SETTING THE STAGE

The University of Louisville women's soccer team will host two teams at Lynn Stadium this weekend. The Cardinals will host UAB on Friday night at 5:30 p.m. as part of a double header with the men. On Sunday Louisville will host Toledo at 3:00 p.m.

Louisville enters the match with an overall record of 1-0-1 with a 4-0 win over Indiana State on Sunday and a 1-1 tie at Indiana on Friday night.

Kaela Dickerman and Allison Whitfield lead the Cardinals with four points each. Dickerman scored a career-high two goals to lead the Cardinals to a 4-0 win over the Sycamores on Sunday. Whitfield scored the equalizer against Indiana and dished out two assists in the Cards' win over Indiana State.

Taylor Bucklin lead the Cardinals in goal with a 1-0-1 record and one shutout on the season. She has a 0.48 goals against average, allowing just one goal. She also has three saves on the year.

Head coach Karen Ferguson-Dayes is in her 17th season with the Cardinals. She has guided Louisville to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2011.

SCOUTING UAB

UAB enters the game coming off a 4-1 win against UT Martin and a 1-1-0 overall record. Senior Sarah Morris comes into the game leading the Blazers with two goals. Sophomore midfielder Marin Cater has a team-high two assists and one goal, as well. Sophomore midfielder Jessica Do and Sophomore forward Caroline Kehrer both add one goal a piece. Sophomore goalkeeper Kelsey Daugherty comes in with 5 saves and a 1.50 goals against average.

Harold Warren is in his sixth at UAB, where he has posted two seasons above 10 wins. Before his stint with the Blazers, he was an assist coach for the National Championship USC Trojans.

SERIES HISTORY

The Cardinals and Blazers will meet for the 10th time in series history. Last season Louisville took a 1-0 victory in a non-conference match. UAB leads the overall series 7-3 but the Cards have won two of the last three meetings.

SCOUTING TOLEDO

Toledo enters the game coming off a 5-1 win against Wagner and a 1-1-0 overall record. Redshirt freshman forward Kelsey Kraft come into the game leading the Rockets with two goals and one assist. Senior midfielder Kiersten Johnson has added two goals of her own. Sophomore goalkeeper Katie Wilson brings in 5 saves and a 1.50 goals against average.

TJ Buchholz is in his first season at Toledo. He coached for four years at Southwest Minnesota State, where he posted a 38-32-5 record. He took the Mustangs to their first ever NCAA tournament and knocked off the number one seed in the process.

SERIES HISTORY

The Cardinals and Rockets will meet for the third time in series history. The last time the two teams met, Louisville took a 3-1 victory in a non-conference match back in 2012.

CARDINALS QUICK HITS

- This season the Cardinal roster has five international players. Returners Inger Katrine Bjerke is from Norway while Tina Marolt is from Slovenia. Joining the Cardinals this season is Sarah Feola from Quebec, Canada, Mhairi Fyfe from Livingston, Scotland, and Kathellen Sousa-Feitoza from Sao Vicente, Brazil.

- Freshman Allison Whitfield has followed in her sister Casey's footsteps, playing at Louisville. She also wears the number 23, same as Casey. The also are similar in both play, Casey was one of the top play makers for the Cardinals and so far, Allison has lived up to those expectations.

- The Cardinals have two freshmen with national team experience this season. Freshmen Sarah Feola and Gabrielle Kouzelos have played this summer with their national teams and both are invited to try out of the upcoming World Cup teams.

LAST TIME OUT

Kaela Dickerman scored two goals to lead the Cardinals to a 4-0 win over Indiana State on Sunday afternoon at Lynn Stadium.

Louisville controlled possession the majority of the game. The Cardinals were able to strike first in the 12th minute when freshman Sarah Feola crossed the ball into the box and a streaking Dickerman headed the ball into the net for a 1-0 lead.

The Cardinals continued to challenge the Sycamores' goalkeeper. The struck again in the 34th minute when freshman Allison Whitfield sent a corner kick into the box and freshman Niamh Nelson headed the ball into the net for a 2-0 lead.

The Cardinal defense held the Sycamores without a shot in the first half. Louisville finished the half with a 12-0 shot advantage and a 4-0 corner kick advantage. Indiana State keeper Brittany San Roman finished with five saves. Taylor Bucklin was never tested.

Louisville continued to control possession most of the second half. Three minutes into the half, freshman Brooklynn Rivers sent a cross into the box and Dickerman sent the shot just outside the keeper's hands for the 3-0 lead.

In the 73rd minute, Whitfield sent a cross inside the box and Bridget Stewart went airborne and headed the ball just over the keeper's head for a 4-0 lead. Louisville finished the game with a 21-2 shot advantage and a 6-1 corner kick advantage.

Victoria Gabor finished with one save for the Cardinals while Indiana State finished with nine saves. Bucklin got the win for the Cardinals and owns a 1-0-1 record.

HOME SUCCESS

With one game under their belt, Louisville is off to a great start at home. Last season the Cardinals finished with a 5-3-1 record at Lynn Stadium, marking the ninth time in the last 10 seasons that the Cards have finished with above a .500 winning percentage at home. In the past 10 seasons under Karen Ferguson-Dayes, the Cards have posted a 55-39-11 record in home matches.

BUCKLIN EARNS ALL-ACC HONORS

Taylor Bucklin was named to the women's soccer All-ACC third team last season.

Bucklin, a goalkeeper from Greenwich, Conn., started 13 games for the Cardinals this season after transferring from Michigan. She finished the season with a 0.98 goals against average and recorded five shutouts on the season. She played 1199:51 minutes and had 74 shutouts, finishing with a 6-6-1 record.

HOMEGROWN TALENT

The Cardinals roster featured five players from the state of Kentucky. Two players are from the city of Louisville, Allison Whitfield and Maddie Spencer. Junior Shelby Cohen is from LaGrange, senior Hannah Harris is from Danville, and freshman Brooklynn Rivers is from Fort Thomas, Ky. Two of the five players have started for the Cardinals this season. Rivers starts up front and Cohen starts on the back line.

FAB FRESHMEN

With two matches into the season, the Cardinals' freshmen have made a big impact. Allison Whitfield is tied for the lead in points with four in two games. Whitfield scored the equalizer in the season opener against Indiana and finished with a goal and an assists in the home opener against Indiana State. Niamh Nelson also scored points for the Cardinals, scoring her first career goal against Indiana State. Brooklynn Rivers, Callie McKinney, and Sarah Feola also scored points, each dishing out an assist in the opening weekend.

PRESEASON CRYSTAL BALL

The Louisville women's soccer team was chosen to finish 10th in the Atlantic Coast Conference in a vote by the league's head coaches. Florida State was chosen to repeat as the Atlantic Coast Conference women's soccer champion. The Seminoles received nine first-place votes en route to 191 total points, followed by Virginia (three first-place vote, 178 points)

CARDINALS HAVE 17 TV APPEARANCES

The Cardinals are scheduled to have 17 matches on ACC Network Extra, starting with the Aug. 21 game against Indiana State. All the Cardinals home matches and ACC matches will be broadcast on ACC Network Extra.

The coverage marks the initial phase of the full ACC Network announced July 21 by ESPN and the Atlantic Coast Conference. Live streaming of Olympic sports will increase annually, culminating with 1,300 total ACC events when the linear network launches in 2019.

The 2016 Fall Olympic sports schedule includes 354 total events involving ACC schools, with ESPNU scheduled to carry six contests and the Regional Sports Network an additional 17. Every conference Fall Olympic sport championship will be shown live on either a linear platform or ACC Network Extra, beginning with the ACC Cross Country Championships on Oct. 28.

The events covered by ACC Network Extra will be immediately available to users who have access to WatchESPN and the ESPN app. More than 600 total Olympic sporting events – encompassing the fall, winter, and spring seasons – will be carried exclusively by ACC Network Extra during the 2016-17 academic year.

LYNN STADIUM OPENING

After 14 seasons at Cardinal Park, the Louisville soccer programs officially opens its new home in 2014 with the debut of Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium. The Cardinals played their final official match at Cardinal Park on Nov. 16, 2013 when they hosted Illinois State in a first round match in the NCAA Championship. Playing host to some of the program's most memorable matches, Cardinal Park remains as the home to the Louisville track and field program. Located across from Papa John's Cardinal Stadium just south of Cardinal Park on Floyd Street, Lynn Stadium is a state-of-the-art stadium featuring a capacity of more than 5,300 as well as a 15,500-square-foot training center. The Cardinals' move into the highly competitive ACC this season is aided by arguably the nation's best soccer facility.

RECORD BREAKING CROWDS

Louisville shattered the previous attendance record with 5,100 at the Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium debut. The record crowd witnessed the Cardinals defeat Ole Miss 1-0 on Aug. 29, 2014. The previous record was 2,643 in the Cards' win over Kentucky on Sept. 9, 2010 in Cardinal Park. The following weekend the second best crowd in school history (4,166)packed Lynn Stadium to watch the Cards take on Kentucky. So far this season the Cardinals are averaging 2,406 fans a match.

- Last season the Cardinals ranked fifth in the nation in average attendance last season. Louisville averaged 2,406 fans a match. Louisville ranked behind Texas A&M with 2,953, South Carolina with 2,923, Portland with 2,918 and BYU 2,640.

KAREN FERGUSON-DAYES

In her 16 seasons, Karen Ferguson-Dayes has taken a soccer program at the University of Louisville and molded it into a team that has finished near the top of the conference and advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times. The winningest coach in Cardinal history, she has improved the team's record nearly every season she has been at the helm and rewritten the record books.

During her tenure, Ferguson-Dayes has guided the Cardinals to not only their first NCAA Tournament berth, but multiple trips to the dance. She has also seen the Cardinals through the transition into the nation's toughest soccer conference in the ACC and into their new state-of-the-art facility at Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium.

A season after leading Louisville to its best season in school history with a school record 14 wins, a first ever BIG EAST National Division title and its first ever NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2011, Ferguson-Dayes led the Cardinals double-digit wins for the third straight season and the seventh time.

The 2011 BIG EAST Coach of the Year, she has coached three All-Americans including Christine Exeter in 2011, Joanna Haig in 2007 and Jamie Craft in 2006 and a pair of Academic All-Americans in Haig (2007) and Amy Seng (2006). She also coached multiple player of the year winners as Exeter was selected as BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year in 2011 while Charlyn Corral was BIG EAST Midfielder of the Year in 2012. The superlatives are nearly too numerous to list completely. Needless to say Ferguson-Dayes has been the most successful coach in UofL women's soccer history and is one of the top coaches in the nation.

In 2013, Louisville earned its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance after finishing second in the AAC with a 7-1-0 record. The Cardinals had two players earn player of the year honors with Corral and Exeter earning midfielder and offensive player honors for the second time in their careers.

In 2012, Louisville had four players earn All-BIG EAST honors with Corral, who was also an NSCAA All-Region honoree, leading the way with her First Team selection. Midfielder Angelika Uremovich was named Second Team All-BIG EAST while Exeter and goalkeeper Chloe Kiefer earned Third Team honors.

During the record-setting 2011 season, the Cardinals also advanced to their first ever BIG EAST Tournament title game and ended the season ranked 24th overall in the final NSCAA coaches' poll. Along with Exeter's league honors, Jennifer Jones was a Third Team All-BIG EAST selection in 2011 while Erin Yenney was named to the conference's All-Rookie Team.

Louisville earned an at-large berth into the 2011 NCAA Championship and was selected as a host for the first time in the post-season tournament. The Cardinals delivered on the opportunity to play in front of the home fans earning a dominating 2-0 victory over Dayton for the program's first ever NCAA Championship win. They followed that with an impressive 2-0 road triumph over No. 5 Memphis in the second round before falling to ninth-ranked Florida State in the Sweet 16.

In 2010, the Cardinals were led by Exeter, who was selected as the BIG EAST Rookie of the Year, and Uremovich, who was named to the league's All-Rookie Team. UofL opened the season with a school record seven straight wins, which included victories over No. 13 South Carolina and rival Kentucky, and then closed the season by advancing to the BIG EAST Championship for the fifth time in six seasons.

Prior to a disappointing 2009 season where injuries limited the Cardinals' success on the field, the 2008 season served as a learning experience for a team that featured only three seniors. Even with the loss of All-American goalkeeper Joanna Haig and three other key starters, UofL advanced to the quarterfinals of the BIG EAST Tournament for the third straight season and won nine games overall against one of the toughest schedules in the nation.

Seniors Jessica Mello and Shannon Smyth earned Third Team All-BIG EAST honors and were joined by senior Mallory Lampson as NSCAA Academic All-Region selections.

In 2007 a trip to the BIG EAST semifinals was a new plateau of success for the program, as were the five players honored on All-BIG EAST teams. In tying the school record with 13 wins and advancing to the NCAA's for the second consecutive season, the team collectively posted a 3.416 GPA in the classroom.

Haig established five school records, and finished the season third in the nation in save percentage (0.893) and fifth in GAA playing in Ferguson-Dayes' defensive brand of soccer.

The 2006 squad became the first in school history to earn a national ranking, peaking at 15th in the nation. It was also the first team to advance to the coveted plateau that is the NCAA Tournament. Success was not limited to the field, as the team set marks in the classroom with the second-highest team GPA, a record number of Red and Black Scholars and members of the AD Honor Roll, as well as the first Academic All-American in school history (Amy Seng). Six players earned All-Region honors, three found their name on the All-BIG EAST squads and two players were named All-American (Jamie Craft and Joanna Haig), just the second and third such honored in Cardinal history. Craft moved on to a career in professional soccer, enjoying a solid season with the W-League Boston Renegades.

The fall of 2005 meant the first foray into the BIG EAST, a conference that Ferguson-Dayes had spent seven years in as a player and assistant coach. With the jump into one of the elite conferences, it was expected that the Cardinals might stumble in making the jump, but under the guidance of Ferguson-Dayes, the team notched double figure wins for the second consecutive season. Three team members were honored by the BIG EAST, led by junior Jamie Craft, a first-team selection who was also named to two difference All-Region teams.

Ferguson-Dayes' appointment and success here at Louisville has not gone unnoticed.

University of Louisville Director of Athletics Tom Jurich knew who he wanted to lead the then-struggling women's soccer team when Ferguson-Dayes was hired to be the eighth head coach of the UofL women's soccer team in 2000.

"Her name kept rising to the top during our national search and she came to us with incredible recommendations," noted Jurich.

Nobody believed the process of turning the Louisville women's soccer program into a winner is one that would occur overnight, as evidenced by the tough first season for Ferguson-Dayes and staff, but growth and success wasn't measured by wins and losses. Not initially. Now the ante has been upped as the program continues its rise with upcoming move to the Atlantic Coast Conference.

"The University has provided us with the resources we feel are necessary to become an elite program, and that is our goal," said Ferguson-Dayes.

Her tenure is the longest in the program's history. She has already watched assistant coaches Jen Mead and Carmelina Moscato move on to pursue a career in professional soccer, former assistant Carole Dutchka is now the athletic director at Louisville's Presentation Academy, and former assistant Tim Nowak departed for a head coaching opportunity.

Achieving at a high level is not something new for Ferguson-Dayes, who has previously worked as the ODP Girls 1993 age group head coach and the Region II liaison for the US Soccer National Teams in charge of tracking and following the progress of members of the US Soccer Youth National Team system. She served as an assistant coach of the USA U-21 team for their 2004 season.

During the summer of 2003 she served as an assistant coach for the U-19 Adidas Youth Team and she has also served as the head coach of the Region II 87 girls' team, which competed in the Adidas ESP event and the November Inter-regional event in Boca Raton, Florida.

In 2003 she worked with the Region II girls U-15 team, and accompanied the team to numerous interregional events.

Prior to accepting her position at Louisville, she was the assistant coach at the University of Connecticut for three seasons. The Huskies were 60-12-2 during the three years she spent as an assistant, advanced to the final eight twice (1998 and '99), and were national runner-up in 1997.

A 1993 graduate of UConn, Ferguson-Dayes coached under and played for legendary soccer coach Len Tsantiris who has not missed the NCAA Division I soccer tournament during his tenure. Before coaching at UConn, Ferguson-Dayes served as an assistant at Boston University during its first two seasons of soccer where the team was an astonishing 24-7-2 overall.

In her playing career at UConn as a midfielder, she was named first team All-America in '91, '92 and '93. The Huskies were 63-24-3 during her four-year career and she tallied 53 points (18 goals and 17 assists.)

In 1990 as a freshman, the Huskies competed in the national semifinal where she was named to the NCAA All-Tournament team. Soccer America Magazine selected her as a Team MVP in 1992, an award given to 11 players nationally.

Ferguson-Dayes' playing career was not limited to the collegiate level. She played for the U.S. National Team in 1992 and 1993.

While at UConn, she was involved in the Connecticut Olympic Development Program and served as staff coach in Region One. Ferguson-Dayes holds an NSCAA Advanced National Soccer license, as well as a USSF B license.

A native of Holbrook, N.Y., and a graduate of Sachem High School, Ferguson-Dayes is married to Hylton Dayes and the couple has one son, Brandon.

BY THE NUMBERS

3 - Florida State, the winner of the last three Atlantic Coast Conference Women's Soccer Championships, is preseason favorite to win yet another title this season in a vote of the league's 14 head coaches.

6 - The ACC has back six of its top 10 scorers from a season ago, including Boston College redshirt senior McKenzie Meehan, who led the league in goals with 17 and was second in total points with 38 (17g, 4a) in 2015. Other top returning scorers include Virginia's Alexis Shaffer (36 points - 14g, 8a), Virginia Tech's Murielle Tiernan (31 points - 14g, 3a), Florida State's Megan Connolly (28 points - 9g, 10a), Boston College's Hayley Dowd (26 points - 12g, 2a) and Miami's Gracie Lachowecki (25 points - 12g, 1a).

6 - The ACC has had at least six teams selected to the NCAA Tournament each of the last 17 seasons, including eight in 2015. The ACC set the record for most teams selected from a single conference with nine in 2011 and 2012.

8 - The ACC leads all leagues with eight teams ranked in this week's Soccer America Top 25, and seven in the Pre-season NSCAA Poll, including four in the Top 10 of both polls.

8 - Eight different schools have made College Cup appearances while representing the ACC, which leads all conference with 46 total appearances (the next closest conference is the Pac-12 with 20 appearances). Current ACC membership combines for 58 appearances in the NCAA final four.

8 - The 2016 ACC Championship will feature the top eight teams from the regular season league standings. Those eight teams will play quarterfinal games on the campus of the higher-seeded team on Sunday, Oct. 30, while the championship semifinals and final are scheduled for Nov. 4 and Nov. 6 at WakeMed Soccer Park in Cary, North Carolina.

10 - The ACC placed 10 student-athletes on the MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List - the most of any conference. An ACC player has won the MAC Hermann Trophy three of the last four seasons and 12 times overall.

15 - The ACC had 15 former student-athletes represent its member institutions on teams at the 2016 Summer Olympic Games in Rio. Included in the 15 were three current student-athletes: Clemson's Kailen Sheridan and Duke's Rebecca Quinn playing for the Bronze medal Canada squad, and Miami's Catalina Perez on the Columbia roster. Virginia head coach Steve Swenson was an assistant coach for the U.S. women's national team.
