring on a receiving touchdown in the Army-Navy Game.
- With Daily and Reed each reaching over 100 yards rushing in the game, it marked the sixth time in 2024 in which Army had multiple rushers over the century mark.
- DL Deshontez Gray recorded his first career sack to go along with four tackles.
- LB Kalib Fortner logged a team-best seven tackles and a sack to earn Defensive MVP honors.



FELIX "DOC" BLANCHARD



GLENN DAVIS



PETE DAWKINS

The John W. Heisman Memorial Trophy Award is presented each year by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the nation's outstanding college football player. First known as the D.A.C. Trophy, the award was renamed in 1936 for John W. Heisman, the first athletic director of the Downtown Athletic Club, a football player at Pennsylvania and Brown and a coach for 36 years, including tours at Auburn, Oberlin, Clemson, Akron, Pennsylvania, Rice, Washington & Jefferson, and Georgia Tech. The bronze trophy was sculpted by Frank Eliscu with the help of one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen," Jim Crowley, whose Fordham players posed as models.

Since the inception of the Heisman Trophy in 1935, three Army players have garnered the award. Only four other schools—Notre Dame (7), Southern California (7), Ohio State (7), and Oklahoma (5)—have had more winners. Army's "Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, and "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, captured the Heisman in back-to-back years in 1945 and 1946, respectively, leading Army to national championships in both years. Just over a decade later (1958), Pete Dawkins led the Cadets to their most recent Lambert Trophy title and their last undefeated season (8-0-1) on his way to earning the honor.

In 1990, Mike Mayweather became the first Army player to attract serious attention from Heisman voters since Dawkins' selection more than 30 years prior. Mayweather, who graduated from West Point in 1991 as Army's all-time leading rusher and the most prolific runner in service academy history, finished 10th in the Heisman balloting, garnering three first-place votes. An All-America selection who also finished as second runner-up in voting for the inaugural Doak Walker Award, Mayweather rushed for a then-school-record 1,338 yards in 1990, concluding with 4,299 career ground yards, another Army standard.

In 2024, quarterback Bryson Daily emerged as one of the nation's premier players, leading Army to a school-record 12–2 season and a championship in the American Athletic Conference. Daily led the NCAA with 32 rushing touchdowns—the most ever in a single season by a quarterback—and broke multiple Army records, including:

- Most touchdowns responsible for in a season: 41
- Most rushing touchdowns in a season: 32

He was named the American Athletic Conference Player of the Year. His remarkable season also earned him a sixth-place finish in the Heisman Trophy voting—the highest by an Army player since Pete Dawkins won the award in 1958.

RECENT BLACK KNIGHTS IN THE NFL

Collin Mooney, RB, 2012-2013
• Served three years as an Army officer before being granted a release to play professional football. As a senior in 2008, Mooney broke the record for single-season rushing by one yard, setting the new record at 1,339 yards, which has since been broken by Ahmad Bradshaw in 2017. Mooney played in 14 games (2012-13) for the Tennessee Titans recording six receptions for 32 yards and five carries for 19 yards.

Josh McNary, LB, 2013-2016
• McNary finished his career as Army's all-time leader in sacks (28.0) and tackles for loss (49). McNary served two years of active military service and in 2013, the Indianapolis Colts signed him as a free-agent. Played in 49 games from 2013-16 with the Colts, logging 79 tackles, one forced fumble, and half a sack.

Alejandro Villanueva, OL, 2015-2021
• Played WR for Army at 290 pounds, hauling in 34 receptions for 522 yards and five touchdowns as a senior in 2009. Started 107 games on the offensive line between 2015-2021 for the Pittsburgh Steelers and Baltimore Ravens. Following his military career as an Army Ranger, four years after his last game with the Black Knights, he signed with the Philadelphia Eagles and was then claimed by Pittsburgh where he spent six seasons as a mainstay on the starting O-line. It was with the 10th Mountain Division he deployed for the first time for 12 months to Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom - Afghanistan as a rifle platoon leader. As a result of his actions during this deployment he was awarded a Bronze Star Medal with "V" device for rescuing wounded soldiers while under enemy fire.

Brett Toth, OL, 2020-Present.
• Helped Army win its first Commander-in-Chief's Trophy as a senior in 2017 since 1996. Has played in 17 career NFL games with one start for the Philadelphia Eagles (2020-21). Toth appeared late in the fourth quarter during the Eagles' Super Bowl LIX win.

Cole Christiansen, LB, 2020-Present.
• Signed with the Los Angeles Chargers as an undrafted free agent in 2020, after receiving a waiver that allowed him to serve in the reserves and delay his active-duty commitment until after his playing career is over. Was a member of the 2022 and 2023 Super Bowl Champion Kansas City Chiefs. Finished his Army career with 275 tackles, which ranks 20th most in school records.

Jon Rhattigan, LB, 2021-Present.
• Did not become a starter for Army until his senior season in 2020, where he finished with 78 total tackles, nine tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, two interceptions, two pass breakups, and two fumble recoveries. Signed with the Seattle Seahawks in 2021, and has appeared in 36 games, totaling 32 tackles as a mainstay on special teams units. Rhattigan signed with the Carolina Panthers in 2024.

Andre Carter II, LB, 2023-Present.
• Signed as an undrafted free agent by the Minnesota Vikings in 2023. In 2021, Andre Carter became Army's first AP All-American in 31 years (Third Team). His 15.5 sacks in 2021 were the most in a single season in Army history. His 15.5 sacks were also the second most in the country behind Alabama's Will Anderson (17.5). Carter is now a member of the Las Vegas Raiders.

Jimmy Ciarlo, OLB, 2024-Present.
• Signed as an undrafted free agent by the New York Jets in 2024. Ciarlo was one of four team captains as a senior in 2023, logging career highs with 58 tackles (29 solo), 5.5 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, and one forced fumble. He signed with the Buffalo Bills in August 2025.

Lucas Scott, FB, 2025-Present.
• Signed as an undrafted free agent by the Baltimore Ravens in 2025 as an FB. He started all 14 games at right tackle for the Black Knights in 2024, helping the offensive line pave the way for two 1,000-yard rushers — quarterback Bryson Daily and running back Kanye Udoh — only the third such duo in program history. Army led the FBS with 300.5 rushing yards per game, and its offensive line earned the Joe Moore Award, becoming the first Group of Five school to win the honor.

Lucas Scott gets reps at Fullback in Ravens minicamp practice (May, 2025).

HALL OF FAME HAS STRONG ARMY INFLUENCE

Founded in 1947 by immortal journalist Grantland Rice, legendary Army coach Earl "Red" Blaik, and West Point graduate Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame is dedicated to mobilizing the constructive forces of amateur football at all levels for the benefit of society as a whole. In addition to the visionary foresight of Blaik and MacArthur, who helped shape the Foundation in its early days, the College Hall of Fame carries a distinct Army flavor as 27 former players and coaches have been included among the game's elite. In addition, others with West Point ties, like Bill Yeoman '50 and Bob Neyland '16, have been enshrined.

Recognized as the "Father of Cougar Football," Yeoman forged a sparkling 160-108-8 (.597) record during a 25-year stint at the University of Houston, leading the Cougars to 11 bowl games and four Southwest Conference championships. Neyland, named head coach at Tennessee in 1926, spent 27 seasons at the helm of the Volunteers' program. In that time, his squads amassed a 173-32-12 record and captured four national championships. Neyland was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1956. The Foundation inducted its first class into the Hall of Fame in 1951, and each year the gridiron's greatest collegians have been enshrined among the pantheon of players who have shaped the game. Today, the College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Ind. More than 900 players and coaches, who exemplified the Foundation's basic creed of Scholarship, Citizenship, and Performance, are honored in a world-class museum.

Former President and Foundation Gold Medal recipient Dwight D. Eisenhower summed up the impact of college football with the following: "In football, in business, in the trades and the professions, the normal urge to excel provides one of the most hopeful assurances that our kind of society will continue to advance and prosper. Morale ... the will to win, the fighting heart ... are the honored hallmarks of the football coach and player. This morale, this will, this heart ... we need not only in athletic teams as individual, but collectively."

Since 1925, when Gus Farwick and Edgar Garbisch competed in the East-West Shrine Game, dozens of Army players have been invited to participate in postseason all-star games.
