Scouting the Utah State Aggies

Utah State is 4-4 this season with a 3-1 Mountain West mark entering this week's matchup.

The Aggies are riding a two-game losing streak at Air Force (31-7) on Oct. 26 and versus BYU (42-14) last Saturday. Conference play was off to a good start for Utah State as it picked up wins at San Diego State and versus Colorado State, but the momentum shifted as it faced a difficult Air Force team.

The Aggies are led by quarterback Jordan Love who has passed for 2,014 yards this season while averaging 251.8 passing yards per game. Love is currently third in the conference standings in total offense.

David Woodward leads the Utah State defense with 93 tackles on the year. He also adds four forced fumbles, five TFLs for 15 yards and two sacks. Woodward leads the conference in total tackles for the 2019 season.

Series History with Utah State

Fresno State leads the all-time series 17-12-1 in a history that dates back to 1952.

Since becoming Mountain West foes, Utah State has won two contests - a 56-14 win at Bulldog Stadium (Oct. 10, 2015) and a 38-20 win in Logan (Oct. 22, 2016). However, the Bulldogs came away with the biggest victory of the MW matchups in the inaugural Mountain West Championship Game in 2013. Fresno State defeated Utah State 24-17 at Bulldog Stadium on Dec. 7, 2013.

Prior to the conference change from the WAC, Fresno State had won six consecutive games in a span from Nov. 3, 2007 through Dec. 7, 2013, which included three home victories. The Bulldogs are 13-3-1 against the Aggies at home in the history of the series.

Last time versus the Aggies

It has been just over three years since the Bulldogs and Aggies faced off in a Mountain West competition.

Fresno State traveled to Logan, Utah for an Oct. 22, 2016 matchup in the program's infamous 1-11 season. The 'Dogs fought a tough fight in the opening half, trailing by three as they headed to the locker room but Utah State used a 14-point fourth quarter to seal a 38-20 win.

Still in the hunt

The Bulldogs are seeking their third-straight trip to the Mountain West Championship game in 2019, and while defending their 2018 title has not been a smooth ride so far, Fresno State still controls its own destiny to reach its goal.

Entering week 11 of the 2019 season with a 2-2 conference mark, the Bulldogs are 2-0 against their West Division counterparts and 0-2 against the Mountain Division. While all league games count, despite division, the Bulldogs are second in the standings behind only San Diego State in the loss column in the race for the West Division.

MOUNTAIN WEST, WEST DIVISION
	Conf.	Overall
1. SDSU	3-1	7-1
2. Fresno State	2-2	4-4
3. Hawai'i	2-3	5-4
4. Nevada	2-3	5-4
5. SJSU	1-4	4-5
6. UNLV	0-5	2-7

With San Diego State and the Bulldogs' having a Nov. 15 game on the schedule, and the remainder of the West Division with three losses or greater, the path to staying on track continues with a win on Saturday versus Utah State. The Aztecs host Nevada this week.

→ The winner of the annual Fresno State-San Diego State game has gone on to represent the West Division in the Mountain West Championship game since the inception of the title game in 2013. No other team in the West Division has participated in the MW title game.

→ The Mountain West Championship game will be held on Dec. 7 and will be hosted at the site of the divisional champion with the highest winning percentage in Conference games only.

How they did it

In a game that had multiple momentum swings with both teams leading by double digits, Fresno State walked out of Aloha Stadium last Saturday evening on the leg of Cesar Silva as the Bulldog junior hit a 37-yard field goal as time expired to give the 'Dogs a 41-38 win. It was the Bulldogs sixth-straight victory over the Rainbow Warriors on their home field.

With 1:08 left in the game after Hawai'i knotted the game, 38-38, senior quarterback Jorge Reyna led the offense to the 20-yard line to set Silva up for the attempt. Reyna would finish the game with 284 yards of offense with 188 coming through the air and a career-high 96 on the ground. Ronnie Rivers recorded his second-straight 100-yard rushing game, finishing with 103 yards and two touchdowns on 19 carries. Jalen Cropper, who was a spark throughout the night, totaled 159 yards of offense (36, passing, 61 rushing, 62 receiving) and threw a touchdown.

Juju Hughes registered a game-high 10 tackles and two pass breakups on the defensive side of the ball. Evan Williams produced Fresno State's lone takeaway, grabbing his first-career interception, to go along with nine stops.

Williams named MW Defensive Player of the Week

True freshman defensive back Evan Williams was selected as the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week for the Bulldogs' second POTW nod of the season.

Williams earned the first start of his collegiate career at Hawai'i last week. In his breakthrough outing, the freshman tallied nine total tackles as he led the team at halftime with seven. He also picked up his first collegiate interception early in the fourth quarter that would result in a Bulldog touchdown on the ensuing offensive drive. He nearly had three INTs in the game, one was recorded as a pass breakup as he broke on a ball in the first quarter getting two hands on it, the other was caught off a deflection, but after an official's review, it was deemed the ball hit the ground first.

Williams becomes the first DB to earn the weekly honor since Juju Hughes in 2017 and he is the first true freshman to earn any MW player of the week honor for the Bulldogs since Colin McGuire earned Special Teams Player of the Week in 2013.

Eight-Straight

The Bulldogs closed out nonconference play after the first five weeks of the college football season with a 2-2 record. Following its second bye week on Oct. 5, the Bulldogs entered Mountain West play having played four games and experiencing two byes before entering league play.

→ Fresno State was the only FBS team to have not played a conference game entering its week 7 contest versus Air Force.

Nonconference recap

Having lost as many games in its first two weeks in 2019 as it did in 2018, it was a tough start for the 2018 Mountain West Champions that finished 12-2 and ranked No. 18 in both major polls last season. Fresno State's 0-2 start was the first for the program since 2014, but it was so close swinging to 1-1 or even 2-0. The 'Dogs average margin of loss in those two games was 5.5 points to USC on the road (Aug. 31) and Minnesota (Sept. 7) at home. Those Trojans are 5-4 with wins against then-ranked No. 10 Utah and No. 23 Stanford while Minnesota is undefeated (8-0) and currently ranked No. 13 in both the AP & Coaches polls.

The 'Dogs bounced back by winning their final two nonconference games by taking care of business defeating Sacramento State 34-20 at home to move to 1-2 and moved to .500 with a win versus New Mexico State in its final nonconference game of 2019.

→ Adding in postseason games, Tedford is 9-5 at Fresno State against teams outside the Mountain West.

Mountain West recap

League play began on the road for the Bulldogs for the fifth time in the last six seasons as they traveled to Air Force on Oct. 12. Both teams scored with every possession held in the first half of that game, but the 'Dogs could not keep pace in the second half falling 43-24. The Bulldogs' game at Air Force is arguably the one game this season where the team found themselves out of the game. Fresno State rebounded when they hosted its first MW game the next week, routing UNLV 56-27 behind five turnovers gained against zero lost. Eight days later at home, the Bulldogs' dropped their Homecoming game to Colorado State, 41-31. Fresno State allowed 500 yards total offense, including 227 in the opening quarter. Despite falling behind 14-0 early, the 'Dogs fought back to take their first lead, 28-24, late in the third quarter. CSU outscored Fresno State 17-3 in the fourth quarter, which was aided by the Bulldogs' first two turnovers of the game in the frame. With their backs against the wall at 3-4, 1-2 MW and a trip across the Pacific to face Hawaii looming, the 'Dogs rose to the occasion defeating the Rainbow Warriors to even their record and stay in the race for the MW West Division title. The win did not come easy though, both teams held double-digit leads at one point, and both offenses were clicking as both teams produced greater than 500 yards offense. Leading Hawai'i 38-24 in the fourth, UH stormed back to tie the game before kicker Cesar Silva hit a game-winning 37-yard field goal as time expired to win the game.

Team Captains

The season began with seniors Jorge Reyna (QB), Juju Hughes (DB), Mykal Walker (LB) and junior Netane Muti (OL) representing the 2019 squad as team captains. The quartet was named so on Friday, Aug. 23, following a team-vote.

Since Muti suffered a season-ending injury during the Bulldogs' Sept. 21 contest, junior Matt Smith (OL) filled in the following game on Sept. 28 and has continued to do so in each game since.

Fabulous Freshmen

It was no more evident than in the Bulldogs' game at Hawai'i that this year's freshman class is special. This season, seven true freshmen have made starts for the Bulldogs which ranks tied for the second-most true freshmen to of made starts in all of the FBS this year.

→ Jalen Cropper was named to the Paul Hornung honor roll (most versatile athlete) on Nov. 4 as he led Fresno State in all-purpose yards on Nov. 2 with 155 yards (61 rushing, 62 receiving, 32 kick return), which included a 48-yard TD run. He also tossed a 36-yard touchdown pass.

→ Evan Williams, named the Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week, tallied nine total tackles as he led the team at halftime with seven. He also picked up his first collegiate interception early in the fourth quarter that would result in a Bulldog touchdown on the ensuing offensive drive.

Redshirt Rule Counter - True Freshman

The NCAA instituted a season ago that a player can retain their redshirt year if they participate in four games or less in a given season. In year one under that rule, the Bulldogs played one true freshman more than the four games allotted to hold on to a redshirt season - now sophomore Isaiah Johnson. Below is where the 2019 true freshmen class (who have played) stands:

No longer eligible (GP): LB Levelle Bailey (8), WR Jalen Cropper (8), WR Jamal Glaspie (8), DB Evan Williams (8), Randy Jordan (5).

Eligible (GP): Deven Jarvis (1), Malachi Langley (4), Deshawn Ruffin (3), Bula Schmidt (3).

No better time than the present

→ There have been 28 players during the 2019 season to see action as a Fresno State player for the first time and 23 players this season to get their first career starts as a Bulldog.

→ Fresno State has had 39 different players make a start in 2019. Only Old Dominion (46), BYU (46), Tennessee (42), New Mexico (41), UMass (41), Houston (40), West Virginia (40), Oregon State (39), Troy (39), Akron (39), and Wyoming (39), share numbers of that stature.

→ Seven true freshmen have made starts for Fresno State in 2019; only Alabama (9) have started more true freshmen this season. UMass (7), Stanford (7), Texas A&M (7) and Tennessee (7) share the same number with the Bulldogs.

→ Fresno State returned three starters on offense and six starters on defense from 2018.

A deceptive dual threat

Redshirt senior quarterback Jorge Reyna racked up 284 yards total offense last time out, but used a career-high 96 yards rushing to get to that total. The ground game numbers bested an 88-yard rushing performance that came in his FBS debut at USC earlier this season on Aug. 31. Fresno State does not have a history of quarterbacks that put up large rushing numbers, his performance against USC topped Kilton Anderson's (Oct. 16, 2015 vs. UNLV) output four seasons ago of 78 yards, and Anderson's total at that time was the most by any Bulldog QB this century.

→ Reyna's 96 rushing yards against Hawai'i was the seventh-most by a Fresno State quarterback in a single game in program history.

Rushing Attack

Fresno State has recently started to hit its stride in the run game, over the last three games the Bulldogs have averaged 246.0 yards per game (7.0 per rush) and scored 13 touchdowns in that span. Over the first five games, the Bulldogs averaged 141.0 yards per game (4.4 per rush) and totaled seven rushing scores in those games. The swing in offensive style has switched so much, in the last three games the Bulldogs are averaging more rush yards per game (246.0) than passing yards per game (217.7).

→ Fresno State racked up a season-best 290 yards rushing against Hawai'i. It was the most rushing yards for the Bulldogs since 389 in 2014 against FCS Southern Utah. It was the most against an FBS opponent since 309 against Idaho.

→ Fresno State has accounted for 20 rushing touchdowns this season, the Bulldogs are one of 27 FBS programs to own 20 or more rushing TDs this season.

→ In each of the last three games, Ronnie Rivers has produced two touchdowns in each game. He is the first Bulldog to accomplish that feat since Ryan Mathews did so in 2009.

→ Rivers logged his fifth career 100-yard game against Hawai'i (103), and for the first time in his career posted consecutive 100-yard games as he had 146 the week before.

→ Fresno State's one-two punch of Rivers and Josh Hokit own eight rushing TDs each this season. They share a ranking of No. 2 in the MW and No. 29 in the FBS for the category of most rushing touchdowns in 2019.

Once a decade tight end

While 2019 has been a slow start, tight end Jared Rice has arguably been the most productive Fresno State tight end since Bear Pascoe (2005-08), who made himself a seven-year NFL career. Rice, a senior this season, broke Pascoe's single season best marks of receptions and receiving yards by a tight end as a junior - now he's closing in on career records set by Pascoe and Marty Thompson.

→ Bear Pascoe owns the records for career receptions (112) and receiving yards (1,294), respectively, by a tight end.

→ Marty Thompson, brother of current Bulldogs' tight end coach Scott Thompson, owns the most single season touchdowns (8) - set in 1991 - and career touchdowns (11) by a tight end in program history.

Looking for continuity

In 2019, the Bulldogs have had six different starting combinations through the first eight games. Fresno State lost Dontae Bull to injury in game three, and Netane Muti the last five games to injury. While Bull missed the Sept. 21 game and returned to the starting lineup the next week, it was declared by Coach Tedford on Oct. 16 that Muti would be lost for the season (Lisfranc). The Bulldogs have used different options at left guard, with Fuamatu earning the last two starts (his first two career starts). Bull, injured again, left the Bulldogs' Oct. 26 game and did not make the trip to Hawai'i. Alex Akingbulu picked up his first start for the Bulldogs last time out. During the Hawai'i game, center Matt Smith did not finish the game and redshirt freshman Tyrone Sampson Jr. saw his first significant action. Tedford announced Smith will be lost for the remainder of the season with a broken fibula.

→ Of the nine individuals who have earned starts on the offensive line in 2019, five of those individuals started for the first time in their respective careers (Aibuedefe, Akingbulu, Fuamatu, Schmidt, Smith).

→ Muti, arguably the greatest loss, was an honorable mention all-Mountain West selection in 2017 for his play during his redshirt freshman season. He was named to the 2018 & 2019 preseason Polynesian College Football Player of the Year award watch lists. Muti tested in the summer with jaw-dropping numbers in squat (605 lb.), bench (465 lb.), power clean (365 lb.), 225 lb. reps (37) and vertical jump (29").

Pope finds the end zone

Despite being the Bulldogs' leading pass catcher, Zane Pope had not caught a touchdown pass entering last week's contest at Hawai'i. That all changed when his fellow wide out counterpart Jalen Cropper connected with him on a 36-yard throw. Pope leads Fresno State in receptions (32) and receiving yards (336) this season.

While Pope is the leader, the numbers are not large as the Bulldogs feature a group of six receivers, two running backs and two tight ends that are actively involved in the Bulldogs' passing game. Eight different Bulldog players own 10 or more receptions through eight games with sophomore Zane Pope the leader with 27 receptions. Pope along with seniors Derrion Grim and Jared Rice (TE) are the only 'Dogs to have logged a catch in all eight games in 2019.

Hard to straighten out the situation

First-year kicker Cesar Silva (Jr.) gave the Bulldogs their first walk-off, game-winning field goal last week since 2009 (vs. Louisiana Tech) when he put a 37-yarder through the uprights at Hawai'i to give Fresno State a 41-38 win. Silva had not had the best season going into that kick, but its been something about the road that's treated Silva well. The junior-transfer is 12-of-21 on field goals and 32-of-32 on PATs this season; seven of his nine misses have come in home games. He had a 0-of-3 game on Sept. 21 versus Sacramento State and another 0-of-3 game against UNLV on Oct. 18. Silva is 2-of-5 on kicks inside 39 yards at Bulldog Stadium and 1-of-5 on kicks 40 yards and more. In addition to his game-winner at Hawai'i for top road performances, Silva opened his Bulldog career going 3-of-3 at LA Coliseum versus USC.

→ Silva has attempted the third-most field goals in the FBS this season (21). The national-high is 23 (Jake Verity, East Carolina), followed by (Keith Duncan, Iowa) at 22. Silva shares 21 attempts with Alex Kessman (Pittsburgh) and Tyler Bass (Ga. Southern).

Forcing turnovers

With one takeaway last weekend, the Bulldogs have increased their season total to 18. It is the third-most through eight games for Fresno State during the last decade, only the 2012 and 2018 teams produced more. Fresno State currently ranks tied for No. 8 in the FBS and No. 2 in the MW in turnovers gained.

→ With 18 turnovers through eight games, the Bulldogs rank tied for 5th in the FBS in turnovers gained per game with 2.25.

→ The 'Dogs have registered a turnover in seven of their eight games with three or more takeaways coming in half of their games.

FBS TURNOVERS GAINED PER GAME
		FR	INT	TG/G
1.	Cincinnati	8	12	2.50
2.	South Florida	11	9	2.50
3.	Illinois	15	7	2.44
4.	Ball State	7	12	2.38

Finding the ball in the air

While Fresno State had just two interceptions through its first three games of the season (0.67 per game), the Bulldogs' have started to see the ball better in the passing game during the past five games as they have snagged eight picks (1.6 per game) with six different players each recording an INT. Evan Williams became the latest Bulldog to grab his first pick of the season.

→ Fresno State ranks tied for 17th in the FBS in interceptions with 10.

→ Free, Hughes and linebacker Justin Rice lead the team with two INTs each.

→ Safeties Wylan Free and Juju Hughes have each grabbed two INTs over the last five games.

→ Free is one of 38 players in the FBS to return an interception for a touchdown this season while also totaling the third-most return yards (104). Free's 91-yard TD on Sept. 28 at New Mexico State is the fourth-longest interception return in the FBS this season.

Searching for fumbles

Through eight games this season the Bulldogs have forced nine fumbles but haven't forced one in the last two games. Of those nine forced fumbles, eight were recovered which ranks tied for 14th nationally. Surprisingly, the first seven recoveries came from a different Bulldog until Justin Rice scooped up No. 8, his second of the season, and returned it 18 yards for a touchdown versus UNLV on Oct. 18.

→ Fresno State is tied for 11th in the FBS in fumble recoveries per game, averaging 1.0.

→ Fresno State is well over halfway to double figure fumble recoveries with at least four games remaining in the season, a mark that only five Bulldog teams have achieved since 2010.

→ The eight recoveries have surpassed the season totals from 2010, 2011, 2016 and 2018, and is one shy of 2013.

Turnover margin should equal wins, right?

Winning the turnover battle is always a top priority, and usually the team that wins the turnover battle, wins the game ... but the 2019 team hasn't exactly followed that script. Of the Bulldogs' four games they've won the turnover battle, they own a 2-2 record.

→ With a plus-5 advantage in the turnover margin this season after eight games, the Bulldogs own the 20th-best mark in the FBS in that category.

Getting stops when it matters

There has been a trend with the Bulldogs' defense. In three of Fresno State's four wins, third down defense held strong - holding teams below 30 percent. While in its losses, Fresno State's defense allowed teams to convert north of 35 percent on third down. Despite allowing Hawai'i to convert at a 58.8 percent clip (10-of-17), the crucial down against the Rainbow Warriors was fourth down. UH entered the game with the highest conversion rate in the Mountain West at over 75 percent but Fresno State held them 0-of-3 which included two stops inside the Bulldogs 30-yard line.

Playing above his class

With starts in half of Fresno State's games this season, true freshman Levelle Bailey has been making his presence felt for the Bulldogs. In a growing role, the first-year player ranks seventh on the team in tackles with 24 but is second on the team in tackles for loss with 5.5.

→ Bailey's 5.5 TFLs is the most by a Bulldog freshman since Ben Jacobs in 2007 (6.0).

→ The freshman's most productive games have come against Minnesota (seven tackles, 2.5 TFLs) and New Mexico State (seven tackles, 2.0 TFLs). Bailey picked up his first career fumble and grabbed his first interception versus UNLV on Oct. 18 - both in the first quarter.

Quite possibly the best redshirt ever taken

Last season the Bulldogs were set with a trio of standout linebackers in Jeff Allison (2018 MW Defensive Player of the Year), George Helmuth and James Bailey. With not much room or time available among those behind that group, the then-third year junior Justin Rice and coaching staff mutually agreed for him to shut it down after he played his first four games of 2018 to take a redshirt to prepare for 2019 as all three of the aforementioned departed.

Starting all eight games, playing either the WILL or MIKE positions, Rice has been a disruptive force for the Bulldogs' defense. The first-year starter ranks 21st in the FBS in tackles per game with 9.8. No Bulldog has averaged that many tackles per game in a season since Marcus Riley in 2008 (10.15).

→ Rice has caused 0.75 turnovers per game while also defending 1.1 passes per game.

→ Rice is one of seven players in the nation to have caused at least six turnovers. Rice though has played one less game than the other six due to the Bulldogs' schedule.

→ Rice is one of six players in the FBS to have forced at least four fumbles. He is forcing 0.50 fumbles per game which is tied for the fourth-highest frequency in the FBS.

→ Rice is the only player in the nation to have four forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and two interceptions.

→ Rice has recorded at least 10 tackles in six of eight games.

→ Rice became the first Bulldog since Ejiro Ederaine on Oct. 26, 2013 to return a fumble recovery for a touchdown when he scooped up a fumble versus UNLV on Oct. 18 and returned it 18 yards.

A night to remember

For true freshman Evan Williams, the defensive back will never forget his first start. Playing nickelback, Williams registered nine tackles, but his biggest play of the night came early in the fourth quarter when he picked off Rainbow Warrior quarterback Cole McDonald. The Bulldogs would turn the INT into points and double their lead to 14. He also nearly sealed the game with fumble recovery but a review deemed that ground caused the ball to come loose.

→ Two days after the game at Hawai'i, Williams earned the Bulldogs' second Mountain West Defensive Player of the Week honor this season.

Rotating corners

To say that Fresno State has had fluctuation at corner in 2019 has been an understatement. While senior Jaron Bryant has been a steady presence for two-plus seasons on one side, the other side has been a revolving door. Sophomore Chris Gaston started the opening two weeks of the season but an injury sidelined him until late October. True freshman Deshawn Ruffin then moved into Gaston's spot but after earning his first start in game three, he went down with an injury. Jeff Tedford later confirmed that Ruffin would be out for the year with a knee injury. True freshman Randy Jordan played out the rest of the Sacramento State game but during the following week sophomore Chris Coleman, who had been a receiver since joining the 'Dogs, made the move to the defensive side of the ball. Coleman started opposite Bryant at New Mexico State and the following three weeks.

Jordan received his first start of the season on Nov. 2 at Hawai'i, a week after Gaston returned to a limited role against Colorado State. Against the Rainbow Warriors potent passing attack, the Bulldogs also deployed a 3-3-5 formation, opting to start true freshman Evan Williams.

Dual threat

After being one of the Bulldog's top receiving threats through the first three games of the season, Chris Coleman made the switch to the defensive side of the ball in Week 5 after a rash of injuries hit Fresno State's secondary. After a meeting with Coach Tedford the Monday following the Sacramento State game and talking about the move, Coleman prepared the next four days and made the start at cornerback against New Mexico State where he played the majority of the team's defensive snaps, making three tackles and breaking up a pass. For four straight games, Coleman got the start at cornerback. Randy Jordan started last time out, but Coleman still played a number of meaningful snaps against a Rainbow Warriors team that airs its out. Coleman's started five games in 2019, four times at corner and once at wide receiver.

Versatility

After moving to middle linebacker for the 2019 season from defensive end, where he was an all-conference player a season ago, Mykal Walker has seen a shift back to the line. Hand up or hand down, or sliding back into coverage, the 6-foot-3, 230-pound athlete is a problem for any opposing offense wherever he lines up. Second on the team in tackles with 69, Walker ranks 43rd in the FBS and fifth in the MW in tackles per game, averaging 8.6.

→ Through eight games, Walker has started three times at middle linebacker in a 4-3, three times at defensive end in a 4-3, once as an outside linebacker in a 3-4 and once at outside linebacker in a 3-3-5.

→ Against UNLV, the senior recorded nine tackles with all nine being solo stops. It is the first time that has happened since Mike Bell had nine solo stops in the 2018 Mountain West Championship game at Boise State on Dec. 1, 2018.

→ Walker opened the season with a career-high 15 stops at USC.

→ Walker leads the Bulldogs in tackles for loss (7.5) and quarterback hurries (2) and is second in tackles (69) and fumble recoveries (1).

→ Mykal is following in the footsteps of his late father Michael Walker who similarly played at Fresno State in 1985-86 after redshirting as a Bulldog in 1984. His father transferred to Fresno State from College of Marin and tallied 65 tackles and 6.5 sacks at Fresno State under Jim Sweeney.

Dogs with bachelor's degrees

There are three Bulldog football players on the 2019 roster that already own bachelor's degrees. Those three who are in master's programs this fall are:

1. Alex Akingbulu - Graduate transfer to Fresno State from UCLA. Graduated in spring '19 with a bachelor's degree in sociology. Starting graduate degree in curriculum and instruction program.
2. Frank Dalena - Graduated spring '19 with a bachelor's degree in ag business. Starting graduate degree in water resource management.
3. Jorge Reyna - Graduated spring '19 with a bachelor's degree in multimedia production. Starting graduate degree in curriculum and instruction program.

2019 PRESEASON MOUNTAIN WEST FOOTBALL ALL-CONFERENCE AND AWARDS

The Fresno State football team has been picked to repeat as West Division champions by the media, the Mountain West announced on July 23 prior to kicking off the 2019 football Media Days in Las Vegas.

As the first-place pick for the West, Fresno State has earned its fourth division leading bid in the preseason media polls dating back to 2013, and second in as many years (2013, 2014, 2018 and 2019). The Bulldogs have prevailed and won the West in every season that they have been the first-place pick in the preseason polls.

Along with a predicted first-place finish in its division, Fresno State secured three preseason all-conference selections in senior tight end Jared Rice, senior linebacker Mykal Walker and senior defensive back Juju Hughes.

It was been a busy July for Fresno State's three preseason All-Mountain West selections as each of the senior Bulldogs have been named to seven watch lists for awards in their respective positions.

Rice, Walker and Hughes are continuing their successes from the 2018 season as each were named to either the All-Mountain West first or second team a season ago.

JEFF TEDFORD

HEAD COACH*3RD SEASON | FRESNO STATE (1992)

Jeff Tedford, 57, inherited a 1-11 football program when he took over the reins of his alma mater and in two seasons all he's done as the 19th head football coach in Fresno State history is lead the program to a 22-6 record, a 2018 Mountain West Championship, two MW West division titles and two bowl wins.

In 2018, in addition to defeating Boise State on the road in overtime, 19-16, for Fresno State's first conference championship since 2013, the Bulldogs capped the season with a 31-20 triumph over Arizona State to win the Mitsubishi Motors Las Vegas Bowl. The bowl win left the Bulldogs with their first 12-win season in the 97-year history of the program. This, one season after engineering one of the greatest turnarounds in FBS history guiding the Bulldogs to a 10-4 record, an appearance in the MW title game and a Hawai'i Bowl win over Houston.

The renaissance under Tedford has led to FBS history being made as Fresno State became the first team to secure back-to-back double-digit winning seasons following a double-digit loss season.

The 2018 Bulldogs finished nationally ranked in the final rankings of the season for the first time since 2004. Fresno State finished ranked No. 18 in both the AP Top 25 and Coaches poll, announced Jan. 8, 2019. It was the best finish in the AP Top 25 in program history, besting No. 22 in 2004. The 'Dogs also held a No. 21 ranking in the final College Football Playoff poll released on Dec. 2, 2018.

Individual accolades in 2018 included Tedford being named an Eddie Robinson Award finalist and a Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award finalist. Fresno State sported 15 all-conference honorees in 2018, including the league's Defensive Player of the Year in linebacker Jeff Allison. In addition, 19 student-athletes were named to the Fall Academic All-Mountain West team.

With a 10-4 record in his first season, Fresno State became the third team in FBS history to turn a double-digit loss season (2016) into a double-digit win season (2017) the following year. The season included an appearance in the nation's top 25, clinching the Mountain West's West Division crown and leading the 'Dogs to their first appearance in the MW Championship game since 2014. He also guided the 'Dogs to the program's first bowl victory since 2007 with their win at the Hawai'i Bowl.

Great success brought great notoriety as Tedford was named the 2017 Mountain West Coach of the Year, was a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award presented by the Maxwell Football Club, a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award, and the AFCA Region-5 Coach of the Year.

While Tedford was honored as the league's coach of the year, the team had 16 student-athletes recognized with MW postseason honors - the most for the Bulldogs in a single-season since joining the conference in 2012. In the classroom, the 'Dogs also set a team-best number since joining the conference as they had 24 named to the Fall Academic All-Mountain West team.

Tedford, a former Bulldog quarterback and Fresno State assistant coach, returned to the Valley after holding the position of offensive consultant for the Washington Huskies - a 2016 College Football Playoff team.

Tedford assumed the role of acting head coach on Nov. 27, 2016, following the conclusion of the 2016 season as Eric Kiesau carried out interim head coaching duties for the remaining two games on the 2016 schedule following Tedford's introductory press conference. Tedford was officially hired on Nov. 10, 2016.

Tedford, who was an already proven winner on the West Coast, came to the Valley with 11 years of head coaching experience at the Division I level - having led the California Golden Bears to 82 wins from 2002-2012. He left as the school's all-time winningest coach.

Tedford's ties to the Valley and Fresno State run deep. He played quarterback at Fresno State in 1981-82 under Jim Sweeney and coached at Fresno State under Sweeney from 1987-88 and 1992-96, and under a then-first-year head coach Pat Hill in 1997.

Tedford's coaching career started at Fresno State, volunteering as an assistant for the 1987-88 seasons. From there he picked up his first full-time position as an assistant for the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League - a familiar league in which he played quarterback for six seasons after his collegiate career at Fresno State.

He returned to Fresno State in 1992 as the quarterbacks coach and served as the offensive coordinator for the Bulldogs over the ensuing five seasons.

Tedford graduated from Warren High School in Downey, California and attended Cerritos Junior College for two seasons before becoming the Bulldogs' quarterback in 1981.

He and his wife Donna have two children, Taylor and Quinn.

LOS ANGELES – Trailing by 18 with less than 17 minutes to play, Fresno State pushed USC to the end, scoring twice in the final quarter before falling short, 31-23, on Saturday night at LA Memorial Coliseum.

In a homecoming for the Los Angeles area product Jorge Reyna, the senior finished with 344 total yards, throwing for 256 and two touchdowns while adding 88 yards on the ground on 20 carries in his first start as a Bulldog. Kicker Cesar Silva accounted for nine of Fresno State's points going 3-for-3 with a long of 46 yards in his first game as a Bulldog.

The defense kept Fresno State in striking distance, forcing four turnovers, and were led by four Bulldogs registering double-digit tackles in Mykal Walker (15), Chris Gaston (12), Juju Hughes (11) and Justin Rice (10).

A critical 100-yard kick off return by Trojans' Velus Jones in the third quarter proved to be arguably the back-breaker in the third quarter after Fresno State pulled within four, and was quickly extended to the 18 points the 'Dogs still nearly overcame.

Notable

- Jorge Reyna rushed for 88 yards. It was the most rushing yards by a Bulldog quarterback since the turn of the century.
- Cesar Silva, in his Fresno State debut, went 3-for-3 kicking field goals. The last time a Bulldog kicker went 100 percent with at least three attempts was Kody Kroening on Oct. 8, 2016 vs. Nevada.
- Saturday's game was the third game under Jeff Tedford that the Bulldogs surrendered more than 30 points, and it broke a nation-best streak of 25 games that dated back to Sept. 16, 2017.
- In the second quarter, Jorge Reyna tossed his first touchdown of the season and second touchdown pass of his career – a 34-yard TD to Derrion Grim – his first two career TD throws went to Grim.
- Justin Rice, once a starter at running back, recorded his first career interception in the second quarter.
- Fresno State had four players record double-digit tackles: Mykal Walker (15), Chris Gaston (12), Juju Hughes (11) and Justin Rice (10). All four either matched or set career highs. The last time four players had double-digit tackles was against Air Force on Oct. 28, 2016.
- USC tallied 163 yards in the first quarter. The Bulldogs' defense did not allow more than 152 in an opening quarter in 2018 (Hawaii).
- Reyna tossed his second TD pass of the game in the fourth quarter, an 8-yard strike to Chris Coleman for Coleman's first career touchdown.
- USC had 18 first downs in the first half, and were limited to seven in the second half.
- Fresno State forced four turnovers, the most since forcing four on Sept. 15, 2018 at UCLA.
- Fresno State forced two fumbles, the most since forcing two on Sept. 15, 2018 at UCLA.
