AZTEC SOCCER YEAR-BY-YEAR

NCAA Tournament Appearances: 1969, 1981, 1982, 1987, 1988, 1989, 2005, 2006, 2016 | 1987 NCAA National Finalist

1968

San Diego State's first year of Division I soccer. George Logan was the first head coach and the architect of 148 future wins. The Aztecs defeated UC San Diego, 5-1, in the school's first match. SDSU started the year winning its first four matches as the Aztecs finished with a 6-2 record.

1969

SDSU defeated Cal State L.A., Cal State Fullerton and UCLA on its way to a 9-1-1 season. Jim Tollerton and Oscar Gonzalez shared the goal-scoring leadership with 12 apiece. The Aztecs played three overtime NCAA playoff games, defeating CS Fullerton and UCLA, 2-1, before battling San Francisco to a 2-2 tie in four OTs. The game was decided by which team had taken more corner kicks, making USF the winner.

1970

Al Limahelu tallied 26 points and Choo Chowana-Bandhu scored 12 goals to lead the team. The largest margin of victory in Aztec soccer history came when San Diego State defeated Chapman College, 13-0. The Aztecs outscored opponents 55-9 on their way to an 8-1-1 mark.

1971

SDSU posted a 10-3-1 record with the help of Tollerton's 11 goals and Chowana-Bandhu's 10 scores. The Aztecs made their first appearance in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association tournament, losing to San José State in the first round, 2-1.

1972

After starting the season 1-4, San Diego State went unbeaten in its last six games to boost its season record to 6-4-1, securing its fifth straight winning campaign of the program. Chowana-Bandhu led the team with nine goals.

1973

The season began with a 12-0 whitewash of Arizona State and a 9-1 victory over Loyola. The team struggled at mid-year but regrouped to win six of its last seven to finish 11-6-3. The schedule included games with international teams from Mexico and Germany.

1974

Goal-scoring machine Steve Robertson arrived on Montezuma Mesa. He netted 14 goals in 13 games, including at least one tally in nine contests. The only loss in a 10-1-2 season came against CS Fullerton in the Aztecs' second match.

1975

Robertson again averaged more than a goal per game as the Aztecs put together a 10-4-1 season. Future stars Alan Kelly and Jan Norby arrived at SDSU and made an immediate impact. Kelly scored eight goals and Norby provided strength on defense.

1976

Three players scored seven goals apiece, leading the Aztecs to a 10-5-1 record. Kelly, Carlos Sainz and Lauri Somersalmi stood out in the Aztecs' ninth-straight winning season, including victories over San Francisco State and USIU on the way to the championship of the USIU Invitational.

1977

Vidal Fernandez burst onto the scene at SDSU, leading the Aztecs to a 13-4-1 record. The future New York Cosmos and San Diego Sockers star tallied 13 goals on the year to lead the team. Kelly and Sainz each had nine tallies. Four-year letterman and future head coach, Chuck Clegg, finished his first year as Logan's assistant coach.

1978

Playing its longest schedule ever, SDSU went 13-7, including a 8-2 mark at home. Fernandez again led the team in scoring with nine goals, while Chris Hull and Norby each scored five times. During a three-game stretch early in the year, Fernandez scored five times to pace three Aztec victories. Gordon Dallas wore the scarlet and black for the first time, notching four goals to go along with eight assists.

1979

The golden era of SDSU soccer begins with the arrival of several outstanding players. Micael Holmstedt, Dida Menders, Vince Bucelli and Kevin Crow all make their initial appearances for the Aztecs. In his final campaign, Fernandez scored 12 goals and had 10 assists, leading the team to a 14-3-2 mark. For the first time in SDSU soccer history, three players had double figures in goals as Fernandez and Holmstedt had 12 goals each and Menders added 10.

1980

Micael Holmstedt set the school's single-season scoring mark, netting 17 goals in 18 games. His 42 points also set a standard for SDSU. The team went on to compile a record of 12-4-2.

1981

The Aztecs returned to the NCAA playoffs for the first time in 10 years, compiling a 16-3-1 overall record. SDSU trounced California, 4-0, in the first round of the playoffs. In the second round, the Aztecs again met San Francisco. After regulation and four 15-minute overtimes failed to produce a winner, SDSU won on penalty kicks, 2-1. Following the victory, a player was declared ineligible for the Aztecs, forcing them out of further competition.

1982

Chuck Clegg took over as head coach and guided the Aztecs to their best record in history, winning 20 games for the first time. Clegg inherited a talented group that included seniors Holmstedt, Bucelli, Menders and Crow. The Aztecs won their first 11 games as they finished 20-3 and went to the NCAAAs again. SDSU eliminated Fresno State in the first round, 1-0, before falling to USF, 2-0. Holmstedt led the team with 33 points.

1983

With heavy graduation losses, the team struggled to a 9-9-4 record. Goal scoring was the problem most of the year, with the exception being a 13-0 win over Loyola Marymount. In the game against the Lions, Jeff Ryder scored three goals. Nineteen different players tallied at least one point during the season.

1984

Kyle Whittemore arrived on Montezuma Mesa to set single-season scoring and points marks. The Seattle product beat opposing keepers 21 times during the course of the season, tallying 45 points. Eric Drabb was the team's second-leading scorer with six goals and six assists. The team tied the school record set in 1983 for goals in a game with a 13-0 drubbing of CS Bakersfield. Its final record was 14-6.

1985

With Kyle Whittemore gone for the year with a broken leg, SDSU had trouble scoring. Steve Boardman and Steve Guillot shared the team lead with five goals. Boardman set a single-season record for assists with 12. The team averted its first-ever losing record with a late goal against cross-town rival USD to win, 1-0, in the next-to-last contest of the year to finish 8-8-4.

1986

Kyle Whittemore returned from his injury to break his own point-scoring record, earning a point in 17 different contests. His 20 goals and 10 assists led the team to a 14-3-4 record. Goalkeeper Felipe Hernandez posted a 0.71 goals-against average and six shutouts. The season ended on a sour note with a loss to Wisconsin-Milwaukee in the final game, keeping the team out of the NCAA playoffs.

1987

With teams keying more and more on Whittemore, freshman Eric Wynalda was a welcome addition to the Aztecs' scoring punch. As the lowest-seeded team in the NCAA playoffs, SDSU made a storybook run all the way to the NCAA finals. The Aztecs' finish included playoff victories against St. Louis, SMU and UCLA before beating undefeated Harvard in the semifinals. In the national championship game, SDSU lost to Clemson on the Tigers' home field, 2-0. Whittemore had 17 goals to lead the way and Wynalda had 11 goals and 11 assists. Goalkeepers Bryan Finnerty and Felipe Hernandez combined for a school-record 13 shutouts. A key to the Aztec season was the play of Chris Keenan and Gerardo Jimenez, both of whom had transferred to SDSU for their senior years.

1988

The Aztecs made their second consecutive trip to the NCAA playoffs, losing to UCLA in the first round. Defender Marcelo Balboa was named a first-team All-American. Wynalda (14), Whittemore (10) and Betts (10) finished in double figures for goal scoring. Finnerty set a pair of goalkeeping records as he helped the Aztecs establish a school record of 14 shutouts in a season. Finishing the season 15-3-4, SDSU continued to establish themselves as one of the premier programs in the nation. Whittemore capped his career as the MVP of the Senior Bowl in St. Louis at Budweiser Soccer Park, leading the West to a 2-0 victory and scoring the game-winning goal.

Kyle Whittemore

1989

Continuing to solidify their role as a national contender, the Aztecs appeared in the NCAA playoffs for the third straight year, a first in their storied history. In the playoff game, UCLA defeated the Aztecs 2-1, in a penalty kick shootout. Senior goalkeeper Bryan Finnerty recorded the third best single-season goals-against average (0.66), and became the Aztecs' career leader in GAA (0.69) and shutouts (26.5). Betts led Aztec scorers with 32 points and U.S. National Team members Wynalda and Balboa finished with 24 and 23 points, respectively. SDSU finished the decade with the 15th-best winning percentage (.722) among Division I programs. The Aztecs ended the season 14-5-3.

1990

The Aztecs began the season basking in the accomplishments of three former players, Balboa, Wynalda and Chris Sullivan. All represented the United States on the national team in Italy for World Cup 1990. The Aztecs had more players compete for the national team than any university in the United States. On Montezuma Mesa, Patrick Merrell and company recorded an 11-6-3 record, barely missing the NCAA playoffs. The defense was anchored by Dain DeForest, but speedsters Jason French, Bill Demke and Chris Stephens combined with Brian Craft-Negrete and Merrell for 31 goals and 28 assists. Goalkeeper Curtis McAlister recorded an 0.92 GAA.

1991

Posting a 10-4-4 record, Craft-Negrete led the team with nine goals and eight assists. Captain Merrell directed the attack from the midfield, scoring two goals and adding six assists. Goalkeepers Dan Dalzochio, Chris Volk and Shannon Storey amassed 59 saves.

1992

Due to an injury-plagued season, SDSU's final tally of 10-8-1 was impressive. From the midfield, senior Andy Morrone scored seven goals and seven assists. The season saw 15 players score at least one goal. The year also marked the Aztecs' entry into league play with the creation of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation. The MPSF will prove to be one of the strongest soccer conferences in the nation.

1993

As predicted, the MPSF's strength was evidenced by four teams qualifying for the NCAA tournament. The Aztecs struggled, posting their first losing season in 25 years, going 7-9-1. Injuries again played a major role with nine of the starting 11 sidelined for part of the season. Senior Bill Demke led the Aztec attack, scoring 11 goals and two assists on the season.

1994

The strongest freshman recruiting class in recent history arrived on Montezuma Mesa. The roller-coaster season ended up 10-9-9, but six freshmen broke into the starting lineup. Senior Willie Franklin's career ended with four goals and three assists. The freshmen gained valuable Division I experience against top-20 teams. Sophomore Aaron Susi led the team with 22 points and began maturing into a top forward. The team recorded 241 shots on goal.

1995

As a junior, Susi led the Aztecs with 10 goals and 10 assists for a total of 30 points. The Aztecs posted a less-than-stellar record of 6-10-4, for only their second losing season in 27 years. Eleven different players scored for a total of 38 goals. Senior Pablo Nunnally recorded two assists from the defense. The freshman class contributed seven players who put the ball in the net. The year also marked the end of defender Jeff Baxter's outstanding career. The MPSF again proved to be a powerhouse in the ratings.

1996

Darren and Derek Drago and Mark Rogondino joined the team for their final year of eligibility. Those three, plus transfers Juan Velasco and John Browne, added maturity to the squad. Aztec soccer followed other SDSU sports into the Western Athletic Conference, as did fellow MPSF schools, Air Force, Fresno State, New Mexico, San José State, SMU, TCU, Tulsa and UNLV. The WAC certainly rivaled the MPSF in strength. Six freshmen again found playing time and the Aztecs finished 7-10-3.

1997

Coach Clegg was pleased to announce the addition of his first salaried men's assistant coach, Lev Kirshner. A northern California native, Kirshner played collegiately for Rutgers University.

Sophomore goalkeeper Matt Hall came into his own, posting a 1.25 GAA, recording 80 saves and four shutouts. The overall record of 7-8-3 did not reflect the intensity of play as four of the losses were by one goal and the team took three opponents to overtime. Again freshmen made an impact with six consistently in the starting lineup. Senior Raja Hawn led the team in scoring, but 13 different Aztecs scored. SDSU remained somewhat young with only three seniors graduating.

1998

A rebuilding Aztec squad held its own throughout a competitive season, finishing with a record of 8-11-1. Junior David Beltran and Darren Parker shared goal-scoring honors with five apiece, while freshman Mike Bradbury added five goals and four assists in his inaugural campaign at SDSU. Goalie Hall was stellar in the nets, fashioning a 1.42 goals-against average. The Aztecs posted impressive WAC wins over UNLV and TCU at home and finished the season with a 4-3 overtime loss to 16th-ranked Southern Methodist, a team that went on to the NCAA quarterfinals.

1999

With the creation of the Mountain West Conference, SDSU returned to the MPSF. The young Aztec team showed signs of improvement but finished the season with a 4-15-0 record. Three of the team's wins came in the form of shutouts, including an impressive 6-0 season-opening victory over Concordia. Freshman keeper Brian Barnes was the team's primary starter seeing action in 16-of-19 matches, earning 64 saves. Junior midfielder/forward Milton Economy led the team with four goals and two assists (10 points), including two game-winners.

2000

Assistant coach Lev Kirshner took over the head coaching reins and with it, the job of returning the program to the success it once knew. Junior midfielder Enrique Tovar led the team in goals (4), assists (6) and points (14). The story of the campaign was sophomore goalkeeper Barnes, who finished the year with a MPSF Pacific Division-leading 90 saves. Combined with 64 saves from his rookie season, his total of 154 saves placed him third on SDSU's career top-10 list. The team finished the year with a 6-12-1 record, and was 2-4-1 in the MPSF-Pacific Division after an injury-plagued campaign in which seven players underwent surgery.

2001

San Diego State completed one of the program's most successful seasons in recent years with a 7-9-4 overall mark and a 3-2-2 MPSF record. The Aztecs entered the final weekend of regular season play in contention for their first MPSF title. Sophomore Kevin Sapanli's earned all-conference and all-tournament honors. He also was a third-team selection on the Verizon Academic All-America team. Seniors Enrique Tovar and Tim Edwards joined Sapanli on the all-conference squad.

2002

After entering the season with great optimism, a rash of injuries to several key returnees turned the year sour. SDSU posted a 4-13-2 overall record, but the young Aztecs did show signs of optimism. The highlight of the year was a 3-2 overtime victory over No. 7 Loyola Marymount. Barnes earned second-team all-MPSF honors after another solid year at goalkeeper, and Ryan Cook was awarded all-MPSF honorable mention plaudits.

The 2003 Aztec squad went against the pundits and posted their first winning season since the 1994 campaign. The year also marked the Aztecs return to the MPSF championships for the second time under fourth-year coach Kirshner. The season started out with a bang as the Aztecs pulled out a 2-1 overtime victory over Oregon State. SDSU would go 6-1-1 through the month of September before injuries and a lack of depth caught up with the Aztecs, who finished a remarkable 9-8-3, including a 3-1 win over Sacramento State in the MPSF championships. The showing marked the second appearance in post-season play since 1989 for SDSU.

2004

Coming off a winning season, the Aztecs were excited about the prospects of 2004. Unfortunately, injuries sidelined two starters before the season began and by mid-year, the team was without six starters. Despite finishing with a record of 4-13-2, SDSU ended the campaign on a high note, defeating Sacramento State and UNLV and tying No. 2 New Mexico at home. Throughout the year, the team suffered some close losses, but none closer than its season-opening 1-0 loss to eventual national runner-up UC Santa Barbara. Individually, Heath Creager and Colin Jennings were honored by the MPSF. Creager, a junior forward, was named to the second team, while Jennings, a sophomore midfielder, earned honorable mention accolades.

2005

With its first healthy team in some time and a nationally ranked recruiting class, SDSU finished the season with a 9-4-6 record and its first trip to the NCAA tournament since 1989, where it would fall to UC Santa Barbara, 2-0. In their first season of play in the Pac-10, the Aztecs finished with a respectable record of 2-3-5, with two losses coming in overtime. SDSU began the season with a 1-0 road win over perennial power Rutgers and followed it up with a 0-0 tie to then No. 5 St. John's. The Aztecs never looked back from there, going unbeaten (6-0-1) over their next seven games. SDSU was led by goalkeeper Tally Hall, who led the nation with an 88.9 shot-on-goal save percentage and was second in the country with a 0.49 goals against average, both school records. Hall's performance between the posts didn't go unrecognized as he became the first Aztec All-American since 1989 (Marcelo Balboa). Hall was joined on the all-Pac-10 team by Matt Couch and Kraig Chiles.

second consecutive season, a feat they had not accomplished since 1988 and 1989. SDSU finished the season with a 9-6-4 record, including a 5-2-3 mark in its second year of Pac-10 play, good enough for sole possession of second place. Tally Hall had a brilliant season between the posts once again, going 9-5-4 with a 1.04 goals against average. He went on to become a M.A.C. Hermann Award semifinalist, an All-American for the second straight season and an all-conference performer. Nick Cardenas made an immediate impact, scoring six times en route to being named the Pac-10 Freshman of the Year. Raul Bautista, Andrew DiCiccio, Kraig Chiles, Danny Ortiz and Dennis Sanchez were also honored by the league.

2007

SDSU culminated an up and down season with its second consecutive runner-up finish in the Pac-10. The Aztecs posted an eight-game unbeaten streak midway through the season, which included three straight wins against nationally ranked Pac-10 foes UCLA (1-0), California (3-2) and Stanford (2-0). SDSU finished the season 3-1-2 against ranked teams. However, two key non-conference losses early and another one late ultimately cost the Aztecs their third consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament. Still, the squad posted a 8-7-4 record for its third straight winning season. Kraig Chiles earned second-team Top Drawer Soccer honors as well as first-team all-Pac-10 accolades after leading the squad with 20 points on eight goals and four assists. Nick Cardenas was selected to the NSCAA/adidas all-Far West third team and was joined on the all-Pac-10 second team by Evan Toft. Brad Byrns, Khadim Diouf and Jamel Wallace each were named to the all-Pac-10 honorable mention.

2008

The Aztecs battled a tough schedule (nine games against NCAA tournament teams), injuries (41 games missed to predicted starters), too many close losses (three in overtime, seven by one goal) and too many untimely red cards (SDSU played 86:28 of shorthanded soccer, 12:02 two-men short) en route to a 6-9-3 record, their first losing season in their Pac-10 history. Despite the bad luck, San Diego State went 3-4-3 in the Pac-10 for its third consecutive top-tier finish. Nick Cardenas was named to his third straight NSCAA/adidas all-Far West squad and was joined on the all-Pac-10 second-team by Evan Toft and Jamel Wallace. Co-captain Dennis Sanchez led a group of four Aztecs who earned honorable mention honors, joined by Matt McManus, Khadim Diouf and Raymundo Reza.

Despite going 3-0-2 against top-15 teams, 2-0-2 versus the top 10, 2-1-3 on the road, and ranking 20th of 204 teams (the highest rating not to get in the tourney) in the final edition of the RPI (released Dec. 14), SDSU was left out of the NCAA tournament. The Aztecs finished the season with a 6-6-6 record, including a 3-4-3 mark in the Pac-10. Raymundo Reza continued to leave his mark on the program, leading the team in scoring with 16 points on six goals and four assists. Evan Toft added 10 points (four goals, two assists) in just nine games. Nick Cardenas (four goals, one assist) became the first player in the San Diego State's storied history to be named to four straight all-region teams and just the second to garner the accolade all four seasons (Kyle Whittemore - 1984, 1986-88). Cardenas was joined on the all-Pac-10 squad by Raymundo Reza, Khadim Diouf, Steve Beitashour, Daniel Ortega, Evan Toft, Jamel Wallace, Justin Davies, Daniel Steres and freshman Jose Altamirano. Beitashour, Cardenas and Wallace were all drafted by MLS clubs.

San Diego State started the campaign with an 0-1-1 record, but quickly caught fire as it went on to post a 6-1-1 record in its first eight games, which equaled the eighth-best start in school history. After the slow two-game start, SDSU went 6-0-1 over its next seven, which also matched the eighth-longest unbeaten streak in program history. The Aztecs eventually rose among the national powers and were ranked as high as No. 22 in the NSCAA/HendrickCars.com Top-25 Poll, which was their highest ranking since 2006. San Diego State ultimately finished with a 10-7-2 record (3-6-1 Pac-10), which included a victory over No. 14 Washington, and an RPI of 49 out of 204 squads. At season's end, SDSU had seven all-league honorees (First Team: Raymundo Reza; Second Team: Jose Altamirano, Khadim Diouf, Daniel Steres; Honorable Mention: Miles Byass, Brad Byrns, Justin Davies) and one NSCAA all-Far West Region selection (Reza). Reza later went on to be the No. 20 pick in the MLS Supplemental Draft (Portland).

2011

SDSU put back-to-back 10-win seasons together for the first time since 1991-92 after it posted an overall record of 10-6-3 (4-5-1 Pac-12). After 12 matches, the Aztecs found themselves with an 8-2-2 record, which matched their best 12-game start in 20 seasons and tied the 10th-best start in program history. At one point in the campaign, SDSU was 7-0-1, which including a win over No. 21 Penn, to equal the sixth-best unbeaten mark in school history. With the success, the Aztecs rose as high as No. 18 in the Soccer America poll, No. 20 in the NSCAA/Continental Tire and College Soccer News polls, and No. 21 in the Soccer Times poll. Six Aztecs landed on the all-conference team (First Team: Daniel Steres; Second Team: Pedro Adan, Jose Altamirano, Miles Byass, Abraham Villon; Honorable Mention: Blake Hysten) with Steres earning NSCAA all-Far West accolades. Later, Steres was taken by Chivas USA at No. 28 in the MLS Supplemental Draft, while teammate Justin Davies was selected 76th by the Los Angeles Galaxy.

The Aztecs finished with a 7-9-3 overall record, playing a scheduled that featured five games against ranked opponents, and three of which against top 10 teams. SDSU earned a home victory over Pac-12 foe California, as well as a tie against top-10 ranked Indiana. In addition, the Aztecs had a 2-0 record in the UCR/Courtyard Marriott Soccer

Invitational, which was part of a season-best three game winning streak that saw SDSU outscore its opponents 15-3. Four Aztecs received all-Pac-12 Conference honors, including a first-team selection for midfielder Blake Wise, second-team honors for midfielders Jose Altamirano and Kevin Bick, as well as honorable mention recognition for forward Jordan Ongaro. Following the season, goalkeeper Blake Hysten and defender Evyn Hewett were each named to the Portland Timbers U-23 team, while midfielder Travis Nicklaw was selected to the Guam national team. Seven Aztecs were named to the Pac-12 Conference All-Academic Team, including second-team selections Kody Duff, Anthony Gooch and Morgan Sacco, along with honorable mention honorees Robbie Freise, Casey Meuser, Tyler Smith and Wise. Duff was also one of 11 players named to the NSCAA University Division Scholar All-West Region Team.

The Aztecs fared well against some of the top competition in the nation in 2013, playing eight matches against ranked opponents, six against top-five teams, including a 5-0 season-opening victory over No. 16/21/12 San Diego on Aug. 30. San Diego State also played a stunning 11 matches against teams who made the NCAA tournament, earning two ties against Stanford along with several close defeats. In the process, seniors Jordan Ongaro, Abraham Villon, Blake Wise and Kevin Bick each earned all-Pac-12 honors, as Ongaro was a first-team selection, Villon was second team, and both Wise and Bick were honorable mentions. In addition, Villon was named to the NSCAA all-Far West Region third team, while Ongaro became the first player in head coach Lev Kirshner's 14-year tenure to score at least 10 goals, and was later selected in the fourth round of the 2014 MLS SuperDraft by the Montreal Impact. Seniors Kody Duff, Morgan Sacco and junior Anthony Gooch were each named to the Pac-12 all-Academic second team, while Duff was named to the 2013 Capital One Academic All-District 8 Men's Soccer Team for the second-consecutive year.

2014

SDSU suffered a disappointing season after a promising start to the 2014 campaign. The Aztecs jumped out to a 5-1 start, which included five straight wins with two coming against top-25 clubs in No. 25 Clemson and No. 19 Denver. Ultimately, San Diego State was well-positioned heading into conference play with a 6-3 record. Things did not work out as they had hoped, however, as the Aztecs opened Pac-12 play with three straight losses before a victory over No. 17 Oregon State stopped the bleeding. SDSU went on to drop its final six games to finish the league campaign with a 1-9 record (7-12 overall). For their effort, Evyn Hewett and David Olsen were named honorable mention all-Pac-12 performers. Hewett was a senior defender and team captain, who anchored the backline, while Olsen led the squad with seven goals and 15 points.

2015

The Aztecs produced another promising start to its campaign and the team's early success translated into their best season since 2011. For just the fourth time in the program's 48-year history (1982, 1994, 2005), San Diego State allowed three-or-fewer goals in its first six matches of the season, and boasted an 11-match win streak against non-conference opponents dating back to 2014. The Scarlet and Black finished 8-8-3, wrapping up the campaign with a thrilling 1-0 double overtime win at home on its Senior Celebration Day over No. 16 UCLA. Kyle Adams, a College Soccer News All-Freshman third-team honoree, and Matt Callahan earned NSCAA All-Far West Region third team honors, while three Aztecs garnered All-Pac-12 recognition, with forward Rene Reyes collecting second team honors, and goalkeeper Adam Allmaras and defender Travis Nicklaw picking up honorable mention accolades. Additionally, Allmaras, junior midfielder Casey Macias and senior defenders Casey Phillips and Mark Revell were named Pac-12 all-academic.

San Diego State celebrated one of its most successful campaigns in program history, posting a 9-4-6 record to earn its first NCAA Tournament berth since 2006. SDSU set the tone for its historic season early on, becoming the school's first known athletic team to defeat a No. 1-ranked opponent in any sport after knocking off Akron 1-0 in the home opener. The Aztecs-Zips clash drew 2,041 fans, marking the second-largest crowd to watch a men's soccer match at the Sports Deck. SDSU also recorded its first-ever sweep of Washington and defeated California twice in the regular season for the first time since 2009. With their success, the Aztecs earned a season-high ranking of No. 7 by Soccer America and No. 11 by the NSCAA. Overall, Overall, SDSU logged a 5-2-2 record against teams with a .500 record or better, including a 3-2-2 mark vs. opponents ranked in either the NSCAA or Soccer America Top 25 polls. On the pitch, the Aztecs continued to flash their defensive prowess, allowing just 12 goals during the regular season to become the just the third squad in school history to give up 12 or fewer goals in the first 18 games of the year, joining the 1988 (7) and 2005 (9) teams. The Scarlet and Black also ceded the fewest number of goals (1) in the first six matches of the year in program history. SDSU ranked among the national team leaders in save percentage (3rd, .857), shootout percentage (4th, 0.58) and goals against average (10th, 0.63) Individually, goalkeeper Adam Allmaras ranked fourth in the country in save pct. and logged 11 shutouts, good for second on the team's single-season charts, while forward Travis Nicklaw delivered four game-winning goals. SDSU collected a bevy of postseason awards, placing a school-record five student-athletes on the NSCAA All-Far West Region team in Pablo Pelaez (first-team), Kyle Adams (second team), Travis Nicklaw (second team), Adam Allmaras (third team) and Matt Callahan (third team). Seven Aztecs also garnered all-Pac-12 accolades, including Nicklaw and Pelaez, who were second-team selections, while Allmaras, Callahan, Casey Macias, Jeroen Meefout and Michael Sauers received honorable mention. In addition, SDSU led the conference with five Pac-12 Player of the Week honorees during the season. Pelaez capped a tremendous rookie campaign by earning a No. 15 ranking on the Top Drawer Soccer Freshman Top 100 Postseason List and received TDS Freshman Best XI and College Soccer News All-Freshman recognition. Not to be outdone, the Aztecs were once again strong in the classroom, with a school-record 11 players earning Pac-12 all-academic recognition, including first-team honoree Dallin Cutler. In addition, Allmaras landed a spot on the NSCAA Academic All-Far West Region team.

SDSU stumbled to a 6-13-0 record and went 1-9-0 in Pac-12 play. After jumping out to a 2-1-0 start, the Aztecs dropped three straight home matches. They would win their final three non-conference, but lose their first nine conference matches, before a convincing 4-0 victory over UCLA in the season finale. Kyle Adams had another stellar season and was named to the All-Region team for the third straight season. Additionally, Jeroen Meefout (eight goals and five assists) and Winston Sorhaitz received All-Pac-12 recognition. Senior goalkeeper Adam Allmaras racked up 68 saves and finished his Aztec career second in career saves (260) and career shutouts (25.0). Allmaras also was named the SDSU Male Student-Athlete of the Year for his efforts in the classroom.

2018

SDSU went 7-10-1 and 2-8-0 in Pac-12 play. After beginning the season 0-2-1, the Aztecs won four straight games, including winning the Courtyard Marriott Aztec Soccer Classic. Pablo Pelaez was named the tournament's most outstanding offensive player and four other Aztecs made the all-tournament team. SDSU struggled in Pac-12 play, but finished the regular season with a 1-0 victory at UCLA, their first win at UCLA since 1987. Damian German, who came to SDSU from Grand Canyon for his senior year, scored four game-winning goals and was named to the all-Pac-12 first team and to the All-Region Third Team. Captain Pablo Pelaez was an all-Pac-12 second team selection.

2019

The Aztecs stumbled to a 4-12-2 overall record and went 1-9-0 in the Pac-12. SDSU lost seven matches by just one goal and went just 1-8-1 at home. Three players scored at least 10 points, led by senior captain Pablo Pelaez's 12. Pelaez would earn Pac-12 second-team honors and Adam Vargas and freshman Hunter George were honorable mention selections. Following the season, it was announced that head coach Lev Kirshner would not return.

1987 NATIONAL RUNNERS-UP

It was a Cinderella run, to say the least.

After losing two of its final four games, the 1987 Aztec men's soccer team dropped to 16-5 and cautiously waited for a berth into the NCAA tournament. Their wish was granted when they earned the last seed of the 24 teams, their first NCAA bid since 1982.

However, the road would be rough and would include no home games and possible trips across the country and back. No sweat.

SDSU went on to win its next four matches, all come-from-behind victories, to reach the NCAA title game. The Aztecs began their impossible run on Nov. 15 by knocking off 10-time national champion St. Louis, 2-1. On Nov. 21, San Diego State upset No. 5 Southern Methodist after scoring a goal in the waning moments to tie the game and eventually winning on penalty kicks. Next up was No. 9 UCLA on Nov. 29, a team SDSU had lost to, 3-1, just 25 days earlier and was just 1-13-4 all-time against. The Aztecs came out of Westwood with a 2-1 result, sealing the program's first trip to the NCAA final four.

On Dec. 5, San Diego State would continue its cinderella story by eliminating Harvard in penalty kicks to join the 1973 men's volleyball team as the only Aztec teams to ever make an NCAA final. SDSU had its run come to an end the following day in a 2-0 loss to host Clemson, ironically the tournament's No. 23 seed.

Pete Goossens, 1969

Goossens became the first All-American in school history and the first ever from Southern California. Goossens, a defender, helped the Aztecs to the Southern California Intercollegiate Soccer Association championship. An all-Southern California and all-Southern Section performer, he backed a defense that allowed just 14 goals (12 from the opposition) in 11 games. The Aztecs defeated UCLA, Cal State Fullerton and Cal State Los Angeles en route to a 9-1-1 record and the program's first trip to the NCAA tournament. SDSU played three overtime NCAA playoff games, defeating the Bruins and Titans before battling San Francisco to a 2-2 tie in four overtimes.

Alan Kelly, 1976-77

Kelly earned second-team All-America honors in 1976, after leading SDSU to its ninth straight winning season and a 10-5-1 record. A midfielder, Kelly tied for the team lead with seven goals. The Aztecs posted impressive wins over San Francisco State and U.S. International on the way to the championship of the USIU Invitational. In 1977, Kelly became the first two-time All-American in school history when he garnered first-team accolades. Playing in his final season, Kelly recorded nine goals, tied for second most on the team, as SDSU went 13-4-1. The Aztecs once again won the USIU Invitational, as they beat the hosts, 4-2, and Long Beach State, 5-0, in the championship game.

Kevin Crow, 1981-82

Crow helped the 1981 Aztecs (16-3-1) return to the NCAA tournament for the first time in 10 seasons and finish with a school record 16 victories. The second SDSU defender to be named an All-American, Crow anchored a defense that allowed just 18 goals, or 0.90 goals per game, over the entire season. Crow joined Alan Kelly as the Aztecs' second two-time All-American after he was named to the third team the following season. The 1982 team established a new record with 20 wins, a mark which is still tied with the 1987 national runner-up squad for the most victories in the program's history. SDSU (20-3-0), which won its first 11 games and made its second straight trip to the NCAA tournament before falling to San Francisco, 2-0, in the second round.

Kyle Whittemore, 1987

One season after setting a SDSU record that still stands with 50 points on 20 goals and 10 assists, Whittemore struck for 17 goals and contributed five helpers, despite being double-teamed for most of the year. His 39 points led the squad and for his efforts was named to the All-America second team. He helped the Aztecs, the lowest seeded team in the NCAA tournament, all the way to the NCAA championship game before falling to Clemson, 2-0. SDSU would defeat St. Louis (2-1), SMU (2-1, ot/pk) and UCLA (2-1) on the road before taking down undefeated Harvard, 2-1, in penalty kicks, in the semifinals.

Marcelo Balboa, 1988-89

Balboa became the first Aztec first-team All-American since 1977 (Alan Kelly) after leading SDSU to its second straight NCAA tournament in 1988. Balboa, a future National Soccer Hall of Fame member, backed a defense that allowed only 10 goals in 22 games, as SDSU finished 15-3-4. He also scored four goals and added six assists for 14 points. Later on in the year, he was named a U.S. U-20 World Cup team captain. The following season, Balboa was a second-team selection to become the third Aztec two-time honoree. A captain from his sweeper position, Balboa tallied 23 points on eight goals and seven assists in leading SDSU to its third consecutive trip to the NCAA tournament, the only time in school history that has happened. The 1989 Aztecs finished 14-5-3.

Tally Hall, 2005-06

Hall led the nation in 2005 with a 88.9 shot-on-goal percentage and was second with a 0.49 goals against average, both school single-season records. He helped the Aztecs to their first trip to the NCAA tournament since 1989, recording a school-record 12 shutouts, as the SDSU defense gave up 11 goals in 19 games en route to a 9-4-6 mark. In 2006, Hall became SDSU's fourth two-time All-American after helping the squad to the NCAA tournament for the second straight season. Despite falling to eventual national champion UC Santa Barbara, 2-1, in the NCAA first round, Hall went 9-5-4 with a 1.04 goals against average and six shutouts. He would end his four-year career second on the all-time list with 256 saves.
