2016-17 Lafayette Women's Basketball Game Notes

Game 4 | vs. Chattanooga | Nov. 19 | 2 p.m.

Game 5 | at Louisville | Nov. 20 | 4:30 p.m.

Game 6 | vs. Bowling Green | Nov. 21 | 5 p.m.

GONE SO SOON?

After playing in two straight road games to begin the 2016-17 season, the Leopards returned to Kirby Sports Center and were defeated 62-51 in the home opener by Robert Morris, the reigning NEC Tournament champions. The Leopards will not be back on their home court until Wednesday, Nov. 30 when they play host to Penn.

HALL OF FAME WOMEN'S CHALLENGE

Lafayette heads down to Louisville, Ky. for just the second time in program history. The Leopards will take part in the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame Women's Challenge from Nov. 19-21. This marks the second trip to KFC Yum Center for the Leopards as they last trekked down to the Bluegrass State during the 2014-15 season to play Louisville. The Leopards will start their busy weekend with a gaame against Chattanooga on Nov. 19 before returning to the court the following day to play host Louisville. Lafayette will cap things off versus Bowling Green on Nov. 21 before heading back to College Hill.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR THE LEOPARDS

Following this weekend's festivities, the Leopards will return from Thanksgiving break and travel up to Springfield, Mass. where the Hall of Fame Women's Challenge will resume on Sunday, Nov. 27 with the Leopards playing Hampton at the MassMutual Center at 3:30 p.m.

UT-Chattanooga

Chattanooga, Tenn.

Head Coach: Jim Foster (Temple '80, fourth season)Career Record: 866-324Record at Chattanooga: 83-17SCOUTING CHATTANOOGA

The Mocs enter the weekend with a 1-2 overall record, dropping their previous two games to a pair of ranked opponents in No.19 Florida and No. 23 Indiana. Senior Jasmine Joyner has set the tone in scoring this year for Chattanooga at 14.7 points per outing. Joyner was also the team's leading rebounder in the past two contests. The Mocs have additional threats on the offensive end in redshirt junior Chelsey Shumpert (11.3 ppg) and junior Keiana Gilbert (10.7).

SERIES HISTORY

This will be the first meeting between Lafayette and Chattanooga.

University of Louisville

Louisville, Ky.

Head Coach: Jeff Walz (Northern Kentucky '95, 10th season)Career Record: 238-85Record at Louisville: 238-85SCOUTING NO. 5/6 LOUISVILLE

The No.5-ranked Cardinals are off to a 3-0 start to the year after defeating UT Martin, Belmont and Middle Tennessee. In those three games, Louisville has outscored its opponents 264-179. Sophomore Asia Durr leads the team with 21.3 points per game, while juniors Mariya Moore (16.3) and Myisha Hines-Allen (11.0) are also over the double-digit scoring average mark for the season.

SERIES HISTORY

This is the second time that Lafayette will square off against Louisville. The last meeting between the two teams came on Nov. 28, 2014 when the Leopards were bested 102-61 in Louisville, Ky.

Bowling Green University

Bowling Green, Ohio

Head Coach: Jennifer Roos (Davidson '93, fifth season)Career Record: 63-37Record at Bowling Green: 63-37SCOUTING BOWLING GREEN

The Falcons enter the weekend with an 0-2 record after falling to Eastern Kentucky and Cincinnati. Bowling Green features a pair of double-digit scorers in sophomore Carly Santoro (16.0) and senior Abby Siefker (10.0). Siefker is currently averaging a double-double with 12 boards per contest.

SERIES HISTORY

This marks the first meeting between Lafayette and Chattanooga.

CRUNCHATIZE ME CAP'N

The Lafayette women's basketball team announced senior forward Harriet Ottewill-Soulsby and junior guard Sammy Stipa as the captains for the 2016-17 campaign. This is Ottewill-Soulsby's second straight season as a team captain. She made 23 starts in 26 appearances last year, while Stipa got the starting nod in all 24 games that she played in. The two will lead a Leopards' team that features three sophomores and four freshmen.

FLASHY FRESHMEN CLASS

Grentz went out on the recruiting trail and reeled in an impressive four-player freshman class.

Olivia Gumbs has the ability to play multiple positions on the court and was recognized as a two-time First-Team All-Conference and All-State Performer in high school. Through two games, she is tied for third on the team in scoring at 7.3 points per contest and first in rebounds with 5.7 per game.

Tasha Vipond was named the MVP of a team which claimed a state championship last year. The Ankeny, Iowa native was also named First-Team All-State, All-Conference and All-District as a senior. She is an athletic player who can consistently knock down shots. Sarah Agnello was a key piece of a region and district title winning team last year at Villa Maria Academy in Erie, Pa. She has the ability to shoot the ball well and has shown great leadership for a first-year player thus far.

Alexis Santarelli, a two-time First-Team All-Conference player in high school, brings a left-handed touch with her to College Hill. Her AAU team, the Philadelphia Comets, took first place in the Mid-Atlantic Region. The Philadelphia native scored eight points in each of her first two contests and six in her last outing against Robert Morris. She also ranks second on the team in rebounds at 5.3 per game.

O CANADA

Sophomore center Angela Ribarich returns for her second season with the Leopards. At 6-5 she towers over the competition and as a freshman, she was named to the Patriot League All-Rookie Team and was recognized as a two-time conference Rookie of the Week.

The Toronto native has recorded at least one block in each of her three games this season.

LOOKING FOR MORE ROAD SUCCESS

The Leopards played to a 2-13 record on the road last season. It will not get any easier for the Maroon and White as they will play just three of their 12 out-of-conference games inside Kirby Sports Center. Lafayette got started on the right track in the 2016-17 season with a 56-49 non-conference road victory over La Salle on Nov. 11 in Philadelphia.

NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

The non-conference slate for the Leopards will be challenging as Lafayette will take on six non-Patriot League teams that competed in the NCAA Tournament last season including, Chattanooga, Louisville, Penn. St. John's, Princeton and Duquesne. Additionally, the Leopards will face Drexel, a team that participated in the WNIT in 2015-16.

LIMITING THE COLONIALS

The Leopards held Robert Morris to 30 percent shooting on Nov. 16. The Leopards stole the ball seven times and recorded six blocks. The Colonials were held to under 30 percent shooting in both the first and second quarter. Lafayette currently ranks third in the Patriot League in field goal defense, limiting the opposition to just 33.9 percent from the field.

SEEING DOUBLE

Lafayette has had two double-digit scorers in each of its three games this season. In the season opener against La Salle, senior Harriet Ottewill-Soulsby scored a team-high 13 points, while freshman Olivia Gumbs tallied 10. Against Rider, juniors Anna Ptasinski (12) and Sammy Stipa (11) eclipsed the double-digit scoring mark. In the Leopards' last outing, Stipa once again reached double figures in scoring with 13 points. Meanwhile, senior Maia Hood notched 11.

REBOUNDING PROWESS

Lafayette has had great success on the boards this year, outrebounding its opponents by an average of five through three games. As a team, the Leopards have recorded the most rebounds by any Patriot League school with 128. Their 42.7 rebounds per game ranks second in the conference behind Bucknell (49.0),

TOP 20 SCORERS

Stipa and Ptasinski both rank inside the top 20 in the Patriot League in points per game this season. Stipa currently leads the team in scoring and is 14th in the conference at 10.7 points per contest, while Ptasinski sits in 19th at 9.3 points per outing.

E-ZPASS

Through three games, Stipa has compiled a total of 11 assists, which ranks third in the Patriot League. Her 5.5 assists per game is good for fifth in the conference.

PRESEASON POLL RESULTS

Lafayette is predicted to finish eighth out of 10 teams in this year's Patriot League standings after a vote by the conference's head coaches and sports information directors, one spot better than its ninth-place finish in 2015-16. The Leopards were positioned a spot higher than Colgate, the team that knocked the Maroon and White out of the Patriot League Tournament a year ago in the opening round.

Army West Point, which claimed its third Patriot League Tournament championship, was dropped down to third after losing the league's top scorer from a year ago, Kelsey Minato. Bucknell, the team that fell to Army West Point in the championship game, was picked as the favorite in the league this season and senior Claire DeBoer was selected as the preseason conference player of the year.

PATRIOT LEAGUE AGAINST THE NATION

Nine of the 10 Patriot League teams will be in action when the 2016-17 women's basketball season tips off on Nov. 11, including the Leopards. All 10 Patriot League teams will be challenged in the non-League portion of their schedules. Patriot League teams will be seeing 16 teams that made a 2016 NCAA DI Women's Basketball Championship appearance; 17 teams that made an appearance in last year's WNIT; and three teams that competed in the WBI.

COUNTDOWN TO CONFERENCE PLAY

Lafayette will take part in the first Patriot League game of the 2016-17 season when the team heads up to Hamilton, N.Y. on Dec. 30 to take on Colgate for a 7 p.m. contest. Conference play for the rest of the League's eight teams will commence on that same day and continues on Wednesdays and Saturdays throughout the winter until this year's Patriot League Tournament gets started with first round contests slated for Mar. 4.

HALL OF FAME CREDENTIALS FOR GRENTZ

Second-year Lafayette head coach Theresa Grentz was inducted into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2001, and she continued to bolster her resume in the years following. Entering 2016-17, Grentz has had 31 winning seasons in 34 years on the sidelines. She claimed the final AIAW National Championship as head coach at Rutgers in 1981-82, and reached the NCAA Tournament in 14 of 25 eligible seasons while leading Rutgers and Illinois.

A 16-time coach of the year, Grentz led the USA National Team to gold medals at the FIBA World Championships and the Goodwill Games in 1990. She later guided the national team to a bronze medal at the 1992 Summer Olympics in Barcelona. At the time of her hiring at Rutgers, Grentz became the first full-time women's basketball coach in the country. She would go on to win a program-record 434 games for the Scarlet Knights, including four Atlantic 10 championships and nine-straight NCAA appearances.

The Philadelphia native was also a standout player for Immaculata in the early 70s, as she was part of a Mighty Macs squad which took home AIAW National Championships in 1972, 1973 and 1974. The 1974 championship marked the first live television broadcast of a women's basketball game in the United States. Grentz was a three-time First-Team All-American at Immaculata. She was inducted into the Naismith Hall of Fame along with the rest of her Mighty Mac teammates in 2014.

HIRING OF A LEGEND

Grentz was officially announced as the sixth head coach in Lafayette women's basketball history by director of athletics Bruce McCutcheon on April 20, 2015. Grentz first joined the staff as an assistant in October, 2014. During her seven-year absence from the sidelines, Grentz served as the former Vice President for University Advancement at her alma mater, Immaculata. She also founded Grentz Elite Coaching, a basketball teaching academy based in West Chester, Pa., which runs camps and clinics across the country.

BY HER SIDE

Grentz is joined on the sidelines by three assistant coaches in 2016-17. C.K. Calhoun and Ross James, return for their third seasons on College Hill. Calhoun, a former head coach at Shenandoah University, is the associate head coach, while James' serves as the recruiting coordinator/assistant coach. Kristen Foley joined the staff as an assistant last winter. She was a former head coach at Temple and Drexel. A Rutgers Hall of Fame player under Grentz in the 1980s, Foley coached at Rutgers for five seasons before transitioning into an administrative role in the athletic department.

BLOCK PARTY

There is great size and length in the frontcourt for the Leopards. Senior forward Harriet Ottewill-Soulsby stands at 6-3 and recorded 29 blocks a season ago. Ottewill-Soulsby swatted a pair of shots in the season opener against La Salle and then four against Robert Morris on Nov. 16. The senior has sole possession of fifth in all-time blocks at Lafayette as she passed Mary Prokapus '86 earlier this season. Ottewill-Soulsby is currently third in the Patriot League in blocks with six.

Sophomore center Angela Ribarich stands alongside Ottewill-Soulsby at 6-5. Her size causes problems for the opposition as she blocked 34 shots in her rookie campaign, which was second among all Patriot League freshmen. She recorded a single block against La Salle, two against Rider, and a pair against Robert Morris. She currently sits in 15th all time in career blocks at Lafayette. Ribarich ranks fourth in the conference in blocks with five. As a team, the Leopards are averaging four blocks per contest this season, which is good for fourth in the Patriot League.

CRASHING THE OFFENSIVE BOARDS

In 2015-16 the Leopards were tied for first in the Patriot League with Navy in offensive boards per game at 13.2. In 29 contests, the Leopards brought down a total of 384 offensive rebounds.

The Leopards reeled in a total of 17 offensive rebounds in the 2016-17 season opener against La Salle, 15 in the second game of the year against Rider, and then 11 against Robert Morris. Freshman Olivia Gumbs leads the Maroon and White with seven offensive boards on the season thus far. Lafayette currently leads the Patriot League in offensive rebounds (43) as a team.

NEVER LOOKING BACK

In the Leopards' first contest of the 2016-17 season, they scored the first basket of the game and held the lead for the remainder of the night en route to a 56-49 victory over La Salle in Philadelphia. The Lafayette lead grew as high as 16 in the third quarter following a pair of free-throw makes by freshman forward Alexis Santarelli.

Patriot League Tournament

LEOPARDS ON TV

This season, 10 Lafayette regular-season contests—including all nine Patriot League home games—will be broadcast live to more than 100 million viewers via the Lafayette Sports Network. All 12 of the Leopards' home games, whether televised or not, and all Patriot League road games will be streamed live for free on the Patriot League Network. The Patriot League Network will also stream all of the Leopards' road contests during Patriot League play. Lafayette's game against Bucknell on March 2 will additionally be available on the American Sports Network.

NEW OPPONENTS

Of the 12 teams on the Leopards' non-league schedule, there are three that Lafayette will see for the first time in program history. The Leopards have their home opener on Nov. 16 against Robert Morris, a team that the Maroon and White has yet to see play. The remaining two teams are Chattanooga and Bowling Green. The Leopards will face both while in Louisville, Ky. for the Hall of Fame Women's Challenge.

FAMILIAR FACES

Lafayette have played Princeton, Penn and Rider more than 30 times. Princeton holds the series advantage over the Leopards, but Lafayette has the edge over Penn and Rider.
