GRIMES' HARD WORK HAS FIFTH-YEAR SENIOR RISING

Fresno State fifth-year senior forward/center Nate Grimes is back for his final season at Fresno State and enters the 2019-20 season as a strong all-conference candidate in the Mountain West. Grimes is one of two MW players, along with Colorado State's Nico Carvacho, to average a double-double (11.8 points/10.2 rebounds) during league play in 2018-19. On the defensive end of the floor, the 225-pound Grimes is also a rim protector, who averaged a block and a half per game to post the second-best shot-blocking clip in the MW last season.

WILLIAMS FOCUSED ON CONSISTENCY, DIALING UP PRESSURE

Fresno State fifth-year senior guard New Williams, who was a McDonald's All-America nominee out of Santa Monica High School and began his college career at Auburn, has spent countless hours in the gym to become a more consistent offensive threat and dial up the pressure on defense. Williams played in all 32 games (8.2 points/3.2 rebounds/1.0 assists per game in 2018-19) for the 'Dogs last season with some big efforts, especially an important 24-point output on Jan. 30 at Wyoming and the go-ahead steal and dunk in the final minute at San Diego State to lead to two of the Bulldogs' co-leading seven conference road wins.

BULLDOG BONES

- During the Justin Hutson era, Fresno State has outscored autonomy-five conference schools (TCU, Northwestern, Miami, Cal and Oregon) by a combined score of 375-358 (+17).
- Fresno State was one of 18 programs in the nation to average over 10 made 3-pointers per game during the 2018-19 season (10.9/gm; 9th nationally).
- During the Justin Hutson era, Fresno State has only lost twice by more than 10 points (once during the 2018-19 season and once in 2019-20).
- Last season, Fresno State had one NCAA Quadrant 1 NET road win (at Utah State, 78-77, Jan. 9, 2019) – one of two MW teams with seven MW road wins.

BULLDOGS BEGIN HUTSON ERA

Fresno State officially opened the Justin Hutson era on Nov. 6, 2018 with a 91-63 win against Alaska-Anchorage and then gave then-No. 21 TCU a strong test on the road, which included a halftime lead for the Bulldogs, who ultimately lost 77-69 in the competitive contest on Nov. 15. Fresno State then earned a third-place finish in the 2018 Wooden Legacy with a 19-point win over Northwestern on Thanksgiving, a two-point loss to the ACC's Miami on Nov. 23 and a 15-point victory over Hawai'i on Nov. 25 in the eight-team, three-game bracketed tournament held over four days.

Fresno State hosted a historic seven-game homestand from Nov. 28 through Dec. 29, which is a record for the Save Mart Center and the program's longest overall since a 12-game homestand during the 1954-55 season. During the SMC-record stretch, the 'Dogs went 6-1 with wins over Pacific (81-78 in OT), Cal Poly (76-67), Weber State (71-52), Long Beach State (92-71), California (95-73) and Tennessee-Martin (93-53). The Bulldogs opened MW play with a 20-point win at San Jose State on Jan. 2 and closed with a 40-point rout of the Spartans on March 9. Fresno State won its first three MW road games, five of its first six MW road contests and went 7-2 on the road in MW play.

HUTSON IN ELITE COMPANY

Fresno State head coach Justin Hutson is one of five head coaches in program history (out of 19) to have started his career with at least 20 wins in his first season and one of two (Jerry Tarkanian) with 22 or more wins in his first season. Hutson (23-9) joined the elite group of Ed Gregory (21-8), Boyd Grant (21-7), Ray Lopes (20-8) and Jerry Tarkanian (22-11). Gregory (1965-66) and Lopes (2002-03) won conference championships in their first seasons, while Grant is the Bulldogs' all-time winningest head coach (194 wins, 1977-86) and Tarkanian went to postseason in all seven of his seasons coaching at his alma mater (1995-2002). Hutson was named the 2018-19 Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in NCAA Division I college basketball.

GEORGE, JOHNSON REPRESENT FRESNO STATE IN NBA

Former Fresno State basketball players Paul George (2008-10) and Tyler Johnson (2010-14) are two of the 30 former Bulldogs to have played in the NBA. George is in his tenth NBA season and first with the Los Angeles Clippers after being drafted 10th overall in 2010 by the Indiana Pacers, who he played for from 2010-17, and then two seasons with the Oklahoma City Thunder from 2017-19. Meanwhile, Johnson just concluded his fifth season in the NBA, and plays for the Phoenix Suns after starting his career by playing over four and a half seasons for the Miami Heat.

• Paul George won a gold medal with Team USA during the 2016 Summer Olympics in Rio, is a six-time NBA All-Star, five-time All-NBA selection, including the 2018-19 All-NBA First Team, and four-time member of the NBA All-Defensive Team.

George was named the NBA Most Improved Player in 2013 and finished third in the voting for the 2018-19 NBA's Most Valuable Player.

• Tyler Johnson scored 1,346 points during his four-year Fresno State career and ranks No. 17 all-time on the Bulldogs' all-time scoring list. Johnson was undrafted, but earned a roster spot with Miami after a strong showing during the NBA Summer League in 2014.

2019-20 SEASON PREVIEW: A PROVEN WINNER & CONSISTENT MOUNTAIN WEST CONTENDER

Over the course of the last four seasons, the Fresno State men's basketball program has won the second-most Mountain West games of any team in the conference with 48 league wins since the start of the 2015-16 season. The same is true for the last three seasons (35 MW wins) and the last two seasons (24 MW wins).

This past season, the Bulldogs finished third in the league race (13 MW wins, which tied a program record) – just two games behind co-champions Nevada and Utah State – and Fresno State earned its conference-best fifth straight first-round bye for the MW Basketball Championships.

Fresno State head coach Justin Hutson was named the 2018-19 Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year, which is presented annually by College Insider to the top first-year coach in the country, after guiding the Bulldogs to 23 wins (a program record by a head coach in his first season). Hutson's rotation was also one of the nation's best in 3-point offense and defense, along with pacing the MW in steals and forcing turnovers. Fresno State and Utah State were the only two teams to capture seven MW road wins – one shy of tying San Diego State's MW record conference road win total (8) during 2015-16 season with the Aztecs' lone MW road loss that year coming at Fresno State by a single point (58-57) on Feb. 10, 2016.

For Fresno State, the consistent winning has positioned the Bulldogs as the only program in the conference to have won at least 10 MW games in each of the last five seasons. The 'Dogs have also won at least 20 games overall in each of the past four campaigns (five of the past six seasons).

WHEN THE TIDE TURNED

The tide really began to recently turn again for the Bulldogs in 2015, when Fresno State opened with five straight wins and rattled off nine consecutive victories heading into its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2001 by virtue of winning the 2016 MW tournament championship as the No. 2 seed.

During that season, MW Preseason and Postseason Player of the Year Marvella Harris became the school's all-time leading scorer and players like Cezar Guerrero, Karachi Edo, Julien Lewis, Cullen Russo and Paul Watson were also critical down the stretch for former head coach Rodney Terry, who finished his time in the San Joaquin Valley with the third-most wins by any Fresno State head men's basketball coach before departing in 2018 for his home state of Texas to lead UTEP's program.

When the Bulldogs joined the MW in 2012, the conference had three teams – New Mexico (No. 21), San Diego State (No. 22) and UNLV (No. 23) – ranked in the final 2011-12 Associated Press poll on March 12, 2012. It appeared to be – and was – a daunting task to find a way to compete and thrive in such a challenging conference, which sent four teams to the NCAA Tournament in 2012 and five in 2013.

Yet, after a lot of hard work and a relentless commitment to excellence, Fresno State is a combined 20-6 against UNLV (7-0), UNM (6-3) and SDSU (7-3) for a league-leading 76.9 winning percentage against those three MW programs in the past four seasons, including a 5-0 record when playing those teams last year under Hutson.

Also of note during the four-season stretch: 1) Fresno State is the only MW program with a winning record against SDSU; 2) Fresno State is the only MW program to not lose to UNLV; and 3) Fresno State has the best winning percentage (6-3, .667 winning percentage) of all MW teams against UNM.

EXPERIENCED RETURNERS ARE BACK

And the outlook for the 2019-20 season is just as bright with the return of now-senior forward Nate Grimes, who is a seasoned veteran and should figure in the all-conference conversation again. Grimes is one of two MW players, along with Colorado State's Nico Carvacho, to average a double-double (11.8 points/10.2 rebounds) during conference play in 2018-19. On the defensive end of the floor, the 225-pound Grimes is also a rim protector, who averaged a block and a half per game to post the second-best shot-blocking clip in the MW last season. He's also a player who has had success playing on the road and collected a Save Mart Center-record 19 rebounds to go with 19 points to headline Fresno State's 82-70 home win over the Lobos on Feb. 2.

Along with Grimes, the Bulldogs have rising senior point guard Noah Blackwell back. Blackwell has a smooth 3-point stroke paired with a crisp mid-range jumper. He was the team's most efficient free throw shooter last season with a small sample size (16-for-19 FT) and led the team in MW play with a 44.6 percent 3-point field goal percentage (33-for-74 3FG). Earlier in the season, Blackwell was the first of three Bulldogs to earn MW Player of the Week honors in 2018-19 to make Fresno State the only program last year with three different players to earn the conference's highest weekly honor.

The emergence of then-freshman wing Aguir Agau late in the season added another dynamic option for Hutson, especially in the Bulldogs' 26-point MW quarterfinal victory over Air Force with Agau scoring a season-high 16 points, which included four 3-pointers and solid defense. Agau, a surging sophomore with a 7-foot wingspan, which often disrupted passing lanes in his debut campaign and created other match-up challenges for opposing offenses, had earned immediate and important playing time throughout the year before his breakout performance in Las Vegas.

New Williams, a now fifth-year senior guard who started his collegiate career at Auburn before transferring back home to the Golden State, gives the Bulldogs even more experience in the backcourt with his 3-point shot and game-changing vertical. Williams helped lead the Bulldogs to a slew of non-conference victories and had a career-high 24 points with six 3-pointers and one of ESPN's top plays when he threw down a windmill dunk to power Fresno State to a 75-62 road win at Wyoming on Jan. 30. He also snatched the defining steal, which he turned into the go-ahead dunk to erase what had been an eight-point deficit with under two minutes remaining to key a thrilling 76-74 road win at San Diego State on March 6. He has a 50-inch vertical.

The 'Dogs also have two more older post players in Christian Gray and Lazaro Rojas, who are both entering their fourth collegiate seasons and remained focused this offseason on their development. Their experience and talents could be very helpful for a team with an opportunity to once again contend in the MW now with additional frontcourt options.

TALENTED TRANSFERS, FRESHMEN JOIN PROGRAM

By signing now 7-foot-2 center Assane Diouf in late April 2018 as his first commit a few weeks after being hired, Hutson quickly showed that he would be laser-focused on identifying recruits needed to continue to solidify Fresno State for long-term success. Diouf, who redshirted the 2018-19 season, brings size, skill and toughness to instantly enhance the Bulldogs' inside presence.

2019-20 FRESNO STATE MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

There are now even more inter-changeable looks that Hutson can turn to as his group of talented newcomers features two direct Division I transfers – forward Chris Seeley (Utah) and guard Jordan Campbell (Oregon State/ mid-year) – along with freshmen Niven Hart (formerly Niven Glover), Anthony Holland, Jarred Hyder and Orlando Robinson. Hutson also added three additional junior guards in Mustafa Lawrence (Missouri State/ Tallahassee Community College), Alec Hickman (UC Riverside/East Los Angeles College) and C.J. Hyder (Mt. San Jacinto College).

Seeley, a Fresno native out of Central High School, played his freshman year at Utah and saw limited playing time for the Utes, but will give Fresno State a stretch scoring option from the post and a defender capable of guarding multiple positions.

Campbell transferred to Fresno State this past winter after spending the fall semester at Oregon State. Campbell, who is originally from Adelanto, Calif., is a talented guard – known for his scoring ability and defense. The Bulldogs' three true freshmen – Holland, Hyder and Robinson – also have ties to or roots in California and all three signed their National Letter of Intent in the fall during the early signing period.

Holland, a 6-foot-5 guard from Riverside, Calif. (Notre Dame High School), averaged 15.5 points, seven rebounds, two assists and nearly two steals and a block per game during his four-year high school career, which included 1,940 career points in 125 games. As a senior this past season, he contributed an average of 15.8 points, 6.4 rebounds, 2.5 assists, 1.7 steals and 1.7 blocks per game with a 2.1 assist-to-turnover ratio en route to all-state honors.

Meanwhile, Jarred Hyder is another talented Southern California product from San Bernardino, Calif., and gives Fresno State a 6-foot-3 combo guard out of Damien High School and Team Eleate. Hyder decided to play for Hutson primarily over opportunities to play at Washington State and Santa Clara. He is a defensive-minded player, who has excelled on both ends of the floor, and strengthens the Bulldogs' versatile backcourt.

Robinson, who is originally from Las Vegas and prepped at Middlebrooks Academy in Los Angeles, is a 6-foot-10 post player, who can play inside and out. Robinson played for the Las Vegas Knicks, which is the same AAU program that sports Grimes and Agau as an alumni. Robinson chose Fresno State over Boise State, Georgia Tech and Oregon State, along with recruiting interest from other schools across the country, including Arizona State, Boston College, Kansas, Kansas State, Louisville, New Mexico and Wyoming.

Lawrence, who is originally from Newark, N.J., has two seasons of eligibility remaining after playing his freshman season at Missouri State and sophomore season for Tallahassee Community College. At Missouri State, Lawrence played in 22 games, which included starts in the Bears' final nine games of the season. He averaged 4.7 points, 1.1 rebounds and 0.9 assists per game with a 1.5 assist-to-turnover ratio during that freshman campaign. During Missouri Valley play, Lawrence was the fifth-most efficient 3-point shooter by hitting 42.0 percent (21-for-50) of his 3-point field goal attempts. He transferred to TCC for his sophomore season, when he averaged 13.1 points, 2.8 rebounds and 2.2 assists per contest in 29 games. Lawrence prepped at Forest Trail Prep School (2016-17) after a four-year hall of fame high school career at Essex County Vo-Tech School in Newark (2012-16), where he scored more than 1,900 career points as a four-year starter and won three New Jersey state championships. He also was an all-state wide receiver in football.

Hart, a 6-foot-5 shooting guard from Orlando, Fla., prepped at Oak Ridge High School (as Niven Glover), which he helped lead to a quarterfinal appearance in this year's 9A Florida High School Athletic Association (FH-SAA) state tournament and a 19-6 record during his senior campaign. Hart led the Pioneers with 18 points and also had 10 rebounds in the season finale. As a junior, Hart and Oak Ridge won the 2017-18 FHSSA Class 9A state championship by beating previously undefeated Wellington in the final to finish the season with a 30-4 record. Hart, who is widely regarded as one of the nation's best and most explosive dunkers, chose Fresno State over offers from schools across the country, including Georgetown, Georgia, Memphis, Oregon and Wake Forest.

C.J. Hyder (San Bernardino, Calif.), played his first two collegiate seasons at Mt. San Jacinto College in Southern California. In those two campaigns, he averaged 9.5 points, 4.1 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 0.8 steals per contest with a 1.7 assist-to-turnover ratio in 58 games, which included 36 starts. He also made 112 3-pointers for MSJC. As a sophomore, C.J. Hyder recorded 10.6 points, 5.2 rebounds and 2.2 assists in starting all 28 games. He is also the older brother of freshman guard Jarred Hyder.

Hickman, who is a native of Riverside, Calif., and prepped at JSerra Catholic High School, transfers to Fresno State from East Los Angeles College and also played at UC Riverside. As a freshman at UCR, Hickman played in 18 games with six starts and averaged 2.1 points, 1.1 rebounds, 0.4 assists and 0.3 steals per contest with a 4.0 assist-to-turnover ratio in limited playing time during that 2017-18 season. Hickman transferred to ELAC for his sophomore campaign and averaged 11.0 points, 2.9 rebounds and 1.3 assists per game with a 1.1 assist-to-turnover ratio in 29 games, which included 28 starts this past season in 2018-19.

MW ANNOUNCES NATIONAL TV SCHEDULE

Fresno State had 15 of its games selected by the Mountain West's broadcast partners to be featured throughout the 2019-20 season, the league office announced on Sept. 11. Additional broadcast and game announcements will be made in the near future.

As part of the conference broadcast schedule, the Bulldogs will face defending West Coast Conference tournament champion Saint Mary's on Nov. 20 at 8 p.m. PT on ESPNU in Sacramento's Golden 1 Center.

This will be the first contest between the Bulldogs and Gaels since 2008 – a memorable contest that was part of ESPN's 24-hour Hoops Tip Off with then-freshman Paul George throwing down a windmill dunk over a pair of SMC defenders, which helped launch George onto the national radar. This 2019 meeting will serve as the first of potentially five nonconference games (neutral site or road) for the 'Dogs throughout the state of California (outside of the San Joaquin Valley). Fresno State is also scheduled to play true road games against Oregon (Nov. 5), San Diego (Nov. 12), CSUN (Nov. 30), California (Dec. 11) and Cal Poly (Dec. 14).

BULLDOGS' 2019-20 HOME OPENER SET FOR NOV. 10

After opening the season in Eugene, Fresno State will tip off its home slate by hosting the Big South's Winthrop Eagles on Nov. 10 at 2 p.m. PT at the Save Mart Center.

14 of the Bulldogs' 18 league games were selected for the MW primary broadcast schedule (ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN3, CBS Sports Network, AT&T Sports Net and STADIUM), with the other four available via the Mountain West Network. A total of five games will also be broadcast on KAIL-TV.

With the MW Men's Basketball Championship moving up a week, Fresno State will play two conference contests during the first week of December, including its MW home opener. The Bulldogs host the UNLV Runnin' Rebels on Dec. 4 at 7 p.m. PT and hit the road for an early showdown at defending MW champion Utah State on Dec. 7. Fresno State was the only team to beat USU in Logan a season ago.

During the Bulldogs' three-week return to nonconference play, Fresno State will host IUPUI (Dec. 20), San Francisco (Dec. 23) and UC Riverside (Dec. 28). Fresno State will also host CSUSB (Nov. 17) during nonconference action.

The 'Dogs will then battle the San Diego State Aztecs twice in the first 14 days of 2020 with Fresno State traveling to play at SDSU on Jan. 1 and then hosting the Aztecs on Jan. 14 at 8 p.m. PT.

In the MW broadcast schedule release, tip off times were also set for all five of the Bulldogs' Saturday conference home games:

- Jan. 4 – vs. San Jose State (4 p.m. PT)
- Jan. 25 – vs. Boise State (5 p.m. PT)
- Feb. 1 – vs. New Mexico (2 p.m. PT)
- Feb. 15 – vs. Utah State (7 p.m. PT)
- Feb. 29 – vs. Wyoming (4 p.m. PT)

The 2020 Mountain West Men's Basketball Championship begins Wednesday, March 4, and will conclude on Saturday, March 7. The first round will air on the MWN, while the quarterfinal and semifinal games will be broadcast on CBS Sports Network. The 2020 championship game is set for Saturday, March 7, at 2:30 p.m. PT on CBS.

Fresno State is the only program to have earned a first-round bye for the MW Tournament in each of the last five seasons.

BULLDOGS BUILDING TOWARD SEASON

Throughout the nearly first few weeks of fall practice, Fresno State has been focused on getting better every day.

"Our guys are working hard," Fresno State second-year head coach Justin Hutson said. "I couldn't be more proud of how hard our team is working. We do have some talent. We talk about making more pars and fewer triple bogies, and hitting more singles than home runs and strikeouts."

That talent has been on full display, especially when the Bulldogs have gone through five-on-five situations.

Hutson – the 2018-19 Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year – has liked the strides the Bulldog returners and newcomers made during the offseason and now as the team continues to build toward the start of the season.

2019-20 Fresno State men's basketball season tickets and a six-game mini-plan are on sale now by calling 559-278-3647, visiting the Bulldog Ticket Office and online at www.GoBulldogs.com.

SAVE MART CENTER

In its 17th year as the home of the Fresno State men's and women's basketball programs, and also the home of the Bulldogs' volleyball and wrestling programs, the Save Mart Center is recognized around the nation as being one of the finest on-campus collegiate arenas, and was named the No. 2 top collegiate venue by Pollstar in 2015, the leading trade publication for the concert and entertainment industry.

With its size, scope, unique architectural features and video, sound and telecom systems, the Save Mart Center serves as a major provider of entertainment and sporting events in the San Joaquin Valley. Seating capacity for the arena ranges from 15,000 to 18,000 seats, with 15,596 listed as the official number for basketball.

The Save Mart Center is a premier entertainment destination for headline events and tours. Designed by Sink Combs Dethlefs (Denver, Colo.), the Save Mart Center is approximately 450,000 square feet and contains 32 private suites, 1,000 Arena Builder seats (commonly referred to as "club seats"), a club level concourse, team locker rooms and athletics training facilities. The entire facility is approximately 48 acres and located off Shaw Avenue adjacent to Highway 168.

The total project value exceeded $100 million and represented the largest privately funded project in the history of the California State University system. The Save Mart Center was financed through revenue from corporate sponsorships, private gifts, leasing of luxury suites, sale of Arena Builder and personal seat licenses, as well as revenue from advertising and signage agreements.

Next to the Save Mart Center is the West Complex, a $17.6 million, two-story, 92,000-square-foot building which features the Student Recreation Center, the Lyles Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship and the Leon and Pete Peters Educational Research Center.

The Save Mart Center has hosted four major collegiate sporting championships, which most recently came in March 2012 when Fresno State hosted an NCAA women's basketball championship regional for the second time. In March 2004, the facility served as the host site for the McCaffrey Western Athletic Conference Basketball Tournament. The following year, the Save Mart Center was the venue for the first and second rounds of the 2005 NCAA women's basketball championship. In 2007 and 2012, Fresno State was one of four schools that hosted the regional semifinals and championship games for the NCAA women's basketball tournament.

Justin Hutson, one of the West's best recruiters and a veteran of the Mountain West conference, is Fresno State's 19th head men's basketball coach.

Hutson, a native of Bakersfield, Calif., led Fresno State to a 23-9 record during his first season back home in the Valley to earn 2018-19 Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year honors. The national award is presented annually to the top first-time head coach in NCAA Division I college basketball.

During the 2018-19 season, Fresno State ranked ninth nationally in 3-point field goals per game (10.7), 16th in total 3-point field goals and 24th nationally in both 3-point field goal percentage defense (225-735, 30.6 percent) and 3-point field goal percentage offense (342-897, 38.1 percent). The Bulldogs' defense also led the MW in steals (228, 7.1 steals per game) and turnovers forced (13.7 per game). Three Bulldogs earned All-MW honors and senior guard/forward Sam Bittner earned the program's first Academic All-American recognition. Fresno State was also one of two MW teams to go 7-2 on the road in conference play, which tied for the second-most MW road wins by a team in 20 seasons of MW basketball.

Hutson returned to the Valley after serving as a rising Division I assistant coach for 10 seasons at San Diego State (2006-11, '13-18), two seasons at UNLV (2011-13), two seasons at Cal Poly (2004-06) and two seasons at CSU Bakersfield (1998-2000).

During his time at San Diego State, Hutson helped elevate the Aztecs to a national program. In his first five seasons (2006-11), SDSU won three MW titles and earned postseason berths in each of those campaigns. In 2010-11, San Diego State won 20 straight games to begin the season, won the MW regular-season and tournament titles, and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament before finishing with a school-record 34 victories. SDSU ended the year ranked No. 6/11 nationally.

Upon returning to San Diego State, the Aztecs won the MW regular-season championship in 2014 and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA tournament before finishing with a No. 13/12 national ranking. In the last four seasons, which have produced a pair of additional MW regular-season titles, the Aztecs appeared in the third round of the 2015 NCAA tournament, went to the semifinals of the 2016 NIT and won the 2018 MW Tournament to secure a NCAA Tournament first round appearance.

SDSU's defensive numbers also improved to an elite level when he decided to rejoin the Aztec coaching staff. As the defensive coordinator, San Diego State finished in the top 15 nationally in both scoring defense and field-goal percentage defense in his first four seasons back. San Diego State finished second in scoring defense in 2014 and 2015, third in 2016 and 15th in 2017. As far as field-goal percentage defense, the Aztecs were eighth in 2014, seventh in 2015, first in 2016 and eighth in 2017.

In his two years at UNLV, Hutson helped coach the Rebels to a pair of 25-win seasons and two NCAA appearances. He played a key role in helping UNLV bring in a highly regarded incoming class in 2012-13, which included the 2013 No. 1 overall NBA Draft selection, Anthony Bennett, a player Hutson recruited.

In both of his stints on the Montezuma Mesa, Hutson played a pivotal part in SDSU's recruiting efforts as the team's recruiting coordinator. He was the point person in recruiting future All-Americans and NBA Draft picks Kawhi Leonard, Jamaal Franklin and Xavier Thames, while also helping land D.J. Gay, who left SDSU as the school's all-time leader in career wins, and Chase Tapley, who was a four-year starter. More recently, Hutson led the charge in the Aztecs inking Malik Pope and Jeremy Hemsley.

In a poll of Division I coaches conducted by ESPN's Jeff Goodman in the summer of 2013, Hutson was considered the eighth-best recruiting assistant nationally and the best on the West Coast. More recently, ESPN's Adam Finkelstein listed Hutson as a top up-and-coming recruiter (May 2014), while Miles Simon placed him on his west region ultimate coaching staff (May 2014).

Hutson is 24-2 all-time as a Division I head or assistant coach when coaching against one of his former teams.

Hutson also served as the head varsity coach at Bakersfield High where he led the Drillers to a CIF Central Section title and four appearances in the playoffs in four seasons. His 2004 team was ranked as high as No. 22 in the nation and fourth in California, while his 2003 squad finished the season with a 25-5 record and won the section title.

As a collegiate player, Hutson enjoyed a storied career, winning two NCAA Division II championships at CSU Bakersfield. In the 1993 championship season, the Roadrunners were undefeated with a 33-0 record and followed that up with a 27-6 record during the 1994 season.

Hutson, who is married to San Diego State's head women's basketball coach Stacie Terry, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1994 and a teaching credential in 1995 from CSU Bakersfield. He also received his master of arts in education from CSU Bakersfield in 2009.
