Christian Brothers University was founded in 1871 by the Catholic order of the De La Salle Christian Brothers. The first private institution in Memphis to integrate, CBU has always welcomed people of all faiths. CBU is the largest, most comprehensive private university in West Tennessee, offering degrees in engineering, business, science, liberal arts and education.

CBU is ranked in the top 35 Southern Universities in U.S. News and World Report's "America's Best Colleges."

The University offers graduate programs in business administration, education and engineering management.

CBU has a long standing record of excellence and a deep tradition in intercollegiate athletics. It is a member of the NCAA Division II Gulf South Conference, which has schools in Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi and Tennessee. The GSC is one of the premier all-sports conferences in the nation, and its teams have captured national titles in almost every sport.

HEAD COACH Kieron Heblich

Kieron Heblich is in his fourth season as the women's soccer coach at CBU. 2007 was a year of progress for the Lady Bucs, as they jumped out to a 6-2 start with both losses coming against D-I opposition before finishing 8-9-1. Two freshmen, Elin Svavarsdottir and Gigja Heidarsdottir, were named to the All-GSC Team, with Svavarsdottir winning the league's Freshman of the Year honors.

In 2006, the Lady Bucs started 6-3, but lost the final eight games. The Lady Bucs finished the year 0-4 in overtime games and lost six times by just one goal. In 2005, his Lady Bucs posted a 3-10-2 record that featured wins over Tusculum and GSC foes Delta State and Christian Brothers. Heblich has coached eight All-Gulf South Conference players at CBU as well as two Academic All-GSC players.

Heblich was named head coach of the Lady Buccaneer soccer program on May 6, 2005 after serving two years as an assistant coach with both the men's and women's soccer programs at CBU. Heblich came to CBU after a standout career as a collegiate soccer player at both the Junior College and NCAA levels. Heblich played two years at Meridian Community College in Mississippi, where he was an NJCAA All-American, a member of the National Tournament All-Tournament Team, and an All-South Region Selection.

From Meridian, he transferred to Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma where he was a two-time All-Region player. He also earned All-Lone Star Conference and LSC All-Tournament Team honors.

Heblich graduated from Northeastern State in 2000 with a degree in health and human performance and spent one season as an assistant coach with both the Men's and Women's teams at NSU. He earned his masters degree in education from CBU in May of 2005.

A native of Scarborough, England, Heblich spent two years in an apprenticeship with his hometown club.
