THE SERIES: This is the first meeting between North Dakota State and Tennessee State. NDSU and TSU are scheduled to play again in Week 2 next season (Sept. 6) at Nissan Stadium in Nashville. The Bison are 2-0 against Ohio Valley Conference teams with wins over Austin Peay (41-6 in the 2008 season opener) and Jacksonville State (37-10 in the 2015 national championship). This is Tennessee State's first game against a Missouri Valley Football Conference team.

TREES BOWL: This is the 35th annual Trees Bowl game sponsored by the North Dakota Forest Service. NDSU has a 30-3 record in the Trees Bowl including last year's 44-7 win over Maine. The Bison have won 15 straight since a 27-22 loss to Western Illinois in 2008. The first Trees Bowl game was played in 1990 against South Dakota State. There was one cancellation in 2001 against Maine.

HOME OPENERS: This is the 127th home opener in 128 seasons of Bison football. (NDSU does not list any home games in the 1899 season.) BOUNCING BACK: North Dakota State is 19-0 after regular-season losses since 2010. NDSU has not lost back-to-back regular season games since a five-game losing streak in the middle of the 2009 season. Last week's loss at Colorado, coupled with last year's national semifinal loss at Montana, marked the first consecutive losses for the Bison since 2009.

LAST WEEK: North Dakota State came up four yards short of an FBS victory against Colorado last Thursday night, falling 31-26. Cam Miller went 18-for-22 passing for a career-high 277 yards, including a 49-yard completion to Tyler Terhark short of the goal line on the game's final play. Miller also led the Bison with 16 rushes for 81 yards and was named Missouri Valley Football Conference Offensive Player of the Week. It was NDSU's largest football TV audience and ESPN's best Thursday opener since 2017 with more than 4.8 million viewers tuned in and a peak of 5.6 million viewers.

AWARD CANDIDATES: North Dakota State has six players on preseason watch lists for national player of the year honors. NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS: North Dakota State is 81-6 against non-conference opponents since the beginning of its first FCS national championship season in 2011. Two losses were to FBS opponents (31-28 at Arizona in 2021 and 31-26 at Colorado in 2024) and two were in the playoffs to the eventual national champion (27-17 to James Madison in 2016 and 24-20 at Sam Houston State in 2020-21). BOHL TO BE INDUCTED: NDSU's all-time winningest head football coach, Craig Bohl, will be inducted in the 2024 class of the Bison Athletic Hall of Fame on Friday, Sept. 20. Bohl was a two-time Eddie Robinson Award winner as FCS Coach of the Year and compiled a 104-32 record over 11 seasons from 2003-2013. He guided the Bison through their final season of Division II in 2003 and quickly transitioned the Bison to Division I prominence beating seven FBS opponents and reaching the FCS playoffs four times with three straight national titles in his final three seasons. He retired from coaching following the 2023 season after 10 years at Wyoming and is currently the executive director of the American Football Coaches Association. THE COACHING STAFF

Tim Polasek was named head football coach at North Dakota State University on Dec. 17, 2023. He is the 32nd head coach in program history.

Polasek was part of the NDSU staff under head coach Craig Bohl from 2006 to 2012 coaching the running backs, tight ends and fullbacks in addition to his duties with special teams and recruiting. He returned to North Dakota State in 2014 and spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach under Chris Klieman.

In between his two stops at North Dakota State, Polasek was the tight ends and fullbacks coach for a 12-2 Northern Illinois team that advanced to the 2013 Mid-American Conference championship game and Poinsettia Bowl.

Polasek has eight years of experience at the FBS level. He spent four seasons in the Big Ten as offensive line coach at Iowa from 2017 to 2020, and was in the Mountain West as offensive coordinator and guarterbacks coach under Bohl at Wyoming from 2021 to 2023.

He was an assistant coach at Wisconsin-Stevens Point for three seasons before coming to North Dakota State. Polasek coached the defensive backs (2005), wide receivers/tight ends (2003-04) and quarterbacks (spring 2003), and was the special teams coordinator in 2004-05 and passing game coordinator in 2003-04.

The all-time leading passer at Concordia University in Wisconsin, he set single-game, single-season and career records in TD passes, passing yards, completions and completion percentage. Polasek was the 2000 Badger-Illini Conference Player of the Year. He was a two-time first team all-conference selection in 2000-01 and second team

Polasek graduated from Concordia in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and earned his master's degree from Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2005. He is married to Jill Polasek.
