- Starters D.J. Balentine, Egidijus Mockevicius and Adam Wing from last year's team have moved on following graduation while fellow starter Blake Simmons is out for the 2016-17 season with a knee injury
- That leaves Jaylon Brown as the lone starter from last season; in his first full season as a starter, Brown started all 34 games while notching 10.8 points per game

Setting the Scene

- The Purple Aces are primed for another strong run through the Missouri Valley Conference in 2016-17 as they return seven players and a pair of starters from last year's squad

- Complementing that group is six newcomers who will be battling for playing time; that group includes:

#0 - Ryan Taylor - 6-6 - G - r-So.

The native of Gary, Ind. spent his freshman year playing at Ohio University where he averaged 8.1 points per game and 2.5 rebounds. He made 28 starts for the Bobcats and played 30.1 minutes per game. He was a redshirt in 2015-16 due to NCAA transfer rules.

He led his squad to a 22-5 mark and a berth in the Class 4A regional finals. This came a season after helping his squad to an appearance in the 4A state championship game.

#15 - Dalen Traore - 6-9 - C - Jr.

Junior college transfer Dalen Traore played at Miami Dade College for the last two years. Last season, he posted 5.5 points and 6.3 rebounds. In 2013, he played for his native Ivory Coast at the FIBA U19 World Championships where he notched 12.7 points and 10.5 rebounds per game.

Finishing on a High Note

- Blake Simmons finished the 2015-16 season on a steady roll, averaging 7.63 points over the final eight games of the season

Points of Interest

- Evansville played in its second MVC Championship game in March, the first came in 1999 when the Purple Aces fell to Creighton by a final of 70-61
- The last conference tournament won by the Aces was in 1993 when UE topped Xavier by a final of 80-69 in the MCC
- In its Division I history, which dates back to 1977, the Aces have won three conference championships (1982, 1992, 1993)

25 Wins

- Evansville finished with a 25-9 overall and its win total was the most since the 1988-89 squad went 25-6 on their way to the NCAA Tournament
- The 25 wins by the two squads is the most in UE's Division I history, which dates back to 1977

What a Run

- Evansville is an unbelievable 30-9 in its last 39 games, dating back to the beginning of the CIT Championship run in March of 2015
- UE has started 11-2 in back-to-back seasons for the first time since the 1987-88 and 88-89 campaigns

Valley Streaks

- UE won 9 MVC games in five of the last six years, Evansville did not have one 9-win MVC season between 2001 and 2010
- Coach Simmons has led the Aces to a 5 seed or better in the Valley in four of the last five seasons, it is the first time since joining the league in 1994 that UE has had that type of streak

Award Time

- Various MVC awards were announced earlier this week and the Aces recieved strong recognition
 - D.J. Balentine - All-MVC First Team
 - Egidijus Mockevicius - Defensive Player of the Year, All-MVC First Team, All-Defensive Team
 - Mislav Brzoja - 6th Man of the Year, All-Bench Team, Scholar-Athlete 2nd Tm
 - Blake Simmons - Scholar-Athlete 1st Tm

20 Wins

- For the third time in four years, the Purple Aces won 20 games in 2015-16, clinching the all-important victory against Loyola on Feb. 14
- It marked the first time since 1999 that UE won 20 games in the regular season
- Evansville won 23 regular-season games for the first time since the 1988-89 campaign

Road Warriors

- A first has happened to the UE program as the squad has won 10 games away from home in consecutive seasons for the first time in program history
- The Aces were 10-7 in 2014-15 and finished 12-6 in road and neutral site games in 2015-16
- Evansville also won six out of nine road MVC games for the first time since 1999

Over .500

- It has been a long road that has seen head coach Marty Simmons perform a full rebuilding effort at his alma mater
- Over the first three years of his career at the University of Evansville, Simmons posted a 35-56 mark
- Since then, an unbelievable turnaround has seen Simmons lead the Aces to a .500 mark or better in four out of five seasons and with the win over Alabama A&M, his record with the Aces moved above the .500 mark for the first time at UE and he now stands at 150-143
- Between 2000 and 2010, the Aces finished .500 or better just one time
- In the last six years, UE has been even or above on five occasions

LOOKING BACK

This and That

- D.J. Balentine led the MVC in scoring again with 20.5 PPG, the Aces have had the leading scorer in the league in 4 of the last 8 years; Balentine has led the league three years in a row while Shy Ely led the Valley in 2008-09
- UE has also had one of the top two scorers in the MVC in seven of the last eight seasons and a top three scorer in each of the last 8 years
- With 19 rebounds against UNI, Egidijus Mockevicius finished with a season average of 14.0 rebounds per game, he is the first since Xavier McDaniel of Wichita State to average that many; McDaniel notched 14.8 per game in 1985
- The last MVC player to average at least 10 boards was Joe Breakenridge of UNI, who had 10.5/game in 2001
- Mockevicius finished with 476 rebounds last season, 9th most in a single season in Valley history
- His 476 boards is the most for an MVC player since Xavier McDaniel's 460 in 1985
- Wes Unseld holds the single-season rebounding mark with 533 in 1966-67

- D.J. Balentine averaged 20 points per game for the third year in a row and in doing so joined elite company
- In the last five years, the only other players to average 20 PPG in three straight seasons were Doug McDermott and Tyler Haws

Top Ten

- Since breaking Colt Ryan's program scoring record on February 6, D.J. Balentine has continued to score at his usual pace
- With 20 points against UNI, Balentine moved his career total to 2,464, which saw him finish in 7th place in the history of all NCAA Division I schools in the state of Indiana
- Balentine also completed his career in 4th place in MVC history in career scoring
- His tally puts him in exclusive company as he is behind just Hersey Hawkins, Oscar Robertson and Larry Bird; those three combined to play in the NBA for 40 seasons

"BIG E"

- The national leader in rebounds and double-doubles, Egidijus Mockevicius added to his honors by being named the MVC Defensive Player of the Year in March
- He was also named an All-MVC First Team player for the second time and grabbed a spot on the All-Defensive Team for the third year in a row
- Mockevicius finished with 23 points and 20 rebounds as UE earned a 74-66 win over Loyola on January 19, marking his fourth 20-rebound effort of the season, the most in all of Division I
- Mockevicius had 27 double-doubles this season, the most in the NCAA
- Mockevicius earned his 54th double-double in 78 games by recording 12 points and 18 boards against MSU

- Mockevicius hauled in at least 10 rebounds in 30 out of 34 games this year
- His scoring was also stellar as Mockevicius notched 15.7 points per game, ranking 4th in the MVC

2016-17 ACES MEN'S BASKETBALL

- The senior registered his 1,000th point against Marian and his 1,000th rebound at Missouri State and became just the 14th person in the 109-year history of the Valley to record 1000/1000; he is the first MVC player to reach that mark since Ashraf Amaya of SIU did so in 1993
 - Mockevicius was the MVC Player of the Week on five occasions last season - Nov. 16, Nov. 30, Dec. 28, Jan. 4 and Jan. 18

New Record

- With an unbelievable effort of 17 rebounds in the win at Bradley, Egidijus Mockevicius broke the all-time program scoring mark, which was held by Dale Wise
 - Wise hauled in 1,197 career rebounds in his career, which spanned from 1958 through 1961
 - Mockevicius finished his career with 1,260 in his career, which put him 4th in the MVC record books; in his final game, he passed Larry Bird who had 1,247 in his illustrious career at Indiana State

Still on Top

- Make it 3-for-3 as D.J. Balentine has been named to the All-MVC First Team in each of the last three seasons
 - For the seventh time in his career, D.J. Balentine was named the MVC Player of the Week as his efforts at Drake and against Southern Illinois saw him post 26.5 PPG
 - With 2,464 points in his career, he finished the year atop the active NCAA scoring list
 - On his way to 2,000 points, Balentine posted 26 points against Norfolk State
 - Since the start of the 2013-14 season, Balentine scored in double figures in 97 out of 103 games
 - The 3-time All-MVC 1st Team player played 37.1 minutes/game, tops in the MVC

DJ 2K

- A free throw in the second half marked the 2,000th point in the legendary career of D.J. Balentine; he finished with 26 points in the victory over Norfolk State on his way to the mark
 - He became the 4th player in program history, the 16th in the MVC record books and 32nd player among all of the Division I schools in the State of Indiana to do so
 - Colt Ryan reached 2,000 in a home overtime win against Drake in 2013 while Marcus Wilson hit the mark in an MVC Tournament win over Bradley in 1999
 - Each of the last three to register their 2000th point for UE did so by scoring at least 25 points in the game (box score is not available for Larry Humes' 2000th point game)
 - The last two Division I players from an Indiana school to record 2,000 points have come from UE
 - Colt Ryan and D.J. Balentine
 - In careers that have paralleled each other very close, Balentine took 116 games to reach 2,000 points while Ryan did it in 117 games
 - Larry Humes accomplished the feat during his senior season at Evansville in 1965-66
 - Balentine is the 4th MVC player to reach 2,000 points since the year 2000; Colt Ryan, Doug McDermott (Creighton) and Kent Williams (SIU) were the others

Putting it into Perspective

- Averaging 13 rebounds per game is tough to do for anyone, even the best players to pass through college basketball since 2001. Only ten players since then have posted an average of 13 rebounds or more. Egidijus Mockevicius rounded out that list. Here is the fill list:

Name/School	Year	Average
Egidijus Mockevicius/Evansville	15-16	14.0
Kenneth Faried/Morehead St.	10-11	14.5
Ryan Rossiter/Siena	10-11	13.2
Artsiom Parakhouski/Radford	09-10	13.4
Kenneth Faried/Morehead St.	09-10	13.0
Blake Griffin/Oklahoma	08-09	14.3
John Bryant/Santa Clara	08-09	14.2
Rashad Jones-Jennings/UALR	06-07	13.1
Paul Millsap/Louisiana Tech	05-06	13.4
Kenny Adeleke/Hartford	05-06	13.1

In 2015-16...

- Evansville was a perfect 24-0 when leading with five minutes remaining
 - Evansville was 18-2 when outrebounding the opposition
 - Evansville was 18-1 when leading at the half
 - Evansville was 14-0 when scoring 80 or more points
 - Evansville was 24-0 when doing so since beginning of 14-15, UE has won its last 25 when hitting the mark, the last loss was a 95-81 defeat at UNI on 1/29/14

Top Game

- Adam Wing had a perfect night in all facets on his way to a career-high of 21 points at Arkansas
 - Wing went a perfect 8-for-8 from the field and knocked down all five free throw attempts in his career outing
 - The senior shot 51.4% as a senior, one of the top tallies in the MVC
 - After three games, Wing was struggling with his shot, hitting just 3 of his first 14 attempts (21.4%); since then, he found his stroke in a big way
 - Over the last 31 outings, Wing drained 86 of his 163 attempts
 - Wing put together one of the best games of his career against UC Irvine as he fell just a point shy of the first double-double in his career
 - He posted a career-best 10 rebounds to go along with 9 points; he also had five assists, two blocks and a steal while hitting four of his six shot attempts
 - In the road win at Missouri State, Wing knocked down 6 of his 7 attempts to finish with 15 points, he also drained his 8th triple in 13 tries
 - For the year, Wing knocked down 52.5% (21/40) of his triples, that percentage would have been best in the nation with enough attempts

New Record

- There is a new name atop the Purple Aces all-time blocked shots list - Egidijus Mockevicius
 - He set the record in the game at Arkansas, passing Dan Godfread's mark of 226; he finished with 297 for his career
 - Mockevicius was swatting opponents shots at the top rate of his career as a senior and had 94
 - The single-season record, which was held by Godfread, stood at 92 from the 1988-89 campaign, but in his final game, Mockevicius registered three blocks to set the new mark at 94
 - Mockevicius is also solidly in second place in MVC history with his block total; Benoit Benjamin of Creighton holds the all-time league record with 411 in his career, which spanned from 1982 through 1985

In the MVC Record Book

- D.J. Balentine led the MVC with 20.5 points per game and led the conference in scoring in each of the last three seasons, joining Larry Bird and Oscar Robertson as the only three in league history to do so
 - He has two of the top 23 scoring seasons in the MVC record book; his 752 in 2013-14 ranks 17th while his 723 last year is tied for 23rd

Home Non-Conference Streak

- The Dec. 22 victory over Alabama A&M continued a streak for the Purple Aces that has seen them win 16 out of their last 17 non-conference games at the Ford Center since the beginning of the 2014 season
 - That included a perfect 7-0 non-conference at home this season and a 3-0 record in the 2015 CIT

He Got It!

- Egidijus Mockevicius became just the 14th player in MVC history to record 1000 points and 1000 rebounds. The others include:

We're going streaking!

- For the second season in a row, UE has began the season winning 7 of its first 8 games; it is the first time UE has had back-to-back starts like that since 1939-40 and 40-41
 - Going back to last season, head coach Marty Simmons led UE to eight wins in a row from the CIT through the Belmont game
 - It was the longest win streak for Simmons while coaching his alma mater
 - The streak was the longest since the Purple Aces won nine in a row during the 1999-2000 season
 - UE was also 3-0 for the third season in a row, it is the first time the program has done so since the 1948-49 through 1950-51 campaigns

20 wins

- Head coach Marty Simmons has led UE to 20 or more wins in three of the last four seasons and with the win at Loyola on Feb. 14, the Aces clinched their fourth 20-win season since 1994
 - In its Division I era, UE has won 20 games on 10 occasions and has done so 21 times in its storied history
 - Simmons has done wonders with the UE program since taking over; in the last seven seasons, the Aces have averaged over 16 wins per season
 - In the eight seasons prior to 2008, the Aces won just 10.5 games per season
 - With 24 wins in 2014-15, the Aces matched the win total from the 1991-92 season, it was also just the second time since 1989 that UE has won 24 games

2016-17 ACES MEN'S BASKETBALL

Marty Simmons Head Coach - 10th Year Hometown - Lawrenceville, Ill. Education - Evansville '87

Nobody personifies just what it means to be a Purple Ace more than head coach Marty Simmons. One of the top players in program history enters his tenth season at the helm of his alma mater. Simmons helped the Purple Aces to a 25-9 mark and its second berth in the Missouri Valley Conference Championship game. UE finished second in the MVC in the regular season. During the 2015-16 season, D.J. Balentine became the program's all-time leading scorer, finishing his career with 2,464 points. Egidijus Mockevicius finished his time at UE with the most rebounds in Aces history.

In 2015, Simmons coached the Aces to a record of 24-12 and the CIT Championship. Evansville went 5-0 in the tournament en route to the championship. The record was the best for the program since the 1991-92 season. For the first time since joining the Missouri Valley Conference, the team had two players on the All-MVC First Team as D.J. Balentine and Egidijus Mockevicius garnered the accolade. With a win over #23 Northern Iowa on January 1, 2015, Simmons earned his fifth triumph over a ranked opponent.

His seventh year was a transition as his squad was the 4th-youngest squad in the country. Despite the youthfulness of the team, the talent level could not be questioned. As a sophomore, D.J. Balentine led the MVC and finished in the top 10 in the nation in scoring. Simmons helped fellow sophomore Egidijus Mockevicius become one of the top forces in the Valley. Mockevicius led the league in shooting and rebounding. He also coached son Blake to a berth on the MVC All-Freshman Team. The 2012-13 season brought about milestones that had not been achieved in over a decade as University of Evansville men's basketball coach Marty Simmons led his Purple Aces to a 21-15 record. That mark included a 3-1 record in the CollegeInsider.com Tournament as the Aces won more postseason games in a season since taking home the 1971 National Championship. A banner season saw Colt Ryan break the UE career scoring mark with 2,279 points (6th in MVC history), Troy Taylor record the second triple-double in program history, another top four seed for the MVC Tournament and a sweep of eventual Final Four participant Wichita State. Simmons has led the Aces to the postseason in five of the last seven years while going .500 or better in five out of those seasons; he helped UE to its best two MVC records (2012 and 2013) since the 1999 championship and has led the Purple Aces to three victories over ranked opponents, including a 2012 victory over No. 15 and eventual MVC champion Creighton at the Ford Center.

Prior to that, the 2011-12 season was full of memories as Simmons squad advanced to the postseason for the third time in four seasons, facing Princeton in the CBI. The Aces finished in third place in the Valley, their top finish since 1999 and picked up victories over defending national runner-up Butler in the season opener before downing Creighton, who was ranked 15th in the nation at the time. UE also picked up road victories at places it had not won at in a decade including Missouri State and Northern Iowa. Simmons' 2010-11 team knocked off Butler at Hinkle Fieldhouse in November to end the Bulldogs' 14-game homecourt winning streak. Simmons returned to his alma mater as head coach in the spring of 2007. His first squad finished 9-21, but one year later, in 2008-09, Simmons led his Aces to a 17-14 record and a berth in the inaugural CollegeInsider.com Post-season Tournament. For his efforts, Simmons finished third in balloting for MVC Coach of the Year, trailing only the coaches who led their teams to a co-championship.

Even though the 2009-10 season yielded only nine victories, Evansville was the only team in the MVC without a scholarship senior, and by far the youngest team in the league. Despite playing four freshmen in most games, Simmons led the Aces to late-season victories over 22nd ranked Northern Iowa and Wichita State, the top two teams in the MVC. UE's Colt Ryan became Evansville's first MVC Freshman of the Year, and eventually earned the Mid-Major National Freshman of the Year award from CollegeInsider.com. That set the stage for the much improved 2010-11 season, noted above, in which the Aces went from three league victories to nine. Prior to his return to Evansville in 2007, Simmons served as head coach for five years at Division II Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville, where he took over a program that had not won 10 games since 1999 and led the Cougars to 23 wins in 2005 and 25 in 2006. SIUE reached the NCAA Tournament in 2005 for the first time in 15 years, and Simmons was chosen as Great Lakes Valley Coach of the Year. His 2006 squad did even better, winning three games in the NCAA Division II Great Lakes Regional Championships and advancing to the Elite Eight. SIUE appeared in the national rankings 16 weeks.

A native of Lawrenceville, Ill., Simmons led Lawrenceville High School to back to back Class A state championships and became one of the most celebrated players in Illinois prep history. Affectionately known as 'Mule,' his 2,986 career points were the third most in Illinois history when he graduated in 1983. Simmons played at Lawrenceville for Ron Felling, who went on to become an assistant coach at Indiana University. Simmons immediately helped turn around the UE program when he became eligible in 1986-87. He averaged 22.4 points as a junior and led Evansville to a first place tie in the Midwestern Collegiate Conference. As a senior, he finished sixth in the nation in scoring at 25.9, and finished ninth in balloting for the Associated Press College Basketball Player of the Year. He led the Aces to a 21-8 record in 1988 and a first-round win over Utah in the NIT. It was Evansville's first post-season appearance since 1982, and UE's first post-season win at the Division I level. A first team all-MCC player in both of his seasons at UE, Simmons scored 750 points as a senior, the fourth most in school history.

Marty and his wife, Angie, who grew up in nearby Newburgh, have four children: Brittany, Kelsey, Blake, and Cole.
