EAGLE NOTES

- The Presbyterian Blue Hose make just their second-ever visit to Jayne Stadium this week. The young series is tied at two wins for each program. PC traveled to MSU in 2022, with the Eagles winning 14-10.
- Presbyterian's staff has two ties to the Morehead State football program. Former assistant coach Will Kirkendoll (at MSU in 2020 and 2021) is now the safeties coach and special teams coordinator at PC. Former Eagle defensive back Khiyree Keith (2020-22) is the cornerbacks coach and video coordinator. He had seven interceptions in his Eagle career, including one in 2022 versus Presbyterian.
- Morehead State has won its first three home games in head coach Jason Woodman's first season. The last MSU coach to lead the team to wins in his first three home games was Tom Lichtenberg in 1979. No MSU football coach has ever won their first four games at home leading the Eagle program.
- The Eagles will look for their first Homecoming game win since 2021.
- MSU has lost only one fumble this year (at Eastern Kentucky). That ranks tied for second in the nation among all FCS teams.
- Morehead State's defense has been ball hawks this year. With eight interceptions to their credit the Eagles rank sixth in the nation in pickoffs. MSU has at least one interception in four of the six games this fall.
- Ryan Upp has piled up 1,070 career receiving yards, which ranks in the top 15 all-time for program history. He has all but 11 of those yards in the last two seasons and all 12 of his TDs in the last two seasons.
- Defensive end Noah Benza, who earned his first PFL Defensive Player of the Week honor last week after his 4.5 tackle-for-loss and 3.5 sack effort in the win over Valparaiso, added another QB sack at Butler and now leads the PFL in sacks this season.
- Benza's 3.5 sacks in the Valparaiso game is the second highest single-game total in an FCS contest this fall.
- Carter Cravens needs just 17 passing yards to reach 3,000 for his career.
- Nate Garnett ranks third in the Pioneer League in yards per catch. His big-play ability has him at 22.9 yards per catch. This game will feature two of the top three receivers in the league in that realm (ironically both named Nate) as Presbyterian's Nathan Levicki ranks No. 2 with 23.5.
- With four interceptions this season, safety Matthew McClelland ranks FIRST in the nation in interceptions per game (0.7).
- Matthew McClelland also ranks second in the PFL in total tackles with 46, trailing only Presbyterian's Alex Herriot by one tackle.
- The Eagle defense boasts two of the top five tacklers in the PFL with McClelland and linebacker Dillon Schobourgh, who has 40 stops this season.
- Running back Isaac Stopke garnered his first career starting assignment last week at Butler and responded with a team-best 67 yards on the ground. On 12 carries, Stopke did not lose a yard all game.
- MSU ranks third in the PFL in punt returns at 18.2 per return.
- Offensive lineman Jaxsen Spears is slated for his 28th consecutive start this week.

A LITTLE ABOUT HEAD COACH JASON WOODMAN

Jason Woodman, who has a pedigree of success at every institution he has been at, has been named head football coach at Morehead State. Woodman is the 15th head coach in program history. He began his tenure for the spring 2024 and fall 2024 seasons.

Woodman, a native of Fairmont, W.Va., served as head coach at Fairmont State in his hometown since 2013. He guided the Fighting Falcons to 60 wins and five winning seasons, including three consecutive 8-plus win seasons for the first time in program history.

Woodman's coaching connections also include positions at LSU and Florida State, where he worked for high-profile mentors Nick Saban and Les Miles as well as Jimbo Fisher and the late Bobby Bowden.

During his tenure at Fairmont, Woodman led his program to a 10-1 record in 2016, setting the school mark for wins. The team was also 8-3 in 2017 and 2023 and 9-2 in 2018.

He has helped produce 12 All-Americans and 112 All-Mountain East Conference players. During his leadership, Fairmont boasted the 2016 MEC Defensive Player of the Year and 2016 MEC Offensive Freshman of the Year as well as the 2021 conference Offensive and Defensive Freshmen of the Year performers.

As offensive coordinator and quarterbacks' mentor, Woodman helped Takwan Crews-Naylor lead all of Division II in passing efficiency in 2019. He guided Cooper Hibbs to rank second in Fairmont history in career passing yards, touchdown passes and completions and rank first in single-season passing yards, completions and completion percentage. Wide receiver Fabian Guerra set the career receptions mark, while Laurence King set the single-season record for receptions.

Defensively, the Falcons led the MEC in total defense for two seasons while ranking first in the league in turnover margin four consecutive seasons from 2015-18. The Falcons consistently ranked in the top 20 in DII in several categories, including interceptions, total defense, rushing defense, turnovers gained, scoring defense and defensive touchdowns.

Following his first foray into coaching at North Marion High School in West Virginia from 1999-03 (his high school alma mater), Woodman served a variety of roles at Louisiana State. He was a graduate assistant in 2005 and 2006. In 2005, he helped offensive line coach Stacy Searels and assisted the Tigers in winning the Peach Bowl and going 11-2 with a No. 5 finish in the Associated Press poll. In 2006, Woodman assisted with the quarterbacks and passing game, working with No. 1 overall NFL draft pick Jamarcus Russell. LSU finished No. 3 and won the Sugar Bowl.

Woodman moved on to Florida State, serving as a graduate assistant with the quarterbacks, in 2007. He worked directly with Jimbo Fisher. The Seminoles finished with seven wins and played Kentucky in the Music City Bowl.

Woodman's first full-time collegiate coaching position came in 2008 when he led the running backs at California (Pa.). He helped California win the PSAC title and finish as a national semifinalist. Woodman coached a 1,000-yard rusher that season.

Woodman earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and health education from Fairmont State. He and his wife Kari have four children – daughter Kinleigh and sons Taner, Knox and Brodi.
