The Sanford Pentagon became the home of the Augustana Vikings men's and women's basketball teams beginning in the 2019-20 season. Augustana men's basketball captured the NSIC Tournament and NCAA Region Championship in the venue on the way to its Division II national title in 2016, while the women earned an NSIC Tournament Championship at the Sanford Pentagon in 2018. The cornerstone of the Sanford Sports Complex in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, is the Sanford Pentagon, a 160,000-square-foot, five-sided facility featuring nine basketball courts, including the 1950s/1960s-inspired Heritage Court. The venue combines state-of-the-art amenities—including high-definition video boards and executive suites—with period-specific finishes that are a nod to the nostalgic days of basketball. The 3,200-seat Pentagon is home to Sanford POWER Basketball Academy, Sanford POWER Volleyball Academy, the NBA G League's Sioux Falls Skyforce, the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Women's and Men's Basketball tournaments and the South Dakota High School Basketball Hall of Fame. # HEAD COACH DAVE KRAUTH

David Krauth enters his 32nd season at the helm of the Augustana women's basketball program in 2020-21. He has recorded 31 winning seasons at Augustana.

He led Augustana to a 17-11 record in 2019-20 while seeing senior Hana Beyer earn NSIC Defensive Player of the Year honors. It marked the fourth time in five years and fifth overall honor for a Krauth coached player. Abby Hora earned NSIC Second-Team honors while Lauren Sees and Aislinn Duffy were named to the All-Freshmen Team.

During the 2018-19 season, Krauth led the Vikings to a 22-11 record. Vishe' Rabb earned NSIC Freshman of the Year honors, Krauth's sixth player to be named NCC/NSIC Freshman of the Year. Rabb averaged 11 points per game in 22 NSIC contests with 13 starts. She was also named to the All-NSIC Freshman Team.

Shelby Selland, Lynsey Prosser and Hana (Metoxen) Beyer also received NSIC awards. Selland earned All-NSIC first team honors, while Prosser earned All-NSIC second team honors, and Metoxen was named to the NSIC All-Defensive team. Selland and Prosser both recorded their 1,000th career points during the season.

The 2017-18 season marked another historic year for Augustana women's basketball. The Vikings posted a 29-4 record, won a share of the NSIC regular season title for the first time in program history, won the NSIC South for the 2nd straight season, won the NSIC Tournament in dominating fashion, and advanced to the Sweet-16 in their 14th NCAA Tournament Appearance. The 29 wins are the most in program history, and the Vikings began the season 14-0, which is the best start to a season in program history.

Krauth made history in the regular season finale, when the Vikings defeated Upper Iowa 71-45 on Feb. 17, 2018, to give him his 600th career win. Krauth is the sixth active head coach with 600 or more wins and the 15th coach all-time to do so in Division II. He currently has a .70% winning percentage.

Senior guard, Logan O'Farrell, had a stellar season for the Vikings. O'Farrell was named WBCA Honorable Mention All-American after leading the team in scoring, rebounding, steals and assists. She earned her third straight NSIC Defensive Player of the Year award and her third straight All-NSIC Defensive Team honor. She was named first team All-NSIC for the second year in a row. She led the Vikings to their first NCAA Tournament in five years, and was named NSIC Tournament MVP and earned a spot on the Central Region All-Tournament team.

As has been a staple of his program, academics once again excelled with nine Vikings earning Academic All-NSIC honors. During Krauth's tenure, he has had 107 players named to Academic All-Conference teams. The team was also named to the WBCA Academic Top 25 Team Honor roll for the sixth straight season.

A highlight of his coaching career, the 2012-13 season was one for the ages, as Krauth's Vikings set a single-season school record for wins (28), which included being the NSIC Tournament and Central Region Tournament champions. The Vikings advanced to the national tournament semifinals by eliminating previously unbeaten and nationally top-ranked Clayton State in the opening round. Augustana's unprecedented run came to an end against Dowling College in the semifinals. The Vikings were ranked No. 4 in the final USA Today Sports Coaches Poll and were NCAA Tournament qualifiers for the 13th time.

During his Augustana career, Krauth has coached three WBCA 1st Team All-Americans: Dana Nielsen (1992 and 1993), Sandra Zwach (1997), and Shaunteva Ashley (2015). He has coached 54 first team All-Conference players: Nielsen was a four-time All-NCC choice, while Heidi Morlock, Zwach, Brittani Janssen, and Alison Adamson were three-time All-NCC picks. Nielsen, Zwach, and Ashley were league MVP's. Logan O'Farrell was a three-time NSIC Defensive Player of the Year from 2016-2018.

Three of Krauth's players (Bridget Lindquist, Nielsen, and Morlock) were honored as NCAA South Dakota Woman of the Year, and two (Lindquist and Morlock) have been awarded NCAA post-graduate scholarships. Fourteen of his players have been inducted into the Augustana Athletic Hall of Fame, which includes both of his daughters, Julie Dearing and Katie Everson.

Two members of the 2012-13 team were voted NSIC Freshman of the Year: Alex Feeney (2009-10) and Ashley (2011-12). Krauth has also coached three players who were chosen NCC Freshman of the Year: Morlock (1990-91), Chelsea DeVille (2005-06), and Molly Hayes (2007-08).

In 1993, Krauth's Vikings were cited as the College Women's Team of the Year by the South Dakota Sportswriter's Association.

Krauth's personal honors include Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Coach of the Year (2018), North Central Conference Coach of the Year (1990), the South Dakota Sportswriters' College Women's Coach of the Year (1994), and the South Dakota Basketball Coaches Association Women's College Coach of the Year for 1989-90, 1990-91 and 2004-05.

In 2006, he was named the Russell Athletic/WBCA Division II, Region Seven Coach of the Year after leading the Vikings to a 25-7 record. Included was a school-record 20-game winning streak. In 2012, Krauth was inducted into the Sioux Falls O'Gorman High School Athletic Hall of Fame.

Teaching and coaching stints at Tri-Valley High School (Colton, SD), and Roosevelt High School (Des Moines, Iowa) preceded Krauth's Augustana appointment. He compiled a record of 347-143 as a high school coach, taking eight teams to state tournaments.

Krauth received a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Sioux Falls in 1974. He earned a master's degree in health, physical education and recreation from South Dakota State University in 1983.

Krauth and his wife, Sandy, are the parents of two daughters, Julie (Augustana 1994) and Katie (Augustana 2006). They have six grandchildren.

HEAD COACH TOM BILLETER

Augustana's all-time winningest men's basketball coach, national champion and two-time national coach of the year, Tom Billeter has set a national standard for achievement at Augustana.

Entering his 18th season at Augustana, Billeter has guided the Vikings to over 300 wins and the 2016 NCAA Division II National Championship. He has directed the Vikings to eight NCAA Tournament appearances, two NSIC Championships, two NSIC Tournament Championships and has coached eight players to nine conference player of the year awards.

In 2019-20, Billeter led a team that saw junior Tyler Riemersma earn first-team all-NSIC honors after ranking third in the nation in offensive rebounds per game and eighth in total rebounds. Riemersma also earned CoSIDA Academic All-America accolades.

In 2018-19, Billeter led a starting group of four freshmen and a sophomore to the NSIC South Division Championship with a 14-8 NSIC record and went 18-12 overall. Sophomore Matt Cartwright earned second-team all-NSIC accolades while he also coached his fifth NSIC Freshman of the Year.

It was the 2015-16 season that was one to remember, winning the Division II National Championship, winning a school record 34 games, and owning the highest winning percentage in Division II and the second-most wins of any team across the three divisions. He was named the NABC National Coach of the Year, an award he accepted alongside Augustana's all-time leading scorer and 2016 NABC National Player of the Year, Daniel Jansen.

Jansen ended his career as Augustana's all-time leading scorer as well as twice being named the Central Region Player of the Year and NSIC Player of the Year. He was named to seven All-America teams over two seasons and concluded his career with a school record 2,255 points. His 721 points scored in his senior campaign is a single-season scoring record.

At the same time Jansen was earning NSIC Player of the Year awards, Casey Schilling was earning back-to-back NSIC Defensive Player of the Year accolades. An All-America selection in 2016, Schilling totaled 2,054 points over his career, one of two Vikings to score more than 2,000 points in their career. He also finished third all-time at Augustana with 997 career rebounds, one of just three players in school history with more than 900 boards.

The Vikings captured the 2016 National Championship with a 90-81 win over Lincoln Memorial. Alex Richter was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Elite Eight after averaging 24.3 points and 7.6 rebounds per game.

The Vikings won 31 games in 2014-15, including a 20-2 mark in NSIC action. Jansen earned the first of two NSIC Player of the Year awards while Schilling earned the first of two Defensive Player of the Year accolades. Jordan Spencer was named the Freshman of the Year, joining the likes of Cody Schilling (2009), Cameron McCaffrey (2010) and Daniel Jansen (2013) to earn the award under Billeter's watch. The 91.2 winning percentage from the 31-3 record was the second-best mark in Division II and one of just 18 teams across all divisions with 30-plus wins.

Billeter has seen four of his players re-write the Augustana men's basketball record book after Cody Schilling became Augustana's all-time leading scorer with 1,868 points from 2008-12. McCaffrey set the bar even higher, scoring a then second-most points in a single season in 2012-13 (659 points) to surpass Schilling becoming the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,964 career points from 2009-13. Both of those records have since been broken as Daniel Jansen and Casey Schilling.

He built the Vikings into a perennial NCAA Tournament squad after guiding Augie to its first postseason appearance in 19 years during the 2007-08 season. That season, Corey McIntosh was named the North Central Conference Newcomer of the Year en route to leading Augustana to the tournament.

Coming off a successful season in 2012-13 where Augustana went 22-9, marking the fourth time in six seasons a Billeter-led team produced 20 or more wins, the Vikings finished 16-14 in 2013-14 with two sophomores and four true freshmen gaining valuable playing experience. For just the second time since joining the NSIC in 2008-09, Augustana had two First Team All-NSIC selections in the same season with Casey Schilling and Jansen both earning first team laurels. Casey Schilling went on to earn Daktronics All-Central Region Second Team honors, marking the sixth-straight season Billeter has produced an All-Region caliber player.

Billeter emerged from a field of 15 candidates in 2013 to earn Clarence "Big House" Gaines National Coach of the Year Award following the 2012-13 season. He was also a finalist for the John McLendon Coach of the Year honors that season.

In five seasons as the head coach at North Dakota State University, Billeter compiled a 97-50 record. During his tenure, the Bison posted four consecutive 20-win seasons and earned four-straight appearances in the NCAA Division II Tournament. In 1994-95 the Bison earned a share of the North Central Conference championship with a 12-6 record. Billeter compiled a 57-33 record against NCC opposition and the Bison were three-time conference runners-up.

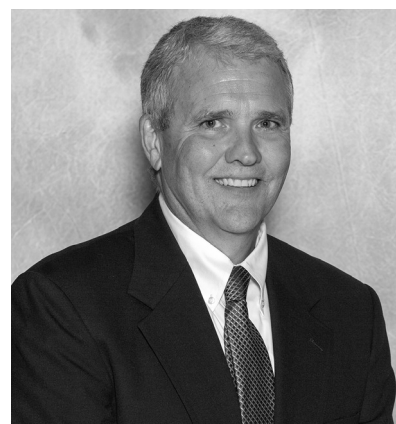

Billeter began his coaching career at the University of Arizona, where he worked two seasons (1985-1987) alongside Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame coach Lute Olson. The Wildcats were 23-9 in 1985-86 and won the Pac 10 Conference title. Arizona advanced to the NCAA Tournament both seasons.

During his stint in Arizona, Billeter coached Sean Elliott (NBA), Steve Kerr (NBA), Tom Tolbert (NBA), Jud Buechler (NBA) and Kenny Lofton (MLB). He then moved to Rice, where he served as an assistant coach from 1987 to 1992. The Owls won 20 games in 1991-92, the first 20-win season since 1953-54. Rice narrowly missed being awarded berths in the NCAA and NIT tournaments. While at Rice, Billeter coached the Owls' star center, Brent Scott (NBA).

Following his five-year run at NDSU, Billeter spent the 1997-98 season at St. John's (N.Y.), where he served under head coach Fran Fraschilla and helped the Red Storm to a 22-10 record. Led by Felipe Lopez (NBA) and Ron Artest (NBA), St. John's advanced to the NCAA tournament.

Billeter then began a five-year run at Texas A&M under head coach Melvin Watkins. Together they helped the Aggies gain respect in the Big 12 Conference. In 2002-03, the Aggies posted a 14-14 record marking just the second .500 or better season in 14 years. While with the Aggies Billeter had the opportunity to coach prominent players including Bernard King and Antoine Wright (NBA).

Billeter earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Illinois in 1983 and his master's degree in exercise physiology from Arizona in 1987. Tom and his wife, Paula, are the parents of four children: Mike (Lindsie), Kelsey (Kyle), Kyle and Brett. Tom and Paula are proud grandparents to Jack, Fox and Sparrow, all three children of Mike and Lindsie.

AUGUSTANA ATHLETIC CLUB

When you become a member of the A-Club, you are investing in the opportunity to build champions. Our over 400 student-athletes are excelling in the classroom as they pursue more than 40 different majors, winning conference and national championships, serving the community of the Sioux Falls and beyond, and graduating with limitless opportunities in front of them as they pursue their careers.

As we work to achieve our goals as part of Viking Bold: The Journey to 2030, your membership will continue to provide the necessary revenue for scholarships, recruiting, operating support, and program enhancements.

Mission:

To provide financial support to Augustana University student-athletes and individual sport programs to ensure the opportunity for a life changing academic and athletic experience for every Viking student-athlete.

Vision:

We work toward this mission by growing a network of passionate Vikings willing to invest in the success of our over 400 student-athletes competing in 19 sport programs.

HERE FOR Your HEALTH

YOU DON'T NEED
NEED A DOCTOR.

Regular wellness visits with a primary care physician or provider at Sanford Health can lead to better overall health. Better health care starts with a provider who's a familiar face. Someone who actually knows you and understands your concerns and your goals.

We're here before you need us. We're here when you need us. We're here after you need us.
