SETTING THE STAGE

The University of Louisville women's soccer team will host No. 15 Notre Dame in Lynn Stadium on Saturday night. The Fighting Irish will be the third consecutive ranked team the Cards have faced.

Louisville enters the match on a four-game unbeaten streak and is in a five-way tie for first place in the ACC with a 2-0-1 record. The Cardinals beat No. 17 Boston College 3-2 in double overtime on Sunday afternoon to remain undefeated in conference play.

Brooklynn Rivers leads the Cardinals with 10 points. She has four goals and two assists on the year. Gabrielle Vincent enters the game second on the team in points with three goals and two assists, while Jill Vetere and Allison Whitfield each add two goals and three assists on the year.

Taylor Bucklin leads the Cardinals in goal with a 7-2-2 record and five shutouts on the season. She has a 0.79 goals against average, allowing only nine goals. She also has 29 saves on the year.

Head coach Karen Ferguson-Dayes is in her 17th season with the Cardinals. She has guided Louisville to four NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2011.

SCOUTING NOTRE DAME

Notre Dame enters the game with an overall record of 7-1-3 and a conference record of 2-0-1, coming off a 4-0 win over Pittsburgh on Sunday afternoon in South Bend.

Freshman forward Jennifer Westendorf comes into the game leading the Fighting Irish with five goals on the season. Junior forward Karin Muya has added two goals and two assists. Senior forward Kaleigh Olmsted leads Notre Dame in assists on the season with four and has added a goal of her own.

Senior goalkeeper Kaela Little brings in a 0.44 goals against average and 47 saves for the Eagles on season.

Theresa Romagnolo is in her third season at Notre Dame, where she has guided the Fighting Irish to the NCAA Tournament in both years and one ACC tournament appearance. She came to Notre Dame after a three year stint at Dartmouth.

SERIES HISTORY

Notre Dame leads the series with a 10-3-0 record against Louisville. In the last matchup in 2014 the Irish took a 1-0 win in South Bend. The last meeting in Louisville, the Cardinals fell to the Irish 5-0.

CARDINALS QUICK HITS

- The Cardinals have scored four goals in straight three matches this season. The only time in school history the Cardinals have scored four or more goals in three consecutive games in a season was in 1986. Louisville defeated Morehead State 5-0 on Oct. 8, then defeated Morehead State again 4-1 on Oct. 10, and defeated Kentucky 7-0 on Oct. 11.

- Freshman Brooklynn Rivers is the only Cardinal player to score multiple goals in multiple games this season. She scored two goals against Belmont and two goals against Toledo.

- Gabrielle Vincent's hat trick on Aug. 26 was the first hat trick since Emily Cardell scored on against then ranked No. 20 Marquette on Oct. 17, 2010.

- This season the Cardinal roster has five international players. Returners Inger Katrine Bjerke is from Norway while Tina Marolt is from Slovenia. Joining the Cardinals this season is Sarah Feola from Quebec, Canada, Mhairi Fyfe from Livingston, Scotland, and Kathellen Sousa-Feitoza from Sao Vicente, Brazil.

- Freshman Allison Whitfield has followed in her sister Casey's footsteps, playing at Louisville. She also wears the number 23, same as Casey. The also are similar in both play, Casey was one of the top play makers for the Cardinals and so far, Allison has lived up to those expectations.

- The Cardinals have two freshmen with national team experience this season. Freshmen Sarah Feola and Gabrielle Kouzelos have played this summer with their national teams.

- Once again the Cardinals played Duke to a scoreless tie. All four meetings in the series have resulted in scoreless ties. Both team have played 440 minutes and neither team has scored a goal.

- In the RPI this week the Cardinals are ranked 40th.

LAST TIME OUT

The University of Louisville women's soccer team scored three goals in the final 25 minutes to erase a 2-0 deficit and defeat Boston College 3-2 in double overtime. Junior Kaela Dickerman scored the game-winning goal 19 seconds into the second overtime period.

The Eagles scored first off a set piece in the 26th minute. Olivia Vaughn found the back of the net with a header off a corner kick. Twelve minutes later Vaughn struck again and scored from outside the box to give Boston College a 2-0 lead.

Boston College finished the first half with a 6-3 shot advantage while the Cardinals finished with a 4-3 corner kick advantage. Taylor Bucklin finished with one save while Boston College's Alexis Bryant finished with two.

The Cardinals played better in the second half than the first. They created more offensive opportunities and controlled possession for most of the half. Their persistence paid off when they were awarded a penalty kick in the 74th minute. Sophomore Jill Vetere stepped up the ball and blasted a shot just past the reach of the keeper to cut the lead to 2-1.

With 10 minutes remaining in regulation, the Cardinals changed formations and pressed offensively, looking to score the equalizer. The Cardinals had several opportunities but couldn't connect. Then in the 89th minute, Niamh Nelson served a ball inside the box to Inger Katrine Bjerke who headed the ball into the back of the net to tie the game at 2-2.

Boston College had an opportunity in the final minute but the Cardinal defense held tough, forcing the overtime period.

Dickerman had a breakaway in the 94th minute but she hit the post. Tina Marolt had a shot in the 98th minute that went wide. The Eagles had an opportunity in the 99th minute off a corner kick but Bucklin made the save, forcing the second overtime period.

At the start of the second overtime period, freshman Callie McKinney served the ball right to Dickerman's foot. Dickerman sent a rocket from just outside 18 yards through the upper right corner and out of reach of the keeper for the game-winner.

Boston College finished the match with a 14-13 edge in shots and a 10-5 advantage in corner kicks. Bucklin finished with three saves while Bryant finished with five.

CARDINALS IN THE POLLS

The University of Louisville women's soccer team is ranked 18th in this week's Soccer America poll. It is the first time the Cardinals have been ranked since they appeared at No. 24 on Oct. 29, 2013 in the Soccer America poll. Louisville is one of eight ACC teams ranked in the poll.

The Cardinals earned one point in ACC play last week as they played then-No. 7 Duke to a scoreless tie in Durham. On Sunday, Louisville came from behind to defeat No. 17 Boston College 3-2 in double overtime.

Louisville (7-2-2) is currently on a four-game unbeaten streak and is in a five-way tie for first place in the ACC with a 2-0-1 record.

FEOLA AND KOUZELOS CALLED UP

University of Louisville freshmen Sarah Feola and Gabrielle Kouzelos have been called up to participate in their national team camps this week. Feola was called up by Canada while Kouzelos was called up by the United States. Feola missed both matches last weekend while Kouzelos missed Friday's match and the Harvard match.

Feola is in training camp competing for a roster spot with Canada for the FIFA U-20 World Cup. The FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup is held every two years, this year's edition is in Papua New Guinea from November 13 to December 3.

Kouzelos is with the U.S. Under-18 Women's National Team in San Diego for a training camp at the U.S. Olympic Training Center in Chula Vista, Calif., running from Sept. 3-10. She is one of 26 players called up by U.S. Soccer Women's Technical Director April Heinrichs. The U-18s will drive up to Long Beach to face Beach FC Women of the WPSL on Friday, Sept.

9, at Long Beach State with a kickoff at 2 p.m. PT. The goal for this age group is to ultimately qualify for the 2018 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup which will be held in France.

SOLID START

Louisville is off to a 7-2-2 start, marking the best start since 2012. The Cardinals best start in school history was during the 2010 season with a 7-1 start.

HOME SUCCESS

With eight games under their belt, Louisville is off to a 6-2-0 start at home. Last season the Cardinals finished with a 5-3-1 record at Lynn Stadium, marking the ninth time in the last 10 seasons that the Cards have finished with above a .500 winning percentage at home. In the past 10 seasons under Karen Ferguson-Dayes, the Cards have posted a 56-40-11 record in home matches.

THE ROAD HAS BEEN GOOD

In just three road games this season the Cardinals have put in some solid play. They currently are 1-0-2 on the road. Louisville tied Indiana in the season opener 1-1 and most recently played No. 7 Duke to a scoreless tie. The Cardinals defeated Pittsburgh 1-0 last weekend.

HOMEGROWN TALENT

The Cardinals roster featured five players from the state of Kentucky. Two players are from the city of Louisville, Allison Whitfield and Maddie Spencer. Junior Shelby Cohen is from LaGrange, senior Hannah Harris is from Danville, and freshman Brooklynn Rivers is from Fort Thomas, Ky. Two of the five players have started for the Cardinals this season. Rivers starts up front and Cohen starts on the back line and Whitfield has started in three matches.

FAB FRESHMEN

The Cardinals' freshmen have made a big impact this season. The group as a whole is one of the most talented classes to play at Louisville. Forward Brooklynn Rivers leads the Cardinals in scoring with four goals and two assists for 10 points. Allison Whitfield is third on the team in scoring with two goals and three assists for seven points. Sarah Feola is right behind her with two goals and two assists for six points. Niamh Nelson has started every game in the back for the Cardinals. While Arianna Ferraro has seen significant time in the line up as well, scoring one goal.

VINCENT EARNS NATIONAL AND ACC WEEKLY HONORS

Sophomore defender Gabrielle Vincent was named the NSCAA Division I College Player of the Week and the ACC Defensive Player of the Week on Aug. 30.

Vincent totaled seven points for the week on three goals and an assist in 4-0 wins over UAB and Toledo last week. She scored her first career hat trick against UAB with goals in the 32nd, 72nd and 84th minutes leading the Cardinals. On the defensive end against, the centerback helped hold the Blazers without a shot for the entire game while Louisville secured the shutout. Two days later against Toledo, Vincent found Alison Price in the 21st minute for the second score of the game. She also blocked a few shots in front of the box as Louisville earned its third straight shutout of the season.

PRESEASON CRYSTAL BALL

The Louisville women's soccer team was chosen to finish 10th in the Atlantic Coast Conference in a vote by the league's head coaches. Florida State was chosen to repeat as the Atlantic Coast Conference women's soccer champion. The Seminoles received nine first-place votes en route to 191 total points, followed by Virginia (three first-place vote, 178 points) and Duke (two first-place vote, 158 points). Below is the preseason poll:

1. Florida State (191 points, 9 first place votes)
2. Virginia (178, 3)
3. Duke (158, 2)
4. North Carolina (155)
5. Clemson (140)
6. Notre Dame (128)
7. Virginia Tech (122)
8. Boston College (96)
9. Wake Forest (74)

10. Louisville (63)
11. Pitt (59)
12. Syracuse (50)
13. NC State (39)
14. Miami (27)

BUCKLIN EARNS ALL-ACC HONORS

Taylor Bucklin was named to the women's soccer All-ACC third team last season. Bucklin, a goalkeeper from Greenwich, Conn., started 13 games for the Cardinals this season after transferring from Michigan. She finished the season with a 0.98 goals against average and recorded five shutouts on the season. She played 1199:51 minutes and had 74 shutouts, finishing with a 6-6-1 record.

CARDINALS HAVE 17 TV APPEARANCES

The Cardinals are scheduled to have 17 matches on ACC Network Extra, starting with the Aug. 21 game against Indiana State. All the Cardinals home matches and ACC matches will be broadcast on ACC Network Extra.

The coverage marks the initial phase of the full ACC Network announced July 21 by ESPN and the Atlantic Coast Conference. Live streaming of Olympic sports will increase annually, culminating with 1,300 total ACC events when the linear network launches in 2019.

The 2016 Fall Olympic sports schedule includes 354 total events involving ACC schools, with ESPNU scheduled to carry six contests and the Regional Sports Network an additional 17. Every conference Fall Olympic sport championship will be shown live on either a linear platform or ACC Network Extra, beginning with the ACC Cross Country Championships on Oct. 28.

The events covered by ACC Network Extra will be immediately available to users who have access to WatchESPN and the ESPN app. More than 600 total Olympic sporting events – encompassing the fall, winter, and spring seasons – will be carried exclusively by ACC Network Extra during the 2016-17 academic year.

LYNN STADIUM OPENING

After 14 seasons at Cardinal Park, the Louisville soccer programs officially opens its new home in 2014 with the debut of Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium. The Cardinals played their final official match at Cardinal Park on Nov. 16, 2013 when they hosted Illinois State in a first round match in the NCAA Championship. Playing host to some of the program's most memorable matches, Cardinal Park remains as the home to the Louisville track and field program. Located across from Papa John's Cardinal Stadium just south of Cardinal Park on Floyd Street, Lynn Stadium is a state-of-the-art stadium featuring a capacity of more than 5,300 as well as a 15,500-square-foot training center. The Cardinals' move into the highly competitive ACC this season is aided by arguably the nation's best soccer facility.

RECORD BREAKING CROWDS

The Cardinals currently rank second in the ACC in attendance, averaging 1,420 per game. The Cardinals' largest crowd this season was against UAB on Aug. 26 with 3,018. Louisville has had two crowds over 1500 this season. The other match was against Kentucky with 2,190 in attendance.

- Louisville shattered the previous attendance record with 5,100 at the Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium debut. The record crowd witnessed the Cardinals defeat Ole Miss 1-0 on Aug. 29, 2014. The previous record was 2,643 in the Cards' win over Kentucky on Sept. 9, 2010 in Cardinal Park. The following weekend the second best crowd in school history (4,166) packed Lynn Stadium to watch the Cards take on Kentucky. So far this season the Cardinals are averaging 2,406 fans a match.

- Last season the Cardinals ranked fifth in the nation in average attendance last season. Louisville averaged 2,406 fans a match. Louisville ranked behind Texas A&M with 2,953, South Carolina with 2,923, Portland with 2,918 and BYU 2,640.

KAREN FERGUSON-DAYES

In her 16 seasons, Karen Ferguson-Dayes has taken a soccer program at the University of Louisville and molded it into a team that has finished near the top of the conference and advanced to the NCAA Tournament four times. The winningest coach in Cardinal history, she has improved the team's record nearly every season she has been at the helm and rewritten the record books.

During her tenure, Ferguson-Dayes has guided the Cardinals to not only their first NCAA Tournament berth, but multiple trips to the dance. She has also seen the Cardinals through the transition into the nation's toughest soccer conference in the ACC and into their new state-of-the-art facility at Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Stadium.

A season after leading Louisville to its best season in school history with a school record 14 wins, a first ever BIG EAST National Division title and its first ever NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2011, Ferguson-Dayes led the Cardinals double-digit wins for the third straight season and the seventh time.

The 2011 BIG EAST Coach of the Year, she has coached three All-Americans including Christine Exeter in 2011, Joanna Haig in 2007 and Jamie Craft in 2006 and a pair of Academic All-Americans in Haig (2007) and Amy Seng (2006). She also coached multiple player of the year winners as Exeter was selected as BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year in 2011 while Charlyn Corral was BIG EAST Midfielder of the Year in 2012. The superlatives are nearly too numerous to list completely. Needless to say Ferguson-Dayes has been the most successful coach in UofL women's soccer history and is one of the top coaches in the nation.

In 2013, Louisville earned its fourth NCAA Tournament appearance after finishing second in the AAC with a 7-1-0 record. The Cardinals had two players earn player of the year honors with Corral and Exeter earning midfielder and offensive player honors for the second time in their careers.

In 2012, Louisville had four players earn All-BIG EAST honors with Corral, who was also an NSCAA All-Region honoree, leading the way with her First Team selection. Midfielder Angelika Uremovich was named Second Team All-BIG EAST while Exeter and goalkeeper Chloe Kiefer earned Third Team honors.

During the record-setting 2011 season, the Cardinals also advanced to their first ever BIG EAST Tournament title game and ended the season ranked 24th overall in the final NSCAA coaches' poll. Along with Exeter's league honors, Jennifer Jones was a Third Team All-BIG EAST selection in 2011 while Erin Yenney was named to the conference's All-Rookie Team.

Louisville earned an at-large berth into the 2011 NCAA Championship and was selected as a host for the first time in the post-season tournament. The Cardinals delivered on the opportunity to play in front of the home fans earning a dominating 2-0 victory over Dayton for the program's first ever NCAA Championship win. They followed that with an impressive 2-0 road triumph over No. 5 Memphis in the second round before falling to ninth-ranked Florida State in the Sweet 16.

In 2010, the Cardinals were led by Exeter, who was selected as the BIG EAST Rookie of the Year, and Uremovich, who was named to the league's All-Rookie Team. UofL opened the season with a school record seven straight wins, which included victories over No. 13 South Carolina and rival Kentucky, and then closed the season by advancing to the BIG EAST Championship for the fifth time in six seasons.

Prior to a disappointing 2009 season where injuries limited the Cardinals' success on the field, the 2008 season served as a learning experience for a team that featured only three seniors. Even with the loss of All-American goalkeeper Joanna Haig and three other key starters, UofL advanced to the quarterfinals of the BIG EAST Tournament for the third straight season and won nine games overall against one of the toughest schedules in the nation.

Seniors Jessica Mello and Shannon Smyth earned Third Team All-BIG EAST honors and were joined by senior Mallory Lampson as NSCAA Academic All-Region selections.

In 2007 a trip to the BIG EAST semifinals was a new plateau of success for the program, as were the five players honored on All-BIG EAST teams. In tying the school record with 13 wins and advancing to the NCAA's for the second consecutive season, the team collectively posted a 3.416 GPA in the classroom.

Haig established five school records, and finished the season third in the nation in save percentage (0.893) and fifth in GAA playing in Ferguson-Dayes' defensive brand of soccer.

The 2006 squad became the first in school history to earn a national ranking, peaking at 15th in the nation. It was also the first team to advance to the coveted plateau that is the NCAA Tournament. Success was not limited to the field, as the team set marks in the classroom with the second-highest team GPA, a record number of Red and Black Scholars and members of the AD Honor Roll, as well as the first Academic All-American in school history (Amy Seng). Six players earned All-Region honors, three found their name on the All-BIG EAST squads and two players were named All-American (Jamie Craft and Joanna Haig), just the second and third such honored in Cardinal history. Craft moved on to a career in professional soccer, enjoying a solid season with the W-League Boston Renegades.

The fall of 2005 meant the first foray into the BIG EAST, a conference that Ferguson-Dayes had spent seven years in as a player and assistant coach. With the jump into one of the elite conferences, it was expected that the Cardinals might stumble in making the jump, but under the guidance of Ferguson-Dayes, the team notched double figure wins for the second consecutive season. Three team members were honored by the BIG EAST, led by junior Jamie Craft, a first-team selection who was also named to two difference All-Region teams.

Ferguson-Dayes' appointment and success here at Louisville has not gone unnoticed.

University of Louisville Director of Athletics Tom Jurich knew who he wanted to lead the then-struggling women's soccer team when Ferguson-Dayes was hired to be the eighth head coach of the UofL women's soccer team in 2000.

"Her name kept rising to the top during our national search and she came to us with incredible recommendations," noted Jurich.

Nobody believed the process of turning the Louisville women's soccer program into a winner is one that would occur overnight, as evidenced by the tough first season for Ferguson-Dayes and staff, but growth and success wasn't measured by wins and losses. Not initially. Now the ante has been upped as the program continues its rise with upcoming move to the Atlantic Coast Conference.

"The University has provided us with the resources we feel are necessary to become an elite program, and that is our goal," said Ferguson-Dayes.

Her tenure is the longest in the program's history. She has already watched assistant coaches Jen Mead and Carmelina Moscato move on to pursue a career in professional soccer, former assistant Carole Dutchka is now the athletic director at Louisville's Presentation Academy, and former assistant Tim Nowak departed for a head coaching opportunity.

Achieving at a high level is not something new for Ferguson-Dayes, who has previously worked as the ODP Girls 1993 age group head coach and the Region II liaison for the US Soccer National Teams in charge of tracking and following the progress of members of the US Soccer Youth National Team system. She served as an assistant coach of the USA U-21 team for their 2004 season.

During the summer of 2003 she served as an assistant coach for the U-19 Adidas Youth Team and she has also served as the head coach of the Region II 87 girls' team, which competed in the Adidas ESP event and the November Inter-regional event in Boca Raton, Florida.

In 2003 she worked with the Region II girls U-15 team, and accompanied the team to numerous interregional events.

Prior to accepting her position at Louisville, she was the assistant coach at the University of Connecticut for three seasons. The Huskies were 60-12-2 during the three years she spent as an assistant, advanced to the final eight twice (1998 and '99), and were national runner-up in 1997.

A 1993 graduate of UConn, Ferguson-Dayes coached under and played for legendary soccer coach Len Tsantiris who has not missed the NCAA Division I soccer tournament during his tenure. Before coaching at UConn, Ferguson-Dayes served as an assistant at Boston University during its first two seasons of soccer where the team was an astonishing 24-7-2 overall.

In her playing career at UConn as a midfielder, she was named first team All-America in '91, '92 and '93. The Huskies were 63-24-3 during her four-year career and she tallied 53 points (18 goals and 17 assists.)

In 1990 as a freshman, the Huskies competed in the national semifinal where she was named to the NCAA All-Tournament team. Soccer America Magazine selected her as a Team MVP in 1992, an award given to 11 players nationally.

Ferguson-Dayes' playing career was not limited to the collegiate level. She played for the U.S. National Team in 1992 and 1993.

While at UConn, she was involved in the Connecticut Olympic Development Program and served as staff coach in Region One. Ferguson-Dayes holds an NSCAA Advanced National Soccer license, as well as a USSF B license.

A native of Holbrook, N.Y., and a graduate of Sachem High School, Ferguson-Dayes is married to Hylton Dayes and the couple has one son, Brandon.
