Playoff History

North Dakota State has a long history of appearances in the national playoffs as a member of the NCAA and the AIAW. The Bison played in the AIAW playoffs from 1973 to 1981 before joining the NCAA Division II ranks. North Dakota State made the Division II playoffs in 20 seasons from 1982 through 2003, missing the regional tournament only in 1985 and 1994. With its reclassification to NCAA Division I, North Dakota State was ineligible for the Division I tournament in 2004 and 2005 but has been The Summit League's automatic qualifier three times. In 2022, NDSU earned an invite to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC) for the first time in program history.

Bentson Bunker Fieldhouse

The BBF hosted NCAA regional playoffs in 1984, 1986, 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1995, 1998, 1999 and 2001.

The Bentson Bunker Fieldhouse has provided a unique and exciting venue for the North Dakota State volleyball team and several NCAA and conference tournaments since 1978.

Formerly known as the Physical Education Building, it was renamed the Bentson Bunker Fieldhouse on June 7, 1995, in recognition of gifts received from Fargo businessman Art Bunker and his wife, Norene.

At the request of the Bunkers, the name includes that of Art's former NDSU basketball coach and life-long friend, Chuck Bentson.

Coach Bentson retired in 1981 after 32 years of service. He was the longest serving coach in NDSU history and second on the all-time wins list. He died Jan. 20, 1994.

Bison volleyball teams have compiled a 395-100 record in matches played at the Bentson Bunker Fieldhouse since 1978 for an .798 winning percentage.

North Dakota State put together a 42-match home-court winning streak from 1987-92, tied for eighth longest in NCAA Division II history.

Crowds of 1,000 or more have jammed into this facility 61 times with a record 2,259 enthusiasts packing the BBF on Nov. 5, 1986, when the Bison squared off with crosstown rival Minnesota State Moorhead—one of the top regular-season attendance figures in NCAA Division II history.

NDSU has drawn over 1,000 fans on back-to-back nights eight times.

North Dakota State has also played select home matches at the Bison Sports

Arena. The BSA was the site of the 1988 NCAA Division II national tournament, and it hosted a crowd of 1,547 when the Bison faced the defending national champion Washington Huskies in the 2005 Doublewood Inn Classic tournament.

The arena has received several upgrades recently, including a new digital scoreboard, message center and statistical displays in 2006, and a new sound system in 2012.

Previously covered-up windows were replaced for additional light and the floor was refinished to emphasize the volleyball markings in 2008, and wooden bleacher seats were replaced with the current chairbacks in 2009, reducing the permanent seating capacity from 2,100 to 1,206.

Bison in the National Polls

North Dakota State was a regular in the Division II volleyball polls issued by the NCAA and the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA). North Dakota State was No. 1 in the NCAA poll for several weeks during the 1988 season. The highest ranking achieved by the Bison in an NCAA final poll was No. 2, which came during the 1988 season. Since the AVCA began sponsoring the coaches' poll in 1986, NDSU had a string of 92 straight weeks in the Top 10 that was snapped in 1993. North Dakota State held down the No. 1 position in the AVCA Coaches Poll for six weeks, the last time coming Sept. 10-17, 1990. The NCAA voted to use one poll—the AVCA Top 25—in 1992.
