IMPRESSIVE ROAD WINS

Since becoming head coach at Texas Southern Mike Davis has captured impressive road wins over some of the nations top basketball programs. TSU defeated Michigan State 71-64 in overtime (12/20/14). The year before that TSU knocked off Temple 90-89 (12/18/13). This season the Tigers have posted road wins over Rice, La Salle, and James Madison.

GRIFFIN TABBED PLAYER OF THE YEAR

TSU forward Derrick Griffin has established himself as one of the most exciting players to watch in college basketball as he was named SWAC Player of the Year last season and Preseason Player of the Year heading into this year. The 6-7 big man has had the ability to consistently post double-doubles and last season he set a new league record for consecutive double-doubles. Griffin is a standout athlete and has also spent time playing on the football field at wide receiver.

NCAA RANKINGS

Derrick Griffin currently ranks 2nd in the NCAA in offensive rebounds. He also has been a double-double machine as he ranks 9th in the nation in that category.

LOFTON CONTINUES TO POST SOLID NUMBERS

TSU transfer guard Zach Lofton has been a big part of the Tigers success this season as he currently leads the team in scoring with 21.0 points per game. Lofton has been named the SWAC Player of the Week twice this season.

ROBINSON HELPS ADD ONE-TWO PUNCH

Another guard that has played well for the Tigers is Pacific transfer Dulani Robinson. Robinson average 12.9 points per game and averages a team high 5.3 assists per outing.

LAST OUTING

SIU 74, TSU 70

CARBONDALE, Ill. – Despite a furious second half comeback attempt the Texas

Southern Tigers fell to Southern Illinois 74-70 on Saturday.

TSU was trailing 36-27, when they stormed back as Dulani Robinson's 3-pointer with 1:30 left gave Texas Southern the lead, 70-68 in the second half of play.

Robinson was called for a foul with 1:11 left, sending Mike Rodriguez to the line for two free throws. After making the first, Texas Southern was called for a technical foul and SIU's Armon Fletcher connected on one of two from the line, after which Rodriguez returned to hit the second of two.

SIU added two more points from the charity stripe with eight seconds remaining to help seal the game for the Salukis.

Derrick Griffin posted another double-double with 12 points and 13 boards while Kevin Scott chipped in 13 points for the Tigers.

UA 85, TSU 63

TUCSON, Ariz.- Texas Southern competed hard but the Tigers fell behind early in a 85-63 loss at #16 Arizona on Wednesday night.

Arizona was able to build a 13-point lead in the opening five minutes of play. The Tigers would subsequently go into intermission trailing by 19 points.

The second half of play was a much tighter game with Arizona only outscoring TSU 40-37 but unfortunately the Tigers were not able to get enough stops defensively to mount a comeback.

Texas Southern was once again led in scoring by Zach Lofton who contributed 19 points while fellow teammate Jalan McCloud added 14.

Derrick Griffin posted another impressive double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds.

Texas Southern will have a few days off before returning to the hardwood to face Southern Illinois on the road on Saturday, Dec. 3rd.

ULL 84, TSU 73

LAFAYETTE, La. – The Texas Southern Tigers had their four-game win streak snapped by Louisiana-Lafayette, as TSU fell 84-73 to the Ragin' Cajuns.

The Ragin' Cajuns were aided by an advantage on the offensive boards as the Tigers allowed 15 offensive rebounds and were out-rebounded 41-30.

TSU trailed 43-42 going into intermission but the Tigers were outscored by 10 points (41-31) in the second half thanks in part to an 18-4 run by ULL that helped turn the game in their favor.

Zach Lofton scored 24 points, connecting on 9-of-14 from the line, to lead Texas Southern. Dulani Robinson added 19 points and Derrick Griffin posted a double-double grabbing 11 rebounds to go along with 10 points.

TSU 67, James Madison 56

HARRISONBURG, Va.- The Texas Southern Tigers basketball team won their fourth consecutive game while improving to 4-1 overall on the season after another impressive road win.

TSU defeated James Madison 67-56 behind a balance scoring attack of three players in double figures.

Dulani Robinson led all scorers with 17 points and 7 assists. Zach Lofton contributed 16 points while Derrick Griffin racked up a double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds.

The Tigers led 35-26 at intermission and never looked back from that point as they added on 32 points in the second half to increase their lead to double digits.

Texas Southern is now off to its best start in the Mike Davis era while also playing solid basketball early in the season against quality opponents.

TSU will have the next few days off from competition before returning to the hardwood to face Louisiana-Lafayette on the road on Sunday at 4:00 pm.

TSU 77, La Salle 76

PHILADELPHIA – Dulani Robinson's 3-pointer as time expired lifted the visiting Texas Southern Tigers to a thrilling 77-76 win Saturday at La Salle.

Robinson drove approximately two-thirds the length of the court and connected on the game-winning shot after La Salle's Demetrius Henry missed the front end of a one-and-one free throw trip with five seconds remaining. Henry's shot was rebounded by TSU's Derrick Griffin, who got the ball to Robinson for last-second heroics.

The win was Texas Southern's third through the first four games of 2016-17, giving the Tigers the best start to a season since head coach Mike Davis was hired in 2012.

Robinson led five TSU players scoring in double-figures, tallying 17 points Saturday; he was 6-of-15 from the floor, while making three out of his seven 3-point tries. Griffin chipped in 16 points and a game-high eight rebounds.

Marvin Jones and Zach Lofton scored 13 points apiece for the Tigers. Kevin Scott came off the TSU bench to score 10 points, shooting 4-of-6 from the floor.

B.J. Johnson scored a game-high 24 points on 6-of-8 shooting to lead La Salle (1-2); Johnson made all three of his 3-point attempts and all nine of his free throws. Cleon Roberts scored 16 points off the La Salle Bench, going 6-of-6 from the field with four 3-pointers.

Together, Johnson and Roberts kept La Salle in a game the Explorers led for only 12 minutes. While the team shot 46 percent (25 of 55) from the field and 45 percent (9 of 20) from the 3-point circle, without Johnson and Roberts, La Salle's field goal percentage dropped to 32 percent, while its 3-point showing was a dismal 15 percent (2 of 13).

Meanwhile, the Tigers shot 48 percent (26 of 54) from the floor, which included second-half showing of 56 percent (15 of 27). TSU outscored their hosts 43-41 after halftime.

TSU seized control of the game early, taking its largest lead of the contest when Jalan McCloud knocked down a jumper with 10:27 left in the first half to stretch the Tigers' lead to 23-10. La Salle fought back with an 11-2 run over the next three and a half minutes. The Explorers took a 35-34 lead into halftime.

The second half featured nine of the game's 10 lead changes and seven of its eight ties. La Salle appeared to be in control when Johnson gave the Explorers their largest lead of the game with a dunk with 1:23 left in the contest, building the home team's lead to 74-69.

The Tigers responded with a layup by Lofton on the team's next trip down the floor, making the game a one-possession contest with 1:04 remaining. After a missed dunk by La Salle's Pookie Powell, Lofton cut the deficit to one with a fast-break jumper in the paint with 33 seconds left.

Clinging to the lead, the Explorers used as much time as they could before Powell was fouled by Lofton, sending him to the line with eight seconds left to play. Powell made both free throws to push La Salle's lead back to 76-73.

On TSU's next possession, Powell fouled Scott, who made one out of two free throws with six seconds left. The Tigers opted to foul immediately, sending Henry to the line for a one-and-one opportunity. The 6-foot-9 reserve was 1-of-7 from the field at that point, and yet to attempt a free throw in the game. The strategy worked, as he missed his first shot, which was then succeeded by Robinson's heroics.

The Tigers conclude their two-game trip to the East Coast on Monday when they visit James Madison. Tipoff is scheduled for 6 p.m. CST (7 p.m. local time).

TSU 71, Rice 68

HOUSTON- Texas Southern won its second straight game as Zach Lofton scored a game high 26 points and blocked a 3-point shot attempt as time expired helping hand TSU a 71-68 victory over the Rice Owls on Wednesday night at Tudor Fieldhouse.

Texas Southern secured the lead for good with roughly 17 minutes left in regulation, as they led by as many as seven points during the contest.

The Owls would subsequently make the game interesting as Marcus Evans converted a 3-pointer to pull Rice to 69-68 with 45 seconds left.

After both teams missed shots on their next possessions TSU's Kevin Scott made a pair of free throws before Lofton blocked Marcus Jackson's final heave at a game tying 3-point attempt.

Lofton was 10-of-27 from the field and made three 3-pointers. Derrick Griffin had 16 points and 12 rebounds for Texas Southern (2-1).

"I was really happy we got the win for TSU as a university because we're both from Houston," said Lofton. "They don't expect us to come in and beat another mid-major school. That was big for me that we got the win for them."

With the win TSU head coach Mike Davis adds yet another impressive win to his TSU coaching resume. The Tigers program has also beaten the likes of Temple and Michigan State during Davis tenure as head coach.

Davis had his team primed for an upset on Wednesday night as the Tigers came out aggressive to start the second half of play. Davis was intent on keeping his team focused on their intensity level after watching film of the Owls win over James Madison.

"They were up four or five at the half and they ended up winning by 24," Davis said of the Owls win over James Madison. "We were really conscious of not coming out going too slow. Push the basketball in transition. Try to get some earlier baskets if we could."

The Tigers will now get set to travel and face LaSalle on November 19th in Philadelphia.

TSU 74, Delaware State 61

DOVER, Del.- The Texas Southern Tigers played in two games in less than 24 hours but you would not have been able to tell by the high level energy and focus TSU played with on Sunday.

Dulani Robinson scored 20 points and Marvin Jones recorded a double-double with 15 points and 21 rebounds as Texas

Southern used a big first-half run to surge past Delaware State 74-61 on Sunday.

Jones' jumper tied it at 9-9 and began a 14-3 run that the Tigers used to build a 30-26 halftime advantage. Texas Southern controlled the tempo throughout the second half, leading by as many as 17 points.

Texas Southern guard Jalan McCloud scored 14 points off the bench and Derrick Griffin added 10 points for the Tigers, who went on to outrebound the Hornets 46-23.

Texas Southern will now get set to play at Rice on November 16th at 7:00 pm.

UTA 89, TSU 82

ARLINGTON, Texas- The Texas Southern Tigers basketball team dropped their season opener to UT-Arlington by a score of 89-82.

Texas Southern was led in scoring by Zach Lofton who netted 35 points in his debut performance at TSU. Lofton went 12-of-25 from the field.

Kevin Scott added 15 points while Derrick Griffin and Brian Carey contributed 11 and 10 points respectively.

The Tigers will travel to face Delaware State on Sunday, November 13th at 1:00 pm.

Texas Southern University announced the appointment of Mike Davis to the position of Head Men's Basketball Coach on October 27, 2012. Davis arrived to TSU after spending six seasons at the helm of the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) men's basketball program.

In 2014 and 2015 Davis led the Tigers to a SWAC Tournament Championship titles as TSU defeated Prairie View A&M and Southern respectively. The Tigers advanced to the 2014 NCAA Tournament where they went on to face Cal-Poly in the First Four.

In 2015 they face Arizona as a #15 seed in the first of the Big Dance.

Davis was instrumental in the development of 2014 SWAC Player of the Year Aaric Murray. Murray was also named the 2014 SWAC Tournament MVP as he led the conference in scoring (21.3), blocked shots (2.5), and shot 49 percent from the field. In 2015 he helped guide Madarious Gibbs to POY honors as well.

In his first season at Texas Southern Davis led the Tigers' basketball program to a 2012-13 Southwestern Athletic Conference regular season championship. TSU reeled off 12 consecutive wins to conclude the season with a 16-2 mark in conference play. Davis also eclipsed the 250 career wins mark during the Tigers 2012-13 campaign.

Under the coaching guidance of Davis Texas Southern had four players named to the All-SWAC team highlighted by senior guard Omar Strong being named the 2012-13 SWAC Player of the Year. Fred Sturdivant was selected as the 2012-13 SWAC Defensive Player of the Year after leading the league in blocked shots.

Through five seasons with the Blazers, Davis owned an impressive record of 122-72 (.629) overall with a 62-34 mark in Conference USA play during his six years in Birmingham. Davis holds a 237-151 (.608) overall career record in his 12 years as a head coach highlighted by seven 20+ win seasons.

Davis also led his teams to success off the court and in the classroom, as the Blazers achieved a team GPA of 3.0 during the 2010 fall semester. Additionally, the squad also had four consecutive semesters of a perfect 1000 APR score while Davis was at the helm of the program.

"I'm really excited for the opportunity to lead the Texas Southern men's basketball program," said Davis. "Basketball has grown tremendously in the state of Texas over the past years and I'm looking forward to being apart of the TSU athletic department and the local community."

Davis had a highly successful season at UAB in 2010-11, as he guided the Blazers to the program's first-ever Conference USA regular season title. In doing so, he was named the 2011 Conference USA Coach of the Year, while also earning NABC All-District Coach of the Year accolades.

In 2010-11 Davis also guided the Blazers to an NCAA Tournament at-large berth with a record of 22-9 and a 12-4 mark in league play. UAB earned at least 20 victories in the regular season in four-straight years under Davis tenure (2007-2012), marking the first time that feat had been achieved in program history. The Blazers also won at least 11 conference games in each of those seasons.

Under Davis the program clinched four consecutive postseason berths (three NITs and one NCAA Tournament). Davis subsequently etched his name in the record books as he became only the second coach in UAB history to reach 90 wins in a four-year span. The only other coach in program history to accomplish the feat was Hall of Famer Gene Bartow, who reached the pinnacle with a school record 94 from 1983-87.

The Fayette, Ala., native arrived at UAB from Indiana University, where he served as the head coach of the Indiana Hoosiers from 2000-06. While there, he compiled a 115-79 record. Davis teams played some of their best basketball during the postseason, evidenced by Davis' 21-12 record in the month of March and his 7-4 NCAA Tournament mark, including a run to the NCAA Championship game in 2002.

Under Davis, the Hoosiers enjoyed considerable success, including a trip to the 2002 national championship game against Maryland. Named the 25th head coach in Indiana history on Sept. 12, 2000, Davis had the most successful first season of any of his 24 predecessors. His 21 wins were four more than any other first-year IU head coach. His success was not limited to just IU, as his 21 victories ranked him second among first-year head coaches in the country in 2000-01.

Prior to being named head coach Davis had already contributed significantly to the Indiana program. He spent the previous three seasons as an assistant coach with the Hoosiers. His successful recruitment of several of the country's top prep players earned him national recognition at Indiana.

In addition to his recruiting success, he was instrumental in the development of several players including A.J. Guyton, the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player in 2000, Kirk Haston, a first-round NBA selection in 2001, and 2002 Big Ten MVP and consensus second-team All-American Jared Jeffries, who was the 11th overall pick of the 2002 NBA Draft by the Washington Wizards.

In Davis' three seasons as an IU assistant, the Hoosiers compiled a 63-32 overall record and advanced to the NCAA Tournament all three seasons. Davis came to Indiana after a two-year stint (1995-97) as an assistant coach under David Hobbs at the University of Alabama. The 1995-96 Crimson Tide basketball team posted a 23-10 record and advanced to the NIT Final Four. Davis' coaching tenure with Alabama marked his return to the Crimson Tide.

Davis spent his collegiate-playing career with the Tide after earning the state's Mr. Basketball honor and All-America status in 1979. He was a standout for four seasons at Alabama and finished his career in the Top 25 on the Crimson Tide's all-time scoring list with 1,211 points. In his first season, he played for the legendary C.M. Newton and then spent his final three years playing under another coaching legend, Wimp Sanderson. Davis averaged 10.1 points per game for his career and ranks third all-time on the school's steals list with 165. During his four seasons at Alabama, the Crimson Tide posted an 80-42 record and advanced to two NIT and two NCAA Tournaments.
