ABOUT ST. BONAVENTURE

The nation's first Franciscan university, St. Bonaventure University is committed to transforming the lives of our students inside and outside the classroom, inspiring in them a lifelong commitment to service and citizenship.

Built on a foundation of compassion, wisdom and integrity, our Franciscan community affirms the unique dignity of everyone and invites all of our sisters and brothers to forge bonds of mutual acceptance and understanding that create a true sense of belonging.

The university's most popular undergraduate academic programs are: Accounting, Biology, Criminology, Cybersecurity, Education, Finance, Health Science, Journalism, Marketing, Sport Studies, and Psychology. A full range of programs complement these enrollment drivers, with almost 100 majors and minors available to students at the undergraduate level.

St. Bonaventure was ranked 17th overall on U.S. News and World Report's list of best schools in the North, and was No. 6 on its 2024 list of best college values in the North.

Over the past 15 years, the campus has been transformed through investment of more than $100 million in new campus and athletic facilities, renovations, historic rehabilitations, and improved outdoor spaces.

Located 75 miles south of Buffalo near Olean, N.Y., St. Bonaventure's picturesque campus is nestled in the foothills of the Allegheny Mountains and is located just 25 minutes from Holiday Valley, one of the top ski and golf resorts in the East. The neighboring communities of Olean and Allegany provide venues for student off-campus employment, internships, community service, recreation, shopping and dining.

Location: Southwestern New York — 1.5 hours from Buffalo and Erie, Pa.; 2 hours from Rochester; 3 hours from Toronto, Syracuse and Cleveland; 6 hours from New York City, Hartford, Philadelphia and D.C.

Student/Faculty Ratio: 12:1

PRESEASON NEWS AND NOTES

FRESH FACES

- The Bonnies have 11 new roster members on this year's roster.
- St. Bonaventure has welcomed 21 newcomers over the past two seasons.
- Seven new roster members came from the transfer portal, hailing from conferences such as the Big Ten, MAC and Big South as well as Division II and Junior College ranks.

WORLDWIDE BONNIES

- St. Bonaventure has four European newcomers joining the roster this season: Iliia Ermakov (Kirk, Russia), John Ikpotohin (Dublin, Ireland), Achille Lonati (Pavia, Italy) and Andrew Osasuyi (Magenta, Italy).
- The group joins Canadian transfers Frank Mitchell (Toronto) and Brayden Jackson (Milton, Ontario) as the six international-born players on the Bonnies' 2025-26 roster.
- Lonati and Osasuyi were coincidentally born in the same hospital in Magenta just 13 months apart. Now, the two become the first pair of Italian teammates in Division I men's basketball since since Mattia De Campo and Scott Ulnaev, who played together at Seattle from 2016 to 2018.

BE A BONNIE BE A PRO

- On Oct. 11, St. Bonaventure men's basketball held its first Pro Day at the NBPA training facility in midtown Manhattan. Presidents, GM's, coaches and scouts from 23 NBA franchises were in attendance.
- The historic event was the first mid-major Pro Day since 2018 and the only event held by a mid-major ahead of the 2025-26 season. It was also the first Pro Day held off-campus.
- Two G League teams -- the Mexico City Capitanes and the Long Island Nets -- as well as former NBA head coach Tom Thibodeau were also present.
- The Bonnies went through a series of competitive live drills before they were given the opportunity to interact with media, donors and alumni in attendance.

BACK TO THE SIX

- The Bonnies went north of the border for an open practice at Toronto's Humber College on Sunday, Oct. 5th.
- St. Bonaventure practiced in front of hundreds of fans before an open autograph session and live Q&A with Mark Schmidt and Humber head coach Omar Miles.
- The event was a homecoming for Bonnies forward Frank Mitchell a Toronto native who began his collegiate career at Humber in 2021-22.
- Mitchell set the single-game rebounds record with the Hawks (31) en route to capturing the 2022 CCAA National Championship.

Roughly five years ago, both members of the Bonnies' starting frontcourt did not see a future in basketball. Instead, Frank Mitchell and Joe Grahovac were hard at work on a different type of grind.

Growing up a youth hockey player in Toronto, Frank Mitchell found himself working construction after high school prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, playing basketball only recreationally. Mitchell was working to earn his Red Seal, a certification for skilled trade workers in Canada, when the pandemic opened up a window for him to pursue basketball.

"I did flooring. I switched from flooring to cement, did labor. I was in school for that trying to get my Red Seal," Mitchell said on The Canadian Basketball Show podcast. "And boom, COVID happened. They said 'we'll let you know when (construction work) is going to get back,' and stuff never came back."

Mitchell attended high-level recreational runs in the Toronto area and was soon discovered by several Junior College coaches. When he finally found the right fit at Toronto's Humber College, he had a record-breaking season and got on the radar of Division I staffs across the United States.

After stops at Canisius and Minnesota, Mitchell is now next-in-line on a long list of key Bonnies from Ontario, including Andrew Nicholson ('12), Barry Mungar ('86), Rob Samuels ('85) and many others.

Meanwhile, just a year and half ago, Joe Grahovac worked as a hay feed delivery driver in Southern California. Grahovac had no organized basketball experience, and spent his free time playing pickup hoops at a local 24-hour fitness.

When Grahovac played in LA's esteemed Drew League Pro-Am, he was recruited by Perry Webster's staff at Fullerton College, a highly competitive junior college in the greater Los Angeles area. Grahovac shined in his only year at Fullerton, averaging 15.9 points, 6.6 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 2.7 blocks per game while being named SoCal 3C2A California State Player of the Year.

Now at St. Bonaventure, Grahovac's diligent approach has not changed.

"When I was at JUCO last year I didn't think I was going to get anything out of (playing basketball), to be honest," Grahovac told Adam Zagoria of NJ Advance Media. "I was just playing and trusting the process. And that's what I'm still doing to this day, keeping my head down and keep working."

The Bonnies' big men have each taken a path to college basketball that has been anything but traditional. Both Mitchell and Grahovac will look to translate the discipline, patience and perseverance from their blue-collar backgrounds to the court this season.

NOTEWORTHY NUMBERS

12 St. Bonaventure has 12 wins over "Power 5" teams since the start of 2017-18, including a 2018 NCAA First Four victory over UCLA.

.617 The Bonnies own a .617 winning percentage in Atlantic 10 play since the league last expanded in 2014-15, which ranks third best behind VCU (.715) and Dayton (.700).

189 During 18 seasons with head coach Mark Schmidt at the helm, Bonnies teams have held opponents to 65 points or less 189 times. In those games, the Bonnies are 158-31. St. Bonaventure did so 16 times in 2024-25, winning 15 of those games.

4 Four of the Bonnies' seven transfer portal acquisitions shot 35% or better from three-point range at their previous destination: Joe Grahovac (39%), Buddy Simmons II (38.9%), Cayden Charles (37%) and Amar'e Marshall (36.7%).

2.9 Joe Grahovac averaged 2.9 blocks per game at Fullerton College, earning 2024-25 SoCal 3C2A Player of the Year Honors.

.676 Frank Mitchell shot .676 from the floor (48-for-71) against Big Ten opponents last season at Minnesota. He led the MAAC in field goal percentage (.561) in 2023-24 with Canisius.

14.6 Buddy Simmons II improved his scoring average by 14.6 points per game between his first and second seasons at Gardner-Webb, earning All-Big South honors as a sophomore.

1,108 Amar'e Marshall has scored 1,108 career points over two seasons at UAlbany and one at Hofstra.

2 With 11 new roster members, the Bonnies bring just two scholarship players back from 2024-25: Dasonte Bowen and Xander Wedlow.

WINNING WAYS

St. Bonaventure Head Coach Mark Schmidt has seen consistent success in his 18 years at the helm of the program. In 2024-25, Schmidt posted the seventh 20-plus win season of his tenure and his third in the last four years.

AMONG THE ELITE: St. Bonaventure has been one of the Atlantic 10's elite programs during the Mark Schmidt Era. Since 2014-15, the Bonnies rank third among A-10 members both in overall victories as well as in-conference records.

Best Overall Winning Percentage Since 2014-15

	Team	W-L	Pct.
t-1.	VCU	258-112	.697
t-1.	Dayton	248-108	.697
3.	St. Bonaventure	218-128	.630

Top Atlantic 10 Conference Records Since 2014-15

	Team	W-L	Pct.
1.	VCU	158-63	.715
2.	Dayton	149-64	.700
3.	St. Bonaventure	132-82	.617

DEFEND HOME COURT: St. Bonaventure has long maintained a strong home court advantage inside the Reilly Center, which has been noted as one of the toughest places for opponents to play in the country.

Best Home Records By A-10 Teams Since 2014-15

	Team	W-L	Pct.
1.	Dayton	153-23	.869
2.	VCU	150-35	.811
3.	Davidson	120-37	.764
4.	St. Bonaventure	119-39	.753

IN THE LEAGUE STANDINGS: St. Bonaventure has recorded double-digit Atlantic 10 victories nine times since Mark Schmidt took over the program in 2007-08. Since that time, only Dayton and VCU have accomplished that feat more (11 times each). Saint Louis has also done it nine times, and Richmond seven.

A-10 STARS: During the Mark Schmidt Era, the Bonnies have garnered 10 First Team Atlantic 10 selections. In that span, only Dayton (12) and VCU (11) have more. Davidson has also registered 10 First Team All-A-10 picks and Saint Louis has eight. Along those lines, the Bonnies have two Atlantic 10 Player of the Year selections (Jaylen Adams, 2018 and Andrew Nicholson, 2012). Only Davidson (4), Richmond (3) and VCU (3) have more in that span.

SCHEME GURU

Ahead of the 2025-26 season, Coach Schmidt was recognized by his peers as one of the top tacticians in college basketball. In CBS Sports' annual Candid Coaches series, Gary Parrish and Matt Norlander asked over 100 college coaches "Who is the best X's and O's coach in college basketball right now?"

Schmidt was voted among the top 15, alongside the likes of Matt Painter (Purdue), Dan Hurley (UConn), Tom Izzo (Michigan State), Bill Self (Kansas) and Rick Pitino (St. John's). He joined Randy Bennett (Saint Mary's) as the only other mid-major coach to make the list.

- The St. Bonaventure men's basketball program is in another golden era under head coach Mark Schmidt, who has now completed 18 seasons in charge of the program. St. Bonaventure's all-time wins leader, Schmidt has keyed the return of the Bonnies to national prominence and as one of the Atlantic 10's finest.
- In 2024-25, the Bonnies reached 20 wins for the seventh time under Schmidt on the way to the school's third NIT bid during Schmidt's tenure.
- The 2020-21 season became one of the most memorable in program history as the Bonnies captured the Atlantic 10 regular season and tournament championships, the first time Bona's has won both trophies in the same year. Despite a schedule greatly altered due to the pandemic, the Bonnies still added to their streak of double-digit conference victories, going 11-4 in A-10 play for their seventh straight season of 10 or more conference wins, the longest active streak among all Atlantic 10 programs. Junior guard Kyle Lofton earned First Team All-Atlantic 10 honors for the second year in a row, giving the program six consecutive years with a First Team All-Conference selection. Junior center Osun Osunniyi became the Bonnies' first A-10 Defensive Player of the Year and also picked up A-10 Tournament MVP honors as SBU won the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament and received a No. 9 seed in the tourney, Bona's highest in the modern history of the bracket. Along with earning A-10 Coach of the Year honors for the second time, Schmidt was also named the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District Coach of the Year as well following the 2020-21 campaign.
- In '21-22, he led the Bonnies to their first AP Top 25 ranking in over 40 years, reaching No. 16 in the poll after capturing the Charleston Classic championship with wins over Boise State, Clemson and Marquette. Ultimately, the Bonnies would win 23 games and reach the NIT semifinals after becoming the first mid-major program to win three straight NIT games at Power 5 opponents following victories at Colorado, Oklahoma and Virginia. Schmidt also moved into fifth-place all-time in Atlantic 10 conference coaching wins with 141.
- A shortened schedule in '20-21 was the only thing that kept the Bonnies from an eighth straight season of 18 or more overall wins after the Bonnies finished 2019-20 with 19 victories before the pandemic shutdown.
- Though the 2019-20 season was cut short due to COVID-19, Schmidt's Bonnies continued their streak of rising to the top of the A-10 with their sixth consecutive season of double-digit conference wins, the longest active streak among all Atlantic 10 programs. SBU scored 19 victories overall, the seventh year in a row of 18 or more wins, and finished fifth in the A-10 regular season standings - the fifth straight year the program has finished in the league's top five. At the end of the season, sophomore point guard Kyle Lofton gave the program five straight years with a First Team All-Conference selection.

- Schmidt's blue-collar efforts to revive the tradition-rich St. Bonaventure program resulted in a championship season in 2011-12. The Bonnies won their first-ever Atlantic 10 title with three straight victories in Atlantic City, N.J. In the NCAA Tournament, they led No. 3 seed Florida State for nearly the entire game but fell by three points.
- Schmidt was instrumental in the development of 2012 A-10 Player of the Year and AP Honorable Mention All-American Andrew Nicholson, who ended his career ranked second in school history in scoring (2,103 points) and fourth in rebounds (887). Nicholson was selected by the Orlando Magic in the First Round of the 2012 NBA Draft.
- Further testament to Schmidt's ability to recruit and develop players, the Bonnies have had a First Team All-Conference selection in seven consecutive years following the honors earned by Jalen Adaway in 2022 and Kyle Lofton in back-to-back seasons. Courtney Stockard earned the distinction in 2019 while Jaylen Adams received First Team nods in 2016, 2017 and 2018 and Matt Mobley also picked up the honor in 2018.
- He has coached 33 players who have earned professional contracts after graduating from St. Bonaventure including two who made NBA teams, Jaylen Adams (Portland Trailblazers, Atlanta Hawks) and Nicholson. In addition, 29 other former Bonnies players have signed professional deals with teams outside of the U.S.
- Schmidt served as the head coach at Robert Morris for six seasons prior to coming to St. Bonaventure. There, he inherited a program that had managed just a 7-22 record in the season before his arrival. Schmidt quickly turned things around, leading the Colonials to the Northeast Conference Tournament semifinals in 2004 and 2006. During his six seasons at RMU, he had an overall record of 82-90, including a 15-14 mark in 2005-06, the program's first winning season since 2000. Schmidt turned the Colonials into a year-in and year-out contender in the conference, posting a 58-52 mark in league play.
- Prior to Robert Morris, Schmidt spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at Xavier University under head coach Skip Prosser. Schmidt served as the program's top recruiter, landing future NBA players Torraye Braggs (Houston Rockets), Lionel Chalmers (Minnesota Timberwolves), James Posey (Miami Heat), Romain Sato (San Antonio Spurs) and David West (New Orleans/Oklahoma City Hornets).

NOTEWORTHY NUMBERS

- 324 Coach Schmidt's 324 wins at St. Bonaventure are most in school history. The previous record of 202 set by Larry Weise had stood for over four decades.
- 167 Coach Schmidt enters this season with 167 Atlantic 10 victories, ranking fifth all-time.
- 33 A total of 33 Bonaventure players during the Mark Schmidt Era have played professionally.

"The thing I'm most proud of is that this hasn't been a one-year thing. We've done this over an extended period of time and that shows you're building a program the right way. We recruit the right type of kids who get their education, they graduate and they're able to win in a really good conference."

- Head Coach Mark Schmidt

COACHING STAFF

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH SEAN NEAL

@Neal_Seal

Sean Neal enters his eighth season with St. Bonaventure men's basketball and his second year as Associate Head Coach.

In his first five seasons with the Bonnies, St. Bonaventure finished at or near the top of the Atlantic 10 in four of those years, including the 2020-21 season when the Bonnies won the Atlantic 10 regular season and Atlantic 10 Tournament championships – the first time the program has won both titles in the same season.

In addition to the NCAA Tournament appearance in 2021, the Bonnies advanced to the NIT semifinals in 2022 with road wins over Colorado, Oklahoma and Virginia. During the 2021-22 regular season, St. Bonaventure claimed its first national Top 25 ranking in 40 years and won the prestigious Charleston Classic with victories over Boise State, Clemson, and Marquette. St. Bonaventure finished the season with 23 wins, including five coming over Power Six conference opponents.

Neal helped the Bonnies to another 20-win campaign in 2023-24 as the team reached the Atlantic 10 semifinals.

Neal has been an important recruiter for the program as well, leading the recruitment of Osun Osunniyi, the school's all-time leading shot blocker and first-ever two-time Atlantic 10 Defensive Player of the Year. Osunniyi was a four-time All-Conference selection and ranked in the Top 10 nationally in shot blocking as a freshman. He was crowned Most Outstanding Player of the 2021 Atlantic 10 Tournament.

Prior to St. Bonaventure, Neal was an assistant coach at La Salle University on the staff of Dr. John Giannini. During his time with the Explorers, La Salle made two postseason appearances, including a Sweet 16 run in 2013. The Explorers finished the season ranked No. 24 in the country with wins over Villanova, Butler, VCU, Kansas State, Ole Miss, and Boise State. In the 2011-2012 season, La Salle finished with 21 wins and was selected to the NIT, the first postseason appearance for the program in 20 years.

Neal served in various roles at La Salle from 2008-2018. He began as a graduate assistant and worked his way up to recruiting coordinator in his last season. The Explorers signed five former Top 100 players, including BJ Johnson who played for the Orlando Magic. Neal has coached 13 All-Conference players in his tenure at St. Bonaventure and La Salle.

Neal played for La Salle from 2003-2007. Neal played point guard for the 2005-2006 Explorers team that set a school record for most conference wins in school history.

The Springfield, Mass. native enjoyed a standout high school career at Springfield Cathedral High School. Neal averaged 25 points per game as a senior and won Western Massachusetts Player of the Year and Massachusetts Coaches' Association Player of the Year.

Neal received his Bachelor's Degree in political science in 2007 and his MBA in 2011 from La Salle. He and his wife Kara, Doctor of Physical Therapy, reside in Olean with their three daughters: Giuliana, Mackenzie, and Averie.

COACHING STAFF

ASSISTANT COACH CHRIS LOWE

@clowe1414

A star player during his Atlantic 10 collegiate career, Chris Lowe joined the St. Bonaventure University men's basketball coaching staff in August 2021 and enters his fifth season with the Bonnies during 2025-26.

During his first season with the program, the Bonnies finished 23-10 and reached the semifinals of the NIT. In 2023-24, Lowe helped the Bonnies to another 20-win campaign and a spot in the Atlantic 10 semifinals.

Lowe coached guard Melvin Council Jr. to a spot on the All-Atlantic 10 third team in 2024-25 as St. Bonaventure secured an NIT bid for the second time in four years.

He was a star player at UMass from 2005-09, graduating as the Minutemen record-holder in career assists with 678, a total that stands sixth all-time in conference history. During his collegiate playing days, he became only the seventh Atlantic 10 player to post 1,000 points with 600 assists while serving as the starting point guard all four seasons with the Minutemen. His work there earned him a spot as a member of UMass' 100 Seasons of Basketball All-2000s Team. In 2009, he was named by Sporting News as the Atlantic 10's "best passer."

His playing ability led him around the world after turning pro as he played professionally for eight years, first in the NBA G League during 2009-10 before moving on to play in Lithuania, Slovakia and Austria.

After wrapping up his pro playing career, he transitioned to the coaching ranks with a return to the A-10, joining the staff at Saint Louis as a graduate assistant while working on his Master's Degree. During his time with Saint Louis, Lowe helped the Billikens to a 46-21 record and an A-10 title in 2019.

Lowe has also been involved in charitable work, using basketball to bring new opportunities to youth in his hometown. He created the C-Lowe 14 Skills and Drills Foundation in his native Mount Vernon, N.Y., using the foundation to provide athletic, academic and scholarship opportunities to children in the surrounding communities.

He earned his Bachelor of Arts in sociology in 2009 from UMass and his Master of Arts in Leadership and Organizational Development in 2020 from Saint Louis University.

Prior to arriving at Bona's, Lowe spent a year on staff at the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV), serving as special assistant to the head coach. While he spent the 2020-21 season in the Lone Star State, he brings a wealth of Atlantic 10 experience to Western New York from previous stops in his basketball career.

ASSISTANT COACH NICK SCHMIDT

@cnickschmidt

Nick Schmidt joined the St. Bonaventure men's basketball coaching staff in June 2025 and is in his first season in a full-time role with the program after previously serving as a graduate assistant.

Most recently, Schmidt served on staff at Bryant where he helped the Bulldogs to 23 victories and America East regular season and championship titles on the way to the NCAA Tournament. Schmidt was on a staff that guided Bryant to a 14-2 mark in America East play while ranking 21st nationally in scoring offense at nearly 82 points per game.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant on the Bonnies staff and then moved to the staff of Catholic University in 2020-21. He then went to Putnam Science Academy in 2021, serving as head coach of the varsity team and an assistant with the prep squad where he helped PSA to a national championship in 2022.

He played collegiately at Alfred University, averaging 7.5 points per game during his career including a senior season of 2017-18 where he poured in 13.1 ppg and drained 77 3-pointers. Following the year, he was selected to the All-Empire 8 Second Team for his efforts.

In high school, he helped Olean High to three Section VI championships including runs to the Class B Final Four in the 2012 and 2014 seasons. He scored over 1,000 points with the Huskies and set school records for free throw percentage and three-pointers made in a year.

He has had the lifelong tutelage of his father, Bonnies head coach Mark Schmidt, as his new boss has spent 18 seasons at the helm of the Bonnies with more than 400 career victories in his two decades as a head coach.

COACHING STAFF

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS MATT PAPPANO

A 2007 graduate of St. Bonaventure, the 2025-26 season is Matt Pappano's 18th year under head coach Mark Schmidt as the Director of Basketball Operations.

In addition to day-to-day administrative responsibilities, Pappano also assists players with academic responsibilities, coordinates scouting and film preparation, handles the scheduling of non-conference opponents, arranges team travel, serves as the team's liaison to adidas, manages the student assistant staff and assists with donor stewardship and alumni relations.

With Pappano's help, St. Bonaventure has become a consistent winner in the Atlantic 10. The team improved its conference win total in five straight seasons, starting in 2007-08 and culminating in the magical 2011-12 campaign. The Bonnies went 20-12 (10-6 Atlantic 10) and captured victories over Saint Joseph's, Massachusetts and Xavier to win the Atlantic 10 Championship crown for the first time and advance to the NCAA Tournament (Second Round) for the sixth time in program history. In 2015-16, the Bonnies captured a share of their first Atlantic 10 regular season title, a school record 14 A-10 wins and a 22-9 overall record. St. Bonaventure earned the No. 1 overall seed in the NIT. Two seasons later, the Bonnies won a program-record 26 games and reached the NCAA Tournament, defeating UCLA in the First Four.

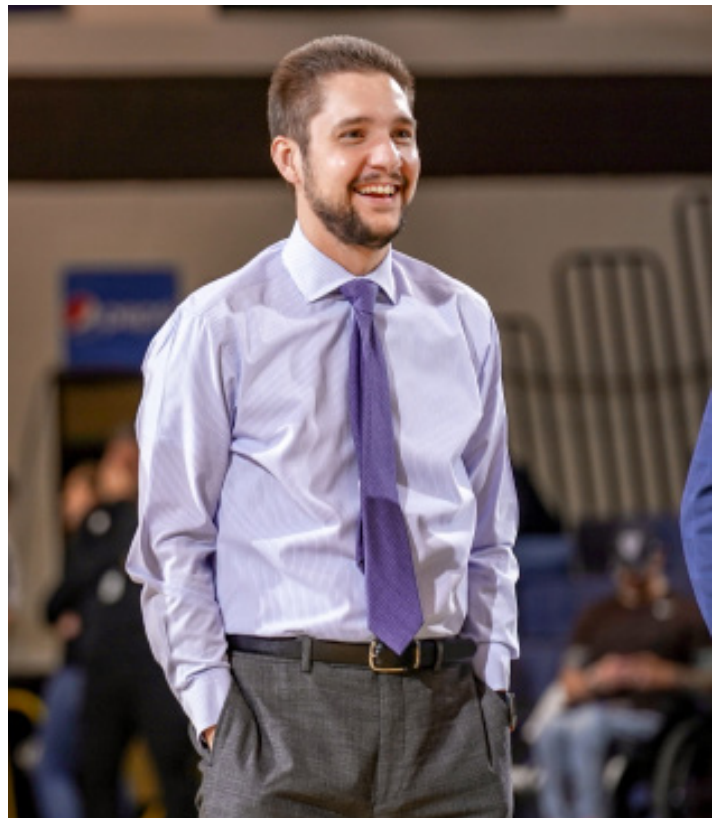

Between 2015 and the end of 2018-19 season, the Bonnies put together 85 victories, the second-most of any Atlantic 10 team during that span.

Pappano served as the Assistant Sports Information Director at his alma mater during the 2007-08 year. Pappano's primary responsibility came as the media contact for the women's basketball program, while he also oversaw the publication efforts of seven other sports.

In the summer of 2007, Pappano served as the assistant camp director for the Mark Schmidt Basketball School prior to his arrival in the Sports Information Office. His responsibilities included scheduling, promotions, finances and overseeing the day-to-day operations of the four session camp.

No stranger to St. Bonaventure basketball, Pappano served as the Head Student Assistant for the men's basketball program throughout his four years at the school. During his stint on the Bonnies' staff, Pappano assisted in multiple facets within the program, including video production, scouting, travel and practice and game preparation.

A native of Grand Island, N.Y., Pappano graduated from St. Bonaventure in 2007 with a bachelor of arts degree in journalism/mass communication.

GENERAL MANAGER ADRIAN WOJNAROWSKI

Adrian Wojnarowski was named the first-ever general manager for St. Bonaventure men's basketball on Sept. 18, 2024, announcing his retirement from an award-winning career as ESPN's Senior NBA Insider. Wojnarowski joined ESPN in July 2017 and worked at the network for more than seven years, becoming one of the most well-known and respected names in the industry and the sports world as a whole.

In his role as general manager, Wojnarowski manages a wide range of responsibilities including name, image and likeness (NIL) opportunities and as a liaison with collectives; transfer portal management; recruit, family and alumni player relationships; professional player programs; and program fundraising.

Recognizing the rapidly evolving landscape of college athletics, many power conference and mid-major schools have added the role of general manager since 2022, especially for their football and men's basketball programs.

Bonnies head coach Mark Schmidt called the decision to add Wojnarowski to his staff a "home run."

"This move is critical to navigate the new landscape of college basketball in NIL, recruiting and retention," said Schmidt, the winningest men's basketball coach in school history. "Woj is as connected as anyone in the basketball world and his decades-long network of relationships can only help our program remain among the top teams in the Atlantic 10 going forward."

In walking away from a lucrative contract extension he signed with ESPN in 2022, Wojnarowski now wants to give back to a university that has made an indelible impression on his life. He and his wife, Amy, '92, have been major benefactors to the basketball program and the Jandoli School of Communication.

Wojnarowski, recognized with transforming NBA news-breaking and reporting across the past decade-plus, was central in ESPN's multimedia coverage of the NBA throughout the year — covering the league, its teams, players, trade deadline, free agency, the NBA Draft, the NBA Summer League and more. His reporting, insights and analysis appeared on ESPN.com and in the ESPN app, featured on SportsCenter, NBA Countdown, NBA Today, Get Up, Outside the Lines and other programs.

Wojnarowski hosted The Woj Pod, which regularly featured the biggest stars and newsmakers in the NBA. Wojnarowski also hosted "The Woj Report" on ESPN's YouTube page.

Wojnarowski's peers voted him the National Sports Media Association's National Sportswriter of the Year in three consecutive years — 2017, 2018 and 2019. Wojnarowski joins past NSMA winners as Tom Verducci, Rick Reilly, Frank DeFord, Jim Murray, and Red Smith as winners in three successive years. He was the first digital reporter to win the award.

Wojnarowski is the New York Times best-selling author of "The Miracle of St. Anthony: A Season with Coach Bob Hurley and Basketball's Most Improbable Dynasty."

Prior to his work for ESPN, Wojnarowski worked for Yahoo Sports, where he spent nearly 10 years, including two as editor of The Vertical. His standout career in journalism includes nearly 10 years at The Record of New Jersey (where he was twice named the APSE "Columnist of the Year"), as well as several years each at The Fresno Bee, The Waterbury (Conn.) Republican-American.

He is a 1991 graduate of St. Bonaventure University and a 1987 graduate of Bristol Central High School. He was named the 2019 Alumnus of the Year at St. Bonaventure, and is inducted into the Russell Jandoli School of Communications Hall of Fame.

MEDIA POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Media Information

- Media representatives should direct all men's basketball requests to Ben Metcalf, Graduate Assistant for Men's Basketball Communications (bmetcalf@sbu.edu).
- Due to limited number of seats available on press row, priority is given to daily newspapers, major magazines and electronic media in the geographic areas of the competing teams.
- If a media member is not planning to cover the entire season, they must request credentials on a game-by-game basis. Credential request forms can be found at GoBonnies.com/Credentials
- St. Bonaventure reserves the right to refuse any credential request deemed not to be in the best interest of the University

Photo Credentials

- Due to limited space on the baseline and the inability to create a double row for photographers, a limited number of freelance photographers may be credentialed to shoot during the season. Media members wishing to shoot photos or video along the baseline should apply at GoBonnies.com/Credentials for the game(s) they wish to cover.

Radio Credentials

- A spot along media row will be made available at each game for visiting radio. Crews should follow the application process above, or request that their SID notify the St. Bonaventure Athletics Communications staff of their intention to cover the game.

Interview Procedures

- Head coach Mark Schmidt and requested student-athletes will be available either before or after practice the day before a game, with rare exceptions. Contact Ben Metcalf (bmetcalf@sbu.edu) to request an interview the day before a game. It is strongly recommended that media utilize this consistent media availability time.
- Student-Athletes - All interviews with St. Bonaventure Basketball student-athletes must be arranged through the Athletics Communications Office. Please contact Ben Metcalf for player requests, preferably via email at bmetcalf@sbu.edu
- Interview requests must be made at least one day in advance.
- There will be no interviews on the day of a game prior to the post-game press conference.

Practice Coverage

- Media members must contact the St. Bonaventure Athletics Communications Office in advance if they wish to attend a Bonnies practice.

Media Releases/Game Notes

- General St. Bonaventure Basketball releases, as well as game notes, will be sent electronically to media and posted to the official website for Bonnies Athletics, www.GoBonnies.com.
- To join the distribution list, send an email to bmetcalf@sbu.edu
- Game notes will be available at least one day prior to each game.
- Printed copies of game notes will be available at home games this season

Post-Game Press Conferences

Coach Schmidt will hold postgame press conferences in the Reilly Center Media Room (Room 1, basement RC) after the NCAA-mandated, 10-minute "cooling-off" period. The St. Bonaventure locker room is closed to the media.
