LEADING OFF

- Army opens Patriot League action March 13-15 vs. Holy Cross.
- The series serves as a rematch of last year's Patriot League Championship Series, won two games to none by Holy Cross.
- Before 2025, Army had won six consecutive league championships.
- Army is coming off a midweek series split vs. Merrimack.
- In Tuesday's 10-9 win over Merrimack, Josiah Overbeek tied the game in the eighth inning with a grand slam before Max McGlone gave Army the lead tied with his first career homer later in the inning.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials will be issued to members of the working media only. Children and other non-workers will be prohibited. Requests for credentials should be made by calling or emailing Austin Pert at least 24 hours before the game or series. Unless directed otherwise, Army Baseball will not have physical credentials. Please simply arrive and present yourself to Austin Pert on gameday.

Space in the baseball press box is limited. The stands remain open for all working media members if press box seating is not available. All press materials will be available regardless of where media members are seated.

INTERVIEW POLICY

Army Head Coach Chris Tracz and cadet-athletes will be available on request, both after games and on non-game days. All plans to request a postgame interview must be conveyed to Austin Pert when contacting him about covering the game. Please do not request postgame interviews during the game if you have not informed Pert of your attendance ahead of the game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS/VIDEOGRAPHERS

Photographers and videographers are permitted in the dugouts only in the camera well in each dugout. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot from the stands as well as behind the walls in foul territory.

Media members may request photos from the athletic communications office by contacting Austin Pert. All photos used that are obtained from Army Athletics must be credited.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

All Army Baseball home games will be broadcast on ESPN+ unless noted otherwise. Road broadcasts are at the discretion of the home team.

INFORMATION DISTRIBUTION

The Army Baseball press box is for working members of the media only. The press box includes space for working members of the press, team representatives, the public address announcer, the stat inputter, the trackman operator and the scoreboard operator.

Updated lineups, game notes and team rosters will be available in the press box at each home game. A final box score will be distributed at the completion of each game. Sidarm live stats links for each game are available publicly. An official scorer is assigned to all home games, and Austin Pert will keep media informed of all scoring decisions, notable facts and records.

Game notes will also be made public at GoArmyWestPoint.com/ Baseball roughly 24 hours before each series or midweek game.

WEBSITE INFORMATION

All Army Baseball materials, including record books, game notes, stats and game recaps can be accessed at GoArmyWestPoint.com/ Baseball.

HEAD COACH CHRIS TRACZ

Chris Tracz was named the 19th head coach in the 133-year history of the Army baseball program July 27, 2022. Upon three seasons at the helm, Tracz is 94-66 overall.

Tracz won his 400th career game as a Division I Head coach April 6, 2025. The Black Knights would go on to defeat Navy in the Patriot League Semifinal Series later in the season, sweeping a pair of games May 11 in Annapolis, including a 6-5, 10-inning win in Game 3 of the series.

Despite losing key hitters Derek Berg, Sam Ruta and Braden Golinski in the 2024-25 offseason, Tracz's club improved its batting average from '24 in '25, from .274 to .279.

In 2025, RHP Andrew Berg, INF Thomas Schreck, OF/INF Chris Barr and OF William Parker were each named to the Patriot League All-Conference First Team, while OF Addison Ainsworth and C Jack Quinlan each earned Second Team accolades. Quinlan was also a Buster Posey Award semifinalist among the nation's top collegiate catchers.

Berg earned all-league honors after transitioning from a bullpen role to a member of the starting rotation. Meanwhile, Schreck improved his batting average from .210 to .335 in 2025.

In 2025, Justin Lehman proved to be one of the country's top two-way players, being named the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Week May 13 and a finalist for the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year. In a season highlighted by a 142-pitch, seven inning win at Navy in Game 2 of the Patriot League Semifinals, Lehman finished the season with a 4.02 ERA and a .316 ERA. The senior also batted a blistering .524 in the postseason while recording a 1.32 postseason ERA across 13.2 innings.

In 2024, Tracz led the Black Knights to their sixth consecutive Patriot League Tournament Championship and NCAA Regional Appearance, with a berth in the NCAA Athens Regional. Earlier in the year, Army won the Baseball Star Series over Navy for the third consecutive season, with a dramatic rubber matchup victory April 28 off a Chris Barr walk-off base hit. The club then went on to defeat the Midshipmen two games to none in the best-of-three Patriot League Championship Series May 19-20.

Army was 5-2 against Navy in 2024, and also knocked off Air Force 13-2 on March 2 in Sugar Land, Texas.

The Black Knights boasted the Patriot League Pitcher of the Year in Justin Lehman, highlighted by his nine-inning, complete-game shut-out win over Navy April 26.

Lehman and fellow starting pitcher Matthew Ronnebaum earned First Team Patriot League All-Conference honors, along with relief pitcher Andrew Berg, catcher Derek Berg and outfielder William Parker. Outfielder Braden Golinski and third baseman Sam Ruta also claimed All-Conference Second Team accolades.

The North Branford, Conn. native led Army to a 38-18 record in 2023 and a 21-4 Patriot League regular season mark. Highlights from the year included a series win over Air Force, a series win at NCAA Regional finalist Charlotte and a season series sweep over Navy. The Black Knights earned an NCAA Tournament appearance at the Charlottesville Regional.

This marks Tracz's second stint with the Black Knights, as he served as an assistant coach during the 2009 season, helping the Army pitching staff lead the Patriot League in six statistical categories including wins, ERA, shutouts, complete games, strikeouts and saves en route to a Patriot League championship.

An accomplished pitcher at Marist himself, Tracz was a three-time captain (2003, 2004, 2005), a Two-Time First Team All-Region selection and appeared in three NCAA Tournaments (2001, 2002, 2005). He compiled a career record of 38-9 with an ERA of 3.13 while striking out 298 batters in 399.2 innings. Tracz also spent the summers of 2002 and 2003 in the Cape Cod Baseball League with the Falmouth Commodores.

Army also set a program single-season record in home runs (74) in 2023.

Following his playing career, Tracz got his first coaching job as an assistant at Marist from 2006-08.

Tracz oversaw the development of C/1B Ross Freidrick, who signed a minor league free agent deal with the St. Louis Cardinals after the 2023 season. One year later, seniors Derek Berg, Ruta and Tanner Greshman also earned professional free agent opportunities with the Pittsburgh Pirates, Kansas City Royals and Philadelphia Phillies.

Before Army, Tracz spent 13 seasons (2010-22) as the head coach at Marist College (Poughkeepsie, N.Y.), totaling a win-loss record of 315-282-2 (.526), and a Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference coaching record of 170-117 (.592), Marist's all-time winningest coach. In his final season at Marist, he led the Red Foxes to a 29-15 record, finishing second in the MAAC, tying for its most regular season wins since 2017, the same year the Red Foxes won the MAAC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Baseball Championship Gainesville Regional. Tracz also led the Red Foxes to a nation's-best 11 game win streak at the end of the 2022 season. He was named MAAC Coach of the Year for the first time in his career.

In his time as head coach at Marist, Tracz has produced eight MLB Draft picks, one All-American, three MAAC Pitchers of the Year, eight First Team All-MAAC Selections, 18 Second Team All-MAAC Selections, 101 MAAC All-Academic honorees and six CoSIDA Academic All-District Selections.

NOTES AND STORYLINES

RALLY CAPS ACTIVATED, WIN COLLECTED

- Army and Merrimack played to a two-game series split on Tuesday and Wednesday this week.
- Tuesday's game saw Army come back from down 9-5 in the eighth inning, with a Josiah Overbeek grand slam and a Max McGlone solo homer in the eighth giving the Black Knights a 10-9 lead before an Overbeek save in the ninth sealed the win.
- Overbeek's two-homer game was the second by a Black Knight this year, after Chris Barr hit two homers at South Carolina on February 20. The grand slam from Overbeek was the first grand slam by an Army player since Ruta on April 7, 2024 vs. Holy Cross. His seven RBIs were also the most since Ruta had eight in the aforementioned April 7 game in 2024.
- McGlone's home run was the junior's first in his career.
- The win was the 100th for Chris Tracz over his time at Army.

CHAMPIONSHIP REMATCH

- Army and Holy Cross open 2026 Patriot League play with a rematch of the 2025 Patriot League Championship series.
- Holy Cross won that series two games to none at Fitton Field, snapping Army's six-year reign as league champions.
- Last year's regular season series was also taken by Holy Cross, three games to two. The sides split a four-game series in Worcester before the Crusaders won an April 16 midweek league contest.

THREE IN THE COMMONWEALTH

- Army played at VCU on March 6-8, the Black Knights' final weekend test before conference play.
- On Friday and Sunday, Zac Farrell made just his second and third career starts at center field, his first starts at center since April 23 at UConn a season ago.
- Friday's game was Army's ninth in the Chris Tracz era to go into extra innings, and the first in 2026. Army is now 6-3 in extra innings games over that stretch.

ROAD WARRIORS

- Army returned home between its games at Clemson and South Carolina. The team was planning to return home once more between its games at The Citadel and at Queens.
- However, Winter Storm Hernando canceled Army's flight home on February 20. Therefore, players were excused from class for the week and the team stayed put down south between its games at The Citadel and at Queens. The Black Knights stayed in Charleston after facing The Citadel before making their way to Charlotte on Tuesday, using the facilities at The Citadel and Queens for practice and workouts all week.
- Army finally made it home March 1 before returning to the road March 5 to travel to Richmond.

IN MY MIND, I'VE GONE TO CAROLINA

- Each of Army's first nine games in 2026 took place in the Carolinas.
- This stretch included opening weekend at Clemson, games vs. South Carolina and Air Force at South Carolina, and a single game at The Citadel before the Queens series.

WE'LL NEVER BE ROYALS

- Army secured a three-game series sweep at Queens on February 27-March 1.
- The Black Knights defeated the Royals 3-2 on February 27, held off a late Queens push on February 28 to win 4-3, before completing the sweep with a 5-2 win on March 1.
- The Black Knights' bullpen combined for nine innings of work over the series and allowed zero runs. Army allowed just seven runs across the series.
- The win clinched Army's first three-game sweep since defeating Lafayette in three games April 19-20 a season ago.
- Army's sweep was its first of at least three games on the road since beating Navy three times on April 22-23, 2023.
- The series sweep was also the Black Knights' first of three or more games over a non-conference opponent since a three-game sweep over UMass on March 14-15, 2015.

BEATING THE S-E-C!

- Army baseball knocked off SEC foe South Carolina February 20 in emphatic, 9-5 fashion as the Black Knights secured their first win of the season on the first day of the home team's Salute the Troops Weekend.

13-TIME PATRIOT LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

NOTES AND STORYLINES

• Army's win Friday represented the first over a Power Conference opponent since defeating Pitt on March 4, 2022. It was also Army's second win all-time vs. an SEC opponent, previously defeating Florida in Gainesville on March 17, 2004. Coincidentally, that game was also a 9-5 win.

THE SILVER STAR RETURNS HOME

• One day after the South Carolina win, the Black Knights defeated Air Force 11-3 February 21 at Founders Park.
• The Black Knights have now won five of their past eight games vs. Air Force dating back to 2023, and 22 of their past 33 games against academy rivals.
• Army has now won the Silver Star game or series over Air Force three of the past four years.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS

• Despite having just one home outdoor practice under its belt before the first game of the 2026 season, Army has played error-free baseball in seven of its 14 games to open the year. The Black Knights' fielding percentage of .983 is 23rd nationally.

WE COULD BE HEROES

• Army and Clemson played on opening weekend Feb. 13-14 and recognized Clemson's Heroes Weekend over the three games.
• In the middle of the fourth inning of each game, Army's players joined in on Clemson's tradition of greeting and thanking veterans in attendance.
• Both teams players hung dog tags in an on-field ceremony during Game 2 of the series, to honor fallen service members.

RUN IT BACK, CHRIS TRACZ

• Head coach Chris Tracz returns for his fourth season at Army.
• Tracz, who made the move from the same role at Marist ahead of the 2023 season, won a Patriot League title in each of his first two years at Army.
• Tracz spent 2011-2022 at his alma mater of Marist as head coach after a one-year stint at Army as an assistant coach.

HIS TRUSTED ASSOCIATES

• John Sheehan is back for year three at Army as assistant coach/pitching coach, having come from the same role at Toledo.
• Tracz's newest assistant coach is Dylan Hoy, who comes to the Black Knights after spending 2025 as a graduate assistant with a Louisville team which made the College World Series. In 2024, Hoy played at Louisville and hit .317 with five home runs and 30 RBIs as a graduate transfer from Marist, where he played under Tracz.

MILESTONE WATCH

• Chris Barr needs 17 RBIs to reach 100 over his career at Army.
• William Parker needs five runs to reach 100 over his career at Army.
• William Parker needs 17 hits to reach 150 over his career at Army.
• William Parker needs one double to reach 30 over his career at Army.
• Thomas Schreck needs one hit to reach 100 over his career at Army.
• Addison Ainsworth needs nine runs to reach 100 over his career at Army.

DO IT BOTH WAYS

• Freshman Josiah Overbeek won Patriot League Player and Rookie of the Week on March 2 after helping lead Army to a three-game sweep at Queens.

• Overbeek also won John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Week honors and was named to the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Watch List last week.

• The freshman from Weatherford, Texas hit .400 across the three games at Queens with homers on Friday and Saturday. He also notched a double in the series, a pair of walks and three RBIs.

• Overbeek hit the first grand slam for Army since 2024 in the eighth inning vs. Merrimack on Tuesday as the Black Knights rallied for 9-5 down in the inning to win 10-9. He would then pitch a perfect ninth inning Tuesday to earn his second save of the year.

• At VCU, Overbeek was 2-for-4 on Saturday and walked twice on Sunday.

• His 1.00 walks per game clip leads the Patriot League.

• On the mound, he appeared out of the bullpen twice at Queens. He earned the win in Friday's series opener with a strikeout and 2.2 innings pitched. In Sunday's game, he recorded a two-out save to secure the sweep. His 3.1 innings pitched over the series featured an .091 opponent batting average and no runs allowed.

• In Army's 9-5 win vs. South Carolina, Overbeek hit a three-run home run and became the first Army player to both record a pitching appearance and hit a home run in the same game, since Kevin McKague did so in a win over Ohio State on March 13, 2011.

• Overbeek--a freshman--is hitting .389 on the year and currently has a 1.59 ERA over three pitching appearances.

• His AVG, his .861 SLG and .549 OBP each lead the conference.

IF YOU WANT A COWBOY ON A WHITE HORSE

• RHP Andrew Berg was one of five Black Knights and three conference starting pitchers to garner 2026 Preseason All-Patriot League accolades.

• Berg had a 5.2-inning no-decision at VCU Friday, striking out a season-high five.

• He pitched a season-high seven innings in February 28's contest at Queens February 28, allowing just two earned runs and picking up the win.

• The righty pitched 6.1 innings against Air Force on February 21 and struck out two batters while allowing three earned runs, being credited with the win.

• Berg started on the mound for Army on opening day, providing 6.1 innings and allowing just two earned runs at Clemson, striking out four batters.

• Berg was slotted as the No. 189 starting pitcher before 2026 by D1 Baseball.

• The right-handed pitcher led the team with 61 strikeouts and a 3.91 ERA in 2025.

• Of Berg's 12 starts in 2025, all but two were five innings or longer, including five starts of seven innings or longer.

SPEED, I AM SPEED

• Chris Barr was named Patriot League Player of the Week on February 23. The senior infielder hit two home runs in Army's win over SEC foe South Carolina and was .357 across Army's 2-1 weekend February 20-22, which also included a win vs. academy rival Air Force. Barr was 2-for-5 vs. South Carolina and 3-for-6 vs. Air Force.

• Barr's two-homer game at South Carolina was the first multi-homer contest for a Black Knight since both Derek Berg and William Parker hit two vs. Bucknell on April 21, 2024.

• Barr was one of five Black Knights to garner Preseason All-Patriot League accolades.

• In Saturday's game at VCU, Barr made his first career start at center field.

NOTES AND STORYLINES

BILLY BARRELS

- Outfielder William Parker recorded a pair of home runs in Army's weekend February 20-22, with a three-run homer vs. Air Force on February 21 and a two-run homer at The Citadel on February 22.
- Parker recorded a trio of base knocks and hit .273 across opening weekend at Clemson.
- Parker was one of five Black Knights to garner Preseason All-Patriot League accolades.
- In 2025, Parker recovered from offseason Tommy John Surgery in time to make his season debut at Fordham March 7. After starting 25 games exclusively as the DH, the junior made his left field debut April 16 vs. Holy Cross, his primary defensive position. He remained the starter in left through the end of the year.
- His six home runs in 2025 led the team and his .301 AVG was fifth-best for Army.

IT'S SCHRECK'S SWAMP, AND WE'RE JUST LIVING IN IT

- INF Thomas Schreck was named Preseason Defensive Player of the Year and the Preseason All-Patriot League Team.
- Schreck hit .375 in series at VCU March 6-8, and reached the 50 career walks drawn milestone in Friday's game.
- Schreck executed Army's first squeeze play of the season in the win at Queens March 1, as Army pulled away in the ninth inning to win 5-2.
- Schreck recorded a home run in Army's academy win over Air Force February 21.
- He finished first on the team with a .335 AVG in 2025, and carried a 25-game on-base streak from March 15 to April 23, the longest streak by a Black Knight last year.

QUINNY BEHIND THE DISH

- Catcher Jack Quinlan got Army on the board in the first inning vs. Air Force on February 21, with a two-run home run in the Black Knights' 11-3 rivalry win.
- Quinlan batted .333 for Army on opening weekend at Clemson, and hit a solo home run in the seventh inning on opening day to go with a double.
- Ahead of 2026, Quinlan was named to the Buster Posey Award Preseason Watch List as well as the Preseason All-Patriot League Team.
- In 2025, Quinlan was named to the All-Patriot League Second Team and a semifinalist for the Buster Posey Award.

HEW-EY IS BACK-EY

- Army's Carter Hewitt has returned to the everyday lineup for the first time since an injury setback on Opening Day in 2025. So far through 14 games at first base in 2026, Hewitt is second on the team in batting average with a .255 clip.
- Hewitt played in 27 games and made 21 starts in 2024.

'O CAPTAIN, MY CAPTAIN

- Seniors Chris Barr and William Parker will serve as 2026 team captains, after spending 2025 in the same role together alongside then-senior Coleson Titus.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

- Army brings in 13 freshmen for 2026, including six pitchers, six position players and one two-way player.

THE PATRIOT LEAGUE, AMERICA'S LEAGUE FOR DEVELOPMENT

- In today's college athletics landscape headlined by the transfer portal, 68% of all players across the Patriot League are returning players to their respective teams, second most in all of Division I behind the Ivy League's 73%.
- Just 3% of all Patriot League baseball players are transfers, the second lowest percentage in Division I, again behind the Ivy League's 1%.
- Freshmen make up 29% of all baseball players in the Patriot League, the highest share among any Division I conference.
- Data is from D1 Baseball/Bradley Smart.

WEST POINT, BY 'THEE - BEAT NAVY!

- Navy defeated Army in four of last season's five regular season contests between the teams, but the Black Knights prevailed in the postseason.
- Going into May 11 down one game to none in the Patriot League Semifinal Series—and standing at 1-5 overall on the season against its arch-rival—Army won two games on the same day at Max Bishop Stadium in Annapolis to secure the playoff series and clinch a spot in the Patriot League Championship series.
- In the winner-take-all rubber, a high-scoring afternoon morphed into a pitchers' showdown between Army's Trey Ates and Navy's star closer Landon Krueer. The two relievers exchanged zeros on the scoreboard, but the senior from Dallas would ultimately be the pitcher who earned the win for his team, with six scoreless innings including the nightcap's ultimate 10th stanza.
- Dating back to 2022, Army has won 17 of its 25 meetings vs. Navy.
- The all-time series between Army and Navy stands tied at 136 wins each. Army is now 14-8 all-time vs. Navy in extra innings and the win was the program's fifth straight postseason series win over the Mids.

Chris Barr walked off Navy in Game 3 of the baseball star series in 2024.

JOHNSON STADIUM AT DOUBLEDAY FIELD

It started as a vision. It ended as a dream—a field of dreams, nestled smack in the middle of the U.S. Military Academy, tucked squarely in the middle of history.

Back in the late 1980s, there was much talk of moving venerable Doubleday Field, tearing the quaint little park from its natural resting spot in the national register of historic places, just off the “The Plain” overlooking the majestic Hudson River.

So many had roamed the time-honored pasture, chasing their boyhood dreams on a diamond well-suited for such fantasies. Bradley, Eisenhower, MacArthur, Franks, Blaik and Reeder had all frolicked there; so, too, had McGraw, Durocher, Mays, Mantle, Berra and Stengel. It was a place where major generals met major leaguers, a wonderful patch of land that transcended time and space.

Yet, as part of West Point’s master facilities plan, Doubleday Field, so rich in history, so washed in tradition, was in danger of going the way of some of the great ones, going the way of the Polo Grounds and Ebbets Field; going the way of Connie Mack Stadium and Sportsman’s Park. This magnificent old baseball diamond, named in honor of Abner Doubleday, the founder of baseball and an 1842 USMA graduate, was to be relocated to a more sterile setting, a hollow place void of memories and heritage.

Only the Doubleday Society, with Rod Vitty (USMA ‘55) as its driving force, and the family of Rupert H. Johnson (USMA ‘22) would not let that happen. A marvelous power pitcher during his days in the Black and Gold, Vitty had spent a good portion of his West Point springs toiling on the field where legends were born. For Vitty, the thought of moving “The Home of Army Baseball” from the site where games had first been contested in 1909 bordered on treason.

Vitty, along with a host of other former players and friends of the program, began a crusade to “Save Doubleday Field.” Thanks to their efforts and the tremendous generosity of the Johnson family, the dream was realized with the formal dedication of Rupert H. Johnson Stadium at Doubleday Field on Sept. 13, 1996.

The goal of the project was to provide the U.S. Military Academy with an impressive facility suited to the storied heritage of West Point and its glorious baseball program.

Highlights of the undertaking included the construction of full locker rooms for both home and visiting teams, a training room, clubhouse facilities, along with the addition of 880 fixed chair-back seats.

Great pains were taken in its design to draw an appropriate parallel between the new facility and the historic significance of its physical location on post. Formal granite facing emulating many of West Point’s older academic buildings was tastefully incorporated to address those means.

Internally, spacious locker room and clubhouse facilities provide coaching staff and team members with a comfortable home.

Finally, landscaping around the facility was intentionally subdued with the historic parade ground known as “The Plain” remaining dominant nearby.

“Today’s dedication of this ‘state-of-the-art’ baseball facility becomes a long overdue distinct and permanent addition to the Academy and its athletic program,” Vitty stressed during the facility’s dedication ceremonies. “This beautiful stadium is an appropriate and proud expression of West Point’s love for our national pastime. “The Doubleday Society’s efforts to construct this facility was made possible by the extreme generosity of the family of Rupert H. Johnson. This family provided the largest non-testamentary gift ever received by West Point. The Doubleday Society shares the family’s great pride in dedicating this stadium to the memory of Rupert H. Johnson,” Vitty continued. “His proud contribution to the financial industry, his community service and philanthropic activities were reflective of the uncompromising standards and enduring values that were such an integral and driving force in his life. All that was nurtured, I’m sure, by his West Point experience and imbedded by those spring-time days playing baseball on this very field. We call it our ‘field of dreams.’”

Those same dreams will be shared by future generations of Army baseball players for many years to come. The Doubleday Society and the family of Rupert H. Johnson saw to that.

Abner Doubleday, an 1842 West Point graduate, is said to have devised the game of baseball while on leave from the U.S. Military Academy in 1839, drawing out the diamond and the rules of the game. He called the game “Base Ball,” but it was patterned after a game called “Rounders,” which was played by boys and girls in England.

While the origin of baseball has been disputed, Doubleday, nonetheless, is still given credit and the baseball field at the U.S. Military Academy was dedicated in his honor in May 1939, the centennial year of baseball.

Despite the controversy, Doubleday distinguished himself throughout his military career, earning the rank of major general.

JOHNSON STADIUM AT DOUBLEDAY FIELD

As a captain, he fired the first gun for the Union side in the Civil War at Fort Sumter. On Nov. 29, 1862, he was made a major general of the volunteers. He retired from the U.S. Army in 1873 and died Jan. 26, 1893, in New Jersey at the age of 74.

“The Home of Army Baseball” since games were first contested on its present site in 1909, Doubleday Field underwent a major $4.2 million renovation in 1996. Following an aggressive four month construction cycle, the new Johnson Stadium at Doubleday Field was formally dedicated at ceremonies on Sept. 13, 1996.

The goal of the project was to provide the U.S. Military Academy with an impressive facility suited to the storied heritage of both West Point and its baseball program. Highlights of the renovation project included the construction of full locker rooms for both home and visiting teams, fully equipped training rooms, clubhouse facilities, and the addition of 880 fixed chair-back seats.

Great pains were taken in its design to draw an appropriate parallel between the new facility and the historic significance of its physical location on campus. Formal granite facing emulating many of West Point’s older academic buildings was tastefully incorporated to address those means.

Internally, spacious locker rooms and clubhouse facilities provide coaching staff and team members with a sparkling home.

A beautifully conceived “Team Room,” complete with two flat-screen televisions, a state-of-the art entertainment system and sparkling new furniture was completed in 2006, providing Army’s players with a comfortable place to relax.

Landscaping and sitework around the facility were intentionally subdued with the historic parade ground known as “The Plain” remaining dominant. In order to ensure that, overall height of the structure was minimized.

Doubleday Field itself underwent a major change during the summer of 2006 when a completely new natural playing surface was installed. In addition to incorporating state-of-the-art drainage and watering systems, the project included the addition of new bullpen pitching mounds, a host of dugout amenities and three fully lighted hitting tunnels.

In the summer of 2011, the first-ever press box was pre-assembled and delivered to Doubleday Field. The facility provides room for at least 10 media members, and a rooftop porch allows access for video equipment. A brand new scoreboard was installed in the fall of 2011, and a new padded wall was erected in January 2012.

In the fall of 2013, lights were installed at Johnson Stadium, allowing the Black Knights the opportunity to compete at night.

The latest addition to Johnson Stadium was a new turf field installation at Doubleday Field in the winter of 2023, giving Army an opportunity for fewer game cancellations and delays due to inclement weather.
