Located in Ypsilanti, Mich., Eastern Michigan is the alma mater of NBA Hall of Famer George Gervin, two-time Cy Young Award winning pitcher Bob Welch, Boston College assistant coach Stan Heath, and former Detroit Lions and Pittsburgh Steelers quarterback Charlie Batch.

Ypsilanti is the hometown of UofL sophomore forward Jaylen Johnson, who was a first-team all-state selection and finalist for Michigan's Mr. Basketball as a senior.

■ Lewis A Good Works Team

Nominee -- UofL guard Trey Lewis is among a group of 154 nominees for the 2016 Allstate National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) Good Works Team®. The distinguished award shines a spotlight on a select group of student-athletes who have shown dedication to service in their communities.

Former UofL guard Peyton Siva received recognition on the Allstate NABC Good Works team as a senior in 2013.

A graduate transfer from Cleveland, Lewis has a passion for community service and doing his best to make an impact off the court. Whether if it is talking to local schools, church groups, summer camps, participating in health education, or visiting those who have suffered traumatic accidents, Lewis invests significant personal time to connect with each individual.

Among the specific projects in which Lewis has participated is Special Spectators, which provides kids suffering from serious illnesses with the chance to have a VIP Game Day. As a portion of the day, Trey gave four VIC (Very Important Cardinals) a look into the basketball facility and left a surprise in his locker for the kids to find.

Lewis has played a key role helping with the success of the inaugural year for Louie's Fit Friends. The Louie's Fit Friends program strives to foster the interests of elementary aged students in team sports and physical activity by using UofL student-athletes as local role models to demonstrate how easy and fun participating in team sports and exercise can be. The program started with seven schools, and Trey has been a significant factor in reaching out to young students and educating them on the importance of staying healthy and being active.

In its fourth year, the Allstate NABC Good Works Teams recognizes players at all levels of college basketball who have made outstanding contributions in the areas of volunteerism and civic involvement.

The 154 NABC nominees were submitted by sports information directors and college basketball coaches across the country. The final roster of 10 award recipients will be unveiled in February.

Members of the Allstate NABC Good Works Team® will be invited by Allstate, an official corporate partner of the NCAA, to the 2016 NABC Convention and 2016 NCAA Men's Final Four® in Houston, where they will participate in a community service project benefitting the city.

More information about the Allstate NABC Good Works Team® is available at www.nabc.org.

Pitino's son, Richard Pitino, added his name in April 2012 when he was named head coach at FIU and is now at Minnesota. There are 11 additional former assistants as current head coaches to bring the total to 11 active, including Mick Cronin at Cincinnati; Scott Davenport at Bellarmine; Billy Donovan at Florida; Kevin Keatts at UNC Wilmington; Steve Masiello at Manhattan; Marvin Menzies at New Mexico State; Kareem Richardson at Missouri-Kansas City; Reggie Theus at Cal State Northridge; Kevin Willard at Seton Hall; and Tubby Smith at Texas Tech. ■ Cards Sign Impressive Duo — Louisville signed a pair of outstanding high school products in November including V.J. King, a 6-7, 180-pound guard/forward from Paul VI Catholic High School in Fairfax, Va.; and Frankie Hughes, a 6-3, 170-pound guard from Garfield Heights (Ohio) High School.

King averaged 18.5 points, 12.3 rebounds and 4.2 assists as a junior last season in helping Paul VI to a 20-15 record. A first-team all-state, all-area and all-conference selection as a junior, King is ranked No. 21 nationally by Scout.com, 24th by Rivals.com, 25th by 247Sports.com and is No. 27 in the ESPN 100.

Originally from North Carolina, King moved to Akron, Ohio, where he played at St. Vincent-St. Mary -- the alma mater of LeBron James -- through his sophomore season before transferring. He averaged 16.2 points as a sophomore in helping SVSM to a 19-10 record and 2013 Ohio Division II State Tournament semifinals.

King has won two gold medals as a member of two USA Basketball team in the 2013 FIBA Americas U16 Championship in Maldonado, Uruguay, averaging 8.2 points and 5.2 rebounds; and the 2014 FIBA U17 World Championship in Dubai, United Arab Emirates where he averaged 6.7 points and 2.9 rebounds. Hughes averaged 17 points, 5.8 rebounds and 5.1 assists as a junior last season in leading Garfield Heights to a 24-4 record and the Ohio Division I semifinals, only the third time the school had advanced to that level in the state tournament. He signed with the Cardinals on Nov. 11 on his 18th birthday.

Current Louisville guard Trey Lewis also played at Garfield Heights, leading his team to the state semifinals during his senior year in 2011. ■ Black Ice Uniforms -- Louisville wore special "Black Ice" adidas uniforms for its Nov. 28 game against Saint Louis. Worn by 11 college basketball teams this season, the Iced Out uniform's reflective finish illuminates when hit with a camera flash for a bold look. The monochrome black and white uniforms feature a diamond pattern inspired by basketball nets along the sides of the jersey and shorts. Enlarged team logos are displayed on the shorts and the warm-ups include a new short sleeved hoodie finished with the same reflective fabric and basketball net print. To give players optimum performance on the court, the uniforms feature the same lightweight, sweat-wicking technology used in the NBA. Targeted ventilation zones on the chest, back and side keep players cool even in the most intense moments of the game. A mid-hole mesh on the short maximizes comfort and breathability as the game heats up.

■ Cardinal Spurts — In its seven games this season, Louisville has produced 17 runs of 8-0 or better, including separate runs of 14-0, 14-0 and 9-0 in its last game vs. Grand Canyon. UofL had a season-best 21-0 run vs. Hartford on Nov. 17. Louisville has forced its opponents into 25 scoring droughts of three minutes or more, including three separate scoring droughts of 4:38, 3:45 and 3:20 against Grand Canyon. The Cards had a season-best 9:24 period of scoreless defense vs. Hartford.

■ International Flavor — Louisville has an international flavor with four players on its roster hailing from foreign countries. Mangok Mathiang was born in Sudan, Africa and lived in Melbourne, Australia where he also played rugby and Australian Rules Football before coming to the United States. He played a season at Carbondale (Ill.) Brehm Prep School before signing with the Cardinals. Deng Adel followed a similar path as he was born in the Sudan, grew up in Australia and spent his senior year of high school in Florida. From Cairo, Egypt, Anas Mahmoud played a year at West Oaks Academy in Orlando, Florida before joining the Cards. He speaks four languages. Matz Stockman, from Oslo, Norway, attended school in Spain's Canary Islands during the 2013-14 season before his trek to the U.S.

■ Redshirt Planned for McMahon -- A redshirt season is planned for freshman guard Ryan McMahon. The 2015 Florida Class 3A Player of the Year, McMahon averaged 26.4 points, 3.3 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 2.5 steals last season in leading Cardinal Mooney to a 26-4 record and the state final four for the first time in school history. He had been considered a candidate for a redshirt year to allow for physical development when he initially signed with Louisville.

■ Ear It Pronunciations -- Trouble with pronunciations? Check out the Ear It pronunciations for the Cardinals' players from the men's basketball roster on www.GoCards.com. The links next to player names on the roster are supplied by TheNameEngine.com, an interactive audio service that provides proper audio pronunciations and phonetic spellings.

■ Bench Production -- Louisville's depth has been evident through the Cardinals' first seven games this season, with UofL averaging 29.0 points off the bench. Last season, Louisville averaged just 9.9 points off the bench and had four games in which the bench was scoreless. Entering last year, it had been since Dec. 5, 2000 vs. Georgetown when the Cards' bench had last finished with zero points. UofL's bench scored 44 points vs. Grand Canyon, including Donovan Mitchell's 13.

■ Cards Are Light on Returning Experience -- Louisville has just two players on its roster -- junior center Mangok Mathiang and walk-on junior guard David Levitch -- that have played with the Cardinals more than a year. The Cards return just 17 percent of their scoring and a quarter of their assists from last season's 27-9 NCAA Elite Eight team. It is the lowest percentage of scoring returning for Louisville since 1972-73 when UofL was without a returning starter from its 1972 Final Four team and returned just 9.7 percent of its scoring (254 of 2,614). Quentin Snider's 146 points in 2014-15 ranks him as UofL's top returning scorer, which is the lowest figure for a UofL top returning scorer since 1972-73 (Bill Bunton, 121 points).

Louisville was one of 21 schools with both its men's and women's basketball teams in the 2015 NCAA Tournament and the Cardinals were one of six schools with both its teams seeded four or above (Louisville women 3 seed, men 4).

Louisville was one of two schools in the nation with both its men's and women's teams ranked among the nation's top 10 teams in the final 2014-15 USA Today coaches poll (UofL men #10, women #10), joining Notre Dame with that distinction.

■ Toy Collection Dec. 19 — New toys will be collected and subsequently donated to Kosair Children's Hospital at the Cardinals' Dec. 19 men's basketball game against Western Kentucky. New toys for any age or gender will be collected in the lobby of the KFC Yum! Center. The collection is associated with UofL Athletics' CardsCARE program and Kyle's Korner for Kids, the community outreach established in 2011 by former Cards' forward Kyle Kuric while a UofL student. About 2,000 toys have been donated annually by Cardinal fans at similar collections in previous years. Kuric, who has been playing basketball for Herbalife Gran Canaria in Spain for the past two seasons, is currently recovering from brain surgery. He helped the Cardinals reach the 2012 Final Four as a senior.

■ Three With 360 — Louisville is the only NCAA Division I men's basketball program to have three different coaches with at least 360 victories at the school. Current Cards' Coach Rick Pitino has won 374 games in his 15th season at UofL, his predecessor Denny Crum won 675 games in 30 years (1971-2001) and Bernard "Peck" Hickman won 443 in his 23 years guiding the Cardinals (1944-67). Kansas can join that list when Bill Self wins his 360th game at Kansas (358) as Phog Allen (590) and Roy Williams (418) have at least 360 wins there (through Dec. 5).

■ Cards Among Nation's Best in Pitino Era — Louisville is among 17 programs in the nation that have won at least 70 percent of its games over the last 14 years. Louisville has a .747 winning percentage since U of L Coach Rick Pitino took over the reins of the Cardinal program, eighth best in the nation.

■ Impressive Academic Performance -- While the University of Louisville men's basketball team has performed well on the court, the Cardinals have excelled in the classroom as well. The team produced a collective 3.26 grade point average for 2014-15, just below its record 3.40 GPA from the previous season. Louisville has received an NCAA Public Recognition Award in 2013 and 2014 for ranking among the top 10 percent in men's basketball in the Academic Progress Rate, which measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation for student-athletes. The Cardinals had a perfect 1000 APR in the most recent four-year period, all while winning a combined 121 games — the second-most in the nation in that stretch — and the Cardinals won the 2013 NCAA Championship and reached the 2012 Final Four.

A total of 15 of 16 Cardinals earned a 3.0 or better for the 2014 fall semester, including seven with a 3.4 or above. The men's basketball team has been around a collective 3.0 GPA for 14 consecutive semesters. Louisville placed a league-high seven individuals on the 21-member 2015 ACC All-Academic Team. Prior to entering the ACC, UofL's men's basketball team earned its league's last four Team Academic Excellence Awards, which recognized the highest collective grade-point averages in each of the 23 conference sports (2014 American Athletic Conference, 2011-13 Big East).

■ Challenging Schedule — Three participants from the 2015 NCAA Final Four are among a challenging schedule that UofL will face this season. Louisville has played a schedule ranked among the top 16 toughest by the ratings percent index (RPI) in seven of the last eight seasons. Sixteen of the Cards' 31 games will be played against teams that participated in post-season competition last season, including 10 from the 2015 NCAA Tournament. Nineteen of the Cardinals' games will be played against teams that won at least 17 games last season. UofL's schedule is No. 22 in the RPI.

Eleven of Louisville's 31 games this season will be against teams that were ranked among the nation's top 25 or were receiving votes in the preseason USA Today coaches poll, including six games among teams in the top six (1 North Carolina, 1 Kentucky, 4 Duke twice, 6 Virginia twice, 13 Michigan State, 18 Notre Dame; receiving votes: NC State, Florida State, Miami). Four of the top 20 teams in the preseason poll hail from the ACC, with four more among those receiving votes (including Louisville). The two teams that shared the preseason top ranking are among the Cardinals' foes.

■ Anniversary Year for Two Championship teams — The 2015-16 season marks notable anniversaries for two of Louisville's national championship teams. It is the 30th anniversary for UofL's 1986 NCAA Championship team (32-7 record), which was guided by future Hall of Fame Coach Denny Crum and featured four starters that currently rank among the top 11 scorers all-time at UofL: Pervis Ellison (2,143 career points), Milt Wagner (1,836), Herbert Crook (1,723) and Billy Thompson (1,685); starting guard Jeff Hall was also a career 1,000-point scorer (1,294). Louisville defeated Duke 72-69 in the 1986 title game and Ellison became the second freshman in NCAA history to be named the Most Outstanding Player after producing 25 points and 11 rebounds against the Blue Devils. This season also marks the 60th anniversary of the Cardinals' 1956 National Invitation Tournament title. The 1956 NIT Champions, which UofL Coach Peck Hickman had directed to a No. 6 national ranking entering the tournament, beat third-ranked Dayton 93-80 in the title game to cap a 26-3 season. Former U of L All-America Charlie Tyra was honored as the Most Valuable Player of the 1956 NIT, scoring 29 points against St. Joseph's in the national semifinal.

■ Non-Conference Success -- Louisville has a 185-43 record (.811) against non-conference opponents in Coach Rick Pitino's 15 seasons (includes post-season). The Cardinals are 126-10 at home in regular season non-conference games under Pitino, including a 51-3 mark over the last six seasons in the KFC Yum! Center.

■ Pitino Fifth in Wins Through 31 Seasons -- UofL Coach Rick Pitino is fifth in most career coaching victories through 31 seasons. Pitino needs one victory to add to his 728 current total to tie him for fourth on the list with Jerry Tarkanian (Long Beach State, UNLV, Fresno State).

■ Two Cards in International Competition -- Two UofL players competed in international events during the summer. Sophomore forward/center Chinanu Onuaku won a gold medal as a member of the 2015 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Championship Team, while junior center Mangok Mathiang competed with Australia in the 2015 World University Games.

In seven games during the event played June 27-July 5 in Heraklion, Crete, Greece, Onuaku started six games and averaged 4.6 points, 5.0 rebounds, hit 13-of-20 field goals (.650) and added 10 steals and a team-high 12 blocked shots while averaging 16 minutes a game for the deep USA squad, coached by Arizona's Sean Miller. Onuaku's 1.7 blocked shots were the sixth-most in the 16-team event.

Onuaku totaled six points, eight rebounds and a team-high four blocked shots in 28 minutes in the USA's 79-71 overtime victory over Croatia, claiming its second straight U19 World Championship, the first USA back-to-back titles in the event since 1983. Former UofL forward Montrezl Harrell was a member of the 2013 gold medal winning team.

Mathiang led the 23-team World University Games in rebounding and finished tied for eighth in scoring, producing five double-doubles. He started all eight games for Australia, averaging 13.5 points and 10.3 rebounds while shooting 56.1 percent from the field (46-of-82, fourth-best in the event) and adding seven blocked shots. His top scoring effort was 23 points against Chinese Taipei and his best rebounding game was 17 against the home nation Korea. The USA won the gold medal.

Australia (5-3) finished 10th in the event played in Gwangju, South Korea July 4-13. Mathiang was born in Sudan, Africa, but lived in Melbourne, Australia before moving to the United States in 2010 to attend prep school.

Former Cardinal Luke Hancock had been the last UofL player to participate in the World University Games, finishing ninth with the USA squad in the 2013 games played in Kazan, Russia.

In addition to the players, UofL's Rick Pitino coached the Puerto Rico National Team in the summer of 2015 in three international competitions. He guided an injury depleted Puerto Rico team to a fifth-place finish in the 2015 FIBA Americas tournament, keeping hopes alive for Olympic qualification.

The participation by both players, as well as Pitino's coaching stint with the Puerto Rico national team, were also part of the ACC Worldwide initiative that seeks to further the conference's member institutions internationally through promotion, marketing and athletic competition.

■ Cardinals Visited Puerto Rico -- The Cardinals gained valuable experience with its 10 days of practice and series of seven games over five days against the Puerto Rico National Team and Junior Team during their Aug. 10-17 visit to Puerto Rico. The competition coincided with UofL Coach Rick Pitino's decision to serve as the head coach of the Puerto Rico basketball team in two international events this summer. The opportunity to face off against the Puerto Rican teams was among the top reasons that Pitino took the position. UofL attained a waiver to allow the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, a United States territory, to serve as the destination for the team's foreign trip as Pitino was serving as head coach of the Puerto Rico National Team.

Louisville recently visited Puerto Rico for the 2014 Armed Forces Classic, facing Minnesota in Aguadilla, Puerto Rico for the opening game last season in a hangar at the Coast Guard's US Air Station Borinquen.

■ Two NBA Draft Picks -- A pair of UofL underclassmen were selected in the 2015 NBA Draft as guard Terry Rozier was selected in the first round by the Boston Celtics as the 16th overall pick, while forward Montrezl Harrell was taken in the second round by the Houston Rockets as the 32nd selection. Rozier left UofL following his sophomore year while Harrell played three seasons with the Cardinals.

A total of 68 former Louisville players have been selected in the NBA Draft, including five in the last three years. Currently with the Memphis Grizzlies, Russ Smith was selected by the Philadelphia 76ers in the second round of the 2014 NBA Draft with the 47th overall pick, and was subsequently traded to the New Orleans Pelicans. Gorgui Dieng was a first-round selection and the 21st overall pick by the Utah Jazz in 2013, with his rights subsequently traded to the Minnesota Timberwolves, where he has played the last two seasons. Peyton Siva was a second round choice of the Detroit Pistons in 2013 with the 56th pick overall.

Louisville has produced 22 first-round NBA Draft choices, including 11 in the top ten and five among the top three picks (Pervis Ellison first in 1989; Wes Unseld second in 1968; Darrell Griffith second in 1980; Charlie Tyra second in 1957; Rodney McCray third in 1983).

10 Things About Louisville Basketball

■ 1. Louisville's 129 victories over the last five years are the second-most wins in the nation in that stretch (Kentucky leads with 133 through Dec. 5).

■ 3. Louisville reached the NCAA Sweet 16 for a school-record fourth straight time in 2015 (tied for the most in the nation) and the 21st occasion in school history. Michigan State is the only other school that has reached each of the last four Sweet 16s. The Cardinals have been to the Elite Eight in five of the last eight years.

■ 4. Louisville Coach Rick Pitino reached his 700th collegiate coaching win in 2014. He is one of five active collegiate coaches in the Basketball Hall of Fame, four of which are in the ACC.

■ 7. Louisville is one of just four schools which have won 20 or more games in each of the last 13 seasons. Louisville has won at least 19 games in 41 of the last 45 years.

■ 8. While also winning on the court, Louisville has earned its last four consecutive conference top team academic excellence awards. The Cardinals have a perfect Academic Progress Rate score for the most recent four-year period (2009-13). The team posted a record 3.40 grade point average collectively for the 2013-14 academic year and had a collective 326 mark in 2014-15.

■ 9. Louisville has won 10 of its last 11 conference tournament games, claiming three of its last four conference tournament championships. Six of the last 13 NCAA Championships have been won by current ACC schools, including the Cardinals' 2013 title.

■ 10. Louisville has a 60-33 record in road games over the last 10 years (.645) and has a 32-6 record in neutral site games over the past five seasons (.842).

■ Cards Have Been Tough on the Road — UofL has a 60-33 record over the last 10 years on its opponent's home court (.652). Louisville had the most road victories of any school in Big East Conference games over its last seven years in that league and was a league-best 8-1 in its road games in The American during the 2013-14 season. UofL posted a 6-3 road record in its first year in the ACC, fourth-best in the league. The Cardinals have a 52-28 record in conference games on the road over the last nine seasons (.650). In neutral site games, Louisville has a 32-6 record over the last five years (.842) and a 42-13 neutral site record over the last eight years (.763).

In conference games overall, Louisville had the most Big East Conference victories over its eight years in that league during the regular season (from 2005 to 2013). Louisville had a 95-45 Big East record in league victories during the regular season, just ahead of Syracuse and Pittsburgh (both at 92-48). Louisville finished fourth in its first year in the ACC with a 12-6 league record.

■ Cards Will Host 2016 NCAA Regional — The University of Louisville will serve as the host institution for the South Regional of the 2016 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship to be played March 24 and 26, 2016 at the KFC Yum! Center. It is the first time in which Louisville has served as the site for an NCAA Regional since 1987, when a Rick Pitino coached Providence squad beat Georgetown in the Southeast Regional Championship in Louisville's Freedom Hall to move on to the Final Four. UofL and the KFC Yum! Center also served as host for the Second and Third Rounds of the 2015 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship on March 19 and 21, 2015 at the KFC Yum! Center.

■ Mitchell's Effort Among Top Freshmen Starts — Freshman guard Donovan Mitchell got off to a great start against Samford in the Cardinals' opener. He is one of just 10 players in Louisville history to score as many as 14 points in a freshman career debut, tying for eighth on that list with 14 off the bench, hitting all four of his field goals, his lone three-pointer and 5-of-6 free throws. He added three steals, three rebounds, and an assist without a turnover -- all in just 17 minutes. His individual scoring high at Brewster Academy last season was 29 points against St. Thomas More.

■ Louisville Top College Basketball Market -- Louisville is consistently the highest-rated television market for college basketball on ESPN. Louisville has been the top market each of the last 13 years, averaging a 5.9 rating for the 2014-15 season. Louisville was nearly three points higher than second-place Greensboro, which averaged a 3.0 rating. The remaining top 10 was Raleigh-Durham (2.7), Kansas City (2.4), Columbus (2.1), Cincinnati (1.9), Dayton (1.9) Indianapolis (1.8), Charlotte (1.8) and Memphis (1.8). The Cardinals' NCAA Sweet 16 game against Kentucky in 2014 drew a 51.5 rating and 73 share, making it the second highest-rated event in Louisville television history. Louisville's 2013 NCAA Championship game against Michigan is the top-rated television event all-time in the Louisville market.

■ Sixth Season in KFC Yum! Center -- This is Louisville's sixth season in the spectacular KFC Yum! Center, located on the banks of the Ohio River in downtown Louisville. The Cardinals had previously played basketball for 54 years in Freedom Hall (1956-2010). The 22,000-seat multi-purpose arena was built at a cost of $238 million and includes 71 luxury suites, 62 four- or six-seat premium boxes, over 2,000 side-court club seats and four party suites with a seating capacity of 32 each.

UofL's men's and women's teams have permanent locker rooms. There are five additional team locker rooms, two officials locker rooms, five star dressing rooms, a full-function media work room and a full-sized basketball practice court on the event level. The seven levels of the arena (including the upper catwalk) include a collective 721,762 square feet, or roughly the area of 13 football fields.

After passing through the one and a half acre landscaped entry plaza that features a basketball-themed fountain, entering fans can visit the 2,500-square foot U of L adidas store, the 3,000-square foot U of L Hall of Honor, or head to their seats using one of the eight escalators or seven elevators within the building.

Lounge space is abundant within the arena. Four spacious donor rooms are available for Cardinal fans, including three that overlook the Ohio River. The 7,000-square foot main concourse restaurant overlooks the river and a main concourse sports bar has views directly into the arena bowl. Two 4,000-square foot club lounges on the event level, as well as the terrace club and premium box lounges, provide amenities for their respective patrons. The KFC Yum! Center served as the site for the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament second and third rounds in 2012 and 2015, will be the site for the South Regional in March 2016 and was the site for the 2012 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship on December 13 and 15.
