Media Information

This publication featuring the 2015-16 University of Louisville men's basketball team has been prepared to aid you in covering the Cardinals this season. Additional information is available through Senior Associate Athletic Director Kenny Klein, UofL's primary men's basketball contact (502-852-6581).

■ Media Credentials: To obtain credentials for a UofL home contest, please make the request via email to Kenny Klein at kenny@gocards.com. Credentials are held at Media Will Call, located inside the Suite Entrance on the Second Street side of the KFC Yum! Center). Credentials will not be mailed. Passes are limited to WORKING MEDIA ONLY. We do not have complimentary game tickets, but we will assist in purchasing tickets when they are available (rarely). The media room is located on the event level, the first door to the right after entering the Suite Entrance on the Second Street side of the arena. Media seating is at courtside or at designated areas within sections 119 and 120.

■ Internet Access: Wireless internet access is available throughout the KFC Yum! Center. A password is required for special media access. Wired connections are also available in the media room.

■ Telephones: A limited number of telephones are provided in the press room on a first-come, first-served basis. Media desiring personal phone service should have a phone installed through the KFC Yum! Center by calling (502) 690-9000 in advance. Please list Kenny Klein as the contact for placement of the line. There are no general media use phones available at courtside. A UofL sports information representative can to assist you if you need an item faxed or copied.

■ Parking: Limited media parking is available in garages within one block of the KFC Yum! Center. Requests should be made well in advance to Kenny Klein.

■ Notes/Stats: Updated notes and statistics are maintained on the Men's Basketball page of the Cardinals' web site at www.GoCards.com. Please contact us if you would like any materials emailed to your attention.

■ Statistical Services: Rosters, notes, game programs and cumulative statistics are provided prior to tipoff. Statistical summaries, written play-by-plays and shot charts will be distributed at halftime and post-game. Broadcast personnel will have access to a computer monitor displaying current game statistics throughout the game.

■ Interviews: Coach Rick Pitino and selected players are available at a news conference generally the day prior to each game. Selected news conferences will be available live via teleconference; contact the sports information office at (502) 852-6581 to obtain a schedule and the number to participate. The recorded audio from all news conferences is available online from the "CardsTV " link from the Cards' web site at www.GoCards.com and each will be streamed live from that site. To request a specific interview with Coach Pitino or a player, call or email Kenny Klein (502-852-6581; email: kenny@gocards.com). The best time to reach Coach Pitino is mid-day, while players are usually available between 2-2:30 p.m. EST. Home or cell phone numbers will not be provided.

■ Postgame: Coach Pitino is most often first up with the media in the press room following the game. The UofL dressing room will be open to media for access to squad members following Pitino's remarks. If agreed to by the visiting coach, we will have that coach come to the interview room. Visiting team locker rooms are located to the left as one exits the media room hallway. The Louisville locker room is located to the right when exiting the media room (southeast corner of the arena). Proper credentials are required to gain admittance to each area.

■ Teleconference: The ACC offers a periodic teleconference for its men's head basketball coaches throughout the season. Please contact the ACC (336-369-1002) to obtain the phone number and times for the call. Selected UofL news conferences will be available live via teleconference; contact the sports information office at (502) 852-6581 to obtain a schedule and the number to participate.

■ Internet Services: UofL is partnered with Sidearm Sports to host its official athletic site. Located at www.GoCards.com, the web site contains updated game notes, cumulative statistics, box scores from previous games, weekly audio interviews with Coach Rick Pitino and selected players, and many other resources. This media guide is also available online. The Atlantic Coast Conference site is located at www.theacc.com, with a protected media services site at www.sportssystems.com/s/?scmsID=accmedia.

KFC Yum! Center Diagram

Interesting Figures on the KFC Yum! Center

- Structural steel placed in the arena weighs 5,975,000 pounds - the same weight as 746 average-size Asian elephants.
- The center-hung scoreboard weighs 40,000 pounds - as much as 11 Ford Explorers.
- There are 130 miles of electrical conduit and 322 miles of electrical wiring installed in the arena - enough to stretch from Louisville to Chicago.
- There are 9,000 light fixtures in the arena with 17,000 lamps.
- The overall square footage of the arena (721,762) equals approximately 13 football fields.
- 60,000 cubic yards of concrete were placed in the arena, equaling 6,000 concrete trucks - represented by 25 miles of concrete trucks parked bumper to bumper.
- The arena contains 58,655 square feet of exterior glass panels - the glass on the east side of the arena could provide for approximately 60 houses.
- The length of the arena's catwalk totals ½ mile.

Cardinal Facts and FIgures

■ Louisville has an all-time 1,755-884 record in 101 seasons of intercollegiate basketball. The Cardinals are 11th among all NCAA schools in victories. The Cardinals played their first official men's basketball game on Jan. 28, 1912 when it lost 35-3 to Louisville YMCA, but did not field teams in 1916-17, 1922-23 or 1942-43. The Cardinals have produced winning seasons in 67 of the last 70 years, including winning 20 or more games in the last 13 straight seasons and 30 or more in three of the last four years.

■ UofL is seventh nationally with 10 Final Four appearances. No other school went to the Final Four four times during the 1980s and Louisville won two NCAA titles in that decade, winning the national championship in 1980 and 1986. Coach Rick Pitino has guided seven teams to the NCAA Final Four, winning two titles. Louisville's 41 NCAA Tournament appearances is fifth best all-time and its 117 NCAA Tournament games are the sixth most played in the event (75-42 record).

■ Twenty Louisville players have earned All-America status, the latest being consensus All-America pick Russ Smith in 2014. The Cardinals have had 68 players drafted by the NBA, including 22 first-round selections. Terry Rozier was UofL's latest first round selection in the 2015 draft as the 16th overall pick by the Boston Celtics, while Montrezl Harrell was chosen 32nd by the Houston Rockets.

Louisville sophomore Chinanu Onuaku won a gold medal as a member of the 2015 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Championship team.

■ Louisville has won its conference championship or finished second in its league in 26 of the last 39years, including five of the last nine years (American Athletic Conference champion in 2014, Big East champion in 2009 and 2013, second place in the Big East in 2007, 2008). Last year, the Cardinals were fourth in their initial year in the Atlantic Coast Conference in the regular season and fell in the quarterfinals of the league tournament in Greensboro, N.C.

■ Louisville is the only school in the nation to have claimed the championship of three major national post-season tournaments including the 1948 NAIB Championship, the 1956 NIT title and the 1980, 1986 and 2013 NCAA Championships.

■ UofL produced the second most consecutive winning seasons all-time in the NCAA with 46 (not current). The Cards played winning basketball from 1944-45 through 1989-90, winning 20 or more games on 31 occasions during that period.

■ Louisville has three representatives in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Cardinal All-American and former Washington Bullets All-Star Wes Unseld was inducted in 1988, former head coach Denny Crum was inducted in 1994 and current head coach Rick Pitino was in the 2013 induction class.

■ Louisville has ranked among the top six nationally in average home attendance each of the last 34 years. In 19 home games last season, a total of 406,338 fans attended games, a 21,386 average that trailed only Syracuse and Kentucky. UofL played its fifth season in their new home in 2014-15, the 22,000-seat KFC Yum! Center in downtown Louisville.

■ Only four times in the last 50 years have the Cardinals failed to reach either the NCAA or NIT post-season tournaments. UofL has reached the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight five of the last eight years and two of the last four Final Fours, winning the 2013 title.

■ The Cardinals are one of the most televised teams in college basketball. UofL games will be televised on national networks during the 2015-16 regular season on at least 21 occasions. Every possible UofL game over the past 32 years has been televised on either a live or delayed basis — a total of over 920 games — including over 400 national television appearances.

■ The Cardinals have been ranked on 588 occasions in the AP poll, sixth most all-time. Louisville has been ranked 60 consecutive weeks entering 2015-16. The Cards have been ranked No. 1 in the nation on five occasions -- Jan. 14, 2013 in the Associated Press poll; in the ESPN/USA Today poll on March 15, 2009; in the final AP poll that same 2008-09 season; in the final USA Today coaches poll of 2012-13, and when it opened the 1986-87 season as the top team in the UPI coaches poll. Louisville has been ranked as the No. 2 team in the AP poll on 18 occasions all-time.

■ Four former Cardinal were active on NBA rosters during the 2014-15 season: Francisco Garcia (Houston Rockets), Earl Clark (Brooklyn Nets), Gorgui Dieng (Minnesota Timberwolves) and Russ Smith (Memphis Grizzlies). At least 18 former Cardinals are playing professionally now with other U.S. or foreign teams. Thirty-nine UofL players have reached the NBA in the last 41 years.

■ UofL has retired the numbers of four of its former hoop greats: 8 Charlie Tyra, 31 Wes Unseld, 35 Darrell Griffith and 42 Pervis Ellison.

■ Louisville is second to North Carolina for the national lead with 67 all-time 1,000 point scorers. Mangok Mathiang is the next closest to that milestone, entering his junior year with just 221 career points.

■ Over the last four years, Louisville has won 123 games, second-most in the nation. Louisville and Wichita State are the only two schools in the nation entering this season to win 30 games in three of the last four years.

■ Louisville is one of four Division I schools in the nation which has won 20 or more games in each of the past 13 seasons. Kansas tops the list with 26 consecutive years, followed by Duke (19), Gonzaga (18) and Louisville (13). UofL Coach Rick Pitino has won at least 20 games in a season on 23 occasions, ranking him sixth among active coaches in 20-win seasons and 17th overall. Pitino won 30 in a single season for the eighth time in 2013-14. UofL has won at least 20 games in 42 of the last 46 years.

■ Louisville was the first university ever to win a BCS Bowl game, place both its men's and women's basketball teams in the NCAA Final Four and reach the College World Series in the same season in 2012-13. In addition to the Cardinals' 2013 NCAA men's basketball title, UofL's women's team was the national runner-up to Connecticut. The Cardinals' football team beat then No. 3/4 Florida 33-23 in the 2013 Sugar Bowl on Jan. 2. UofL's 2013 baseball team won a record 51 games while reaching a visit to Omaha.

■ Aside from basketball lettermen, some notable UofL alumni include: the late Johnny Unitas (football), Mitch McConnell (U.S. Senator, Kentucky), Chris Dodd (former U.S. Senator for 30 yrs., Conn.), Bob Edwards (former National Public Radio host, now weekends on Sirius/XM), Tom Jackson (ESPN commentator) and 33 players active in the NFL during the 2015 season.

■ UofL's large co-ed cheerleading squad has won 16 national cheerleading titles, including winning the 2011 National Cheerleading Association Championships in Daytona Beach, Fla. The Cards' all-girl squad has won 11 championships — including 2015 — and UofL also won the small coed national title eight times, including 2015. The Ladybirds, UofL's dance team, has won 12 national titles, including winning the last seven of the last eight NCA Championships and the 2015 title. UofL swept all four competitions at the 2009 and 2011 events. The Ladybirds added the 2014 Hip Hop championship to their trophy case last year. The Cardinals also won their third USA Cheer stunt national championship in 2013.

UofL BASKETBALL

Cardinal Facts and FIgures

■ UofL is among 17 programs in the nation that have won at least 70 percent of their games over the last 14 years. Louisville has a .745 winning percentage since UofL Coach Rick Pitino took over the reins of the Cardinal program, eighth best in the nation during his tenure at Lousville.

■ UofL is in its second season in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2015-16. Louisville was a member of the American Athletic Conference during the 2013-14 season and for the eight previous years competed in the Big East Conference. Louisville accepted an invitation to join the ACC on Nov. 28, 2012 and moved to its current home in the 15-member ACC on July 1, 2014.

■ Louisville has received an NCAA Public Recognition Award in each of the last three years for ranking among the top ten percent in men's basketball in the Academic Progress Rate, which measures academic eligibility, retention and graduation for student-athletes. The Cardinals produced a collective 3.26 grade point average for the 2014-15 academic year, with a 3.40 combined GPA for the fall semester, both figures ranking the second-highest all time. Uof'L's men's basketball team earned four conference Team Academic Excellence Awards (one American, three Big East), which recognizes the highest collective grade-point averages in each of the conference sponsored sports. The men's basketball team has hovered around a collective 3.0 GPA for 14 straight semesters. Twenty-six of the Cardinals' 31 seniors over the last 11 years have earned their degrees, including 16 of the last 17 from the last six years.

■ Louisville is consistently the highest-rated television market for college basketball, according to an ESPN analysis over the last 13 years. Louisville has been the top market each of the last 13 years, averaging a 4.5 rating or higher over the past six seasons. Louisville's 5.9 rating during the 2014-15 season was nearly three points higher than the next closest market (Greensboro, N.C. with a 3.0 rating).

■ Louisville has a 60-32 record over the last nine years on their opponent's home court. Louisville had the most road victories of any school in Big East Conference games over its last seven years in that league and was a league-best 8-1 in its road games in The American during the 2013-14 season. The Cardinals have a 51-28 record in conference games on the road over the last nine seasons (.638). In neutral site games, Louisville has a 30-5 record over the last three years (.857) and a 40-12 neutral site record over the last seven years (.769). UofL posted a 6-3 road record in its first year in the ACC.

■ UofL has a 179-41 record (.814) against non-conference opponents in Coach Rick Pitino's 14 seasons (includes post-season), including a 121-12 record at home (14-7 away). The Cardinals are 45-3 at home in regular season non-conference games over the last five seasons.

Cardinals in the NCAA Tournament

■ Louisville made its 41st NCAA Tournament appearance in 2015. The Cardinals have reached the NCAA Tournament 32 of the last 39 years (nine straight, 12 of the last 13, 14 of the last 17 years, 20 of last 24). The Cards have reached the Sweet 16 on 21 occasions and have advanced to the Elite Eight five of the last eight seasons. Louisville is sixth in tournament victories (75) and is fifth in NCAA Tournament appearances (41). UofL has a 75-42 overall NCAA Tournament record, reaching the Final Four 10 times.

■ Only four teams -- Kentucky (55), North Carolina (46), UCLA (45), and Kansas (44) -- have more NCAA Tournament appearances than Louisville's 41.

■ UofL Coach Rick Pitino has a 53-18 record in NCAA Tournament play (.746), ranking him second among active coaches in winning percentage and 10th all time. Only three coaches have coached more Final Four teams than Pitino's seven, a feat matched by one other. Pitino is the first coach to win a title at two different schools; the first to lead three different schools to the Final Four; is one of 11 coaches to lead four different schools to the NCAA Tournament; and one of 11 active collegiate coaches who have won an NCAA Title.

■ Only three teams have been to more Sweet 16 appearances than Louisville's 21 since the NCAA began Sweet 16 records in 1975 (North Carolina 26, Kentucky 26, and Duke 24).

■ UofL Coach Rick Pitino has guided 20 teams to NCAA tournament appearances, including 12 of his last 13 years at Louisville (nine straight). His last six straight Kentucky teams reached the NCAA Tournament. The Wildcats won the 1996 NCAA title and were national runner-up in 1997 under his guidance.

■ The 2012-13 season marked the third time the Cardinals entered the NCAA Tournament as a No. 1 seed. UofL reached the Final Four in 1983 as a No. 1 seed before falling to Houston in the national semifinals, and reached the Elite Eight in 2009 before losing to Michigan State. The Cards have a 12-2 record as a No. 1 seed since the NCAA began seeding teams in 1979.

■ Louisville won its third NCAA Championship in 2013 and its first in 27 years. UofL is one of 14 schools that have won multiple NCAA Championships and is one of eight universities with at least three titles.

■ Louisville's schedule has ranked among the top 16 toughest in the nation by the ratings percentage index (RPI) in seven of the last eight seasons. Fourteen of Lousville's 15 losses in the last two seasons came to teams that reached the NCAA Tournament.

■ Louisville has a 52-10 record in NCAA Tournament play when the Cardinals are the higher seed. The Cardinals are 10-17 when playing as a lower seed and 0-1 when facing a team of the same seed (in Final Four). The NCAA began seeding teams in 1979.

■ Since the 1979 seeding process inception, UofL Coach Rick Pitino has coached six teams that have entered the tournament as No. 1 seeds (2009 and 2013 at UofL; 1993, 1995, 1996, and 1997 at UK). Pitino has an 18-4 record as a No. 1 seed.

■ Cards As No. 1 Seed — Louisville's 2012-13 team marked the third time the Cardinals entered the NCAA Tournament as a No. 1 seed (also: 1983, 2009) and the second time as the overall top seed (also 2009). Louisville reached the Final Four in 1983 before falling to Houston in the national semifinals, and reached the Elite Eight in 2009 before losing to Michigan State. The seeding process began in 1979.

Yum! Center

The Yum! Center, which opened in August of 2007 on the University of Louisville campus, houses training facilities and offices for the Cardinals' men's basketball, women's volleyball and women's lacrosse teams. The facility includes (clockwise) the basketball playing court, a theatre, an extensive weight room, the training room, a well-lit front exterior of the building, and the main lobby entrance.

Yum! Center

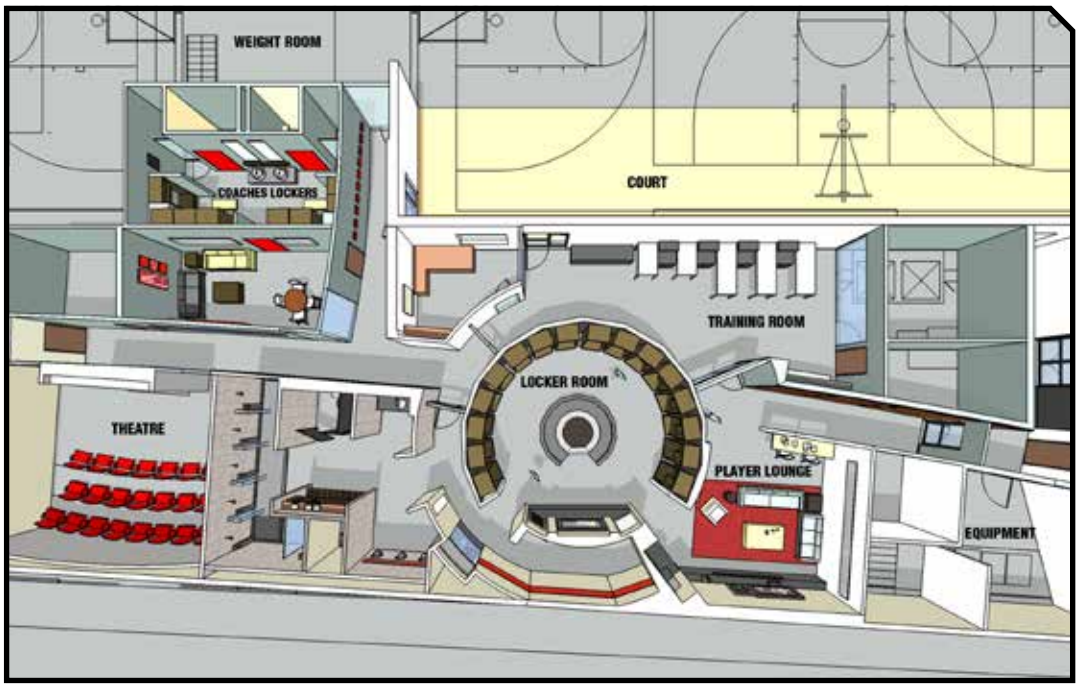

The Yum! Center also features (clockwise) the men's basketball conference room, a cardio workout room which overlooks the weight room and playing court, the player lounge and the circular locker room with a section of the 2013 NCAA Championship court in the center. The diagram below provides an overview of the layout of the player's facilities within the building.

An overview of a portion of the ground floor in the Yum! Center includes (clockwise) the tip of the weight room, coaches locker room and meeting space, the basketball court which can accomodate two side-by-side full courts and has limited seating on the side, a training room, equipment room, the player lounge, circular locker room, showers and rest room area, and a theatre for reviewing video footage.

KFC Yum! Center

The University of Louisville began a new era in its tradition-rich basketball program with its move in 2010-11 to the sparkling KFC Yum! Center, located on the banks of the Ohio River in downtown Louisville.

The 22,000-seat multi-purpose arena is truly a state-of-the-art facility, which will rival any, including those in which a professional franchise is the primary tenant. Built at a cost of $238 million, the arena features the latest in technological advancements - including WiFi within the arena bowl for patrons - and provides a superb experience for fans to enjoy.

The Cardinals had played basketball since 1956 in Freedom Hall, where they amassed a 682-141 record in 54 seasons and ranked among the top five nationally in attendance for the last 29 straight seasons. Freedom Hall - which currently remains in operation - had been the site of six NCAA Final Fours, four additional NCAA men's basketball tournament events and 10 conference tournaments in which UofL participated.

In their first five seasons in their terrific new home, the Cardinals have posted an 81-13 record.

Owned by the Louisville Arena Authority and managed by Anshutz Entertainment Group (AEG), the KFC Yum! Center is bordered by Main Street on the south, Third Street on the west, River Road on the north and Second Street to the east.

UofL's men's and women's teams have permanent locker rooms, including expansive space for its coaching staffs, equipment, training room and a lounge area for each team. There are five additional team locker rooms, two officials locker rooms, five star dressing rooms, a full-function media work room and a full-sized basketball practice court on the event level. An interior truck staging area can accommodate three television production trucks and a nearby area includes four loading docks.

The seven levels of the arena (including the upper catwalk) include a collective 721,762 square feet, or roughly the area of 13 football fields. The 22,000 seats - split about evenly between the upper and lower arena - include 71 luxury suites, 62 four- or six-seat premium boxes, over 2,000 side-court club seats and four party suites with a seating capacity of 32 each. Centerplate is the concessionaire for the facility, which has 27 permanent stands, 32 portable locations, two fixed novelty stands and 234 total points of sale.

After passing through the one and a half acre landscaped entry plaza that features a basketball-themed fountain, entering fans can visit the 2,500-square foot UofL adidas store; the 3,000-square foot UofL Hall of Honor, which features former Cardinal greats; or head to their seats using one of the eight escalators or seven elevators within the building.

Lounge space is abundant within the arena. Four spacious donor rooms are available for Cardinal fans, including three that overlook the Ohio River. The 7,000-square foot main concourse restaurant overlooks the river and a main concourse sports bar has views directly into the arena bowl. Two 4,000-square foot club lounges on the event level, as well as the terrace club and premium box lounges, provide amenities for their respective patrons.

The arena quickly established itself on the entertainment scene, hosting such acts as the Eagles and Katy Perry while ranking among the top arenas in the nation by Rolling Stones and Pollstar magazines. It served as the site for the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship in December 2012, early rounds of the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament in 2012 and 2015 and will host the South Regional in 2016.

UofL Hall of Honor

Situated in the middle of the massive lobby of the KFC Yum! Center, the University of Louisville Hall of Honor is a legacy to the rich history of the Cardinals' basketball program.

Designed by Workshop Design in Kansas City, the UofL Hall of Honor highlights the finest team and individual performances from the Cardinals' past with displays and interactive features.

Among the items on display are multiple trophies from national championships, Final Fours and league titles; artifacts ranging from the early 1900's to the game ball from the last game in Freedom Hall; and a host of interesting memorabilia in a timeline from nearly 100 years of Cardinal Basketball.

A multimedia 14-foot wide projection screen and six additional digital monitors within the area capture a multimedia experience of Cardinal Basketball history. Visitors can use two touch-screen kiosks to watch highlights from many memorable games in UofL history.

Inductees to the UofL Athletics Hall of Fame are displayed and visitors can view photos and additional information on each member on a pair of interactive kiosks. A scrolling LED board continually displays all of the 1,000 point scorers in the program's history.

Fans can also have their photo taken next to life-size Cardinals from the past.

Campus Living in Billy Minardi Hall

Billy Minardi Hall was completed in August 2003 on the UofL campus. The newly-updated student quarters are equipped with modern kitchens and private bedrooms featuring individual computer and television connections. The complex also contains a computer work room, television room, game room, dining area and meeting room. The privately-funded facility is named to honor the memory of Billy Minardi, brother-in-law of UofL Coach Rick Pitino who died in the Sept. 11 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center. Campus life continues to build at UofL with multiple new and expanded athletic facilities, new student housing, and many on-campus student events.

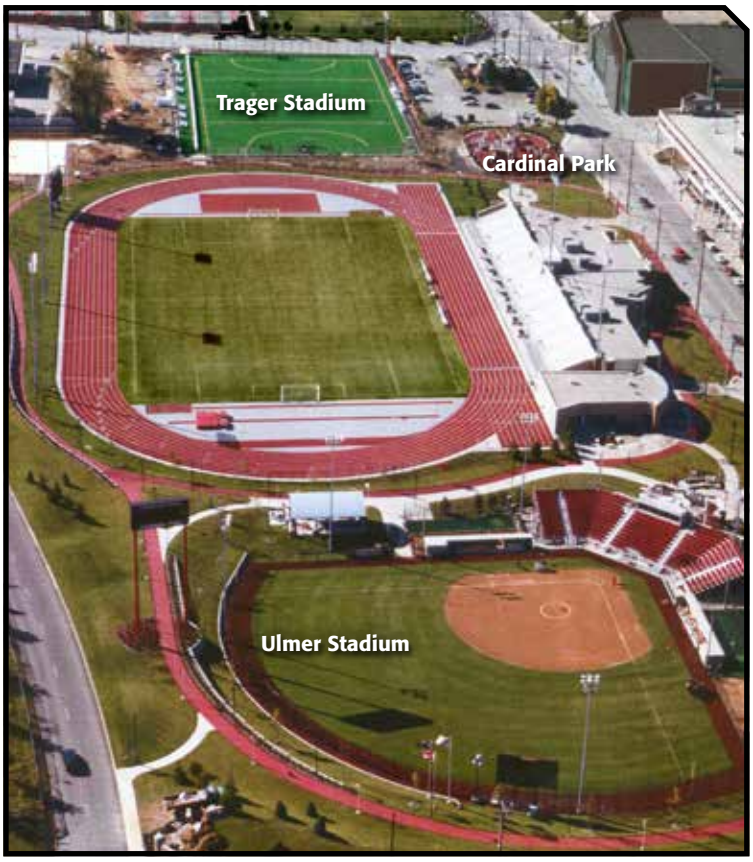

UofL Athletics Facilities

The University of Louisville features impressive facilities that have enriched the campus and entire Louisville community. Every Cardinal sports team has a new facility since 1994, with most being built within the last 17 years.

The state-of-the-art, 22,000-seat KFC Yum! Center has been the home of Cardinal Basketball since opening in 2010 (more info on preceding pages).

The Cardinals kicked off their 1998 football season in the Papa John's Cardinal Stadium, a 55,000-seat on-campus facility that was expanded in 2010. Another possible expansion is being studied.

Cardinal Arena and many athletic offices are housed in the Swain Student Activities Center on the northeast corner of campus. It serves as one of the home courts for volleyball and the practice home for women's basketball.

Built in 1994, the Bass-Rudd Tennis Center was honored as the 1995 USTA College Facility of the Year. It was the first component of Cardinal Park, an area which features multiple playing facilities for the Cardinals: Ulmer Stadium (softball), Cardinal Track Stadium and Trager Stadium (field hockey).

The University of Louisville Golf Club, located just east of Louisville in Simpsonville, Ky., is the home to the UofL men's and women's golf teams.

Patterson Stadium, the recently expanded home to the Cards' baseball team, opened in 2005, as did the Ralph Wright Natatorium and Trager Center fieldhouse. The Yum! Center provides a stellar basketball practice facility and offices as well as a practice home for volleyball and women's lacrosse. UofL opened in 2008 the Marshall Center, a multi-sport weight training facility, and the Field Hockey Complex, to house offices and locker rooms for field hockey. A riverside boat house for the Cardinals' rowing team opened in 2011.

A new, state-of-the-art soccer stadium, Dr. Mark & Cindy Lynn Stadium, opened in 2014. A new Academic Center of Excellence is under construction at the south end of the football stadium structure.

Cardinals By the Numbers

1 Rick Pitino became the first coach to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools when the Cardinals won the 2013 title. He won the 1996 NCAA Championship at Kentucky.

1 Louisville has been the highest-rated television market for college basketball on ESPN for each of the last 13 years, averaging a 5.9 rating during the 2014-15 season, nearly three points higher than the No. 2 market. Louisville's 2013 NCAA Championship game against Michigan is the top-rated television event all-time in the Louisville market.

2 Ranking of UofL Coach Rick Pitino among active coaches in NCAA Tournament winning percentage (.746). His 53 NCAA Tournament victories are the third most among active coaches (53-18 record in 20 NCAA Tournament appearances).

2 Louisville Coach Rick Pitino is one of only two coaches in NCAA history (along with North Carolina's Roy Williams) to have led two different schools to at least three Final Fours each.

3 NCAA Championships for Louisville (1980, 1986, 2013). Only eight schools have won as many as three championships and only four schools have more than three titles.

3 Different schools taken to the NCAA Final Four by UofL Coach Rick Pitino, a unique accomplishment in NCAA history (Providence in 1987; Kentucky in 1993, '96 and '97; Louisville in 2005, '12, '13).

3 UofL's national ranking in attendance last season. The Cardinals have been among the top five nationally in average home attendance for the last 34 straight years, including a 21,386 average in its fifth season in the KFC Yum! Center last year.

3.26 Collective grade point average for the Louisville men's basketball team during the 2014-15 season, the Cards' second-highest ever. UofL received its fourth straight NCAA Public Recognition Award for ranking among the nation's top 10 percent in the Academic Progress Rate.

4 Numbers retired by UofL including No. 8 Charlie Tyra (1953-57), No. 31 Wes Unseld (1965-68), No. 35 Darrell Griffith (1976-80) and No. 42 Pervis Ellison (1985-89). Each was a consensus All-America selection.

4 Division I schools in the nation, including Louisville, which have won 20 or more games in each of the past 13 seasons. Kansas tops the list with a current string of 26 consecutive years, followed by Duke (19), Gonzaga (18), and UofL (13).

4 Current most consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, accomplished only by Louisville and Michigan State.

6 Times that one of Coach Rick Pitino's teams has earned a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament, including his 2009 and 2013 Louisville teams which were the top overall seed those years.

10 NCAA Final Four appearances for the Cards (seventh most all-time), including national championships in 1980, 1986 and 2013.

12 Times Louisville has ranked among the top 40 nationally in field goal percentage defense over the last 14 years (.392 in 2014-15).

13 Number of NIT appearances all-time for UofL, including winning the 1956 title.

17 Percentage of scoring returning for Louisville from last year's successful season, its lowest since 1972-73 when the Cardinals were without a returning starter from its 1972 Final Four team and returned just 9.7 percent of its scoring (254 of 2,614). Quentin Snider's 146 points in 2014-15 ranks him as UofL's top returning scorer, which is the lowest figure for a UofL top returning scorer since 1972-73 (Bill Bunton, 121 points).

23 Games over the last five seasons in which the Cardinals recovered from nine or more points down to win. Two occurred in both games of the 2013 Final Four as UofL trailed by 12 against both Wichita St. and Michigan before rallying to win.

22 UofL Coach Rick Pitino's uniform number as a player at Massachusetts.

26 Number of times Louisville has either won or finished second in its conference championship over the last 38 years. UofL was fourth in its initial year in the ACC last season.

46 Times in the last 50 years that the Cardinals have participated in post-season competition.

46 Consecutive NCAA Final Fours staffed by the UofL statistics crew.

60 This year marks the 60th anniversary of the Cardinals' 1956 NIT Championship (26-3 record) and the 30th anniversary of the Cardinals' 1986 NCAA Championship (32-7 record).

67 Number of UofL players to score 1,000 or more career points, a figure that ranks second in the nation to only North Carolina (71). Montrezl Harrell and Wayne Blackshear reached that mark in 2014-15. The next closest Cardinal is Mangok Mathiang, who has just 221 points in his first two seasons at UofL.

68 UofL players drafted by the NBA (22 first-round picks), including five in the last three years. All-America Pervis Ellison was the No. 1 overall pick in the 1989 NBA draft and four other former Cardinals were taken in the top three. Terry Rozier (No. 16 overall) and Montrezl Harrell (No. 42) became Louisville's latest selections in 2015.

100 Louisville will play its 100th game in the KFC Yum! Center when the Cardinals face Eastern Michigan on Dec. 12. UofL enters 2015-16 with an 81-13 record in its first five seasons in the spectacular facility.

101 Last season was Louisville's 101st in intercollegiate basketball. The Cardinals played their first official men's basketball game on Jan. 28, 1912 when it lost 35-3 to Louisville YMCA, but UofL did not field teams in 1916-17, 1922-23 or 1942-43. Louisville has produced winning seasons in 67 of the last 70 seasons.

117 NCAA Tournament games for Louisville, sixth most all-time. UofL is 75-42 in 41 NCAA Tournament appearances.

123 Number of victories for Louisville over the last four years, the second-most wins in the nation in that stretch. Louisville and Wichita State are the only two schools to win 30 games in three of the last four seasons.

462 Points needed by Damion Lee this season to reach 2,000 for his collegiate career. The graduate transfer enters the 2015-16 season with 1,538 points amassed while at Drexel.

588 Times the Cardinals have been ranked in the weekly Associated Press poll, ranking UofL sixth most all-time. UofL has ranked among the nation's top 10 in the preseason poll for the last four years (eighth in 2014-15, third in 2013-14, second in 2012-13, ninth in 2011-12).

700 UofL Coach Rick Pitino is one of six active coaches entering the 2015-16 season with 700 career collegiate victories, four of which are in the ACC (Duke's Mike Kryzewski 1,018; Syracuse's Jim Boeheim 966; West Virginia's Bob Huggins 769; North Carolina's Roy Williams 750; Wisconsin's Bo Ryan 740).

1,000 Number of games coached by Rick Pitino in his collegiate career when the Cardinals play at Duke on Feb. 20. Pitino enters the 2015-16 having coached 976 collegiate games.

Cards on the Air

Radio

All University of Louisville basketball games will be broadcast live through the Louisville Basketball Network developed by Learfield Sports. WHAS Radio (840 AM), a 50,000-watt, clear-channel station in Louisville, will continue to serve as the Cards' flagship station. The broadcast of some UofL games will move to WKRD (790 AM) when there is conflicting programming. The Cardinals also have extensive UofL programming on WKRD Radio, an all-sports station with primary UofL coverage as well as Fox Sports Radio programming.

Paul Rogers is in his 21st season as the play-by-play voice of the Cardinals while Bob Valvano is in his 15th year providing analysis. A native of Louisville, Rogers has been covering UofL sports for WHAS radio and television since 1973. In addition to serving as the morning sports anchor for WHAS radio, he has called Cardinal Football games and thoroughbred racing from Churchill Downs -- including the local radio broadcast of the Kentucky Derby and the Breeders Cup -- and has broadcast NCAA Tournament basketball for CBS Radio. He was named the 1995, 1998, 2002, and 2013 Kentucky Sportscaster of the Year.

Valvano is a weekend host for ESPN Radio and is a basketball analyst for the ESPN Television family of networks. He also has a weekday radio show on the local ESPN radio affiliate in Louisville. He served as a collegiate coach for 19 years, setting single season records for wins at three different schools and has professional coaching experience in Europe.

When Valvano is unavailable due to other television assignments, Doug Ormay will team with Rogers for in-game coverage. A native of Livingston, N.J., Ormay has over 30 years of sportscasting experience, including nearly 20 years with the Kentucky News Network. During his time with KNN, he worked on the sports networks for Louisville, Kentucky and Penn State as well as broadcasting high school championship events, the Kentucky Derby and minor league baseball. He served as the morning news anchor for KNN and TRN (Tennessee Radio Network). In 1999, Ormay was chosen Kentucky's Sportscaster of the Year and in 2000 won the National Association of State Radio Networks Best Sportscast Award.

UofL coach Rick Pitino is featured on a one hour call-in show on WHAS Radio once a week during the season.

UofL fans beyond the station's wide-ranging signal can listen to live play-by-play broadcasts of UofL games through SIRIUS/XM satellite radio. The WHAS radio broadcasts of Cardinal games are also available over the internet with Sidearm online through UofL's web site at www.GoCards.com, which also offers an iPhone and Android application to listen for a fee. Fans can sign up for the CardsTV service for a monthly or full-season fee.

Television

All University of Louisville basketball games will be featured on television by some means this season. Over the last 32 years, all but 12 UofL basketball games have been televised on either a live or delayed basis.

UofL will be featured on at least 17 national television exposures during the regular season (three ESPN, five ESPNU, two CBS and seven games which will be on either ESPN or ESPN2).

The Cardinals' Dec. 2 ACC-Big Ten Challenge game at Michigan State will be featured on ESPN. Louisville's two appearances on CBS will be Dec. 26 at Kentucky and Jan. 30 against Virginia.

UofL will be featured on ESPNU in three non-conference December games on Dec. 16 vs. Kennesaw State, Dec. 19 vs. Western Kentucky and Dec. 23 vs. Utah Valley in the Billy Minardi Classic.

A dozen of the Cardinals' 18 league games in the Atlantic Coast Conference will reach a national audience, including seven games which will air on either ESPN or ESPN2: Jan. 7 at NC State, Jan. 14 vs. Pittsburgh, Jan. 23 at Georgia Tech, Feb. 13 at Notre Dame, Feb. 17 vs. Syracuse; Feb. 20 at Duke and March 5 at Virginia. The Cardinals will be featured twice on ESPN's Big Monday in consecutive weeks, including Feb. 1 vs. North Carolina and Feb. 8 at Duke.

ESPN's family of networks and the ACC Network will both televise the entire 63rd Annual ACC post-season tournament at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C.

The Cardinals will appear on the ACC Network on five occasions this season, a network of nearly 120 local and regional affiliates, including 18 of the nation's top 20 television markets. UofL will appear locally in Louisville on WAVE-TV or WHAS-TV in those ACC Network games and the network will include games from around the league.

UofL will appear on four occasions on the ACC's regional sports network (RSN), a group of stations which covers much of the nation and includes Fox Sports South, Fox Sports Carolinas, Fox Sports Florida, Sun Sports, Fox Sports Indiana, Fox Sports Midwest, Comcast SportNet Mid-Atlantic, NESN, YES Network, MSG Network and ROOT Sports.

A weekly UofL basketball program -- Inside the Cardinals with Rick Pitino -- with game highlights, features, and comments will also appear throughout the season on WAVE-TV. The show will be hosted by WAVE-TV Sports Director Kent Taylor, the 2014 Kentucky Sportscaster of the Year.

Consult the basketball schedule on page two of this book for a complete listing of television exposures and game times.

2015-16 Outlook

After guiding his Cardinals to a 27-9 record and their fifth NCAA Elite Eight in the last eight years last season, head coach Rick Pitino added a top ten freshman class and further bolstered its roster with a pair of senior graduate transfers.

And for UofL to continue on a path that has led to 123 victories over the last four years – the second-most in the nation in that stretch – the Cardinals must meld that influx of talent with eight returning lettermen. Louisville's returnees account for just 17 percent of the Cards' returning scoring from a year ago, the lowest returning figure for a UofL team in 43 years.

The Cardinals took an early step forward and sped up that process with 10 days of practice and a productive week-long trip to Puerto Rico in August, facing quality competition. With seven games in five days there, the team's chemistry developed and Pitino was able to obtain a clearer idea of his upcoming team's strengths and weaknesses.

"I think we're very athletic, fast and eager to learn," said Pitino, who will open his 15th season with UofL and is second among active coaches in NCAA Tournament winning percentage (.746). "We've got to get our interior people passing the ball better and have our newcomers understand how to play fast. This is the best overall attitude that I've seen since I've been a coach. We have to get ready early and we know from our summer trip what we need to work on. Our freshmen are going to have to develop early and we feel they have the ability to do so."

A pair of 6-10 front court returnees gained valuable experience in international competition over the summer, as sophomore Chinanu Onuaku won a gold medal as a member of the 2015 USA Basketball Men's U19 World Championship Team, while junior Mangok Mathiang competed with Australia and led the 2015 World University Games in rebounding.

An All-ACC Academic team selection, Mathiang averaged 2.6 points, 4.7 rebounds and was sixth in the ACC with 46 blocked shots last season. He started all four of the Cardinals' 2015 NCAA Tournament games and hit the game-winning jumper with 2.7 seconds remaining in the Cardinals' 59-57 victory over No. 2 Virginia in the regular season finale.

The Cardinals' primary starter at center as a freshman last season and another All-ACC Academic team member, Onuaku averaged 3.0 points, 4.6 rebounds and was ninth in the ACC with 42 blocked shots last season.

A pair of senior graduate transfers have joined the Cardinals' roster in 6-6 guard Damion Lee, who was the nation's fourth-leading scorer at Drexel last season (21.4 ppg) and 6-2 guard Trey Lewis, who led Cleveland State with a 16.3 scoring average and made a school-record 96 three-pointers. The duo joins Mathiang in a leadership role as tri-captains for the Cardinals this season.

Chinanu Onuaku (left) and Mangok Mathiang return to lead the Cardinals' front court after both gained international experience over the summer.

Joining Mathiang and Onuaku in the front court are sophomores 6-9 Jaylen Johnson, 7-0 Anas Mahmoud and 7-0 Matz Stockman. All three have a season under their belts and have shown growth on the court. A pair of top 40 recruits will battle for playing time in 6-7 freshman Deng Adel, who averaged 19.1 points, 8.2 rebounds, and 4.0 assists last season for Victory Rock Prep; and 6-10 Raymond Spalding, who averaged 13.0 points, 8.7 rebounds and 3.1 blocked shots last season at Trinity High School. Both showed promise in Puerto Rico that they can be a factor this season.

Qualifying as the Cardinals' top returning scorer at 4.1 points per game, 6-2 sophomore guard Quentin Snider was inserted into the lineup late in the season and blossomed at the point guard position. As a starter Snider averaged 8.6 points, 2.6 assists and 2.8 rebounds per game and will be among the leaders in the backcourt this year.

Also adding depth to the back court are returners Dillon Avare and David Levitch along with freshmen Donovan Mitchell, Ryan McMahon and Jay Henderson. Levitch and Avare both saw time off the bench as a reserve for the Cardinals last season.

Ranked among the top 30 in his class, Mitchell averaged 14.3 points, 5.7 rebounds, 2.4 assists and 1.8 steals last season in helping Brewster Academy to an impressive 34-1 record, and its second straight National Prep Championship. A long-range marksman, McMahon averaged 26.4 points, 3.3 assists, 3.0 rebounds and 2.5 steals in leading Cardinal Mooney to a 26-4 record and the state final four for the first time in school history. Henderson transferred to Louisville from St. John's where he redshirted his freshman year, a year after he averaged 13.1 points, 3.3 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 1.5 steals as a senior at Lakeland Prep.

Louisville is seeking to maintain its consistency of success as the Cardinals are one of just four Division I schools which have won at least 20 games in each of the past 13 seasons. Only Louisville and Wichita State have won 30 games in three of the last four years.

The Cardinals will be without departed multi-year starters guard Terry Rozier, a first round draft pick of the Boston Celtics and the highest scoring sophomore ever at Louisville (615 points in 2014-15); forward Montrezl Harrell, the Cardinals' all-time dunk leader, a second round pick by the Houston Rockets and the recipient of the inaugural 2015 Karl Malone Award as the nation's top power forward; and Wayne Blackshear, like Harrell a career 1,000 point scorer for UofL and the only player in Louisville history to play in four consecutive NCAA Sweet 16s.

Three participants from the 2015 NCAA Final Four and a full slate of games in the Cardinals' second season in the Atlantic Coast Conference are among a challenging schedule that UofL will face this season. Louisville has played a schedule ranked among the top 16 toughest by the ratings percentage index (RPI) in seven of the last eight seasons.

UofL enters its sixth season in the spectacular KFC Yum! Center, where the Cardinals' have posted an 81-13 record in the 22,000-seat home court in downtown Louisville.

Louisville Coaching Staff

Head Coach Rick Pitino

Rick Pitino

When the University of Louisville went looking for its first new men's basketball coach in 30 years just 14 years ago, it didn't just get the best person available. The Cardinals got arguably the best person, period.

Rick Pitino, one of the most brilliant minds in coaching, began a new era in University of Louisville men's basketball when he was named head coach of the Cardinals on March 21, 2001. And as he successfully accomplished at his previous three collegiate coaching stops, it is clear over a decade later that there couldn't have been a finer choice to continue to lead Louisville to its place among the nation's elite teams.

The first coach in NCAA history to win a national championship at two different schools, Pitino's up-tempo style, pressure defense, strong work ethic and family atmosphere have restored the Cardinals to national prominence where it is firmly seated.

In 30 seasons as a collegiate head coach at five different schools, Pitino has compiled a 722-254 record, a .740 winning percentage that ranks him 13th among active coaches. He has a 368-126 record in 14 seasons at UofL, the third winningest coach in Cardinal history. UofL is among the nations' top 10 programs in winning percentage under his guidance. His current contract ties him with UofL through the 2025-26 season.

The only coach in NCAA history to take three different teams to the NCAA Final Four, Pitino was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2013, lofty recognition for a lifetime of impressive basketball achievement.

The Cardinals enter the season with 123 victories over the last four years -- second-most in the nation in that stretch -- and UofL is one of just two schools in the nation with 30 wins in three of the last four seasons.

A 2006 inductee to the New York City Hall of Fame, Pitino has the second-highest winning percentage in NCAA Tournament games among active coaches, winning 75 percent of his games in the post-season event with a 53-18 record in 20 tournament appearances.

Pitino is one of only two coaches (along with North Carolina's Roy Williams) in NCAA history to have led two different schools to at least three Final Fours each. He is one of only four coaches (also Jim Boeheim, Mike Krzyzewski and Dean Smith) ever to guide a school to the Final Four in four separate decades. Pitino is one of a select group of eight coaches who have taken teams from four different schools to the NCAA Tournament. He is one of five coaches all-time who have reached the Final Four on at least seven occasions. His most recent Cardinals reached the Elite Eight in the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in the last eight years and played their first season in the Atlantic Coast Conference, finishing fourth among a league with five teams in the nation's top 25, including NCAA Champion Duke. He won his 700th game along the way.

In the 2013-14 season, Louisville won both the American Athletic Conference tournament championship and shared the regular season title while advancing to the NCAA Sweet 16 with a 31-6 record and a top five national ranking. Senior guard Russ Smith developed into a consensus All-America selection as the Cards won 30 games for the third straight season.

Pitino guided the Cardinals to the 2013 NCAA Championship after claiming the nation's top overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and winning the BIG EAST Conference regular season co-championship and tournament titles. The Cardinals won a school-record 35 games while claiming their first NCAA title in 27 years. UofL reached its second straight and10th Final Four, marking Pitino's seventh, a total reached by only six coaches all-time.

A year earlier, Pitino's Cardinals manufactured a thrilling March run that delighted UofL fans. After winning his 600th collegiate coaching victory in the Cards' opening game of the 2011-12 season, UofL embarked on a terrific season in which it won 30 games, claimed the Big East Tournament championship and advanced to the NCAA Final Four.

That followed another season of success. Despite opening the season with no regular returning starters in 2010-11, the Cardinals tied for third in the nation's toughest conference and reached the title game of the Big East Championship. Louisville beat seven Top 25 teams and rose to the national rankings themselves after not receiving a single vote in the preseason AP poll.

In 2009-10, Louisville reached 20 victories for the eighth straight year against a top-five rated schedule. Along the way, U of L tied for fifth in arguably the nation's toughest league, beat then top-ranked Syracuse in the regular season finale, and played in the Cards' 36th NCAA Tournament.

The Cardinals earned both the Big East Conference regular season and tournament championships in 2008-09, won 31 games -- fifth most in school history -- and gained the top overall seed in the NCAA Tournament before reaching the NCAA Elite Eight for the second straight year. UofL earned its first ever Associated Press No. 1 ranking in the final poll.

UofL overcame early injuries to its front line in 2007-08 to win 27 games against a schedule rated as the fourth-toughest in the nation. An aggressive, multiple defensive attack helped UofL earn a second-place finish in the Big East for the second consecutive year and advance to the Cards' second NCAA Elite Eight appearance in four years.

In 2006-07, Pitino's youthful squad also battled through injuries to win eight of its last ten games and rise among the nation's top 20 teams over the last four weeks. The Cards won 24 games, including a pair on the road over top 15 ranked teams, earned a second-pace finish in the Big East Conference and were No. 16 in the final Associated Press ranking.

The Cardinals were No. 3 in the nation in the final 2004-05 ESPN/USA Today poll while posting a stellar 33-5 record, matching the most victories in UofL history. UofL won its first-ever Conference USA regular season title and also claimed the league tournament championship. Louisville reached its first NCAA Sweet 16 since 1997 as the No. 4 seed in the Albuquerque Regional before advancing to its first NCAA Final Four since 1986. Pitino, who made his fifth Final Four appearance, became the first coach ever to guide teams from three different schools to the Final Four.

The successes of the 2005 Final Four squad were built upon the efforts of his early teams at UofL. A year before that Final Four advancement, the Cardinals won 16 straight during one stretch and rose to as high as fourth in the national polls before a trio of key injuries disrupted the Cardinals' flight. UofL beat top-ranked Florida on Dec. 13, 2003, the first of two wins that season UofL achieved over No. 1 ranked foes.

In his second year at UofL in 2002-03, the Cardinals reached the No. 2 position in the Associated Press poll and spent time as the nation's top team in the Ratings Percentage Index and Sagarin Ratings. After a 1-1 start, the Cardinals reeled off an incredible 17 straight victories, one short of the school record and won its first C-USA Tournament title.

Pitino did not ease into his tenure at UofL. In his first year with the Cardinals in 2001-02, he guided an undersized, often outmanned squad to a 19-13 record, upsetting the nation's fourth-ranked team along the way to earning a post-season tournament appearance in the NIT, nearly reversing the Cardinals fortunes the season prior to his arrival (12-19 in 2000-01).

Even under great adversity, Pitino's teams have persevered. Louisville battled through destructive injuries and inexperience during the 2005-06 season to post a 21-13 record in its first year in the Big East Conference, concluding the year in the NIT national semifinals.

■ Pitino is the first coach to take 3 different schools to the Final Four and first to win a title at 2 different schools.

Pitino's impact goes beyond the teaching, motivation and X's and O's of his on-the-court skills. His incredible charisma, tireless work ethic, captivating speaking skills and widespread appeal not only mesmerize the Cardinal faithful, but have the college basketball world abuzz as well. His arrival in Louisville generated incredible attention beyond the borders of the state he and his family have come to love.

Pitino is known for getting his players to believe in themselves, instilling the desire to succeed and driving his players to overachieve. His former players speak of their coach's caring nature beyond their basketball skills. Twenty-eight of his former assistants or players have become collegiate head coaches.

For three and a half years, Pitino served as president and head coach of the NBA's Boston Celtics. With the Celtics, he took over a team that had posted a franchise worst 15-67 record before his arrival. He quickly made an impact, improving the Celtics' victory total by 21 games in his first season. He resigned his position with the storied franchise on Jan. 8, 2001 after compiling a 102-146 record there.

He guided Kentucky to three NCAA Final Four appearances in his last five years at Kentucky, winning the 1996 NCAA Championship and reaching the national title game in 1997. In eight seasons with the Wildcats, he amassed a 219-50 record (.814) while winning two league crowns and an impressive 17-1 record in the Southeastern Conference Tournament.

While at Kentucky, Pitino coached three Wildcats who earned All-America honors and eight players who were drafted by the NBA, including six in the first round (three lottery picks).

Pitino, 63, got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Hawai'i in 1974 and served as a full-time assistant there in 1975-76 when he was the head coach for the last six games of the season (2-4) when the head coach was relieved of his duties. He served two seasons as an assistant at Syracuse under Jim Boeheim from 1976-78.

Pitino was only 25 years old when he accepted his first head coaching job at Boston University in 1978. He produced a 91-51 record in five years there, departing as the most successful coach in BU history. In his final season there, he guided the Terriers to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in 24 years. He was twice named New England Coach of the Year (1979, 1983).

■ 28 former Pitino assistant coaches or players have become collegiate head coaches.

Pitino left Boston U. to become an assistant coach for the New York Knicks from 1983-85, where he worked with head coach Hubie Brown. It was a team he would return to lead as its head coach in two seasons.

He was head coach at Providence College for two seasons (1985-87), producing a 42-23 record there. He guided the Friars to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1986 and an improbable trip to the NCAA Final Four in 1987, winning the regional title in Freedom Hall.

Before his stint at Kentucky, Pitino served as head coach of the New York Knicks for two seasons. In his initial year there in 1987-88, the Knicks improved by 14 victories and made the NBA Playoffs for the first time in four seasons. The Knicks won 52 games in 1988-89 and swept the Philadelphia 76ers in the first round of the NBA Playoffs.

Aside from his hoops prowess, Pitino has achieved success off the court as well in such realms as broadcasting, publishing, motivational speaking and horse racing. He is an accomplished author, producing such books as the best sellers "Success Is A Choice" and "Lead to Succeed," as well as his latest offering "The One-Day Contract."

He earned his degree in 1974 at Massachusetts, where he was a standout guard for the Minutemen's basketball team. His 329 career assists rank eighth all-time at UMass and his 168 assists as a senior is the sixth-best single season total ever there. Pitino was a freshman during NBA legend Julius Erving's senior year.

Born Sept. 18, 1952, Pitino is a native of New York City where he was a standout guard for Dominic High School in Oyster Bay, Long Island. There, he captained his team and established several school scoring marks.

Coaching Career Notes

- Pitino is the first coach in NCAA history to win an NCAA Championship at two different schools. He guided Louisville to the 2013 title and won the 1996 title at Kentucky, also finishing as runner-up in 1997.
- Pitino is the first coach in NCAA history to guide three different schools to the NCAA Final Four.
- Pitino is one of only two coaches (along with North Carolina's Roy Williams) in NCAA history to have led two different schools to at least three Final Fours each.
- Pitino is one of only four coaches (also Jim Boeheim, Mike Krzyzewski and Dean Smith) ever to guide a school to the Final Four in four separate decades.
- Pitino has coached seven NCAA Final Four teams (Providence 1987; Kentucky 1993, 1996 and 1997; Louisville 2005, 2012, 2013).
- Pitino has a 53-18 record in NCAA Tournament play (.746), ranking him second among active coaches and 16th in all-time NCAA Tournament winning percentage.
- Pitino has guided 20 teams to NCAA tournament appearances, including 12 of his 14 Louisville teams and his last six straight Kentucky teams. He has won 38 of his last 50 NCAA Tournament games spanning his last 14 appearances.
- Twenty-three of Pitino's 30 collegiate teams won 20 or more games (fifth among active coaches), with eight winning 30 or more (fifth all-time). UofL's 2012-13 unit set a school record with 35 wins.
- At five collective collegiate coaching stops, Pitino has coached 28 players who were drafted or have played in the NBA, five of whom are active players. His 1996 NCAA Championship Kentucky team featured seven future NBA performers.
- Pitino's teams have won 12 tournament championships and he has a collective 47-16 conference tournament record (.746). In eight seasons at Kentucky, his teams posted an incredible 17-1 Southeastern Conference tournament mark. He guided UofL to BIG EAST titles in 2009, 2012 and 2013.
- Pitino has compiled a 722-254 record, a .740 winning percentage that ranks him 11th among active coaches and 22nd in all-time victories.
- Pitino was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2013.
- Pitino has coached teams from four different schools to the NCAA Tournament (Boston U., Providence, Kentucky and Louisville), one of 11 coaches all-time to accomplish that feat.
- Pitino is one of eight active collegiate head coaches with head coaching experience in the NBA (others include Kentucky's John Calipari, Oklahoma's Lon Kruger, SMU's Larry Brown, UTEP's Tim Floyd, Florida State's Leonard Hamilton, Utah's Larry Krystkowiak and CSUN's Reggie Theus).
- When Pitino attained his first collegiate head coaching position in 1978 at the age of 25, he was the nation's youngest Division I head coach.
- Pitino officially guided his first team as a head coach in just his second year out of college. As an assistant coach in his second year at Hawai'i in the 1975-76 season, Pitino coached UH for the final six games of the season after the head coach there was relieved of his duties.
- Pitino has international coaching experience, guiding the Puerto Rico national team in three 2015 summer competitions.

■ Pitino's Unique Accomplishment — In guiding Louisville to the 2013 NCAA title, UofL Coach Rick Pitino became the first coach to lead two different schools to a national title. When he lead the Cards to the NCAA Final Four in 2005, Pitino became the first coach in NCAA history to guide three different schools to the Final Four. Pitino has coached seven Final Four teams (Providence 1987; Kentucky 1993, 1996 and 1997; Louisville 2005, 2012, 2013), including winning the 1996 NCAA Championship at Kentucky and a runner-up finish there in 1997. Pitino is one of only six coaches all-time who have reached the Final Four at least seven times. Twelve coaches have taken teams from two different schools to the NCAA Final Four.

■ Pitino Second in Active NCAA Winning Percentage — Pitino has a 53-18 record in NCAA Tournament play (.746), ranking him second to Duke's Mike Krzyzewski among active coaches in NCAA Tournament winning percentage. Pitino has guided 20 teams to the NCAA Tournament, including 12 of his last 13 at Louisville. He has guided a team into the NCAA Tournament in 18 of his last 20 seasons coaching in the collegiate ranks (last six straight UK teams from 1992-97; 2003-05, 2007-15 at UofL). Pitino's teams have won 38 of his last 50 games, spanning his last 14 NCAA Tournament appearances (1996, 1997, 2003, '04, '05, '07, '08, '09, '10, '11, '12, '13, '14, '15).

■ Pitino Coach of Record for Six Games at Hawai'i — UofL Coach Rick Pitino officially guided his first team as a head coach in just his second year out of college. As an assistant coach in his second season at Hawai'i during the 1975-76 season, Pitino coached the Rainbows for the final six games of the season after the head coach there was relieved of his duties. Hawai'i won two of those contests, producing the first victory of his illustrious collegiate career with an 82-58 win over Portland on Feb. 28, 1976. The addition to his career record was discovered prior to the 2011-12 season and with UofL's first victory of the year against Tennessee Martin, Pitino earned his 600th collegiate career coaching victory.

■ Updates On www.rickpitino.com — UofL Coach Rick Pitino provides personal updates on the Cardinals on his web site at www.rickpitino.com. Pitino periodically provides personal updates on the team.

Pitino Chronology

UofL Vice-President and Director of Athletics Tom Jurich (right) lured Pitino to Louisville in 2001 and the coach now has a contract through the 2025-26 season.

■ Sept. 18, 1952 - Pitino is born in Manhattan, N.Y., the third son of Rosario "Sal" Pitino and Charlotte Newman, a few blocks from Madison Square Garden.

■ 1959 - At the age of seven, Pitino made the Sacred Heart Elementary team a day after he first picked up a basketball.

■ 1970 - Pitino averaged 28 points and 10 assists as a senior at St. Dominic's High School in Oyster Bay, Long Island. He signed with the University of Massachusetts, where he played his freshman year with Julius "Dr. J" Erving.

■ 1974 - Pitino graduates from UMass. A 6-foot guard, he played four seasons and averaged 28 points per game as a senior. His 168 assists as a senior is the sixth highest single-season total ever at UMass.

■ 1974 - Pitino attained his first coaching position as a graduate assistant at the University of Hawai'i. He moved up to full-time status a year later.

■ Feb. 28, 1976 - As an assistant coach in his second season at Hawai'i, Pitino coached the Rainbows for the final six games of the season after the head coach was relieved of his duties. He won his first game on this date, an 82-58 win over Portland.

■ April 3, 1976 - Pitino married Joanne Minardi in Manhattan. Later that day, Syracuse coach Jim Boeheim hires Pitino as an assistant coach on his first staff with the Orangemen.

■ 1976-78 - Syracuse produces a combined 48-10 record in two seasons with Pitino as an assistant (26-4 in 1976-77, 22-6 in 1977-78), reaching the NCAA Tournament both years.

■ March 31, 1978 - Pitino is named head coach at Boston University, taking over a program that had won a collective 17 games over the previous two seasons. He would win that many in his first year with a 17-9 mark.

■ March 10, 1980 - Pitino makes his first post-season appearance as a head coach as Boston University drops a 96-74 decision to Boston College in the first round of the National Invitation Tournament, capping a 21-9 season.

■ March 15, 1983 - Boston University makes its first NCAA Tournament in 24 years, falling 70-58 to La-Salle in the first round. It was Pitino's final game with the Terriers after producing a 91-51 record in five seasons.

■ 1983 - Pitino becomes an assistant coach with the New York Knicks under head coach Hubie Brown. The Knicks post a 47-35 record in his first season there.

■ March 22, 1985 - Pitino becomes head coach at Providence College, which is coming off an 11-20 season.

■ March 20, 1986 - Providence falls 64-63 to Louisiana Tech in the quarterfinals of the NIT to finish 17-14 in Pitino's first season.

■ March 21, 1987 - Providence defeats Big East rival and No. 1 seed Georgetown 88-73 to win the NCAA Southeast Region in Louisville's Freedom Hall as Pitino's second Friar team reaches the NCAA Final Four for the first time since 1974.

■ March 28, 1987 - Pitino and Providence lose 77-63 to his former boss Jim Boeheim and Syracuse in the national semifinals in New Orleans to finish 25-9. The Friars scoring leader that season was guard Billy Donovan, the current head coach at Florida who later joins Pitino as an assistant at Kentucky.

■ July 13, 1987 - Pitino becomes head coach of the New York Knicks, who had stumbled to a 71-175 three-year mark before his arrival, worst in the NBA. His first Knicks squad improved by 14 games with a 38-44 record and a berth in the playoffs. His 1988-89 team was 52-30, winning the Atlantic Division.

■ June 2, 1989 - Pitino is named head coach at Kentucky, inheriting a program that had just been placed on two years probation for committing NCAA violations and had posted a 13-19 record prior to his arrival.

■ March 5, 1990 - With just eight scholarship players on the season, Kentucky finishes a respectable 14-14 season with a loss at Notre Dame and a fourth-place finish in the Southeastern Conference. Pitino is named National Coach of the Year by Basketball Times.

■ 1991 - Pitino is named National Coach of the Year by The Sporting News after guiding the ninth-ranked Wildcats to a 22-6 record.

■ March 28, 1992 - In what is regarded by many as one of the greatest college basketball games ever played, Christian Laettner's last-second bucket in overtime edges Duke 104-103 past Kentucky in the NCAA East Region final in Philadelphia. Pitino's Wildcats finish sixth in the nation with a 29-7 record.

■ April 3, 1993 - After reaching the Wildcats' first Final Four since 1984 in Pitino's fourth season, Kentucky loses in overtime to Michigan 81-78 in the national semifinals in New Orleans. The Wildcats complete a 30-4 season.

■ Feb. 15, 1994 - Pitino guides Kentucky to the biggest road comeback in NCAA history, erasing a 31-point deficit in the final 15:34 minutes to edge LSU 99-95.

■ March 2, 1996 - Kentucky finishes the regular season with a 101-63 rout over Vanderbilt as Pitino guides the Wildcats to a perfect 16-0 SEC record, UK's first unblemished run through the league since 1955-56.

■ April 1, 1996 - Pitino and the Wildcats defeat Syracuse 76-67 in East Rutherford, N.J., to win their first NCAA championship since 1978. Kentucky had avenged an early season loss to Massachusetts in the national semifinals two days before.

■ March 17, 1997 - Pitino's new book - "Success Is a Choice: Ten Steps to Overachieving in Business and Life" - is released. The 288-page book rises to the best seller list.

■ March 31, 1997 - In Pitino's final game as the Wildcats' coach, Kentucky falls to Arizona 84-79 in overtime in Pitino's second straight championship game appearance in Indianapolis. Pitino's final UK team posts a 35-5 record.

■ May 7, 1997 - Pitino is named president and head coach of the Boston Celtics. The Celtics were 15-67 the previous season, the worst record in the NBA.

■ Jan. 8, 2001 - Pitino resigns from the Celtics and finishes with a 102-146 record in 3 1/2 seasons.

■ March 21, 2001 - Pitino is introduced as the new coach at Louisville, just the fourth coach for the Cards in the last 57 years.

■ Nov. 18, 2001 - In Pitino's first game as the Cardinals' head coach, UofL pounds South Alabama 92-38, forcing 36 turnovers, the second-highest ever at UofL.

■ Dec. 20, 2002 - In an amazing comeback, Pitino's Cards hit three consecutive three-point goals in the final 32 seconds, overcoming a six-point deficit, to defeat Tennessee 73-72. The Cardinals would win seven of 10 games during the season in games decided by five or fewer points.

■ March 12, 2002 - UofL, which won 12 games the previous season, reaches the NIT under Pitino's guidance beating Princeton 66-65 in the first round.

■ Feb. 10, 2003 - Riding an amazing 17-game winning streak, the Cardinals rise to No. 2 in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls, the highest ranking attained by UofL in 17 years. It was the first time in three years the Cardinals had appeared in the nation's top 25.

■ March 15, 2003 - Pitino guides UofL to its first-ever Conference USA Tournament Championship with an 83-78 victory over UAB in the title game.

■ March 21, 2003 - In the Cardinals' 30th NCAA Tournament appearance, Pitino's Cardinals defeat Austin Peay 83-64 in the first round, marking UofL's first victory in NCAA Tourney competition in six years.

■ Dec. 27, 2003 - After beating No. 1 Florida 73-65 on Dec. 13, Pitino's Cardinals make it two victories over the nation's top-ranked team on the season - a first for UofL - with a 65-56 victory at top-ranked Kentucky. The Cardinals would continue to win, building a 16-game winning streak.

■ March 3, 2005 - On an emotional Senior Night in Freedom Hall, the Cardinals defeat No. 18 Charlotte 94-82 to clinch UofL's first Conference USA Championship in its 10 years in the league.

■ March 26, 2005 - In erasing a 20-point deficit, the Cardinals defeat West Virginia 93-85 in overtime in the NCAA Albuquerque Region championship to send UofL to its eighth Final Four and the first in the last 18 years. It put Pitino in a unique position of being the first coach in NCAA history to lead three different schools to the Final Four.

Other notable former players in coaching: Andre McGee, asst. coach, UMKC; Dan Harwood, head basketball coach, Magruder High School (Rockville, Md.). Pitino coached former Golden State Warriors head coach Mark Jackson at the New York Knicks. Philadelphia 76ers head coach Brett Brown played under Pitino at Boston University. Indiana Pacers head coach Frank Vogel was a student manager for Pitino at Kentucky and was his video coordinator with the Celtics.

■ Feb. 17, 2007 - Freshman guard Jerry Smith's three-pointer at the buzzer lifted UofL to a 61-59 victory at No. 12 Marquette. Coupled with a win at No. 7 Pitt earlier in the week, it marked the first time in 10 years that the Cardinals beat two Top 25 ranked teams on the road. UofL would go on to tie for second in the BIG EAST as the most improved team in the league.

■ March 27, 2008 - The Cardinals beat fifth-ranked and No. 2 seed Tennessee 79-60 in the East Region semifinals as Louisville reached the NCAA Elite Eight for the third time in the last 11 years. It was the 27th victory for the Cards, just the ninth time in school history the Cards won as many.

■ March 7, 2009 - Louisville wins its first BIG EAST Conference title with a 62-59 victory at West Virginia. The Cardinals would go on to also claim the league tournament championship a week later. Nine BIG EAST teams were ranked in the top 25 that season and three were NCAA No. 1 seeds.

■ March 27, 2009 - The Cardinals pounded Arizona 103-64 in the Midwest Region semifinals as Louisville reached the NCAA Elite Eight for the second consecutive year.

■ Jan. 15, 2011 - Trailing Marquette by 18 points with 5:44 to play, the Cardinals recovered to win 71-70 on a Kyle Kuric layin with four seconds remaining.

■ March 24, 2012 - Pitino guides his sixth team to the Final Four as the Cardinals erase an 11-point deficit with about eight minutes left to beat Florida 72-68 in the West Region Championship.

■ March 4, 2013 - With a 67-51 victory over Cincinnati, Pitino earned his 300th victory at Louisville in his 12th season with the Cardinals.

■ March 16, 2013 - A week after closing out a BIG EAST Conference regular season co-championship, Pitino guides the Cardinals to a 78-61 victory over Syracuse to win its second straight tournament title. UofL recovered from a 16-point second half deficit to win the final event before the league broke up.

■ April 8, 2013 - Pitino becomes the first coach in NCAA history to win a championship at two different schools as he guides the Cardinals to an 82-76 victory over Michigan in Atlanta, Ga. to win the 2013 NCAA title. Louisville's 35-5 mark sets a school record for victories as the Cardinals claim their first NCAA Championship in 27 years. UofL had trailed by 12 points in both Final Four games. Louisville won its last 16 consecutive games of the season.

■ Sept. 8, 2013 - Pitino is inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Master Rebuilder

While Pitino's record is among the nation's leaders, it may be even more impressive considering that every program he has taken over had a losing record the year before he arrived. Four of his teams at Louisville are among the top seven in all-time victories at UofL (a record 35-5 in 2012-13, 33-5 in '04-05, 31-6 in '08-09, 30-10 in '11-12).

Record Prior

School	to Arrival	Best Season
Boston Univ.	10-15	21-10, NCAA Participant
Providence	11-20	25-9, Final Four
Kentucky	13-19	34-2, NCAA Champion
Louisville	12-19	35-5, NCAA Champion

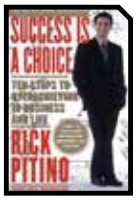

Success as a Horse Owner

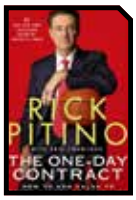

Rick Pitino has dabbled as a horse owner since 1988, with results that would be envious to most in the business. He was a joint owner in AP Valentine, a colt that ran in each of the 2001 Triple Crown races. It placed second in both the Preakness and Belmont Stakes and ran sixth in the Kentucky Derby.

Four horses — Halory Hunter, The Groom is Red, AP Valentine and Goldencents — of which Pitino was an co-owner have won Grade I races. To put that success in perspective, just 0.6 percent of North American thoroughbreds ever win a stakes race.

Pitino and his current stable, named Ol' Memorial Stable after a golf club in Tampa, currently own several horses.

Books

Another off-the-court venture Pitino has had success in is publishing. His "Success Is A Choice" was a national best seller. He has also produced "Born to Coach: A Season with the New York Knicks," "Full Court Pressure," "Lead to Succeed" and "Rebound Rules: The Art of Success 2.0."

He worked with writer Eric Crawford to produce his recent book "The One-Day Contract," which hit the bookstores in October of 2013.

The Daniel Pitino Foundation

The Daniel Pitino Foundation was organized by Joanne and Rick Pitino on May 9, 1994, to memorialize and honor their infant son Daniel, who died in 1987 at the age of six months. The foundation's mission is to benefit underprivileged children and other charitable causes as may be selected by its Board of Directors.

Pitino Enters Hall of Fame

UofL men's basketball coach Rick Pitino was enshrined into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame on Sept. 8, 2013 at the Springfield (Mass.) Symphony Hall.

The 2013 induction class was announced on April 8 in Atlanta, the same day the Cardinals went on to beat Michigan 82-76 at the Georgia Dome to capture the NCAA Championship. It was UofL's third NCAA title and made Pitino the first coach in NCAA history to win a national championship at two different schools. His 1995-96 University of Kentucky team also won a national title.

Pitino chose former NBA coach and current television analyst Hubie Brown, who Pitino served under as an assistant coach with the New York Knicks from 1983-85, and ESPN analyst Dick Vitale, who Pitino has known since his early days of coaching, as his presenters for the induction because of the passion for basketball they showed as speakers at Five-Star camps he attended at an early age.

Players Reach Potential

Pitino Has Coached 15 First Round NBA Draft Picks in College

■ Terry Rozier
Rozier developed into the Cards' leading scorer as a sophomore before selected by the Boston Celtics with the 16rh pick in the 2015 NBA Draft.

■ Gorgui Dieng
After completing his junior year, Dieng was chosen by the Utah Jazz with the 21st pick in the 2013 NBA Draft and was subsequently traded to Minnesota Timberwolves.

■ Terrence Williams
Williams was the 11th selection overall in the 2009 NBA Draft by the New Jersey Nets and was the first college senior taken in the draft.

■ Earl Clark
Another NBA lottery pick, Clark was the 14th choice overall in the 2009 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns following his junior year at UofL.

■ Francisco Garcia
Garcia was chosen as the 23rd pick overall in the 2005 NBA Draft by the Sacramento Kings, where he played eight seasons. He's now with the Houston Rockets.

■ Reece Gaines
Gaines was chosen as the 15th pick overall in the 2003 NBA Draft and played his rookie year with the Orlando Magic and later with the Milwaukee Bucks.

■ Jamal Mashburn
While not a high school All-America selection, Mashburn became Kentucky's fourth all-time leading scorer and a consensus All-America in three years. He was drafted as the fourth overall pick by the Dallas Mavericks and became an NBA All-Star.

■ Antoine Walker
An NBA lottery pick for the Boston Celtics, Walker was the sixth overall pick following his sophomore collegiate season.

■ Tony Delk
After earning Most Outstanding Player honors at the 1996 NCAA Final Four, Delk was chosen as the 16th overall NBA draft selection of the Charlotte Hornets.

■ Walter McCarty
A wispy 168 pounds as a collegiate freshman, McCarty bolstered his body to 226 pounds at graduation. He was the 19th selection overall by the New York Knicks and played 10 years in the league, finishing with the Los Angeles Clippers in 2006.

■ Ron Mercer
Selected in the first round by the Boston Celtics after his sophomore season (sixth overall pick), he earned NBA All-Rookie honors. He finished his career with the New Jersey Nets in 2005.

■ Derek Anderson
Chosen as the 13th pick overall in the 1997 NBA Draft by the Cleveland Cavaliers. He finished his career with the Charlotte Bobcats in 2008.

■ Nazr Mohammed
The 29th pick in the 1998 NBA Draft by the Atlanta Hawks, he helped San Antonio reach the NBA Finals in 2005 and is now a member of the Charlotte Bobcats.

■ Scott Padgett
The Utah Jazz made Padgett its 1999 first-round pick (28th selection overall). He finished his career with the Memphis Grizzlies in 2007.

■ Jamal Magliore
The 19th pick of the Charlotte Hornets in the first round of the 2000 NBA Draft, and is currently with the Miami Heat.

What They Say About Pitino

"I was honored to receive a call from Rick to be his presenter because I had felt that he belonged in the Hall of Fame for the last decade. He's done a magnificent job as a college coach and did a solid job as an NBA coach. He's a great teacher, motivator, and communicates exceptionally well. He is so vital to the university as his name becomes identified with Louisville. To me, he's just a genuine, solid gold, Hall of Famer."

Dick Vitale, ABC/ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"Rick Pitino is among the greatest coaches in the game's history. As a teacher, tactician, clinician, competitor and winner, few can match his success, rich experience in the game, and his amazing record. Pitino was successful with limited resources, and with no three-point line or shot clock. He rebuilt a blueblood brought to its knees and turned it into a championship powerhouse. He was an innovator with the three-point shot and full court pressure. And, he rebuilt a second powerhouse in the Commonwealth into a champion. Few can match his record, or his incredible knowledge and ability level. I respect and admire Rick Pitino as much as any coach I've ever been around"

Jay Bilas, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"Rick Pitino epitomizes a Hall of Fame coach in multiple areas: sustained excellence over an extended period of time; the development of his players and other coaches; and being a passionate ambassador for the game. He's been a champion "for" the game and "in" the game, and seems to be enjoying himself as much as ever. He has been, and continues to be one of the elite coaches in all of basketball."

Clark Kellogg CBS College Basketball Analyst

"People say I improved during my college years. Actually, my improvement was accelerated and noticed because of Coach Pitino's style of play. I was able to showcase my skills in the pressing, fast break up-tempo game, and that is why everyone stood up and took notice, especially the NBA scouts."

Jamal Mashburn, NBA New Orleans Hornets

"Rick Pitino is absolutely the greatest coach I've ever had in my life, and I've played for probably six guys who will be in the Hall of Fame. His greatest strength is making people believe -- in themselves and each other."

Mark Jackson, former NBA All-star and Golden State Warriors coach

"The great strength he has, in my opinion is his ability to give. He has a relentless passion to help people get better. He takes everyone to a place they didn't think they could reach."

Billy Donovan, Head Coach of the Oklahoma City Thunder

Assistant Coach Ralph Willard

Ralph Willard

Ralph Willard, whose 39 years of coaching experience include 19 as a collegiate head basketball coach, rejoined the University of Louisville men's basketball staff as assistant coach in April of 2015.

Willard, who has served as head coach for four seasons at Western Kentucky (1990-94), five years at Pittsburgh (1994-99) and 10 at Holy Cross (1999-2009), has previously coached with UofL Head Coach Rick Pitino on three occasions. Willard was an assistant under Pitino with the NBA New York Knicks (1987-89), at the University of Kentucky (1989-90) and at Louisville (2009-10), where he also served a year with the Cardinals as Director of Basketball Operations for one season (2010-11).

After leaving the Cardinals in 2011, Willard worked as a consultant for Holy Cross for two years before serving as a scout for the NBA Oklahoma City Thunder for the 2013-14 season.

Eight of Willard's collegiate teams won 20 or more games, including four that won as many as 25. His teams participated in postseason competition on nine occasions, including six NCAA Tournament appearances.

Willard compiled a 192-117 record in 10 seasons at Holy Cross, his alma mater, while guiding five teams to postseason competition (NCAA Tournament in 2001, 2002, 2003, 2007; NIT in 2005). Holy Cross advanced to the Patriot League tournament championship game seven of the last nine years and Willard had a 17-6 record in the event.

Second in career coaching victories at Holy Cross, Willard built the Crusaders' program from one that had won just 22 games collectively in the three years prior to his arrival there. A three-time choice for the Patriot League Coach of the Year, he led the Crusaders to three straight league tournament titles in 2001-03, marking the first time in conference history that a team had accomplished that feat.

Willard gained his first collegiate head coaching position at Western Kentucky, where he produced an 81-42 record in four years. In his third season there in 1992-93, the Hilltoppers were 26-6, reached the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, and achieved WKU's highest national ranking in 22 years (No. 16 ESPN/USA Today, No. 20 AP in the final polls).

He was the head coach at Pittsburgh for five seasons, including finishing fifth in the BIG EAST in 1996-97 when his team produced an 18-15 mark. While at Pitt, Willard helped to develop a pair of NBA Draft picks in Mark Blount (Seattle SuperSonics) and Vonteego Cummings (Indiana Pacers).

Prior to his first collegiate head coaching position in 1990, Willard compiled 19 years of coaching experience. After one year as an assistant at the Merchant Marine Academy (1971-72), he spent 13 years as the head coach of his high school alma mater, St. Dominic (Oyster Bay, N.Y.), where he posted a 162-89 mark. He received five conference coach of the year honors there and his 1980 squad won the New York Class B Championship with a 24-3 record. St. Dominic is also the high school alma mater of Pitino.

He returned to the collegiate ranks in 1984 as an assistant coach at Hofstra, followed by a year on Jim Boeheim's staff at Syracuse, where he helped the 1986-87 Orangeman team reach the national championship game. Willard left the college game for two seasons to serve under Pitino with the Knicks, before following Pitino to Kentucky, where he served as the Wildcats' associate head coach for one season.

A 1967 graduate of Holy Cross, Willard was a three-year letterwinner and served as the 1966-67 team captain as a senior when the Crusaders posted a 16-9 mark.

Willard and his wife, Dorothy, have three children: Pamela, Keith, and Kevin, who is a former UofL assistant coach under Pitino (2001-07) and is currently the head men's basketball coach at Seton Hall.

Education: Master's of education in exercise and sport science from Augusta State University in 2000; B.S. degree in psychology from St. Thomas University in 1998; graduated from Columbus High School in Miami, Fla. in 1993.

Personal Data: Born Nov. 12, 1975 in Miami, Fla.; Married to his wife Alicia (Nigro) and they have twin children, Aiden and Addy, born in June 2009.

Mike Balado joined the University of Louisville men's basketball staff as an assistant coach in April 2013 after serving in a similar capacity for one season at Florida International.

In his two seasons with the Cardinals, Balado (pronounced bah-LAW-doe) has helped the Cardinals to a combined 58-15 record, an NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2014 and the NCAA Elite Eight in 2015. UofL signed top ten recruiting classes each of the past two seasons.

Balado helped FIU to quickly achieve success in 2012-13 when the 18-14 Panthers produced their first winning season in 13 years, the fourth-highest win total in school history and the most Sun Belt Conference victories (11) since joining the league in 1998-99. He was an assistant under Richard Pitino, the son of UofL head coach Rick Pitino, who is now the head coach at Minnesota.

Prior to his year at FIU, Balado worked three seasons at High Point University (2009-12), where he assisted in all areas of the Panther basketball program with a heavy concentration on recruiting. He spent the 2008-09 season on the University of Miami (Fla.) basketball staff where he helped the Hurricanes compile a 19-13 record and a berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) while working on player development, scouting and game preparation.

In the summer of 2015, Balado served as an assistant coach with the Puerto Rico National Team under head coach Rick Pitino as the team competed in the Pan American Games and FIBA Americas Championship.

Before his coaching stint at Miami, Balado spent three years on the Florida Atlantic University basketball staff. In Balado's first season at FAU in 2005-06, the team posted its second-consecutive winning season, the first time since the early 1990s that the Owls had consecutive winning seasons. The team set a program scoring record, averaging 74.9 points per game, and produced the best Atlantic Sun Conference record in school history (14-6 mark in 2005-06).

Balado spent two seasons as an assistant at Miami Dade College before taking the post at FAU. While at Miami Dade, he helped lead the Sharks to back-to-back winning seasons, including a program-best 27-5 mark en route to the conference championship in 2004-05. He recruited four of Miami Dade's 2004-05 all-conference selections, including the league player of the year.

Prior to his time at MDC, Balado spent a year at Nova Southeastern University, where he served as an assistant under head coach Gary Tuell, a former UofL assistant coach and sports information director. He began his collegiate coaching career at Augusta (Ga.) State University where he served as a graduate assistant from 1998-2000.

Balado played collegiate basketball at St. Thomas University in Miami, where he was a two-year starter and captain while helping his team win the regular season conference title in 1997. Recipient of a student-athlete leadership award as a senior, he earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from St. Thomas in 1998 and a master's of education in exercise and sport science from Augusta State in 2000.

A native of Miami, Fla., Balado speaks fluent Spanish. He is married to the former Alicia Nigro and the couple has twins, Aiden and Addy, born in June 2009.

Personal Data: Born March 31, 1976 in Md..; Married to his wife Doreen on Sept. 15, 2001. Two children: Amare (12) and Mekai (9).

Kenny Johnson, assistant men's basketball coach and recruiting coordinator at Indiana University for two years prior to joining the Cardinals, is in his second season on the UofL men's basketball staff as an assistant coach under head coach Rick Pitino.

In Johnson's first year on the staff, the Cardinals posted a 27-9 record, were among the top four teams in their first year in the ACC and reached the NCAA Elite Eight. UofL's 2015 recruiting class ranked among the nation's top ten.

While at Indiana, Johnson helped the Hoosiers assemble two top 20 recruiting classes, including a top five class in 2013. On the court, Indiana produced a combined 46-22 record in his two seasons there, winning the Big Ten Championship, earning a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and reaching the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2013.

after surveying more than 200 collegiate coaches, ESPN.com's Jeff Goodman named Johnson as the nation's 11th most respected/feared assistant coach in a July 2013 listing after just two seasons as a collegiate assistant.

Johnson was an assistant coach at Towson for one season in 2011-12, helping assemble a top five mid-major recruiting class. He began his coaching career in 2002 as the associate head coach at Eleanor Roosevelt High School before moving to Dr. Henry Wise High School in 2006 for one year (2006-07). He was associate head coach at Paul IV High School for four years (2007-11) before advancing to the collegiate ranks.

Johnson served six years as assistant director and head of travel and logistics for the TeamTakeover AAU program and was the head coach of its 16 and under age group during that stint. The program produced a total of 53 Division I scholarship players during his stint there. His travel team tournament championships include the prestigious King James Classic (2009, 2010) and the Orlando National Super Showcase (2009).

In addition to his years as a camp coach at Eastern Invitational and Reebok Headliner Camp, Johnson was a guest clinician at the New England Basketball Coaching Clinic at Reebok Headquarters. He has also served as a camp and tournament director, beginning with the first Annual National High School Hoop Festival in 2007 and the first Annual DMV Basketball Coaching Clinic in 2008.

Johnson attended Oxon Hill (Md.) High School, where his playing career was cut short due to an injury in his second year of varsity basketball. As a senior at Oxon Hill in 1994, he was named Science and Technology Student of the Year. He earned his bachelor's degree in cell, molecular biology and genetics in 1999 at the University of Maryland, where he was a Benjamin Banneker Scholarship recipient. He worked as a protein chemist/molecular biologist at Human Genome Sciences in Rockville, Md. after graduation.

A native of Oxon Hill, Md., Johnson and his wife, Doreen, have two sons, Amare (12) and Mekai (9).

Director of Basketball Operations David Padgett

David Padgett

David Padgett, who served as an assistant men's basketball coach at IUPUI for the three seasons and is a former three-year starter at center for the Cardinals, is in his second year as the University of Louisville's director of basketball operations.

Padgett spent three years as an assistant coach at IUPUI from 2011-14. Prior to joining the IUPUI staff, Padgett served a year as assistant strength coach with the Cardinals as UofL posted a 25-10 mark, beat seven ranked teams and reached the title game of the Big East Championship.

Padgett played professional basketball for UB LaPalma in the Canary Islands for two years following his graduation from UofL. He had reached the final preseason cut of the Miami Heat before his playing career in Spain.

A three-year starter and captain at center for the Cardinals (2005-08), Padgett was a unanimous first-team All-Big East Conference selection as a senior and also earned USBWA All-District IV honors. He averaged a team-leading 11.2 points and grabbed 4.8 rebounds his senior year in 2007-08 when the Cardinals reached the NCAA Elite Eight.

Padgett ranks second in career field goal percentage at U of L, hitting 61.3 percent of his shots (332-542). His .667 field goal percentage as a senior was the second best ever at UofL. He set a Big East Conference field goal percentage record for league games as a senior, hitting 68.3 percent of his shots in the 18 games (86-of-126). He was a second team All-Big East pick as a junior.

A McDonald's All-American in high school in Reno, Nev., Padgett played his freshman collegiate season at Kansas before transferring to Louisville. He was the 2003 Nevada Player of the Year and the top rated center in that year's recruiting class. He was a member of the 2004 USA Basketball Junior World Championship Qualifying Team that claimed a gold medal.

Padgett's basketball bloodlines run deep as his father played at the University of Nevada and his uncle played at New Mexico. His grandfather Jim played for Oregon State and his sister played for the University of San Diego.

Padgett and his wife, Megan, welcomed their first child Nolan in August 2013.

Ray Ganong

Strength and Conditioning Coach

Ray Ganong is in his 31st season on the UofL athletic staff as a Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Cardinals.

Ganong, 61, joined the UofL staff in 1985 after six seasons at Miami (Fla.) where he helped the Hurricanes win their first national titles in both football in 1983 and baseball in 1982.

He is one of a handful of strength coaches in America to have a National Championship ring in three different sports. Ray has worked for five head coaches who have won national championships: Denny Crum, basketball, Louisville, 1997-2000; Howard Schellenberger, football, Miami, 1979-83; Jimmy Johnson, football, Miami 1984; Ron Fraser, baseball, Miami, 1980-82; and Rick Pitino, 2001 to present.

Ganong has trained numerous NFL, MLB, and NBA players, as well as UofL's Olympic medalist bobsledder Doug Sharp for 18 months prior to the Olympic Trials.

A pioneer in his field, he was the first person to finish the national certification in its first year in 1985 and has been a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) ever since. He was NSCA Conference USA Strength and Conditioning Specialist of the Year in 1998. Ganong has lectured nationally and internationally and has been published in the National Strength and Conditioning Association Journal.

Since 1985, Ganong has run in 27 Kentucky Derby Mini Marathons, will run in the 2016 event and also competes as a power lifter.

Ganong earned his master's degree in health education from Miami in 1985. A native of Baltimore, Ganong and his wife Maria Fernandez have two children: Raquel and Erika.

Fred Hina

Director of Sports Medicine - Basketball

Fred Hina is in his 15th year as Head Men's Athletic Trainer for the University of Louisville men's basketball team and his fourth year as Director of Sports Medicine.

Hina (pronounced HEE-nuh), 51, is a 1987 graduate of Western Kentucky with a degree in Health Care Administration and a 2004 graduate of the University of Alabama with a Master's of Arts Degree.

Prior to his arrival at UofL, he spent 15 years as an Athletic Trainer in the New York Mets organization, including the last seven years as head athletic trainer for the major league team in New York.

Hina is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association as well as the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He and his wife Gina have three sons: Jared, Justin and Jacob.

Former UofL center Gorgui Dieng earned a bachelor's degree in communication from UofL in 2015. Dieng returned to complete his degree after he was drafted in the NBA's first round following in his junior year, when he helped the Cardinals win the 2013 NCAA Championship.

Anthony Wright

Director of Academic Services

Anthony Wright, a member of the UofL staff for 10 years, is in his eighth season overseeing the academic support for the Cardinals' basketball team as Director of Academic Services.

Wright's supportive efforts have helped the Cardinals earn nearly a 3.0 GPA for 13 straight semesters and entering the ACC, the Cardinals won their last four conference Team Academic Excellence Awards in posting the highest collective GPA among league men's basketball teams. UofL received NCAA Public Recognition Awards for the past three years (2013-15) for ranking among the top ten percent in men's basketball for the Academic Progress Rate. The Cardinals posted a collective 3.40 GPA for the 2013-14 academic year, a team record.

A native of Scotch Plains, N.J., Wright previously worked with the men's basketball teams at Arizona (2001-04) and Iowa State (2004).

Wright was a two-time All-American wide receiver at the University of Maine. He holds school records in single season receptions (88), yards (1,169), and catches in a game (17). He is the only receiver in Maine history to have two back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons.

Wright earned a BA degree in history from the University of Maine in 1999. He earned a master's degree in Special Education from UofL in 2008.

Vincent Tatum

Equipment Manager

Vincent Tatum, a member of the UofL athletics staff for the past 13 years, is in his seventh year as the Cards' men's basketball equipment manager.

Tatum coordinates the men's basketball equipment needs and oversees a staff of student managers who assist with practice sessions and game preparation. He served two years as the director of the Yum! Center and was executive assistant to Rick Pitino for four years prior to that.

Tatum, 43, served as a student manager from 1990-93 under Pitino at the University of Kentucky, where he studied business. UK reached the NCAA Final Four during his final season there (1993).

After leaving UK in 1993, Tatum spent nine years in his family's trucking business in Jeffersonville, Ind. An avid sports fan, Tatum enjoys travel, horse racing, boating and other outdoor activities. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Daniel Pitino Foundation.

A native of Harrodsburg, Ky., Tatum played high school football and baseball at Mercer County High School.

Jordan Sucher

Executive Assistant to Rick Pitino

Jordan Sucher is in his ninth year on the UofL men's basketball staff as executive assistant to Coach Rick Pitino.

Sucher coordinates the basketball office, assists with team travel arrangements and coordinates Pitino's personal schedule.

Prior to joining the Cardinals' staff, Sucher worked three years for Nelligan Sports Marketing (now Learfield Sports), one year with the Horizon League property in Indianapolis, Ind. and two years at UofL.

Sucher was a four-year basketball letterman at Centre College, where he earned a bachelor's degree in economics and history in 2004. The Colonels posted an 18-8 record during his senior year.

He is married to the former Nessa Timoney.

Michael Bowden

Director of Video Operations

Michael Bowden is in his second year on the UofL men's basketball staff and his first as the Cards' director of video operations.

Bowden served a year as assistant video coordinator at UofL before his current role. He spent over two months in the summer of 2015 assisting UofL Coach Rick Pitino with his duties as the coach of the Puerto Rico National Team.

Prior to joining UofL, he worked three years as video coordinator for the women's basketball team at Maryland, where he prepared scouting videos, highlight packages for distribution and served as co-director for camps among his duties. The Terrapins reached the NCAA Elite Eight, Sweet 16, and Final Four in his three seasons there, producing a combined 85-20 record.

Bowden previously served as video coordinator on the women's basketball staffs at South Florida for two seasons (2009-11), as well as for one year at Tulsa (2008-09) where he also served as head manager. Before joining the Tulsa staff, he was the Assistant Player Development Intern at IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla., where he worked primarily with NBA, collegiate and international basketball players with offensive skill development.

Bowden was a volunteer manager with the University of Florida men's basketball team for the 2007-08 season. Bowden also worked with the Florida women's basketball team for four seasons (2004-08) as a member of the scout team, and assisted coaches in film breakdown and scouting reports. He worked three summers with the Clifford Ray & Robert Parrish Big Man Camp (2006-08), and with the Pete Newell Big Man Camp in 2007.

Bowden earned a bachelor's degree in physical education with a concentration in coaching from Florida in 2008. While a student at Florida, he was an assistant varsity coach at Buchholz High School in Gainesville, Fla. for two seasons.

He was married to the former Stephanie Chomicki in June.

Wayne Turner

Director of Player Development

Wayne Turner, who was a member of two collegiate national championship teams and played nine years in professional basketball, is in his third year on the UofL staff, currently serving as the Cardinals' director of player development.

Turner played two of his four seasons at the University of Kentucky under Pitino when the Wildcats won the 1996 NCAA Championship and reached the championship game in 1997. He was a backcourt starter on Kentucky's 1998 NCAA title team and finished his career as the NCAA's all-time leader in games played with 151, a figure which has since been passed.

Turner worked on the UK men's basketball staff in 2010-11 while completing his undergraduate degree. He is Kentucky's career leader in steals (238), ranks fourth in career assists (494) and he scored 1,170 career points with the Wildcats. He was an All-SEC selection as a senior and was honored as the 1998 NCAA Regional Most Outstanding Player and SEC Tournament MVP that year.

A native of Boston, Turner played nine years of professional basketball, including a year with the Boston Celtics (1999-2000), the Harlem Globetrotters (2000) and seven years with multiple CBA and European teams. He worked two years in player development and was UofL's assistant strength coach for the past two years.

Logan Baumann

Assistant Video Coordinator

Logan Baumann is in his first year on the University of Louisville's men's basketball staff as assistant video coordinator.

Baumann gained experience with Cardinals' video operation as a student manager at UofL, where he earned his bachelor's degree in economics in 2015 while attending UofL on a Trustee's Scholar academic scholarship. After starting the Cards' 2013 NCAA Championship season as a student manager, he walked on to the squad that year after an injury depleted UofL's roster. He played one season before returning to his student manager role.

Baumann averaged 17.3 points, 3.8 rebounds, 2.5 assists and buried 69 three-point goals as a senior in helping Ohio County High School in Hartford, Ky. to a 29-3 record, the 10th District Championship and a No. 9 ranking in the state of Kentucky.

Honored as the 2012 Third Region Player of the Year, he scored over 1,000 career points at Ohio County, which won the 10th District Championship all four years he played with the Eagles.

Brandon Williams

Program Assistant

Brandon Williams is in his second year on the University of Louisville men's basketball staff as a program assistant.

His primary duties include assisting in opponent scouting through extensive video breakdowns, game preparation and assisting in on-campus recruiting efforts.

Williams joined the UofL staff after two years as the assistant varsity boys basketball coach at Miami (Fla.) Senior High School (2012-14). He was the assistant varsity boys basketball coach and head JV coach at Monsignor Edward Pace High School in Miami (2010-12), where he was a two-time all-county selections and won two state championships as a player there.

Williams played four seasons as a point guard at Stetson, where he earned a bachelor's degree in business management in 2010. He led the Hatters in assists as a senior.

Billy Minardi Classic

Billy Minardi

The Billy Minardi Classic originated in 2002 to honor the memory of Billy Minardi, brother-in-law of UofL Coach Rick Pitino who died in the Sept. 11 terrorist attack on the World Trade Center. UofL is 14-1 in the event over the past 11 years. The Cards won the inaugural event in 2002 in Freedom Hall, defeating Manhattan in the championship game of the four-team tournament. Reece Gaines was honored as the tourney MVP.

In 2003, the event was a single, truly classic game. The Cardinals posted a 73-65 victory over then top-ranked Florida behind MVP Francisco Garcia.

The event returned to a two-day, four-game tournament the following two years. UofL beat Austin Peay in the 2004 championship game and the Cardinals beat College of Charleston in the 2005 title game. UofL suffered its first defeat in the event in 2006 as Massachusetts prevailed 72-68, followed by a 70-65 Cardinal victory over New Mexico State in 2007 in another single-game event.

In 2008, UofL capped a two-day, four-game tournament by beating South Alabama 81-54 in the championship game as Terrence Williams earned MVP honors. Edgar Sosa scored 17 points and handed out five assists as the game's MVP as UofL beat Western Kentucky 102-75 in the 2009 Billy Minardi Classic. The Cards beat No. 20 UNLV 77-69 in the 2010 event as Chris Smith earned MVP honors. UofL beat Western Ky. 70-60 for the 2011 title.

Peyton Siva earned MVP honors in the 2012 Minardi Classic, but the coaching matchup of UofL's Rick Pitino and his son Richard Pitino, then the head coach at FIU, was center stage in the 79-55 UofL win.

The Cardinals beat Western Kentucky 79-63 in the 2013 event and prevailed 68-57 in 2014 over UNC Wilmington, which will be part of a four-team event this season including UMKC and Grand Canyon.

Richard Pitino (left), then the head coach at FIU, greets his father Rick before the Cardinals faced FIU in the 2012 Minardi Classic.

- Graduate transfer from Drexel, where he was the nation's fourth-leading scorer last season as a junior while averaging 21.4 points per game.
- Enrolled in graduate school at UofL after completing his general humanities and social science degree at Drexel in June.
- Top scorer for Louisville during the Cardinals' trip to Puerto Rico in August, averaging 23.6 points, 6.2 rebounds and connecting on 15-of-38 three-pointers (.395), with a high game of 36 points against the Puerto Rico National Team.
- Member of the 2015 All-Colonial Athletic Association five-person first team and an NABC All-District 10 first team selection.
- Ranked among the CAA top 10 in rebounding (6.1 seventh), defensive rebounding (5.2, second), steals (1.5, fourth), field goal percentage (.438, ninth), three-point percentage (.385, ninth), free throw percentage (.887, second; 14th in the NCAA) and three-pointers per game (2.4, fifth).
- Led the CAA and was eighth nationally in minutes played, averaging 38.1 minutes per game. The Dragons finished last season with an 11-19 record and were sixth in the CAA.
- Topped 20 points in 14 of his 27 games last season, including five perfomances with 30 or more points.
- Scored a season-high 33 points against conference-leader Northeastern on Jan. 28.
- Fractured his right hand early in a game against Northeastern on Feb. 21, 2015 and finished the game with 30 points, missing the team's final three games of the season.

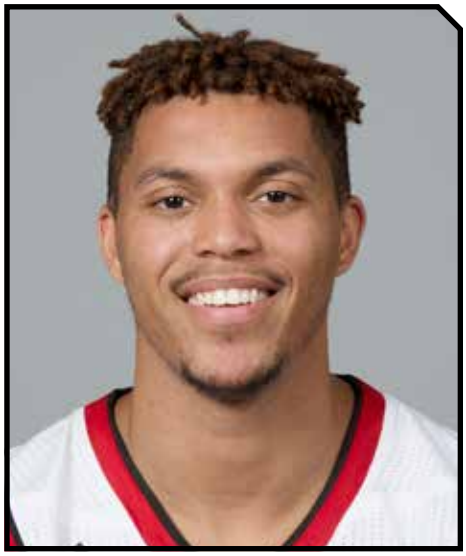

- Named to the 2015 CAA All-Defensive Team and All-Academic Team.
- His 1,538 career points in three seasons ranks 10th on the Dragons' all-time scoring list, he is the Drexel career leader in free throw percentage (.842) and is third in career three-pointers (196).
- Made over 60 threes in each of his three complete seasons. He connected on 38 of his last 39 free throw attempts.
- As a freshman, Lee averaged 12.0 points, 4.4 rebounds and 1.7 assists and scored in double digits on 22 occasions in earning CAA Rookie of the Year honors.
- Led Drexel and was third in the CAA averaging 17.1 points as a sophomore and was an All-CAA second team selection. He scored in double figures in 23 games, including a career-high 34 points against Old Dominion. His 2013-14 season was cut short after just five games when he suffered a season-ending knee injury.
- Chose to attend Louisville for his final collegiate season after narrowing his choices to also include Arizona, Gonzaga, Marquette and Maryland.

High School:

- First-team All-New England Preparatory School Athletic Council selection in 2011 when he averaged 17 points, six rebounds and five assists in helping St. Thomas More School in Oakdale, Conn. to a 30-7 record and the National Prep School Championship.
- First-team All-Baltimore Catholic League selection as a senior at Calvert Hall College High School in Baltimore, also earning second team Baltimore Sun All-Metro honors. He was an all-league selection as a junior.

Personal:

- Born Oct. 21, 1992 ... Son of Michelle Riddick ... Earned a general humanities and social science degree at Drexel in June ... Major at UofL is special education, with a concentration in assistive technology
- Personal goal to "win a national championship and become part of a family."
- Best moment of his athletic career to date was scoring 30 points in a game with a broken hand.
- Enjoys hanging with friends, listening to music and playing video games in his spare time.
- Chose to attend UofL because of "the family atmosphere and a part of something special in a special and embracing community."
- His mom has had the greatest influence on his athletic career.
- Best basketball advice given to him was to "stay humble. As quick as you rise is as quick as you can fall."
- Most proud of his mom not having to pay for his college.
- Few people know that "I write music and plan on dropping a mixtape in 2016. I do the Hunger Games salute after I hit a three-pointer."

- When he played basketball as a kid, he pretended he was Allan Houston.
- If you walked into his dorm room, the first thing you would notice is his TV.
- Chose to wear No. 0 because nobody believed in him and he was always doubted.
- Feels Michael Ealy would be the best actor to play him in a movie.
- Among reality shows, he feels he would fare best on Dancing with the Stars.
- Best thing about being a Cardinal is "playing for something bigger than me and finishing my career as a Cardinal."
- What impresses him the most about Coach Pitino: his experience, his constant drive to be great and for everyone he is associated with to be great.
- Would most like to meet J Cole and Kendrick Lamar.

Guard | 6-0 | 155 | So.-1L | Lexington, Ky. (Lexington Catholic HS)

Freshman Year:

- Redshirt freshman saw action in eight games.
- Buried a key free throw in the second half of the Cardinals' NCAA East Region championship game against Michigan State.
- Scored his first career basket against Jacksonville State, adding a rebound in the game.
- Redshirted the 2013-14 season.
- Played six minutes in UofL's exhibition against Kentucky Wesleyan in 2013, scoring three points and collecting three rebounds.

High School:

- Averaged 11.2 points, 2.8 rebounds and a team-high 4.3 assists as a senior in 2012-13 in helping Lexington Catholic post a 22-12 record and reach the 11th Region championship game.
- Buried 82 three-point goals as a senior, connecting on 34 percent from that range.
- Lexington Catholic produced a 24-8 record during his junior year and a 27-8 mark in his sophomore year in 2010-11, winning the 11th Region title.
- Hit a three-pointer at the buzzer in the district finals to lift Lexington Catholic over Lafayette as a junior.
- Won the three-point competition at the 2013 Kentucky Derby Festival Basketball Classic all-star game.
- Played with fellow UofL walk-on David Levitch on the same AAU team before high school.
- His father Rick played basketball at Transylvania University.

Personal:

- Born March 18, 1995 ... Son of Diane and Rick Avare ... Has one younger brother, Ryan ... Major is economics with a minor in finance.
- Personal goal at UofL is to "become the best player, teammate and student that I can be."
- Best moment of his athletic career to date was hitting a free throw in the Elite Eight game vs. Michigan State.
- Enjoys playing ping pong and Super Smash Brothers in his spare time.
- Chose to attend UofL because "I wanted to go to a great university under the best coach there is to learn and grow in some way every day."
- Best basketball advice given to him was "that I can do all things through Christ."
- Most proud of "my failth, family and work ethic."
- His dad has had the greatest influence on his athletic career.
- Feels Adam Sandler would be the best actor to play him in a movie.
- Few people know that he expects to graduate with a bachelor of science in economics in May of 2016.
- When he played basketball as a kid, he pretended he was Steve Nash.
- If you walked into his dorm room, the first thing you would notice is a cardinal bird picture.
- Best thing about being a Cardinal is the support from all of the students and fans.
- What impresses him the most about Coach Pitino is how he is committed to make every player the best they can be and he doesn't settle for anything less.

- Would most like to meet Stephen Curry.

Jaylen JOHNSON

UofL BASKETBALL

10 Jaylen Johnson

Forward | 6-9 | 215 | So.-1L | Ypsilanti, Mich. (Ypsilanti HS)

Freshman Year:

- Showed continued improvement throughout the year and particularly late in the season when he played key minutes in five of the last six games.
- Logged an average of 4.6 minutes in his 23 appearances, primarily in relief of Montrezl Harrell. He committed just six turnovers on the season.
- Had a season-best seven points and five rebounds against Savannah State.
- Scored six points and grabbed two rebounds vs. FIU.
- Grabbed at least two rebounds off the bench in six games.
- Scored six points and grabbed four rebounds against Virginia Tech.
- Did not arrive on campus until August and was hampered early with an injury, so he was behind other freshmen in practice and conditioning when the season began.

High School:

- Averaged 13.6 points, 9.6 rebounds, 5.3 blocked shots and 4.1 assists as a senior in leading Ypsilanti High School to a 21-3 record with a 15-game winning streak before falling in the Class A regional finals. He had 17 points and 16 rebounds in the regional championship game.

- Produced a triple double of 20 points, 10 rebounds, and 11 assists in the Class A district title game. He grabbed double-digit rebounds in 11 games as a senior.
- A finalist for the Hal Schram Mr. Basketball award in Michigan, Johnson was a first team all-state selection and was the Ann Arbor News Washtenaw County Player of the Year. He was ranked No. 55 nationally by 247Sports.com, 56th by Rivals.com, 62nd by Scout.com and was among the nation's top 25 power forward by ESPN.
- Averaged 13.8 points and 8.5 rebounds as a junior in helping Ypsilanti to a 20-5 record and the school's first regional championship since 1981. He averaged 19.7 points and 15.3 rebounds in three district games before Ypsilanti reached the state quarterfinals, where Johnson totaled 15 points and 12 boards. He was a first-team all-county selection as a junior
- His mother Janetta Johnson played for Wisconsin and professionally in Portugal. Her 130 blocked shots in 1988-89 is the Badgers' single-season record and she averaged a team-high 12.6 points and 8.5 rebounds that season.
- Chose to sign with the Cardinals after narrowing his opportunities to Michigan State and Oregon.
- Played quarterback early in his prep career.
- Produced a double-double for the winning White team in the 2014 Kentucky Derby Festival Basketball Classic all-star game, totaling 14 points, 10 rebounds and two assists.

Personal:

- Born Aug. 7, 1996 ... Son of Janetta Johnson ... Has one younger brother (Lawrence) ... Major is communication.
- Personal goal at UofL is "to prepare myself for the next level."
- Best moment of his athletic career to date was his first body to body dunk in the 10th grade.
- Enjoys attending church, praying and playing video games in his spare time.
- Chose to attend UofL because "I want to be a lottery pick and Coach P pushes me to my potential."
- Best basketball advice given to him was "go hard and go get paid."
- Most proud of making it out of Ypsilanti and playing in college.
- His mom, high school coach Steve Brooks, Pastor Shelby and Coach Pitino have had the greatest influence on his athletic career.
- Feels Morris Chestnut (with hair) would be the best actor to play him in a movie.
- If you walked into his dorm room, the first thing you would notice is his TV and Valentine's Day card.
- Among reality shows, he feels he would fare best on Love and Hip Hop.
- Wearing No. 10 because it is the number Kobe Bryant wore while playing for the USA national team.
- What impresses him the most about Coach Pitino is that he develops his players and gets them to the NBA.
- Best thing about being a Cardinal is "we play in one of the biggest arenas under the best coach."
- Would most like to meet Kobe Bryant, Michael Jordan.

- UofL greats DeJuan Wheat (1993-97), the Cardinals' No. 2 all-time scorer, and Jerry Eaves (1978-82), the starting point guard on UofL's 1980 NCAA Championship team, were also graduates of Ballard High School.
- Chose to attend Louisville after also considering Illinois, UCLA, Michigan State and Connecticut.
- Honored as MVP of the 2014 Kentucky Derby Festival Basketball Classic all-star game after totaling eight points, four rebounds and a game-high nine assists for the winning White team.
- His combined 64 points in the two games of the Kentucky-Indiana All-Star Games are tied for the third most in the history of the event that dates back to 1940, passed only by George McGinnis (1969) and Oscar Robertson (1956). He had 37 points -- the sixth most ever in the event -- six three-pointers and seven rebounds in the game played in Kentucky; 27 points and five rebounds in the game played in Indiana.

Personal:

- Born Feb. 14, 1995 ... Son of Scott and Latonda Snider ... Has one younger brother (Cameron) ... Major is communication.
- Personal goal at UofL is to win the national championship.
- Best moment of his athletic career to date was advancing to the NCAA Elite Eight last season.
- Enjoys hanging with his neighborhood friends in his spare time.
- Chose to attend UofL because "I always dreamed to play for Louisville since I was seven, I'm from Louisville and I want to play for my city."
- Best basketball advice given to him was to get better every day.
- Most proud of being in college and working toward his degree.
- Feels Oshea Jackson Jr. would be the best actor to play him in a movie.
- His dad has had the greatest influence on his athletic career.
- When he played basketball as a kid, he pretended he was Allen Iverson.
- Few people know that he collects basketball cards.
- Chose to wear number 2 because it was worn at UofL by former Cardinal Ellis Myles, who was Snider's AAU coach.
- If you walked into his dorm room, the first thing you would notice is pictures of his family.
- Among reality shows, he feels he would fare best on Love & Hip Hop in Atlanta.
- Best thing about being a Cardinal is "playing in front of my hometown."
- What impresses him the most about Coach Pitino: he is very successful and wants to be great.

- Would most like to meet God.

Origin of the Cardinal Nickname

The University of Louisville's athletic symbol, chosen sometime after 1913, is a Cardinal. The Cardinal bird was chosen to give UofL statewide identification, since the Cardinal is the state bird of Kentucky. The school colors — cardinal red and black — were adopted at the suggestion of Mrs. John L. Patterson. In printing terms, the UofL color for red is PMS 485. All of the University of Louisville's present logos are trade marked.

11 Jay Henderson

Guard | 6-4 | 180 | Fr.-HS | Orlando, Fla. (Lake Highland Prep)

- Walk-on who transferred to UofL from St. John's, where he attended college but did not play basketball there his freshman year.
- Averaged 13.1 points, 3.3 rebounds, 1.7 assists and 1.5 steals as a senior in 2013-14 in helping Lakeland Prep post a 28-4 record and win the second straight Florida Class 4A state championship. He totaled 15 points and seven rebounds in the 2014 state title game.
- Twice honored on the state all-tournament team.
- As a junior at Lake Highland, Henderson averaged 12.8 points, 2.9 rebounds, 1.9 assists and 1.4 steals as his team went 24-5 and won its first Florida Class 4A state championship. He had 23 points and six three-pointers in the state semifinal game. Lake Highland was the state runner up his sophomore season in 2011-12 when Henderson averaged 15.8 points.
- Ranked among the top 25 prospects in the state of Florida as a senior.
- Scored over 1,100 points in his final three seasons at Lake Highland Prep.
- Backcourt teammate with North Carolina guard Joel Berry at Lake Highland Prep.
- His father Jay played basketball at Penn State (1986-90), where he received the team's Dave Phillips Memorial Unsung Hero Award.
- Had opportunities at Florida State, Seton Hall, Stanford, Purdue, Mississippi State and Dayton before he chose to walk on at St. John's.
- In a pair of games against the Puerto Rico Junior Team in August, he averaged 14.5 points and five rebounds, scoring a team-high 16 points in the Cardinals' opening game in Puerto Rico.

- Few people know that he likes turtles.
- His mother and cousin Tonio has had the greatest influence on his athletic career.
- Feels Will Smith would be the best actor to play him in a movie.
- When he played basketball as a kid, he pretended he was Earl Clark.
- If you walked into his dorm room, the first thing you would notice is the great smell.
- Among reality shows, he feels he would fare best on Pawn Stars.
- Best thing about being a Cardinal is "it's a blessing."
- Most proud of his brother Jayden.

- What impresses him the most about Coach Pitino: how loud his voice can get when he's instructing on the court.
- Would most like to meet Bill Gates.

2014-15 Review

A Look Back at 2014-15

■ Cardinals Reach 14th Elite Eight — Louisville advanced to its 14th NCAA Elite Eight in 2015 and third in the last four years. Louisville's 14 Elite Eight appearances rank sixth nationally. The NCAA recognizes Elite 8 records since 1951, the first year that all teams in the tournament would be required to win at least one game to advance to the Elite Eight. The Cardinals have a 10-4 record in regional championship games, winning two of their last three. UofL has reached the Elite Eight five of the last eight years and the Cardinals have participated in two of the last four Final Fours (UofL years in Elite Eight: 1959, 1972, 1975, 1980, 1982, 1983, 1986, 1997, 2005, 2008, 2009, 2012, 2013, 2015).

■ Cards Have 13 Straight 20-Win Seasons — Louisville is one of four Division I schools in the nation which has won 20 or more games in each of the past 13 seasons. Reaching 20 victories last year and extending their streaks are Kansas (26), Duke (19), Gonzaga (17), and Louisville (13). UofL Coach Rick Pitino has won at least 20 games in a season on 23 occasions, ranking him fifth among active coaches in 20-win seasons and 11th overall. Pitino won 30 in a single season for the sixth time in 2013-14. UofL has won at least 19 games in 41 of the last 45 years.

■ Cards Finish Fourth in ACC — Louisville posted a 12-6 record in its first season in the Atlantic Coast Conference, finishing fourth in the league which had five of its members ranked among the nation's top 20 teams. Louisville has won at least 10 league games for eight straight seasons. The Cards have finished in the top three in its conference six of the last nine years. The Cardinals' have won 22 regular season conference championships (regular season conference championships: American 1, Big East 2, Conference USA 1, Metro 12, Missouri Valley 6). Louisville has won its conference championship or finished second in 26 of the last 39 years. The Cardinals lost to No. 19 North Carolina in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament. Louisville has played in three different conferences in the last three years, with the NCAA Champion coming from the Cards' league each of those years.

■ Blackshear, Harrell Reach 1,000 Points — Wayne Blackshear became Louisville's 67th career 1,000-point scorer against Northern Iowa in the NCAA Tournament and finished his career with 1,046. Earlier in the season, Montrezl Harrell also joined the list of 1,000-point scorers at Louisville and completed his career with 1,294 points, tied for 31st at UofL. The Cardinals are second in the nation behind North Carolina (71) in career 1,000-point scorers.

■ Career Dunk Leader — Montrezl Harrell became the UofL career leader in dunks with seven slams against Indiana on Dec. 9, passing Pervis Ellison. He finished his junior year with 80 dunks, second only to himself in a single season at UofL, and completed his career with 221 career dunks. Harrell's school-record 97 dunks as a sophomore in 2013-14 shattered the Cards' single-season mark by 38 slams.

Harrell finished is career with 777 rebounds, just 36 short of the top 15 in career rebounds at Louisville in his three seasons with the Cardinals.

■ Blackshear's Rare Feat — In addition to being a part of the overall winningest four-year period in Louisville history, departed senior Wayne Blackshear is the third Louisville player to participate in three regional championship games. Blackshear joins Milt Wagner, who played in four (1982, 1983, 1984, 1986), and Rodney McCray (1980, 1982, 1983) as the only Louisville players to participate in three Elite Eights. Scooter McCray was also a member of the 1980, 1982 and 1983 teams, but was injured early in the 1980 season. Blackshear was part of more UofL NCAA Tournament victories than any other Cardinal

(15-3 record). He was the first player in Louisville history to play in four consecutive NCAA Sweet 16s. Wagner is the only other Cardinal to have played in four regional semifinals (1982, 1983, 1984, 1986), but his four came in a five-year span as he received a medical redshirt year in the 1984-85 season.

■ Winningest Class — Louisville's most recent senior class is the winningest group over a four-year period in the Cardinals' storied basketball history. Wayne Blackshear has been a part of Cardinal teams that have won 123 games since the 2011-12 season (123-30, .804), two more than the previous record group that just finished the previous year (121-31). Over the last four years, the Cardinals have been a part of two NCAA Final Fours, three Elite Eights, four Sweet 16s, three conference tournament championships, two regular season conference titles and Louisville won a season-record 35 games during their 2013 NCAA title run.

Louisville closed its regular season with a victory over No. 2 Virginia following a pregame Senior Day ceremony for Wayne Blackshear and Montrezl Harrell. While just a junior, Harrell participated in the ceremony as it was his final season at UofL. Harrell posted a double-double with 20 points and 12 rebounds in the victory while Blackshear added nine points and two assists.

■ Good Record — Louisville won as many as 27 games, six times in UofL Coach Rick Pitino's 14 seasons, including the last four seasons. UofL won its first 11 games last year, just the fifth time in Louisville history the Cards have won as many to open their season. Louisville's best start under Pitino through 34 games was a 30-4 mark during the Cards' 2005 Final Four season.

■ Fourth Straight Preseason Ranking — Louisville's No. 8 AP and 9 USA Today preseason ranking was its fourth straight appearance among the nation's top ten to open the season and its 10th preseason top 25 ranking in the last 12 years. In 2013-14, the Cards were third in both preseason polls, their second-highest ever by AP. The 1986-87 season marked the highest UofL has been ranked in the preseason coaches' poll, when UofL was No. 1 in the '86-87 UPI coaches poll.

UofL has been ranked as the No. 1 team in the nation on four occasions: in both the AP and USA Today polls on Jan. 14, 2013; in the ESPN/USA Today poll on March 15, 2009; in the final AP poll that same 2008-09 season; and in the final USA Today coaches poll of 2012-13.

■ National Statistics Leaders — Louisville ranked among the nation's top 30 in eight statistical categories for the 2014-15 season. Individually, Montrezl Harrell was 32nd nationally in rebounding (9.2) and 22nd in field goal percentage (.566). Terry Rozier was 28th in steals (2.0) and 77th in scoring (17.2).

■ Big Crowds — Louisville fans have flocked to the KFC Yum! Center. The Cardinals' Dec. 27, 2014 crowd of 22,812 that witnessed the UofL game vs. Kentucky was the third-largest in the KFC Yum! Center. Four crowds during the 2014-15 season ranked among the top eight largest in the Cardinals' five years in the spectacular arena. Louisville has ranked third nationally in home attendance each season in the KFC Yum! Center and has been in the top six for the last 34 consecutive seasons. UofL's average attendance of 21,386 last year ranked third nationally behind Syracuse and Kentucky. A pair of preseason intra-squad scrimmages, both televised live locally, drew crowds of over 10,000 each.

■ Magnificent March — Over the past 11 years (since 2005), Louisville has a collective 62-22 record during the month of March (.738). UofL is 29-7 in March over the last four years. UofL coach Rick Pitino has a 130-44 collegiate record in the month of March (.747), including a 73-28 mark while at Louisville. Louisville has won 13 of its last 15 games against AP Top 25 teams that have been played March 5 or later. UofL has a 16-7 record in regular season games in March over the last 11 years (since 2005). Add in another closing month of February and the Cards are 72-26 in those two closing months in the last 11 years during the regular season before league tournaments (.735). UofL has a 47-13 record (.780) during the month of February over the last seven years, dating back to the 2007-08 season (5-3 this year).

■ Puerto Rico/Coast Guard Experience — The Cardinals opened last season with a positive experience in Puerto Rico while participating in the Armed Forces Classic. Both the Cardinals and the Minnesota teams flew on the same charter plane to travel the 1,768 miles from Louisville to Aguadilla, Puerto Rico. Aside from playing in the nationally televised game, the Cardinals toured an MH-65 Coast Guard helicopter at US Air Station Borinquen, spent some time on Crash Boat Beach, watched a demonstration near the beach, boarded a Coast Guard cutter anchored off the coast and spent time with the Coast Guard families stationed there.

The Cardinals wore special Adidas uniforms for the game, featuring a white and grey camouflage pattern with red and light blue trim as a tribute to the Coast Guard's red, white and blue colors and racing stripe. The back of each player's jersey displayed the Coast Guard motto of "Semper Paratus," which translates to "Always Ready."

Louisville The University and City

University of Louisville

The University of Louisville attracts many of the nation's best and brightest minds to its friendly, park-like campus in the heart of Kentucky's largest city.

UofL's incoming freshman class scored an average 25.5 on the ACT test in 2014, more than four points higher than the national average and the most dramatic jump in Kentucky over the past decade.

From 2010 to 2014, 47 UofL students have won prestigious Fulbright awards, more than all other Kentucky universities combined and on par with several Ivy League universities. This success is based in part on the fact that UofL faculty not only are among the best in their fields, but that they take personal interest in students and push them to do their best.

Students at UofL are presented a wide range of study options – more than 170 fields in 11 schools and colleges – with many nationally ranked programs among them. UofL's location in an area of more than a million people also is an asset, giving students many opportunities to apply the critical thinking skills they hone in the classroom to relevant, hands-on experiences in the community.

UofL students benefit from superb facilities, including a library system ranked among the top 100 research libraries in North America and one of the nation's top 10 academic clean rooms, where work in bioengineering, nanotechnology and other high-demand fields occurs. New apartment-style housing and a sparkling, new $38 million, 128,000-square-foot student recreation center ensures first-class facilities for living and playing on campus.

UofL is committed to building a nurturing and challenging intellectual climate, a respect for diversity and a genuine understanding of how diversity enriches a vibrant metropolitan research university. One of the university's goals is to give every arts and sciences student the chance to study abroad at least once during his or her undergraduate career.

The university also is one of the fastest-growing research institutions in the nation, yielding many milestone discoveries. UofL faculty conducted the world's first successful implantation of a fully implantable artificial heart and completed the nation's first successful hand transplant. University faculty currently are heading the world's first FDA-approved clinical trial using adult cardiac stem cells to treat heart disease and are pioneering the use of locomotion training to help paralyzed patients walk again.

In 2009, UofL and the Commonwealth of Kentucky announced the establishment of the Conn Center for Renewable Energy Research and Environmental Stewardship. And UofL's School of Public Health and Information Sciences received $2.3 million to lead research in preparation for, prevention of, and communication during pandemics.

Under the leadership of James Ramsey, UofL became Kentucky's first university to take advantage of a process called tax increment financing, in which once taxes generated by a project surpass a certain threshold subsequent taxes are directed back into the project. UofL's successful downtown development, NUCLEUS, already is returning millions of dollars to the university. A second project on the Belknap Campus has begun to have similar success.

UofL also stands out in community service. In fact, it is ranked among the top 12 "Best Neighbor" schools in the nation. Based on its curricular engagement, outreach and partnerships, the university is ranked as a Carnegie Community Engagement university, one of fewer than 200 such institutions nationwide. In one year alone, UofL students, faculty and staff contributed more than $25.1 million to charitable organizations through volunteerism and direct donations.

UofL's Signature Partnership, a project with community organizations and businesses to improve the social, cultural, educational, health care and economic development services in a historically underserved area of Louisville, is considered a national model for community engagement.

UofL was environmentally minded long before "green" became a buzzword, co-founding the Partnership for a Green City several years ago with the city of Louisville and the Jefferson County Public Schools to reduce waste, increase energy efficiency and improve the health and education of area children.

UofL is a major player in the downtown arts scene, too, helping bring fine arts programming to Louisville to create a more vibrant city center. The Cressman Center for the Visual Arts is just one result of this effort. It features a glass hot shop, coldworking metal and woodworking studios and three galleries open daily to the public. And back on Belknap Campus, its School of Music is home to the Cardinal Singers, the second-ranked choral group in the world.

But the greatest way in which UofL is making its mark is through the contributions its students make to society. They graduate to become valuable citizens such as current Republican Leader and U.S. Sen. Mitch McConnell; former U.S. Sen. and presidential candidate Christopher Dodd; former NPRpersonality Bob Edwards; Howard Fineman, editorial director of the AOL Huffington Post Media Group; best-selling author Sue Grafton; and Sharon Darling, founder and president of the National Center for Family Literacy.

For these reasons and more, it's truly a great time to be a Louisville Cardinal.

We know a great power team when we see one. GO CARDS!
When the Cards light up the scoreboard this season, we'll be there providing the safe, reliable energy you depend on. LG&E is proud to bring the community together to cheer on the Cards! Our energies go to serving you.

City of Louisville

The Louisville area owes its existence to the Falls of the Ohio, the only place where the 981-mile Ohio River flows over bedrock. The falls were really a rapids where the river dropped about 27 feet in three miles, usually blocking passage by boat.

Early explorers recognized the strategic importance of the Falls. George Rogers Clark established the first settlement there in 1778, to use as a base of his invasion of British territory in Southern Illinois and Indiana. Two years later that settlement became Louisville -- named for King Louis XVI of France, who was supporting the American Revolution.

Louisville quickly became a vital transportation center for the young nation. Ports were establish above and below the Falls. Passengers and freight moved overland around the rapids. Trails and roads connected the ports to inland settlements in Kentucky and Indiana. The steamboat brought prosperity and growth to the area; by 1850, Louisville was the 10th-largest city in the nation.

In the decades that followed, railroads greatly improved connections with cities throughout the nation, and Louisville became known as the "Gateway to the South." Businesses and industries were attracted by the strong and convenient transportation network and Louisville became an industrial center.

In recent years, the economy of the Louisville area has shifted from a heavy reliance on industry to an increasing emphasis on services, including earning a worldwide reputation as a transportation and distribution center. Once again, location is a key factor. Louisville is located near the center of the eastern half of the contiguous 48 states, with nearly half of the nation's consumer markets within a 500-mile radiuws. The climate is mild enough that Louisville's airport is rarely closed because of weather.

Louisville Slugger Museum

Climate, location and a good transportation system helped convince United Parcel Service to establish its national hub in Louisville in the early 1980s. UPS, in turn, is attracting businesses that depend on fast and efficient transportation of their goods to other parts of the nation and throughout the world.

Cardinal fans participate in a rally at Fourth Street Live!, a downtown entertainment area.

"The Ville" has been labeled as the Best College Sports Town in America

The Kentucky Center for the Arts is one of the nation's premier performing arts facilities, housing three spacious theatres.

Sports, including U of L athletics, are an important facet of life in the Louisville area. Churchill Downs has hosted three Breeders' Cups and continues its traditional Run For The Roses -- the Kentucky Derby -- the first Saturday each May. The 1996, 2000 and 2014 PGA Championships were staged at Valhalla Golf Course in eastern Jefferson County, which was also the site of the 2008 Ryder Cup international competition. The Louisville Bats, the triple-A baseball team of the Cincinnati Reds, have drawn over 1 million fans to games in a single season with Slugger Field stationed on the downtown riverfront. Over 140 public parks, 20 public golf courses and 226 public tennis courts also provide outdoor entertainment.

Yet even though Louisville has changed through the years, it still has the flavor and gentleness of a Southern town. The Belle of Louisville steamboat still paddles its way up and down the Ohio River daily, mint juleps are still served under an old oak tree during the hot and muggy summers and fishing in the many lakes and rivers of Louisville and surrounding counties is still a favorite pastime.

Another favorite in Louisville is trying to figure out the correct pronunciation of the city. So if you're a tourist, don't say Louie-ville or Lewis-ville. Natives claim it's Lou-a-vuhl. Either way, Louisville is still the same happy place.

James R. Ramsey

President

Dr. James Ramsey

The University of Louisville is on an upward trajectory under the leadership of its 17th president, Dr. James Ramsey. Ramsey has worked aggressively to move the university toward its goal of becoming a "premier, nationally recognized, metropolitan research institution," as mandated by Kentucky's Postsecondary Education Reform Act. Since he became president in 2002, UofL has made great strides in five strategic areas:

- Educational excellence
- Research and scholarship
- Campus diversity
- Community partnerships
- Accountability

Since 2002, the quality of UofL's freshman class has improved dramatically, with the average ACT score of incoming freshmen climbing to 25.5 in 2015, more than four points above the national average and more than five points above the state average. The university's graduation rate has increased over 20 percentage points from the 2002 rate of 33 percent and the number of doctoral degrees awarded has nearly doubled since 2002.

University of Louisville students are claiming a much larger share of the nation's most prestigious academic honors. In 2015, student Amanda Allen was the only Kentucky student chosen for a prestigious Truman scholarship. Since 2003, UofL has been one of the nation's top schools for producing Fulbright scholars. Eighty-eight UofL students have received Fulbrights, more than any other Kentucky college.

Ramsey also has created a university culture focused on research and innovation that seeks to improve the quality of life for people in Kentucky and beyond. The approach already has led to major milestones in healthcare, business and the environment. In 2015, UofL's research funding is more than double what it was a decade ago and the university has become one of America's fastest-growing research universities in National Institutes of Health funding.

Ramsey has overseen dramatic physical changes to the campus as well. Two new privately built residence halls opened in Fall 2015, adding more than 1,000 beds to campus. With more than 6,000 students, the on-campus population is nearly triple the 2,300 residents when Ramsey became president. A spectacular, multimillion dollar road project that improved safety and created a sparking new entrance on the east side of campus also greeted students this fall.

Under Ramsey's leadership, the university continued successful development of underperforming assets in 2015, adding additional properties to its J.D. Nichols Campus for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, a downtown hub for high-tech, life sciences-focused companies. UofL also opened a new office building, 700 North Hurstbourne, on its Shelbyhurst Campus and began construction of another building. The facilities are generating revenue that is pumped into the academic enterprise throughout the university.

The university's ties with its community have never been stronger. Not only has UofL been a major player in the award-winning Partnership for a Green City with Jefferson County Public Schools and Louisville Metro government, it continues to grow the Signature Partnership Initiative, which last year involved 101 partnerships focused on enhancing the quality of life and economic opportunity for residents of West Louisville. UofL has earned the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching's highest rating in the area of community engagement. UofL is one of only 119 schools nationwide and three schools in Kentucky to earn the designation in two areas, curricular engagement and outreach and partnerships. The school is also reaching out to men and women in the armed services, signing education, training and research agreements with Fort Knox and the Kentucky National Guard.

A strong commitment to serving the community and state is nothing new for Ramsey. Before assuming UofL's top post, he served as senior policy adviser and state budget director for Kentucky and senior professor of economics and public policy at UofL. He has served as vice chancellor for finance and administration at both the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and Western Kentucky University. He has been associate dean, assistant dean and director of public administration in the College of Business Administration at Loyola University and research associate for the University of Kentucky's Center for Public Affairs.

A tenured professor of economics, Ramsey has served on the faculties of UNC – Chapel Hill, WKU, UK, Loyola and Middle Tennessee State University.

A frequent national speaker and writer on economic issues in the public sector, Ramsey has received a number of honors and awards including the Fort Knox Gold Neighbor Award and Down Syndrome of Louisville Humanitarian of the Year Award in 2015, the Louisville Central Community Centers Lifetime Achievement Award in 2014, Boy Scouts of America Silver Beaver Award in 2012, Greater Louisville Inc.'s Fleur-De-Lis Award in 2011 and 2012, Louisville Advertising Federation's Louisvillian of the Year Award in 2010, Western Kentucky University Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame in 2010, Louisville Defender Outstanding Community Service Award in 2010, Business First Business Leader of the Year in 2007, University of Kentucky College of Business and Economics Alumni Hall of Fame in 2004, the Governor's Association's Outstanding Public Service Award in 2001, Kentucky's Distinguished Economist of the Year in 1999 and the Fern Creek High School Hall of Fame in 1998.

A Kentucky native, he holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Western Kentucky University and master's and doctoral degrees in economics from UK.

Sharing his love for public service is his wife, Jane Ramsey, who is involved in a host of community activities and organizations. She heads an effort to beautify UofL's Belknap Campus and revitalize its surrounding south Louisville neighborhood.

The Ramseys' two daughters graduated from UofL. Jenny, the oldest, holds a nursing degree, while Jacque has a degree in marketing as well as an MBA.

The Ramsey family: Jenny, Jane, Jacque and James.

Elaine Wise

Faculty Athletics Representative

Elaine Wise

A member of the UofL faculty for many years, Elaine Wise is in her 17th year as UofL's Faculty Athletics Representative. Appointed by the President, she serves as the university's liaison between academics and athletics, responsible for the certification of student-athlete eligibility to the NCAA and providing academic and compliance oversight as Chair of the Committee on Academic Performance of the ULAA Board. As a member of the ACC FAR Council, she serves on the Infractions Review and Sportsmanship Committees. She also serves as the Provost's Liaison for Athletics.

Chairperson of the Division of Humanities and Assistant Professor of English and Humanities, Wise has long been a member of the Athletic Association's Board of Directors, serving as chair of the Committee on Academic Performance. A lifelong resident of Louisville, Wise graduated from local Seneca High School. She earned her bachelor's degree in English from Agnes Scott College, where she was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. She earned a master's degree in English Literature on a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship at Indiana University, and then joined the UofL faculty in the Department of English. After resuming her graduate studies, she returned to UofL to join the faculty of the Division of Humanities as Program Coordinator for the Freshman Symposium, an interdisciplinary program for first year students. In 1977, she was awarded tenure in Humanities.

Wise has served as Chair of the Division of Humanities since 1996, teaching in both the English and Humanities programs. Medieval and Renaissance Literature and Culture are her areas of academic specialization. In 1990, she was named the University's Distinguished Teaching Professor; in 1995, she earned the Carnegie Foundation's Kentucky Professor of the Year Award; in 2005, she received the University of Louisville Trustees Award for her service to students; in 2009, she was the recipient of the Tower Award in Education; and in 2015, she was honored by the Athletics Department with the National Girls and Women in Sports Award.

An on-campus leader throughout her many years at UofL, Wise has served as a long-time member of the Faculty Senate and its Executive and Library Committees, as the faculty liaison to Student Senate and as advisor to Mortar Board Senior Honor Society. In the community, she is active with the Montpellier Committee of Sister Cities of Louisville and serves on the Board of the English Speaking Union.

Elaine and her husband, Barry, have one daughter, Amanda, a graduate of Wellesley College and the UofL Brandeis School of Law, who resides in Chicago, with husband Greg and children Matthew and Audrey; and a "Danish son," Peter Preisler, a graduate of the University of Kentucky School of Architecture, who resides in Nashville, with wife Melissa and children Sophia, Jackson, and Anabel.

Tom Jurich

Vice President for Athletics/
Director of Athletics

Tom Jurich

Tom Jurich, Vice President and Director of Athletics for the University of Louisville, has made a permanent mark on Cardinal athletics, leading a department that has enjoyed tremendous athletic and academic accomplishments, as well as experiencing an unprecedented period of growth during his tenure.

While his abundance of accomplishments have transformed the university, clearly among the most substantial was engineering UofL's move into the prestigious Atlantic Coast Conference where the Cardinals completed their first season a year ago to rave reviews. UofL was officially welcomed into the ACC on July 1, 2014, changing the outlook for the entire university for years to come.

CBS Sports has recognized the UofL athletics program among the top three nationally in its annual "Best in College Sports" review each of the past three years, including a second-place ranking in the 2014-15 season.

Since Jurich was hired Oct. 21, 1997, what he found is nothing like the dramatic progress seen today. Louisville has enjoyed some of its most dynamic eras on the playing field, and more importantly, has seen a complete transformation of the athletic department's infrastructure that has improved not only the image of the athletic department, but the beautification of the entire campus. He has created an entire athletic department that has continued to "stay hungry and humble."

His mission for the UofL athletics program is to compete and execute at the highest level – on the field, in the classroom, and in the community, while graduating student-athletes. For Jurich, the focus has been and always will be on Louisville's nearly 750 student-athletes who have been successful in a culture established by Jurich and the entire department. With a tireless work ethic and engaging personality, Jurich has created new standards of excellence on the playing field and in academics, and those standards continue to be raised.

UofL took a dramatic step toward maintaining that upward trend by signing Jurich to a contract extension that will keep him with the Cards through 2023. In an unprecedented appointment, he was named Vice President at UofL in 2003 and continues in that capacity.

Jurich's efforts received national acclaim when he was selected as the 2007 Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal/Sports Business Daily Athletic Director of the Year, and he became the award's first two-time finalist in 2013. He was honored as the Kentucky Monthly Magazine 2013 Kentuckian of the Year.

From facilities to gender equity, from community involvement to national leadership, Jurich's actions prompted one state media outlet to write that "it all shows yet again that the hiring of Tom Jurich, the architect of this Louisville emergence, as UofL AD in the fall of 1997 stands as one of the most significant events in our state's modern sports history." After just eight years working his constructive efforts, he was inducted into the state's Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame in 2006.

During his outstanding tenure at Louisville, Jurich has overseen hundreds of millions of dollars in capital improvements, including completing Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium, a state-of-the-art $18.5 million facility for men's and women's soccer, and an expansion of softball's Ulmer Stadium, both completed in 2014. A $4 million expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was completed in 2013 and Papa John's Cardinal Stadium's seating capacity was recently expanded, as well as adding a new club area, club seating and additional suites; with another extensive expansion planned. UofL broke ground on a new $14.5 million Thornton's Academic Center of Excellence, which is planned for completion in the fall of 2016.

Under Jurich's watch, one of the premier facilities in the country opened in 2010 when the men's and women's basketball programs moved downtown into the 22,000-seat KFC Yum! Center, perhaps the most spectacular arena in the nation.

At the time, Jurich navigated one of the school's biggest moves when Louisville was a member of the Big East Conference from 2005-13. The move translated into remarkable success as UofL produced 58 Big East championships, which was second only to Notre Dame in that stretch. Louisville was successful in its highly-competitive new home, joining seven ACC schools ranked among the top 30 in the 2014-15 Learfield Sports Director's Cup rankings.

Under Jurich's guidance on the field, Louisville's athletic teams have produced unparalleled success. The football program has produced two BCS bowl wins, including a dominating performance over third-ranked Florida to win the 2013 AllState Sugar Bowl and a win over Wake Forest in the 2007 FedEx Orange Bowl.

Under 14th-year head coach Rick Pitino, the men's basketball program won the school's third NCAA title and the program advanced to three Final Four appearances, while the women's basketball team has reached the title game twice in the last six years. Jurich attracted Pitino to UofL in 2001 when many deemed it impossible.

The baseball team made its third appearance in the College World Series in 2014 (also in 2013, 2007), while UofL's softball program has advanced to 12 straight regionals. The men's soccer team reached the national title game in 2010 and advanced to its third straight NCAA Elite Eight appearance in 2012, while the women's soccer program advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2011. The women's volleyball program has made three Sweet 16 appearances and has advanced to the NCAA Tournament for 17 of the last 18 seasons.

Louisville's 2012-13 "Year of the Cardinal" marked the first time a university has ever won a BCS level bowl game, place both its men's and women's basketball teams in the NCAA Final Four and reach the College World Series in the same season.

Individually, Louisville athletes have earned some of the highest honors the NCAA has to offer, including six national titles in track & field and four swimming titles in the last four years.

Jurich has been active in the scope of college athletics on a national level, within conference issues, and in his local community. He served three years as a member of the NCAA Management Council, one of the top legislative bodies of the NCAA, and the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee. He sits on the Board of Directors for Republic Bank and American Heart Association.

Jurich has received the Louisvillian of the Year Award by the Louisville Advertising Federation; the Dan Mangeot Memorial Award; and the Louisville Quarterback Club's Sportsman of the Year. He shared UofL's prestigious Hickman-Camp Award, presented for exemplary contributions to the athletic department, with his wife Terrilynn in 2007. He was named the 2007 Louisville Magazine Person of the Year.

Jurich's high energy, community and family-minded approach have been contagious, infecting the university, city and UofL fans everywhere. It is a formula that has provided a trail of success in each situation Jurich has touched.

Guiding Colorado State as its athletics director for four years prior to his arrival at UofL, Jurich oversaw not only one of the most successful periods in school history in terms of on-field competitiveness, but was the force behind a successful capital campaign that included facility renovation.

Prior to his constructive efforts at Colorado State, Jurich operated as director of athletics for eight years at his alma mater, Northern Arizona. When appointed at NAU, he was the youngest director of athletics at the NCAA Division I level at the age of 29. He was honored as the NAU Alumnus of the Year in 2011.

He became athletic director at Northern Arizona in 1988, after previously serving as co-director (1986-88) and assistant director (`84-86) at NAU. He was inducted to the NAU Sports Hall of Fame in 1989 and the Flagstaff Sports Foundation Hall of Fame in 2015. Jurich is among the finest football players in Northern Arizona history. A punter, placekicker and backup quarterback for the Lumberjacks, Jurich earned first-team Kodak All-America honors in 1977 -- the first collegiate kicker to make the Kodak honor list -- and also received All-America acclaim from The Sporting News. He is the only kicker in Big Sky Conference history to be named the league's offensive player of the year (1977).

A 10th-round NFL draft pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers, Jurich later played with the Minnesota Vikings before a brief collegiate coaching stint at Minnesota.

He and his wife, Terrilynn, a former Miss Wyoming, have four children: sons Mark – senior associate athletic director of development at UofL, who is married to wife Lainey, with children Jay Ryan, Thomas Jack and Anna Alexandra -- and Brian; and twin daughters, Haley and Lacey.

The Jurich Family: Mark, Jay Ryan, Lainey, Thomas Jack, Tom, Terrilynn, Haley, Lacey and Brian.

Athletic Administration

Kevin Miller

Executive Senior
Associate Athletic Director

Kevin Miller, a veteran administrator in the Cardinal athletics department for the past 28 years and a UofL staff member for 40 years, is in his seventh year as Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director. He had served six years as Senior Associate Athletic Director, 11 years as Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations and worked six years as assistant athletic director for business at UofL.

Miller oversees the athletic department financial and personnel operations while also supervising football and men's basketball. He has served on the Cardinal Club Advisory Board of Directors and is overseeing the management and renovation of the University of Louisville Golf Club. He serves on the ACC Finance Oversight Committee and previously served on the Big East Conference golf championship committee.

Since joining the Athletic Department, Miller has helped implement the long-term Financial Management Plan and Gender Equity Plan for the Athletic Association. He served on two NCAA Certification Steering Committees (1996-97 and 2002-03) and assisted in negotiating the Cards' local media, Louisville arena lease and the Sports Marketing Agreements currently held by Learfield Sports.

Miller served as the athletic department representative on UofL's NCAA self-study steering committee. He has served as tournament manager for the 1992, 1993 and 1995 Metro Conference Tournaments; 2001 and 2003 C-USA tournaments; as well as the First and Second Rounds of the 1991 NCAA Tournament hosted by UofL. He helped establish the UofL Student-Athlete Advisory Council in 1994.

Miller worked 11 years in the UofL controller's office prior to joining the athletic department. He served in various capacities with the University Credit Union, including six years as a member of the union's Board of Directors.

A native of Lebanon Junction, Ky., Miller earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Western Kentucky University in 1973. Miller and his wife Betty have two children — son Jeremy and daughter Jennifer Buckingham. Jennifer and husband David — both UofL graduates — have two children: Riley and Daylen. Jeremy and his wife Meghanne have two children: Ethan and Jordin.

John Carns

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Compliance

John Carns is in his 18th year with the Cardinals and his sixth as Senior Associate Athletic Director for Compliance.

He served seven years as Associate Athletic Director for Compliance after serving as UofL's Director of Compliance for four years. Carns is responsible for the development and implementation of the University's policies and procedures in accordance with NCAA, ACC and University regulations. He supervises the Cardinals' men's and women's tennis programs.

Carns joined the UofL staff in August of 1998 after nearly two years assisting in the compliance office at the University of Miami (Fla.).

Prior to his roles in athletics, Carns worked in government for the City of Binghamton (N.Y.). He was a community relations assistant for the mayor's office (1986-88), an economic development assistant for two years (1988-90), the Highway Safety Program Director (1990-91) and a risk manager/paralegal of the Office of the Corporation Counsel (1991-93).

Carns earned a B.A. in Communications at State University College at Oswego (N.Y.) in 1985. He graduated with a juris doctor from the Thomas Cooley Law School in Lansing, Mich., in 1996, the same year he was admitted to the New York State Bar. He also earned a master's degree in sports administration at St. Thomas University in Miami, Fla. in 1997.

A native of Binghamton, N.Y., Carns and his wife Patti have two children: Luke and Payton Ann.

Kenny Klein

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Media
Relations/Sports
Information Director

Kenny Klein is in his 33rd year at UofL, currently serving as Senior Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations and as Sports Information Director.

Klein joined the Cardinal staff in August of 1983, after nearly two seasons as SID at Morehead State. Prior to that stint, Klein spent four years as an undergraduate and graduate assistant at Murray State, where he earned his bachelor's degree in journalism in 1981. At the time of his appointment at UofL, he was the youngest SID at an NCAA Division I football institution at 23.

A 2015 inductee into the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) Hall of Fame, Klein also worked one season as a student assistant in sports information at Austin Peay State University, and was a sports writer for the Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle.

He received the 2012 Katha Quinn Award, presented by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association in recognition for providing outstanding service to the media covering college basketball.

Klein has coordinated the computerized statistics operation for the past 31 NCAA Final Fours. In his initial season with the Cardinals, Klein edited the 1983-84 UofL basketball guide which was judged second in the nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Klein, who edited UofL's basketball history book Above the Rim, has also received other publication awards while at UofL and Murray State.

He served as the media coordinator for the 1987 USA Pan American Games men's basketball team, has served on the NCAA Final Four media coordination committee and annually assists in media operations for the Kentucky Derby. He was the local media center committee chairman for the 1996, 2000 and 2014 PGA Championships in Louisville, and served in a similar capacity for the 2008 Ryder Cup and 2004 and 2011 Senior PGA Championships. He assisted in the media operations at the 1999 Ryder Cup in Boston.

Klein, who grew up in Southside, Tenn., is married to the former Donna Graham. Klein has two sons: Alex, with wife Beth and his son Clark, and Brady, a sophomore at UofL.

Marvin Mitchell

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Student Services and Diversity

Marvin Mitchell has 23 years of athletic administration experience and enters his 16th year as a part of Cardinal Athletics senior administration.

Mitchell serves as the department's chief diversity officer and has oversight of academic services, continuing eligibility and student-athlete programming.

Mitchell was the school's first Associate Athletic Director in the area of academics. He joined the athletic administration staff in December 1999 as Assistant Athletic Director of Academic Services after three years at East Carolina, where he directed their student development program. Prior to his stint at ECU, Mitchell worked five years at his alma mater Wake Forest in many roles, including serving as assistant director of academic services from 1994-96.

Under Mitchell's leadership, academic success for student-athletes has flourished at UofL. More than half of all student-athletes are consistently named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll for maintaining a 3.0 grade point average each semester. Graduation rates for student-athletes have improved to all-time highs. Computer access, tutorial services, objective-based study halls and a new student retention program are among the significant advancements since his arrival.

A four-year letterman for Wake Forest University (1987-91), Mitchell is an accomplished speaker and has addressed the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) National Conventions, NCAA Life Skills National Convention, Nike All-America Camps and various universities, high schools and grade schools.

Active in the community, Mitchell has served on various boards including 100 Black Men of America, Clear Channel Communications, Amobi Okoye Foundation, National Collegiate 100 and Chestnut Street YMCA. He is a member of Black Coaches and Administrators (BCA), National Consortium for Academics and Sport (NCAS) and the N4A. He also serves as the primary advisor for the Collegiate 100, a mentoring organization he chartered at UofL in 2004.

A native of Eastville, Va., Mitchell graduated from Northampton High School and continued his education at Wake Forest University, where he earned both his bachelor's (1992) and master's (1995) degrees.

Mark Jurich

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development

Mark Jurich, Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development, is in his seventh year in athletics administration at UofL.

Jurch had served three years as Associate Athletic Director for Development and another as Assistant Athletic Director for Development. He oversees the development office and is the sport administrator for the Cardinals' baseball, softball and men's and women's golf programs.

Jurich has led a $45 million capital campaign which included expansions for baseball and softball facilities, an expansion of the football weight room, and a new soccer stadium and academic center.

Jurich's fundraising efforts helped the Cardinals obtain the $5 million lead gift for the Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium for soccer. Jurich successfully sought $4 million to fund an expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium, which was completed in 2013. He secured the $3 million lead gift for the Thornton's Academic Center of Excellence, as well as a partnership with Maker's Mark that generated $2.5 million toward the center.

Jurich joined the Cards' athletic staff in 2008 after playing five seasons of professional baseball (2004-08) with the Atlanta Braves, which selected him in the 13th round of the MLB Draft. A two-time All-American as an outfielder for UofL, Jurich was twice selected first team All-Conference USA and was named to the C-USA All-Decade Team spanning 1995 to 2005. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from UofL in 2004.

He was the first Louisville player to compete for the USA National Team, which won a silver medal at the 2002 FISU World University Baseball Championship and capturing the 2002 Haarlem Baseball Week Championship.

He and his wife Lainey have two sons, Jay Ryan and Thomas Jack and a daughter, Anna Alexandra.

Kim Maffet

Associate Athletic Director
for Human Resources

Kimberly Black Maffet is in her fifth year on the UofL athletics staff as Associate Athletic Director for Human Resources.

Maffet moved from within the UofL administrative staff to athletics after serving as Interim Vice President for Human Resources in 2009 and then as Special Assistant to the President and Provost.

During her tenure at UofL, she has led special projects, efficiency planning, new revenue opportunities, University integration and leading the Great Places to Work initiative, as well as recruiting businesses from China. She has also worked on building human resources infrastructure for the UofL Foundation LLCs.

She began her career as a neonatal nurse at Kosair Children's Hospital, where she specialized in congenital heart defects in infants, including caring for infant heart transplant patients and extracorporeal membrane oxygenation (ECMO). In 1998, Maffet entered healthcare administration and focused on the business of healthcare including operations, human resources, and economic and workforce development.

Maffet is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators. She currently chairs the Kentucky Commission on Women Foundation. Her additional community involvement includes active memberships in the International Women's Forum, the Louisville chapter of MBA Women International and the Fillies, Inc.

Maffet earned a baccalaureate degree in nursing from Kentucky in 1990 and a master's in business administration from Bellarmine University in 2000. She resides in Louisville with her husband, R. Craig Maffet and daughter Katherine and attends Southeast Christian Church..

Julianne Waldron

Associate Athletic Director
for Marketing

Julianne Waldron joined the UofL athletic department in November 2014 as Associate Athletic Director for Marketing.

Waldron, the University's former director of brand marketing for five years, oversees the Cardinals' marketing department, while striving to establish a national brand, improve fan experience, and drive sponsorship value.

Prior to Louisville, Waldron served as the Director of Activation and the Chief Environmental Officer for the New Jersey Nets and the Barclays Center. While with Brooklyn Sports and Entertainment and the Nets, Waldron developed marketable ideas to support selling multi-million dollar partnerships. A unique concept in 2006, Waldron conceived the idea of the Nets becoming the most sustainable team in the NBA by making them the first CarbonNeutral® sports franchise in the world.

Waldron also has worked in motorsports sponsorship as the Sports Marketing Strategy Coordinator for Ashland, Inc. She oversaw marketing activation for the #10 Valvoline car and served as the brand manager for the Valvoline Racing line of motor oils. The combination of both on-track and on-shelf brand marketing experience enabled her to develop unique marketing activation plans from the company-owned NASCAR team and NHRA teams all the way to the dirt track racers and superbikes.

Waldron began her career in radio broadcast and media relations, where she was appointed as the News Analysis Coordinator at The White House, and was promoted to Director of Radio for President Bill Clinton. Of her many duties, Waldron produced The White House Radio Address and managed the national and international radio media.

Following her time at The White House, Waldron served the as the Director of Radio for the U.S. House of Representatives and Democratic Leader Richard Gephardt.

Waldron holds a bachelor's degree in communication from DePauw and master's in integrated marketing communications from Northwestern.

A Lexington, Ky., native, Waldron lives with her husband Jim and two sons, Brady and Riley.

Christine Simatacolos

Associate Athletic

cial aid, recruiting and playing and practice seasons. From spring 2007 to July 2008, he managed the day-to-day operations of the NCAA Eligibility Center academic review team.

Banker received his Bachelor of Arts degree in print journalism from the University of St. Thomas in St. Paul, Minn. in December 1997. A member of the Omicron Delta Kappa Honor Society, Banker was a three-time letter winner for the Tommies football team. Banker received his Juris Doctorate from the Marquette University Law School in May 2001. At Marquette he was the president of the St. Thomas More Society and a member of the Sports Law Society.

Banker has been an active volunteer with the Boys & Girls Club and the Big Brothers Big Sisters program. He is a member of the Wisconsin State Bar Association, the National Association of Academic Advisors (N4A), the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC) and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA). He also serves as an adjunct professor at Belmont University's School of Law.

Carole Banda

Director of Olympic Sports Medicine

Carole Banda, Director of Olympic Sports Medicine, is in her 16th season at UofL. Based at the Cardinal Park athletic training facility, she is responsible for daily sports medicine operation for 21 of UofL's sports.

Supervising two associate and seven assistant athletic trainers, Banda has travel responsibilities with field hockey. She has coordinated sports medicine coverage for conference championships in men's basketball, tennis, field hockey and track and field along with the NCAA Field Hockey National Championship.

Banda joined UofL in 2000 as the associate director of sports medicine. She was the associate athletic trainer from 1997 to 2000 at the University of Notre Dame after spending six years as the assistant athletic trainer. As the associate, she supervised seven assistant athletic trainers, coordinated volunteer student athletic trainer program and traveled with football and women's lacrosse.

Prior to her stint with the Fighting Irish, she served as assistant athletic trainer at Morehead State from 1986-1991 where she had teaching responsibilities and coordinated pre-season physicals. She began her athletic training at Eastern Illinois as the assistant athletic trainer and administrative assistant after spending a year as a graduate assistant.

She was a member of the Indiana Athletic Trainers Associaton and is currently a member of the Kentucky Athletic Trainers' Society. She is a NATA certified trainer with CPR certification.

A 1984 graduate of West Virginia University, with a bachelors of science in secondary education, she earned a master's in health, physical education and recreation in 1985 from Eastern Illinois.

Brad Barber

Assistant Athletic Director for Operations and Tickets

Brad Barber enters his 24th year as Assistant Athletic Director for Operations and Tickets after serving as the Assistant Ticket Manager for three seasons with UofL.

Barber coordinates all football and basketball season ticket sales, along with ticketing for all single game and post-season events. He also coordinated all ticket sales for the expansion of Papa John's Cardinal Stadium as well as for the KFC Yum! Center. The UofL football team has maintained a substantial season ticket base including over 45,000 in season ticket sales since 2010. The KFC Yum Center is sold out on a season basis with about 22,000 tickets being sold per game. In addition to regular season events, he is also responsible for ticketing for all conference events along with NCAA post season events run by UofL. He also serves in the game management and operations aspect for all sports.

Before coming to UofL, Barber attended Rio Grande College for his undergraduate studies as well as Ohio University for his graduate work. While at Rio Grande College, he served as an assistant basketball coach from 1982-1986. Upon completion of his schooling, he completed an internship at the University of North Carolina in the athletic ticket office.

He is married to the former Kim Morgan for the last 29 years. They have three children: Ryan (23), a senior at UofL; Kyle (20), a sophomore at UofL; and Catie (16).

Rob Brawner, Jr.

Assistant Athletic Director for Internal Affairs

Rob Brawner is in his 28th year on the UofL staff, including the last 22 as Assistant Athletic Director for Internal Affairs. He served as assistant athletic director for operations and tickets his initial five years.

Before joining the UofL staff, Brawner was the Director of Admission Control for the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center, serving as the KEC liaison with the Ticketron corporation and operating the KEC Ticket Office.

A native of Springfield, Ill., Brawner received a B.S. degree from Cincinnati Bible College in 1977. He earned a Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Ohio University in 1985.

Amy Calabrese

Assistant Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Development

Amy Calabrese, a former UofL student-athlete and Director of Student-Athlete Development for three years, was elevated to Assistant Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Development in 2013.

Calabrese manages Louisville's LCare program, including leadership development, educational programming, and the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. She is the sport administrator for the Cards' field hockey, rowing, women's lacrosse, and men's and women's soccer programs.

Calabrese operated as Director of Student-Athlete Development at UofL from May of 2010 until accepting her current role. Her duties have included developing and implementing UofL's life skills program for student-athletes, including leadership development, educational programming and career education. She has had oversight for the UofL Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, managed the department's Performance Team, which provides support and mental health resources for student-athletes, managed multiple events, and implemented a senior seminar program and leadership groups.

She worked nearly three years as assistant director of student-athlete development and championships from 2007-10. In that role, she aided in UofL's efforts in serving as host for conference and NCAA championships, event management, community outreach projects and life skills program.

Calabrese joined the UofL staff as a graduate assistant in development in 2007. She assisted the Cardinal Athletic Fund with its annual fund, event management, game-day donor areas and student-athlete scholarship program. She also worked briefly as an intern with US Paralympics at the US Olympic Committee and as a sales representative for the Louisville Bats Triple-A baseball team.

Calabrese was a four-year letter winner for the Cardinals' soccer team from 2003-06, earning Academic All-America honors as a junior and senior. The stellar defender started all 77 matches of her career, playing every minute of every game but one as a junior, as the Cardinals won 43 games over her four years. A team captain her last two years, she was an All-Conference USA third-team selection as a sophomore after coming to UofL from Centennial, Colo.

She earned her bachelor's degree in sport administration with a minor in business administration from UofL in 2007 and went on to earn a master's degree in business administration, also from UofL, in 2009. She is active in the community, serving as a "Big" with Big Brothers Big Sisters and is a current board member for Girls on the Run in Louisville. She is a graduate of Ignite Louisville and Leadership Louisville as well as a member of NACWAA.

She and her husband Rich have one son, Jack Richard.

Michael Dudas

Assistant Athletic Director for Development

A member of the Cardinals' athletic staff for seven years, Michael Dudas is in his first year as Assistant Athletic Director for Development.

Dudas joined the Cardinal Athletic Fund staff in July 2008. His primary responsibility is the solicitation of philanthropic gifts for capital projects and for premium seating opportunities with the Cardinals.

A native of Hopkinsville, Ky., he earned a bachelor's degree in business management in 2006 from Austin Peay State University, where he competed on the Governor's basketball team. He was a member of APSU's 2003-04 team which won the Ohio Valley Conference regular season title with a perfect 16-0 league record and advanced to the NIT.

He earned his master's degree in sport administration from UofL in 2009. He and his wife Katie have one son, Connor.

Athletic Administration

Josh Heird

Assistant Athletic Director for Facilities and Championships

Josh Heird, who joined UofL in 2007, serves as the assistant athletic director for facilities and championships. From 2009-12, he was the athletic department's director of championships.

Heird oversees new construction projects, including such recently completed projects as the Jim Patterson Baseball Stadium expansion, the renovation of Ulmer Softball Stadium, and the construction of the Dr. Mark & Cindy Lynn Soccer Stadium. He also works with assistant athletic director for internal operations Rob Brawner Jr. on the day-to-day operations of all athletic facilities.

Heird is responsible for bid submission, management, and oversight of all NCAA and conference championships that UofL hosts. Notable championship events that have taken place under Louisville's supervision include the 2012 and 2015 NCAA Men's Basketball Second and Third Rounds, 2014 NCAA Women's Basketball Regional, 2014 and 2015 NCAA Baseball Regionals and Super Regionals, 2011 NCAA Field Hockey National Championship, the 2012 NCAA Cross Country Championships, and the 2012 NCAA Volleyball Championship.

Heird spent three years as a graduate assistant at Louisville, functioning in a variety of roles before joining the staff full-time. He assisted with marketing and championships and in the business and ticket offices.

Prior to joining Louisville, Heird held multiple positions while working for members of both the U.S. Senate and the U.S. House of Representatives. His titles ranged from legislative director to senior legislative assistant.

Heird graduated from Mississippi College, where he lettered in track and field, in 2002 with a bachelor's in history. In 2009, he graduated from UofL with a master's in business administration.

At Mississippi College, he was an academic all-conference selection each semester during his tenure and also garnered academic all-region accolades. In addition to securing all-conference honors in cross country, he won the American Southwest Conference 800m title in 2001.

He and his wife Abbey have one daughter, Hadley, born in November 2014.

Christine Herring

Senior Woman Administrator/ Assistant Athletic Director

Christine Herring, a former UofL student-athlete and member of the athletics staff since 2008, is in her third year as Assistant Athletic Director and serves as the Cardinals' Senior Woman Administrator.

She serves as the sport administrator for the Cardinals' women's basketball, volleyball, men's and women's cross country, and men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field programs.

Herring has had a broad range of responsibilities at UofL. Since was formerly Assistant Director of Development with the Cardinal Athletic Fund, where she solicited philanthropic gifts for the annual fund. She previously served as the Cardinals' Director of Special events, overseeing and coordinating several events for sports' teams and athletically related events for the department.

She operated as an assistant coach with the UofL track and field program for three seasons, including serving as recruiting coordinator for two years. In addition to coaching, her responsibilities included overseeing travel, alumni relations, marketing and assisting with administrative duties.

A four-year letterwinner, Herring competed for the Cardinals from 2004-08 in events such as the heptathlon, high jump and hammer throw. She was a team captain during her last two seasons for the Cardinals and a member of the 2008 BIG EAST Women's Outdoor Track and Field championship team, as well as the 2007 BIG EAST Women's Outdoor runner-up team when she finished in the top 10 of heptathlon. She finished in the top three of the high jump in six meets as a senior, recording a personal best of five feet, 8.75 inches (1.75 meters) to tie for first in the SIU Fast Start Invitational. In high school, Herring was a two-time Michigan state champion in the high jump and earned academic all-state honors as a junior and a senior.

A native of Big Rapids, Mich., Herring graduated from UofL with a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in marketing in 2008. She is the daughter of Jim and Arlene Krellwitz and has two sisters, Katie Clifford and Julie Weiss and a brother, Anthony Krellwitz. She and her husband Michael have one son, Joey, born in February.

Jim McGhee

Assistant Athletic Director for Varsity Sports and Student Life

Jim McGhee, a member of the UofL athletic staff since 1977, is in his 21st year as Assistant Athletic Director for Varsity Sports and Student Life.

McGhee assists with the operation of nearly all UofL varsity sports programs (all except football and men's basketball) and has a number of additional duties. He operated the NCAA National Youth Sports Program, a summer program for at-risk boys and girls, for the athletic department for 20 years.

McGhee joined the UofL athletic department in 1977 as assistant athletic trainer and football equipment manager. After nine years in that role, he became UofL's equipment and facilities manager in 1986, a position he held until his most recent appointment.

McGhee worked four years as assistant athletic trainer at Harvard University (1973-77) and a pair of two year stints as head athletic trainer and equipment manager at Texas Southern University (1971-73) and Mississippi Valley State University (1969-71).

McGhee earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and science at Mississippi Valley State in 1969; and a master's degree in human movement and physical education at Boston University in 1975.

He and his wife, the former Linda Bell, have one daughter: Veronica.

Michael Ortman

Stadiums Manager

Michael Ortman is in his second year as UofL's Stadiums Manager, overseeing Papa John's Cardinal Stadium, Jim Patterson Stadium and Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Soccer Stadium.

Before coming to the UofL, Ortman worked 17 years at Soldier Field in Chicago, serving as the Director of Operations for his final 12 years there. He oversaw the facility's operations encompassing the 98 acres of park land, parking structures and stadium. He coordinated the operational needs for the 225+ events held annually in and around the stadium.

Overseeing and coordinating the staff of over 250 trades, cleaning, landscaping and facility operations staff were part of Ortman's focus. Additional responsibilities included the stadium life safety, operating systems and the lead contact for all media needs for the facility for every event.

On an annual basis, Ortman created and oversaw the stadium's annual capital improvement program that accounted for projects that were done to maintain the original 1924 historic structure along with projects to continue to keep Soldier Field on the cutting edge of technology and fan amenities.

During Ortman's tenure, Soldier Field was recognized as the first stadium in the country to receive the certification of LEED-EB through the United States Green Building Council.

Ortman has also been part of the last 10 Super Bowls, working as the AFC team coordinator ensuring team access and needs were met both on the sidelines and in the locker room for the NFL.

He earned his degree in animal science in 1995 and his masters in business administration in 1997, both from Western Illinois University.

Ortman and his wife Christine have three children: Samantha, Madison and Austin.

Justin Ruffin

Assistant Athletic Director for Academic Services

Justin Ruffin is in his sixth year with UofL as Assistant Athletic Director for Academics. He is responsible for overseeing academics for the Cardinal football team and supervises the academic staff housed in Papa John's Cardinal Stadium Football Complex.

After serving five years in various capacities, most recently as assistant director for student athlete services, Ruffin came to the University of Louisville from James Madison University. He is a former student-athlete, earning All-Conference recognition as a defensive back for the football team and lettering three years on the baseball team.

In 2002, Ruffin graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Integrated Science and Technology from JMU and he earned his Master of Arts in Athletic Administration two years later in 2004.

A native of Norfolk, Va., Ruffin is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc, National Association Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) and Black Coaches and Administrators.

Ruffin and his wife Erika have three sons: Justin, Jayson and Joshua

Athletic Administration

Scott Sallade

Assistant Athletic Director
for Student Services

Scott Sallade, Assistant Athletic Director for Student Services, is in his 20th year as a staff member of the Olga Peers Academic Center. He works directly with the women's soccer and softball teams in addition to his many administrative duties, including continuing eligibility and campus involvement.

He has been at UofL since 1987 and has worked in several areas of the university including Housing and Residence Life, Admissions and Orientation and Intramural and Recreational Sports. He currently serves as a part-time instructor for the Health, Physical Education and Sports Studies Department.

Sallade earned his B.S in Sport Administration (1992) and his Master of Education (1994), both from the University of Louisville.

He and his wife, Tami, have a son, Casey and a daughter, Kayla.

Lottie Stockwell

Assistant Athletic Director
for Brand Marketing

Lottie Stockewell is in her first year as UofL's Assistant Athletic Director for Brand Marketing.

With 15 years of experience leading and developing brand/marketing campaigns, Stockwell will be responsible for overall brand marketing and licensing for the Louisville athletic department.

Before joining the Louisville staff, Stockwell spent 10 years at Power Creative in Louisville as the Director of Account Service, where she served as the brand steward for the UofL and Churchill Downs Racetrack, two of the agency's top clients. She was responsible for the overall agency performance with each account, ensuring financial goals attainment, development of multiple agency/client relationships, while coaching and mentoring a team of account service staff members.

Prior to Power Creative, Stockwell served five years as the Account Executive at Red7E, a local advertising agency, which handled the marketing for Churchill Downs, Inc., and all member race tracks. She handled the project management of all creative development for broadcast, digital, print, collateral and customer relationship marketing materials.

A 2000 graduate of Kentucky with an integrated strategic communications degree, Stockwell worked two years as a marketing specialist at Lexmark International, where she worked in concert with multiple advertising agencies for creative development of all new product launch materials, including packaging.

Stockwell and her husband Todd, have two children, Cooper and Georgia.

Louisville Sports Properties

Louisville Sports Properties is the dedicated sponsorship sales entity representing the Cardinals. In complete collaboration with the university, this local team is committed to extending U of L's brand affinity to businesses and corporations of all sizes looking to align with the Cards' loyal and passionate fan base. As exclusive multimedia rights holder for Louisville Athletics, Louisville Sports Properties manages all aspects of the rights relationship, providing corporate partners both traditional and new media opportunities through venue signage; event sponsorships and promotion; corporate hospitality; television; digital engagement and visibility via GoCards.com and radio game broadcasts and coaches' shows on the Louisville Sports Network.

Led by long-time associate John Penny, Louisville Sports Properties is a property of Learfield Sports, UofLAthletics' partner since February 2014 when it acquired Nelligan Sports Marketing. Learfield is proud to team with Director of Athletics Tom Jurich and the entire athletics administration in continuing to build upon Louisville's legacy and to extend the great work Nelligan Sports Marketing started in 2002. In its 40 years, Learfield has placed a great emphasis on developing trusted, long-term relationships with some of the most revered institutions and associations in the world of college athletics and now manages multimedia rights for nearly 100 collegiate properties with prominence in all of the major athletic conferences. The company also partners with NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics) and USA Today to present the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, which annually recognizes the top overall collegiate programs in the country.

"We're pleased to have this terrific opportunity to represent the Louisville Cardinals, to build upon the exceptional traditions already established here and to work closely with Tom and his entire team to elevate the UofL brand even further," said Learfield President and CEO Greg Brown.

Learfield Sports' mission to "Build the Team, Grow the Company and Have Fun" is accentuated through a culture driven to exceed goals, serve partners enthusiastically, work as a team, celebrate successes, and do what is right and honest in every endeavor. Learfield remains unwavering in its commitment to ensure each and every relationship is served to the best of its ability, while building on the company's history and strengths, striving to lead the way in college sports.

Cardinal Pride Pep Band

The Cardinal Pride Pep Band is in its seventh year under the oversight of Cardinal Athletics. Under the direction of Al Greener and program coordinator Mark Lynn, the musical cheerleaders are a highly visible source of spirit and enthusiasm at Cardinal basketball events. In addition to U of L men's basketball, the pep band performs at an abundance of athletic events. The 1981-82 edition of the Cardinal Pep Band received special recognition as the nation's best as chosen by NBC-TV analyst Al McGuire.

Atlantic Coast Conference/NCAA

The Atlantic Coast Conference

Tradition of Excellence

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition is so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now, in its 63rd year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

John Swofford

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 141 NCAA team championships, including 72 in women's competition and 69 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 159 times in men's competition and 120 times in women's action. Given the ACC's strong history and the strengthening of its ranks with the additions of Notre Dame, Pitt and Syracuse in 2013, followed by Louisville in 2014, those numbers – and the league's longstanding tradition of excellence – appear destined to grow in the years ahead.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA basketball annals. Seven of the last 15 NCAA Basketball Championships have been won by teams currently competing in the ACC.

No conference has compiled a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC. Since the inaugural tournament in 1939, league teams have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 393-203 for a sterling .659 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

Since 1985, the ACC has produced 25 Final Four teams, an average of almost one per year and three more than any other conference. The ACC has had at least one team in the Final Four in 20 of the last 27 years.

Since the NCAA Tournament expanded to 64 teams in 1985, ACC teams have compiled a 294-150 (.662) record, including 79 Sweet 16 appearances and 42 Regional Final berths - all NCAA Tournament bests. Since 1985, 80 of the 158 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

- Boston College
- Clemson
- Duke
- Florida State
- Georgia Tech
- Louisville
- Miami
- North Carolina
- NC State
- Notre Dame
- Pittsburgh
- Syracuse
- Virginia
- Virginia Tech
- Wake Forest

Teams currently in the ACC have combined to win 16 NCAA National Championships. Duke and North Carolina lead all league schools with five NCAA titles each. Louisville is next with three titles, NC State with two and Syracuse one.

The Blue Devils claimed their fifth title last year, following earlier championships in 2010, 2001, 1992 and 1991. The Tar Heels won NCAA titles in 1957, 1982, 1993, 2005 and 2009, while The Cardinals' three titles came in 2013, 1986 and 1980. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Orange claimed their national championship in 2003.

The ACC has posted 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins 14 times overall and with its 17-5 mark in the 2015 NCAA Tournament, the ACC extended its non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament play to 28 years in a row. The Big Ten is second with a streak of nine straight non-losing seasons, while the SEC is third at six.

Since 1981, the ACC has produced 42 consensus All-Americans - 16 more than any other conference, and has accounted for 23 percent of the nation's consensus All-Americans (42-of-180).

In 2015-16, the ACC will feature four of the six active Division I coaches that are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame - Duke's Mike Krzyzewski, Louisville's Rick Pitino, North Carolina's Roy Williams and Syracuse's Jim Boeheim.

The ACC's current membership further enhances the league's reputation in college basketball. The 15 schools that comprise the ACC in 2015-16 have made 60 trips to the Final Four and have won 16 NCAA National Championships, including seven of the last 15. Current league members have won 23,058 games and have had 691 NBA draft picks, including 236 first-round selections.

Championships in 27 Sports

The ACC will conduct championship competition in 27 sports during the 2015-16 academic year - 14 for women and 13 for men. The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

Women's sports were initiated in 1977, with the first championship meet held in tennis at Wake Forest.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, fencing, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing with volleyball deciding its champion by regular season play.

The 13 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, fencing, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse.

Five National Titles in 2014-15

The 2014-15 academic year saw ACC teams capture five more national team titles and 16 individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 72 national team titles over the last 18 years and has won two or more NCAA titles in 32 of the past 34 years.

Academically, the member institutions of the Atlantic Coast Conference again led the way among Power 5 conferences in the latest "Best Colleges" rankings released by US News & World Report. ACC member institutions combined for an average rank of 54.8, marking the eighth straight year that the ACC led all Power 5 conferences.

ACC History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013, after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five games with ACC schools each year.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.

■ Conference Shifting for the Cards — The University of Louisville joined the Atlantic Coast Conference on July 1, 2014, its third different conference in three years. The Cardinals were members of the Big East Conference for eight years before the league split, with Louisville moving with four others to form the American Athletic Conference in 2013. UofL's association with the American was for one season in 2013-14, as the Cardinals accepted an invitation to join the Atlantic Coast Conference on Nov. 28, 2012. Louisville has been a member of eight different conferences, including eight in the last 50 years.

ACC Facts and Figures

■ ACC Tops in NCAA Wins — With 583 wins among its 15 current members, the ACC is the all-time winningest conference in NCAA Tournament annals. North Carolina is second all-time to Kentucky (120) with 112 NCAA Tournament victories, Duke is third (105), Louisville (75) sixth and Syracuse (61) ninth. The ACC also has the highest NCAA Tournament winning percentage (.617) while the Big Ten (.609) is second.

NCAA Tournament Victories

ACC	583	Pac-12	318
Big Ten	415	Big 12	305
Southeastern	336	Big East	261

Based on Current Conference Membership

■ Seven NCAA Titles in Last 15 Years — Seven of the last 15 NCAA Basketball Championships have been won by teams currently competing in the ACC. Based on current membership, the American Athletic and Southeastern Conferences are tied for second with three titles each.

NCAA Champions (2001-2015)

Duke	2015	Florida	2007
Connecticut	2014	Florida	2006
Louisville	2013	North Carolina	2005
Kentucky	2012	Connecticut	2004
Connecticut	2011	Syracuse	2003
Duke	2010	Maryland	2002
North Carolina	2009	Duke	2001
Kansas	2008

■ 363 NCAA Victories — Teams currently in the ACC have combined to make 364 NCAA Tournament appearances. Five ACC teams -- North Carolina (46), Louisville (41), Duke (39), Syracuse (37), Notre Dame (34) -- rank among the top 10 team in NCAA Tournament appearances. Every league member has appeared at least once in the NCAA Tournament over the last nine years.

■ NCAA Streak — With its 17-5 mark in the 2015 NCAA Tournament, the ACC extended its non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament play to 28 years in a row. The Big Ten is second with a streak of nine straight seasons, while the SEC is third at six.

North Carolina	1993	North Carolina	1957

■ Poll Leaders — With two teams - Duke (4) and Notre Dame (8) - listed in the final 2014-15 Associated Press poll, the ACC extended its streak to 55 consecutive seasons with at least one team ranked in the top 10 of the final AP Poll.

AP Poll Ranking Leaders (1949-2015)

1. North Carolina	840	5. UCLA	668
2. Kentucky	825	6. Louisville	588
3. Duke	738	7. Syracuse	542
4. Kansas	689	8. Indiana	534

■ Stellar Coaches — The ACC features four of the six active Division I coaches that are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame - Duke's Mike Krzyzewski, Louisville's Rick Pitino, North Carolina's Roy Williams and Syracuse's Jim Boeheim. Those four make the ACC the only conference in NCAA history to have four active coaches with 700 or more career wins entering the 2015-16 season - Krzyzewski (1,018), Boeheim (966), Williams (750) and Pitino (722). Nine of the league's coaches have 300 or more career wins, including six with 400 or more.

Overall, ACC head coaches enter the 2015-16 season with a combined 6,721-3,148 record (.681).

Krzyzewski (1,018) and Boeheim (966) are the two winningest coaches in Division I history. Among coaches with 20 or more years, Williams, with a 750-202 mark, is the NCAA's winningest active coach with a .788 winning percentage.

■ ACC Tops in NBA Draft — A year ago, 79 players from the current 15 ACC schools earned spots on NBA rosters, more than any other conference. In addition, over the past 10 years, 87 ACC players have made their NBA debuts, including an all-time high 15 in 2006.

In the 2015 NBA draft, the ACC led all conferences with seven first round selections and the most players selected overall with 12. The 12 players drafted, from seven different schools, were the most by the ACC since having 14 selected in 1987.

With seven first-round selections, the ACC is the only conference to have had at least four first round picks in each of the past seven NBA drafts (2009-2015). The ACC also extended its streak of having at least one first-round selection to 27 consecutive years (1989-2015).

Since 1986, the ACC has had 129 first round selections - 36 more than any other conference. Over the past seven years (2009-2015), the ACC leads all conferences with 39 first round drafts picks; the Pac-12 and the SEC are tied for second with 26, followed by the Big 12 (24), the Big East (21) and the Big Ten (17).

■ Coaches Successful in Tournament — Four league coaches have won national titles - Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (5), North Carolina's Roy Williams (2), Louisville's Rick Pitino (2) and Syracuse's Jim Boeheim (1). North Carolina's Roy Williams and Louisville's Rick Pitino are the only coaches in NCAA history to have led two different schools to at least three Final Fours each.

Current ACC coaches are a combined 319-162 (.663) in NCAA Tournament play with 84 Sweet 16 appearances, 48 Regional Final appearances, 31 trips to the Final Four and 19 title game appearances. Eleven of the 15 current coaches have made at least one Sweet 16 appearance and nine have appeared in a Regional Final.

The ACC has four of the five active Division I head coaches with 700 or more wins entering the 2015-16 season - Duke's Mike Krzyzewski (1,018), Syracuse's Jim Boeheim (966), North Carolina's Roy Williams (750) and Louisville's Rick Pitino (722). Nine of the league's coaches have 300 or more career wins, including six with 400 or more.

■ 23,058 All-Time Victories — With three of the top five, four of the top nine, five of the top 11 and six of the top 25 winningest programs in NCAA Division I basketball history, ACC teams have combined for 23,058 wins since Notre Dame first took to the hardwood in January of 1898. Fourteen of the 15 league members have 1,000 or more all-time wins, including eight schools with 1,500 or more victories.

All-Time NCAA Wins by School

Team	Wins	Team	Wins
1. Kentucky	2,178	7. UCLA	1,803
2. Kansas	2,153	8. St. John's	1,795
3. North Carolina	2,140	Notre Dame	1,795

5. Temple	1,849	11. Louisville	1,728
6. Syracuse	1,814	12. Pennsylvania	1,723

■ Multitude of Fans — With Syracuse leading the nation in average home attendance, the ACC eclipsed the three million mark in attendance for the first time in league history in 2014-15. Three ACC teams were among the top four in average home attendance. NC State led the nation in per game attendance increase last season (+2,795).

2014-15 NCAA School Attendance Leaders

Syracuse	23,864	Louisville	21,386
Kentucky	23,572	North Carolina	19,582

■ Player Honors — The ACC has had at least one consensus first team All-American in 21 of the past 25 years and since 1981, the ACC has produced 42 consensus All- Americans, 16 more than any other conference.

Seven of the last 19 and nine of the last 23 consensus National Players of the Year have been from the ACC. Since 1975, the ACC has had 16 consensus National Players of the Year - 10 more than any other conference. In addition, nine of the ACC's 16 National Players of the Year have been unanimous selections.

■ Non-Conference Success — In 2014-15 with a 21-11 record, ACC teams not only had the nation's best record against non-conference ranked opponents, but it was also the only conference to post a winning record against ranked foes. An NCAA-best eight different ACC teams recorded at least one win against a non-league ranked foe.

A Few Notes About the University of Louisville

■ UofL surgeons performed the first hand transplant in the United States and only the second one in the world.

■ UofL surgeons at Jewish Hospital in Louisville were the first in the world to successfully implant the first fully implantable artificial heart.

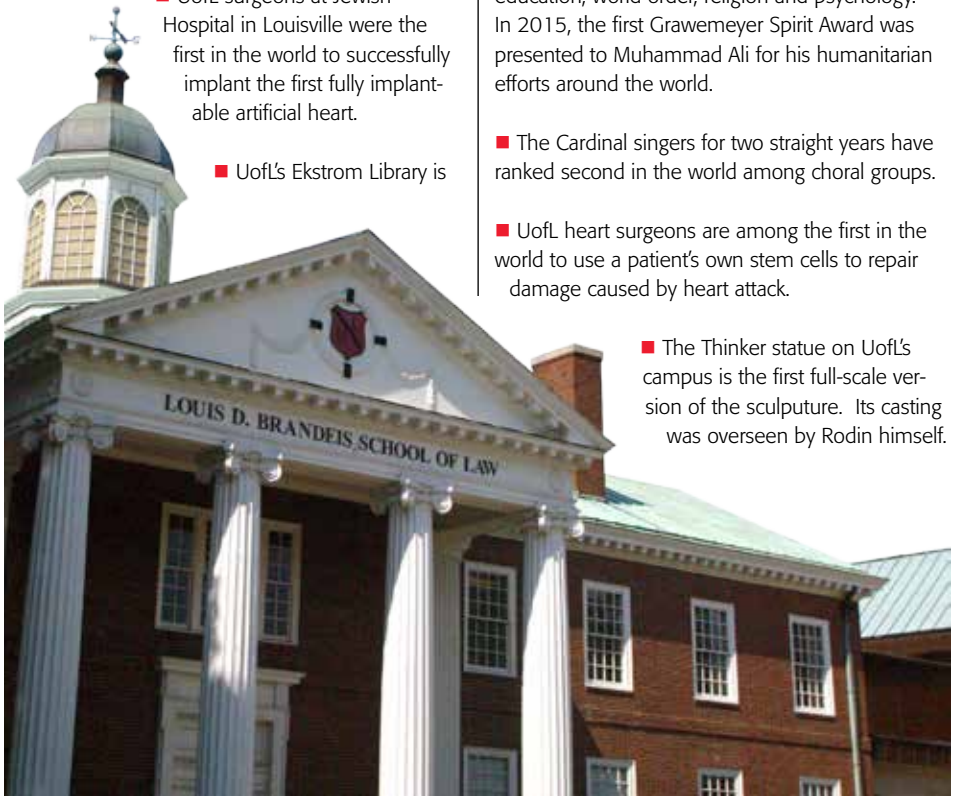

■ UofL's Ekstrom Library is home to the world's largest collection of Edgar Rice Burroughs materials.

■ The internationally renowned Grawemeyer Awards program celebrates outstanding works and ideas in the areas of music composition, education, world order, religion and psychology. In 2015, the first Grawemeyer Spirit Award was presented to Muhammad Ali for his humanitarian efforts around the world.

■ The Cardinal singers for two straight years have ranked second in the world among choral groups.

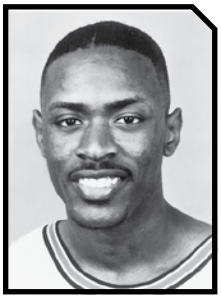

■ UofL heart surgeons are among the first in the world to use a patient's own stem cells to repair damage caused by heart attack.

■ The Thinker statue on UofL's campus is the first full-scale version of the sculpture. Its casting was overseen by Rodin himself.

Louisville Tradition

Louisville Basketball Tradition

Basketball is special to Kentuckians. The sport permeates everyday life from offices to farmlands, from coal mines to neighborhood drug stores. It is more than just a sport played in the cold winter months. It is a source of pride filled year-round with anticipation, hope and celebration. Kentuckians love their basketball, and the tradition-rich University of Louisville program has supplied its fans with one of the nation's finest products for decades.

Legendary coach Bernard "Peck" Hickman, a Basketball Hall of Fame nominee, arrived on the UofL campus in 1944 to begin a remarkable string of 46 consecutive winning seasons. For 23 seasons, Hickman laid an impressive foundation for UofL.

John Dromo, an assistant coach under Hickman for 19 years, continued the Louisville program in outstanding fashion following Hickman's retirement. For 30 years, Denny Crum followed the same path of success that Hickman and Dromo both walked, guiding the Cardinals to even higher acclaim. Now, Coach Rick Pitino energized a re-emergence in building upon the rich UofL tradition in his 14 years, guiding the Cardinals to the 2013 NCAA championship, NCAA Final Fours in 2005 and 2012 and the NCAA Elite Eight five of the past eight seasons. Among the Cardinals' past successes include national championships in the NCAA (1980,1986, 2013), NIT (1956) and the NAIB (1948). UofL is the only school in the nation to have claimed the championship in all three major tournaments.

The Cardinals have appeared in the NCAA tournament on 41 occasions, which places UofL fifth in all-time NCAA Tournament appearances behind Kentucky (55), North Carolina (46), UCLA (45), and Kansas (44).

Louisville has played in the Final Four 10 times, including four times in the 1980s. Only six schools — North Carolina (18), UCLA (17), Kentucky (17), Duke (16), Kansas (14) and Ohio State (11) have reached the Final Four more often.

Taquan Dean kisses the Freedom Hall floor after his final game as a Cardinal.

Louisville was arguably the most dominant team in college basketball during the decade of the 1980s. Evidence of that claim is simple; during the decade of the 80s, the Cardinals won two national championships (equalled only by Indiana); sent an unmatched four teams to the Final Four; appeared among the final 16 teams seven times (bettered only by North Carolina's nine times); and posted the highest NCAA Tournament winning percentage of any other team (.793, 23-6).

Tremendous pride is taken in the tradition established at the University of Louisville. Student-athletes who attend UofL follow in the footsteps of some of college basketball's all-time greats. These athletes must be willing to give of themselves, just as former UofL stars did, to maintain UofL as one of the nations' top programs. It is more than the Wes Unseld's, Darrell Griffith's and Pervis Ellison's of the UofL world. It's the teamwork of those with the Tim Henderson's, Roger Burkman's and Derwin Webb's on the Cardinal rosters that blend into one team, one unit, to achieve a common goal. It is a commitment that has been worthwhile for decades.

Retired Numbers

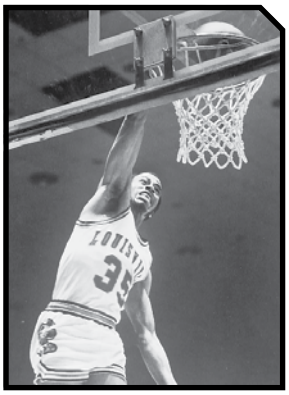

42 Pervis Ellison

Top NBA Draft Pick of 1989

The only player in UofL history to total both 2,000 points and 1,000 rebounds, Pervis Ellison ended his playing career with the Cardinals as the No. 2 all-time scorer and he became only the second player at UofL to score 2,000 points in his career. A consensus All-American in 1989, "Never Nervous Pervis" was named MVP of the 1989 Metro Conference Tournament, an award he also won as a freshman. The all-time shot blocker at UofL and in the Metro Conference with 374 career rejections, Ellison blocked at least one shot in 130 of his 136 career games. He finished his career third among NCAA career leaders in blocked shots. In 1986, he led the Cardinals to their second NCAA Championship title and was the first freshman since 1944 to be named the Most Outstanding Player of the Final Four. The Cardinals won two regular season Metro titles and three Metro tournament championships during Ellison's career. Following his playing career at UofL, Ellison became one of the select few collegiate players and the first for the Cardinals when he was chosen as the No. 1 pick in the 1989 NBA Draft. His jersey number - 42 - was retired at ceremonies following the 1989 season.

35 Darrell Griffith

Louisville's Living Legend

In 1980 Darrell Griffith received the prestigious John Wooden Award from the Los Angeles Athletic Club as college basketball's Player of the Year. He was also selected by for the same honor. A consensus All-American in 1980, he led Louisville to a 33-3 record and the school's first NCAA national championship. He left UofL as the school's career scoring leader (2,333 points); the first player in UofL history to surpass the 2,000 point mark; the school single season scoring leader with 825 points; and the only player at Louisville to score more than 700 points in one season. He finished his collegiate career having scored in double figures in 41 straight games and 111 of his 126 games with the Cardinals. In his four seasons with Louisville, he helped teams to a combined record of 101-25; two regular season Metro Conference titles; two Metro tournament championships; four straight NCAA tournament appearances; and the 1980 NCAA Championship. His jersey number — 35 — was retired at ceremonies following the 1980 basketball season and his road uniform is on permanent display at the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

31 Wes Unseld

Top Single Game Scorer

When Wes Unseld ended his career with the University of Louisville following the 1967-68 season, he left as the Cardinals' all-time leading scorer for a three-year player. Today, Unseld ranks 10th on the all-time scoring list, but his career point total of 1,686 is still tops for a three-year player. A concensus All-American during his junior and senior years, Unseld is one of only five other Cardinal players to pull down over 1,000 rebounds in his career. His 1,551 career rebounds ranks second behind Charlie Tyra's 1,617. Unseld began his senior season with a 45-point effort against Georgetown College, a UofL record that still stands today. Unseld, chosen as second player overall in the NBA draft by Baltimore, was honored on the All-Missouri Valley Conference team all three years at UofL and the Cardinals were 60-22 during his three seasons. During his junior year, Unseld led the Cardinals to a final No. 2 ranking in both wire service polls. Unseld's 20.6 scoring average still ranks as the top scoring average in Louisville history. His 18.9 rebounding average also ranks as the top average for a Cardinal. While playing on the Cardinals' freshmen team, Unseld averaged 35.8 points, 23.6 rebounds and hit 68.6 percent from the field.

8 Charlie Tyra

Top All-Time Rebounder

A consensus All-American during the 1956 and 1957 seasons, Charlie Tyra led the University of Louisville to its first NIT title in 1956 and was named the tournament's MVP for his performance. Tyra was named Helms Athletic Foundation All-American in his junior and senior years. One of only five Cardinals to record over 1,000 rebounds in his career, Tyra ranks as the all-time rebounder in UofL history with 1,617. During the 1955-56 season, Tyra pulled down 645 rebounds, a mark that has been bettered by only three other players in NCAA history. He set the Louisville record for most rebounds in a game when he pulled down 38 against Canisius during the 1955-56 season. In his four seasons with Louisville, he helped teams to a combined record of 88-23 and three straight NIT appearances. Tyra ranks third in career free throws made (448), second in career rebounding average (17.0), fourth in career scoring average (18.2), eighth in career scorers (1,728 points) and eighth in field goals made (640). Tyra is one of only four players in UofL history to score 40 points or more in a game (achieved against Notre Dame when he hit 12 of 16 field goals and all 16 of his free throw attempts). Tyra passed away on Dec. 29, 2006 at the age of 71.

Cardinals Have Three Representatives in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame

Wes Unseld, who played for the Cardinals from 1965-68 and had a stellar pro career with the Washington Bullets, was the first UofL representative in the Hall of Fame.

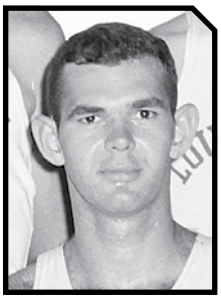

Former UCLA Coach John Wooden (right) was former UofL Coach Denny Crum's escort at the ceremonies. Crum played and coached under Wooden at UCLA.

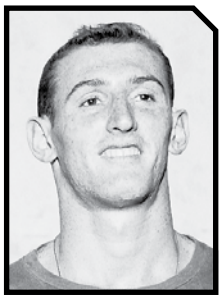

UofL Coach Rick Pitino was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 2013, a honor announced on the day he guided the Cards to the NCAA championship.

Rick Wilson

Louisville (1974-78)
Atlanta Hawks (1978-80)
Wilson played two years with the Atlanta Hawks. A 1978 second round draft pick, he played every position but center in his two-year NBA career. Twice in the 1978-79 season, he scored personal NBA career highs of ten points against Golden State and Portland.

John Turner

Louisville (1958-61)
Chicago Bulls (1961-62)
An All-America pick for the Cardinals in 1961, Turner played one season in the NBA with Chicago, scoring 200 points in 42 games during the 1961-62 season. His 669 points scored as a senior (23.1 avg.) is the second highest ever in a season at UofL.

Charlie Tyra

Louisville (1953-57)
New York (1957-61)
Chicago (1961-62)
A two-time consensus All-America pick at UofL, Tyra played five years in NBA, four with New York and one in Chicago. Originally drafted by Detroit, Tyra averaged a season-best 12.8 ppg in 74 games with New York in 1959-60. Tyra scored 3,091 points in his 348 pro career games.

* There was no formal team in 1916-17. Also, Bowman coached the opening season loss in 1918-19, then turned the team over to Earl Ford.

 Earl Ford was named head coach after the 1918-19 season opener.

 John Dromo suffered a heart attack after nine games in 1970-71 and did not complete his fourth season.

* Assistant Coach Howard Stacey was named interim head coach on Jan. 3, 1971, following John Dromo's heart attack. Stacey served as UofL's head coach for the final 20 games of the 1970-71 season.

Bernard "Peck" Hickman

1944-1967

Before Bernard "Peck" Hickman arrived, UofL had produced only one winning season in its previous nine. Hickman promptly turned the Cardinals' program around, guiding his initial UofL team in 1944 to a 16-3 record and starting a string of 46 consecutive winning seasons for the Cardinals. In 23 seasons at UofL (1944-67), Hickman directed the Cardinals to a 443-183 overall record, a .708 winning percentage that ranks him among the top 45 NCAA Division I coaches of all time.

He never had a team with a losing record, produced eleven 20-win seasons at UofL and averaged over 19 victories a season. He guided the Cardinals to five NCAA Tournament appearances and six NIT appearances. In only his fourth season at UofL, Hickman's Cardinals won the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament (NAIB) in 1948, the school's first national championship. Eight years later, his 1956 team won the NIT championship. He directed UofL to its first NCAA Final Four appearance in 1959.

Hickman took over the administrative responsibilities of serving as UofL's Director of Athletics in 1954. He remained in the dual role of athletic director and head basketball coach until his retirement from coaching in 1967. His .708 winning percentage ranked seventh among active major college coaches when he retired to devote full time to his athletic director duties, a position he held until 1973. He died at the age of 88 on Feb. 20, 2000.

John Dromo

John Dromo joined University of Louisville staff as an assistant coach in both football and basketball in 1948, begining the longest coaching tenure in UofL history. He remained an assistant football coach under Frank Camp until 1951, when he gave up football to become the Cardinals' head golf coach. While an assistant for 17 years under Bernard "Peck" Hickman, UofL produced a 359-162 record, won the 1956 NIT Championship, played in five NCAA Tournaments and reached the 1959 NCAA Final Four.

He succeeded Hickman as head coach in 1967, compiling a 68-23 record (.747 winning percentage) in nearly four seasons as UofL's head basketball coach (1967-71). His first UofL team was 21-7, won the Missouri Valley Conference title and went to the NCAA Tournament. A heart attack during the 1970-71 season forced Dromo from continuing as the Cardinals' basketball coach. He died on Sept. 29, 1992 at the age of 76.

Denny Crum

1971-2001

One of the most impressive eras in collegiate basketball came to an end following the 2000-01 season as former UofL Coach Denny Crum retired after 30 seasons with the Cardinals.

The man admirably labeled "Cool Hand Luke" by former commentator Al McGuire was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame on May 9, 1994.

He directed Louisville to the 1980 and the 1986 NCAA Championships, ranking him as one of only 10 coaches in NCAA history to win two or more titles. Six times he guided the Cardinals into the NCAA Final Four, including four times in the decade of the '80s. Only three coaches all-time coached more Final Four teams than Crum.

He directed the Cardinals to 23 NCAA Tournament appearances. Three of his squads participated in the NIT, reaching the NIT semifinals in 1985. The Cardinals captured or shared 12 Metro Conference regular season titles and 11 post-season tournament championships under Crum's guidance. Crum engineered UofL to 20 or more victories in 21 of his 30 seasons.

Crum's 675 victories rank him 15th all-time, holding a 675-295 career record. His NCAA Tournament mark is 42-23. He retired at the conclusion of the 2000-01 season and continues to work as a special assistant to the UofL president. The KFC Yum! Center court has been named in his honor.

Joe Kitchen Memorial Scholarship

The Joe Kitchen Memorial Scholarship is named for one of U of L's most enthusiastic and loyal Cardinal fans. A basketball letterman who played in the late fifties, Kitchen was a rugged frontline performer on the Cardinals' first NCAA Final Four team in 1959. He remained closely tied to Cardinal basketball throughout his life as a fan and booster.

The Joe Kitchen Memorial Scholarship is awarded each year to a senior basketball player who exemplifies excellence in academics, athletics and community involvement. If not presented to an individual, the Joe Kitchen Memorial Scholarship shall be awarded to underprivileged youth of Louisville to allow them to attend U of L's Basketball Camp and an accompanying enrichment program.

Cardinal Athletic Fund

The Cardinal Athletic Fund was established in 1979 as an avenue for the Athletic Department to be a self sustaining entity. Since then, the commitment and growth of the CAF has been extraordinary.

For over 30 years, the goals and dreams of UofL student-athletes have been made possible by the Cardinal Athletic Fund and over 10,000 gracious supporters. Through our members' annual contributions ranging from $100 to $100,000 and above, UofL student-athletes are provided the opportunity to pursue their academic goals and their athletic dreams, while learning the skills that will prepare them to impact their future communities. Achieving this mission is a tribute to the true spirit of the Cardinal Athletic Fund.

Your membership in the CAF provides you with many exciting benefits. Whether in Papa John's Cardinal Stadium or in the KFC Yum! Center, these benefits will provide you with great value and enhance your overall experience as part of the UofL team.

Information on the Cardinal Athletic Fund can be obtained through our website: www.CardinalAthleticFund.com.

Cardinal Athletic Fund Priority Points

The CAF Priority Point system is a fair and effective way to allocate tickets. The goal of the Priority Point system is to reward those fans who support the program the "longest and the strongest." The CAF utilizes the Priority Point System in the allocation and relocation of home tickets, away tickets, ACC Tournament tickets, NCAA tickets, Bowl Game tickets and parking.

Every donor to the Cardinal Athletic Fund is essential in our mission to support the scholarship needs of UofL student-athletes. The CAF as well as the Cardinal student-athletes greatly appreciate your support.

Priority Points are awarded accordingly;

- One point for every $100 donated to the CAF
- One point for every $100 donated to an individual sport or Capital Campaign
- One point for each year a donation is made
- One point for each year in which football season tickets are purchased
- One point for each year in which basketball season tickets are purchased
- Two points for each year in which season tickets are purchased for women's basketball, volleyball or soccer
- One point for signing up a new Cardinal Athletic Fund member (New member must insert your name in the 'referred by' column on their membership form).

Priority Point Ranking

CAF members earn priority points through a variety of ways including years of giving, season ticket purchases, and donations. CAF members are then ranked against all other members according to their total points. This ranking is used to prioritize benefits such as NCAA Tournament tickets, BIG EAST Tournament tickets, Bowl Tickets, etc. and was used to determine the order basketball season ticket holders selected their seats in the new arena.

Ways To Give

The Cardinal Athletic Fund provides support for the University of Louisville Athletic Department and student-athletes through various avenues, including contributions to the annual fund, endowments, matching gifts and planned giving.

Please be advised under IRS Code Section 170(1) any amount of your donation that results in priority event seating is 80% tax deductible. All other contributions are 100 % tax deductible unless otherwise specified by IRS regulations.

The following are methods of giving and gift destinations:

Gifts of Cash. Cash, checks, VISA, MasterCard and American Express are all acceptable ways to contribute. Please make checks payable to the University of Louisville.

Gifts-in-Kind. In lieu of monetary donations, the CAF may accept certain gifts and services that would otherwise have needed to be purchased. The donor receives a retail credit for the gift/service as well as a deduction. These gifts must have prior approval by the ULAA.

Gifts of Real Estate. A personal or "recreational" residence, a farm or ranch, a commercial building, subdivision lots or an undeveloped parcel of land - gifts of real estate can consist of almost any type of property. Individual financial needs and goals will determine which method of giving real estate is most appropriate for you.

Gifts of Appreciated Securities. Contributions of long term appreciated securities (those held for more than one year) to the Cardinal Athletic Fund eliminate paying a capital gains tax on the securities and entitle you to an income tax charitable deduction equal to the fair market value of the securities at the time the gift is given. This tax advantage allows you to contribute the appreciated securities directly instead of selling them and then giving the net proceeds to the Cardinal Athletic Fund.

Trusts. Options for donating the income of a trust are available and offer substantial tax benefits.

Bequests. A testamentary bequest (i.e. a gift under a will) may be in the form of cash, securities, real estate, tangible personal property or other assets.

Corporate Matching Gifts

Benefits of Matching Gifts

Participation in the corporate matching gifts program is a great way to increase your Cardinal Athletic Fund Donor Level and priority points as well as increase scholarship support for the University of Louisville student-athletes. A matching gift may not be used to pay your annual CAF seat pledge but may be used to supplement your total CAF giving.

The following is a list of companies which have participated in our matching gifts program. This list is not all inclusive and the policy of a company is subject to change, so please be sure to check with your human resources department.

Does My Company Match? To find out your companies policy on corporate matching gifts simply check with your human resources department. The matching gift policies of most corporations can also be found at http://matchfinderonline.blackbaud.com/matchgiftinquiry.aspx?cid=21867. Simply type in your corporation's name to find the corporation's policies.

How do I submit a Matching Gift? Obtain a matching gift form from your human resources department. Then return the completed form with your donation, to the Cardinal Athletic Fund.
