Missouri State is making its first appearance as the Trees Bowl opponent.

BISON ROUT NORTHERN IOWA: North Dakota State won the annual homecoming game 46-14 last week, handing Northern Iowa its worst regular-season loss since 2005. The Bison scored four unanswered touchdowns in the second half, the first coming on a 30-yard pass to tight end Noah Gindorff two plays after cornerback Josh Hayes ended UNI's second half opening drive with a forced fumble that NDSU's Marquise Bridges recovered. Hayes finished with six tackles and three pass breakups and linebacker James Kaczor made seven stops for the Bison. Adam Cofield had his first 100-yard game rushing 15 times for 104 yards and two touchdowns. Quarterback Trey Lance was 10 of 18 passing for 145 yards and three TDs.

LOPSIDED WINS IN VALLEY PLAY: North Dakota State has won its last four Missouri Valley Football Conference games by at least 32 points dating back to last year when the Bison closed out the regular season with victories over unranked Missouri State (48-7) and Southern Illinois (65-17). This year, the Bison have started league play beating No. 6 Illinois State (37-3) and No. 10 Northern Iowa (46-14). NDSU has never won back-to-back MVFC games by more than 30 points outside of this four-game stretch. Here are the five most lopsided conference wins by the Bison, who have won 16 games by at least 30 points since joining the MVFC in 2008:

Largest Margin of NDSU Victory in MVFC Games

- 55—NDSU 55, Missouri State 0 in 2015
- 54—NDSU 54, South Dakota 0 in 2012
- 52—NDSU 52, Indiana State 0 in 2017
- 52—NDSU 59, Western Illinois 7 in 2015
- 48—NDSU 65, Southern Illinois 17 in 2018

LEAGUE LEADERS: It's still too early for title talk just two games into the conference schedule, but eight-time reigning champion North Dakota State is in a familiar position atop the league standings. NDSU has played only eight conference games since the beginning of 2011 without holding at least a share of first place in the Missouri Valley Football Conference. The Bison fell out of first place for three weeks in 2012, three weeks in 2015 and two weeks in 2016.

BISON ON 27-GAME WINNING STREAK: North Dakota State's current 27-game winning streak is the second longest in FCS history behind the record 33-game Bison winning streak from 2012-14. Five Division I programs have multiple streaks of at least 27 wins including Yale and Penn with two each in the 1880s and 1890s, Oklahoma's three in the 1950s and 1970s, and Miami (Fla.) with two from 1990-93 and 2000-03. Oklahoma owns the FBS record with 47 consecutive wins from 1953-57.

NDSU Head Coach Matt Entz

■ 2018 Football Scoop FCS
Coordinator of the Year

Matt Entz was named head football coach at North Dakota State for the 2019 season after five seasons as NDSU's defensive coordinator. He is the 31st head coach in program history.

This is the first head coaching job for Entz, a 21-year veteran assistant with 15 years of experience as a defensive coordinator and eight as an associate head coach in two programs. At NDSU, he's been part of five Missouri Valley Football Conference championships and four NCAA national championships with the Bison.

Entz, who was named the 2018 FCS Coordinator of the Year in his third time as a finalist for the award, has led a Bison defense that allowed less than 14 points per game over his five seasons as the defensive coordinator and consistently ranked in the top five of FCS in scoring defense and total defense.

NDSU had eight FCS All-America honorees on defense the past five seasons, including linebackers MJ Stumpf, Nick DeLuca and Jabril Cox. Two of Entz's former linebackers, DeLuca and Chris Board, went on to play in the NFL.

The Missouri Valley Football Conference is familiar territory for Entz. He came to NDSU in January 2014 under head coach Chris Klieman after one season as the associate head coach, co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Western Illinois in 2013, and spent three previous years at Northern Iowa.

He was named defensive line coach in 2010 at Northern Iowa and assumed the defensive coordinator duties at UNI in 2012 after Klieman departed for NDSU.

Entz was the defensive coordinator from 2002 to 2009 at Winona State, where he was promoted to associate head coach in 2003 and was with the defensive line for three years before becoming linebackers coach in 2005. He was named the AFCA Division II Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008.

Prior to that, Entz was the assistant head football coach and linebackers coach at Wayne (Neb.) State from 1999 to 2001 and the defensive coordinator at Illinois College in 1998. He holds certification from the National Strength and Conditioning Association and served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach during his time at Wayne State.
