WE ARE ST. BONAVENTURE

The appropriate reference for our institution is St. Bonaventure University - the term "St. Bonnies" is an unacceptable University reference.

OPENING TIP

• The Bonnies are looking to rebound following a forgettable night at Dayton Tuesday, falling to the Flyers, 90-43. Tianna Johnson and Nikki Oppenheimer tallied eight points each while Taylor Napper added seven tallies for the Bonnies who were without senior Asianae Johnson who missed the game due to illness.

• Johnson's absence snapped a streak of 92 consecutive starts. The last time the Bonnies played a game without Asianae Johnson was Feb. 27, 2018, a span of 1,407 days. It was the longest start streak by a Bonnies player since Mariah Ruff started 111 consecutive games.

• Saturday will be the first of two meetings this season between the Bonnies and the Dukes. The two teams are scheduled to play again at the Reilly Center Feb. 20. It is scheduled to be the Bonnies' fourth road game in the last five contests.

BONNIES BITS

• Tuesday's loss at Dayton was St. Bonaventure's largest margin of defeat since the Bonnies fell to UConn, 88-39, Nov. 24, 2013 in the Basketball Hall of Fame Women's Challenge.

• The Bonnies continue to excel at swatting away shots this season, ranking second in the Atlantic 10 in both blocks (54) and blocks per game (4.5). Junior forward I'yanna Lops is one of the best in the conference at rejecting shots, sitting third in the A-10 in swats (23) and blocks per contest (1.9).

• Through 12 games this season, the Bonnies rank third in the A-10 in field goal percentage defense (36.6%), fourth in points allowed (57.8) and fifth in fewest turnovers (180).

ST. BONAVENTURE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Throughout the 2021-22 season we will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the first season of St. Bonaventure Bonnies women's basketball. We also celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Title IX.

CONFERENCE

HILARY WALTMAN - INAUGURAL CLASS OF 2013

Hilary Waltman began her Bona's career during the 1995-96 season by earning a spot on the Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team, followed by a second-team All-Conference nod as a sophomore. Throughout her career she tallied 20 plus points in 58 games and she holds school records for field goal percentage, free throws attempted, free throws made, steals, and field goals made. In her final two seasons at St. Bonaventure Waltman was named to first-team All-Conference by the A-10 (1997-98, 1998-99). She is the program's all-time leading scorer with 2,106 points and she is fifth all-time in rebounding (669) at Bona.

DANA MITCHELL - CLASS OF 2014

Dana Mitchell is the only St. Bonaventure women's basketball player to have her jersey retired. A three-time Atlantic 10 All-Conference selection, she ranks in the top five in 12 different statistical categories in the St. Bonaventure record books. Mitchell scored 2,011 points over her career, which ranks second alltime in St. Bonaventure history. She led the Bonnies in scoring each of her four seasons, and her 121 games scoring in double figures is the school record. She is the only Bonnies player to reach at least 2,000 points and 700 rebounds.

MEGAN VAN TATENHOVE - CLASS OF 2015

Megan Van Tatenhove blossomed as a high school senior, earning Wisconsin State Player of the Year honors, and was the centerpiece of coach Jim Crowley's freshman class of 2008-09. The 6-1 forward didn't take long to adjust to college, helping the Bonnies to the WNIT in her first season. Van Tatenhove then established herself as one of the top players in the A-10, earning All-Conference honors three years in a row. Her senior season of 2011-12, Van Tatenhove helped lead the Bonnies to a perfect 14-0 regular season record in the A-10 and a #4 seed in the NCAA Tournament. There, the Bonnies advanced to the Sweet 16 and ended 31-4, a school record for wins. Van Tatenhove completed her career with 1,453 points and 624 rebounds; she ranks sixth on St. Bonaventure's all-time scoring list. Far more impressive than her individual achievements is the fact that St. Bonaventure won at least 21 games and reached the postseason every season of Van Tatenhove's career.

SUE SHAY DANIELEWICZ - CLASS OF 2016

A two-year co-captain, Shay Danielewicz led the Bonnies in scoring twice and in rebounding all four years. A member of the Atlantic 10 All-Rookie team in 1988-89 after setting the program's single-season scoring record with 590 points (21.1 ppg), she was named All-Atlantic 10 following her sophomore, junior and senior seasons. Shay Danielewicz graduated with 13 school records including career points (1,874), career rebounds (952) and career free throws. Her total of 1,874 points still stands third in the Bonnies' all-time record book. She also set the program record for points in a game, scoring 40 vs. Saint Joseph's in 1989 – a mark that still stands. Her 952 rebounds remain nearly 100 more than any other player in program history. The heart and soul of her Bonnies teams and a force in the paint, she averaged 16.6 points and 8.4 rebounds during her career in Brown and White. Shay Danielewicz was inducted into the St. Bonaventure Hall of Fame in 2002.

SUZIE DAILER - CLASS OF 2017

Best known as a scorer with long-range accuracy, Dailer graduated holding all of the program's school records for 3-point field goals. She led the nation as a sophomore with 99 3-pointers and led the Atlantic 10 in scoring with 19.4 points per game while also pacing the conference in assists with 6.0 assists per game. She finished her career with 1,422 points and 291 3-pointers and remains ninth in program history in scoring. She was honored as an All-Atlantic 10 team selection in 1993, 1994 and 1995. As a senior, she won the State Farm National Women's 3-Point Shootout. Dailer was inducted into St. Bonaventure's Athletics Hall of Fame in 2006.

SERIES HISTORY

- Saturday's matchup will be the 64th meeting between St. Bonaventure and Duquesne, dating back to 1981. It matches the longest running series in Bonnies program history along with UMass. The Dukes hold a 42-21 advantage over the Bonnies all-time but Bona's got the best of Duquesne in the last meeting, defeating the Dukes, 72-55, at the Reilly Center Feb. 22, 2021.

- Prior to the last meeting, Duquesne won the previous eight matchups between the two schools.

- Saturday will be the Bonnies first time at the new UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse, having played the prior two road games against Duquesne at La Roche College. The UPMC Cooper Fieldhouse opened Feb. 2, 2021 following a 22-month construction process.

DUQUESNE NOTES

- Duquesne enters Saturday's contest with an overall record of 5-9 and is 0-2 to begin conference play. The Dukes opened A-10 play with an 82-76 loss to Richmond and then fell to VCU, 74-70, in overtime Wednesday. Duquesne has wins over Lafayette, Akron, Siena, Canisius and Saint Francis (PA) this season.

- The Dukes are coached by Dan Burt who is in his ninth season as head coach of the Duquesne women's basketball program. He has a career record of 163-98 in his eight-plus years in Pittsburgh. The 2021-22 season is Burt's 15th season on staff at Duquesne, having served as an assistant coach from 2007-13. Burt's squad was picked to finish ninth in the Atlantic 10 preseason poll.

- Fatou Pouye paces the Dukes offense, averaging 13.6 points per game and shoots 49.3 percent from the floor. Tess Myers also averages double figures for Duquesne, chipping in 11.9 points per contest. Megan McConnell leads the team in rebounding (6.1 rpg) and assists (4.3 apg).

Bonnies vs. Duquesne - THE LAST MEETING

February 21, 2021 - St. Bonaventure 72, Duquesne 55
(Reilly Center)

Asianae Johnson poured in a game-high 18 points and Olivia Brown added a season-high 17 points to lead the St. Bonaventure University women's basketball team to a 72-55 win over Duquesne Monday evening at the Reilly Center.

Johnson finished the night 8-of-12 from the floor and also dished out a career-high nine assists on the night while Brown was 6-for-8 from the floor and 5-for-7 from three-point range. Tori Harris and Emily Calabrese each scored 11 points to help pace the Bona offense.

Last Game Recap - FLYERS 90, BONNIES 43

It was a forgettable night on the road for the St. Bonaventure University women's basketball team, falling to Atlantic 10 preseason favorite Dayton, 90-43, Tuesday at UD Arena.

Tianna Johnson and Nikki Oppenheimer finished with eight points apiece while Taylor Napper added seven tallies for the Bonnies who were playing without leading scorer Asianae Johnson due to illness.

SIMMONS JOINS BONNIES COACHING STAFF

Ka-Deidre Simmons, originally from Newark, N.J., joins the Bonnies' staff after spending the last two seasons as the Coordinator of Basketball Operations at Seton Hall University. During her time in South Orange, Simmons helped in the development of Big East Most Improved Player and All-Big East First Team selection Lauren Park-Lane as well as Desiree Elmore, who also earned First Team honors.

Prior to coaching, Simmons was a standout player for the Pirates from 2010-15 and was inducted into the Seton Hall Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019. Simmons is the all-time leader in assists (562) and free throws made (502), second in steals (257) and is third in points (1,717). Simmons was also a two-time All-Big East First Team selection and helped lead Seton Hall to the WNIT Sweet 16 in 2014 and a NCAA Tournament bid in 2015.

Simmons played for the WNBA's Connecticut Sun during training camp and preseason under head coach Anne Donovan. She would then move on to play two seasons professionally overseas in Finland and Romania.

After returning to the States, Simmons was an assistant coach for the New Jersey Sparks AAU team where she focused on player and team development.

Simmons earned her Bachelors Degree from Seton Hall in Broadcast and Visual Media in June 2014 and received a Masters in strategic communications in May 2020.

JOHNSON EARNS ATLANTIC 10 PRESEASON HONORS

Asiana Johnson was selected to the Atlantic 10 Preseason All-Conference Third Team Oct. 27.

This marks the second preseason All-Conference nod for the Brooklyn native, who also earned second team honors a season ago.

Johnson led the Bonnies in scoring during the 2020-21 season, averaging 13.5 points per game and shot 47.6 percent from the floor which was 11th in the Atlantic 10 and first among A-10 guards. Following last season, Johnson earned Atlantic 10 All-Conference Third Team honors.

During her first three seasons with the Bonnies, Johnson has started in all 81 games. She enters the 2021-22 season just 45 points shy of 1,000 for her career and her 955 career points currently ranks 25th on the Bonnies all-time scoring list. Johnson also ranks 14th all-time in free throws made (240) and 17th all-time with 52 double-digit scoring performances.

HARRIS, JOHNSON SELECTED AS 2021-22 CAPTAINS

The St. Bonaventure University women's basketball team has elected its captains for the 2021-22 season, selecting seniors Asiana Johnson and Tori Harris.

Johnson, a 5-8 senior guard from Bronx, N.Y., has been a staple in head coach Jesse Fleming's lineup since stepping onto campus in 2018. She has started all 81 games in three seasons with the Bonnies and has led the team in scoring the previous two seasons, earning Atlantic 10 All-Conference Third Team honors in 2020-21.

Harris is in her third season with the Bonnies and started all 21 games in 2020-21 after sitting out the 2019-20 season due to NCAA transfer rules. She led the Brown and White in rebounding, pulling down 6.9 rebounds per game and was second in scoring, chipping in 11.0 points per contest last year.

A 6-0 redshirt senior guard from Dix Hills, N.Y., Harris scored in double figures 14 times last season, including a 20-point outburst against Binghamton Dec. 16. Harris also led the Bonnies last season with five double-doubles.

HEAD COACH JESSE FLEMING

Jesse Fleming enters his sixth season at the helm of the St. Bonaventure women's basketball program in 2021-22.

Under Fleming's leadership, Bonnies guard Asianae Johnson became the latest Bona's player to receive All-Atlantic 10 honors after becoming one of the conference's best backcourt players. Johnson follows in a long line of successful Bonnies players. Guard Mariah Ruff rose in the program record books and earned All-Atlantic 10 honors following the '17-18 campaign. Both Ruff and junior McKenna Maycock were also recognized for their success both on the court and in the classroom by receiving spots on the Atlantic 10's All-Academic Team while Maycock was also named Academic All-Region. In 2018-19, Fleming's recruits Asianae Johnson and Deja Francis were two of the top freshmen in the A-10, ranking third and fourth in the league in scoring among all freshmen. Francis was honored with a spot on the A-10 All-Rookie Team after ranking second in the league in assists during conference play with the most helpers by any Bonnies freshman in over two decades. Maycock, meanwhile, was again named to the A-10 All-Academic and Academic All-Region teams for the third straight year.

One of the top assistant coaches in the nation prior to being named head coach at St. Bonaventure, Fleming returned to SBU after spending the previous four seasons at Bowling Green, most recently as Associate Head Coach under head coach Jennifer Roos.

Prior to his time at BG, he was key to the growth of St. Bonaventure's program with 11 years under previous head coach Jim Crowley, working his way up from student manager and finally Associate Head Coach in 2010-11.

Fleming is the seventh head coach in program history and inherited a team that finished 24-8 overall and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament, the sixth post-season appearance for the Bonnies in eight years.

At Bowling Green, Fleming helped guide the Falcons' program to the Mid-American Conference Championship in 2014 as the Falcons reached 30 wins. In his four seasons, Fleming helped lead the Falcons to an overall record of 73-55 including a 5-2 mark in the Women's National Invitational Tournament. In 2013, the Falcons reached the third round of the WNIT. In 2014, BGSU advanced to the Elite 8 of the tournament while also earning a national Top-25 ranking. The Falcons competed with some of the top teams in the country during Fleming's stint on staff, defeating Michigan twice as well as Ohio State, Cincinnati and Dayton. Among other duties, Fleming served as BG's defensive coach, helping the Falcons set a new school record in 2012-13 by allowing just 54.5 points per game including 51.9 ppg in MAC play.

In May of 2014, Fleming was rated 20th in the nation among assistant coaches by Felicia Hall & Associates. Coaches were chosen based on criteria which included team success, team improvement from the previous season, fulfillment of team potential and the professional manner and attitude of the coach. He was also one of 40 coaches selected for the WBCA Assistant Coaches Leadership Workshop at Parris Island Marine Corps Base.

Before his move to Ohio, Fleming spent one season as an assistant at Stony Brook University under current VCU head coach Beth O'Boyle. There, his work in recruiting helped the Seawolves improve their win total by 10 victories from 2011-12 to 2012-13 as Stony Brook posted the fifth-best turnaround in the nation. At Stony Brook, Fleming recruits Chikilra Goodman and Sabre Proctor went on to America East Defensive Player of the Year and First Team All-Conference selections.

Fleming's hiring at St. Bonaventure is a return home for the Guilford, N.Y. native. He moved up the ranks from serving as Crowley's head team manager for four years as an undergraduate to taking a place on the coaching staff in 2005 following his graduation and a short stay as an assistant at Louisburg (N.C.) College. During his undergraduate years, Fleming also worked as a volunteer assistant coach at Olean High School.

Though he had left the previous summer to take his position at Stony Brook, the heart of St. Bonaventure's 2012 Sweet 16 team was molded by Fleming's influence. He was a crucial part of St. Bonaventure's rise to the top of the Atlantic 10, helping recruit some of the best players in program history while also working with Crowley to institute a new coaching philosophy that would pay dividends. Fleming's recruits included Dana Mitchell who would finish her career as the second-leading scorer in program history. Mitchell also became the first Bona women's player to have her jersey retired.

The road that ultimately led St. Bonaventure to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances began with Fleming on the staff. From 2008-10, the Bonnies recorded three straight 20-win seasons including the school's first-ever trip to the postseason, a WNIT appearance in 2009 that extended in the third round. During Fleming's time with the program, the Bonnies established new program records for victories four times.

While with St. Bonaventure as an assistant, Fleming facilitated the development of 1,000-point scorer's Mitchell, Megan Van Tatenhove, Jessica Jenkins and Katelyn Murray.
