The Game

Presbyterian College returns home to host Bluefield College in the 2014 home opener for the Blue Hose. Both teams will look for their first win as PC dropped a Thursday night matchup at Northern Illinois, 55-3, while Bluefield fell at home to Pikeville 62-40 on Thursday. Saturday's game marks a notable night in PC football history as the campus will host its first PC night game since Oct. 27, 1990, when the Blue Hose faced the Wingate Bulldogs in Old Bailey Stadium. PC will aim to bounce back from Thursday's game, in which the visitors broke up the Huskies' shutout bid with a field goal late in the third quarter. Saturday's game marks Bluefield's first visit to Laurens County and the Rams boast several connections with Presbyterian College. New PC assistant athletic trainer Tara Shelley spent three seasons at Bluefield before coming to PC and former Blue Hose assistant women's basketball coach Corey Mullins recently took the top women's job with the Rams.

Last Time Out

PC dropped its season opener at Northern Illinois on Thursday night, falling to the Huskies, 55-3. The Blue Hose broke up the Huskies' shutout bid with a quality drive late in the third quarter. Quarterback Kaleb Griffin found Daryl Wilson for a 27-yard completion as part of a nine-play series that set up a 31-yard Brandon Morrow field goal. Cory White and Donelle Williams led PC with 12 total tackles apiece.

Scouting the Rams

Bluefield set a program record for points on Thursday, falling to Pikeville in a 62-40 loss. Ashten Dixon led the Rams through the air with 10 completions on 17 attempts and two touchdowns. Marion Harris paced the team on the ground with 79 rushing yards. The Rams did not win a game in 2012 or 2013.

Mr. 2,000

Senior wideout Jeremiah McKie compiled a team-high 125 all-purpose yards on Thursday to eclipse 2,000 for his career. His 2,082 yards puts him third in PC Division I history behind Michael Ruff (2008-12) with 3,600 and Lance Byrd's (2009-12) 3,006.

Up and Good

Freshman kicker Brandon Morrow kicked a 31-yard field goal in his first career try. The successful kick marked PC's first since November 2, 2013 against Charleston Southern.

Clean Laundry

PC committed only two penalties against Northern Illinois in the season opener for 12 yards. The last time officials tagged PC for only two infractions came against Coastal Carolina on November 16, 2013.

Season Openers

Presbyterian College is 31-66-5 overall in season openers and 1-7 since its move to NCAA Division I in 2007. The Blue Hose will look to bounce back from a season-opening loss to Wake Forest in 2013, a game PC led 7-0 early on.

GAME-BY-GAME BREAKDOWN (D-I)

On the Road Again

Since moving to Division I in 2007, the road has not been kind to the Blue Hose. In six seasons, PC is 4-39 away from Bailey Memorial Stadium. Some of the opponents PC has faced on the road include California, Georgia Tech, Vanderbilt, Wake Forest, Clemson, Old Dominion and Southern Conference powers Appalachian State, Furman and Wofford. PC earned a 21-13 win at Davidson in 2012, PC's first win on the road since a 41-34 victory over Coastal Carolina in 2007.

Seldom Shut Out

PC has not been shutout in 82 of its last 83 games thanks in part to Brandon Morrow's 31-yard field goal late in the third quarter against Northern Illinois in the season opener. The team's record of 61 contests of non-shutout football was broken in the 58-0 loss at Vanderbilt in 2012. The previous time came in a 28-0 loss at Elon Sept. 16, 2006.

Size Does Matter

Presbyterian College is unique on at least two important fronts: It has the distinction of having the smallest overall student body population of all NCAA Division I programs and student-athletes make up approximately one-third of the overall student body, giving PC the highest percentage of student-athletes of the overall student population of any Division I school.

PC in the Big South

PC was picked to finish sixth in the Big South Conference this season in the League's annual poll voted on by the league coaches and media members.

The Blue Hose are 38-43 against current Big South opponents. PC holds the advantage over Charleston Southern, 13-8, but trails Gardner-Webb 17-18. PC will look to cut into series gaps against Coastal Carolina (1-6) and Liberty (4-7).

New Faces

Three new coaches join the PC staff in Mitch Hall (Western Carolina '03), Eric Miller (LaGrange '08) and Clay Hodges (Kennesaw State '14). Hall rejoins the staff after four years at Newberry College following two years at PC in 2005 and 2006. Hall will coach the running backs and tight ends.

Hodges and Miller will serve as defensive assistants, working with Spangler on the secondary and ends, respectively. Miller spent three seasons at Tucker (Ga.) High School as a safeties coach while Hodges arrives after interning at Kennesaw State.

Know Thy Enemy

Of PC's 11 opponents in 2014, head coach Harold Nichols will face six for the first time in his career: Bluefield, Monmouth, NC State, Northern Illinois, Ole Miss and Western Carolina. Out of that group, PC has played only Western Carolina before in its history, trailing 8-9 in a series that began 1950 and last saw the two sides play on 2008.

Monmouth joins the Big South Conference as an associate member this season. A full member of the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, Monmouth's football program will compete in the six-team Big South for four years after officially joining on July 1.

It's an Honor

The Blue Hose collected three preseason All-Big South Conference awards at Media Day in longsnapper Cannon Jordan, punt returner Jeremiah McKie and wide receiver Tobi Antigha.

Antigha ranked third in the Big South Conference last season in receptions and receiving yards per game, averaging 4.9 catches for 69.5 yards per outing. The senior captured League Second Team honors in 2013 and scored a team-leading eight touchdowns, ranking ninth in the Big South. Antigha started 11 games and enjoyed big games against VMI (Seven rec., 136 yards, two TDs) and Coastal Carolina (Five rec., 117 yards, two TDs).

Antigha ranked third in the Big South Conference last season in receptions and receiving yards per game, averaging 4.9 catches for 69.5 yards per outing. The senior captured League Second Team honors in 2013 and scored a team-leading eight touchdowns, ranking ninth in the Big South. Antigha started 11 games and enjoyed big games against VMI (Seven rec., 136 yards, two TDs) and Coastal Carolina (Five rec., 117 yards, two TDs). The wideout also earned a spot on the 2014 CFPA Wide Receiver Watch List for the upcoming campaign.

McKie caught 12 punt returns for a total of 150 yards, 12.5 yards per return, in 2013. The rising senior returned a punt against Brevard 50 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter, just one of two in the conference to do so. His 63 total punt yards set a PC Division I record as well against Brevard. McKie led the league in punt return yards with his 150 and ranked fifth in punt returns overall.

Longsnapper Jordan played in all 11 games and proved crucial to helping punter Stephen Doar rank third in the Big South in punting average (58 punts, zero blocks). The redshirt senior also picked up three total tackles and forced a fumble against Liberty.

Year 101

Presbyterian College will look to improve on its 100th year of football in 2013, a season that saw the Blue Hose vanquish VMI, Point and Brevard and better its win total from 2012.

The team returns 55 letterwinners and 15 starters overall, including six each on offense and defense and three on special teams. The offense will boast a wealth of experience, with five of the six starters (WR Tobi Antigha, WR Jeremiah McKie, OL Hunter Grey, OL Devinn Ritter and RB Demarcus Rouse) returning for their senior years.

The defense, much improved in defensive coordinator Tommy Spangler's first season back at PC, will bring back three linebackers (Justin Antolik, Breyon Williams and Donnelle Williams) with three defensive backs (Ed Britt, Kevin Crawford and Cory White). The Blue Hose defense ranked fourth in total defense in the Big South last year and the return of Williams will likely boost the linebacking corps. The redshirt junior earned Second Team All-Big South honors and ranked third in the League in tackles (103) in 2012 but played only three games in 2013 after suffering an injury against Furman on September 14.

Under Spangler's first season back heading the defense, PC shaved almost a touchdown and 75 yards off of opponents' totals from the previous year.

Three special teams starters return in punter Stephen Doar (third in the Big South and an All-Academic team selection, as well as a preseason CFPA Watch List member), longsnapper Cannon Jordan (All-Big South preseason Second Team) and kicker Brett Wilson.

Light the Way

One of Presbyterian College football's biggest acquisitions for 2014 came during the summer with the addition of stadium lights at Bailey Memorial Stadium. The addition of lights will enable the PC football program to host its first night game since Oct. 27, 1990, when the Blue Hose faced the Wingate University Bulldogs in Old Bailey Stadium. PC will play two night games in 2014, hosting Bluefield College on Saturday, September 6 at 7 p.m. The Blue Hose will host Furman the next week at 7 p.m.

Defensive Notes

Against Northern Illinois

The season opener proved a big night for several players on the PC defense. Cory White and Donelle Williams led PC with 12 tackles, setting a new career high for White ... Defensive stalwart and senior linebacker Isaiah Lynn also set a new career-best with 11 total tackles ... Darius Norfleet picked up his second career sack and added a career-high nine tackles ... Sophomore defensive lineman Khari Rosier picked up the first sack of his career.

Williams made five assisted tackles on Thursday, moving him 104 for his career and overtaking Chris Bowman (2007-09) for top assistant tackles in PC Division I history. Justin Bethel leads unassisted tackles with 199 ... Williams also became the Big South Conference active leader in tackles per game with his performance on Thursday.

Redshirt freshman defensive tackle Obinna Ntiasagwe made his collegiate debut and picked up his first career tackle ... True freshman Steve Osondu picked up four tackles in his first college game (including a tackle for loss) and redshirt freshman linebacker Grant Beidel also made his collegiate debut, registering five tackles that included a half-tackle for a loss.

Special Teams Notes

Against Northern Illinois

Senior wideout Jeremiah McKie racked up seven kick returns, tying a PC Division I single-game high. McKie picked up 113 yards for 125 total all-purpose yards, pushing him over 2,000 for his career.

Redshirt junior punter Stephen Doar punted nine times on Thursday, setting a new career-best with 387 yards for an average of 43 yards per punt. Frequently kicking from deep in his own end, Doar forced the Huskies to start all but one of their drives from their half of the field and produced a 49-yard kick. His 387 marked the fourth-most in a PC Division I game.

Freshman kicker Brandon Morrow kicked a 31-yard field goal in his first career try. The successful kick marked PC's first since November 2, 2013 against Charleston Southern.

Sophomore kicker Brett Wilson handled kickoffs and joined the Blue Hose men's soccer team for this season, making his debut two days after playing at Northern Illinois with a 37-minute, one shot effort against Pittsburgh on August 30.

Junior wideout Devron Glenn fielded the second kick return of his career.

Harold Nichols

Head Coach - Sixth Year

Nichols, a 1989 alumnus of PC, came back to the Blue Hose family in 2009 from Bucknell, where he was the offensive coordinator and assistant coach since January 2008.

The 2013 season saw Nichols coach the Blue Hose to a trio of victories and tough displays against Furman, Wake Forest and Gardner-Webb. The Blue Hose also grabbed five Big South postseason accolades including three on special teams, a special area of focus for Nichols. Jeremiah McKie took home First Team honors for his punt return prowess and Tobi Antigha ranked third in the league in receptions and receiving yards per game. Several PC players ranked highly in the Big South statistics, taking spots in the top 10 in tackles, fumbles forced, sacks, tackles for loss and fumbles recovered while leading the league in the punt and kick return departments.

In 2012, Nichols guided the Blue Hose to three All-Conference selections in Michael Ruff, Donelle Williams and L.J. Perry. Several players finished in the top 10 in many Big South statistical categories, including Lance Byrd who was seventh in rushing, and Anderico Bailey who finished sixth in receptions.

Under Nichols PC finished the 2011 season with its most overall wins since 2008. Its three Big South wins were the most since joining the Conference. The Blue Hose closed out the season with back-to-back wins, its first two-game win streak since 2008.

The Blue Hose went 4-1 at home in 2011 for their most wins at Bailey Memorial Stadium since a 4-2 mark in 2008.

Justin Bethel, who became the Big South all-time leader in blocked kicks, as well as solo tackles, was the first person drafted by the NFL under Nichols' watch. He went to the Arizona Cardinals in the sixth round.

In 2010 Nichols led his team to its first Big South win with the 26-24 victory over Gardner Webb and posted an overall record of 2-9. Four players earned honors with Jared Trandon Dendy, Derek Brown, Justin Bethel and Patrick Morgan picking up Big South All-Conference selections. Jared Tavernier was named to the ESPN the Magazine/CoSIDA Academic All-District team. Several were selected Players-of-the-Week this past season, including Brian Davis, Patrick Morgano, Cam Miller, Jimmy Pruitt and Ryan Singer.

In his first season, Nichols guided PC through its most difficult Division I schedule. Three of his student-athletes earned all-conference honors. Defensive standout Justin Bethel, in addition to wide receiver Patrick McKoy and long snapper Matt Quinn earned second-team accolades.

Under Nichols' watch, newcomers Lance Byrd and Patrick Morgano accounted for four Big South Conference Freshman of the Week honors. One such award for Byrd came on the heels of his school-record 274 rushing yards in his first career start.

In 2008, the Bison racked up 24.6 points per contest in Nichols' lone season with the squad. He helped guide the offense to a season-high 48 points in the season-opening victory over Duquesne, 48-42. In addition to his offensive coordinator duties, Nichols also coached the quarterbacks and running backs. Nichols coached all-conference selection Shawn Pasternak, who totaled a school-record 72 catches for 1,083 yards and 12 touchdowns. His quarterbacks combined to pass for 158-258 (61 percent) and 2,063 yards for 20 touchdowns against just seven interceptions.

Under Nichols, the offense amassed its highest points per game average since 2004, tallying 269 points for the season. The team was just three points shy of eighth place on the program's all-time list. Nichols' spread option attack resulted in Bucknell throwing for more than 2,000 yards for the first time since 2001. In the vaunted running attack, six different student-athletes registered at least 100 yards on the ground, totalling more than 1,600 rushing yards for the season.

Prior to joining Bucknell, Nichols was the associate head coach and offensive coordinator at Rhode Island beginning in April 2000. He also coached the quarterbacks and running backs. Nichols led the Rams to a three-win turnaround during his first year with the program.

After graduating from Presbyterian College in 1989 with a degree in political science and a minor in physical education, Nichols began his coaching career on the Blue Hose sideline in 1990. As an assistant coach, he worked with the quarterbacks and running backs while serving dual roles as he was also the director of campus life for the team members.

In July 1992, Nichols started his coaching tenure with Georgia Southern as the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. There, he worked with a variety of student-athletes including wide receivers, running backs, defensive ends, kickers and specialists. His responsibilities included assignment of coaches, being in charge of all visits (official and unofficial), evaluations and all NCAA compliance matters. He helped guide the team to the 1993 Southern Conference title and two Division I-AA playoff berths (1993, 1995).

In each of those years, the team won its first-round game before falling to the eventual national champion (Youngstown State and Montana) and finished 10-3. In five years, Nichols helped the Eagles to a 33-15 mark.

Nichols returned to PC in December of 1996 in the same role he had at Georgia Southern. In his return to PC, Nichols coached the wide receivers, kickers and specialists. He helped head coach Daryl Dickey take the Blue Hose from 5-6 in 1997 to 8-3 and 7-4 the next two seasons before taking the job at Rhode Island.

A standout recruiter, Nichols has recruited in Florida, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Mississippi, Arkansas, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Connecticut, North Carolina and South Carolina.

He and his wife, Dee, have an older daughter, Cassie, and twins, Corey and Cameron.
