LEFTOVERS FROM THE 2019-20 SEASON

- Sam Houston was at an all-time best in 2019-20 before the COVID pandemic put an end to the season. The Kats turned in a 19-10 record, including going 14-6 in Southland Conference play. The 19 wins were a Division I record for the program and had the Kats 1 victory away from their first 20-win season since going 27-5 in 1981-82. The 14 conference wins were also a program record, surpassing the 13 SLC wins by the 2012-13 squad.
- The Kats were in Katy for Southland Conference Tournament for the second consecutive season under Justice. Prior to her arrival, SHSU had not been to the league tournament since advancing to the title game as a No. 8 seed in 2016.
- Since SHSU became a Division I program for the 1987-88 season, the Kats had never won more than 18 games in a season prior to 2019-20, which they had done 5 times. Those seasons include: 1987-88, 1995-96, 2011-12 and 2012-13.
- The Kats were courtside when the 2019-20 season came to a close due to the COVID-19 pandemic. They were slotted as the No. 4 seed in the Southland Conference Tournament and were in house at the Leonard E. Merrell Center, in the stands to watch the game between New Orleans and Southeastern Louisiana when the tournament was immediately canceled.
- The Kats' win over Louisiana early in the year not only gave Sam Houston its first 2-0 start to a season since 2011-12, it was the 600th win in the history of the program. Sam Houston women's basketball is entering its 52nd season of competition, including its 34th at the Division I level as a member of the Southland Conference. Of their now 619 wins, 355 have come at the Division I level.
- Sam Houston averaged 75.7 points per game in 2019-20, ranking second in the Southland Conference and putting up the third most per-game in a single season in program history.
- The Bearkats saw an immediate impact from Ravon Justice's style of play upon her arrival in 2018-19, averaging 74.5 points per game that season, a massive increase from the 56.2 points per game in 2017-18. The 2 seasons under Justice mark the first time the Kats have averaged 70+ points per game in consecutive seasons.

QUICK HITTERS

- Sam Houston went for 104 points in its season opener, the first time passing the century mark in a season opener since going for 100 points vs Prairie View to open the 1993-94 season. It was also the 10th time in program history the Kats have surpassed 100 points, with 5 of those coming since Ravon Justice took over the program prior to the 2018-19 season.

- With the Kats playing games vs Midwestern State and Central Baptist, it marks the first time in program history the Kats have opened a season playing back-to-back home games in consecutive seasons.

- Sam Houston is 22-7 at Bernar G. Johnson Coliseum in the last 2 seasons under Ravon Justice.

- The November 25 start date is the latest Sam Houston has kicked off a women's basketball season since the 2003-04 season. That year they started the year with a 63-55 loss at North Texas on November 25, 2003.

- The Kats return 48.4 percent of its scoring from a year ago among their 6 returners. Of the 1,062 total points returning, 986 (92.8 percent) come from Amber Leggett, Faith Cook and Courtney Cleveland.

Leggett Named SLC Player Of The Week

Amber Leggett lived up to her preseason all-SLC billing in the opening week of the season and was honored as the Southland Conference Player of the Week on Monday. The junior averaged 26.0 ppg, 9.5 rpg and 4.0 apg in the wins over Midwestern State and Central Baptist, anchored by career highs of 34 points and 12 rebounds in the opener vs MSU. It marks the second consecutive season the Kats have taken SLC POTW honors in the season's opening week as Jenniffer Oramas did so a year ago.

2-0 Once Again

With wins over Central Baptist and Midwestern State last week, the Kats moved to 2-0 for the second straight season. It's the first time since the 1981-82 and 1980-81 seasons Sam Houston has been 2-0 in consecutive seasons.

Searching For 3-0

Despite moving to 2-0 with Saturday's win, the Kats will be in search of long-lost territory when it hosts New Mexico on Sunday. Sam Houston will be looking to move to 3-0 on the season for the first time since 1988-89 when they picked up wins over Prairie View, Lamar and Nicholls to start the year.

Her Kind Of Folks

It has not taken Ravon Justice long to transform the Bearkat roster, and now entering the 2020-21 season, the Kats have just one player left - Alyssa Osborne - from the previous regime.

Turning Up The Pressure

Defensive pressure has become a staple of Ravon Justice's Bearkats in her 2 years at the helm, and last year the team's defensive mantle continued to take form. The Kats were one of the top teams in the nation in turning over its opponents, ranking fourth in the country with 22.6 turnovers forced per game. Four times last season they forced at least 30 turnovers.

Kats Land Two On Preseason All-Southland Conference Teams

When the Southland Conference unveiled its preseason all-conference teams, it was no surprise that the Kats were well represented with both Amber Leggett and Faith Cook finding their ways onto the first team. Leggett enters her junior year coming off a breakout sophomore campaign, ranking second in the league in scoring (15.6 ppg) and earning a spot on the 2020 All-Southland Conference first team and the All-Defensive team. Meanwhile, Cook became the second consecutive Bearkat to claim the SLC Newcomer of the Year award, following Jaylonn Walker winning it in 2019. The UTEP transfer averaged 10.7 ppg and ranked sixth in the SLC in 3-point percentage, hitting 38.4 percent of her shots.

Been There, Did That

When looking at the Bearkat roster, the majority have not made a straight line from high school to Huntsville. In fact, of the 15 players on the roster, 10 have transferred in from another institution. This year's roster will feature 3 Division I transfers, including graduate transfer Shameka Tubbs (Arkansas State) who is immediately eligible, and Damaya Telemaque (South Alabama) who will have to sit out the season due to transfer regulations. Additionally, 7 players come to Sam Houston directly from a junior college.

Leggett Nearing 1,000 Points

Despite just 2 years in a Bearkat uniform, Amber Leggett is closing in on a career milestone, with plenty of time remaining in her career. She has already totaled 863 points in 2+ seasons and needs just 137 more to become the 18th player in Bearkat history to reach 1,000 points for her career. She is also climbing the ranks in steals with 129 for her career, needing 42 more to pass Khamra Echols and move into the SHSU all-time top 10 in that category as well.

Kats Getting Early Production From Bigs

With the loss of seniors Kiera McKinney and La'Sha Haynes, replacing them was going to be a tall task for the Kats in 2020-21, but in the season's first two games, things are off to a good start. Junior Madelyn Batista delivered a career high with 19 points and 8 rebounds in the season opener against Midwestern State, and Kaylee Jefferson and Courtney Cleveland followed that up by each going for double-doubles against Central Baptist. Jefferson set career bests with both 18 points and 12 rebounds vs the Mustangs, while Cleveland had 15 points and tied her career high with 14 rebounds.
