.778 - The winning percentage of NC State head coach Dave Doeren in games decided by four or fewer points (7-2). That is the highest among any active head coach in the FBS.

.923 - The career field-goal percentage of Florida State PK Robert Aguayo, who leads all active placekickers with 20 or more career attempts. Aguayo has made 48 of his 52 career field goal attempts, including 27 of 30 in 2014.

No. 1 - Over the past three years, defenses designed by new Pitt head coach Pat Narduzzi led the nation in total defense, allowing just 282.58 yards per game in a 40-game span at Michigan State.

2 - The number of first-time starters at quarterback for the ACC this week in Boston College sophomore Darius Wade and Duke redshirt junior Thomas Sirk.

3 - Despite only having played two varsity seasons, Virginia Tech All-American CB Kendall Fuller ranks 3rd among all FBS returnees nationally in passes defended with 34. Fuller has eight career interceptions and 26 pass breakups.

4.6 - The TD pass to interception ratio for NC State's Jacoby Brissett, which is fourth-best among all returning QBs in the FBS. Brissett threw 23 touchdown passes with only five interceptions in 370 pass attempts last year. The 1.35% interception rate is the sixth-best in ACC history.

5 - The number of ACC players selected to ESPN's preseason All-American team. Chosen from the ACC were Pitt WR Tyler Boyd, North Carolina G Landon Turner, Duke S Jeremy Cash, Virginia Tech CB Kendall Fuller and Florida State PK Roberto Aguayo.

6 - ESPN's College Football GameDay is making its sixth appearance at Virginia Tech this Labor Day Monday Night. The game marks the 81st time a current ACC team has played a game at the site of the iconic college football show.

10 - In his five seasons as head coach at Louisville, Bobby Petrino has not led the Cardinals to less than nine wins in a year, averaging exactly 10 victories a year.

12 - The number of ACC teams with a quarterback that started at least one game for them last year. The list includes Clemson (Watson), Florida State (Maguire), Georgia Tech (Thomas), Louisville (Gardner, Bonafon, Bolin), Miami (Kaaya), North Carolina (Williams), NC State (Brissett), Pitt (Voytik), Syracuse (Hunt, Long), Virginia (Johns), Virginia Tech (Brewer) and Wake Forest (Wolford).

16.9 - Since Paul Johnson brought his spread option attack to Georgia Tech in 2008, the Yellow Jackets have run for more yards than any other FBS team nationally. In that time, Tech has totalled 29,060 yards on the ground or 16.9 miles, averaging 309.15 yards per game, which is also the best in the nation during that time.

19 - Over the past two seasons Duke has compiled 19 wins, the most for the Blue Devil program in a two-year span bettering the previous high of 17 wins in 1938-39 and 1935-36.

24 - Florida State has won 24 consecutive games against ACC opponents, dating back to a 17-16 loss at NC State in 2012. The Seminoles set the record for most consecutive ACC wins. They established the mark by winning their first 29 league games from 1992 until a loss at Virginia in 1995.

34 - The number of touchdowns North Carolina junior QB Marquise Williams accounted for rushing (13) and passing (21) in 2014. That's tied for the 9th highest single-season total in ACC history.

58 - The number of victories to which Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher has led the Seminoles in his first five seasons as head coach in Tallahassee. His winning percentage of .841 (58-11) is the best of any ACC coach with three or more seasons.

76 - The number of 2014 pass receptions for Clemson freshman wide receiver Artavis Scott. Scott's total was the third-best in ACC history for a freshman, bettered only by Pitt's Tyler Boyd (85) in 2013 and former Clemson WR Sammy Watkins (82) in 2011.

102.6 - The average number of yards for Pitt RB James Conner in his 26 collegiate games. That average would rank 5th-best in ACC history. Over his last 14 games, Conner has averaged 147.9 yards a contest with 28 TDs.

128 - This week's ACC Network Game of the Week--syndicated by Raycom and featuring Clemson and Wofford, will be seen in 128 markets nationally, including 81 of the top 100 markets in the nation.

130 - The ACC had 130 nominations to preseason watch teams for the 2015 season. The league led all conferences in players selected to the Manning (QB), Groza (PK), Mackey (TEs) and Wuerffel (Community Service) watch lists and tied for first or finished second for four others (O'Brien, Bednarik, Thorpe, Guy).

145.9 - The pass efficiency rating in 2014 of Miami true freshman QB Brad Kaaya, who led the ACC and ranked second nationally among all freshmen signal-callers in pass efficiency. He also led the ACC in TD passes with 26.

165 - Beginning his 19th season as a head coach, Georgia Tech's Paul Johnson has won 165 games at Tech, Navy and Georgia Southern. He ranks 10th nationally among all active FBS head coaches.

273 - The number of career victories for Virginia Tech head coach Frank Beamer. That is the most of any active FBS head coach and ranks sixth on the NCAA's FBS all-time list. Beamer trails only the icons of the game in career wins in Joe Paterno (409), Bobby Bowden (377), Paul "Bear" Bryant (323), Glenn "Pop" Warner (319) and Amos Alonzo Stagg (314).

294.41 - Over the past 11 years, Virginia Tech's defense, coordinated by Bud Foster, ranks second nationally among all teams in total defense, allowing just 294.41 yards per game in 147 total games. Only Alabama has been better (271.78). Tech's opponent this week, Ohio State, is sixth in that time in total defense, averaging 304.99 yards per contest in 143 games.

Home Sweet Home for Noles' Fisher, Tigers' Swinney

Florida State head coach Jimbo Fisher and Clemson head coach Dabo Swinney have both enjoyed coaching in the cozy and imposing confines of the Seminoles' Doak Campbell Stadium and the Tigers' Memorial Stadium, also known as Death Valley. Now, after five seasons as head coach of the Seminoles, Fisher's teams have won 18 of 20 ACC games at home, a winning percentage of .900, the best by any ACC coach with a minimum of five seasons on the job. Swinney is right behind as his teams have won 23 of his first 26 home ACC games, a winning percentage of .885. They are both just ahead of legendary FSU coach Bobby Bowden, who also won more ACC home games than any other coach, with 62 triumphs in his 18 years in the league.

Cutcliffe Leading Duke to Unprecedented Success

Duke's David Cutcliffe is leading the Blue Devils to success unprecedented in the school's history. Cutcliffe has led Duke to three consecutive bowl game appearances, a first in Blue Devil history. He has also led Duke to 19 wins over the past two seasons, the most in a two-year span since Duke began playing football in 1888. In his seven seasons, Cutcliffe has led Duke to almost as many wins (40) as the program experienced in the 18 years (43) before he took over the reins in Durham

ACC's Labor Day Monday TV Ratings Success for ESPN

Throughout its 10-year history, the ACC's Labor Day Monday night appearance on ABC and now ESPN, has been a ratings success. The 10 games have averaged a 4.6 rating. The 2010 Virginia Tech-Boise State telecast garnered a 7.3 rating and was seen by more households, at the time, than any ESPN college football telecast in history. The 7.3 rating was the highest Monday night rating (without the full-circle additions) and tied for the second-highest rated regular season college football telecast on ESPN since 1994. The initial regular season Miami-FSU matchup in 2004 featured a 5.9 rating on ABC. One year later, the network enjoyed a 6.5 mark. In 2006, in the rivalries' first appearance on ESPN, the cable network put the broadcast on all of its channels --named a "Full Circle telecast"--thus creating a 7.6 cumulative rating. Eight of the 10 games have been nailbiters as well as the average margin of victory in those eight games has been just 4.5 points with two of the games going into overtime.

Florida State Enters 2014 With 24-Game ACC Winning Streak

Though Florida State saw its 29-game overall winning streak snapped in the College Football Playoff semifinal in last year's season finale, the Seminoles still have an impressive winning streak that is active. The Noles have won 24 consecutive ACC football games, dating back to a 17-16 loss to NC State in 2012. The Noles winning streak ties for the second-longest in league history, bettered only by the 29-game skein FSU achieved when it entered the ACC in 1992. That streak ended at Virginia in 1995. FSU also put together a 24-game winning streak which began in 1998 and ended in 2001.

ESPN's College Football GameDay Coming To Blacksburg on Labor Day Monday

Iconic College Football Show Comes to Virginia Tech for the Sixth Time

Virginia Tech will host ESPN's College GameDay built by the Home Depot for the sixth time when the Hokies host top-ranked Ohio State at Lane Stadium in Blacksburg on Labor Day Monday night. This marks the 13th time Virginia Tech has played in a game from where GameDay has emanated.

Tech is hosting a No. 1 team in the defending national champion Buckeyes for the first time in its history. A year ago, Tech was the only team to defeat Ohio State, downing the Buckeyes, 35-21, in Columbus, Ohio.

This year's appearance by GameDay is the first visit since the show originated from Blacksburg on September 1, 2007. That day, GameDay came to Virginia Tech just five months after the Virginia Tech tragedy as a special tribute.

GameDay has originated from two bowl sites where Virginia Tech was playing since 2007, the 2010 Orange Bowl and the 2011 Allstate Sugar Bowl as well as the 2009 Chick-fil-A Kickoff game against Alabama in Atlanta and a 2007 Tech away game with LSU.

Including Monday night, current ACC schools have hosted College GameDay a total of 34 times, while current ACC schools have appeared 81 times on the sites where College GameDay has been held. Florida State has hosted GameDay more than any other ACC school (11) followed by the Hokies and Miami (6), Clemson (3), Boston College, Georgia Tech and Pitt (2 each) and North Carolina and NC State (1).

Florida State has hosted more ESPN College GameDays (11) than any school nationally with the exception of Ohio State (13) and Florida (12).

Current ACC Schools Have

Second Highest Total of all Conferences

The current schools of the Atlantic Coast Conference had a total of 15 former All-American players—the second second-highest total of any conference nationally—named to the Football Writers of America (FWAA) 75th Anniversary football team announced Thursday.

Pitt led all ACC schools with five selections, followed by Florida State (3), Miami (2) and Boston College, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, NC State and Virginia Tech with one selection each.

The FWAA, which was founded in 1941, has picked an annual All-America team since the 1944 season, making it the second longest continuously selected team in major college football.

The 75th Anniversary team celebrates the association's All-American teams from near the end of World War II through 2014.

Using current conference affiliations, the Big Ten led all conferences with 19 selections, followed by the ACC (15), the SEC (13), the Big 12 (12) and the Pac-12 (7).

The ACC & ESPN Thursday Night

The ACC & ESPN Thursday Night: A Great College and ACC Tradition

When North Carolina meets South Carolina on Thursday night (6 p.m.) at Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte, N.C., in the inaugural Belk College Football Kickoff Game, the battle will be the 94th contest involving an ACC team on ESPN on Thursday night. It will also mark the second time in three seasons that the two border state rivals have opened the college football season on ESPN on Thursday. Two years ago, the Tar Heels and the then sixth-ranked Gamecocks opened the year at Williams-Brice Stadium in Columbia with USC emerging with a 27-10 victory.

North Carolina is 7-6 overall on Thursday nights on ESPN, most recently defeating Duke, 45-20, on Nov. 20th of last year. The Tar Heels will be making their second neutral-site appearance in Charlotte at Bank of America Stadium on Thursday night, having defeated NC State, 10-6, on Nov. 11, 1999. At the time, the stadium was named Ericsson Stadium. In all, the Tar Heels are 7-4 overall on the road and at neutral sites on ESPN Thursday nights.

Virginia Tech has won more games (20) on ESPN Thursday Night than any other ACC team. The Hokies of Frank Beamer will travel to Georgia Tech later this year (Nov. 12) for their only Thursday appearance this year. The Hokies are 20-9 overall on ESPN Thursday night.

Georgia Tech has hosted more Thursday night games than any other ACC school, a total of 19. The Yellow Jackets actually began the Conference's Thursday night tradition, which, more often than not, has featured high drama. Tech hosted Virginia on Sept. 19, 1991, at Bobby Dodd Stadium in Atlanta, utilizing a 34-yard field goal by Scott Sisson on the game's final play to record a 24-21 victory. The Yellow Jackets are 11-16 overall on Thursday night ESPN games.

Miami has the highest winning percentage (.857) of any ACC team on ESPN Thursdays, having posted an 18-3 mark, including a 7-2 record on the road. The Hurricanes have been better at home, with an 11-1 record in the Old Orange Bowl (8-0) and at Sun Life Stadium (3-1). The only UM loss at home came in 2011, when Virginia snapped the Canes' 10-game home win streak with a 28-21 verdict.

In all, after this week's game, ACC teams will have made 164 appearances on ESPN's Thursday night package.

After the Hokies and Yellow Jackets, Miami leads in total appearances with 21, followed by Pitt (20), NC State (19), Louisville (19), Clemson (14), Florida State (14), North Carolina (13), Boston College (12) and Virginia (12).

When Maryland was a member of the ACC, the Terrapins played in 13 Thursday ESPN games, 10 of them at home.

There have been many great moments in the Thursday night series, including the 2007 game when 2nd-ranked Boston College rallied to beat 8th-ranked Virginia Tech, 14-

10, behind a pair of touchdown passes from QB Matt Ryan in the game's final two minutes and 11 seconds. That game still stands as the only ESPN Thursday night meeting of ACC opponents that were both ranked in the Top 10 nationally.

The 2009 season featured a pair of thrillers, both involving North Carolina. The Tar Heels and Seminoles were involved in an offensive gut-wrencher, as FSU overcame a 24-6 third-quarter deficit to capture a 30-27 triumph. A week later, UNC upset 14th-ranked Virginia Tech, 20-17, on the game's final play, a 22-yard field goal by placekicker Casey Barth.

The 2010 match-up between Georgia Tech and Virginia Tech was a classic a see-saw battle decided when the Hokies' David Wilson returned a kickoff 90 yards for a touchswin with 2:23 remaining. Perhaps the most memorable Thursday night moment and biggest upset on the Thursday night ESPN package was 24th-ranked Virginia's win over second-ranked Florida State in 1995. That game snapped the Seminoles' 29-game Conference winning streak, which began when FSU joined the ACC in 1992.

Miami still has claim to the highest-rated game on Thursday night, when it met 10th-ranked Houston in an early season showdown in 1991. The Hurricanes and Cougars drew a 6.5 national rating as Miami took a lopsided 40-10 triumph.

The highest-rated Thursday ESPN battle between two ACC teams was the 1995 Virginia-Florida State telecast, which resulted in a 6.1 rating. Louisville recorded a pair of strong ratings while a member of the Big East in 2006, a 5.33 in downing West Virginia and a 5.03 in losing to Rutgers.

This week's game is the first of five ACC Thursday ESPN contests this year. Louisville hosts Clemson in a big Atlantic Division clash on Sept. 17 followed by Miami travelling to Cincinnati of the American Athletic Conference on Oct. 1. The Tar Heels make their second Thursday night appearance of the year when they travel to Pitt on Oct. 29 and Georgia Tech and Virginia Tech wrap things up in Atlanta on Nov. 12 in a Coastal Division matchup at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

The ACC and ESPNU on Thursday Night

Two ACC games have been televised by ESPNU on Thursday night. Wake Forest hosted Vanderbilt in 2005 and Clemson and Temple met in Charlotte in 2006 and Louisville appeared on ESPNU as a member of the Big East in 2011.

ACC Football Kickoff Media Tabs Clemson to Unseat Florida State For ACC Football Title

VILLAGE OF PINEHURST, N.C. -- Clemson is the preseason favorite to claim the Atlantic Coast Conference football championship, according to a poll of 158 media members in attendance at the 2015 ACC Football Kickoff at Pinehurst Resort.

The Tigers were also picked over three-time defending ACC champion Florida State to capture the Atlantic Division, while Georgia Tech was favored to repeat as the Coastal Division winner.

Clemson Headlines 2015 All-ACC Preseason Football Team With Five Players Selected

VILLAGE OF PINEHURST, N.C.— Clemson led all schools with five selections to the 2015 All-Atlantic Coast Conference Preseason Football Team announced July 23.

The team was selected by a vote of 163 media members who were credentialed for the 2015 ACC Football Kickoff at Pinehurst Resort.

Clemson sophomore quarterback Deshaun Watson, who was voted the ACC Preseason Player of the Year, is joined on the All-ACC preseason team by Tiger wide receivers Mike Williams and Artavis Scott, offensive guard Eric Mac Lain and defensive end Shaq Lawson.

Florida State and Virginia Tech each placed four student-athletes on the 2015 All-ACC preseason team, while Pitt had three selected.

Watson, who threw for 1,466 yards and 14 touchdowns despite being limited to eight games and five starts last season due to injuries, is joined in the offensive backfield by running backs James Conner of Pitt and Shadrach Thornton of NC State.

Conner, a 2014 All-American and the reigning ACC Player of the Year, led the conference and ranked among the nation's leaders with 1,765 yards rushing and an ACC-record 26 touchdowns as a sophomore. Thornton, a rising senior, ranks 10th in NC State history with 2,369 career rushing yards and 12th all-time among Wolfpack ball-carriers with 16 career rushing touchdowns.

Clemson's Williams and Scott are joined on the preseason All-ACC wide receiving corps by Pitt junior Tyler Boyd, the first player in ACC history to compile 1,000 receiving yards in both his freshman and sophomore seasons. Williams joined Boyd as one of four ACC players with at least 1,000 receiving yards in 2014, and Scott was close behind with 965.

Preseason All-ACC tight end recognition goes to Virginia Tech's Bucky Hodges, a redshirt sophomore who broke in last season with 45 receptions for 526 yards and six TDs. He is joined on the offensive line by Florida State's Roderick Johnson and Pitt's Adam Bisnowaty at tackle. North Carolina's Landon Turner and Clemson's Mac Lain man the guard spots, while Duke's Matt Skura was selected at the center position.

Three defensive ends were selected due to ties in the voting, with Virginia Tech's Dadi Lhomme Nicolas joining Clemson's Lawson and Louisville's Sheldon Rankins. Adam Gotsis of defending Coastal Division champion Georgia Tech is a choice at defensive tackle, along with Virginia Tech's Luther Maddy.

Florida State's Terrance Smith, Wake Forest's Brandon Chubb and Louisville's James Burgess form the preseason All-ACC linebacker corps.

The secondary features a trio of returning All-Americans in cornerbacks Jalen Ramsey of Florida State and Kendall Fuller of Virginia Tech, as well as Duke safety Jeremy Cash. Virginia's Quin Blanding, the 2014 ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year, also earned a spot at safety on the preseason team.

The special teams include junior All-America place-kicker Roberto Aguayo, whose 293 total points in two seasons already ranks eighth on Florida State's all-time list. Wake Forest's Alex Kinal earned the spot at punter, while North Carolina's Ryan Switzer is the choice at return specialist.

Pitt's Conner led the overall voting, being chosen by 148 of the 163 media members casting ballots. Florida State's Aguayo received 141 votes.

Boyd, Conner, Aguayo, Fuller and Ramsey were all named first-team All-ACC last year, while Scott, Williams, Nicolas, Gotsis, Smith, Cash, Blanding and Kinal all earned second-team All-ACC. Switzer, Hodges, Turner, Skura and Rankins were 2014 third-team All-ACC selections.

ACC Divisional Tiebreaker

If more than one team in the same division is tied for the best winning percentage in its Conference games, the procedures listed below will be followed to determine the division's representative in the ACC Championship Game:

Two-Team Tie:

1. Head-to-head competition between the two tied teams.
2. Win percentage of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall win percentage. (Divisional and non-divisional) and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken from first-to-last using the league's tiebreaking procedures.
4. Overall win percentage versus all common non-divisional opponents.
5. Combined win percentage vs. all non-divisional opponents.
6. Win percentage versus common non-divisional opponents based on their order of finish (overall conference win percentage) and proceeding through other common non-divisional teams based upon their divisional order of finish.
7. The tied team with the higher ranking by the College Football Playoff Selection Committee following the conclusion of regular season games. (If both tied teams are not ranked in the ranking by the College Football Playoff Selection Committee, the higher ranked team in the Amway Coaches Poll (including others receiving votes).
8. The representative shall be chosen by a draw. (as administered by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee.)

Three-Team (or More) Team Tie:

(Once a team is eliminated from the tie, the tie-breaker procedures restart for the remaining teams. If the three (or more) team tie can be reduced to two teams, the two-team tiebreaker format will then be applied.)

1. Combined head-to-head win percentage among the tied teams.
2. Win percentage of the tied teams within the division.
3. Head-to-head competition versus the team within the division with the best overall (divisional and non-divisional) Conference win percentage, and proceeding through the division. Multiple ties within the division will be broken first to last, using the league's tie-breaker policies.
4. Combined win percentage versus all common non-divisional opponents.
5. Overall win percentage versus non-divisional opponents.
6. Win percentage versus common non-divisional opponents based upon their order of finish (overall win percentage) and proceeding through other common non-divisional opponents based upon their divisional order of finish.
7. The tied team with the highest ranking by the College Football Playoff Selection Committee following the conclusion of regular season games, unless the second of the tied teams is ranked within five or fewer places of the highest ranked tied team. In this case, the two-team tiebreaker procedure shall be applied between the top two ranked tied teams. If none of the tied teams are ranked in the rankings of the College Football Playoff Committee, the higher ranked team in the officially released Amway Coaches poll (including others receiving votes), following the conclusion of regular season games, unless the second of the tied teams is within five or fewer places of the highest ranked team. (For the sake of clarity, the team receiving the second-most votes but not ranked in the Top 25 would be ranked 27th.) In this case the two-team tiebreaker procedure shall be applied between the top ranked tied teams.
8. The representative shall be chosen by a draw as administered by the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF, ACC BOWL LINEUP

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

The College Football Playoff begins its second year of operation after a highly-acclaimed first season in 2014-15. The Playoff features the top four teams, two semifinals played in bowl games, and a national championship game played in a different city each year. Each semifinal is played during the New Year's holiday with the National Championship Game in prime time on a Monday night at least a week later.

The College Football Playoff selection committee chooses the four teams for the playoff based on their performance during the regular season, including, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, championships won, and other factors. The teams will be seeded so that #1 will play #4 in one semifinal and #2 will meet #3 in the other, with the winners advancing to the national championship game. The selection committee will announce its rankings each week on Tuesdays beginning this year on Nov. 3. The final rankings will be announced on Sunday, Dec. 6.

The semifinals will rotate among six different bowls: the Chick-fil-A Peach, Goodyear Cotton, Fiesta and Capital One Orange Bowls; the Rose Bowl presented by Northwestern Mutual and the Allstate Sugar Bowl. In the years when the bowls are not hosting semifinals, the bowls will feature eight other teams in four compelling matchups.

ACC Bowl Quick Selection Order

(The ACC is in the second year of six-year contracts with its current bowl partners.
The current College Football Playoff format is a 12-year agreement)

College Football Playoff (four teams)

If the ACC Champion is not in one of the semifinal games this year, it will appear in one of the Playoff "host" bowls, either the Fiesta or Chick-fil-A Peach, since the Capital One Orange Bowl will serve as a semifinal site this year. There is no limit on how many teams the College Football Playoff may choose from a particular conference.

Capital One Orange Bowl

The ACC champion, if not in the College Football Playoff, would normally play in the Capital One Orange Bowl against the highest-ranked and available team from Notre Dame, the SEC or the Big Ten. With the Capital One Orange Bowl serving as a Playoff semifinal this year, the CFP Selection Committee will determine the game (Chick-fil-A or Fiesta) and opponent for the ACC champion if that team is not in the Playoff.

Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl

Only if the ACC opponent in the Capital One Orange Bowl in a non-semifinal year, is a team from the Big Ten. This will not occur in 2015 due to the fact that the Orange Bowl this year is a semifinal site for the College Football Playoff.

Russell Athletic Bowl

Has first pick of ACC teams in 2015 after the College Football Playoff and the Host Bowls.

Tier One Bowls

All have equal selection status

Belk /Hyundai Sun/New Era Pinstripe/Franklin American Mortgage Music City or TaxSlayer

Tier Two Bowls

Military Bowl Presented by Northrop Grumman

Camping World Independence Bowl

Quick Lane Bowl

St. Petersburg Bowl

After the 2014 and 2016 seasons; all others as first secondary selection if not filled by Conference USA or American Athletic.

Birmingham Bowl

Secondary only--if not filled by the Southeastern or American Athletic Conferences.

The One-Win Rule Applies Only to Notre Dame

The ACC's bowl selection will no longer be bound by the rigidity of a "one-win rule" but will have a general list of criteria to emphasize regionality and quality matchups on the field. A one-win rule does apply to Notre Dame's participation in the ACC Bowl structure. Notre Dame is now eligible for ACC Bowl selection beginning with the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl and continuing through the league's bowl selections. However, Notre Dame must be within one win of the ACC available team which has the best overall record, in order to be chosen. In other words, if an ACC team was 9-3, a 7-5 Notre Dame team could not be chosen in its place. Notre Dame would have to be 8-4 to be chosen over a 9-3 league team.

ACC Bowl Expenses And Revenue

The Atlantic Coast Conference shares all bowl revenues. Each school is provided an initial expense allotment. The Conference will share in the cost of unsold tickets for participating bowl institutions. After all bowl expense allotments and ticket reimbursements are subtracted from the total bowl revenue, the remaining revenue is distributed evenly among ACC schools.
