Current NFL Detroit Lions Head Coach Steve Mariucci was the Cards' offensive coordinator for two seasons (1983-84).

Johnny Unitas

Five games into Johnny Unitas' freshman season (Unitas was allowed to play as a freshman because U of L didn't belong to the NCAA), head coach Frank Camp knew he had something unique.

Tossed in against St. Bonaventure when U of L was trailing 19-0, Unitas completed 11 consecutive passes, three for TDs, in a steady rain and helped put the Cards in front 21-19.

But the Cards couldn't stop St. Bonaventure from kicking a last-ditch field goal and U of L lost 22-21. Despite the loss, nothing could detract from Unitas' astonishing performance.

"We weren't going anywhere without him, that's for sure," Camp said following the game. "And if he keeps throwing the way he did against St. Bonaventure, he'll do us a lot of good."

With Unitas leading the way, U of L went on to win its next four games, including a 35-28 victory over Houston. Louisville was a 19-point underdog against the Cougars.

One of the greatest plays of Unitas' career took place in that game when the Cardinals were leading 28-21 and had the ball on their own eight-yard line in the fourth quarter.

After two unsuccessful running plays, Unitas dropped back into his own end-zone, sidestepped two defenders and threw a pass to Babe Ray who scored a 92-yard TD.

In the next day's Louisville Courier-Journal, reporter Jimmy Brown wrote: "If Coach Frank Camp is smart, he'll take Unitas, enclose him in a cellophane bag and put him away with the Cardinals' uniforms for safekeeping over the winter.

"They better not let anything happen to this boy," Brown added. "He's the most colorful player to hit Louisville in a long time."

Teammate Gene Sartini said: "Back at that time he was just one of the guys. We lived at White Hall. We were a losing football team who used to go out and eat cheeseburgers at the Doghouse."

"He was really the only football player we had at the University in those days," said Hugh Kriever, who played in the same backfield with Unitas.

"He was the greatest thing that ever happened to Louisville," Kriever continued. "As bad as we were—and we were so bad that Unitas was on his back half the time when he was trying to get the ball away—we knew how great he was."

In his sophomore season, Unitas completed 77 of his 154 passes and threw 12 TDs. U of L went 3-8 that year. At Florida State, Unitas had one of his best games, completing 17 of 22 passes in a 41-14 victory.

U of L, though, almost fumbled away Johnny Unitas after his sophomore season. After an administrative hassle which saw 15 players dismissed from school, leaving the Cardinal roster empty, Unitas thought about leaving and transferring to Indiana.

Bernie Crimmins, the Hoosier head coach, suggested to Unitas that he would have a better shot at pro ball in the Big Ten.

"Crimmins checked with the commissioner of the Big Ten to find out if I would still have two years of eligibility left after sitting out the year and the commissioner said, 'Yes'," Unitas said. "It was something to think about. I wouldn't even have considered it if I could have played one year, but two seasons of eligibility with Indiana in the Big Ten was tempting.

"I wanted to play pro ball more than anything else in the world, and playing for Indiana certainly wouldn't hurt me there," he added. "I thought about it very carefully."

But Unitas decided against leaving the Cardinals when he was reminded that Indiana shunned him earlier in his career.

Unitas now holds just a few records at U of L, most of them eclipsed by quarterbacks John Madeya, Ed Rubbert, Browning Nagle, Jeff Brohm, Marty Lowe, Chris Redman and Dave Ragone. He finished his career completing 247 of 502 passes for 2,912 yards and 27 touchdowns.

The rest of Unitas' story is well documented. He left Louisville when he was the ninth-round pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1955 and was cut by them in a numbers game. The Steelers had four quarterbacks; they only needed three. Unitas was the odd man out.

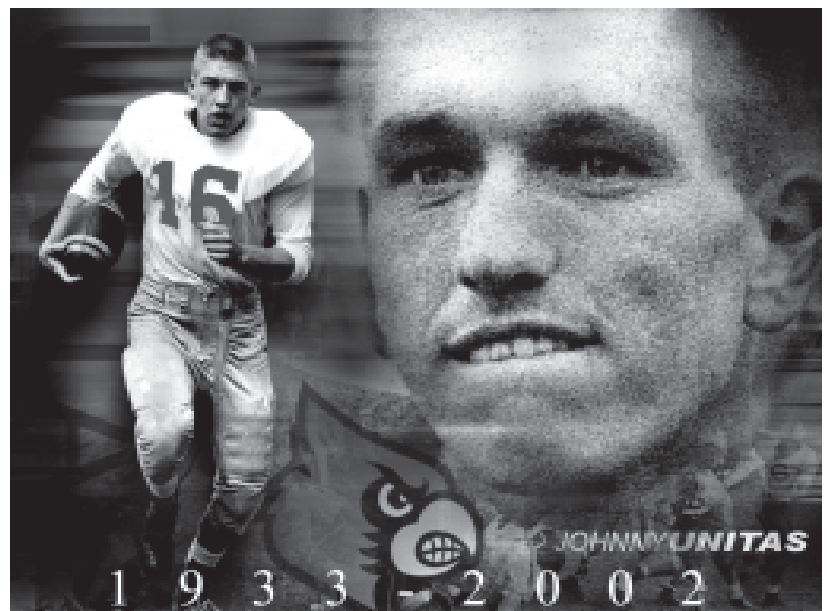

"Most of the time they acted like I wasn't there," he said. "When I did get into an intra-squad scrimmage, I thought I played well. But I guess nobody was watching. Anyway, I was with them through five exhibition games, and they never put me in for a minute. Not a minute."

Unitas took a job with a Pittsburgh tiling company following the cut and then he latched on with the Bloomfield Rams, a semi-pro team. He made six dollars a game.

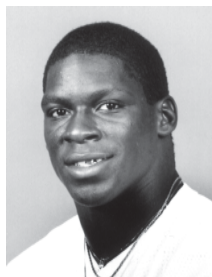

But Unitas didn't linger long in the bush league. The Colts got wind of him and invited him for a tryout. He made the team—signing for $7,000—and the Steelers made history for one of the biggest blunders of all time.

Unitas was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1979 and his record 47-consecutive game touchdown passes is a record compared to Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak.

Sid Luckman once said: "Johnny Unitas is the greatest quarterback ever to play the game—better than me, better than Sammy Baugh, better than anyone."

Honored Jerseys

Bruce Armstrong
Offensive Line • 1983-86

A four-year letterwinner for the Cardinals from 1983-86, Armstrong opened his career as a tight end, making 33 receptions in his first two seasons at U of L.

With the hiring of Howard Schnellenberger, Armstrong was moved to offensive tackle where he anchored the Cardinal line for the next two seasons.

"I wasn't happy about it to say the least," Armstrong said of his initial reaction to the switch.

Nobody is complaining after a long and distinguished NFL career.

Armstrong did not allow a sack over his final 18 games as a collegian. He appeared in the 1986 Senior Bowl and was named U of L's most outstanding lineman following his senior season.

Armstrong was drafted with the 23rd pick of the first round by the New England Patriots in 1987 to begin an association that continued for 15 seasons.

A seven-time Pro Bowl honoree, Armstrong started 212 games for the Patriots and is the franchise's all-time leader in that category passing Julius Adams.

Armstrong started 212 of a possible 220 non-strike games (including the last 118 consecutive of his career) for the Patriots. The 6-4, 295-pound tackle missed eight contests in 1992 after suffering what was feared to be a career-ending knee injury against the Buffalo Bills.

Doug Buffone
LB/Center • 1962-65

Doug Buffone was a standout on both sides of the football during his career with the Cardinals, playing offensive center and linebacker from 1962-65. He remains the Cardinals' No. 3 all-time tackler with 479, just nine stops behind the program's all-time leader Mark Sander ('87-90).

Born in Yatesboro, Pa., Buffone is one of only four players to lead U of L in tackles for three consecutive seasons. The others are Sander, Tom Jackson ('70-72) and Tyrus McCloud ('94-96).

Veteran head coach Frank Camp said Buffone was "the most complete ball player I've ever coached" Strong testimony from a man who tutored NFL greats like Johnny Unitas, Lenny Lyles, Ernie Green and Ken Kortas.

Following his collegiate career, Buffone was selected by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round of the 1966 NFL Draft and the eighth round of the AFL by the San Diego Chargers.

Buffone went on to play 15 seasons as linebacker for the Bears, retiring in 1980 as the all-time leader in games played for the legendary organization. In his professional career, Buffone gathered more than 1,200 tackles, going over the 100-tackle mark in seven seasons. He also had the honor of serving as defensive captain for eight seasons, beginning in 1972.

Buffone retired with 24 career interceptions to lead all Bear linebackers. The first two career pickoffs of his storied career came off future Hall of Fames Bart Starr and Johnny Unitas.

Ray Buchanan
Cornerback • 1989-92

He endeared himself to all Louisville fans as "Big Play" Ray, but it was a career that almost wasn't for Ray Buchanan.

Arriving as a wide receiver/ running back from Maywood, Ill.,

Buchanan initially balked at being moved to the defensive backfield, to the point of almost transferring. After some convincing by coach Howard Schnellenberger, Buchanan made the switch and left his mark on the U of L and NFL history books as a two-time collegiate All-American and NFL Pro Bowl selection.

Buchanan jumped on the scene as a sophomore in 1990, piling up 59 tackles and three interceptions in helping the Cardinals to the 1990 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl (including a key field goal block against Memphis to preserve the bowl bid). He then made his mark on the national stage as the Defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl with five tackles, a fumble recovery and a recovery of a blocked punt in the end zone as Louisville drilled Alabama 34-7.

As a junior in 1991, Buchanan was named a preseason Playboy All-American as he compiled 108 tackles and set the then-single season record for interceptions with eight picks.

Buchanan closed his U of L career with another stellar season as he compiled 95 tackles to go along with four interceptions and 10 pass breakups.

Drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, Buchanan embarked on a continuing stellar professional career where he is considered one of the top cornerbacks in the NFL.

Buchanan would help lead the Colts to the NFC Championship game in 1996 before being traded to the Atlanta Falcons. He then put together five consecutive seasons of five or more interceptions while helping lead the "Dirty Birds" to Super Bowl XXXIII in 1999.
