QUICK LOOK

- A year after facing BYU on a neutral court in Salt Lake City, Fresno State will travel to Provo, Utah to play the Cougars on their home court at the Marriott Center on Wednesday.
- It will be the Bulldogs' seventh game away from home during the last 29 days. It will be the last road trip for the 'Dogs until Dec. 28.
- In the Mountain West, only San Jose State will have played as many nonconference games away from home as the Bulldogs through Dec. 11 (7). Like the 'Dogs, the Spartans will also have played just three home games during that span.
- Fresno State will play its final two nonconference games at home during the next week-and-a-half (San Diego, Cal Baptist).
- The Bulldogs head into Provo on a four-game skid with its last win coming at Long Beach State on Nov. 23.
- Prior to the Acrisure Holiday Invitational in Palm Desert, Calif., the Bulldogs pulled off the 26th-largest comeback in the final five minutes of a game in Division I history (11) in their win at Long Beach State.
- It was one of seven times the 'Dogs have trailed by double-digits in the final minutes. They have outscored their opponent down the stretch in four of those.
- Fresno State is the only program to have two players rank in the Top 50 nationally in offensive rebounds. Mor Seck (3.25) and Elijah Price (3.22) are 39th and 41st.
- Zoon Collins leads the Bulldogs in points (14.6), assists (3.4), steals (2.4) per game and is third in rebounding (5.0).
- Amar Augillard is second in scoring at 14.4 points per game. He has scored 20-plus points four times.
- Vance Walberg's high-tempo style has the Bulldogs ranked second in the nation in adjusted tempo, averaging 74.7 possessions per 40 minutes.
- Walberg is one of four current Division I head coaches who was a high school head coach the season before taking over their current head coaching position (Penny Hardaway, Bucky McMillan, Stan Waterman).

BY THE NUMBERS

Fresno State is averaging 74.5 possessions per 40 minutes according to Kenpom. The Bulldogs have not averaged more than 70 since the 2001-22 season.

14

At Long Beach State, the Bulldogs finished the game on a 14-0 run. The Bulldogs have four runs this season scoring 11 or more unanswered points (11, 12, 13, 14).

36:16

With so many injuries to the Bulldogs this season, some players have had to take on more minutes. Mykell Robinson ranks 8th in the NCAA, averaging 36:16 minutes on the court.

NOTES

THE COMEBACK

On Nov. 23, shooting below 20% in the first half, and trailing by as much as 17, Fresno State was forced to battle back on the road at Long Beach State. The Bulldogs trailed by 11 with under three minutes left to play. They closed the game on a 14-0 run to win 72-69, scoring on their final seven possessions while turning over LBSU four times.

- It is tied for the 26th-largest comeback in the last 5 minutes (11) in Division I history.
- Fresno State was missing three starters and played the game with only nine available players.

NOT OVER TIL IT'S OVER

Fresno State has had a never say die attitude when facing double-digit second-half deficits. The Bulldogs' have trailed by double digits in the second half in seven games (1-6), but in five of those they have outscored their opponents in the final seven minutes. Three of those games have seen the 'Dogs outscore their opponents by double digits.

- Against UCSB (22-8) and Long Beach State (14-0), Fresno State outscored their opponent by 14 points during the final minutes.
- While the Bulldogs were leading Sacramento State by one with under two minutes to play the 'Dogs closed that game on a 6-0 run.

HITTING RUNS

In nine games, Fresno State has hit stretches of 11 points or more without its opponent scoring in four of them. The Bulldogs are 3-1 in those games.

- Fresno State had a 14-point run at Long Beach State, 13 against CBU, 12 versus Prairie View A&M and 11 against Sacramento State.
- Only once has an opponent scored at least 10 unanswered points.

GETTING UP AND DOWN

Expected coming into the season, Vance Walberg's high tempo style has resulted in the Bulldogs' averaging the second-most possessions per 40 minutes in the country at 74.7. Fresno State is one of only three teams averaging more than 74 along with conference mate New Mexico who is at 74.8.

- During the past four seasons, Fresno State has averaged between 61.8 and 65.8 possessions per 40 minutes.
- Fresno State has not averaged more than 70 possessions per 40 minutes in a season since 2001-02. That season the Bulldogs ranked No. 32 in adjusted tempo at 72.4.

FRENETIC PLAY

Vance Walberg's frenetic, up-tempo style has led to the Bulldogs wreaking havoc on opposing ball handlers. Fresno State is ranked 42nd in the NCAA and third in the Mountain West in turnovers forced at 15.3 per game.

- The tempo and turnovers have aided Fresno State's offense where the 'Dogs are third in the MW in fastbreak points, averaging 13.7 per game.

GET TO THE RACK

A product of Vance Walberg's system is getting to the free-throw line, set up by constant drives to the bucket. The Bulldogs have used that to their advantage, attempting 24.4 free throws per game which ranks 42nd nationally and second in the MW.

- Fresno State has attempted 7.3 more free throws per game than its opponents.
- Against Sacramento State, the 'Dogs were +17 in free throw attempts. At Long Beach State, they held a +40 differential in attempts. Both games resulted in single-digit wins for the Bulldogs as they overcame shooting below 35% from the field.

LIFE ON THE ROAD

During the first 36 days of the season, Fresno State will play just three games at home. That stretch includes a 15-day span in which the Bulldogs will play five of six games away from home, finishing the day before Thanksgiving in Palm Desert, Calif., at the Acrisure Holiday Invitational.

- Beginning on Nov. 13, the Bulldogs will play just two of nine games at the Save Mart Center during a 29-day period. The stretch concludes with a trip to BYU on Dec. 11.

WHEN IT RAINS, IT POURS

Assembling a roster in approximately 100 days, then getting the team ready for a season in another 100 days a tall feat for any coach. Factor in multiple players out due to injuries during the lead up or during the early weeks of the season and it makes the task even more difficult. Currently, six Bulldogs have been unavailable for at least one game this season due to injury, and another will be headed there soon.

- Two of the team's biggest portal additions in the offseason, David Douglas Jr. and Mor Seck, have recently returned from injury. Seck hadn't played in a game since mid-January. Douglas Jr., missed the month of October and it crept into mid-November.
- Due to a knee injury that occurred on Nov. 23, Douglas Jr., will be ruled out for an extended period of time.
- Pierre Geneste Jr., one of two returners to this year's team, will be sidelined for the foreseeable future due to surgery following an injury to his right hand in the days after the season opener.
- Starting point guard Zaon Collins injured his left ankle during the second half at CSU Bakersfield.
- Like Collins, fellow starter Alex Crawford was also sidelined for the Prairie View A&M game.
- Walk-on Rippen Gill suffered a head injury in October and has been sidelined since.
- Jalen Weaver joined the list after being sidelined for the Long Beach State game following an ankle injury in the final minute against Prairie View A&M. Lingering, Weaver also missed the conference opener against San Diego State.
- Not injury-related, but Fresno State will be without four-star freshman Makhan Diouf who will redshirt the 2024-25 season.

Second-Half Closing Runs

Opp.	Deficit	Clock	Run	Result
UCSB	17	4:46	22-8	L (-5)

SCU	24	6:28	20-11	L (-15)

NOTES

TAKING THE REINS

Zaon Collins has been everything the Bulldogs expected. The former Top-50 recruit leads the team in points (14.6), assists (3.4), steals (2.4) per game and is third in rebounding (5.0). Collins has four games with at least 10 points, five rebounds, four assists and two steals.

- Collins has been in double figures in all seven games he's played in, averaging 14.6 points per game.
- He leads the MW in steals per game, swiping 2.43 per game, 31st in the NCAA.

RETURNING TO ACTION

Following a two-game layoff due to an ankle injury, Zaon Collins exploded for a season-high 27 points against Washington State. The point guard shot an efficient 64.7% (11-of-17) while also going 2-of-3 from 3 in 37 minutes.

RUNNING THE SHOW AT BOTH ENDS

In his first Division I game after playing at Salt Lake CC last season, Zaon Collins was the point guard the Bulldogs were looking for during the offseason. The sophomore filled up the stat sheet against Sacramento State with 11 points, seven rebounds, four assists and three steals.

- Two of those steals helped ignite a 17-2 run in the second half.

CRASHING ON OFFENSE

Ranking fourth in the Mountain West in offensive rebounds, top two interior players are pacing the conference in O-boards. 7-foot-1 center Mor Seck is second in the conference at 3.25 per game, 39th in the NCAA. Elijah Price is right behind with 3.22 per game, 41st nationally.

- Fresno State is the only team in the country with two players in the Top 50 in offensive rebounds per game.
- Fresno State is averaging 12.3 second-chance points per game, and has scored at least 20 in two wins.

PRICE IS RIGHT

After redshirting the 2023-24 season at Drake, Elijah Price made the decision to return back to his home state and join Fresno State, and it's quickly paying off for both sides. A Swiss-army knife type of player, the 6-foot-9 Price has grown each game, earning starts in all seven.

- Scoring six points in first two outings, the Long Beach native put his versatility on display in Game 3, recording 11 points, seven rebounds, three blocks, two assists and two steals at CSU Bakersfield. He followed that up with his first double-double with 16 points and 13 rebounds. He earned his second against CBU with 16 points and 15 rebounds.
- Price's 8.6 rebounds per game ranks fourth in the MW and 51st nationally. He has grabbed nine or more in five of his last six games.
- 29 of Price's 77 rebounds have come on the offensive end.

FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

On Nov. 25, Elijah Price was named Mountain West Men's Basketball Freshman of the Week, the conference office announced Monday morning. Price averaged 11.0 points and 11.0 rebounds last week, helping the Bulldogs to a pair of wins over Prairie View A&M and Long Beach State.

- Against Prairie View A&M, Price recorded the first double-double of his career with 16 points and 13 rebounds. Both totals were season highs for the redshirt freshman.
- Price is the first Bulldog to earn MW Freshman of the Week honors since the conference began the weekly award for the 2021-22 season. He is the first Fresno State player to earn a weekly award from the conference since Orlando Robinson on Jan. 17, 2022.

CALLED INTO A NEW ROLE

With Zaon Collins sidelined against Prairie View A&M and Long Beach State, 6-foot-7 forward Mykell Robinson took over a new role as the team's point guard. The redshirt junior thrived in the role, averaging 15.5 points, 8.5 rebounds and 6.5 assists in 37.1 minutes per game and leading the Bulldogs to two wins. He has since been the Bulldogs' secondary ball handler.

- Robinson has been a workhorse for the Bulldogs this season, ranking eighth in the nation in minutes per game (36:12).
- Robinson scored a career-high 20 points on Dec. 4 as he earned his second double-double.

GIVE ME 20

One of the Bulldogs' top scoring threats has been 2024 NJCAA Division I Player of the Year Amar Augillard. Well-known for his scoring prowess, he has four 20 point-performances, going for 20-plus each time he has reached double figures.

- Augillard's 14.4 points per game ranks 13th in the Mountain West.

1 OF 1

Amar Augillard came to Fresno State highly touted as the 2024 Juco National Player of the Year. The Illinois native did not disappoint in his first game in a Bulldog uniform. A slow start at 2-of-7 from the field, Augillard finished with 30 points on 9-of-19 shooting. It was the first 30-point game in a player's debut in Fresno State history.

- Augillard became the 45th player at Fresno State to record a 30-point game.
- Augillard shot 7-of-12, scoring 22 points in 13 minutes in the second half.
- Augillard's 22 second-half points outscored Sacramento State (20).

DOUBLE-DOUBLE TRIO

Through three games, Fresno State hadn't had a player record a double-double. That changed when the team saw three in Game 4 against Prairie View A&M. Fresno State's bigs Mor Seck (18 points, 12 rebounds) and Elijah Price (16 points, 13 rebounds) controlled the interior to get their firsts of the season. Mykell Robinson posted the first of his career with 15 points and 10 rebounds, while narrowly missing a triple-double with eight assists as he split point guard duties.

- Seck's double-double was the third of career, first since March 2, 2023 while with Hawai'i. His 18 points was a career high, besting the 16 he had a game prior to his last double-double.

REDSHIRT NO MORE

Reclassifying to the 2024 class, Brian Amuneke expected to redshirt the 2024-25 season, but due to the Bulldogs injuries early this season, the coaching staff and Amuneke decided to remove the redshirt. The 14th-youngest player on a Division I roster this season, the Los Angeles native made his debut for the 'Dogs on Nov. 20, scoring five points in 14 minutes off the bench, going 2-of-3 from the field.

- Amuneke made his first start on Nov. 23, scoring five points and grabbing five rebounds.
- Amuneke prepped under current Bulldogs' assistant coach Ray Barefield at Rancho Christian School where he was the Ivy League Player of the Year during his senior season.

A DAY HE'LL NEVER FORGET

For 216 days Vance Walberg was working and waiting. After being hired as Fresno State's 20th head men's basketball coach on April 6, it was nothing but work until Nov. 8. The work paid off as Walberg earned his first win with the Bulldogs in his first game, a 64-57 defeat of Sacramento State at the Save Mart Center.

THE PIECES

Following Fresno State's coaching change last spring, two players graduated while another 12 left the program for various reasons. That left just two players still a part of the program--Jalen Weaver who was a rotation player for the 'Dogs during the 2023-24 season and Pierre Geneste Jr. who was working his way back from a prior injury. That left Vance Walberg 14 spots to fill.

- Walberg brought in three players from D-I programs in David "DJ" Douglas Jr. (Green Bay), Elijah Price (Drake), Mor Seck (Hawaii). Only Douglas Jr. and Seck played last year.
- Four players were brought in from the junior college ranks in Amar Augillard (Triton College), Zaon Collins (Salt Lake CC), Alex Crawford (San Diego City College) and Jasir Tremble (Prince George's CC). Augillard and Crawford were both at D-I programs prior to their junior colleges.
- Enrolled at Fresno State during the 2023-24 academic year, Mykell Robinson was brought onto roster after coming to the Central Valley during the summer of 2023. He was previously at Ranger College.
- The final pieces were six true freshmen--Brian Amuneke, Joshua Bonga, Makhan Diouf, Rippen Gill, Troy Jenkins, Pasha Shemirani.

WHO ARE YOU?

Fresno State will have 14 new faces on its roster when it opens the 2024-25 season. Only five programs will have more newcomers to its roster this season.

- 10 Division I programs enter the season with 14 or more newcomers.
- Four programs (Cal, IU Indy, Louisville, U- Martin) will have a completely new roster after having to fill 16 roster spots.

WOVEN INTO THE THREADS OF THE SYSTEM

Last spring, like his teammates from last year's squad, Jalen Weaver had a decision to make. Already having been in the portal the past two offseasons, the question was whether or not he wanted to put his name in a third time. When Vance Walberg was named the program's head coach, it was the perfect fit for Weaver. His set of tools and athleticism was the perfect fit for Walberg's high-octane offense.

Last season, Weaver averaged 7.4 points and 2.4 rebounds in 21.4 minutes per game.

- Weaver saved his best for the end of the season with four straight double-figure games, averaging 12.8 points during that stretch. He finished his season with a career highs of 19 points and eight rebounds against No. 18 Utah State.

A LACK OF RETURNING PRODUCTION

With just two players returning to Fresno State's roster from the 2023-24 season, the Bulldogs rank among the top in the country in fewest returning production.

- Fresno State ranks 20th in least amount of scoring returning at 11.2%.
- Fresno State ranks 14th in least number of rebounds returning at 8.8%.
- Fresno State ranks 17th in least minutes returning at 11.6%.
- Five programs return zero minutes played (DePaul, IU Indy, Iona, Kentucky and Louisville).

DIVISION I EXPERIENCE

Of the 16 players on the Bulldogs' 2024-25 roster, only four (David Douglas Jr., Pierre Geneste Jr., Mor Seck and Jalen Weaver) played minutes at the D-I level last season. Three others (Amar Augillard, Alex Crawford, Mykell Robinson) have previous D-I minutes.

- Only three players, Jalen Weaver, David Douglas Jr. and Mor Seck have totaled more between 500-800 D-I minutes in their careers.

TWO "OF THE YEAR" HONOREES JOIN PROGRAM

Last spring, two of Fresno State's biggest recruiting pickups came in the form of players who won postseason "of the year" awards. The first was Amar Augillard of Triton College, the 2024 NJCAA DI Player of the Year. The second was David "DJ" Douglas Jr. of Green Bay, the Horizon Freshman of the Year.

- Augillard averaged 22.7 points per game in 2023-24 and ranked No. 2 in the nation in total points (841), field goals made (296) and 3-point field goals made (122) as he led Triton to the DI national championship game.

- Douglas Jr. was Green Bay's No. 2 scorer at 8.5 points per game, the most of any freshman in the Horizon League. He helped the Phoenix to a 15-game turnaround, the ninth best in NCAA Division I history.
- Both players are from the suburbs of Chicago with Augillard from Zion and Douglas Jr. from Park Forest.

BACK IN COLLEGE

On Friday night, Vance Walberg will make his return to college basketball after more than 10 years away. But this time he will be making a dream a reality, a job he has coveted for two decades.

- Walberg spent four seasons as the head coach at Fresno City College (2002-06), a season-and-a-half as the head coach at Pepperdine (2006-08) and three seasons as an assistant at UMass (2008-11).

FROM HIGH SCHOOL TO DIVISION I

While Vance Walberg has an extensive resume coaching at all levels of basketball, making the move from high school to Division I isn't a common occurrence. Of all current Division-I head coaches, there are just four who were a high school coach the year before becoming the head coach at their current program.

- Along with Walberg (Clovis West HS (Calif.)/Fresno State), the list includes Penny Hardaway (East HS (Tenn.)/Memphis), Bucky McMillan (Mountain Brook HS (Ala.)/Samford) and Stan Waterman (Sanford School (Del.)/Delaware State).

THE LYNCHPIN

A big piece of Vance Walberg taking over at Fresno State had to do with long-time friend and associate John Welch. When the long-time NBA assistant and former Bulldog assistant under Jerry Tarkanian agreed, Walberg was all-in on vying for Fresno State's head coaching position.

- After nearly two decades as an assistant in the NBA, Welch joined John Calipari at Kentucky for the 2023-24 season where he was integral in the development and implementation of individual on-court training. Kentucky's offense ranked as one of the best in the nation, finishing first in 3-point percentage (40.9%), second in scoring offense (89.0 PPG), fourth in fastbreak points (15.4 PPG) and sixth in field goal percentage (49.5%).
- During his tenure in the NBA, Welch was a part of a staff that advanced to the NBA Playoffs 15 times, including a stretch of 12 consecutive seasons.

THE PROCESS

A gutted roster is nothing new Vance Walberg. For two seasons, he was an assistant coach with the Philadelphia 76ers alongside head coach Brett Brown during the early years of the "The Process" as the franchise chose to gut its roster and build for the future through the draft.

- Walberg witnessed what was then tied for the longest losing streak in NBA history at 26 games, and was with the franchise for part of its NBA record 28-game losing streak that stretched over two seasons.

VALLEY ROOTS RUN DEEP

When Vance Walberg was named the Bulldogs' head coach, he emphasized the community, doing things for the Central Valley because Fresno State is the Central Valley's team. That message resonates with not just Walberg, but within his staff. Of the program's six coaches, five from or have previously lived in the Central Valley.

- Walberg has spent more than 20 years coaching in the Valley at Clovis West HS and Fresno City College.
- John Welch was a part of Jerry Tarkanian's staff at Fresno State from 1995-2002.
- Ray Barefield grew up in Fresno and prepped down the street from campus at Hoover HS, graduating in 1989. He is in the school's Hall of Fame.
- Chris Stahowski played for and coached alongside Walberg. He also graduated from Fresno State in 2007.
- Stamps grew up in Fresno and played at Central HS, graduating in 2012.

THE INNOVATOR

In 1997, Vance Walberg developed an offense at Clovis West HS which he called AASAA, "Attack-Attack-Skip-Attack-Attack." It's more commonly today referenced as the dribble drive motion. A four-out offense, Walberg's motion relies on players driving toward the basket and making decisions rather than the reliance of screens and cuts. Current Arkansas head coach John Calipari once referred to the system as "Princeton on steroids."

- In October of 2003, Walberg, who was at Fresno City College at the time, taught his offense to Calipari. Then at Memphis, Calipari implemented the offense for the 2005-06 season and made three straight Elite 8 appearances and the national title game in 2008. In four seasons of running the "Memphis Attack," his teams won 137 games.
- In 2012, Calipari used the system at Kentucky to win the program's first national title since 1998.

University President Saúl Jiménez-Sandoval named Vance Walberg as the 20th head men's basketball coach at Fresno State on Saturday, April 6. Well-known in the basketball world for innovating the dribble drive motion offense, Walberg has extensive experience at every level of basketball, including the NBA, college, junior college and high school during his 40-plus year coaching career.

"Vance Walberg has an impressive, winning record in our Valley and comes with deep community ties that will enhance our men's basketball program and our student-athletes," Jiménez-Sandoval said. "With his decades-long track record as an authority in the field, his passion for Fresno State and his drive for excellence, Coach Walberg will take our men's basketball program to new heights. I am very pleased that a Valley native will lead us to higher levels of greatness."

Walberg comes to Fresno State following his second stint as the head coach at Clovis West High School, where he has been since 2016 after spending four seasons as an NBA assistant coach. In 21 seasons at Clovis West High, from 1990-2002 and 2017-24, he has amassed a record of 559-104 with the Golden Eagles.

He was with the Sacramento Kings from 2015-16, following stints with the Philadelphia 76ers (2013-15) and Denver Nuggets (2012-13). Prior to that, Walberg spent two seasons as the head coach at Pepperdine University (2006-08) and three seasons as an assistant at University of Massachusetts (2008-11).

The principles of his dribble drive motion offense are used by some of the nation's top NBA and college coaches, including those at Kentucky and Alabama. Walberg looks forward to delivering an exciting, high-octane brand of basketball to the Save Mart Center for the Red Wave as the Bulldogs' new head coach.

"I am thrilled to embark on this journey with Fresno State as the new head men's basketball coach," Walberg said. "I am grateful to both Fresno State and President Jiménez-Sandoval for entrusting me with this incredible opportunity. I am committed to not only fostering a winning culture on the court but also to galvanizing the community around our program while supporting our student-athletes so they can thrive academically and athletically."

He has an overall prep record of 697-195 that includes 16 league titles and 10 section championships in 20-plus years as a high school coach in California (Mountain View High, Los Altos High, Newark Memorial High and Clovis West High) prior to entering the college ranks.

At Clovis West, he earned conference coach of the year honors nine times, section coach of the year on six occasions and was tabbed the California and West Region (Section 7) Coach of the Year in 1999, and was the Cal-Hi State Coach of the Year in 2001.

In four years at Fresno City College (2003-06), he compiled a 133-11 record, including a 34-0 record in 2005 when he led the Rams to the California State Community College championship. It was just the third team in California community college history, and first in 35 years, to go undefeated.

His Fresno City College teams won four straight Central Valley Conference titles, made four consecutive trips to the Northern California Playoffs, advanced to the state's Final Four three times and appeared in the title game in 2003 and 2005. Walberg was twice named California Community College Coach of the Year (2003 and 2005) and was tabbed the CVC Coach of the Year in each of his four seasons.

Walberg, a 1978 graduate of Cal State Bakersfield, played two seasons with the Roadrunners and was twice named the school's Defensive Player of the Year. He served as team captain his senior year. Prior to that he helped De Anza Community College to back-to-back conference championships.

Walberg earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from CSUB, a teaching credential from the College of Belmont in 1979 and a master's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Saint Mary's College in 1986.

What Others Are Saying

John Calipari, Arkansas Men's Head Basketball Coach

"Vance Walberg is one of the most talented coaches in our country who has been ahead of the trends. His style of play will help get recruits and be appealing to the fans. He is a gatherer who will bring people together for a common cause – Fresno State basketball."

Nate Oates, Alabama Men's Head Basketball Coach

"Fresno State made a fantastic hire in Vance Walberg. Knowing Vance for almost 20 years, he will bring an exciting brand of basketball to Fresno State. I learned a lot of our offensive spacing concepts from him and have stayed in touch with him throughout my years as a head coach. Vance and his family will have a positive impact on the community and the university."

George Karl, NBA Hall of Fame Coach

"Vance Walberg's basketball knowledge is second to none, surpassing nearly everyone I've encountered in the game. With Walberg's four decades of experience at every level of basketball, Fresno State hit the jackpot. He will bring fresh ideas and genuine focus on the players, which is bound to bring contagious energy to Fresno State basketball that fans will love."
