MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials will be issued to members of the working media only. Children and other non-workers will be prohibited. Requests for credentials should be made by calling or emailing Austin Pert at least 24 hours before the game or series. Unless directed otherwise, Army Baseball will not have physical credentials. Please simply arrive and present yourself to Austin Pert on gameday.

Space in the baseball press box is limited. The stands remain open for all working media members if press box seating is not available. All press materials will be available regardless of where media members are seated.

INTERVIEW POLICY

Army Head Coach Chris Tracz and cadet-athletes will be available on request, both after games and on non-game days. All plans to request a postgame interview must be conveyed to Austin Pert when contacting him about covering the game. Please do not request postgame interviews during the game if you have not informed Pert of your attendance ahead of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

Photographers and videographers are permitted in the dugouts only in the camera well in each dugout. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot from the stands as well as behind the walls in foul territory.

The Army Baseball broadcast is produced from inside and above press box.

Media members may request photos from the athletic communications office by contacting Austin Pert. All photos used that are obtained from Army Athletics must be credited.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

All Army Baseball home games will be broadcast on ESPN+ unless noted otherwise. Road broadcasts are at the discretion of the home team.

INFORMATION DISTRIBUTION

The Army Baseball press box is for working members of the media only. The press box includes space for working members of the press, team representatives, the public address announcer, the stat inputter, the trackman operator and the scoreboard operator.

Updated lineups, game notes and team rosters will be available in the press box at each home game. A final box score will be distributed at the completion of each game. Sidearm live stats links for each game are available publicly. An official scorer is assigned to all home games, and Austin Pert will keep media informed of all scoring decisions, notable facts and records.

Game notes will also be made public at GoArmyWestPoint.com/Baseball roughly 24 hours before each series or midweek game.

WEBSITE INFORMATION

All Army Baseball materials, including record books, game notes, stats and game recaps can be accessed at GoArmyWestPoint.com/Baseball.

INTERNET/WIFI

GAME NOTES

HEAD COACH CHRIS TRACZ

Chris Tracz was named the 19th head coach in the 133-year history of the Army baseball program July 27, 2022. Upon three seasons at the helm, Tracz is 94-66 overall.

Tracz won his 400th career game as a Division I Head coach April 6, 2025. The Black Knights would go on to defeat Navy in the Patriot League Semifinal Series later in the season, sweeping a pair of games May 11 in Annapolis, including a 6-5, 10-inning win in Game 3 of the series.

Despite losing key hitters Derek Berg, Sam Ruta and Braden Golinski in the 2024-25 offseason, Tracz's club improved its batting average from '24 in '25, from .274 to .279.

In 2025, RHP Andrew Berg, INF Thomas Schreck, OF/INF Chris Barr and OF William Parker were each named to the Patriot League All-Conference First Team, while OF Addison Ainsworth and C Jack Quinlan each earned Second Team accolades. Quinlan was also a Buster Posey Award semifinalist among the nation's top collegiate catchers.

Berg earned all-league honors after transitioning from a bullpen role to a member of the starting rotation. Meanwhile, Schreck improved his batting average from .210 to .335 in 2025.

In 2025, Justin Lehman proved to be one of the country's top two-way players, being named the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Week May 13 and a finalist for the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year. In a season highlighted by a 142-pitch, seven inning win at Navy in Game 2 of the Patriot League Semifinals, Lehman finished the season with a 4.02 ERA and a .316 ERA. The senior also batted a blistering .524 in the postseason while recording a 1.32 postseason ERA across 13.2 innings.

In 2024, Tracz led the Black Knights to their sixth consecutive Patriot League Tournament Championship and NCAA Regional Appearance, with a berth in the NCAA Athens Regional. Earlier in the year, Army won the Baseball Star Series over Navy for the third consecutive season, with a dramatic rubber matchup victory April 28 off a Chris Barr walk-off base hit. The club then went on to defeat the Midshipmen two games to none in the best-of-three Patriot League Championship Series May 19-20.

Army was 5-2 against Navy in 2024, and also knocked off Air Force 13-2 on March 2 in Sugar Land, Texas.

The Black Knights boasted the Patriot League Pitcher of the Year in Justin Lehman, highlighted by his nine-inning, complete-game shutout win over Navy April 26.

Lehman and fellow starting pitcher Matthew Ronnebaum earned First Team Patriot League All-Conference honors, along with relief pitcher Andrew Berg, catcher Derek Berg and outfielder William Parker. Outfielder Braden Golinski and third baseman Sam Ruta also claimed All-Conference Second Team accolades.

The North Branford, Conn. native led Army to a 38-18 record in 2023 and a 21-4 Patriot League regular season mark. Highlights from the year included a series win over Air Force, a series win at NCAA Regional finalist Charlotte and a season series sweep over Navy. The Black Knights earned an NCAA Tournament appearance at the Charlottesville Regional.

Army also set a program single-season record in home runs (74) in 2023.

Tracz oversaw the development of C/1B Ross Freidrick, who signed a minor league free agent deal with the St. Louis Cardinals after the 2023 season. One year later, seniors Derek Berg, Ruta and Tanner Greshman also earned professional free agent opportunities with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Kansas City Royals and Philadelphia Phillies.

Before Army, Tracz spent 13 seasons (2010-22) as the head coach at Marist College (Poughkeepsie, N.Y.), totaling a win-loss record of 315-282-2 (.526), and a Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference coaching record of 170-117 (.592), Marist's all-time winningest coach. In his final season at Marist, he led the Red Foxes to a 29-15 record, finishing second in the MAAC, tying for its most regular season wins since 2017, the same year the Red Foxes won the MAAC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Baseball Championship Gainesville Regional. Tracz also led the Red Foxes to a nation's-best 11 game win streak at the end of the 2022 season. He was named MAAC Coach of the Year for the first time in his career.

In his time as head coach at Marist, Tracz has produced eight MLB Draft picks, one All-American, three MAAC Pitchers of the Year, eight First Team All-MAAC Selections, 18 Second Team All-MAAC Selections, 101 MAAC All-Academic honorees and six CoSIDA Academic All-District Selections.

This marks Tracz's second stint with the Black Knights, as he served as an assistant coach during the 2009 season, helping the Army pitching staff lead the Patriot League in six statistical categories including wins, ERA, shutouts, complete games, strikeouts and saves en route to a Patriot League championship.

An accomplished pitcher at Marist himself, Tracz was a three-time captain (2003, 2004, 2005), a Two-Time First Team All-Region selection and appeared in three NCAA Tournaments (2001, 2002, 2005). He compiled a career record of 38-9 with an ERA of 3.13 while striking out 298 batters in 399.2 innings. Tracz also spent the summers of 2002 and 2003 in the Cape Cod Baseball League with the Falmouth Commodores.

Following his playing career, Tracz got his first coaching job as an assistant at Marist from 2006-08.

NOTES AND STORYLINES

GAME ONE = GAME WON

- Army has won four consecutive season-opening games, as well as six of its last seven season openers dating back to 2019.
- The Black Knights beat North Alabama to open 2025 and Monmouth to begin 2024.
- A rivalry win over Air Force commenced 2023 in style, a year after taking down Richmond in 2022.
- Army last opened the season with a power conference foe in 2020, defeating No. 15 Duke in Durham, 2-1.
- The Black Knights are seeking their first power conference win since defeating Pitt in 2022, and their first ranked victory since the Duke win in 2020.
- Army's most recent series win over a power conference team was at Maryland in 2018.

IN MY MIND, I'VE GONE TO CAROLINA

- Each of Army's first nine games in 2026 will take place in the Carolinas.
- After opening the year with a three-game set at Clemson (Feb. 13-15), Army heads to Founders Park in Columbia, S.C. to take on South Carolina (Feb. 20) and rival Air Force (Feb. 21) before a weekend finale at The Citadel in Charleston (Feb. 22).
- Army then heads to Charlotte to take on Queens from Feb. 27-March 2.

RUN IT BACK, CHRIS TRACZ

- Head coach Chris Tracz returns for his fourth season at Army.
- Tracz, who made the move from the same role at Marist ahead of the 2023 season, won a Patriot League title in each of his first two years at Army.
- Tracz spent 2011-2022 at his alma mater of Marist as head coach after a one-year stint at Army as an assistant coach.

HIS TRUSTED ASSOCIATES

- Associate head coach/hitting coach Mike Cole returns for year four at Army, having joined Tracz's staff after serving as head coach at Manhattan from 2018-22.
- John Sheehan is back for year three at Army as assistant coach/pitching coach, having come from the same role at Toledo.
- Tracz's newest assistant coach is Dylan Hoy, who comes to the Black Knights after spending 2025 as a graduate assistant with a Louisville team which made the College World Series. In 2024, Hoy played at Louisville and hit .317 with five home runs and 30 RBIs as a graduate transfer from Marist, where he played under Tracz.

'O CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

- Seniors Chris Barr and William Parker will serve as 2026 team captains, after spending 2025 in the same role together alongside then-senior Coleson Titus.

MILESTONE WATCH

- Head Coach Chris Tracz needs six wins to reach 100 career wins at Army.
- Chris Barr needs six hits to reach 150 over his career at Army.

THE PATRIOT LEAGUE, AMERICA'S LEAGUE FOR DEVELOPMENT

• In today's college athletics landscape headlined by the transfer portal, 68% of all players across the Patriot League are returning players to their respective teams, second most in all of Division I behind the Ivy League's 73%.

• Just 3% of all Patriot League baseball players are transfers, the second lowest percentage in Division I, again behind the Ivy League's 1%.

• Freshmen make up 29% of all baseball players in the Patriot League, the highest share among any Division I conference.

• Data is from D1 Baseball/Bradley Smart.

WEST POINT, BY 'THEE - BEAT NAVY!

• Navy defeated Army in four of last season's five regular season contests between the teams, but the Black Knights prevailed in the postseason.

• Going into May 11 down one game to none in the Patriot League Semifinal Series—and standing at 1-5 overall on the season against its arch-rival—Army won two games on the same day at Max Bishop Stadium in Annapolis to secure the playoff series and clinch a spot in the Patriot League Championship series.

• While Army tied the series with relative ease early the afternoon of May 11, 13-2, the evening rubber matchup evolved into a heartstopper.

• In the winner-take-all rubber, a high-scoring afternoon morphed into a pitchers' showdown between Army's Trey Ates and Navy's star closer Landon Krueger. The two relievers exchanged zeros on the scoreboard, but the senior from Dallas would ultimately be the pitcher who earned the win for his team, with six scoreless innings including the nightcap's ultimate 10th stanza.

• Thomas Schreck walked with the bases loaded in the top of the extra inning, allowing Michael Delph to cross the plate as the winning run. Navy got the go-ahead run to the plate in the bottom of the inning, but a flyout to Addison Ainsworth proved to be the final page in a storybook ending of a 6-5 Army win.

• Dating back to 2022, Army has won 17 of its 25 meetings vs. Navy.

• The all-time series between Army and Navy stands tied at 136 wins each. Army is now 14-8 all-time vs. Navy in extra innings and the win was the program's fifth straight postseason series win over the Mids. The game was Army's first extra innings Patriot League postseason game since May 10, 2008, in Game 1 of the semifinals vs. Bucknell.

AMERICA'S GAME, LOW-SCORING AND QUICK

• While the Army-Navy football game is well-known by fans nationwide for its low-scoring nature, the Army-Navy baseball series in recent years has too seen its fair share of low-scoring matchups, featuring high-end pitching, and rewarding clean, situational efforts.

• Since 2023, the average number of combined runs scored per Army-Navy game is exactly nine (four and a half per team), over 20 games.

• The winning team in each game has averaged 6.35 runs per game over that timeframe.

- Army is 9-1 over Navy when scoring five or more runs since 2023.
- Since 2023, Army-Navy baseball games have lasted just two hours, 15 minutes on average. Games lasting nine innings or longer have averaged two hours, 25 minutes.

CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES MAINSTAY

- Army has participated in seven consecutive Patriot League Championship Series.
- The Black Knights fell two games to none in last season's championship series at Holy Cross.
- Army's last conference tournament title came in 2024, a two games to none win over Navy at home.
- The Black Knights also won the league tournament titles at home in 2023 and 2022, both times against Bucknell.
- The program defeated Lehigh in the conference tournament championship series on the road in 2021, and won at Navy in 2018 and 2019.
- Army's 13 Patriot League Tournament titles leads the conference all-time. The Black Knights also boast 12 Patriot League regular season titles, and won four league titles before the Patriot League (EIBL).
- Army's 50 game wins all-time in the Patriot League Tournament is the most among conference members.

IF YOU WANT A COWBOY ON A WHITE HORSE

- RHP Andrew Berg was one of five Black Knights and three conference starting pitchers to garner 2026 Preseason All-Patriot League accolades.
- Berg was slotted as the No. 189 starting pitcher before 2026 by D1 Baseball.
- The right-handed pitcher led the team with 61 strikeouts and a 3.91 ERA in 2025.
- Of Berg's 12 starts in 2025, all but two were five innings or longer, including five starts of seven innings or longer.
- Twice in 2025, Berg pitched at least eight innings in a single game, going 8.1 frames in a March 15 win at Navy, and tossing eight innings in a 4-1 extra innings win at Bucknell April 25.

GREAT ATES

- With both teams fighting to stay alive a season ago, what was a high-scoring afternoon May 11 between Army and Navy morphed into a bullpen showdown between Army's Trey Ates and Navy's star closer Landon Kruer, in a battle for a spot in the Patriot League Championship Series.
- The two relievers exchanged zeros on the scoreboard, but the senior from Dallas would ultimately be the pitcher who earned the win for his team, with six scoreless innings, including the nightcap's ultimate 10th stanza.
- With Army onto a 5-4 lead in the fifth, and with a run already having crossed the plate in the frame, Ates entered the game, having taken a losing decision on the same playing surface back on March 16.
- Ates surrendered a sacrifice fly to allow an inherited runner to score but otherwise recorded a clean inning, the first of six Sunday.
- In the sixth, Navy put runners on second and third base with no outs, and had the bases loaded with two outs, but Ates nonetheless escaped the frame scoreless.

SPEED, I AM SPEED

- INF Chris Barr was one of five Black Knights to garner Preseason All-Patriot League accolades.
- In 2025, the second baseman displayed both speed and consistency at the top of the lineup, becoming one of the team's most potent offensive threats.
- His .308 AVG was fourth on the team and he led Army with 32 stolen bases. Barr eclipsed the 30 stolen base mark in a single Army season for the first time since Hunter Meade stole 32 bases in 2022. Barr's three stolen bases in Game 2 of the April 19 doubleheader vs. Lafayette also tied a career-high for Barr set previously vs. Air Force a season ago.
- During his 8-for-9 doubleheader output vs. Bucknell March 29, he tied the program record for consecutive base hits with eight. The junior from Sarasota, Fla. drove in four total runs across both games, including his two-out, three-run triple in the nightcap. He also crossed the plate seven times.
- Barr was a double away from the cycle in Army's series finale at Navy March 16, going 4-for-5 with a seventh inning home run.
- Barr hit three home runs in 2025, most recently in Army's win over LIU April 30.
- Barr's four RBIs in Game 2 of the semifinal series at Navy May 11 set up a decisive Game 3.
- After starting 30 consecutive games in left field, Barr returned to the starting lineup at second base April 16 vs. Holy Cross and remained at second until the end of the season. He started the first four games of the season at second base after spending most of 2024 at that position.

BILLY BARRELS

- Parker was one of five Black Knights to garner Preseason All-Patriot League accolades.
- In 2025, William Parker recovered from offseason Tommy John Surgery in time to make his season debut at Fordham March 7. After starting 25 games exclusively as the DH, the junior made his left field debut April 16 vs. Holy Cross, his primary defensive position. He remained the starter in left through the end of the year.

GAME NOTES

NOTES AND STORYLINES

- Parker was named Patriot League Player of the Week March 24.
- In addition to two clutch home runs in a March 22 twin bill at Lafayette, the Hopedale, Mass. native was a combined 6-for-17 against Lehigh and Lafayette March 22-23, and totaled eight RBIs in the four games, including four in the nightcap at Lafayette.
- Against Navy May 11 in Game 3 of the conference semifinals, Parker was 3-for-5 with a two-run homer as Army secured its spot in the championship series.
- His six home runs in 2025 led the team and his .301 AVG was fifth-best for Army.

IT'S SCHRECK'S SWAMP, AND WE'RE JUST LIVING IN IT

- INF Thomas Schreck was named Preseason Defensive Player of the Year and the Preseason All-Patriot League Team.
- The shortstop served as the quintessential double leadoff hitter in Army's lineup in 2025, starting every game at shortstop and 42 of 50 games in the bottom of the batting order.
- He finished first on the team with a .335 AVG and carried a 25-game on-base streak from March 15 to April 23, the longest streak by a Black Knight last year.
- He hit his first home run of the season in Game 1 of a March 29 doubleheader vs. Bucknell, as the Black Knights came back from 7-0 down to win the game and later, sweep the twin bill.
- Schreck was 3-for-4 in Game 2 of Patriot League Semifinal Series at Navy to set up a decisive Game 3, and walked with the bases loaded in the 10th inning of Game 3 to give Army a permanent 6-5 lead.
- Schreck was named Patriot League Player of the Week March 3 after Army's three game series at Air Force February 28-March 2, was named to the First Team All-Patriot League Team and was a member of the Patriot League All-Tournament Team after hitting .375 in the postseason.

QUINNY BEHIND THE DISH

- Ahead of 2026, catcher Jack Quinlan was named to the Buster Posey Award Preseason Watch List as well as the Preseason All-Patriot League Team.
- Last year, Quinlan was second on the team in AVG (.319) and led in OPS (.982), having started 39 games behind the plate in 2025.
- Quinlan was named Patriot League Player of the Week during Army's April 14 game vs. Lehigh, after a standout performance in vs. Lehigh in an April 13 doubleheader.
- The Long Island native went 3-for-4 in Game 1 and 3-for-5 in Game 2 of the twin bill, totaling six RBIs across the games. He also hit a solo home run in the nightcap. His five home runs are second-most on the team.
- In 2025, Quinlan was named to the All-Patriot League Second Team and a semifinalist for the Buster Posey Award.

LOOK AT ME, I CAN PLAY CENTERFIELD

- Outfielder Addison Ainsworth proved to be one of Army's most consistent weapons both in the batter's box and in center field, starting all but one game in 2025 at the position.
- The lefty batted .293 with five home runs on the season, including a fifth inning go-ahead two run home at Holy Cross May 19 in the Patriot League Championship Series. The Baton Rouge, La. native was 2-for-4 in Army's Game 3 win of Patriot League Semifinal Series at Navy, also making the catch in center field for the final out.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

- Army brings in 13 freshmen for 2026, including six pitchers, six position players and one two-way player.
- Army fans are likely to recognize incoming player David Dubrule as the younger brother of Kevin Dubrule. Kevin Dubrule graduated from West Point in 2023 after four seasons with the Black Knights' program, batting .405 with nine homers in '23.
- The older Dubrule served as Team Captain, was Patriot League Player of the Year, Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year, First Team All-Patriot League, Patriot League Tournament MVP, a Brooks Wallace Award Finalist and a Collegiate Baseball Third Team All-American. Kevin Dubrule declined professional baseball opportunities to instead pursue Army aviation and is currently a helicopter pilot.
- David and Kevin are each the younger brother of Scotty Dubrule, who played at Jacksonville and Mississippi State and won a national title at the latter in 2021.

BIG LEAGUE CAMP INVITE

- Army West Point baseball alum Derek Berg has been selected to Pittsburgh Pirates major league spring training as a non-roster invitee.
- Berg enters his second full season in the Pirates' minor league system. A season ago, the Class of 2024 graduate appeared for Single-A Bradenton, High-A Greensboro and finished the year with Double-A Altoona.
- In 2024, Berg was selected by the Pirates in the 10th Round with the No. 294 overall pick in the Major League Baseball Draft, becoming the 21st West Point graduate to be selected in the MLB Draft.

13-TIME PATRIOT LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

JOHNSON STADIUM AT DOUBLEDAY FIELD

It started as a vision. It ended as a dream—a field of dreams, nestled smack in the middle of the U.S. Military Academy, tucked squarely in the middle of history.

Back in the late 1980s, there was much talk of moving venerable Doubleday Field, tearing the quaint little park from its natural resting spot in the national register of historic places, just off the "The Plain" overlooking the majestic Hudson River.

So many had roamed the time-honored pasture, chasing their boyhood dreams on a diamond well-suited for such fantasies. Bradley, Eisenhower, MacArthur, Franks, Blaik and Reeder had all frolicked there; so, too, had McGraw, Durocher, Mays, Mantle, Berra and Stengel. It was a place where major generals met major leaguers, a wonderful patch of land that transcended time and space.

Yet, as part of West Point's master facilities plan, Doubleday Field, so rich in history, so washed in tradition, was in danger of going the way of some of the great ones, going the way of the Polo Grounds and Ebbets Field; going the way of Connie Mack Stadium and Sportsman's Park. This magnificent old baseball diamond, named in honor of Abner Doubleday, the founder of baseball and an 1842 USMA graduate, was to be relocated to a more sterile setting, a hollow place void of memories and heritage.

Only the Doubleday Society, with Rod Vitty (USMA '55) as its driving force, and the family of Rupert H. Johnson (USMA '22) would not let that happen. A marvelous power pitcher during his days in the Black and Gold, Vitty had spent a good portion of his West Point springs toiling on the field where legends were born. For Vitty, the thought of moving "The Home of Army Baseball" from the site where games had first been contested in 1909 bordered on treason.

Vitty, along with a host of other former players and friends of the program, began a crusade to "Save Doubleday Field." Thanks to their efforts and the tremendous generosity of the Johnson family, the dream was realized with the formal dedication of Rupert H. Johnson Stadium at Doubleday Field on Sept. 13, 1996.

The goal of the project was to provide the U.S. Military Academy with an impressive facility suited to the storied heritage of West Point and its glorious baseball program.

Highlights of the undertaking included the construction of full locker rooms for both home and visiting teams, a training room, clubhouse facilities, along with the addition of 880 fixed chair-back seats.

Great pains were taken in its design to draw an appropriate parallel between the new facility and the historic significance of its physical location on post. Formal granite facing emulating many of West Point's older academic buildings was tastefully incorporated to address those means.

Internally, spacious locker room and clubhouse facilities provide coaching staff and team members with a comfortable home.

Finally, landscaping around the facility was intentionally subdued with the historic parade ground known as "The Plain" remaining dominant nearby.

"Today's dedication of this 'state-of-the-art' baseball facility becomes a long overdue distinct and permanent addition to the Academy and its athletic program," Vitty stressed during the facility's dedication ceremonies. "This beautiful stadium is an appropriate and proud expression of West Point's love for our national pastime. "The Doubleday Society's efforts to construct this facility was made possible by the extreme generosity of the family of Rupert H. Johnson. This family provided the largest non-testamentary gift ever received by West Point. The Doubleday Society shares the family's great pride in dedicating this stadium to the memory of Rupert H. Johnson," Vitty continued. "His proud contribution to the financial industry, his community service and philanthropic activities were reflective of the uncompromising standards and enduring values that were such an integral and driving force in his life. All that was nurtured, I'm sure, by his West Point experience and imbedded by those spring-time days playing baseball on this very field. We call it our 'field of dreams.'"

Those same dreams will be shared by future generations of Army baseball players for many years to come. The Doubleday Society and the family of Rupert H. Johnson saw to that.

Abner Doubleday, an 1842 West Point graduate, is said to have devised the game of baseball while on leave from the U.S. Military Academy in 1839, drawing out the diamond and the rules of the game. He called the game "Base Ball," but it was patterned after a game called "Rounders," which was played by boys and girls in England.

While the origin of baseball has been disputed, Doubleday, nonetheless, is still given credit and the baseball field at the U.S. Military Academy was dedicated in his honor in May 1939, the centennial year of baseball.

Despite the controversy, Doubleday distinguished himself throughout his military career, earning the rank of major general.

JOHNSON STADIUM AT DOUBLEDAY FIELD

As a captain, he fired the first gun for the Union side in the Civil War at Fort Sumter. On Nov. 29, 1862, he was made a major general of the volunteers. He retired from the U.S. Army in 1873 and died Jan. 26, 1893, in New Jersey at the age of 74.

"The Home of Army Baseball" since games were first contested on its present site in 1909, Doubleday Field underwent a major $4.2 million renovation in 1996. Following an aggressive four month construction cycle, the new Johnson Stadium at Doubleday Field was formally dedicated at ceremonies on Sept. 13, 1996.

The goal of the project was to provide the U.S. Military Academy with an impressive facility suited to the storied heritage of both West Point and its baseball program. Highlights of the renovation project included the construction of full locker rooms for both home and visiting teams, fully equipped training rooms, clubhouse facilities, and the addition of 880 fixed chair-back seats.

Great pains were taken in its design to draw an appropriate parallel between the new facility and the historic significance of its physical location on campus. Formal granite facing emulating many of West Point's older academic buildings was tastefully incorporated to address those means.

Internally, spacious locker rooms and clubhouse facilities provide coaching staff and team members with a sparkling home.

A beautifully conceived "Team Room," complete with two flat-screen televisions, a state-of-the art entertainment system and sparkling new furniture was completed in 2006, providing Army's players with a comfortable place to relax.

Landscaping and sitework around the facility were intentionally subdued with the historic parade ground known as "The Plain" remaining dominant. In order to ensure that, overall height of the structure was minimized.

Doubleday Field itself underwent a major change during the summer of 2006 when a completely new natural playing surface was installed. In addition to incorporating state-of-the-art drainage and watering systems, the project included the addition of new bullpen pitching mounds, a host of dugout amenities and three fully lighted hitting tunnels.

In the summer of 2011, the first-ever press box was pre-assembled and delivered to Doubleday Field. The facility provides room for at least 10 media members, and a rooftop porch allows access for video equipment. A brand new scoreboard was installed in the fall of 2011, and a new padded wall was erected in January 2012.

In the fall of 2013, lights were installed at Johnson Stadium, allowing the Black Knights the opportunity to compete at night.

The latest addition to Johnson Stadium was a new turf field installation at Doubleday Field in the winter of 2023, giving Army an opportunity for fewer game cancellations and delays due to inclement weather.
