

2007 SEASON IN REVIEW

2007 Season Review

The 2007 Louisville Cardinals football season was full of many ups-and-downs. The Cardinals opened the season with a pair of wins and were ranked in the top 10 in the country, before dropping back-to-back defeats to Kentucky and Syracuse by a total of nine points. The loss at home to the Orange snapped Louisville's 20-game home winning streak — the second longest in the nation. Louisville did defeat 15th-ranked and undefeated Cincinnati on the road, and registered a big come-from-behind win over Rutgers when Art Carmody connected on a field goal in the final seconds. The Cardinals put six players on the All-BIG EAST team, including placekicker Art Carmody, who became the NCAA's all-time leading scorer for a placekicker. Senior wide receiver Harry Douglas was a second team All-American and senior quarterback Brian Brohm set the school record with 30 touchdown passes. On defense, Lamar Myles led the team with 128 total tackles.

Cardinals Offense Ranked Among the Nation's Best

The Louisville Cardinals were up-and-down all season, but the Cardinals offense was one of the best in the country. The Cardinals finished up the year ranked sixth in the country in total offense at 488.0 yards per game and fourth in passing offense at 341.9 yards. The Cards' also ranked 18th in the nation in scoring offense, scoring 30 or more points in seven of the 12 contests. Louisville's offense racked up a season-high 729 yards of total offense in a 58-42 win over Middle Tennessee and 655 in a win over Murray State. Senior quarterback Brian Brohm threw for 4,024 yards and a school record 30 touchdown passes, while wide receiver Harry Douglas caught 71 passes for 1,159 yards and seven scores.

Brohm Earns BIG EAST Leadership Award

University of Louisville senior Brian Brohm, an academic all-American off the field and a record-setting quarterback on the field, has been named the winner of the first BIG EAST Conference/Aéropostale Leadership Award. The BIG EAST/Aéropostale Leadership Award will be presented annually to a BIG EAST scholar-athlete who has demonstrated leadership qualities during his or her undergraduate career, while also excelling on the playing field and in the classroom. In the classroom, Brohm was a Dean's List student and was a two-time ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America First Team member. He was a finance major who owns a 3.52 grade point average. On the field, Brohm threw for a BIG EAST-record 9,956 yards in his three seasons in the conference. His career completion percentage of 65.7 makes him the most accurate passer in BIG EAST history. He helped Louisville to its first BIG EAST championship in the 2006 season and was named MVP of the 2007 FedEx Orange Bowl after leading the Cardinals to a win against Wake Forest. Brohm was the BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year in 2005.

Myles Makes the Tackles

Linebacker Lamar Myles, who entered the NFL Draft after last season, led the Cardinals in tackles a year ago, recording a career-high 128 tackles. Myles recorded 74 more tackles than Bobby Buchanan, who was second on the squad with 54 tackles. Myles, a 6-0, 214-pound linebacker was credited with a career-high 22 tackles in a loss to Kentucky and had five other double-digit tackles games a year ago.

Carmody Becomes NCAA All-Time Leader Scorers for Kickers

Senior placekicker Art Carmody concluded his record-breaking career in remarkable fashion by kicking a field goal in the closing seconds to defeat Rutgers at Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. Carmody, who owns almost every U of L kicking record, became the NCAA's all-time leading scorer for kickers when he recorded 433 career points. Carmody broke Roman Anderson's (Houston) record of 423 points (70 FG and 213 PAT) from 1988-91. Carmody also holds the NCAA mark for career points-after-touchdown with 253.

Placekicker Art Carmody set an NCAA record for points by a kicker with 433.

#10/#11 Louisville 73, Murray State 10

Louisville, Ky. — Brian Brohm threw for 375 yards and four touchdowns and the 10th-ranked Cardinals sparkled in coach Steve Kragthorpe's debut, drilling overmatched Murray State 73-10. Brohm led Louisville (1-0) to touchdowns on each of the Cardinals' first eight drives.

Louisville rolled up 655 yards of total offense, and worked with a stunning efficiency. The Cardinals averaged a touchdown once every four plays in the first half, and their longest scoring drive with the starters in took all of 2:58. Brohm completed 16 of 21 passes, most of them to wide-open receivers who met little resistance against a team that features 72 underclassmen.

Harry Douglas caught five passes for 151 yards and two touchdowns, the first on Louisville's first play from scrimmage in the first half, the other on Louisville's first play from scrimmage in the second half. Tight end Gary Barnidge had four receptions for 46 yards and two scores.

#9/#9 Louisville 58, Middle Tennesse 42

Louisville, Ky. — Brian Brohm threw for a career-high 401 yards and five touchdowns and Anthony Allen added a school-record 275 yards rushing and two scores as No. 8 Louisville pushed past Middle Tennessee 58-42.

Mario Urrutia, Gary Barnidge and Harry Douglas all topped 100 yards receiving as the Cardinals (2-0) extended the nation's second-longest home winning streak to 20 games. It wasn't easy. the Blue Raiders (0-2) never led, but the Sun Belt Conference champions never let the Cardinals get comfortable.

Despite Brohm being at his efficient best, the Blue Raiders — who managed all of 217 yards in a season-opening loss to Florida Atlantic — nearly matched the high-powered Cardinals in a game that featured 1,284 yards from scrimmage and 13 touchdowns.

Game 3

September 15, 2007
7:30 p.m.
Commonwealth Stadium
Lexington, Ky.
70,857

Kentucky 40, #8/#8 Louisville 34

Lexington, Ky. — Andre Woodson threw a 57-yard touchdown pass to Steve Johnson with 28 seconds left and Kentucky shocked No. 9 Louisville 40-34. Johnson zipped past the Cardinals' secondary and Woodson nailed him in stride. Woodson completed 30 of 44 passes for 275 yards and four TDs as he beat Brian Brohm, a rival dating to high school, for the first time. Brohm's last-second desperation attempt was deflected and caught by Harry Douglas at the 10, but time expired. Kentucky was ahead 33-28 with six minutes left when Brohm began an 84-yard drive that ended in Anthony Allen's 2-yard TD plunge. It was the second touchdown for Allen, who had 96 rushing yards a week after generating a team-high 275 against Middle Tennessee.

Syracuse 38, #18/#19 Louisville 35

Louisville, Ky. — Andrew Robinson threw for a career-high 423 yards and four touchdowns as Syracuse stunned No. 18 Louisville 38-35 on Saturday. Taj Smith caught four passes for 173 yards and two touchdowns for the Orange (1-3, 1-0 Big East) as Syracuse ended Louisville's 20-game home winning streak by dominating the listless Cardinals (2-2, 0-1). The victory was Syracuse's first road conference win and first victory over a ranked team since beating Boston College at the end of the 2004 season. Brian Brohm completed 45-of-65 passes for a career-high 555 yards and four scores for Louisville, but the Cardinals' defense allowed Syracuse - which entered the game ranked near the bottom nationally in every offensive category - to pile up 465 yards and make big play after big play. Syracuse, a 36 1/2 point underdog, built a 17-point lead in the fourth quarter before trying to make it interesting late.

Louisville 29, NC State 10

Raleigh, N.C. — Louisville's maligned defense forced a season-high five turnovers and the Cardinals overcame Brian Brohm's least productive performance of the season in a 29-10 victory over North Carolina State.Brock Bolen rushed for a career-high 112 yards and a touchdown, as the Cardinals ground game rolled up 247 yards to help take the pressure off Brohm and avoid yet another shootout. Brohm followed his career-high 555-yard performance Syracuse by completing 20-of-33 passes for 251 yards - his lowest yardage total since Rutgers held him to 163 in a loss last November. Brohm threw a scoring pass to George Stripling and had one interception. Art Carmody added three field goals and kicked the NCAA-record 227th extra point of his career for the Cardinals (3-2), who snapped a two-game losing streak that knocked them from the national rankings.

Utah 44, Louisville 35

Louisville, Ky. — Brian Johnson threw for 312 yards and a score and Darrell Mack ran for a career-high 163 yards and three touchdowns to help Utah hold off Louisville 44-35. The Utes rolled up 582 yards against Louisville's defense, sending the Cardinals to their third loss in four games. Utah didn't run free through a stunned Louisville secondary like the Orange, instead moving steadily behind the play of Johnson and Mack. Johnson spread the ball to eight receivers and added 37 yards and a touchdown on the ground for the Utes. Brian Brohm completed 39 of 58 passes for 467 yards and four touchdowns for Louisville, which played without three of its top receivers. Harry Douglas missed his second straight game with an injury, while Mario Urrutia was out with an injury.

Louisville 28, #15/#17 Cincinnati 24

Cincinnati, Ohio — Brian Brohm threw three touchdown passes and made a gutsy, game-turning 51-yard completion, rallying Louisville to a 28-24 victory over No. 15 Cincinnati. With Louisville's BIG EAST's title chances on the line, the senior quarterback with the pro-style touch made the big plays and avoided interceptions against a defense that led the nation in coaxing them.

Brohm's daring 51-yard completion to Harry Douglas set up the go-ahead touchdown in the fourth quarter, completing a comeback that might have saved Louisville's season. Cincinnati led the nation in turnover margin, but got the worst of it. The Bearcats fumbled twice inside the Louisville 20-yard line, and one of the nation's most porous defenses held them to a field goal after a first-and-goal from the 2-yard line in the fourth quarter.

E. Hartford, Ct. — Connecticut overcame a late 10-point deficit to beat Louisville 21-17, getting some help from a controversial punt return. It was the biggest win of the season for UConn, and keeps the Huskies in first place in the conference. The Cardinals dropped to 4-4 overall and 1-2 in the BIG EAST Connecticut's Andre Dixon ran 22 times for 115 yards and a score for UConn. His final run capped a nine-play, 71-yard drive that began when Louisville, leading 17-14, had a pass knocked away on fourth-and-3 from the Connecticut 29 with 5:50 left. Tyler Lorenzen, who attempted just 18 passes, then led the Huskies down the field for the winning score. He was 9-for-18 for 130 yards and no interceptions. UConn linebacker Danny Lansanah picked off Brian Brohm's pass at the UConn 20 to secure the win in the waning seconds. It was one of three UConn interceptions.

Louisville, Ky.— Brian Brohm threw for 236 yards and two touchdowns and the Louisville defense used a late goalline stand to defeat pesky Pittsburgh 24-17.Brock Bolen added 52 yards rushing and the go-ahead touchdown with 1:54 remaining for Louisville, which needed a late stop from its defense to snap a two-game home losing streak. The Cardinals seemed to finally put the Panthers away when Bolen dived over from 1 yard out. But the Panthers needed just four plays to drive to the Louisville 1. Running back LeSean McCoy ripped off runs of 19, 19 and seven yards, and Pat Bostick hit Oderick Turner at the Louisville 3. Turner appeared to twist into the endzone for a touchdown, but a video review showed he was down at the 1. On first down, McCoy took the handoff and hopped to his left. Louisville linebacker Lamar Myles hit the ball with his right hand, and cornerback Rod Council pounced on it at the Louisville 3.

Morgantown, W. Va. — Pat White scored on a 50-yard run with 1:36 remaining to lift No. 6 West Virginia to a 38-31 victory over Louisville in Morgantown. Brian Brohm brought Louisville from 17 points down in the second half, with the Cardinals tying it on Art Carmody's 37-yard field goal with 3:05 left. White, who had thrown two touchdown passes, then capped a 65-yard drive with his scoring run up the left sideline. Brohm, who broke his own BIG EAST record with his seventh 300-yard game of the season, threw a desperation pass that Antonio Lewis intercepted at the West Virginia 7. Louisville (5-5, 2-3 BIG EAST) was eliminated from the conference title chase. The Cardinals need a win either at South Florida or at home against Rutgers to become bowl eligible for a 10th straight season.

Brohm completed 27 of 46 passes for 345 yards.

South Florida 55, Louisville 17

Tampa, Fla. — Louisville's potent offense was no match for South Florida's tenacious defense. Mike Ford rushed for 140 yards and two touchdowns and USF forced seven turnovers while holding Brian Brohm to a season-low passing total as the Bulls manhandled the Cardinals 55-17. Brohm was intercepted three times and his backup, Hunter Cantwell, was picked off once. The Cardinals also lost three fumbles while being held to 405 yards, well below their BIG EAST-leading season average of 497.6 per game. Louisville turned the ball over on the opening kickoff and never recovered. Trent Guy fumbled returning the kick, USF's Nate Allen picked up the loose ball at the Cardinals 3 and continued into the end zone, a place the Bulls would visit five more times in the first half alone. USF also scored on Trae Williams' 64-yard interception return and Ford's 6-yard TD that capped an 89-yard drive in which the freshman tailback also ran for 43 and 23 yards on consecutive plays.

Louisville 41, Rutgers 38

Louisville, Ky. — Brian Brohm and Louisville finally got a little revenge on Rutgers. Art Carmody kicked a 33-yard field goal with 20 seconds remaining to lift the Cardinals over the Scarlet Knights 41-38. Brohm, making his final collegiate start, threw for 237 yards and a touchdown and ran for another score as Louisville salvaged a disappointing season by rallying from 18 points down to stun the Scarlet Knights. Carmody, who set an NCAA record for career points by a kicker, had never made a game-winner during his career. He went out in style though, calmly drilling the ball through the uprights. Carmody finished his career with 433 points.
