Head Coach Scott Satterfield

Head coach Scott Satterfield will conduct a weekly press conference on most Mondays during the season.

The news conferences will be conducted in the Team Defensive Meeting Room, located in the Howard Schnellenberger Football Complex at Cardinal Stadium.

The weekly news conferences will begin on Monday, Aug. 31 and continue on Mondays thereafter. News conferences conclude on Nov. 23. News conferences aren't scheduled suring Louisville's bye weeks.

The news conference schedule is generally as follows:

- Coach Satterfield from noon to 12:30 p.m.
- News conferences are live streamed on the Internet. A link is available each week on GoCards.com/watch.
- Quotes from the news conference will be posted on GoCards.com by on Monday afternoon.

theACC.Com/Media

The Atlantic Coast Conference's official website, theACC.com, is the most complete source for ACC football information. theACC.com/media is also the site for transcripts of the league's football coaches teleconference every Wednesday afternoon during the season. The media section is dedicated to the specific needs of media members and includes downloads of ACC and school logos, as well as headshots of players and coaches from select sports. An individual account is required to access the site. Go to the ACC.com/media to register.

ACC Video Clip Service

Broadcast media outlets will be able to access ACC highlights and press conference excerpts via the ACC Video Clip Service (AVCS) throughout the entire 2020-21 sports calendar. This video content will only be available for download in digital files that can be accessed on the AVCS. To register for this service please contact Scott McBurney, Assistant Commissioner/Advanced Media, at smcburney@theacc.org or call 336.369.4646.

Collegepressbox.com

Collegepressbox.com is the official website for ACC football. Access and download weekly game notes, quotes, statistics, media guides for the conference and each of its 14 members throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

Credentials & Scouting Passes

Credentials for Louisville home games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible.

Season credential privileges may be granted to daily newspapers, magazines, radio stations and television stations that cover the Louisville football program on a regular basis – i.e., weekly news conferences and all home games. Credentials are granted at the discretion of Louisville Athletics and additional requests and affiliations are considered on an individual basis.

Due to space constraints, credentials will be limited to working media only. If media credentials are not picked up in advance, they will be available for pickup at the West Ticket Booth located outside Gate 7 of Cardinal Stadium. Media should enter through Gate 8 to gain access to elevators for the press box. No credentials will be mailed. Please direct all requests to: Kenny Klein (kenny.klein@louisville.edu), Sports Information Director, University of Louisville, Louisville, Ky. 40209.

Media members wishing to cover UofL on the road are encouraged to contact Rocco Gasparro (rocco.gasparro@louisville.edu) at least two weeks prior to the contest to secure credentials.

Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than July 31. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible.

NFL scouts can receive credentials and access to the pressbox. The written (or e-mail) request must be made at least one week in advance to Kenny Klein (kenny@gocards.com). Seats are assigned on a space available basis, and access to the field during team warm-ups is permitted.

Photographers

All photographers must wear a sideline pass and a vest to be allowed on the playing field. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line around the field and outside designated team areas (between the 30-yard lines).

Vests can be acquired before the game, on the field or in the press box during the game.

Press Box Services

Packets with pre-game information will be distributed prior to kickoff. Play-by-play, complete halftime and final statistics, coaches and player quote sheets are all regular services on game day. A fax service is also provided upon request. Monitors with updated statistics are available throughout the press level and in booths for electronic media. In addition, television monitors are also part of the fixtures in both home and visiting radio booths.

Press Box

There are three levels to the Cardinal Stadium Press Box: (3-4) Suites; (5) Press Level, AD Suites, President's Suite, Photo Deck, Visiting and Home Coaches Booth, Visiting and Home Radio Booths, Replay Booth, Television Booth.

Postgame Policy

Post-game interviews at Cardinal Stadium are held in the meeting rooms of the football complex. The meeting room entrance is located to the right of the walkway leading the teams to the field.

After meeting with the team, head coach Scott Satterfield will be brought into the team meeting room. Additional players upon request will also be brought into the team meeting room.

The visiting coach and players are available outside their locker room. Please check with the visiting SID for more details.

Typed post-game quotes from both head coaches and players will be available in the press box following the game.

For both home and away games, the Louisville locker and training rooms are closed to the media. Football SID Rocco Gasparro will survey the media in the fourth quarter for player requests.

Wireless Internet

Cardinal Stadium press box offers free wireless internet service to media members. Instructions will be provided to the media on game day. For further questions, contact the UofL Sports Information staff on the upper level of the press box.

Press Parking

Press parking is limited and will be provided on a first-come, first-served basis as available. Contact the Louisville Sports Information Office regarding details and directions to the press parking areas.

Radio

All University of Louisville football games will be broadcast live on the Cardinal Football Network developed by Learfield Sports Marketing. WHAS Radio (840 AM), a 50,000-watt, clear channel station in Louisville will continue to serve as the Cardinals' flagship radio station. The broadcast of some UofL games will move to WKRD (790 AM and 101.7 FM) when there is conflicting programming. The Cardinals also have extensive UofL programming on WKRD Radio, an all-sports station with primary UofL coverage as well as Fox Sports Radio programming. Paul Rogers will serve as the play-play voice for the 29th year, while former Cardinal Craig Swabek serves as color analyst and Jody Demling returns as the sideline reporter.

CARDINAL STADIUM

Cardinal Stadium, which already was in a class of its own, received a substantial renovation in 2018, and now sits as one of the best facilities in all of college football.

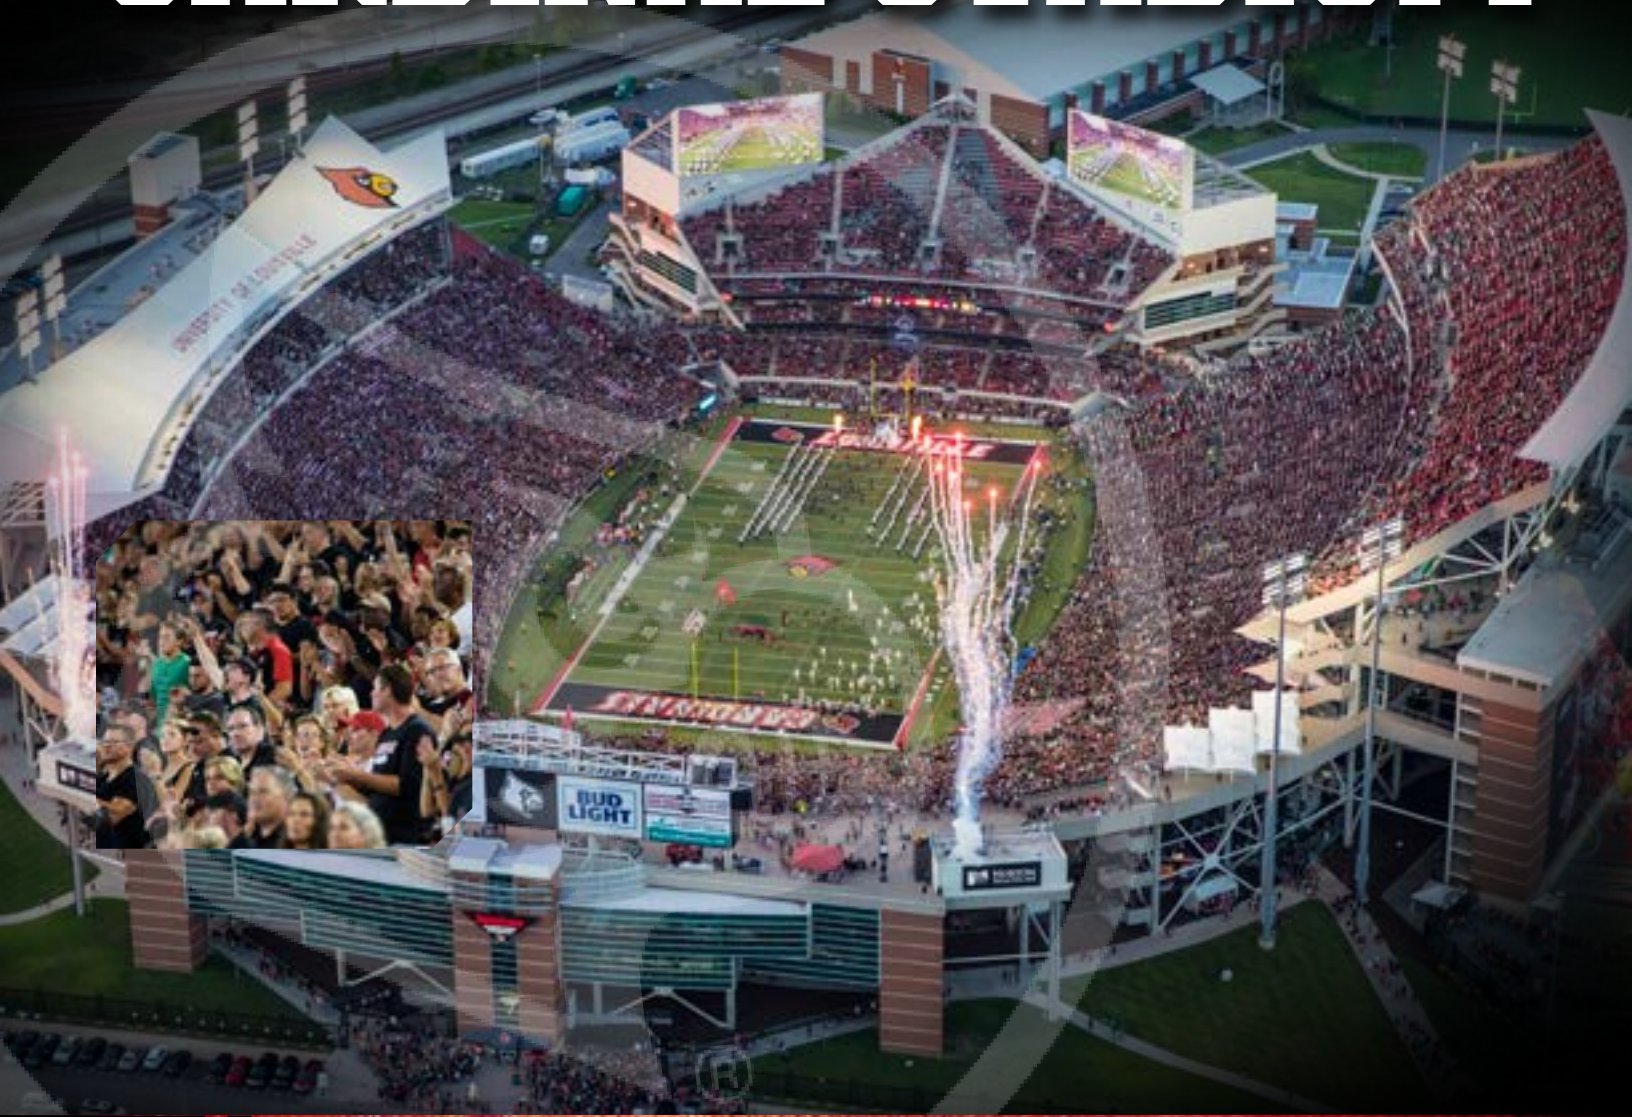

The Cardinals completed a $63.3-million dollar expansion of the stadium, which also included a major upgrade to the Howard Schnellenberger Football Complex.

In the recent construction, 5,900 seats were added, providing a unique look in the end zone structure and increasing the total capacity to about 60,800. The construction also generated an additional 25,000 square feet of space.

The expansion included 800 modern club seats, 68 premium loge level boxes, and 12 exclusive field level suites. The club seats have access to a premier gathering area that will provide viewing access to the field. Fans in that area will have an exclusive view of the players, as they exit the football complex through a tunnel and run onto the gridiron from a middle of the field level entrance.

While the seating areas have drastically improved many of the sightlines, fans also will notice additional amenities that will enhance the game day experience. Two 40-foot by 80-foot LED videoboards were installed in the north end zones and a 24-foot by 92-foot football videoboard was installed in the south end zone. The stadium possesses over 8,000-square feet of ribbon boards throughout the stadium, while a total of 344 feet of ribbon boards are mounted on the east and west sides of the stadium.

Cardinal Stadium, which opened in 1998, featured a capacity of 42,000. In 2010, over 10,000 additional chairback seats were added to a second deck on the east side of the stadium in the UPS Flight Deck. The project included 33 new luxury suites on the Stites & Harbison Suite Level and 2,000 premium loge seats were added to the east side.

A 60-foot wide Norton's Terrace was constructed at the top of the south end zone, connecting the east and west sides of the stadium. A part of the previous expansion was the PNC Club, a 20,000-square-foot, glass-enclosed area that stretches from end zone to end zone at the loge level on the east side of the stadium.

The temperature-controlled club features a full-service bar, concessions, large-screen televisions, lounge seating and tables. It has more than 1,700 outdoor seats under cover with heaters and fans.

In addition to being available during football games, the PNC Club is used for other community and campus events throughout the year.

Still in place from the original construction, the impressive Brown and Williamson Club highlights the stadium's west side. The space extends the length of the football field and contains 28 suites. It has served as host to numerous banquets and parties.

The stadium's multi-usage came into play in May of 1999, as the George Strait Country Music Festival invaded Cardinal Stadium and entertained more than 51,000 concert goers. Kenny Chesney and Sugarland played at Cardinal Stadium last May. The stadium's pitch also played host to the 1999 World Cup Champion United States women's soccer team as part of a trio of facilities to house the U.S. Cup.

Since 1998, the Cardinals are 100-39 at home and compiled a school record 20-game-home winning streak, which was snapped in 2007.

Note: Prior to the opening of Cardinal Stadium, the Cardinals played in Old Cardinal Stadium from 1957-97 at the Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center. It was built during the tenure of Governor Lawrence Weatherby (1927-28), a football and baseball letterwinner at the University of Louisville.

Stadium Facts

Stadium Record
The Cardinals are 100-39 all-time at home.

Seating Capacity
Built in 1998, stadium capacity is currently at approximately 60,800, including suites.

Playing Field
Louisville switched from natural grass to Field Turf for the 2003 season and was replaced again in 2014.

Card March
Fans are encouraged to meet the team when the Cardinals arrive for Card March, approximately 2:15 prior to kickoff. The team buses will arrive at Denny Crum Overpass and players will unload and walk down the stairs. The players and coaches will make their way through the crowd behind the marching band and cheerleaders before entering the stadium.

Sports Nutrition

The University of Louisville's Sports Nutrition Department fields five full-time registered dietitians to fuel the 23 Division 1 sports.

It is our mission to educate and prepare athletes through proper nutrition, hydration, and recovery practices to perform at their optimal levels as a student athlete. Each sport and position requires specific needs for their respective workloads. The sports dietitians work with the student athlete to execute these specific needs as well as other situations that may arise including food allergies and sensitivities, religious restrictions, or other medical needs related to nutrition.

The University of Louisville has incredible partnerships that make fueling our athletes possible. Gatorade plays an essential role in the hydration and recovery of the student athletes through numerous products scientifically crafted to support the athlete. UofL athletics boasts three Gatorade Fueling Stations across campus and a state-of-the-art dining facility in the Thornton's Academic Center for Excellence where athletes have access to a variety of whole foods. This space serves lunch and dinner to refuel and recover after full days of academics and athletics.

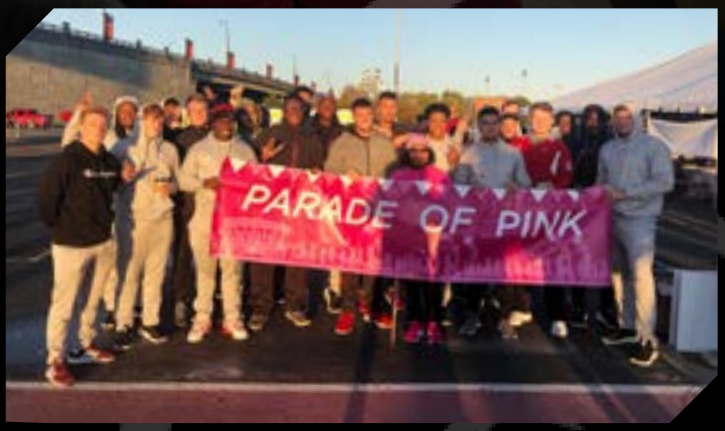

Prairie Farms offers our athletes various milk products providing protein, calcium, and Vitamin D among other nutrients. Creation Gardens helps our athletes get fruits and vegetables full of vitamins and minerals to keep them free of illness and deliver a balanced nutrient intake.

Cherrish Cherry Juice aids in the recovery of our student athletes as it provides antioxidants to help offset some inflammation due to training.

Academic Success

University of Louisville

The University of Louisville boasts some of the nation's best and brightest minds amid a friendly, park-like setting in the heart of Kentucky's largest city.

UofL serves as an engine that powers Metro Louisville and the commonwealth. Our more than 22,000 students, 7,000 faculty and staff, and 140,000 alumni contribute daily to ideas and innovations that make lives better.

UofL has been named a national top producer of Fulbright awards, with more than 130 UofL students and alumni earning this international studies award since 2003. This total is greater than all of Kentucky's other public universities combined and is on par with several Ivy League universities.

Young people who choose UofL enjoy a wide range of study options – more than 200 fields in 12 schools and colleges. The city also serves as a classroom for UofL students, who benefit from internships and partnerships with Fortune 500 companies such as Kindred Healthcare, Ford, Haier (formerly General Electric), Humana, Yum! Brands and others, as well as Metropolitan College, a unique work-study program with UPS.

UofL students reside in an urban oasis where the improvements never stop. The latest addition is the Belknap Academic Building, which houses four stories of modern instructional space and a student success center. An expanded Student Activities Center features enhanced dining options, study spaces and meeting facilities. Ekstrom Library renovations included the addition of the Teaching Innovation Learning Lab, where instructors can experiment with new technology and equipment to enhance learning opportunities for students.

Other noteworthy facilities include one of the nation's top 10 academic clean rooms, where work in bioengineering, nanotechnology and other high-demand fields takes place. Apartment-style housing and a sparkling student recreation center provide first-class places to live and play on campus.

UofL is a leader in research with faculty who have conducted the world's first successful implantation of an artificial heart and the nation's first successful hand transplant. Our faculty currently lead the world's first FDA-approved clinical trial using adult cardiac stem cells to treat heart disease and pioneered the use of locomotion training to help paralyzed patients walk again.

Innovation runs rampant across UofL, and corporate partners are joining with the university to help bridge the tech gap. The university recently partnered with Microsoft to explore the future of artificial intelligence and provide digital literacy training. Additionally, the university is working with IBM to establish an IBM Skills Academy in the newly-created Center for Digital Transformation on Belknap Campus. The academy will provide curriculum and educational tools concentrated on eight fast-growing technology areas: artificial intelligence, blockchain technology, cybersecurity, cloud computing, internet of things, quantum computing, data science and design thinking.

In recent years UofL has emerged as a hub for advanced manufacturing. Through partnerships with industry leaders such as General Electric, faculty and students are able to interact with makers from around the world, whether they are present physically or connected virtually. In addition, UofL has installed maker spaces in the West End School and Nativity Academy — both located in lower income areas of Louisville — to allow at-risk students to learn the latest 3-D printing techniques and envision a whole new world of opportunity.

UofL recently expanded its healthcare enterprise by acquiring several Louisville-area health assets including UofL Health – Jewish Hospital, UofL Health – Frazier Rehab Institute, three additional regional hospitals, four regional medical centers and numerous physician groups. The expanded UofL Health enterprise ensures a continuation of high-quality medical care to patients throughout our community and beyond.

UofL stands out for its efforts to serve the needs of its community. One of only 69 universities in the United States to achieve Carnegie Foundation Research 1 and Community Engaged University status, UofL is ranked among the nation's best universities for African American and LGBTQ+ students. UofL's Signature Partnership, a project with community organizations and businesses to improve the social, cultural, educational, health care and economic development services in a historically underserved area of Louisville, is considered a national model for community engagement.

UofL remains committed to ensuring a nurturing and challenging intellectual climate that demonstrates a genuine understanding of how diversity enriches a vibrant metropolitan research university. Under the leadership of President Neeli Bendapudi, the university celebrates diversity, fosters equity, and strives for inclusion, making UofL a great place to learn, a great place to work and a great place in which to invest.

City of Louisville

The Louisville area owes its existence to the Falls of the Ohio, the only place where the 981-mile Ohio River flows over bedrock. The falls were really a rapids where the river dropped about 27 feet in three miles, usually blocking passage by boat.

Early explorers recognized the strategic importance of the Falls. George Rogers Clark established the first settlement there in 1778, to use as a base of his invasion of British territory in Southern Illinois and Indiana. Two years later that settlement became Louisville -- named for King Louis XVI of France, who was supporting the American Revolution.

Louisville quickly became a vital transportation center for the young nation. Ports were establish above and below the Falls. Passengers and freight moved overland around the rapids. Trails and roads connected the ports to inland settlements in Kentucky and Indiana. The steamboat brought prosperity and growth to the area; by 1850, Louisville was the 10th-largest city in the nation.

In the decades that followed, railroads greatly improved connections with cities throughout the nation, and Louisville became known as the "Gateway to the South." Businesses and industries were attracted by the strong and convenient transportation network and Louisville became an industrial center.

In recent years, the economy of the Louisville area has shifted from a heavy reliance on industry to an increasing emphasis on services, including earning a worldwide reputation as a transportation and distribution center. Once again, location is a key factor. Louisville is located near the center of the eastern half of the contiguous 48 states, with nearly half of the nation's consumer markets within a 500-mile radius. The climate is mild enough that Louisville's airport is rarely closed because of weather.

Climate, location and a good transportation system helped convince United Parcel Service to establish its national hub in Louisville in the early 1980s. UPS, in turn, is attracting businesses that depend on fast and efficient transportation of their goods to other parts of the nation and throughout the world.

"The Ville" has been labeled as the Best College Sports Town in America

The Kentucky Center for the Arts is one of the nation's premier performing arts facilities, housing three spacious theatres.

Sports, including UofL athletics, are an important facet of life in the Louisville area. Churchill Downs has hosted three Breeders' Cups and continues its traditional Run For The Roses -- the Kentucky Derby -- the first Saturday each May. The 1996, 2000 and 2014 PGA Championships were staged at Valhalla Golf Course in eastern Jefferson County, which was also the site of the 2008 Ryder Cup international competition. The Louisville Bats, the triple-A baseball team of the Cincinnati Reds, have drawn over 1 million fans to games in a single season with Slugger Field stationed on the downtown riverfront. Over 140 public parks, 20 public golf courses and 226 public tennis courts also provide outdoor entertainment.

Yet even though Louisville has changed through the years, it still has the flavor and gentleness of a Southern town. The Belle of Louisville steamboat still paddles its way up and down the Ohio River daily, mint juleps are still served under an old oak tree during the hot and muggy summers and fishing in the many lakes and rivers of Louisville and surrounding counties is still a favorite pastime.

Another favorite in Louisville is trying to figure out the correct pronunciation of the city. So if you're a tourist, don't say Louieville or Lewis-ville. Natives claim it's Lou-a-vuhl. Either way, Louisville is still the same happy place.

Head coach Scott Satterfield became the first coach to win ACC Coach of the Year honors in 2019.

■ Coming off a 2-10 season, the Cardinals picked up their eighth win of the year after a 38-28 win over Mississippi State, their first bowl win since defeating Texas A&M in the 2015 Music City Bowl. The six-win turnaround was tops among all Power 5 programs. The Cardinals also snapped a nine-game conference losing streak with a 41-39 win over Boston College. They became the second team in ACC history to go from 0-8 the previous year to 5-3 the following season.

■ The Cardinals closed the decade with their ninth season of seven or more wins — finishing that 10-year span with a mark of 81-48 (62.7). The only losing season in the decade came in 2018 when UofL finished at 2-10.

■ Head coach Scott Satterfield became the first Louisville coach to earn ACC Coach of the Year honors after leading the Cardinals to an 8-5 record — the second-most wins by a coach in his first season at Louisville. Satterfield also was the second coach in school history to win a bowl game in his first year — joining Charlie Strong, who guided his team to a win over Southern Mississippi in the 2010 Beef'O'Brady's Bowl. The Cardinals battled back from a 14-0 deficit in the second quarter to defeat Mississippi State in the 2019 Music City Bowl.

■ Quarterback Micale Cunningham broke the school record for passing efficiency in a season at 194.45, breaking Stefan LeFors' old mark of 181.74 set in 2004. Cunningham threw for 2,065 yards and 22 touchdowns, while completing 62.6 percent of his passes. He was also third on the team in rushing with 482 yards and six touchdowns. The sophomore was named the Most Valuable Player in the Music City Bowl after throwing for 279 yards and two scores, while rushing for 81 yards.

■ Running back Javian Hawkins set the school record for rushing yards by a running back and a freshman with 1,525 yards and nine touchdowns. The native of Titusville, Fla., broke Bilal Powell's 2010 mark of 1,405 yards under Charlie Strong. Hawkins' 1,525 yards is the third-best rushing total in school history's behind former UofL quarterback Lamar Jackson's total of 1,601 yards in 2017 and his 1,571 yards in 2016 — the year he won the Heisman Trophy. Hawkins, who finished second in the league with 117.3 yards per game, accounted for eight 100-yard rushing contests. He closed the year with three-straight 100-yard contests, averaging 160.0 yards per game during that span.

■ After recording 11 total sacks in 2018, the Cardinals finished with 27 last season, with linebacker Monty Montgomery leading the way with a team best 5.0 sacks.

■ One of the smallest players on the team at 155 pounds, wide receiver Tutu Atwell put up the biggest numbers. The native of Miami, Fla., broke the school record for receiving yards in a season with 1,276 yards and tied the school record with 12 receiving scores. Atwell became the first wide receiver to register 1,000 yards in a season since Harry Douglas recorded 1,159 yards in 2007. Atwell , a first team All-ACC performer, led the league with 1,276 yards and tied for the league lead with those 12 scores. He recorded seven 100-yard receiving contests and scored three touchdowns in a win over Western Kentucky on Sept. 14 in a 38-21 victory over the Hilltoppers. Atwell averaged 18.2 yards a reception, which ranked second among wide receivers with over 70 receptions. Atwell led the nation with four receptions of over 70 yards, including a 90-yard touchdown catch, and was second with five catches over 60 yards.

Running back Javian Hawkins finished second in the ACC with an average of 117.3 yards per game.

- The Cardinals made drastic improvements offensively under head coach Scott Satterfield. Finishing near the bottom in 2018 in rushing offense, scoring offense, and total offense, the Cardinals reversed their fortunes last season. Louisville finished 24th in the country in both total offense and scoring offense, averaging 447.3 yards and 212.9 yards, respectively, in 2019. The Cardinals averaged 33.1 points per game, which stood 30th in the country.
- Offensive tackle Mekhi Becton, who was drafted by the New York Jets in April,was the eighth first-round selection for the Cardinals since 2014, and the first player taken in the first round since cornerback Jaire Alexander and quarterback Lamar Jackson were the No. 18 and No. 32 picks by Green Bay and Baltimore, respectively, in the 2018 draft.
- Becton, the 22nd draft pick overall since the 2014 draft, is the third-highest draft selection at No. 11, with Ken Kortas going No. 9 in 1964 and Amobi Okoye being selected 10th in 2007. A 6-foot-7, 364-pounder, Becton is the highest offensive lineman drafted offensive lineman and the third taken in the first round in school history, joining Eric Wood (2009) and Bruce Armstrong (1991). Armstrong was the previously highest drafted offensive lineman in school history when he was selected No. 25 by the New England Patriots, while Wood was drafted by Buffalo as the No. 28 selection. Becton was only the fourth UofL offensive lineman taken since 2015, and the first since Geron Christian was the No. 74 pick in the third round by Washington in 2018.

Offensive tackle Mekhi Becton was the 11th pick by the New York Jets in the 2020 NFL Draft.

Wide receiver Tutu Atwell set the school record for receiving yards and tied the record with 12 touchdown receptions in 2019.

[4-0]

Head Scott Satterfield improved to 4-0 in bowl games after the 38-28 win over Mississippi State in the 2019 Music City Bowl. The second-year head coach went 3-0 in bowl games during his tenure at Appalachian State.

[6]

The Cardinals led the country with six passing plays of 60+ yards. Wide receiver Tutu Atwell was second in the nation with five receptions of 60 or more yards, while also leading the country with four receptions of 70 or more yards.

[10.1]

The Cardinals broke a school record by averaging 10.1 yards per pass attempt last season. Micale Cunningham led the way with his 11.5 yards per attempt, while also averaging 18.4 yards a completion. He was tops in the nation with six completions of 70 or more yards and two of 80 or more yards.

Micale Cunningham

To most outside observers, the 2019 Louisville football season was supposed to mirror the 2018 campaign where the Cardinals went 2-10 and were winless in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Picked to finish dead last in the league, the Cardinals closed the year as, not only one of the surprise teams in the conference, but maybe in the entire country.

Ending at 8-5, the Cardinals pulled off the top turnarounds among Power 5 teams by improving by six games, and first-year head coach Scott Satterfield was named the ACC Coach of the Year.

Heading into 2020, the Cardinals won't sneak up on anyone this year, as the they have been targeted as a top 25 team by a number of preseason publications.

Once again, the 2020 schedule will be daunting, facing seven teams that won eight or more games, including Clemson, which played for the national title.

The Cardinals will open the 2020 campaign – the second under ACC Coach of the Year Scott Satterfield -- and the ACC schedule when NC State visits Cardinal Stadium for a Thursday night game on Sept. 3. It will be the first time the Cardinals open the season with a league game since beginning the 2014 season against Miami.

The conference schedule continues with a trip to face Clemson on Sept. 12. The Cardinals are making their fourth trip to Death Valley and continue to look for their first victory against the Tigers.

The Cardinals return home for a pair of non-conference games versus a pair of in-state foes. Louisville hosts Murray State for the first time since 2017 on Saturday, Sept. 19 and Western Kentucky on Saturday, Sept. 26. The Cardinals defeated the Hilltoppers 38-21 last season in Nashville.

League action returns with a pair of road contests on Saturday, Oct. 3 at Syracuse and Saturday, Oct. 10 at Boston College. The Cardinals picked up a 56-34 win over the Orange at home last season, and earned its first conference win in over a year with a 41-39 victory at home in 2019.

After a Saturday off, the Cardinals will host a pair of ACC contests. UofL faces Florida State on Saturday, Oct. 24 and Virginia Tech makes its first appearance in Louisville since 1992 on Saturday, Oct. 31.

Louisville continues its league slate with a trip to Charlottesville, Va., to face Virginia on Saturday, Nov. 7 before returning home to close the league schedule against Wake Forest on Nov. 14.

After defeating Notre Dame in their first trip to South Bend, Ind., in 2014, the Cardinals travel to face the Fighting Irish on Saturday, Nov. 21. Notre Dame opened the 2019 season with a 35-17 victory over the Cardinals at Cardinal Stadium.

For the seventh straight season, the Cardinals will close out the regular season with Kentucky on Saturday, Nov. 28 as part of rivalry weekend.

The Cardinals return 20 starters from last season's team, and have added a strong recruiting class that will put the Cardinals in the upper echelon of the conference's pecking order.

Louisville returns 10 starters on offense, eight on defense, and a pair of specialists from a team that defeated Mississippi State in the Music City Bowl — the school's first postseason win since 2015.

Offense

The UofL offense illustrated dramatic improvement in 2019, finishing in the top 30 in rushing, scoring and total offense. This unit returns 10 starters that was one of the most explosive in the nation, finishing in the top 10 in long scrimmage plays of 50 or 60 yards last year.

Known for his success in running the football, Satterfield produced a 1,000-yard rusher, and became only the second coach in school history to feature a 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver.

Quarterbacks

Under the tutelage of quarterbacks coach Frank Ponce, junior Micale Cunningham was one of the most improved players in the country. After throwing for 400 yards in 2018, Cunningham set the school record for passing efficiency in a season, while also throwing for 2,061 yards and 22 touchdowns. In a 38-28 come-from-behind win over Mississippi State in the Music City Bowl, Cunningham was named the game's MVP after passing for 279 yards and two scores.

A starter in the first two games of the season, Jawon Pass returns to the field after missing the final 11 games with a foot injury. The Columbus, Ga., native scored two touchdowns in a season-opening loss to Notre Dame, and added four touchdown throws the following week in a win over Eastern Kentucky.

Evan Conley proved to be a capable reserve in his first season. The Marietta, Ga., native appeared in seven games throwing for 613 yards and four touchdowns, while rushing for 88 yards and a touchdown, including a long touchdown run to secure Louisville's 62-59 win over No. 17 Wake Forest. He was named ACC Quarterback and Rookie of the Week after throwing for 196 yards and two scores and rushing for 79 yards and a touchdown in a win over the Demon Deacons.

Freshman Tee Webb enrolled in January and was fortunate to practice with the Cardinals this spring. The product of Cartersville, Ga., passed for over 6,000 yards and 60 touchdowns in his scholastic career.

Running Backs

Satterfield continued his trend of producing 1,000-yard rushers when he saw Javian Hawkins break most of the school's freshman rushing records. The redshirt freshman rushed for 1,525 yards and nine touchdown, the third-most total by a rookie in league history. He totaled eight 100-yard rushing games, the second-most total in school history. He opened the year with 122 yards versus No. 9 Notre Dame and recorded a season high 233 yards in a win over Syracuse in the home finale.

A two-year performer, Hassan Hall gives the Cardinals a formidable 1-2 punch in the backfield. The Atlanta, Ga., native has produced 804 yards and eight touchdowns in two seasons, including a career high 501 yards in 2019.

Maurice Burkley has been a valuable special teams performer over the last two seasons, but has added depth in the backfield with his ability to block.

Jalen Mitchell and Aidan Robbins redshirted last season and will be assets in the backfield this season with their powerful running style.

Tight Ends

After spring practice last season, Satterfield praised the potential of Marshon Ford, a former walk-on. The second-year head coach awarded Ford with a scholarship in the spring, and the tight end returned the favor by leading the ACC in receiving touchdowns at his position with seven. Ford caught 20 passes for 292 yards, averaging a solid 14.6 yards a reception.

Ean Pfeifer earned a sixth year of eligibility and gives the Cardinals a shot in the arm at that position. The former graduate transfer from Vanderbilt was a productive in-line blocker, but added a pair of touchdown receptions to the offense last season.

Isaac Martin, one of the team's contributing walk-ons, was used in a number of different formations and added depth at that position.

Tobias Little and Dez Melton are big bodies that will give the Cardinals potential at the tight end position. The Cardinals added Duane Martin in the 2020 signing class and earned a step on the competition by enrolling in January.

Dez Fitzpatrick

Wide Receivers

The Cardinals were committed to running the football, but when the football went into the air, a number of players were there to make big plays.

One of the top big play receivers in the country is Tutu Atwell, who finished second nationally in yards per reception (18.4) for receivers with 70 or catches. The Miami, Fla., native caught 70 passes for a school record 1,276 yards and tied a school mark with 12 touchdowns receptions. The first team All-American recorded seven 100-yard receiving games and led the country with four receiving plays of over 70 yards, including a 90-yard touchdown catch.

Atwell earned first team All-ACC honors after leading the league in receiving yards and was second with those 12 scoring receptions. He closed the year with nine receptions for 147 yards in the Music City Bowl win over Mississippi State.

The most experienced player in the group is Dez Fitzpatrick, who has recorded 106 receptions for 1,756 yards and 18 receptions during his career. He is coming off a season where he caught 35 passes for 635 yards, an average of 18.1 yards per reception.

Justin Marshall has seen the field in certain formations, but has only caught four passes for 99 yards in his career, but will need to increase his production this season.

Reserves Tyler Harrell and Josh Johnson will need to step in and provide depth. Corey Reed transferred back to Louisville in the spring after he began his career with the Cardinals in 2017.

The Cardinals signed four wide receivers in the winter, which has helped bolster this group.

Two of those recruits joined the Cardinlas in the spring in Braden Smith and Christian Fitzpatrick, the younger brother of Dez Fitzpatrick.

An All-Conference performer at Mississippi Community College, Smith totaled 92 receptions for 1,261 yards and 18 touchdowns, while Fitzpatrick added 33 receptions for 611 yards and 10 touchdowns during his final season in high school.

Jordan Watkins and Nicholas Malito are two talented prospects who will join the team in the summer.

Offensive Line

Losing first-round draft choice Mekhi Becton will be a big loss, but there is no one better to bring an offensive line together than offensive line coach Dwayne Ledford. The second-year coach is widely considered one of the best in the country after producing a first-round pick for the second-straight season.

Becton, a first team All-ACC performer and second-team All-American, was the No. 11 pick by the New York Jets and will leave a big hole on the line.

The Cardinals have a trio of seniors to bolster this unit in Robbie Bell, Caleb Chandler, and Cole Bentley. Bell and Chandler started all 13 games at each of the guard positions, while Bentley rotated at the center spot. Bell owns 26 starts in his career, while Chandler owns 16, and Bentley has contributed another 12.

Adonis Boone stepped in last season with Becton out of the lineup and is a solid replacement. He started two games for the Cardinals, with the team averaging 36.0 per game with him as the starter in wins over NC State and Mississippi State.

Renato Brown redshirted last season, but earned game experience by playing in the four games allowable by the NCAA.

Jackson Gregory, Josh Black, and Zach Williamson also redshirted in 2019, but are hard workers who will compete for playing time this season.

The Cardinals added another veteran to the group with the addition of graduate transfer Cameron DeGeorge, who played three seasons at Connecticut. A 6-4, 290-pound offensive guard from Lynnfield, Mass., DeGeorge played in 36 games for the Huskies, including 33 as a starter.

Seeing a need at this position, the Cardinals bolstered this unit with the addition of five players during the signing period, including Kobe Baynes and Timothy Lawson, who enrolled in January.

Luke Kandra, Austin Collins, and Trevor Reid will join the Cardinals this summer.

Defense

The influence and stability of defensive coordinator Bryan Brown helped the Cardinals improve defensively last season, improving by over 10 points per game and displaying the ability to play at a high level. The Cardinals return eight starters on that side of the ball, including linebacker C.J. Avery, who led the team with 93 tackles, and linebacker Dorian Etheridge, who enters his fourth year as a starter.

Defensive Line

No position group on the roster has more questions that need answering than the defensive line, which lost a number of key performers from last season.

Jared Goldwire had an impressive spring and has emerged as a leader at the defensive tackle position. The Washington native recorded 22 tackles and a pair of sacks last season in 13 games. Derek Dorsey is beginning his final season and will be counted on to add depth on the line. Ramon Puryear and Zach Edwards redshirted last season, but will see an expanded roles in the fall.

Dorian Etheridge

Newcomer Henry Bryant was a highly recruited player who joined the program in the spring. The 5-foot-11 tackle was rated the No. 95 player in the Sunshine State before enrolling in January.

At the defensive end spot, the Cardinals return veterans Tabarius Peterson, Dayna Kinnaird, and Malik Clark.

Peterson is the most experienced in the group, coming off a year where he registered 24 tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss.

Kinnaird, who was awarded a scholarship in the spring, responded with nine tackles and 1.5 sacks. Clark receiving his most extensive playing time added 11 tackles and 3.0 tackles.

Ja'Darien Boykin, who enrolled in January, is a physical specimen and will be worked into the lineup this fall.

Linebackers

Dorian Etheridge has been a staple in the Louisville defense for the last three seasons, recording 208 tackles during his career. A three-year starter, Etheridge registered 70 tackles last season in 13 contests a year ago.

C.J. Avery, the team's leading tackler last season, recorded 93 tackles, including a season 13 in a win over Wake Forest. Monty Montgomery led the team in sacks last year with 5.0 and will be a major contributor again in the middle. Robert Hicks will also look for a larger role this season.

The Cardinals are strong on the outside with the return of starters Rodjay Burns and Yasir Abdullah.

A native of Louisville, Ky., Burns returns as the team's second-leading tackler with 83 and a team best 11.0 tackles for loss. Abdullah, in his first year as a starter, recorded a career high 45 tackles and 4.0 tackles for loss.

Nick Okeke saw extensive action on the outside last season, finishing with 24 tackles and one sack. Thurman Geathers was a staple on special teams and saw limited action on defense, while P.J. Blue will work his way back after a season-ending injury.

Dorian Jones and Allen Smith are a pair of redshirts, who will have an opportunity to compete for playing time.

January enrollees Marvin Dallas, Zay Peterson, and Kameron Wilson are three rookies who are talented enough to see playing time this season.

Secondary

The Cardinals lost only one starter in the secondary from last season so the competition will be fierce this fall.

Chandler Jones, Marlon Character, and Anthony Johnson each started games last fall at corner. Jones started all 13 games and was the top tackler at the cornerback position with 50 tackles and led the squad with 10 pass break-ups. Character added 30 stops, while Johnson contributed with 27 tackles and one pick.

Marqui Lowery and Jamel Starks each participated in spring practice to get a leg up in the race for playing time, while Greedy Vance is another talented newcomer who will get an opportunity.

At safety, Khane Pass was the lone starter not returning, but it's a key loss after registering 80 tackles.

Russ Yeast is the most experienced player returning at safety, but is coming off a serious leg injury. The former cornerback recorded 61 tackles and an interception in his first season at safety, while graduate transfer Isaiah Hayes filled in for Yeast in the last two games last season.

A former walk-on, Jack Fagot stepped in last season and added 23 tackles and an interception. Telly Plummer and Trenell Troutman are also two veterans who will give the Cardinals depth in the secondary.

Newcomers Lovie Jenkins and Josh Minkins have the potential to earn playing time in the fall.

Special Teams

The Cardinals lost a pair of excellent special teams performers in kicker Blanton Creque and punter Mason King, which leaves a major void in two critical positions.

Incoming freshman Brock Travelstead enrolled in January and showed that he's ready to compete for both positions. The Georgia native was the sixth-rated kicker nationally and handled both chores at North Paulding High. He went 28-for-35 on field goals and 128-for-130 on PAT's during his scholastic career.

Ryan Chalifoux took over last season as the team's placekicker, going 1-for-3 on field goal attempts, while James Turner handled the kickoff duties late in the season. He will also earn an opportunity to compete for the starting punter position.

Mitch Hall begins his fourth season as the team's starting long snapper, handling that position without any miscues.

Hassan Hall has become one of the top kick returners in school history, averaging 26.9 yards per return during his career and owns two touchdown returns. The Atlanta, Ga., native finished fourth nationally with an average of 30.5 yards a return.

Burns has been the team's punter return the last two years, averaging 12.0 yards a return. Atwell and Braden Smith are two candidates who could also fill the role if needed.

In his seven years as a head coach, Scott Satterfield has illustrated throughout his career that he's a winner.

That's evident by the last five seasons where Satterfield has guided his teams to 48 wins and three conference titles, which ranks seventh best nationally among active coaches.

Named the 23rd head football coach at Louisville on Dec. 4, 2018, Satterfield not only changed the culture of the program, but he also transformed the Cardinals into an immediate threat for years to come in the ACC race.

Satterfield's six-game turnaround in his first season at Louisville was tops among Power 5 programs. He also became only the second ACC coach to take a winless team in the league and win five games the following year. He was named the school's first ACC Coach of the Year for his efforts, and became only the school's second first-year coach to win eight or more games.

Taking over a team that won two games the previous year, Satterfield led the Cardinals to an 8-5 record that culminated with a win over Mississippi State in the Music City Bowl.

The 2019 campaign saw many milestones with Satterfield leading the way.

On the field, the Cardinals snapped a nine-game league losing streak with a win over Boston College and won on the road versus a ranked opponent for the first time since 2011 with a 62-59 win over Boston College.

Known as one of the nation's top offensive minds, Satterfield's presence saw the Cardinals go from being one of the worst offensive teams in the nation to ranking 24th in both total offense and rushing offense.

Individually, a pair of Cardinals posted the best statistical seasons in school history in running back Javian Hawkins and wide receiver Tutu Atwell. The duo became only the third players to record 1,000-yard rushing and receiving seasons in the same year. Hawkins broke the school record for rushing yards by a running back and a freshman in school history with 1,525 yards, which included eight 100-yard rushing games.

Atwell set the school record for receiving yards in a year with 1,276 yards and equaled the school mark with 12 touchdown receptions. The 5-foot-9 speedster led the ACC in receiving yards and was second in touchdown receptions as a sophomore. He totaled seven 100-yard receiving games and averaged a solid 18.2 yards a reception.

Before accepting the Louisville job, Satterfield built Appalachian State into a powerhouse.

He guided his teams to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference championships and a remarkable 51-24 record with the Mountaineers, including a 38-10 conference mark in six seasons. His conference record of 34-6 in five Sun Belt seasons is the best in the league over that span.

Notably, he became the first coach to lead a school from the FCS level to FBS and immediately earn three-consecutive bowl wins.

In the Mountaineers' short time in the FBS era, Satterfield directed Appalachian State to three-straight conference titles and led the program to four straight bowl appearances.

Hosting the first Sun Belt Conference Championship Game in league history, Appalachian State won 30-19 against Louisiana to claim its third straight league title and earn an automatic bid to face Middle Tennessee of Conference USA in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

In 23 seasons at Appalachian State, including five as a quarterback (1991-95) and 12 as an assistant coach (1998-2008, 2012), the Mountaineers secured three NCAA Division I FCS national titles and 11 conference championships.

In his final season at Appalachian State, the Mountaineers were 10-2 and captured the East Division title behind a 7-1 league record. The team has compiled five straight wins heading into its bowl appearance, outscoring opponents 157-60.

Defensively, the Mountaineers were sixth nationally in total defense, yielding only 279.3 yards per game and sixth allowing 15.7 points per contest. On offense, Satterfield's team averaged 36.7 points per game, which is 20th in the country, and 15th in rushing offense behind 241.0 yards per game on the ground.

In 2017, Appalachian State registered a 9-4 mark that included a 7-1 record within the league and a 34-0 win over Toledo in the Dollar General Bowl. The Mountaineers ranked among the top 20 teams nationally in fewest sacks allowed (No. 2 with eight), first downs allowed (No. 20 with 222), fewest passes picked off by opposing defenses (No. 8 with six), defensive interceptions (No. 12 with 18), sacks per game (No. 17 with 2.92), and turnover margin (No. 11 with 0.92).

The Mountaineers completed a 10-win season in 2016, winning nine of their last 10 contests to finish at 10-3 overall – capped by a 31-28 win over Toledo in the Camellia Bowl. The Mountaineers' two losses came at the hands of ranked opponents, opening the season with a 20-13 overtime loss to No. 9 Tennessee and a defeat to No. 25 Miami two weeks later.

They put together one of the most statistically complete seasons in league history, allowing less than 12 points per game in Sun Belt action. Overall, the Mountaineers led the conference in scoring defense (17.0 points per game), total defense (326.0 yards per game), rushing offense (245.6 yards per game), turnover margin (+8), and time of possession (33:25). In conference games, Appalachian State led the league in total offense (452.5 yards per game).

The 2015 season, saw Satterfield's team post an 11-2 record. It was the highest win total by an FBS program in its first season of bowl eligibility after completing the transition. The Mountaineers ranked among the Sun Belt's top two in 19 of the league's 33 statistical categories.

Known as an innovative offensive mind, Satterfield's team that season scored over 28 points in 11 games. To add to that success, the Mountaineers finished 11th in the nation in total defense, yielding only 314.5 yards per game, and 14th in the country in scoring defense at 19.1 points per game. Appalachian State held seven opponents to 14 points or less, including a pair of shutouts.

The Hillsborough, N.C., native won four games in his first season, but steadily improved the program over the next five seasons.

In 2014, Satterfield's squad captured a 7-5 mark, winning its final six games to close out its first season as an FBS member.

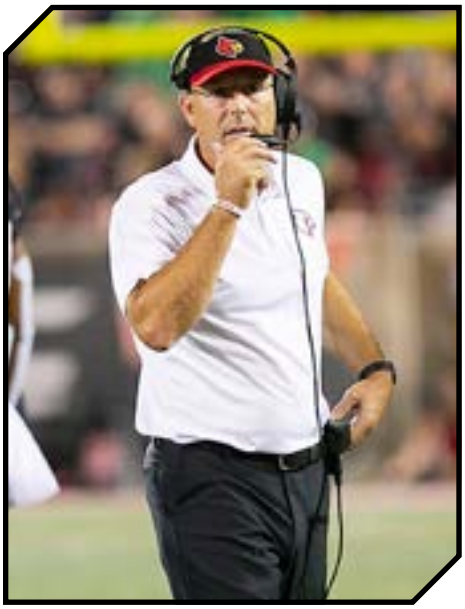

Satterfield spent the first 11 seasons of his professional career in Boone, coaching the Mountaineers' wide receivers (1998), running backs (1999-02) and quarterbacks (2003-08). He was an integral part of Appalachian State's transition from a Power-I to a Spread offense in 2004.

With Satterfield serving as the Mountaineers' primary play-caller, Appalachian State ranked among the nation's top 20 in five major offensive statistical categories (scoring, rushing, passing, passing efficiency and total offense) from 2004-08. In 2007, the season in which Appalachian State took down Michigan, the Mountaineers led the nation with a school-record 488.3 yards of total offense per game.

As Appalachian State's quarterbacks coach, Satterfield coached both Richie Williams (2003-05) and Armanti Edwards (2006-08) to All-America recognition. He was Edwards' mentor for the first of his back-to-back Walter Payton Awards (FCS Player of the Year) in 2008.

Prior to his return to Appalachian State as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator in 2012, Satterfield spent one season as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Toledo (2009) and two as the offensive coordinator at Florida International (2010-11).

Satterfield, a native of Hillsborough, NC, is married to the former Beth Burleson, a star on the Appalachian State track team in the mid-90's. They have a daughter, Alli, and two sons, Bryce and Isaac.

Known as one of the top developers of offensive line talent, Dwayne Ledford was named the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at the University of Louisville on Dec. 18, 2018.

Ledford continued his run of producing successful offensive linemen, with the development of Mekhi Becton, who was drafted at No. 11 by the New York Jets, giving Ledford a first-round pick in consecutive seasons.

Under Ledford's tutelage, Becton became the first Louisville player to win the Jacobs Blocking Trophy, given to the league's best blocker, and was a first team All-ACC honoree.

Ledford joined the Louisville staff after three seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at NC State, where he helped construct the Wolfpack's offensive lines into one of the best units in the ACC. Senior Garrett Bradbury, who was a first round pick by Minnesota, was a consensus All-American that earned Associated Press All-America honors and won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center. Bradbury and left tackle Tyler Jones both made the All-ACC team this season. It was the first time since 1974 the Pack had two from the offensive linemen on the first-team.

Guard Terronne Prescod, who was an all-ACC honorable mention, was named a third-team All-American by the Associated Press. He was also been named a first-team All-American by both ESPN and the Sporting News and second-team selection by Sports Illustrated.

The Wolfpack had a 1,000-yard rusher in each season of Ledford's tenure. NC State went from 2002 to 2015 without a 1,000-yard rusher, which was the longest drought in the country.

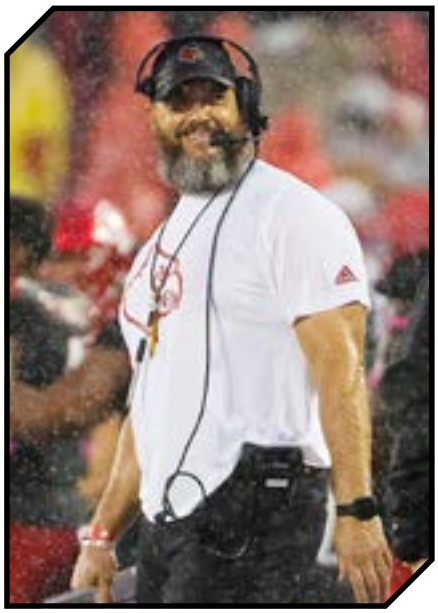

In three seasons directing the offensive line, the Wolfpack saw their sack total decrease, ranking among the top 20 in the country. NC State ranked third nationally last season in sacks allowed, giving up just 0.75 per game, while they finished tied for fifth in 2017 and 20th in 2016. State also saw its sacks allowed dramatically reduced under Ledford. The Wolfpack allowed 39 sacks in 2015 and then 17, 13 and nine in the subsequent seasons.

A two-time Broyles Award (2014, 2017) nominee, Ledford saw four of his five starters on the offensive linemen line earn All-ACC honors in 2017: Tony Adams, Bradbury, Tyler Jones and Will Richardson (2nd), who was drafted in the fourth round by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Ledford's group was one of the best, allowing only 13 sacks, which led the ACC and ranked second in the Power 5. The Wolfpack offensive line paved the way for back-to-back 1,000-yard rushers in 2016 and 2017, the first time in two straight seasons since 1977-78.

In 2016, an inexperienced offensive line (all but one of the starters was not available during spring practice) ended up ranking third in the ACC and 19th in the FBS in sacks allowed with 17 - the sixth-lowest tally in school history.

Ledford came to NC State after four seasons coaching the offensive line at Appalachian State, and three years as co-offensive coordinator for the run game. The Mountaineers set a Sun Belt single season record with 11 wins in 2015, the team's first full year of FBS eligibility, and have averaged 257.2 rushing yards per game over two seasons.

His offense ranked fourth in the FBS in sacks allowed in 2015 with just 0.85 per game, and paved the way for a 271.5 yard rushing average, ranking sixth nationally. The Mountaineers were explosive on offense, scoring 44 points or more nine times in its last 20 games and three of his players were named to the All-Sun Belt first or second team.

Before joining the Appalachian State staff in 2012, Ledford spent one season as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at Gardner-Webb. The Bulldogs ranked second in the Big South in rushing (165.6 yards per game) and third in fewest sacks allowed (17), finishing among the top 50 teams nationally in both categories.

The 2010 season saw Ledford serve as the offensive line coach at Tennessee State, helping lead the Tigers to top-25 national rankings in both rushing (190.0 ypg) and fewest sacks allowed (13) and coaching two all-Ohio Valley Conference selections.

Ledford's first coaching job came while he was still playing in the NFL, as he served as a football strength and conditioning coach at North Carolina in 2005 and as an offensive line intern with the Frankfurt Galaxy of NFL Europe in the spring of 2006.

Following his playing career, he was named the Galaxy's tight ends and tackles coach in the spring of 2007 before returning to the U.S. to serve as the offensive line coach at Sanderson High in Raleigh that fall. He spent two seasons as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, East Carolina (2008-09), working with the offensive line and guiding the Pirates to back-to-back Conference USA titles.

Player Development

One of the bright, young masterminds on defense, Bryan Brown was hired as the defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at the University of Louisville in 2018.

Taking over a defense that was near the bottom in the country, Brown's impact was seen immediately. Brown's group improved by over 10 points per game and more than doubled their sack total from the 2018 season.

Brown came to Louisville after six seasons as the defensive coordinator and cornerbacks coach at Appalachian State (2012-17). He was promoted run the defense in 2018, where he tutored one of the top defensive units in the nation.

In leading the Mountaineers to their third-straight Sun Belt title, a 10-2 record and a fourth consecutive bowl appearance, Brown's defense ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense at 15.7 points per game, holding the opposition to 10 or fewer points in seven contests. Brown's unit also ranked third in the country in passing defense (148.1), No. 1 in big plays given up, sixth in total defense (279.3).

Before earning a promotion to the defensive coordinator position, Brown served as the cornerbacks coach at Appalachian State from 2012-17, leading one of nation's most opportunistic units.

Since the 2015 season, the Mountaineers ranked second nationally in interceptions, picking off 70 passes over that span, finishing second to San Diego's State's 72.

Over that span, the Mountaineers finished in the top 15 nationally, totaling 15 or more interceptions in each of those seasons.

In 2018, Brown's group picked off 15 passes, ranking 14th in the nation, while the Appalachian State defense finished 2016 with 20 interceptions, the sixth-most in the FBS, and was No. 11 nationally in pass efficiency defense.

From 2015-17, Brown's cornerbacks combined to intercept 35 passes, picking 15 passes in 2015, another 10 in 2016 and 10 in 2017. The Mountaineers led the Sun Belt Conference in passing defense in 2018, 2017 and 2015.

Brown trained Clifton Duck, one of the top cornerbacks in school history, and helped him become one of the team's most decorated players. Duck led the Sun Belt Conference in interceptions with six in 2017, which was tied for fourth most in the nation, and was a two-time All-Sun Belt first team performer, a freshman All-American and the league's 2016 freshman of the year.

Additionally, at least one of Brown's pupils has ranked among the conference's top 10 in interceptions during each season of his tenure. Duck was first and Tae Hayes tied for fifth in the league in 2017. Since 2015 at least one of both starting cornerbacks has earned first or second team all-conference.

Both Duck (fourth) and Mondo Williams (seventh) finished in the top 10 in 2016, while Latrell Gibbs led the Sun Belt Conference in interceptions with seven total for 149 yards and two touchdowns in 2015. Gibbs' efforts garnered him recognition on the all-Sun Belt first team.

Also under Brown's tutelage, Demetrius McCray led the Southern Conference with four interceptions in 2012. McCray went on to join the National Football League as a seventh-round draft pick of the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2013.

Brown went to Appalachian State from Ole Miss, where he helped as a graduate assistant coach for the Rebels, working specifically with the nickel back position. In that role, he was responsible for all practice planning and game planning for the nickel back spot.

While at Ole Miss, he also served as an administrative assistant for the defensive coordinator, assisting with all aspects of practice and game planning for the squad's cornerbacks.

Brown served in a player development role at Rutgers in 2008, assisting the Scarlet Knights' special teams units while also supporting in academic support services for the program.

Following the stint at Rutgers, he spent one season at Delta State (2009) as a graduate assistant coaching the Statesmen's cornerbacks.

Brown and his wife, Courtney, have a son, Bryson, and a daughter, Elle.

Playing Experience

Cort Dennison returned to the University of Louisville football staff in January of 2019 as the co-defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach.

Dennison's intense coaching style was instrumental in the unit's improvement and his hands-on-approach also had an impact on his players, most notably outside linebacker Rodjay Burns, who moved down from cornerback.

Burns recorded a career high 81 tackles and led the squad with 11.0 tackles for loss.

Before coaching the 2018 season at Oregon, Dennison spent four seasons with the Cardinals (2014-17), where he established himself as a quality young coach and one of the best recruiters in the nation.

A Salt Lake City, Utah, native, Dennison coached the outside linebackers and assisted in bringing one of the highest-rated recruiting classes in Oregon history.

For his abilities, Dennison was named to 247Sports' 30 Under 30 coaching list in 2017 and 2018. Before moving west, he ranked seventh on InsidetheACC's Top 10 Recruiters list after the 2017 season. This past season, Dennison was chosen to ESPN's 40 under 40.

On the field, Dennison mentored Justin Hollins and Jalen Jelks, both who earned first-team all-Pac 12 accolades, with Hollins being the only player in college football with five sacks, five forced fumbles and an interception. Both players were drafted in the 2019 NFL Draft, respectively.

Dennison was the Cardinals' inside linebackers coach, co-special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2017. The year prior, he was the assistant secondary coach and recruiting coordinator. Dennison joined the UofL staff in 2014 as a defensive graduate assistant (linebackers) before working as the director of on-campus recruiting in 2015.

With Dennison directing Louisville's inside linebackers in 2017, Dorian Etheridge, a rising junior on the Cardinals' roster, earned ESPN Freshman All-America honors after becoming the first true freshman in school history to lead the team in tackles (83).

As assistant secondary coach in 2016, Dennison started his career helping the Cardinals complete the year tied for 22nd nationally and third in the ACC with 15 interceptions. The team ranked 14th in the nation in total defense (322.2 ypg) and 37th in pass defense (207.1 ypg).

Before joining the Louisville staff, Dennison worked as a graduate assistant at Western Kentucky in 2013, where he assisted with the linebackers. In 2012, Dennison was the linebackers coach at Edmonds Woodway High School in Edmonds, Wash.

Playing Experience
- Washington (Linebacker, 2007-11)
- 2011 Second Team All-Pac-12 selection
- Led the Pac-12 with 128 total tackles in 2011
- Captain and team's most outstanding defensive player in 2011
- 2011 Second Team academic All-Pac-12 selection
- Honorable mention academic All-Pac-12 in 2009 and 2010

A veteran of the coaching profession and a Kentucky native, ShaDon Brown was hired as the safeties coach at the University of Louisville on Dec. 12, 2018.

In 2019, Brown guided a safety group, which was led by Khane Pass, who posted a career high 81 tackles, and made the key defensive play in the Music City Bowl win by returning a fumble for a key touchdown late in the game.

Brown spent the 2017-18 seasons as part of Mike MacIntyre's staff at Colorado as the secondary coach, and was promoted to defensive passing game coordinator for the 2018 season.

The Colorado secondary thrived over Brown's two years, allowing opponents to complete just 56.2 percent of passes. The Buffaloes led the Pac-12 Conference in opposing completion percentage (56.7 percent) last season and ranked fourth in 2017.

Brown coached a pair of All-Conference selections at Colorado with Evan Worthington garnering honorable mention honors in 2018. Isaiah Oliver was a first team All-Pac-12 selection in 2017 and was a second round selection by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2018 National Football League draft.

Prior to his time in Boulder, Brown spent the 2016 season coaching cornerbacks at Army. The Black Knights had one of the top defensive back units in the country, ranking sixth nationally in passing defense (170.2 yards per game), 11th in interceptions (17) and 17th in pass efficiency defense (115.12 rating).

Brown was part of Army's turnaround from 2-10 in 2015 to an 8-5 record in 2016 that included a win over North Texas in the Heart of Dallas Bowl.

Brown spent five seasons (2011-15) at Wofford College, the first four as cornerbacks coach before switching to the safeties in his final year there. Brown was also the special teams coordinator during the 2013-14 seasons and was promoted to recruiting coordinator in the spring of 2015. He coached three all-conference corners at Wofford, including Blake Wylie who earned third-team All-American honors in 2012.

In the summer of 2015, he participated in the NFL's program for minority coaches by interning with the Super Bowl 50 runner-up Carolina Panthers, where he worked with the defensive backs.

Before joining the Wofford staff, Brown was a coach in the Kentucky high school ranks. From 2008-10 he was head coach at Rowan County High School, where he led the Vikings to the 2010 Class 4A District 8 Championship, the school's first title since 1982. He was named the Kentucky Class 4A District 8 Coach of the Year for that season, and 10 of his players went on to play college football. He was an assistant coach at Boyle County High for the 2007 season.

After graduating, he started his coaching career in 2003 as a graduate assistant helping tutor the linebackers at the University of the Cumberlands. After one year, he was promoted to the full-time assistant coach for the inside linebackers for the 2004-05 seasons, helping lead the Patriot football team to a ranking as high as No. 5 in the nation. In 2006, he returned to his alma mater as the inside linebackers coach for one season.

He and his wife, Rhonda, have a daughter, Shaelyn, and two sons, Braylon and Keenan.

One of the top technicians in the collegiate game, Gunter Brewer was hired to coach the wide receivers in 2019.

A veteran with over 30 years of coaching experience, Brewer's expertise was evident leading the Cardinals' wide receivers led by speedster Tutu Atwell, who was an All-American and a first team all-ACC performer.

Atwell set the school record for receiving yards in a season, recording 1,276 yards and tied the school mark with 12 touchdowns. He was the first UofL wide receiver to record over 1,000 yards since 2007.

Brewer joined the staff after the Philadelphia Eagles Super Bowl run fell short in the second round of the playoffs in the National Football League.

In one season with the Eagles, Brewer worked with a unit that featured veteran wide receivers Alshon Jeffrey and Nelson Agholor, Under Brewer's direction, Jeffrey recorded his highest receiving yardage (843) and reception totals (65) in a single season since 2014. Agholor recorded career highs in receptions (64) and yards after the catch (350). In 2018 Philadelphoa registered the seventh-ranked passing offense and the eight-rated team passer rating in the NFL. The Eagles also finished ninth in 10+ yards plays and 10th in passing yards per play.

Before his stint in the NFL, Brewer made his name in the college game after coaching a trio of Biletnikoff Award finalists throughout his career – Randy Moss, Dez Bryant and Justin Blackmon.

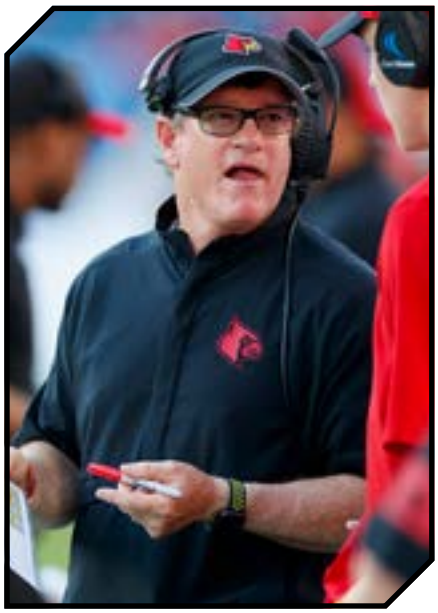

Brewer has a long history of coaching wide receivers in the Atlantic Coast Conference after mentoring the wide receivers at North Carolina for 11 years, including six as the co-offensive coordinator from 2012-17.

While with the Tar Heels, he coached four of the top five wide receivers in career receptions at UNC.

In assisting with the offense, UNC set the school record for passing yards five times during his stint, throwing for more than 3,500 yards each year from 2012-16.The Tar Heels led the NCAA in yards per play (7.3) and ranked ninth in scoring offense (school-record 40.7 points per game) en route to the program's first-ever appearance in the ACC Championship Game during the 2015 season.

That season, Mack Hollins had an NCAA-leading 24.8 receiving average, and went on to set the school career record with 20.6 yards per reception. Hollins also finished third in Tar Heels history with 20 receiving touchdowns, posting a career-high eight receiving touchdowns in back-to-back seasons from 2014-15.

Prior to his return to Chapel Hill, Brewer served one season as the associate head coach/passing game coordinator at Ole Miss (2011) and spent six seasons in various capacities at Oklahoma State (co-offensive coordinator/wide receivers coach, 2009-10; co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, 2008; wide receivers coach, 2005-07).

With the Cowboys, Brewer's term in Stillwater included five bowl appearances and the program's first Big 12 South Championship in 2010. Brewer recruited and served as the position coach for Blackmon, a unanimous first-team All-America who won the Biletnikoff Award presented to the nation's top receiver. Blackmon finished the 2010 season as the national leader in receiving yards per game and was second in receptions per game. His 1,782 receiving yards were the most ever for a sophomore in NCAA history, and he set another NCAA record with 12 consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving and a touchdown.

Brewer's work with the Cowboy wide receivers was key in OSU finishing the 2010 season ranked second in the nation in passing offense and third in the nation in both total offense and scoring offense.

With Brewer as co-offensive coordinator, the Cowboys offense produced a pair of first-team All-Americas in Bryant and running back Kendall Hunter, to go with first-round NFL Draft picks in lineman Russell Okung and tight end Brandon Pettigrew.

In 2008, Brewer's offensive unit finished top-10 nationally in rushing, total offense, scoring and pass efficiency. He was also the position coach for quarterback Zac Robinson, who was a finalist for the Manning Award and ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency and 18th in total offense.

Brewer coached Biletnikoff semifinalist Adarius Bowman to consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons in 2006 and 2007, while D'Juan Woods was a 2005 all-Big 12 pick and ended his career as OSU's third all-time leading receiver in both receptions and yards.

Brewer was the wide receivers coach and associate offensive coordinator at Marshall from 1996-99. Brewer coached Moss – a Hall of Famer and the third Biletnikoff Award winner — to stardom while helping the Thundering Herd to a 50-4 record over that time, including a perfect 13-0 mark and No. 10 final national ranking in 1999.

As a player, Brewer was a two-year letter-winner as a wide receiver at Wake Forest, where he earned his degree in science and health sports in 1987. In 1989, he was awarded a master's in education with a specialization in exercise physiology from Ole Miss.

Stu Holt, a 24-year coaching veteran and one of the top special teams coaches in the nation, was hired as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator at Louisville in December of 2018.

Holt's impact was felt immediately, guiding the Cardinals' special teams units to top-25 finishes in kickoff returns and punt returns. The Cardinals ranked fifth nationally in kickoff returns at 27.4 yards a return.

Holt mentored first-year tight end Marshon Ford, who led the ACC tight ends in receiving tight ends with seven.

Before joining the Louisville staff, Holt spent four seasons coaching the running backs and serving as the special teams coordinator at Appalachian State, guiding the Mountaineers to three consecutive conference championships and four bowl appearances.

Holt's running backs eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark in four consecutive seasons, including Darrynton Evans, who ranked in the top-20 nationally with 1,187 yards and averaged better than 6.6 yards per carry in guiding the Mountaineers to an 11-2 mark and their third straight Sun Belt title. Evans earned first team all-Sun Belt and third team all-purpose in 2018.

The Mountaineers recorded 10 100-yard running games and averaged 240.3 yards on the ground, tallying 10 games of 200 or more yards on the ground.

Serving as the special teams coordinator in 2018, Appalachian State tallied four touchdowns on kick and punt returns, tying for the national lead with three scores on punt returns. The Mountaineers ranked second nationally in kickoff returns, averaging 28.8 yards per return, and were fourth in blocked kicks with six. The Mountaineers also ranked in the top 20 nationally in net punting, punt return defense and punt returns.

In 2017 behind 1,037 rushing yards from running back Jalin Moore, the Mountaineers led the Sun Belt in rushing and ranked 22nd in the country by totaling an average of 223.6 yards per game – rushing for over 300 yards in each of their last three games, including 327 yards in the bowl win over Toledo.

In 2016, Holt mentored the Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year in Moore and the program's all-time leading rusher in Marcus Cox, who rushed for over 5,000 yards for his career. Moore and Cox combined to be one of the most productive tandems in all of college football, as they formed one of only three duos to average over 100 yards per game apiece during the 2016 season. App State was No. 10 nationally in rushing yards per game at 250.9 and led the Sun Belt in the category for the second consecutive year.

In Holt's initial season, the Mountaineers were led by Cox, who continued his record-setting career by finishing with 1,418 yards – good for 17th in the nation and third in the Sun Belt. Cox again topped national and conference rankings with 118.6 yards per game (13th national; 3rd Sun Belt) and all-purpose yards (132.2 yards per game), ranking second in the Sun Belt and 20th in the nation.

With Holt overseeing the ground game, Appalachian State finished No. 6 in the nation and second in the Sun Belt with 271.5 yards of rushing offense. The Mountaineers led the Sun Belt Conference in total offensive yards with 466.2 yards per game, good also for 20th nationally.

Holt made an immediate impact on the Appalachian State special teams, improving from 128th to 25th in efficiency from 2014 to 2015. Kicker Zach Matics was named first team All-Sun Belt after going 14-of-17 on field goals and drilling the game-winner as time expired to win the Camellia Bowl.

Holt came to Appalachian State after two seasons at South Florida, where he served as the Bulls' tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He arrived at USF as director of player personnel in 2013 before taking over as special teams coordinator prior to the 2013 campaign. He added oversight of the Bulls' tight ends to his duties in 2014.

In 2013, Holt was nominated for the Broyles Award (National Assistant Coach of the Year) after USF's special teams improved in nearly every statistical category despite the loss of its key performers.

Under Holt's tutelage, USF's special teams were ranked No. 3 nationally by ESPN Stats & Info. The Bulls led the American Athletic Conference and ranked No. 9 nationally in punt returns (14.44-yard average) and first-year place kicker Marvin Kloss was one of three finalists for the Lou Groza Award (national kicker of the year).

Before going to USF, Holt spent eight of the previous nine seasons at Western Kentucky, first as running backs coach (2004-09) before coaching the tackles/tight ends (2011-12). He also coordinated the Hilltoppers' special teams in 2005 and 2009 before one season at Tennessee State (2010), coaching the running backs.

In those seven seasons as a running backs coach, Holt has produced impressive ground attacks and individual rushers. His units ranked among the NCAA Division I FCS top 25 in rushing twice — 14th at WKU in 2004 (226.2 ypg) and 24th at Tennessee State in 2010 (190.0 ypg). Additionally, he coached two 1,000-yard rushers at WKU (Lerron Moore and Tyrell Hayden).

Over the course of his career, Holt has coached 11 student-athletes that have gone on to play in the National Football League — Brian Claybourn, Jack Doyle, Mitchell Henry and Bobby Rainey at WKU, Ciabatti, Sean Price (TE), Kloss and Mike McFarland at USF, Wake Forest All-American Steve Justice at New Smyrna Beach H.S, and Marcus Cox at Appalachian State.

Mark Ivey, a long-time assistant at Appalachian State, was named defensive line coach at the University of Louisville in January of 2019.

Coaching the defensive line last season, the Cardinals increased their sack total from 11 in 2018 to 27 in 2019, with defensive lineman G.G. Robinson leading the group with 4.0.

Before joining the Louisville staff, Ivey spent seven seasons with the Mountaineers, coaching the outside linebackers and the defensive line.

Ivey was promoted to interim head coach following Satterfield's departure to Louisville, guiding the Mountaineers to a 45-13 win over Middle Tennessee in the 2018 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

In guiding Appalachian State to a win in the first Sun Belt Championship Game and picking up a bowl win, Ivey worked with a defensive line that included All-Sun Belt first-team pick MyQuon Stout, who recorded 21 tackles. Ivey's coaching development helped three walk-ons become regular contributors as part of a nine-man rotation.

Before the 2018 season, Ivey was promoted to assistant head coach to go along with his duties as the defensive line coach.

Assisting on the defensive side of the football, Appalachian State's defense ranked 17th nationally in 2017 with 38 sacks.

In his first three seasons with the Mountaineers, Ivey's linemen combined for more than 52.5 sacks and 109 tackles for loss for a defense that led the conference in total defense and scoring defense in consecutive campaigns. In 2016, Appalachian State allowed the fewest points in conference play of any FBS team, finishing in the Top 10 nationally in scoring defense, and the top 20 in both total defense and rushing defense.

Under Ivey's guidance, Ronald Blair, who was named the Sun Belt's Defensive Student-Athlete of the Year, ranked first in the Sun Belt for tackles for loss with 19 and second in sacks with seven. Blair was selected in the fifth round, with the 142nd pick in the NFL Draft, by the San Francisco 49ers.

In 2013, three of Ivey's outside linebackers ranked among Appalachian State's top eight in tackles. Despite not starting a game as a true freshman, Kennan Gilchrist ranked fourth on the team and among the Southern Conference's top 40 with 59 stops, en route to earning freshman all-conference honors.

Serving as the special-teams coordinator from 2012-14, Ivey oversaw a unit that led the SoCon with a gaudy 40.6-yard net punting average. Punter Bentlee Critcher became only the second true freshman in school history to earn NCAA Division I FCS all-America recognition after ranking second among all FCS punters with a 45.9-yard punting average.

The 2012 season saw the Mountaineers rank second in NCAA Division I FCS with a 40.8-yard net punting average on the strength of 45.9 yards per punt by all-American Sam Martin.

Before returning to Appalachian State in 2012, Ivey spent 16 years as a successful high school coach in Florida, including 10 seasons as head coach at Cypress Lake in Fort Myers (2002-06) and Barron Collier in Naples (2007-11). In five seasons at Barron Collier, he led the Cougars to a 36-19 overall record and state playoff appearances all five years. BCHS won three-straight district championships from 2007-09, doubling the number of district titles that the school had claimed in its first 29 years of existence.

Ivey and his wife Rosa have three daughters: Britini, Maggie, and Gabriella.

University of Louisville head coach Scott Satterfield added Derek Nicholson to the staff in January of 2020 as the inside linebackers coach with the Cardinals.

Nicholson comes to Louisville for the second time after spending four seasons at Southern Mississippi – two seasons coaching the defensive line and serving as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He spent the 2014 season at the University of Louisville, coaching outside linebackers/defensive ends on a defense that ranked fifth in the country in total defense, lead the nation in interceptions, were ninth in total sacks and fourth in rush defense.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., assisted with a defense that led Conference USA and finished 18th nationally in rushing defense. The Golden Eagles finished third in the league and 37th in the country in total defense in helping the team to an appearance in the Armed Forces Bowl.

Under Nicholson's tutelage, linebacker Hayes Maple was named to the Conference USA all-Freshman squad after finishing with 31 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss.

With Nicholson coaching the linebackers in 2018, the Golden Eagles established themselves with one of the nation's top defenses, finishing third in total defense, sixth in rushing defense, 11th in passing defense, and 19th in scoring defense. Two of his linebackers, Racheem Boothe and Sherrod Ruff, were named Conference USA honorable mention.

Before joining the Southern Mississippi staff, Nicholson spent one season tutoring the defensive line at Alcorn State, leading the team to a Southwestern Athletic Conference title and working with a defense that finished fourth in the country in sacks and fifth in tackles for loss. Four of his defensive linemen registered seven or more sacks.

Nicholson worked one season Akron coaching linebackers in 2013, developing a pair linebackers that earn first and third team Mid-American Conference honors. It marked the first time since 2010 that Akron placed a first-team linebacker, and the first time since 2001 that the Zips had multiple linebackers on the All-Conference team.

He began his coaching career in 2011, coaching high school football in both North Carolina and Florida.

A standout linebacker at Florida State, Nicholson finished his career with 207 tackles, 25.5 TFL, three sacks and two defensive touchdowns, and was named to the Butkus Award and Chuck Bednarik Watch Lists in 2008.

Nicholson led the Seminoles leading tackler for two consecutive seasons, recording 99 in 2007 and 81 during the 2008 campaign. He recorded 15.5 TFL in one season in 2008 which ranked him tied for 10th in FSU history. He also scored two defensive touchdowns in one season, and finished ranked fourth best all time in one season at FSU as a defender. In 2008, he garnered All-ACC honors and was a member of the All-ACC academic team during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

He earned his undergraduate degree in sport management in just three years in December 2008. He was an undrafted free agent signee by the Atlanta Falcons and played for them in 2009 before a career-ending knee injury.

Nicholson and his wife, Onnie, a former soccer athlete at Florida State and with the USA National Team, have three children: Alana, Dace and Amaya.

Norval Mckenzie begins his second season coaching the running backs at the University of Louisville.

McKenize's running backs were outstanding in his first season, guiding redshirt freshman Javian Hawkins to a record-breaking season. Hawkins, a second team all-ACC back, earned Freshman All-American honors after setting the school's freshman record with 1,525 yards, which is also the most by a running back in school history.

The native of Titusville, Fla., recorded eight 100-yard games and finished eighth in the nation in rushing yards.

Before joining the Louisville staff, McKenzie, who was a 2018 Broyles Award nominee, spent the previous three seasons as the running backs coach at Arkansas State.

In 2018, McKenzie's running backs were an integral component of the offense that averaged 186.4 yards on the ground, guiding the Red Wolves to an 8-5 record.

As the special teams coordinator, McKenzie's units were some of the best all-time and in the nation. The Red Wolves set an NCAA record for punt return defense by holding opponents to -15 yards for the season, and closing the year ranked sixth nationally in kick return defense.

Murray, who finished seventh in the Sun Belt in rushing, ran for 860 yards and eight scores, while Wand totaled 792 yards and four touchdowns to help the Red Wolves finish fifth in the conference in rushing. Wand closed his career finishing in the top five in school history in rushing yards.

McKenzie's impact was felt during his second season, helping the Red Wolves rank No. 10 in the nation in total offense, averaging a school-record 494.8 yards per game. The unit also accounted for 10 combined touchdowns as the team ranked No. 13 in the country in scoring offense with 37.8 points per game. In that season, Wand and Johnson combined for 1,145 yards and nine touchdowns.

In McKenzie's first season in 2016, the Red Wolves won a Sun Belt Conference championship with a 7-1 record and defeated UCF 31-13 in the Cure Bowl. During that campaign, Wand and junior Johnston White combined to rush for 1,351 yards and 12 touchdowns. Wand, a second-team all-conference honoree, rushed for a team-high 879 yards, while also posting 24 receptions for 279 yards and three more scores.

Before his stint at Arkansas State, McKenzie spent five seasons at Furman, serving as the running backs coach, special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

While coaching at Furman, McKenzie instructed a pair of All-Southern Conference running backs and two others who were named to the league's All-Freshman team. Jerodis Williams was a two-time All-SoCon choice after rushing for 2,225 yards and 20 touchdowns over his junior and senior campaigns, in addition to earning All-America honors in 2012 when he led the FCS in kickoff returns (35.9 avg., 2 TDs).

McCloud, who completed his career ranked 10th in Furman rushing history, garnered all-conference recognition in 2013 after running for 1,110 yards and five scores. Triston Luke rushed for 385 yards and a pair of scores in 2015 to find a place on the league's All-Freshman team, while Marcus Anderson earned the recognition in 2013 when he posted 334 rushing yards and two touchdowns.

McKenzie helped lead Furman to a 2013 SoCon championship and several victories over FCS nationally-ranked teams, including No. 5 Wofford in 2011. The Paladins also knocked off then-FCS member and No. 3-ranked Appalachian State in 2011.

McKenzie earned an undergraduate degree in secondary education, political science, and American history in 2005. He completed his master's degree in education at Vanderbilt in 2010.

Following graduation, he began his coaching career at Hiram (Ga.) High School, working two seasons there before returning to Vanderbilt as a graduate assistant coach for the 2008 and 2009 campaigns.

The 2008 season saw him help Vanderbilt post its first winning season (7-6) since 1982 with a 16-14 victory over Boston College in the Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl – the program's first bowl victory since 1955. McKenzie assumed the duties of assistant recruiting coordinator, while also helping with player development and coordinating the Gridiron Club for former Commodore letter winners, in 2010.

Regarded as one of the top recruiters in the state of Florida, Frank Ponce joined the University of Louisville football staff Dec. 12, 2018. Ponce, who came to Louisville after six successful seasons as the co-offensive coordinator/passing game coordinator at Appalachian State, serves as the quarterbacks coach for the Cardinals.

In his first season with the Cardinals, Ponce oversaw the transformation of starter Micale Cunningham, who set the school record for passing efficiency and would have ranked second nationally, but fell one pass shy of qualifying for the NCAA rankings.

Throwing for 473 yards and one touchdown in 2018, Cunningham surpassed those numbers by passing for 2,065 yards and 22 touchdowns, while leading the Cardinals to an 8-5 record and a win in the Music City Bowl, where Cunningham was named the game's MVP.

Ponce's six seasons as Appalachian State's co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach coincided with a resurgence for the Mountaineers. Over that span, Ponce spearheaded an improved offense that finished with a 50-24 record and three consecutive Sun Belt championships.

Appalachian State ranked 15th nationally in rushing offense in 2018, while ranking 20th in scoring offense. The Mountaineers scored 30 or more points in nine games, including a season high 72 points versus Gardner-Webb and 52 against South Alabama. In assisting with a potent running attack, Ponce's offense totaled nine games of rushing for over 200 yards, posting an average of 230.6 yards a game over the last five contests.

Ponce tutored Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year Zac Thomas to a stellar statistical season in his only year as the starter. Thomas led the league in QBR (No. 12 FBS, 79.3), yards per pass attempt (No. 30 FBS, 8.1) and yards per completion (No. 37 FBS, 12.93). With TD runs of 25 and 35 yards in the Sun Belt title game pushing his season total to 10 rushing TDs, the 11th-best mark among FBS QBs, he was 63-of-97 passing for 717 yards with 11 total TDs (seven passing) and no INTs since returning to the lineup after missing four games with an injury.

In 2017, Ponce helped groom Taylor Lamb, who finished his career as the school and Sun Belt leader in touchdown passes with 90. The only FBS quarterbacks in 2017 with career totals of at least 9,000 passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards were Lamb, Ohio State's J.T. Barrett and Heisman Trophy finalist Lamar Jackson.

With 27 touchdown passes and six interceptions as a senior, Lamb had the second-best season for an Appalachian State quarterback in terms of touchdown-to-interception ratio. He ranked 15th nationally in passing efficiency (152.2), 17th in passing touchdowns (27) and 20th in point responsibility (192).

Lamb led the conference in passing efficiency two years straight and was fourth as a junior, last season despite a group of young wide receivers. In 2015, Lamb ranked third among all freshman in the NCAA Division I FBS, he ranked No. 10 nationally with a 160.7 pass-efficiency rating and was the highest-rated sophomore. Working with Ponce, Lamb has set several Appalachian State records, including freshman passing yards (2,381) and touchdown passes (17) by a freshman during his Sun Belt Freshman of the Year campaign and, in 2015, most touchdown passes in a season (31).

Leading Appalachian State to an 11-2 record, Ponce's potent aerial attack led the the Sun Belt in passing efficiency (163.2), which stood seventh-best nationally, en route to the No. 2 best red zone offense in the conference.

In his first season at Appalachian State (2013), Ponce directed the Southern Conference's No. 2-ranked passing game (271.8 ypg). He also oversaw the development of quarterback Kameron Bryant, who came into the season with just 13 snaps under his belt yet set school records for single-season completion percentage (.712) and passing yards by a sophomore (2,713) despite not making his debut as a starter until the fifth game of the season.

Ponce arrived in Boone, N.C. after six seasons (2007-12) as the wide receivers coach at Florida International, where he worked with Satterfield for the two seasons that Satterfield served as FIU's offensive coordinator (2010-11).

Ponce coached six of the top 10 receivers in FIU history during his six seasons with the Golden Panthers. His most notable pupil at FIU was three-time all-American T.Y. Hilton, who went on to be a third-round NFL Draft pick and has enjoyed a tremendous pro career, catching 493 passes for 7,813 yards and 40 touchdowns in seven NFL seasons. He also mentored Greg Ellingson, a long-time Canadian Football League star, who has caught 416 passes for 6,095 yards and 36 touchdowns.

Ponce was also celebrated for his recruiting ability during his time at FIU and was honored by ESPN.com as the Sun Belt's top recruiter in 2010. During his tenure at FIU, the Golden Panthers' recruiting classes ranked among the top three in the Sun Belt five times, according to Rivals.com.

Ponce and his wife Christine are the the parents of two daughters, Isabel and Leah, and a pair of sons, Frankie and Lucas.

Mike Sirignano
Head Strength and Conditioning Coach

Mike Sirignano joined the University of Louisville as the head strength and conditioning coach for the football program in December of 2018.

In his first season with the Cardinals, he assisted in the overall physical development of offensive tackle Mekhi Becton, the No. 11 overall pick in the 2020 NFL Draft. He was integral in shaping the body of the offensive tackle and helping him become of the dominating players in the ACC.

A key component in the football department, Sirignano oversees every aspect of the UofL football program and is relied on heavily by head coach Scott Satterfield to handle the day-to-day operations.

Sirignano came to Louisville from Appalachian State, where he started as the director of strength and conditioning in 2014 and was later promoted to assistant athletics director for athletic performance.

Sirignano has previously worked on the strength and conditioning staffs at South Carolina (2012-14), Elon (2012), Rhode Island (2010-12), Northeastern (2009-10) and Bryant (2009).

The list of notable student-athletes he has trained includes more than 25 football players that have gone on to play in the National Football League and four track and field Olympians.

Outside of the college ranks, Sirignano served as the president and director of his own company, Next Level ELITE Training Center, from 2007-09 and the defensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coach at Woonsocket (R.I.) High School in 2008-09.

Sirignano is a 2007 graduate of Bridgewater (Mass.) State, where he was a two-time NCAA Division III All-American, three-time All-

New England honoree and three-time Eastern College Athletic Conference all-star.

Sirignano and his wife, Karolina, have a son, Dominic.

Aurmon Satchell
Associate Strength Coach

Aurmon Satchell is in his second season at the University of Louisville as an associate strength coach for the football program.

Satchell came to Louisville from the University of New Mexico, where he served as the director of athletic performance since 2016. While at UNM, he oversaw all aspects of the athletic performance department for the Lobos, and supervising six assistant performance coaches.

Satchell has previously worked on the football strength and conditioning staffs at South Carolina (2012-16 and 2009-11) and Indiana (2011-12). He also spent two years working at Minnesota. Outside the workout room, Satchell spent time volunteering at the Lowry Family Center mentoring at risk youth.

A 2007 graduate of the University of Texas, Satchell was a four-year member of the Longhorn football team as a linebacker.

Geoff Stanford
Associate Strength Coach

Geoff Stanford joined the University of Louisville as an associate strength coach for the football program in December of 2018.

Stanford came to Louisville from Appalachian State where he was an assistant strength and conditioning coach since 2017, where he was responsible for assisting with the athletic, personal, and mental development of football student-athletes. He also oversaw the strength and conditioning interns.

Stanford has previously worked at Texas A&M (2017) and Missouri State (2015-17) in their sports performance and strength and condition offices.

A 2014 graduate of Missouri State, Stanford received his degree in exercise and movement science.

Jamel Cooper
Assistant Strength Coach

Jamel Cooper joined the University of Louisville as an assistant strength coach for the football program in 2018.

Cooper came to Louisville from Wake Forest where he served at the senior coordinator of sports performance since 2017. He worked with all aspect of the football strength and conditioning program, including both in and off-season programming.

Prior to Wake Forest, Cooper spent two years (2015-17) working at Middle Tennessee State as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for football. Before getting into college athletics, he served as the head sports performance coach at Tidewater Sports Performance in Newport New, Virginia.

Cooper is a two-time graduate of Georgia Southern where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in exercise science and kinesiology in 2012 and a Master of Science in coaching education in 2018. He also spent two years as a running back for the Eagles.

Reed Case
Director of Football Recruiting

Reed Case enters his second year as director of recruiting for Louisville football.

A veteran in college football with almost 25 years of experience, Case has gathered a wide-range of knowledge, holding expertise in recruiting, operations, administration and coaching.

Before joining Scott Satterfield's staff, Case spent one season in the Atlantic Coast Conference with Pitt as the director of recruiting and one year as the assistant director of recruiting at Mississippi State.

Prior to his tenure with the Bulldogs, he was the director of recruiting at Texas (2014-17) under former UofL head coach Charlie Strong, who coached the Cardinals from 2010-13.

Case served two stints with the Longhorns, working as a special assistant for a pair of head coaches from 1997-2000, and spent four years on the Texas staff working in recruiting, scouting and video.

His additional collegiate administrative stops include Oklahoma as director of player personnel under Bob Stoops (2011-14); East Carolina as director of football administration under Skip Holtz (2008-10); Oklahoma State as coordinator of football operations under Mike Gundy (2007-08); Northwestern as assistant recruiting coordinator under Pat Fitzgerald (2006-07); and Akron as director of football operations under J.D. Brookhart (2004-05).

Case took to the field from 2001-03, serving as a defensive graduate assistant coach on Al Groh's staff at Virginia. While with the Cavaliers, he had a professional scouting internship with the Houston Texans during the summer of 2003.

A native of Hopedale, Ohio, Case began his football journey as an assistant football coach on the high school level. He worked with a pair of perennial Ohio state playoff programs in Sheridan High School (1992-94) and Cadiz High School (1995-96). Case was also head wrestling coach at Cadiz, where he was honored as the Ohio Valley Athletic Conference (OVAC) and Eastern District Coach of the Year.

Tyler McEntire
Recruiting Coordinator

Tyler McEntire joined the University of Louisville as the director of recruiting operations in 2019. He will be responsible for overseeing and implementing the recruiting media strategy to effectively reach prospective student athletes.

Before joining head coach Scott Satterfield's staff, McEntire worked two seasons at NC State as the director of creative media for the football staff. He came to Raleigh in 2017 from Appalachian State, where he spent 2016 as a graduate assistant coach for Satterfield, working with the tight ends for the Sun Belt Conference Champions.

Prior to his coaching stint, he served as the Mountaineers' director of high school relations, where he used his design and video skills to assist the recruiting department.

McEntire began working in video operations as an undergraduate at Appalachian State, then worked as a student-assistant coach for three seasons and then as an offensive graduate assistant.

Before returning to Boone in 2015, he spent time as a recruiting graduate assistant at Virginia Tech.

After earning his undergraduate degree in psychology and health promotion from Appalachian State in 2013, McEntire received a master's degree in instructional teaching from Virginia Tech in 2015.

The Fairview, N.C. native was a two-time all-conference performer as a wide receiver and safety at A.C. Reynolds. He is married to the former Mary-Scott Barrack.

Pete Nochta
Director of Recruiting Operations

Pete Nochta, is a former tight end and graduate assistant for the Cardinals, and now serves as a recruiting coordinator for the football program.

Nochta served as the director of high school relations in 2018, director of on-campus recruiting for the 2016 and 2017 seasons, as well as a graduate assistant who served as the Tight End Position Coach in 2014.

Nochta played for the Cardinals from 2006-10, where he was a member of the 2007 Orange Bowl squad. Nochta played in 41 games, making over 20 starts, recording 11 career receptions for 146 yards and a pair of scores.

Nochta, who was a four-time All-BIG EAST Academic honoree and a member of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, earned his undergraduate degree in business administration.

As director of high school relations and director of on-campus recruiting, Nochta was responsible for the organization of all recruiting efforts and maintain relationships with coaches throughout the state of Kentucky.

Prior to joining the recruiting staff, Nochta was the position coach for multiple players who have had an opportunity to play in the NFL from Louisville, including Cole Hikutini, Keith Towbridge, Charles Standberry and Gerald Christian. Also, at Western Kentucky University Tyler Higbee, Mitchell Henry and Gabe Holmes at Purdue.

In 2015, Nochta overcame a well-publicized bout with Stage 4 Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma and is currently in remission.

Nochta's wife, Alyssa was a UofL cheerleader from 2009-2012. He is the son of Gene and John Nochta and raised in Lexington, Ky.

His father, John Nochta was a former KHSAA coach of the year in 1999-2000 when he was the head coach at Bryan Station, where he coached former Cardinals Eric Shelton, J.T. Haskins, and Robert Haskins.

Josh Thompson
Director of Football Operations

Josh Thompson joined the Cardinals as the director of football operations in December of 2018.

Thompson spent the last 10 years working at Appalachian State, his alma mater. A 2002 graduate, Thompson returned to Boone, N.C. in 2009 as the director of team services, overseeing the equipment operations for all 20 varsity sports programs.

In September of 2014, Thompson was promoted to assistant athletics director for football and equipment operations, where he oversaw the day-to-day operations of Appalachian State football and served as the program's primary administrator and department liaison with official shoe and apparel supplier, Nike.

Prior to returning to Appalachian State, Thompson served two years as the athletic equipment manager at Texas State and two years on the football equipment staff while earning a master's degree in sport and fitness management at Troy. Thompson also spent time at Northwestern High School in his hometown of Rock Hill, S.C. working as equipment manager, assistant athletics administrator and junior-varsity girls basketball coach.

History

77 Bruce Armstrong - A four-year letterwinner for the Cardinals from 1983-88, Bruce Armstrong became one of the most dominating and intimidating offensive lineman in the history of the school. He began his career at UofL as a tight end, recording 33 receptions in his first two seasons at UofL. He moved moved to offensive tackle where he anchored the Cardinals line for the next two seasons.He appeared in the 1986 Senior Bowl and was named UofL's most outstanding lineman following his senior season. He was drafted with the 23rd pick of the first round by the New England Patriots in 1987 to begin an association that continued for 15 seasons.

9 Deion Branch - A former junior-college standout, Deion Branch played for the Cardinals from 2000-01. Despite playing just two seasons, Branch put up remarkable numbers. He stands seventh all-time in receiving yards with 2,204, ninth with 143 receptions and tied for fourth with 18 touchdowns. Branch registered his best season in 2001 when he caught 72 passes for 1,188 and nine scores. He also caught 71 passes for 1,016 yards and nine scores in his initial years with the Cardinals. Coming out of Louisville, Branch was originally drafted by New England in the second-round (65th overall) of the 2002 NFL Draft. He played four years with the Patriots and five with the Seahawks. A native of Albany, Ga., Branch made his name in the post-season, totaling 21 receptions in two Super Bowls (XXXVIII, XXXIX). He recorded a game-high 10 receptions for 143 yards and a touchdown in the Patriots' 32-29 Super Bowl XXXVIII victory over the Carolina Panthers. He was named the Super Bowl MVP after tying a Super Bowl record with 11 receptions in the Patriots' 24-21 victory over the Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX.

11 Jeff Brohm - Another in a long line of great Cardinal quarterbacks, Jeff Brohm threw for 5,451 yards and 38 touchdowns in his career, which still stands in the top 10 all-time. Named the MVP of the 1993 Liberty Bowl, Brohm threw for a career-high 2,626 yards and 20 touchdowns as a senior in 1993. Brohm played seven years in the National Football League, starting his career with San Diego in 1994. He also played for NFL teams in Tampa Bay, Cleveland and Denver.

34 Ray Buchanan - Endeared himself to all Louisville fans as "Big Play" Ray, Ray Buchanan was a two-time collegiate All-American and NFL Pro Bowl selection. He jumped on the scene as a sophomore in 1990, piling up 59 tackles and three interceptions in helping the Cardinals to the 1990 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl (including a key field goal block against Memphis to preserve the bowl bid). He made his mark on the national stage as the Defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl with five tackles, a fumble recovery and a recovery of a blocked punt in the end zone as Louisville drilled Alabama 34-7. Buchanan was named a Playboy All-American as he compiled 108 tackles and set a then-school record for interceptions with eight. He was drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts and played for 12 seasons.

56 Doug Buffone - Doug Buffone was a standout on both sides of the football during his career with the Cardinals, playing offensive center and linebacker from 1962-65. He remains the Cardinals' No. 3 all-time tackler with 479, just nine stops behind the program's all-time leader Mark Sander ('87-90). He is one of only four players to lead UofL in tackles for three consecutive seasons. Coming out of Louisville, Buffone was selected by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round of the 1966 NFL Draft and the eighth round of the AFL by the San Diego Chargers.

58 Elvis Dumervil - Elvis Dumervil, who played for the Cardinals from 2002-05, spent four seasons as a defensive end and led the team in sacks in 2004-05 and was named the school's first winner of the Bronko Nagurski Award for being the top defensive player in the country. A native of Miami, Fla., Dumervil had one of the most dominating seasons in school history in 2005 in leading the Cardinals in their first season in the BIG EAST Conference and an appearance in the Gator Bowl. That year, he set numerous NCAA records and school marks, including a Division I record with 10 forced fumbles. He also compiled 20.0 sacks, with an NCAA-best six against Kentucky. A product of Miami Jackson High, Dumveril concluded his career with 32.0 sacks, which stands second all-time in school history and 42.5 tackles for loss, which sits third all-time. He finished with 151 career tackles and 11 forced fumbles during his stellar career under the direction of John L. Smith (2002) and Bobby Petrino. Dumervil, a fourth-round selection of the Denver Broncos, is a four-time Pro Bowler (2009, 2011-12 and 2014) and a two-time Associated Press All-Pro selection (2009 and 2014). The 2014 season with the Ravens was one of his best, establishing a Ravens' franchise-record with a career-high tying 17 sacks, which was third in the NFL. He also totaled 17 sacks with Denver in 2009 when he was named a starter in the Pro Bowl and tallied seven multiple-sack games. While in Denver, he earned the Darrent Williams Good Guy Award from the state's media.

24 Anthony Floyd - All-American safety Anthony Floyd holds the school record for the most interceptions in school history, totaling 18 over his four-year career. The Youngstown, Ohio, native, Floyd played for the Cardinals from 1999-02 and led the Cardinals to four-consecutive bowl appearances. He holds the school record and is tied for the Conference USA mark with 18 interceptions. He finished his illustrious career 271 tackles and 33 pass break-ups in three years as the starting safety.

A two-time Conference USA first-team defensive back (2000-01), Floyd was considered one of the top defensive backs in the nation, assisting the Cardinals in winning a pair of Conference USA championships in 2000 and 2001. In 2000, Floyd guided the Cardinals to their first C-USA title and a trip to the Liberty Bowl. He tied for the national lead in interceptions with 10 and 17 pass break-ups – the second-most in school history. He set a league single-game record with three interceptions – returning one for a touchdown – in an upset of No. 11 Southern Mississippi. As a senior, Floyd was credited with a career-best 98 tackles and 4.0 sacks. He totaled 10 or more tackles in five games, including a season-high 12 in games versus TCU and Houston. After his successful collegiate career, the Indianapolis Colts picked up Floyd as an undrafted free agent. He played two seasons in the league and totaled 56 tackles.

42 Ernie Green - Ernie Green rushed for more than 1,500 yards in his career as a Louisville Cardinal. He led UofL in rushing during two of his four seasons and was a versatile player out of the backfield catching passes. He was selected in the 14th round of the 1962 NFL Draft by the reigning world champion Green Bay Packers. He was sold to the Cleveland Browns where he would make a name for himself as one of the league's top fullbacks.

50 Tom Jackson - Tom Jackson spent three seasons as a linebacker for the Cardinals leading the team in tackles all three campaigns. He earned All-Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year honors in 1970 and 1972. He played all three seasons under the watchful eye of the colorful Lee Corso as the Cards posted a 23-7-2 mark in Jackson's three seasons as an active player. Jackson was drafted in the fourth round of the 1973 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos. He played 14 seasons in the NFL.

75 Joe Jacoby - A three-year letter winner as an offensive tackle, Joe Jacoby was a a prep All-American in both football and basketball from Louisville Western High School. He helped Nathan Poole become one of just 11 Cardinals to rush for over 1,000 yards with 1,394 yards. He signed a free agent contract with the NFL's Washington Redskins and was later a founding member of the famous "Hogs" offensive line which is considered among the best front fives in football history. He helped lead the Redskins to Super Bowl appearances in 1983, 1984, 1988 and 1992, three of which produced an NFL championship.

26 Lenny Lyles - A trailblazer in the integration of the Louisville Cardinals football program, Lenny Lyles was an outstanding player on both sides of the football from 1954-57. A four-year starter for the Cardinals, Lyles totaled 2,786 yards on the ground and scored a school-record 42 touchdowns in his storied career including 18 in 1957 to set a single season record which stood for more than 40 years. He is the school's second all-time scoring leader with 300 points in his storied career. He became the first Cardinal to surpass the 1,000-yard mark in a single season. In 1957, his 1,207 yards not only earned him Little All-America acclaim but led all of college football. He was selected in the first round of the '58 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts, where he teamed with Johnny Unitas.

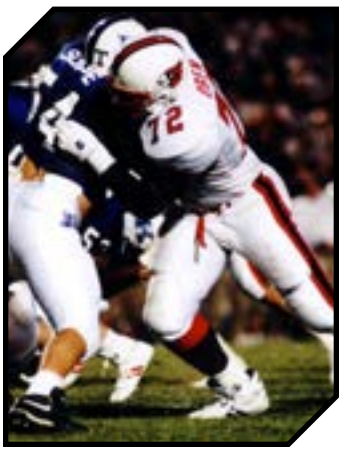

56 Otto Knop - A four-year letterwinner at linebacker and center from 1949-1952, Otto Knop earned honorable mention Associated Press Little All-America honors as a sophomore and United Press International All-America his junior year. He was inducted into the UofL Athletic Hall of Fame in 1979 in its second induction class, and was inducted into the Kentucky Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994. His most memorable highlight was a fumble recovery that led to the tying touchdown in a stunning 13-13 deadlock at heavily favored Miami (FL) in 1950.

17 Stefan LeFors - Stefan LeFors starred in his No. 17 jersey for the Cardinals from 2001-2004. He ranks seventh all-time in school history in both career passing yards (5,853) and career touchdown passes (38). The two-time all-Conference USA first-team honoree and left-handed thrower helped Louisville capture the 2004 Conference USA championship with an 11-1 record and a win over No. 10 Boise State in the Liberty Bowl. Leading the nation's top-ranked offense at 539.0 yards per game, LeFors threw for 2,596 yards and 20 touchdowns, while leading the nation in with a 73.5 percent completion rate and a 181.7 passing efficiency rating. The Baton Rouge, La., native set the school record for completion percentage. In 2003, LeFors threw for 3,145 yards and 17 touchdowns, while adding another 405 yards and three scores on the ground. Following his collegiate career, LeFors was selected by the Carolina Panthers in the fourth round (121st overall pick) of the 2005 NFL Draft.

13 Sam Madison - Sam Madison was a four-time letterwinner with the Cardinals from 1993-96. One of the top athletes ever to play at UofL, Madison ranks second all-time in school history with 16 career picks and also led UofL with 44 career pass breakups, record that has stood since 1996... best season was in 1995 when Madison led the Cardinals with seven interceptions and earned third team All-America accolades. Was tabbed as one of the top 15 players in the county and was tabbed a preseason Playboy All-American in 1996. Was a key performer for the Cardinals as Louisville went 9-3 and defeated Michigan State in the Liberty Bowl. Second-round draft pick of the Miami Dolphins.

1 Frank Minnifield - A four-time letterwinner with the Cardinals from 1979-82, Frank Minnifield excelled as a defensive back and kick returner. A former walk-on, Minnifield quickly received the scholarship recruiters failed to give him coming out of Lexington's Henry Clay High. He intercepted seven passes including a career-best three during his sophomore campaign of 1980 and led UofL in kickoff returns in 1981 with a 30.4 yard average. He began his professional career as a member of the Chicago Blitz in the United States Football League before he signed as a free agent with the Cleveland Browns.

72 Roman Oben - One of the best offensive linemen in the history of the school, Roman Oben played for the Cardinals from 1992-95 and is one of the most decorated offensive linemen in school history. He was named a first team All-American in 1994 by the Gannett News and was also voted to the Football News and Sporting News All-American squads as a junior. He didn't allow a sack during the 1994 season. He was a third round pick by the New York Giants in the 1995 draft and also played two seasons for the Cleveland Browns and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

15 Dave Ragone - Dave Ragone closed his career as the school's only three-time Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year. A three-year starter, he led Louisville to a pair of Conference USA championships and three bowl appearances, while tying the school record for wins by a starter with 27. He is only the third Conference USA player to ever win three offensive player of the year awards, joining former Memphis running back DeAngelo Williams and former Houston quarterback Case Keenum. Ragone was one of the most productive signal callers in school history – finishing his career with 8,564 passing yards, fourth most in school history, and passing for 74 touchdowns – placing him second in the school's record book. The only three-time player of the year honoree in school history, Ragone was named the Conference USA Offensive Player of the Year in 2000 after leading the Cardinals to a 9-3 mark and their first conference title since 1972, when he threw for 2,621 yards and 27 touchdowns. The following year, the southpaw enjoyed the best campaign of his career, passing for 3,056 yards and 23 touchdowns. That year, he directed UofL to an 11-2 record that was capped by a 28-10 Liberty Bowl victory over BYU. Ragone was drafted by the Houston Texans in the third round of the 2003 NFL Draft. He went to play three seasons as quarterback with the Texans (2003-05), appearing in two games.

7 Chris Redman - Chris Redman closed his career as the NCAA all-time leader in passes attempted and completed and was one of just three Division I-A signalcallers to throw for more than 12,000 yards in a career. The Parade National High School Player of the Year at Male, Redman finished his Cardinal career completing 1,031 of 1,679 passes for 12,541 yards and 84 touchdowns. A first-team All-Conference USA selection and the league's Offensive Player of the Year in 1999, he also added the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award to his mantle. As a junior, Redman rewrote the UofL and C-USA record books, passing for 4,042 yards and 29 scores despite playing in just 10 regular season games. His 44-of-56, 592-yard afternoon against East Carolina was the nation's top single game passing performance in 1998.

1 Howard Stevens - One of the best running backs in the history of the school, Howard Stevens ranks in the top five in school history with 2,723 yards and recorded 25 touchdowns (which places him sixth all-time). He also stands fourth all-time with 509 career rushing attempts and holds the school record for rushing yards in a season with 1,429 yards in 1971. He finished fourth in the nation in rushing, running for 1,259 yards and 12 touchdowns in 1972. He guiided the Cardinals to a Missouri Valley Conference Championship in 1972 and was drafted in the 16th round by the New Orleans Saints in the 1973 NFL Draft.

99 Ted Washington - One of the dominating defensive players in the history of the school, Ted Washington played for the Cardinals from 1987-90. In his career, Washington recorded 298 tackles and 14 sacks during his career. He earned Honorable Mention All-America and All-Metro Conference accolades in 1988 after recording a career-high 88 tackles. He was drafted by the San Francisco 49'ers as the 25th pick in the first round and went on to enjoy a 17-year career in the NFL.

50 Otis Wilson - Otis Wilson was a three-time letterman for the Cardinals. A dominating defender and one of the school's all-time leading tacklers, he finished his career as the school's second all-time leading tackler with 484 tackles. He was named the Defensive Most Valuable Player in the 1977 Independence Bowl and was a first team All-American selection in 1979. He registered 152 stops in 1979 and 157 during the 1978 campaign. After Louisville, Wilson was a first round pick of the Chicago Bears, the sixth player in school history to garner first round status in the NFL Draft. He played eight years for the Bears from 1980-87, including a 1986 World Championship.

10 Dwayne Woodruff - A three-time letterman for the Cardinals, Dwayne Woodruff opened his career as a reserve running back and wide receiver from New Richmond, Ohio but was moved to the secondary by then-head coach Vince Gibson following his sophomore campaign. He collected 161 tackles while intercepting three passes and recovering three fumbles. He accounted for 97 total tackles in 1977 as the Cardinals advanced to the Independence Bowl. He was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the sixth round of the 1979 National Football League Draft and spent 11 of the next 12 seasons as a member of the Steelers earning a victory in Super Bowl XIV as a rookie for the Steeler dynasty.

16 Johnny Unitas (Retired) - Five games into Johnny Unitas' freshman season (Unitas was allowed to play as a freshman because UofL didn't belong to the NCAA), head coach Frank Camp knew he had something unique.Tossed in against St. Bonaventure when UofL was trailing 19-0, Unitas completed 11 consecutive passes, three for TDs, in a steady rain and helped put the Cards in front 21-19.

But the Cards couldn't stop St. Bonaventure from kicking a last-ditch field goal and UofL lost 22-21.

Despite the loss, nothing could detract from Unitas' astonishing performance.

With Unitas leading the way, UofL went on to win its next four games, including a 35-28 victory over Houston. Louisville was a 19-point underdog against the Cougars. One of the greatest plays of Unitas' career took place in that game when the Cardinals were leading 28-21 and had the ball on their own eight-yard line in the fourth quarter.

After two unsuccessful running plays, Unitas dropped back into his own end-zone, sidestepped two defenders and threw a pass to Babe Ray who scored a 92-yard TD.

In his sophomore season, Unitas completed 77 of his 154 passes and threw 12 TDs. UofL went 3-8 that year. At Florida State, Unitas had one of his best games, completing 17 of 22 passes in a 41-14 victory. UofL, though, almost fumbled away Johnny Unitas after his sophomore season. After an administrative hassle which saw 15 players dismissed from school, leaving the Cardinal roster empty, Unitas thought about leaving and transferring to Indiana.

But Unitas decided against leaving the Cardinals when he was reminded that Indiana shunned him earlier in his career.

Unitas now holds just a few records at UofL, most of them eclipsed by quarterbacks John Madeya, Ed Rubbert, Browning Nagle, Jeff Brohm, Marty Lowe, Chris Redman, Dave Ragone, Teddy Bridgewater and Stefan LeFors. Unitas finished his career completing 247 of 502 passes for 2,912 yards and 27 touchdowns.

The rest of Unitas' story is well documented. He left Louisville when he was the ninth-round pick by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1955 and was cut by them in a numbers game. The Steelers had four quarterbacks; they only needed three. Unitas was the odd man out.

Unitas took a job with a Pittsburgh tiling company following the cut and then he latched on with the Bloomfield Rams, a semi-pro team. He made six dollars a game. But Unitas didn't linger long in the bush league. The Colts got wind of him and invited him for a tryout. He made the team—signing for $7,000 and the Steelers made history for one of the biggest blunders of all time. Unitas was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1979 and his record 47-consecutive game touchdown passes is a record compared to Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak.

Lamar Jackson

The school's first Heisman Trophy winner in 2016, Lamar Jackson electrified the nation with his speed and rocket arm to become one of the most polarizing players in college football. The native of Pompano Beach, Fla., accounted for 5,114 yards of total offense in 2016 and set the school mark rushing yards at Louisville with 1,571 yards, which he would break the following season. He put his name on the map when he accounted for an ACC record with 610 yards in a win over Syracuse. Jackson closed his sophomore season by capturing many of the nation's top awards, including the Associated Press and Walter Camp Player of the Year Awards.

Gerod Holliman

Taking over as the team's starting safety, Gerod Holliman led the nation and set a school record with 14 interceptions to lead the Cardinals to a 9-4 record. The 2014 Jim Thorpe Award winner recorded 14 interceptions to tie Al Worley's NCAA record that was set in 1968. Holliman recorded an interception in nine games, including a school record three in a win at Boston College. He tied the NCAA mark with a pick versus Kentucky on the Wildcats' final offensive play of the game.

Elvis Dumervil

A Bronko Nagurski Award winner, Elvis Dumervil was an unstoppable force during the 2005 campaign. The Miami, Fla., native set the school record and missed the NCAA mark with 20.5 sacks in guiding the Cardinals to a 9-4 record. Dumervil raced off to a fast start by setting an NCAA mark with six sacks in a win over Kentucky in Lexington. Dumervil went on to win a number of first team All-American honors after registering those 20 sacks and 23.0 tackles for loss.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Micale Cunningham threw for 279 yards and two touchdowns and ran for 81 more, and Louisville capped coach Scott Satterfield's debut season by beating Mississippi State 38-28 in the Music City Bowl.

The Cardinals rallied from a 14-point deficit by scoring 31 straight to finish their big turnaround from 2-10 last season. Louisville also finally beat Mississippi State on the field for the first time in six tries, though the series now is tied 3-3 thanks to a pair of forfeits by the Bulldogs in the 1970s.

Mississippi State had been trying to finish the season with a three-game winning streak for the first time since 2013 and only the third time since the end of World War II. Instead, the Bulldogs go home having lost a bowl game in each of coach Joe Moorhead's two seasons.

Javian Hawkins led Louisville with 105 yards rushing, and he ran for a TD late. The Cardinals outgained Mississippi State 510-366.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - It was Keytaon Thompson's coming-out party. Thompson, a highly touted freshman making his first start in place of injured quarterback Nick Fitzgerald, ran for 147 yards and three touchdowns to help No. 24 Mississippi State beat Lamar Jackson and Louisville 31-27 in the TaxSlayer Bowl.

Thompson completed 11 of 20 passes for 127 yards, with an interception. He was more effective as a runner, carrying on 27 of the team's 55 running plays.

Thompson scored twice in the fourth quarter, including a 1-yard plunge with 3:39 remaining that put the Bulldogs (9-4) ahead for good.

Jackson had the Cardinals on the move late, but safety Mark McLaurin intercepted his third pass of the game. Jackson got another chance in the waning seconds following a failed, fourth-down conversion. But his desperation heave was batted away in the end zone.

Jackson ran 24 times for 158 yards and a touchdown, breaking the TaxSlayer Bowl record for most rushing yards by a quarterback. West Virginia's Pat White set the previous mark with 145 yards in 2007. He also broke his own school records for rushing yards and yards from scrimmage.

ORLANDO, Fla. - Sophomore running back Derrius Guice ran for 138 yards, including a 70-yard touchdown, and caught a scoring pass to help No. 19 LSU Tigers to a 29-9 victory over No. 15 Louisville in Saturday's Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl.

Guice, who stepped in for departed Leonard Fournette, consistently made explosive plays running the ball, as a receiver and a kickoff return man for the Tigers (8-4).

His performance was eclipsed only by the overpowering performance of the Tigers defense that completely shut down Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Lamar Jackson and the Cardinals. The Cardinals did not score a touchdown.

Jackson was sacked eight times, including a safety for an 8-yard loss late in the second quarter. Jackson completed just 10 of 27 passes for 153 yards while leading the rushing attack with 33 yards as the Cardinals (9-4) ended their season with three straight losses.

LSU quarterback Danny Etling threw for 217 yards and two touchdowns as the Tigers moved the ball with balance all game. Malachi Dupre led LSU in receiving with seven catches for 139 yards.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. - Lamar Jackson ran for a career-high and Music City Bowl-record 226 yards and two touchdowns and threw for two more scores to help Louisville beat Texas A&M.

The freshman, making his first start since Oct. 30, finished with a bowl-record 453 total yards, and set the Louisville career rushing mark before the end of the first quarter in giving the Cardinals a 20-7 lead they never lost. Jackson ran for 126 yards in the first 15 minutes, including a 61-yard scoring run.

Texas A&M nearly had first-and-goal at the Cardinals 6, but a review showed Christian Kirk did not maintain possession of the ball on his catch. That left Jake Hubenak two more chances inside the final 2 minutes. The Cardinals batted down a pass, then Hubenak was incomplete throwing into the end zone.

Louisville linebacker Devonte Fields had three sacks, and Louisville safety Josh Harvey-Clemons stripped Hubenak him of the ball and intercepted a pass both in the third quarter.

Jackson had no such issues as he passed Stefan LeFors' previous career rushing mark of 756 yards between 2002 and 2004. He showed off the speed that Louisville coach Bobby Petrino wants to bring to the Atlantic Coast Conference, running through, around and over the Aggies.

Jackson set a bowl rushing record, topping the 187 yards Marion Barber of Minnesota ran for in 2004. He also set the total offense mark of 424 set by Mike Glennon of North Carolina state in 2012 as he threw for 227 yards.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Freshman Nick Chubb ran for a career-high 266 yards and two touchdowns as No. 13 Georgia defeated the 20th-ranked Cardinals 37-14 in the Belk Bowl.

Louisville finished 9-4 in its first season with Bobby Petrino back at the helm.

The Cardinals came in with the nation's second best defense but allowed 301 yards on the ground. Chubb's rushing total was second highest in school history behind only Herschel Walker's 283 yards rushing against Vanderbilt in 1980. Chubb averaged 8 yards per carry.

Chubb set a new Belk Bowl rushing record, eclipsing the 174-yard effort set by Boston College's Andrew Callender in 2004.

Kyle Bolin, who was making his first career start, threw for 314 yards, but tossed three interceptions.

ORLANDO, Fla. - Leading up to the Russell Athletic Bowl, Louisville quarterback Teddy Bridgewater batted back questions about whether the game would be his last in college. If it was, he left plenty for the Cardinals to remember.

Bridgewater threw three touchdown passes and ran for another score to help No. 18 Louisville rout Miami 36-9. The Cardinals spotted Miami an early 2-0 lead, then dominated the rest of the way, racking up 554 total yards to the Hurricanes' 174.

With Cardinals' fans chanting "Teddy! Teddy!" at times throughout the game, Bridgewater, projected to be a top NFL draft pick if he comes out this summer, set a school season record with 31 touchdown passes. The Miami native also tied the school record with his 27th victory as Louisville's starter. He was 35 for 45 for career-high 447 yards.

Louisville won its second straight bowl game for its second 12-win season.

NEW ORLEANS, La. - Louisville safety Calvin Pryor predicted the Cardinals would "shock the world" against Florida in the Sugar Bowl.

Terell Floyd returned an interception 38 yards for a touchdown on the first play, dual-threat quarterback Teddy Bridgewater directed a handful of scoring drives and No. 22 Louisville stunned the fourth-ranked Gators 33-23 in the Sugar Bowl.

Bridgewater was 20 of 32 passing for 266 yards and two touchdowns against the heavily favored Gators. Among his throws was a pinpoint, 15-yard timing toss that DeVante Parker acrobatically grabbed as he touched one foot down in the corner of the end zone.

His other scoring strike went to Damian Copeland from 19 yards one play after a surprise onside kick by the Gators backfired badly. Jeremy Wright had a short touchdown run which gave the two-touchdown underdogs from the Big East a 14-0 lead from which the Gators never recovered.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - Mike Glennon threw for 264 yards and three touchdowns and David Amerson returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown as North Carolina State defeated Louisville 31-24 in the Belk Bowl.

Louisville's Teddy Bridgewater, who threw for 274 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another, nearly brought the Cardinals back from a 21-point deficit, but his final heave on fourth-and-23 was picked off by Amerson with 41 seconds left.

Bridgewater threw a pair of 2-yard touchdown passes to close the gap to 31-24 with 3:55 left in the game.

With his team trailing down 21, Louisville coach Charlie Strong started to gamble.

Strong called for a fake punt after the Cardinals' next drive stalled and Preston Brown, the up back on the punt team, took a direct snap from center and raced 32 yards for a first down. That set up a 2-yard touchdown pass from Bridgewater to tight end Nate Nord in the back corner of the end zone.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - Justin Burke threw for a pair touchdowns and Jeremy Wright scored on a 95-yard kickoff return to help Louisville beat former Conference USA rival Southern Mississippi 31-28 in the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl.

Burke tossed scoring passes of 11 yards to Cameron Graham and 10 yards to Josh Chichester while the Cardinals erased a 14-point first-half deficit, then produced a go-ahead field goal in the fourth quarter.

Wright's long kickoff return made it 28-all early in the fourth quarter. Chris Philpott's 36-yard field goal gave the Cardinals their first lead with 6:30 remaining.

Austin Davis completed 19 of 32 passes, including TD throws of 32 yards to Pierce and 8 yards to Zeke Walters for the Golden Eagles.

Bilal Powell rushed for 75 yards for Louisville - well below his season average of 120.9 - however the 215-pound senior was instrumental in helping the Cardinals exhaust most of the clock after finally taking the lead.

MIAMI, Fla. - Brian Brohm threw for 311 yards to lead Louisville past Wake Forest 24-13 in the 2007 FedEx Orange Bowl.

The Cardinals averaged 39 points and ranked second in the nation in total offense this season, but fell behind 13-10 in the final period before their offense went into high gear. Alphonso Smith nearly blocked Art Carmody's errant kick and also harried Louisville's punter into a 14-yard boot that set up a 44-yard field goal by Sam Swank of Wake Forest.

But Sam Swank made a 36-yarder to cap a 61-yard drive and put the Demon Deacons ahead 13-10 early in the fourth quarter. The Cardinals responded with an eight-play drive capped by Anthony Allen's 1-yard plunge for a 17-13 lead with 12:31 to go. They quickly forced a punt, and mounted a 10-play drive that ended with Brock Bolen's 18-yard scoring run. Brohm finished 24-for-34 and was chosen the game's most valuable player.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - Virginia Tech had a much better experience in the River City this time around. Marcus Vick threw two touchdown passes and the 12th-ranked Hokies rallied to beat No. 15 Louisville 35-24 in the Gator Bowl.

The Hokies scored on three consecutive possessions in the second half, turning a 17-10 deficit into a 28-24 lead. James Anderson sealed the victory when he intercepted Hunter Cantwell's pass and returned it 39 yards for a touchdown with 5:04 to play. Vick was huge in directing the comeback, which snapped a five-game winning streak for Louisville. He completed a 54-yard pass to David Clowney, and Cedric Humes scored on the next play from 24 yards.

Chris Ellis sacked Cantwell on the ensuing drive and knocked the ball loose. Anderson recovered near midfield, and Vick did the rest.He threw two deep passes that might have been caught if not for pass interference penalties. Two plays later, he found Jeff King for the go-ahead score.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - In the highest scoring AutoZone Liberty Bowl ever, it was a defensive play by Louisville that ended Boise State's 22-game winning streak.

Louisville safety Kerry Rhodes intercepted a pass in the end zone as time expired to preserve Louisville's 44-40 victory over 10th-ranked Boise State. Eric Shelton scored on the go-ahead touchdown on a 1-yard run with 6:48 left. Stefan LeFors threw two touchdowns and ran for a third for the Cardinals.

Quarterback Jared Zabransky drove the Broncos to the Louisville 30 before his final pass was intercepted by Rhodes as time expired.

Everyone expected a high-scoring game in a bowl pairing the nation's top two offenses, and the teams didn't disappoint as they swapped the lead five times. The 84 combined points topped the 80 points by Colorado and Alabama in 1969 and was one of a handful of records set. The Cardinals rolled up 564 yards, topping 500 yards for the ninth time this season. LeFors was 18-of-26 for 193 yards and ran 12 times for 76 yards.

MOBILE, Ala. - Ben Roethlisberger passed for 376 yards and four first-half touchdowns to lead No. 14 Miami of Ohio to a 49-28 victory over Louisville in the GMAC Bowl.

He completed 21 of 33 passes, shaking off would-be sacks and throwing perfect strikes on the run. Miami scored two more touchdowns in the fourth to stymie a rally by Louisville.

Roethlisberger completed 16-of-20 for 291 yards in the first half. The RedHawks outgained Louisville 597-492 in a matchup of high-powered offenses.The Miami defense twice came up big in the fourth. Matt Pusateri stepped in front of Stefan LeFors' pass and raced 35 yards for a touchdown to erase Louisville's comeback hopes, the RedHawks' fifth score of the season on interception returns. Then, Terna Nande picked off another pass in the end zone. Cal Murray rushed 15 times for 142 yards and a touchdown for Miami. LeFors was 17-of-26 for 224 yards but was intercepted three times after getting picked off only seven times in the first 12 games. J.R. Russell caught seven passes for 144 yards and three touchdowns.

MOBILE, Ala. - Byron Leftwich completed 22-of-44 passes for 249 yards and four touchdowns as the Cardinals ended their season at 7-6 with a 38-15 loss to Marshall in the 2002 GMAC Bowl.

The Thundering Herd scored the first 17 points of the game, coming on two touchdown passes from Leftwich and a Curtis Head 23-yard field goal. T.J. Patterson put Louisville on the board with a two-yard run with 5:15 left in the second quarter, but the Cards couldn't stop the Thundering Herd. Marshall put the game away with 21 straight points. Leading, 17-7, Leftwich tossed two more scores and a 15-yard run by Frank Wallace iced the contest. Dave Ragone closed the scoring with an 11-yard pass to Tiger Jones.

Ragone was 20-of-45 for 193 yards, but was sacked three times. Ragone was also the team's top rusher with 31 yards, but the Cards were limited to 56 yards on 26 carries.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The No. 23-ranked Cardinals made an impressive statement to cap one of the most successful seasons in school history with a 28-10 pounding of No. 19 Brigham Young in the AXA Liberty Bowl.

The Louisville defense, ranked 10th in the nation in points allowed, held the nation's highest scoring offense (46.8 points per game) 14 points below its previous low. So it was only fitting that the Cardinal defense came up with the biggest play of the game. Zek Parker had returned the opening kickoff 70 yards to the BYU 22 to set up the Cards' first score, with Henry Miller carrying it in from the one yard line. Then the Cougars scored on a trick play, a lateral to lineman Dustin Rykert for a 10-yard touchdown to make it 7-7 midway through the second quarter.

Deion Branch had three catches in the next Cardinal drive, including a 34-yard touchdown that put Louisville ahead 21-10 with 4:15 remaining in the third quarter. Safety Curry Burns had one of the best games of his career with nine solo tackles and two pass break-ups.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - In the only bowl game of the 2000 season that featured a pair of conference champions, the Mountain West champs - the Colorado State Rams bulled their way to a 22-17 win over the Louisville Cardinals, Conference USA champions.

More than 25,000 UofL fans braved wind chills in the single digits and saw the Cardinals jump out to a 10-3 lead early in the second quarter. Sophomore quarterback Dave Ragone connected with little-used wide receiver Damien Dorsey on a 58-yard scoring play and got three more from the right foot of placekicker Nate Smith. The Rams battled back late in the first half getting a pair of touchdowns on the ground from Cecil Sapp and Frank Rice. Sapp would go on to earn game MVP honors after a 160-yard performance.

Armed with a 16-10 halftime lead, the Rams would bump the score to 19-10 after the second of three C.W. Hurst field goals, a 21-yarder early in the third quarter. UofL pulled within two at 19-17 when Ragone connected with Deion Branch on a 14-yard scoring play with 13:35 left in the game.

For the day, Ragone completed 24 of 37 throws for 321 yards in winds up to 30 miles per hour. Branch set a Liberty Bowl record with 10 receptions for 170 yards and a score.

BOISE, Id. - Freshman Brock Forsey rushed for 152 yards and helped Boise State, in its fourth season since moving up from Division I-AA, to a 34-31 victory Thursday over Louisville in the Humanitarian Bowl.

UofL drew first blood less than three minutes into the game when senior Jon Hilbert split the uprights from 40 yards out to give the Cards a 3-0 lead. BSU quarterback Bart Hendricks sprinted in from three yards out to give the Broncos a 7-3 advantage, but UofL would strike back less than two minutes later as senior quarterback Chris Redman hit Arnold Jackson with a 54-yard scoring pass.The NCAA's all-time leader in passes attempted and completed, Redman would close his historic collegiate career by completing 26 of 47 throws for 314 yards and two scores.

Following a Hendricks TD pass, junior Zek Parker returned the ensuing kickoff 91 yards for a score as UofL seized the lead back at 17-14. Parker's TD return was his third of the season. The two clubs matched touchdowns in the second stanza with Damien Dorsey catching his first pass as a collegian to give UofL a 24-21 lead at halftime.

DETROIT, Mich. - Marshall scored 24 unanswered points to take control of the second annual Motor City Bowl, 48-29. The loss, however, could not dampen the metamorphosis of the Louisville football team during the 1998 season. UofL held serve with Marshall through the first 30 minutes holding a 21-21 deadlock with the Thundering Herd behind the offense of junior running back Leroy Collins and quarterback Chris Redman.

Redman completed 35 of 56 throws for 336 yards and a second-quarter TD to Charles Sheffield. The outing was a fitting end to a junior season which saw him finish second nationally in total offense and become the 13th quarterback in I-A history to throw for 4,000 yards. Collins found the end zone three times in the bowl loss to cap a recordsetting season. The junior college transfer hit paydirt 19 times during the regular season to break Lenny Lyles 40-year-old mark. Herd quarterback Chad Pennington set virtually every MCB record completing 18 of 24 passes for 411 yards and four touchdowns as Marshall exploited an injury-riddled UofL defense.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - The 1993 Cardinals put a cap on an 8-3 regular season with an 18-7 victory over Michigan State at the Liberty Bowl. Howard Schnellenberger's squad registered the first win ever by the Cardinals over a Big Ten foe.

The conditions were hardly ideal for an aerial display, but quarterback Jeff Brohm checked in with one of the guttiest efforts in the history of Cardinal football. Brohm, playing with two steel pins and one steel plate in the index finger of his throwing hand completed 19-of-29 passes for 197 yards and a touchdown amidst 20-degree temperatures and freezing rain. Most of that courage was shown in the fourth quarter. Entering the final frame, Louisville trailed 7-3. With 12:05 remaining, Brohm connected on a 25-yard strike to Reggie Ferguson to put the Cardinals in front for good. Just over three minutes later, it was the defense's turn to make a big play.

Pinned back to their one-yard line, the Spartans were merely looking to get some breathing room for their offense. Running back Craig Thomas took the handoff and was immediately met by All-American defensive end Joe Johnson and reserve linebacker Tyrus McCloud for a safety.

TEMPE, Ariz. - Playing in its first bowl game in 13 years, the Louisville football team felt it had something to prove at the 1991 Fiesta Bowl.

The squad proved its point to the tune of a 34-7 thrashing of Alabama. The Cardinals came out on all cylinders, scoring 25 points in the first quarter. Browning Nagle tossed two long touchdown passes and Ray Buchanan recovered a blocked punt for a touchdown. Nagle threw for a Fiesta Bowl record 451 yards, including 223 during a 25-point first-quarter explosion. He completed 20-of-33 passes and had three scoring passes. Alabama's offense did not experience much more success. For the game the Tide rolled for just 189 yards of total offense. UofL defensive back Ray Buchanan was tabbed as the game's defensive most valuable player.

SHREVEPORT, La. - The 1977 Louisville team, coached by Vince Gibson, ended a seven-year bowl drought, and took a 24-14 setback from Louisiana Tech at the Independence Bowl.

Louisiana Tech, the Southland Conference champion, took the thrill out of the trip for UofL, handing the Cards a 10-point loss. Kevin Miller provided the spark offensively for UofL, electrifying the crowd with a 60-yard first quarter punt return for a touchdown.

In the third quarter, Miller scored again on a 13-yard run to cap a 13- play, 58-yard scoring drive. Tech quarterback Keith Thibodeaux, the offensive player of the game, countered Miller's heroics with two touchdown passes. Miller nearly came up with another TD, but he mishandled a pass in the end zone from Stu Stram.

PASADENA, Calif. - In 1970, the University of Louisville's Missouri Valley Conference Championship team tied Long Beach State 24-24 at the Pasadena Bowl to close the season. Long Beach trailed Lee Corso's Cardinals almost the entire game after John Madeya scored a pair of touchdowns.

On the strength of a safety and some nifty running by fullback Leon Burns, LBSU managed to forge a fourth-quarter tie. A strange play near the end of the game had the Louisville faithful thinkingthey just might secure a victory. Madeya threw a screen pass to tailback Tom Jesukaitis, who was supposed to go out of bounds. Instead Jesukaitis put the ball in the air again, throwing a pass to Cookie Brinkman who went in for a touchdown.

EL PASO, Texas - The University of Louisville made its first bowl appearance Jan. 1, 1958, as Frank Camp's squad battered Drake 34-20 in the Sun Bowl.

The victory over the Drake Bulldogs capped a near-perfect season for the Cardinals. UofL finished with a 9-1 record.Louisville's squad was headed by Lenny Lyles, the nation's leading rusher. Unfortunately, Lyles went down in the first quarter with an injury. He managed just six yards on two carries.

In Lyles' absence, Ken Porco and Pete Bryant stepped forward offensively. Porco ran for a game-high 119 yards on 20 carries. Bryant added 80 yards on 14 carries, while also tossing a 20-yard scoring pass.

Dr. Neeli Bendapudi ■ University President

Neeli Bendapudi is the 18th President of the University of Louisville. Selected by the UofL Board of Trustees in April 2018, Bendapudi came to Louisville from the University of Kansas where she served as Provost and Executive Vice Chancellor.

Since becoming President, Bendapudi has worked toward making the university a great place for students to learn, a great place for faculty and staff to work, and a great place for alumni and the community to invest. Under her leadership, the university will celebrate diversity, foster equity and strive for inclusion.

She earned her PhD in marketing from the University of Kansas and has teaching experience at Texas A&M University and The Ohio State University. Bendapudi returned to KU in 2011 to become the School of Business dean and H.D. Price Professor of Business. During her career, she has taught at the undergraduate, MBA, Executive MBA and PhD levels and received numerous college, university and national teaching awards.

Bendapudi specializes in the study of consumer behavior in service contexts. Her research deals with customers' willingness and ability to maintain long-term relationships with firms and with the brands and employees that represent them. Her research has been published in the Journal of Academic Medicine, Harvard Business Review, Journal of Marketing (where she also served on the editorial board), Journal of Marketing Research, Journal of Retailing, Journal of Service Research and in the proceedings of various national and international conferences. Her work has been featured by popular media outlets including The New York Times, CNBC, CNN, MSNBC, WebMD and Fox News Network.

Previously, she served as chief customer officer of the Huntington National Bank and was actively involved in business outreach through consulting and executive education programs.

A highly sought-after keynote speaker, she has addressed national and international audiences for many companies, trade groups and organizations.

Bendapudi sits on the Board of Directors of publicly held company Lancaster Colony Corporation and has sat on several non-profit organization boards, including MRIGlobal, an independent research institute. She is a former Leadership Foundation Fellow of the International Women's Forum, one of a select group of women selected worldwide for this prestigious honor.

She is married to Venkat Bendapudi. Their daughter, Sirisha, is married to Kyle Ladd.

Vince Tyra ■ Vice President/Director of Athletics

Vincent Tyra, a Louisville native with strong business credentials, was named as the University of Louisville's Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics and Director of Athletics on March 26, 2018. He had previously served in an interim role leading Cardinal Athletics for six months prior to his appointment.

Tyra (pronounced TIE-ray) has been highly active since assuming his position, using his business acumen, passion for Cardinal Athletics and background in athletics to advance UofL onward.

He has provided leadership while continuing to move the Cardinals forward in all sports, building upon the positive legacy of previous athletics successes, and taking the time to personally reach out to the UofL fan base and donors on multiple fronts through improved customer service.

Tyra has instilled strong principles with established core beliefs and goals to drive the essence of the Cardinals' athletics program moving forward. He has taken steps to stabilize the future of the Cardinals by extending the contracts for key UofL coaches and adding new ones while making moves to efficiently restructure the administrative and support staff, all with an emphasis on enhancing the student-athlete experience for the Cardinals.

In December of 2018, Tyra's keen eye for hiring the right people found Scott Satterfeld to lead the football program. Taking over a 2-10 program, Satterfield guided the Cardinals to an 8-5 record and a Music City Bowl win, orchestrating the top turnaround among Power 5 program and becoming the school's first coach to win ACC's Coach of the Year honors.

He has monitored major capital projects, including a Cardinal Stadium expansion completed in August 2018, as well as constructing and outfitting a broadcast center on campus in advance of the launch of the ACC Network in August 2019. A comprehensive study will help guide the timetable for upcoming future enhancements. Funding has been jump started with a flurry of substantial benevolent gifts from individuals and companies who believe in and align with the current Cardinals' leadership and values.

During Tyra's first three years, Louisville has ranked among the top 35 schools in the nation in the Learfield Sports Director's Cup national all-sports standings, making it seven straight seasons the Cardinals have ranked among the nation's top 35. The Cardinals were poised for one of their top seasons in the standings at No. 8 in the fall before the winter and spring seasons were cancelled.

Under Tyra's supervision, Cardinal athletic teams have performed well on the field, and have also excelled in the classroom as 414 student-athletes earned Red and Black Scholar-Athletes honors for 2019 fall semester, which acknowledges student-athletes who maintained at least a 3.25 cumulative grade-point average. Five UofL athletic teams – men's and women's basketball, women's cross country, and women's golf and volleyball – received public recognition awards for ranking in the top 10 percent in the most recent Academic Progress Rate.

Under Tyra's direction, the department has been generous with its service, with 13 athletic programs ranking in the top 10 amongst Division I teams in service hours for the 2019-20 season.

Of those 13 programs, Field Hockey and Lacrosse led their sports nationally in service, while Baseball (3), Dance Team (3), Men's Soccer (3), Women's Soccer (3), Men's Swimming & Diving (5) and Women's Rowing (5) all ranked in the top five.

The UofL athletics department was named the winner of the 2019-20 NCAA Team Works Award Competition for outstanding community service in Division I as announced by the NCAA. It marked the second time the Cardinals have won the award in the six years of the competition.

Prior to his appointment at UofL, Tyra served as an operating partner since 2007 for Southfield Capital, a Greenwich, Conn. based private equity firm that invests in lower middle market companies. In his role there, Tyra served as chairman of the board of numerous investments to include Hallcon Corp, RCR International, Total Fleet Solutions, Dealer Financial Services, and BioPharm Communications. Tyra most recently served as chairman of the board and interim Chief Executive Officer of Elite Medical, a company based in Clearwater, Fla.

Tyra was a corporate advisor from 2008-2017 for ISCO Industries, a privately held piping supply company based in Louisville, Ky. He also formerly served as the president of Retail and Activewear for Fruit of the Loom in Bowling Green, Ky.

Tyra has served as a member of the University of Louisville Foundation Board of Directors and chaired the organization's Finance Committee. He joined the board in February 2017, but stepped down from the position after his appointment with Cardinal Athletics. He has served on the board of Industrial Services of America, a Louisville-based scrap metal recycling company.

A former standout athlete himself, Tyra graduated from Trinity High School in Louisville in 1984 as the state's top baseball prospect and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame. He was a four-year baseball letterman (1985-88) and two-time team captain at the University of Kentucky, where he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in health administration in 1989. He started 37 career games as a pitcher for Kentucky, tied for 14th at UK.

A long-time supporter of UofL Athletics, his father Charlie Tyra was a consensus All-America at UofL, led the Cardinals to the 1956 National Invitation Tournament Championship and is one of four players with his jersey number (No. 8) retired at UofL, along with Wes Unseld, Darrell Griffith and Pervis Ellison.

Tyra and his wife Lori have five children: Sydney, Audrey, Olivia, Spencer and Cooper.

Josh Heird
Deputy Athletic Director

Josh Heird, who has over 12 years of experience in athletics administration at the University of Louisville and most recently Villanova University, was named Deputy Athletic Director in April 2019.

In his new role at UofL, Heird is the sport administrator for baseball, men's basketball, football, and men's and women's golf, as well as providing administrative oversight for championships.

Heird served as Senior Associate Athletics Director/Chief Athletics Operating Officer at Villanova in 2018-19 after operating nearly two years as Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations and Finance. In those roles, he provided leadership for all internal units of the athletic department and had administrative oversight with finance and budget, capital projects, ticket and equipment operation, food service, camps and overall project and event management. He also was the sport administrator for the men's lacrosse and men's soccer programs, as well as the secondary administrator for men's basketball.

Before moving to Villanova, Heird worked nearly 10 years at UofL (2007-16), most recently as Assistant Athletic Director for Championships and Facilities from 2012-16. In that role, he had oversight of capital projects approved by the UofL Athletic Association. He also assisted with the day-to-day management of facility operations. Heird was responsible for the management of all ACC and NCAA postseason events hosted by UofL.

During his time at Louisville, Heird helped design and oversee the construction of the Jim Patterson Baseball Stadium expansion, the Ulmer Softball Stadium expansion, the building of the Dr. Mark and Cindy Lynn Soccer Stadium, the lacrosse stadium press box, as well as the Thorntons Academic Center of Excellence.

Heird coordinated several postseason events hosted by Louisville, including the 2016 NCAA Men's Basketball Regional. Louisville also served as home to the 2015 and 2012 Men's and Women's Cross Country National Championships, the 2015 and 2012 Men's Basketball Second and Third Rounds, the 2014 Women's Basketball Regional, the 2012 Women's Volleyball National Championship and the 2012 Field Hockey National Championship.

He began his career at UofL as Assistant Director of Championships in April of 2007 before being promoted to the Director of Championships in 2009. Before starting a career in collegiate athletics, Heird spent five years in Washington, D.C. working for Congressman Mike Simpson of Idaho and Senator Wayne Allard of Colorado.

Heird is a 2002 graduate of Mississippi College, where he was a member of the cross country, track & field and football teams. In addition to being the American Southwest Conference 800 meter champion in 2001, Heird was an all-conference cross country selection in 2001 and was an academic all-conference honoree every semester of his career. He earned an MBA from Louisville in 2009.

Heird is married to the former Abbey Woolley. The couple has two children, Hadley (5) and Gus (3).

In addition to gameday, she also leads production of all in-house special events, banquets, kickoffs, fan parties and donor events. She coordinates with Louisville Sports Properties to ensure in-game sponsorship fulfillment at the highest level. In addition, she oversees team marketing, assisting all sports marketing managers in gameday execution.
Prior to UofL, Hanson was the Director of Marketing at Washington State University, overseeing all marketing aspects of football, men's & women's basketball, baseball, women's soccer, tennis and golf during her six years in the Pac 12. She holds a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University in Washington, DC, and an MBA from Southwest Minnesota State University.

Justin Ruffin
Assistant Athletic Director
for Academic Services

Justin Ruffin is in his 10th year with UofL as Assistant Athletic Director for Academics. He is responsible for overseeing academics for the Cardinal football team and supervises the academic staff housed in the Thortons Academic Center of Excellence.

After serving five years in various capacities, at James Madison University, Ruffin came to the University of Louisville. He is a former student-athlete, earning All-Conference recognition as a defensive back for the football team and lettering three years on the baseball team.

In 2002, Ruffin graduated with a Bachelor's of Science in Integrated Science and Technology from JMU and he earned his Master of Science in Athletic Administration two years later in 2004.

A native of Norfolk, Va., Ruffin is a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc, National Association Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) and Black Coaches and Administrators.

Ruffin and his wife Erika have three sons: Justin, Jayson and Joshua.

Lauren Rust
Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance

Lauren Rust is in her 13th year at the University of Louisville and her ninth with Cardinal Athletics, currently serving as Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance.

Rust is responsible for the financial aid and eligibility of initial and transfer student-athletes in the sports of Football, Women's Basketball and Men's and Women's Swimming, as well as assisting in the eligibility of continuing student-athletes, Academic Progress Rate (APR) and Graduation Success Rate (GSR) reports. She serves as an advisor for the Student Athlete Advisory Committee and assists with the Leadership Development Institute (LDI). She also heads up the Rules Education team within the Office of Athletic Compliance. She has worked the last six years in her current position after three years as UofL's Director of Compliance. She joined the UofL athletics staff in August of 2011 after three years as Associate Director of Advising in the UofL College of Arts and Sciences.

Prior to her arrival at UofL, Rust worked six years at the Thornton Athletics Student Life Center at the University of Tennessee. She was an Academic Athletic Counselor for women's swimming, rowing and women's golf (2002-05), as well as Assistant Director overseeing all academic counselors and serving as the primary academic counselor for men's basketball and women's volleyball (2005-08). Rust also worked a year in Membership Services for the NCAA as an intern in 2001-02.

Rust earned a B.A. in Exercise Science at Morehead State University (Ky.) in 1999. She graduated with a M.A. in Sport Administration at Morehead State in 2001 while serving as a graduate assistant in athletics.

A native of Louisville, Rust and her husband Rich have two children: Garrett and Brynlee.

The University of Louisville features impressive facilities that have enriched the campus and entire Louisville community. Every Cardinal sports team has a new facility since 1994, with most being built within the last 20 years.

The state-of-the-art, 22,000-seat KFC Yum! Center has been the home of Cardinal Basketball since opening in 2010 (more info on preceding pages).

The Cardinals kicked off their 1998 football season in Cardinal Stadium, a 60,000-seat on-campus facility that was expanded in 2010. Another expansion that enclosed the end zone was completed in 2018.

Cardinal Arena, expanded in 2017 as the home for UofL volleyball, and many athletic offices are housed in the Swain Student Activities Center on the northeast corner of campus.

Built in 1994, the Bass-Rudd Tennis Center was honored as the 1995 USTA College Facility of the Year. It was the first component of Cardinal Park, an area which features multiple playing facilities for the Cardinals: Ulmer Stadium (softball), Cardinal Track Stadium and Trager Stadium (field hockey).

The University of Louisville Golf Club, located just east of Louisville in Simpsonville, Ky., is the home to the UofL men's and women's golf teams.

Patterson Stadium, the recently expanded home to the Cards' baseball team, opened in 2005, as did the Ralph Wright Natatorium and Trager Center fieldhouse. Planet Fitness Kueber Center provides a stellar basketball practice facility and offices as well as a practice home for women's basketball and women's lacrosse. UofL opened in 2008 the Marshall Center, a multi-sport weight training facility, and the Field Hockey Complex, to house offices and locker rooms for field hockey. The G. Garvin Brown II Rowing Center riverside boat house for the Cardinals' rowing team opened in 2011.

A state-of-the-art soccer stadium, Dr. Mark & Cindy Lynn Stadium, opened in 2014. The sparkling Thorntons Academic Center of Excellence opened in 2016 at the south end of the football stadium structure.

The Tradition

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

In today's intercollegiate athletics, competition is so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency. Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds.

John Swofford

Established in 1953, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Through 67 years of competition, ACC schools have captured 161 NCAA team championships, including 80 in women's competition, 79 in men's sports and two in fencing. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 186 times in men's competition and 141 times in women's action.

Football

The ACC has won three of the last seven football national championships, which ties for the most in the country - Clemson in 2016 and 2018; Florida State in 2013. In addition, the ACC is one of just two conferences that has placed a team in the CFP or the BCS Championship Game in each of the last seven years.

The ACC has won eight national championship in football. Clemson's victory over Alabama in the 2019 CFP National Championship marked the eighth national title by an ACC school since the league's inception in 1953, and the 15th by a school currently in the league. Of current membership, Miami leads the way with five national titles, followed by Clemson (3), Florida State (3), Pitt (2), Georgia Tech (1) and Syracuse (1).

The ACC landed a nation's best 10 bowl bids in 2019. It is the second consecutive season the ACC has had the most bowl teams of any conference (11 in 2018).

The ACC has the most bowl teams (42) among all conferences over the last four years (11 in 2016, 10 in 2017, 11 in 2018, 10 in 2019), and the ACC is the only conference to send every team to at least one bowl game over the previous four seasons (2016-19).

The ACC led all Power 5 conferences with 24 games decided by one possession (8 points or less). The Big 12 was second with 23, followed by the Pac-12 (21), Big Ten (20) and SEC (17). North Carolina and Pitt led the nation in one-possession games with nine each. Miami was second with eight. Nationally, 19 schools played seven or more one-score games in 2019.

Clemson won its fifth consecutive ACC title in 2019 with a 62-17 win over Virginia in the ACC Football Championship Game in Charlotte, North Carolina. The Tigers earned a berth in the CFP semifinals, where they defeated Ohio State, 29-23, before falling to No. 1 LSU, 42-25, In the CFP National Championship Game in New Orleans, Louisiana. The Tigers finished 14-1 overall and No. 2 in the final AP Top 25 poll.

Virginia became the seventh different team in the last seven years to win the Coastal Division. The Cavaliers earned their first bid to the ACC Football Championship Game and played in the Capital One Orange Bowl. Virginia is the 11th different ACC team to play in the championship game since the game began in 2005.

Nine ACC head coaches have won at least 50 career games, including five with more than 100 victories. The five 100-win coaches are North Carolina's Mack Brown (251), Clemson's Dabo Swinney (130), Wake Forest's Dave Clawson (126), Virginia's Bronco Mendenhall (124) and Duke's David Cutcliffe (116). No other conference has as many coaches with 100 career wins.

Two of the five active coaches to win a national title reside in the ACC. Dabo Swinney led Clemson to national titles in 2016 and 2018. North Carolina's Mack Brown won a national title at Texas in 2005.

2019-20 in Review

The 2019-20 academic year saw all athletic competition come to an abrupt halt March 12 due to the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to competition being canceled for the remainder of the academic year, the conference completed championship competition in 15 sports - seven for men and eight for women. The fall season also saw North Carolina's field hockey team capture its second consecutive NCAA title, and ACC teams were national contenders in numerous fall and winter sports. The ACC has averaged four national titles per year over the past two-plus decades (92 in 23 years) and has claimed multiple NCAA titles in 36 of the past 39 years.

Academically, the member institutions of the ACC again led the way among Power 5 conferences in the latest "Best Colleges" rankings released by US News & World Report. ACC member institutions combined for an average rank of 54.7, marking the 13th straight year that the ACC led all Power 5 conferences.

A History

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, North Carolina with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference by-laws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, North Carolina, where a set of bylaws was adopted, and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were Dixie, Mid-South, Mid-Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when South Carolina tendered its resignation. The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when Georgia Tech was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of Miami and Virginia Tech. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting July 1, 2005.

The ACC added its 13th and 14th members on Sept. 18, 2011, when Pittsburgh and Syracuse accepted invitations to join the conference. The two schools officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013. Notre Dame also officially joined the ACC on July 1, 2013, after announcing on Sept. 12, 2012 its intention to enter the league for competition in all sports but football, bringing the membership of the conference to 15. The Fighting Irish will play five games with ACC schools each year.

On July 1, 2014, Louisville entered the ACC on the same day Maryland withdrew, keeping the conference's membership at 15 institutions.

Conference Shifting for the Cards

— The University of Louisville joined the Atlantic Coast Conference on July 1, 2014, its third different conference in three years. The Cardinals were members of the Big East Conference for eight years before the league split, with Louisville moving with four others to form the American Athletic Conference in 2013. UofL's association with the American was for one season in 2013-14, as the Cardinals accepted an invitation to join the Atlantic Coast Conference on Nov. 28, 2012. Louisville has been a member of eight different conferences, including six in the last 44 years.

The Cardinal Athletic Fund was established in 1979 as an avenue for the Athletic Department to be a self sustaining entity. Since then, the commitment and growth of the CAF has been extraordinary.

For over 30 years, the goals and dreams of UofL student-athletes have been made possible by the Cardinal Athletic Fund and over 8,000 gracious supporters. Through our members' annual contributions ranging from $100 to $100,000 and above, UofL student-athletes are provided the opportunity to pursue their academic goals and their athletic dreams, while learning the skills that will prepare them to impact their future communities. Achieving this mission is a tribute to the true spirit of the Cardinal Athletic Fund.

Your membership in the CAF provides you with many exciting benefits. Whether in Cardinal Stadium or in the KFC Yum! Center, these benefits will provide you with great value and enhance your overall experience as part of the UofL team.

Information on the Cardinal Athletic Fund can be obtained through our website: www.CardinalAthleticFund.com.

Cardinal Athletic Fund Priority Points

The CAF Priority Point system is a fair and effective way to allocate tickets. The goal of the Priority Point system is to reward those fans who support the program the "longest and the strongest." The CAF utilizes the Priority Point System in the allocation and relocation of home tickets, away tickets, ACC Tournament tickets, NCAA tickets, Bowl Game tickets and parking.

Every donor to the Cardinal Athletic Fund is essential in our mission to support the scholarship needs of UofL student-athletes. The CAF as well as the Cardinal student-athletes greatly appreciate your support.

Priority Points are awarded accordingly;

- One point for every $100 donated to the CAF
- One point for every $100 donated to an individual sport or Capital Campaign
- One point for each year a donation is made
- One point for each year in which football season tickets are purchased
- One point for each year in which basketball season tickets are purchased
- Two points for each year in which season tickets are purchased for women's basketball, volleyball, soccer or baseball.

Priority Point Ranking

CAF members earn priority points through a variety of ways including years of giving, season ticket purchases, and donations. CAF members are then ranked against all other members according to their total points. This ranking is used to prioritize benefits such as NCAA Tournament tickets, ACC Tournament tickets, Bowl Tickets, etc. and was used to determine the order basketball season ticket holders selected their seats in the new arena.

Ways To Give

The Cardinal Athletic Fund provides support for the University of Louisville Athletic Department and student-athletes through various avenues, including contributions to the annual fund, endowments, matching gifts and planned giving.

The following are methods of giving and gift destinations:

Gifts of Cash. Cash, checks, VISA, MasterCard and American Express are all acceptable ways to contribute. Please make checks payable to the University of Louisville.

Gifts-in-Kind. In lieu of monetary donations, the CAF may accept certain gifts and services that would otherwise have needed to be purchased. The donor receives a retail credit for the gift/service as well as a deduction. These gifts must have prior approval by the ULAA.

Gifts of Real Estate. A personal or "recreational" residence, a farm or ranch, a commercial building, subdivision lots or an undeveloped parcel of land - gifts of real estate can consist of almost any type of property. Individual financial needs and goals will determine which method of giving real estate is most appropriate for you.

Gifts of Appreciated Securities. Contributions of long term appreciated securities (those held for more than one year) to the Cardinal Athletic Fund eliminate paying a capital gains tax on the securities and entitle you to an income tax charitable deduction equal to the fair market value of the securities at the time the gift is given. This tax advantage allows you to contribute the appreciated securities directly instead of selling them and then giving the net proceeds to the Cardinal Athletic Fund.

Trusts. Options for donating the income of a trust are available and offer substantial tax benefits.

Bequests. A testamentary bequest (i.e. a gift under a will) may be in the form of cash, securities, real estate, tangible personal property or other assets.

Corporate Matching Gifts

Benefits of Matching Gifts. Participation in the corporate matching gifts program is a great way to increase your Cardinal Athletic Fund Donor Level and priority points as well as increase scholarship support for the University of Louisville student-athletes. A matching gift may not be used to pay your annual CAF seat pledge but may be used to supplement your total CAF giving.

The following is a list of companies which have participated in our matching gifts program. This list is not all inclusive and the policy of a company is subject to change, so please be sure to check with your human resources department.

Does My Company Match? To find out your companies policy on corporate matching gifts simply check with your human resources department. The matching gift policies of most corporations can also be found at http://matchfinderonline.blackbaud.com/matchgiftinquiry.aspx?cid=21867. Simply type in your corporation's name to find the corporation's policies.

How do I submit a Matching Gift? Obtain a matching gift form from your human resources department. Then return the completed form with your donation, to the Cardinal Athletic Fund.

UofL ATHLETICS BROADCAST CENTER

General Information

- Project Cost: $8 million
- Size of Space: 7,850-square feet
- TV Monitors: 82
- Wires: 2,560 (38.6 miles)
- Strands of Fiber: 576 (Connected to all UofL venues)
- Cameras: 28 total: 10 primary, including four with 80x lenses; 9 robotic; 3 POV; 6 with mobile production trailer

The Atlantic Coast Conference and ESPN have partnered to launch the comprehensive linear and digital ACC Network in 2019. The University of Louisville built a television production facility on the northeast corner of its campus to house all the equipment and personnel that is necessary to originate live programming.

The 7,850 square foot production facility was completed in September 2018 and is connected by fiber to UofL athletic venues and to ESPN. Instead of mobile trucks covering sporting events, live programming will be originated from the new centralized production facility.

The $8-million project included construction, equipment and integration, and fiber connection to UofL venues. The broadcast center includes two full video control rooms for linear telecasts which will air on ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU or the ACC Network. Those two control rooms and three additional scaled back control rooms allow for live telecasts of multiple events that may either overlap, or are concurrently played, to air on multiple television platforms.

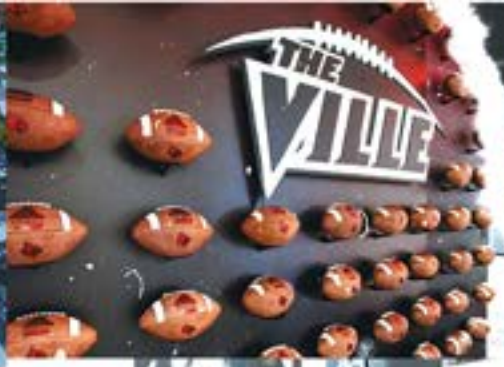

With fiber connections to each venue, the broadcast center will also produce live, in-game content for UofL venue video boards such as those in Cardinal Stadium, Dr. Mark & Cindy Lynn Stadium, KFC Yum! Center, Jim Patterson Stadium and Ulmer Stadium. The UofL Athletics Broadcast Center is connected by fiber to ESPN.

The production facility includes a bureau studio, which would allow coaches and players to do live interviews on any ESPN platform and/or broadcast channels. Also included in the center is a versatile studio with variable sets and a full green screen wall and personnel work space. The Cardinals also maintain a television production mobile unit for venues that are not connected by fiber to the broadcast center.

The center will be used for creation of not only ACC Network content, but for other video projects in support of the athletics department as well.
