Scouting the Nevada Wolf Pack

Nevada comes to Fresno State after a bye week which followed its first-ever road win against a ranked opponent as it defeated San Diego State, 17-13, on Nov. 9.

The Wolf Pack is 6-4 (3-3 MW) this season and is riding a two-game win streak into this Saturday's matchup.

Junior wide receiver Elijah Cooks leads the Pack with six receiving touchdowns on the year. He is second on the team with 518 yards on a team-high 45 catches. Sophomore Romeo Doubs leads the team in receiving yards (616) and owns two 100+ yard receiving games this season.

Defensively, sophomore DB Tyson Williams leads Nevada with 62 total tackles and five broken up passes. Sophomore DE Dom Peterson is second in the Mountain West with 11.0 TFLs this season, while also contributing 6.0 sacks.

Series history with Nevada

Fresno State won its 50th all-time meeting against Nevada last season, increasing its all-time series advantage against the Wolf Pack to 29-20-1.

The two teams have met 25 times apiece at each other's home venues. Fresno State owns a 16-9 advantage over the Pack in Fresno, and also holds the advantage in Reno, 13-11-1.

The two teams have met 19 times as conference rivals, with the 'Dogs holding a 12-7 record in those contests. When the two shared affiliation in the WAC, the Bulldogs owned a 7-5 mark and since moving to the Mountain West (2012), the Bulldogs own a 5-2 advantage.

The first meeting in the series took place in 1923 in Reno with a 46-3 win by Nevada.

Last Time vs. Nevada

Fresno State dominated Nevada 21-3 at Mackay Stadium in 2018 behind two touchdowns from Ronnie Rivers and a career-high 98 receiving yards from Jared Rice. Juju Hughes added eight tackles and an interception in the win.

In this series, win the turnover battle

Entering Saturday's matchup, Fresno State ranks 12th in the FBS in turnovers gained (20) while Nevada ranks 114th in the FBS in turnovers lost (20). The history between the Bulldogs and Wolf Pack shows that if you do not lose the turnover battle, you are likely to win the game. You have to go back 20 matchups to find the last time one of these teams won the game while losing the turnover battle. That came in 1999 when Fresno State overcame three lost fumbles and only generated one takeaway (interception) during its 49-24 win over the Wolf Pack.

Championship hopes dashed

The Bulldogs entered last Friday's week 12 contest at San Diego State in control of their own destiny to clinch a West Division title but fell short, 17-7. The loss eliminated Fresno State from not only controlling its own destiny, but knocked them out of contention all together.

If history continues to repeat itself, San Diego State will find themselves in the Mountain West Championship game. The winner of the annual Fresno State-San Diego State game has gone on to represent the West Division in the Mountain West Championship game since the inception of the title game in 2013. No other team in the West Division has participated in the MW title game.

MOUNTAIN WEST, WEST DIVISION
	Conf.	Overall
1. SDSU	5-2	8-2
2. Hawai'i	4-3	7-4
Nevada	3-3	6-4
4. Fresno State	2-4	4-6
5. SJSU	1-5	4-6
6. UNLV	0-6	2-8

→ Fresno State and Boise State share the record for the most Mountain West Championship game appearances (4).

→ Fresno State won the 2018 Mountain West Championship and are three-time MW Champions since becoming a league member in 2012.

Injury bug

Injuries happen, it's football. But the amount of season-ending injuries have been a devastating blow. Three Bulldog running backs were ruled lost for the season before it even started in Jordan Mims, Peyton Dixon and Romello Harris. Defensive tackle Jasad Haynes was lost for the season following game 2, offensive lineman Netane Muti and cornerback Deshawn Ruffin were lost after game 3, and offensive lineman Matt Smith and defensive end Isaiah Johnson were lost after game 8. In addition to the eight currently lost for the season, eight more impact players have missed one or more games this season (OL Dontae Bull-2, WR Emoryie Edwards-3, OL Jace Fuamatu-4, CB Chris Gaston-4, WR Jamal Glaspie-1, DE Kwami Jones-8, OL Syrus Tuitele-2 and WR Keric Wheatfall-2).

Senior Day

Last season's senior day was a big one, 28 seniors (and two more left the team as juniors who declared for the NFL Draft). The 2019 edition will feature 17 seniors and one 4th-year junior being celebrated before the 'Dogs kick off against Nevada.

Youth movement

Whether it can be pointed to losing 30 players from last season's team or injuries, the 2019 team is without a doubt a youthful one. With Fresno State playing San Diego State last time out, a few position groups really showed it. The starting unit in the secondary was true freshman corner back Randy Jordan, sophomore cornerback Chris Gaston, true freshman safety Evan Williams and senior safety Juju Hughes. The sole senior, Hughes, suffered a back injury in the first half, and while he returned in the second half, many of the snaps in first half featured sophomore Wylan Free in Hughes' absence. True freshman cornerback Deven Jarvis, in his second appearance this season, saw the most action of his young career and contributed four tackles.

Additionally against the Aztecs, the offensive line unit featured a true freshman starter at center (Bula Schmidt), a redshirt freshman at left guard (Jace Fuamatu), sophomores Dontae Bull (RT) and Quireo Woodley (RG) and first-year graduate transfer Alex Akingbulu (LT). Entering what was the Bulldogs' 10th game of the season, that group owned 25 career starts collectively as a unit going into the San Diego State game.

71 players have seen the field for the Bulldogs in 2019

→ 21 of the 71 that have played are freshman (true or RS) - which is 29.6 percent of the team.

→ 33 of the 71 that have played are underclassmen (Fr. or So.) - which is 46.5 percent of the team.

Fabulous Freshmen

Seven true freshmen have made starts for Fresno State in 2019; only Alabama (9) has started more true freshmen this season. Tennessee (8), UMass (8), Akron (7), Arizona State (7), Stanford (7), Texas A&M (7), TCU (7) and USC (7) share similar numbers with the Bulldogs.

True Freshmen Starters (# starts)

1. LB Levelle Bailey (5)
2. WR Jalen Cropper (5)
3. WR Jamal Glaspie (3)
4. OL Bula Schmidt (3)
5. DB Evan Williams (3)
6. DB Randy Jordan (2)
7. DB Deshawn Ruffin (1)

It was no more evident than in the Bulldogs' game at Hawai'i that this year's freshman class is special:

- Jalen Cropper was named to the Paul Hornung honor roll (most versatile athlete) on Nov. 4 as he led Fresno State in all-purpose yards on Nov. 2 with 155 yards (61 rushing, 62 receiving, 32 kick return), which included a 48-yard TD run. He also tossed a 36-yard touchdown pass.

- Cropper owns three 100-yard all-purpose yardage games. Against Utah State, he set a season-high for receiving yards (87) and scored his third rushing TD of 2019.

- Evan Williams, named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week on Nov. 4, tallied nine total tackles against Hawaii, and led the team at halftime with seven. He also picked up his first collegiate interception early in the fourth quarter against UH that would result in a Bulldog touchdown on the ensuing offensive drive. One week later, Williams matched his tackle total from the week before, leading Fresno State with nine tackles against Utah State.

→ This season, seven true freshmen have made starts for the Bulldogs which ranks tied for the third-most true freshmen to of made starts in all of the FBS this year.

Redshirt Rule Counter - True Freshmen

The NCAA instituted a season ago that a player can retain their redshirt year if they participate in four games or less in a given season. In year one under that rule, the Bulldogs played one true freshman more than the four games allotted to hold on to a redshirt season - now sophomore Isaiah Johnson. Below is where the 2019 true freshmen class (who have played) stands:

No longer eligible (GP): LB Levelle Bailey (10), WR Jalen Cropper (10), WR Jamal Glaspie (9), DB Evan Williams (10), DB Randy Jordan (6), OL Bula Schmidt (5).

Eligible (GP): LB Malachi Langley (4), DB Deshawn Ruffin (3), DB Deven Jarvis (2).

It's been a team effort

→ Fresno State has had 43 different players make a start in 2019. Only BYU (49), Old Dominion (47), NC State (45), UMass (44), Georgia Tech (44) and Tennessee (43) have numbers higher, or as high, as the Bulldogs.

→ There have been 26 players this season to get their first career starts as a Bulldog, and 29 players during the 2019 season to see game action as a Fresno State player for the first time.

→ Fresno State returned three starters on offense and six starters on defense from 2018.

Home losses

The Bulldogs have had an uncharacteristic season at home under Jeff Tedford, and as a program at 2-3 (.400) in home games in 2019. The Bulldogs entered the season 11-1 in games at Bulldog Stadium under Jeff Tedford. On Saturday, the Bulldogs will look right the ship and finish the season .500 at home this season.

→ In 38 full seasons at Bulldog Stadium, Fresno State has finished the season below .500 just seven times.

Like Father like son

Junior running back Ronnie Rivers' father, Ron Rivers, had a prolific playing career (1991-93) at Fresno State departing as the program's all-time leading career rusher with 3,473 yards in 1993. That record stood until 2012 when Robbie Rouse surpassed it. While Ronnie stands with 1,925 career rushing yards, he has been finding the end zone as much as anyone. Rivers entered the program's career top 10 this season for rushing touchdowns and is approaching the top 10 for single season rushing scores.

→ Ronnie ranks T-No. 15 in the FBS and leads the Mountain West with 12 rushing touchdowns in 2019.

→ If Ronnie rushes for 75 more yards, he will join his father as one of 17 players to have ever rushed for 2,000 yards in a career at Fresno State.

→ If Ronnie rushes for one more touchdown, he will match his father's mark for career rushing touchdowns - which is the seventh-best mark in program history.

→ Over four consecutive games (10/18 - 11/9), Ronnie scored two or more touchdowns in each game. He became the first Bulldog to accomplish that feat since Reggie Brown did so in 1994. No player has ever had a streak of five straight games of multiple rushing scores.

→ Ronnie currently owns a streak of six-straight games scoring at least one rushing touchdown.

Special team weapon

As senior Blake Cusick's career is coming to a close at Fresno State, he's been a not so secret weapon for the team over the past four years. Cusick, a Ray Guy Award semifinalist in 2018 and a 2019 week 4 Ray Guy Ray's 8 selection, has played in 50 career games, not missing a contest since the start of the 2016 season. Cusick's longevity has given him the opportunity for 250 career punt attempts, which has smashed the school record of 214, previously held by Jeff Roberts (1995-98).

The volume has been a lot less in 2019, with 40 attempts, but he is averaging a career-best 44.1 yards per punt, which ranks 24th-best in the FBS. If he were to finish at 44.1, it would rank as the third-best season average in program history.

Once a decade tight end

While Jared Rice's 2019 senior season has not been up to par with his junior season, Rice has arguably been the most productive Fresno State tight end since Bear Pascoe (2005-08), who made himself a seven-year NFL career. Rice broke Pascoe's single season best marks of receptions and receiving yards by a tight end as a junior - now he's closing in on career records set by Pascoe and Marty Thompson.

→ Bear Pascoe owns the records for career receptions (112) and receiving yards (1,294), respectively, by a tight end. Rice needs 9 receptions and 49 receiving yards to surpass Pascoe.

→ Marty Thompson, brother of current Bulldogs' tight end coach Scott Thompson, owns the most single season touchdowns (8) - set in 1991 - and career touchdowns (11) by a tight end in program history. Rice needs two touchdowns to break Thompson's career record.

Next man up

→ The Bulldogs have had eight different starting combinations on the offensive line through the first 10 games.

→ 10 different players have made at least one start on the offensive line. Of the 10 individuals who have started on the offensive line, six of those individuals started for the first time in their respective careers (Aibuedefe, Akingbulu, Fuamatu, Sampson, Schmidt, Smith).

LT - Fresno State lost Dontae Bull to injury in games three and eight

- Nick Aibuedefe picked up his first start in place of Bull in game three.
- Alex Akingbulu picked up his first start for the Bulldogs in game eight (Akingbulu has remained at LT in games nine and 10 as Bull shifted over to RT in the absence of Syrus Tuitele to an injury).

LG - Fresno State lost Netane Muti to a season-ending injury (Lisfranc) after game three

- The Bulldogs have used four different players at left guard, with RFr. Jace Fuamatu earning the last four starts (his first four career starts) while true freshman Bula Schmidt earned two and senior Nick Aibuedefe has had one.

C - Fresno State lost Matt Smith to a season-ending injury (fibula) after game eight

- The Bulldogs have used three different options at center, with true freshman Bula Schmidt last time out, and redshirt freshman Tyrone Sampson Jr. the week prior - both their first career starts at center. Matt Smith was also a first-year starter.

RG - Quireo Woodley is Fresno State's only position player on the line not to miss a start

RT - Fresno State lost Syrus Tuitele to injury in games nine and 10

- Dontae Bull, the Bulldogs' six-game starter at LT in 2019 has shifted over to RT in the absence of Syrus Tuitele to an injury over the last two games.

QB1

While a fifth-year senior, the Bulldogs' signal caller Jorge Reyna is still a first-year player, making him as young as the rest of the 2019 Bulldog team. With Reyna's 12 passing attempts entering 2019, Fresno State's QB roster entered the season registering with the fifth-fewest passing attempts of all of the FBS teams, and its been learning on-the-go since. But it was never a doubt who the starter would be as Tedford named Reyna the starter at the conclusion of spring football (April 26).

Reyna accounted for 613 yards total offense and tossed five touchdown passes in games against USC and Minnesota, but was undone by interceptions at the end of both games that sealed the Bulldogs' fate. Reyna went 95 attempts before his next INT which was at Air Force after opening that game 17-of-18 in the half. But was 3-of-9 in the second half. Against Utah State, Reyna was 16-of-20 passing and entered week 10 with the best completion percentage (64.3) in the MW but then was 14-of-26 with three INTs against SDSU. He's rushed for 279 yards this season, ranking 7th-most by a QB in program history.

Forcing turnovers

Like the previous two seasons, Fresno State has been one of the top teams in the FBS in turnovers gained. With 20 takeaways, Fresno State ranks tied for No. 12 in the nation and No. 2 in the Mountain West. The Bulldogs' 20 gained turnovers is the third-most through 10 games for Fresno State during the last decade behind only the 2012 and 2018 teams.

→ The 'Dogs have registered a turnover in eight of their 10 games with three or more takeaways coming in four of their games.

Ball Hawks

Fresno State owns 10 interceptions as a unit this season with seven different players on the stat sheet. The 'Dogs have recorded at least one INT in half of their games this season, and recorded multiple interceptions in three games. In the four games they did not record an INT, one of those games was against Air Force who had three pass attempts.

→ Safeties Wylan Free and Juju Hughes, and LB Justin Rice lead the team with two INTs each.

→ Fresno State ranks tied for 27th in the FBS in interceptions with 10.

→ Free is tied for the fourth-most interception return yards (104) in the FBS.

Get the ball back on the ground

Through 10 games this season the Bulldogs have forced nine fumbles but haven't forced one in the last three games. Of those nine, eight were recovered which ranks tied for 21st nationally. Surprisingly, the first seven recoveries came from a different Bulldog until Justin Rice scooped up No. 8, his second of the season, and returned it 18 yards for a touchdown versus UNLV on Oct. 18. Rice's scoop and score was Fresno State's last fumble recovery.

→ Since ranking in the top 10, Fresno State has since dropped into a tie for 21st in the FBS in fumble recoveries per game.

Turnover margin should equal wins, right?

Winning the turnover battle is always a top priority, and usually the team that wins the turnover battle, wins the game ... but the 2019 team hasn't exactly followed that script. Of the Bulldogs' four games they've won the turnover battle, they own a 2-2 record.

→ With a plus-4 advantage in the turnover margin this season after 10 games, the Bulldogs own the 32nd-best mark in the FBS in that category.

→ The 'Dogs are 0-2 in games this season when not forcing a turnover (Air Force and Utah State).

The struggle is real

In each of its last four games, Fresno State's defense has struggled to keep its opponents off the field and out the end zone. The Bulldogs allowed over 500 yards of offense in three straight games before facing the 12th-ranked offense in the MW in San Diego State. The Aztecs were averaging 326.6 yards per game entering Friday, and registered 425 yards, including 323 through the air to a team that averaged 180.3 per game.

→ Under Tedford, Fresno State allowed its opponent to score 30 points or better twice entering this season (Alabama-2017, Washington-2017). The Bulldogs have allowed 30 points or better six times in 2019.

Critical down

There has been a trend with the Bulldogs' defense. In three of Fresno State's four wins, third down defense held strong - holding teams below 30 percent. While in its losses, Fresno State's defense has allowed teams to convert north of 35 percent on third down. Utah State was the latest to do so, converting 6-of-12 third downs (50 percent). Two of the Aggies six conversions were touchdown passes on third-and-goal. A week later, San Diego State went 9-of-17 (52.9 percent). The Aztecs converted three times when needing at least eight yards, with all three coming during 13-play drives during the second half that bled valuable time off of the clock.

→ Despite allowing Hawai'i to convert at a 58.8 percent clip (10-of-17), the crucial down against the Rainbow Warriors was fourth down. UH entered the game with the highest conversion rate in the Mountain West at over 75 percent but Fresno State held them 0-of-3.

Quite possibly the best redshirt ever taken

Last season the Bulldogs were set with a trio of standout linebackers in Jeff Allison (2018 MW Defensive Player of the Year), George Helmuth and James Bailey. With not much room or time available among those behind that group, the then-third year junior Justin Rice and coaching staff mutually agreed for him to shut it down after he played his first four games of 2018 to take a redshirt to prepare for 2019 as all three of the aforementioned departed.

Starting all 10 games, playing either the WILL or MIKE positions, Rice has been a disruptive force for the Bulldogs' defense. The first-year starter leads the MW and ranks 17th in the FBS in tackles per game with 9.6. But there's more:

- He is one of 14 players in the nation to have caused at least six turnovers.
- He is one of seven players in the FBS to have forced at least four fumbles. He is forcing 0.40 fumbles per game which is tied for the fifth-highest frequency in the FBS.
- He is the only player in the nation to have four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions.
- He has recorded at least 10 tackles in seven of 10 games.
- He became the first player at Fresno State to return a fumble recovery for a touchdown since Ejiro Ederaine (Oct. 26, 2013) when he scooped up a fumble versus UNLV on Oct. 18 and returned it 18 yards for the score.

Rotating corners

To say that Fresno State has had fluctuation at corner in 2019 has been an understatement. While senior Jaron Bryant has been a steady presence for two-plus seasons on one side, despite not getting the start at San Diego State, the other side has been a revolving door. Sophomore Chris Gaston started the opening two weeks of the season but an injury sidelined him until late October. True freshman Deshawn Ruffin then moved into Gaston's spot but after earning his first start in game three, he went down with an injury. Jeff Tedford later confirmed that Ruffin would be out for the year with a knee injury. True freshman Randy Jordan played out the rest of the Sacramento State game but during the following week sophomore Chris Coleman, who had been a receiver since joining the 'Dogs, made the move to the defensive side of the ball. Coleman started opposite Bryant at New Mexico State and the following three weeks.

Jordan received his first start of the season on Nov. 2 at Hawai'i, a week after Gaston returned to a limited role against Colorado State. Against the Rainbow Warriors' potent passing attack, the Bulldogs also deployed a 3-3-5 formation, opting to start true freshman Evan Williams. Coleman returned to the starting corner spot, opposite Bryant on Nov. 9 against Utah State, but Gaston moved back into his starting spot the following week at San Diego State.

Earning his spot

Following up being named Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week (Nov. 4) after earning his first-career start at Hawai'i, Evan Williams has remained in the starting lineup the past two weeks. Playing nickel back at Hawai'i, the true freshman has started at free safety the past two weeks in place of Wylan Free. In three straight starts, Williams has registered 22 tackles, ranking second on the team for most tackles in that span.

Dual threat

After being one of the Bulldog's top receiving threats through the first three games of the season, Chris Coleman made the switch to the defensive side of the ball in Week 5 after a rash of injuries hit Fresno State's secondary. After a meeting with Coach Tedford the Monday following the Sacramento State game and talking about the move, Coleman prepared the next four days and made the start at cornerback against New Mexico State where he played the majority of the team's defensive snaps, making three tackles and breaking up a pass. For four straight games, Coleman got the start at cornerback. He's started six games in 2019, five times at corner and once at wide receiver.

Where will he start this week?

After moving to middle linebacker for the 2019 season from defensive end where he was an all-conference player a season ago, Mykal Walker has seen a shift back to the line. Hand up or hand down, or sliding back into coverage, the 6-foot-3, 230-pound athlete is a problem for any opposing offense wherever he lines up. Second on the team in tackles with 80, Walker ranks seventh in the MW in tackles per game, averaging 8.0.

→ Through 10 games, Walker has started three times at middle linebacker in a 4-3, five times at defensive end in a 4-3, once as an outside linebacker in a 3-4 and once at outside linebacker in a 3-3-5.

→ Against UNLV, the senior recorded nine tackles with all nine being solo stops. It is the first time that has happened since Mike Bell had nine solo stops in the 2018 Mountain West Championship game at Boise State on Dec. 1, 2018.

→ Walker opened the season with a career-high 15 stops at USC.

→ Walker leads the Bulldogs in tackles for loss (7.5) and is second in tackles (80) and fumble recoveries (1).

→ Mykal is following in the footsteps of his late father Michael Walker who similarly played at Fresno State in 1985-86 after redshirting as a Bulldog in 1984. His father transferred to Fresno State from College of Marin and tallied 65 tackles and 6.5 sacks at Fresno State under Jim Sweeney.

Playing above his class

With starts in five of Fresno State's 10 games this season, true freshman Levelle Bailey has made his presence felt for the Bulldogs. In a growing role, the first-year player ranks seventh on the team in tackles with 30 but is third on the team in tackles for loss with 6.0.

→ Bailey's 6.0 TFLs is the most by a Bulldog freshman since Ben Jacobs in 2007 (6.0).

→ The freshman's most productive games have come against Minnesota (seven tackles, 2.5 TFLs) and New Mexico State (seven tackles, 2.0 TFLs). Bailey picked up his first career fumble and grabbed his first interception versus UNLV on Oct. 18 - both in the first quarter.

Dogs with bachelor's degrees

There are three Bulldog football players on the 2019 roster that already own bachelor's degrees. Those three who are in master's programs this fall are:

1. Alex Akingbulu - Graduate transfer to Fresno State from UCLA. Graduated in spring '19 with a bachelor's degree in sociology. Starting graduate degree in curriculum and instruction program.
2. Frank Dalena - Graduated spring '19 with a bachelor's degree in ag business. Starting graduate degree in water resource management.
3. Jorge Reyna - Graduated spring '19 with a bachelor's degree in multimedia production. Starting graduate degree in curriculum and instruction program.

Smith selected to 2019 Academic All-District® Football Team

Matt Smith, who carries a 3.89 GPA, and is majoring in business administration with a focus in sports marketing was named on Nov. 14 to the 2019 Academic All-District® Football Team team. Earlier this month, Smith was named a Burlsworth Trophy nominee, an annual award given to college football's most outstanding player who began his career as a walk-on.

2019 PRESEASON MOUNTAIN WEST FOOTBALL ALL-CONFERENCE AND AWARDS

The Fresno State football team has been picked to repeat as West Division champions by the media, the Mountain West announced on July 23 prior to kicking off the 2019 football Media Days in Las Vegas.

As the first-place pick for the West, Fresno State has earned its fourth division leading bid in the preseason media polls dating back to 2013, and second in as many years (2013, 2014, 2018 and 2019). The Bulldogs have prevailed and won the West in every season that they have been the first-place pick in the preseason polls.

Along with a predicted first-place finish in its division, Fresno State secured three preseason all-conference selections in senior tight end Jared Rice, senior linebacker Mykal Walker and senior defensive back Juju Hughes.

It was been a busy July for Fresno State's three preseason All-Mountain West selections as each of the senior Bulldogs have been named to seven watch lists for awards in their respective positions.

Rice, Walker and Hughes are continuing their successes from the 2018 season as each were named to either the All-Mountain West first or second team a season ago.

JEFF TEDFORD

HEAD COACH3RD SEASON | FRESNO STATE (1992)

Jeff Tedford, 57, inherited a 1-11 football program when he took over the reins of his alma mater and in two seasons all he's done as the 19th head football coach in Fresno State history is lead the program to a 22-6 record, a 2018 Mountain West Championship, two MW West division titles and two bowl wins.

In 2018, in addition to defeating Boise State on the road in overtime, 19-16, for Fresno State's first conference championship since 2013, the Bulldogs capped the season with a 31-20 triumph over Arizona State to win the Mitsubishi Motors Las Vegas Bowl. The bowl win left the Bulldogs with their first 12-win season in the 97-year history of the program. This, one season after engineering one of the greatest turnarounds in FBS history guiding the Bulldogs to a 10-4 record, an appearance in the MW title game and a Hawai'i Bowl win over Houston.

The renaissance under Tedford has led to FBS history being made as Fresno State became the first team to secure back-to-back double-digit winning seasons following a double-digit loss season.

The 2018 Bulldogs finished nationally ranked in the final rankings of the season for the first time since 2004. Fresno State finished ranked No. 18 in both the AP Top 25 and Coaches poll, announced Jan. 8, 2019. It was the best finish in the AP Top 25 in program history, besting No. 22 in 2004. The 'Dogs also held a No. 21 ranking in the final College Football Playoff poll released on Dec. 2, 2018.

Individual accolades in 2018 included Tedford being named an Eddie Robinson Award finalist and a Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award finalist. Fresno State sported 15 all-conference honorees in 2018, including the league's Defensive Player of the Year in linebacker Jeff Allison. In addition, 19 student-athletes were named to the Fall Academic All-Mountain West team.

With a 10-4 record in his first season, Fresno State became the third team in FBS history to turn a double-digit loss season (2016) into a double-digit win season (2017) the following year. The season included an appearance in the nation's top 25, clinching the Mountain West's West Division crown and leading the 'Dogs to their first appearance in the MW Championship game since 2014. He also guided the 'Dogs to the program's first bowl victory since 2007 with their win at the Hawai'i Bowl.

Great success brought great notoriety as Tedford was named the 2017 Mountain West Coach of the Year, was a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award presented by the Maxwell Football Club, a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award, and the AFCA Region-5 Coach of the Year.

While Tedford was honored as the league's coach of the year, the team had 16 student-athletes recognized with MW postseason honors - the most for the Bulldogs in a single-season since joining the conference in 2012. In the classroom, the 'Dogs also set a team-best number since joining the conference as they had 24 named to the Fall Academic All-Mountain West team.

Tedford, a former Bulldog quarterback and Fresno State assistant coach, returned to the Valley after holding the position of offensive consultant for the Washington Huskies - a 2016 College Football Playoff team.

Tedford assumed the role of acting head coach on Nov. 27, 2016, following the conclusion of the 2016 season as Eric Kiesau carried out interim head coaching duties for the remaining two games on the 2016 schedule following Tedford's introductory press conference. Tedford was officially hired on Nov. 10, 2016.

Tedford, who was an already proven winner on the West Coast, came to the Valley with 11 years of head coaching experience at the Division I level - having led the California Golden Bears to 82 wins from 2002-2012. He left as the school's all-time winningest coach.

Tedford's ties to the Valley and Fresno State run deep. He played quarterback at Fresno State in 1981-82 under Jim Sweeney and coached at Fresno State under Sweeney from 1987-88 and 1992-96, and under a then-first-year head coach Pat Hill in 1997.

Tedford's coaching career started at Fresno State, volunteering as an assistant for the 1987-88 seasons. From there he picked up his first full-time position as an assistant for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League - a familiar league in which he played quarterback for six seasons after his collegiate career at Fresno State.

He returned to Fresno State in 1992 as the quarterbacks coach and served as the offensive coordinator for the Bulldogs over the ensuing five seasons.

Tedford graduated from Warren High School in Downey, California and attended Cerritos Junior College for two seasons before becoming the Bulldogs' quarterback in 1981.

He and his wife Donna have two children, Taylor and Quinn.

LOS ANGELES – Trailing by 18 with less than 17 minutes to play, Fresno State pushed USC to the end, scoring twice in the final quarter before falling short, 31-23, on Saturday night at LA Memorial Coliseum.

In a homecoming for the Los Angeles area product Jorge Reyna, the senior finished with 344 total yards, throwing for 256 and two touchdowns while adding 88 yards on the ground on 20 carries in his first start as a Bulldog. Kicker Cesar Silva accounted for nine of Fresno State's points going 3-for-3 with a long of 46 yards in his first game as a Bulldog.

The defense kept Fresno State in striking distance, forcing four turnovers, and were led by four Bulldogs registering double-digit tackles in Mykal Walker (15), Chris Gaston (12), Juju Hughes (11) and Justin Rice (10).

A critical 100-yard kick off return by Trojans' Velus Jones in the third quarter proved to be arguably the back-breaker in the third quarter after Fresno State pulled within four, and was quickly extended to the 18 points the 'Dogs still nearly overcame.

Notable

- Jorge Reyna rushed for 88 yards. It was the most rushing yards by a Bulldog quarterback since the turn of the century.
- Cesar Silva, in his Fresno State debut, went 3-for-3 kicking field goals. The last time a Bulldog kicker went 100 percent with at least three attempts was Kody Kroening on Oct. 8, 2016 vs. Nevada.
