PREGAME HUDDLE

Ashland University's football team (8-3) will take a seven-game winning streak into the 2023 America's Crossroads Bowl on Dec. 1 at 7 p.m. Eastern/6 p.m. Central against McKendree (5-5), which enters with a five-game win streak. The Eagles' seven-game winning streak is tied for the fifth-longest in NCAA Division II football.

"It's a chance to play one more game, kind of a reward for the season," said Ashland head coach Doug Geiser, the winningest first-year head coach in program history. "This gives you an opportunity to add a little extra (to the season)."

A bowl game has a two-pronged benefit to it - a chance to win another game in 2023, and a chance to get more practice reps for those who will be back in 2024.

"The first thing you want to do is you want to win the game," Geiser said. "That is the most important thing. You're coaching to win the game. Yeah, a collateral benefit is you get three more weeks to practice with your young guys and develop them further.

"That's why you play this game is to win the game. You might get some young guys a chance to play and get some in-game experience, maybe. You need to put the pedal to the metal. All gas, no brakes. You get a chance to play the game we love, get a chance to coach the game we love against a worthy opponent."

Ashland earned the right to play in the bowl game thanks to the winning streak - tied for the program's longest since 11 straight in 2017.

"It's a testament to the leaders on this team," Geiser said. "The guys kept working, kept trusting the process, and they reaped the benefits of it by the end of the year."

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference is 0-3 in previous America's Crossroads Bowl games - all three losses coming at the hands of Truman State.

LYBURTUS NAMED GREAT MIDWEST SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Senior wide receiver Dezmin Lyburtus hasn't been in the Ashland University football program very long, but his impact has been immediate and wide-ranging.

Lyburtus' contributions on kickoff returns led to his being named the 2023 Great Midwest Athletic Conference Special Teams Player of the Year on Nov. 16, as the conference's season-ending football awards were revealed.

The No. 10 kickoff returner in NCAA Division II, Lyburtus finished the regular season averaging 27.7 yards on 18 returns, including a 90-yard touchdown at Ohio Dominican on Sept. 30. That average is the best for an Eagle in a single season since Anthony Capasso's average of 30.7 in 2010.

Lyburtus also is one of four first-team All-Great Midwest Eagles, along with three more seniors – tailback Larry Martin, left guard Nehemiah Cannon and linebacker Jackson Myers.

• Lyburtus also caught 66 passes for 780 yards and 10 touchdowns during the regular season, and added 47 yards and a touchdown rushing. His 1,325 all-purpose yards are the most for an Eagle since Gei'vonni Washington's 1,453 in 2019, and his reception total ranks No. 5 in program history.

• Martin has 903 yards and 13 touchdowns rushing with a 5.4-yard average this season, to go with two catches for 14 yards. The 13 rushing scores are tied for the third-most in Ashland football history.

• Cannon led an Eagle offensive line which tied for the second-fewest sacks allowed in D-II in 2023 (six), and he didn't allow a sack all season.

• Myers paced the AU defense in total tackles (71), solo tackles (44), tackles for loss (15½), and sacks (6½), and added an interception for a touchdown and a fumble recovery.

Six Ashland players were lauded as second-team all-conference performers:

• Sophomore center Ethan Enders and sophomore left tackle Nick Walker each were key cogs in an AU offensive line which led the team to average 31.0 points and 358.0 yards per game.

• Junior cornerback Devin Prude collected 25 total tackles (18 solo), one tackle for loss, one interception and four pass breakups during the regular season.

• Sophomore defensive end Michael Shimek has 30 total tackles (14 solo), seven tackles for loss, 4½ sacks, one fumble recovery and two blocked kicks in 2023.

• Junior safety Riely Weiss racked up 51 total tackles (29 solo), 2½ tackles for loss and one interception during the regular year.

• Sophomore kicker A.J. Rhodes is second on the team in points with 64 – 40 extra points and eight field goals – and has six touchbacks on kickoffs.

THE EAGLE CAPTAINS FOR 2023

Ashland has five captains for the 2023 season - junior quarterback Trevor Bycznski, senior left guard Nehemiah Cannon, senior wide receiver Jake McLoughlin, senior inside linebacker Jackson Myers, and junior cornerback Devin Prude.

A LOOK AT THE BEARCATS

Junior quarterback Caleb Fisher threw for 1,551 yards and 18 touchdowns during the regular season, completing 61.6 percent of his passes. Junior wide receiver Yogi Flager Jr. was Fisher's top target, grabbing 41 passes for 406 yards and five touchdowns in just five games.

Defensively, McKendree's leaders during the regular year were junior defensive back Andrew Sherry (64 total tackles), sophomore defensive lineman Dameion Hatten (4½ sacks), sophomore linebacker Logan Turbyfill (eight tackles for loss), and three players with two interceptions each - junior defensive back Ethan Young, sophomore defensive back Nehemiah Hicks and grad safety Elijah Felton.
