Bison Claim 2000 NCAA DII Championship

North Dakota State University shortstop Nikki Flynn-Gregg has plenty of individual NCAA records, but now she has a national championship trophy to go with it.

"This is definitely the cake," said a wide-smiling Flynn-Gregg after NDSU defeated Kennesaw State 3-1 to win the 2000 NCAA Division II Softball Championship on Sunday before a crowd of 247 at South Commons Stadium.

"The rest I look at as frosting on the cake."

Flynn-Gregg will be handing out plenty of cake as the Bison softball program claimed their first national title in three NCAA tournament appearances.

"The big key for us was to go out and have fun, and play relaxed. These kids know how to play softball," said NDSU head coach Mitch Hanson, who took over a program that went 4-32 in 1995.

"This is a very special moment. We've been adding together the pieces over the past six years. You have to give credit to the kids, you have to give credit to Darren Mueller, who works with our hitters, and Mike (McLeod), who works with our pitchers. This is real family deal."

North Dakota State, which went 5-0 over the four-day tourney, closed the deal like it started -- aggressive and opportunistic. This time the opportunity presented itself on defense when freshman centerfielder Jess Christensen chased down Christine Hochdorfer's blast to left center before hitting the portable fence for the third out in the first inning. Hochdorfer hit a tape-measure shot in Friday's loss to NDSU.

"I was determined to get to the ball. I knew it was going to be a close game. I had to do whatever it took to get to the ball," said Christensen, who led the Bison with two singles.

The catch deflated the Owls (56-8), who won back to back NCAA titles in 1995-96.

"It was a game of inches. The girl (Christensen) made a great play to keep (Christine) Hochdorfer's home run in the ballpark," said KSU head coach Scott Whitlock.

"I want to congratulate North Dakota State. They have a class program. We lost to a deserving champion. I am proud of my club. We have too much to be proud

2000 NCAA Division II National Champions

The Bison used the emotional lift from Christensen's catch in the bottom of the frame, taking advantage of two Kennesaw State errors and Michelle Wiest's two-run double to left center.

It was the fifth straight game NDSU struck first with Flynn-Gregg in the middle of it. She reached base and scored in the opening frame for the fourth time in five games at the tourney.

The Owls cut the deficit to 3-1 in the second using a Nikki Scholer double and fielder's choice to push across the run. The scoring was surprisingly done after that, unlike the night before when the teams combined for 15 runs and 27 hits.

"I would have lost every dime I had if I had thought all the scoring would have been done in the first two inning," said Whitlock.

Julie Fromm shut down Kennesaw State after that, allowing just a two-out single to Nikole Blue in the fifth. Fromm retired the last seven batters in a row. She recorded four of her six strikeouts during that span -- including the final two.

Fromm tossed a two-hitter and allowed just two walks to improve to 45-6. She recorded four wins at the NCAA tournament.

KSU's Lacey Gardner (33-6) overcame the rough start. After giving up two hits in the first, Gardner just surrendered three two-out singles to Flynn-Gregg in the second, Fromm in the fourth and Christensen in the seventh.

Fromm, Wiest, Flynn-Gregg and Gerice Olson were named to the all-tourney team.

Tharaldson Park, the home softball stadium for North Dakota State University, was named the NCAA Division I winner of the 2020 Netting Professionals NFCA Field of the Year award by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association in November of 2020.

The North Dakota State University softball team's on-campus stadium is Tharaldson Park, which was renamed in September 2018 following a two-year $2 million renovation.

The project was completed in 2018 with the installation of FieldTurf across the entire playing surface, bullpens and batting cages along with a fully padded outfield wall measuring 200 feet down the lines and 218 feet to center field.

Bleacher seating for 183 spectators was added down the right field line, bringing the total seating capacity to 735.

The first phase of renovations in 2017 included a new grandstand with 552 chairback seats, backstop netting from dugout to dugout, a 10-person press box with two broadcasting booths and a camera platform, and a new 10-inning Daktronics scoreboard with integrated sound system.

Parking for the softball facility is available in the NQ campus parking lot located on 17th Avenue North between the softball diamond and NDSU Research Park.

The facility is named after Gary and Connie Tharaldson. Mr. Tharaldson, a native of Dazey, N.D., is the founder of Tharaldson Companies, now known as Tharaldson Hospitality Management LLC, which builds and operates hotels across the United States. He is an avid sports fan and has been a long-time supporter of softball in the region.

Designed by ICON Architectural Group of Grand Forks and West Fargo, N.D., the project was constructed by Key Contracting Inc. of West Fargo with electrical, structural and civil planning by KLJ Engineering of Fargo. Electrical work was completed by Grotberg Electric Inc. of West Fargo.

The Bison averaged 287 fans over seven home dates and 14 games during the 2019 season. The NDSU-North Dakota doubleheader drew 453 spectators.

North Dakota State did move indoors to the Fargodome for a doubleheader vs. Minnesota-Duluth in 1999. The Bison also moved games inside during the 2002, 2008 and 2013 seasons. NDSU is 16-2 inside the Fargodome.

North Dakota State led NCAA Division II in women's softball average home attendance figures compiled for the 2003 season. The Bison were second in 2002 and fourth in 2001.
