■ Kenny Payne Chosen to Lead Louisville Basketball -- Kenny Payne, a veteran college and NBA coach with seventeen years of coaching experience and a former Cardinal basketball great, was named the new head men's basketball coach at the University of Louisville by Interim Director of Athletics Josh Heird on March 18. Payne's contract with the Cardinals will be for six years, extending through the 2027-28 season. Payne most recently served as an assistant coach with the NBA's New York Knicks after fifteen years as a college assistant or associate head coach with both the University of Oregon and the University of Kentucky. He is just the sixth head coach to guide the Cardinals in the last 48 years, following Denny Crum (1971-2001), Rick Pitino (2001-17), David Padgett (2017-18, interim), Chris Mack (2018-22) and Mike Pegues (2021-22, interim). Payne is the 23rd head coach in Louisville's 108-year history and the ninth in the past 77 years (fourth since 1971, excluding interim coaches).

As a student-athlete at UofL, Payne scored 1,083 points in his career (1985-86), connecting on 40.1 percent of his career three-point attempts (85-of-212, fourth-highest in UofL history). He was a member of Louisville's 1986 NCAA Championship team as a freshman and over his collegiate career, Louisville participated in three NCAA Sweet Sixteens, won three Metro Conference championships and three Metro tournament titles. As a senior playing under Hall of Fame Coach Denny Crum, Payne averaged 14.5 points and 5.7 rebounds and was named to the All-Metro Conference Second Team. Payne was selected in the first round of the 1989 NBA Draft as the 19th overall pick by the Philadelphia 76ers, where he played four seasons (1989-93). He continued to play professional basketball abroad and in the Continental Basketball Association until 2000, with stops at the CBA Tri-Cities (Washington) and with teams in Italy, Japan, Brazil, the Philippines, Cypress, China, Argentina and Australia.

■ Cards Finished 11th in ACC — After winning its first four conference games for the second straight year, Louisville posted a 6-14 record in 2021-22 in its eighth season in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Duke won the ACC regular season championship and Virginia Tech won the ACC Tournament title. Louisville has won at least eight league games in 15 of the last 16 seasons. The Cardinals have finished in the top three in its conference nine of the last 18 years. UofL finished seventh last year, in a tie for second in 2019-20 (15-5 ACC record), sixth in 2018-19, a tie for eighth in 2017-18, was tied for second in 2016-17, and was fourth in its first two years in the ACC in posting identical 12-6 records in each of its first three years in the ACC.

Louisville's 15-5 ACC record in 2019-20 was its best in its six years in the conference and its first time to win more than 12 ACC games. It was the most wins in any conference since UofL won the 2013-14 American Athletic Conference title with a 15-3 conference record.

The Cardinals' have won 22 regular season conference championships (regular season conference championships: American 1, Big East 2, Conference USA 1, Metro 12, Missouri Valley 6; two later vacated). Louisville has won its conference championship or finished second in 28 of the last 46 years, including seven of the last 18 years. In conference tournaments, Louisville has a composite 84-47 record, winning 19 tournament championships (1 American, 3 Big East, 2 C-USA, 11 Metro, 2 KIAC; three later vacated). Pegues was in his fourth year at UofL after working six seasons at Xavier (2012-18). Before his time at Xavier, Pegues spent two seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, the University of Delaware. Pegues had a stellar collegiate career at Delaware, where he earned a degree in communications in 2000. The all-time leading scorer in Delaware men's basketball history with 2,030 points, Pegues led the Blue Hens to two NCAA Tournament appearances while playing under former UD head coach and current Notre Dame head coach Mike Brey from 1996-2000. A native of Washington, D.C., Pegues played professionally in Italy, New Zealand, England and Argentina, as well as one season in the Continental Basketball Association. He guided the Cardinals to a 5-1 record in the first six games while serving as acting head coach and Mack was serving a suspension (7-11 record for the season).

■ ACC Strong in the NCAA Tournament — For just the second time, the ACC had three of the eight teams in the Men's and Women's Final Fours (Duke, North Carolina men, Louisville women). In 2006, three ACC women's teams made the Final Four. The ACC has had a team in the men's championship game for five times in the last seven tournaments and the 28th time in tournament history, including national runner-up North Carolina in the 2022 event.

■ Conference Tournaments -- This is the first time the Cardinals have been a No. 11 seed in the ACC Tournament. UofL was a No. 7 seed in last year's event -- one of two times as a No. 7 seed position -- and have been a No. 4 seed twice, and a No. 9 once.

The ACC Tournament was in Brooklyn when the Cardinals earned their first victory in the event in 2018. The No. 4 seeded Cardinals beat Florida State 82-74 in that 2018 tournament before falling to top-ranked Virginia 95-58.

Louisville's No. 11 seed in the 2022 ACC Tournament is the lowest in a conference tournament for the Cardinals since it entered the 2006 Big East Tournament also with a No. 11 seed in their first year in that league. Louisville did not participate in the 2016 tournament and the 2020 event was cancelled due to COVID before No. 3 seeded UofL played a game.

Louisville held 13 of its 32 opponents under 43 percent from the field during the season and seven under 40 percent. However, 17 of UofL's last 19 foes exceeded that mark, with five over 50 percent against the Cardinals. Louisville was 10th in the ACC and 191st nationally in field goal percentage defense (.437) ... Jarrold West was fifth in the ACC in assists-turnovers ratio (2.38), 17th in steals (1.4) and 21st in assists (2.9). He handed out his 500th career assist vs. Clemson; he finished his career with 517 ... Nine different players led the Cardinals in scoring in Louisville's 32 games ... Louisville gathered steals at a higher rate than its previous season, averaging 6.1 steals in 2021-22 (ninth in the ACC) after averaging 4.8 a game the previous year. Louisville produced eight or more steals in eight games, including the latest with eight at North Carolina on Feb. 21 ... Walk-on Sam Bearden's number changed from 2 to 20 after Russ Smith's No. 2 jersey retirement on Jan. 22 ... Louisville trailed by as many as nine (36-27) in the second half against Wake Forest, marking the 37th time in the last 10 seasons the Cardinals have recovered from nine or more points down to win.

■ Rebounding a Key — Louisville was 10-4 in 2021-22 when winning the rebounding battle, but was outrebounded in 11 of their last 17 games (36-34 advantage in its last game vs. Virginia). The Cardinals ranked 81st in the NCAA in defensive rebounding (26.5 rpg) and 126th in total rebounds per game (36.5). The Cardinals grabbed 12 offensive rebounds vs. Virginia in their last game, their 17th time this season with at least 10 on the offensive glass. UofL had a season-high 17 offensive rebounds vs. Maryland.

Louisville dominated the glass in its two games in the Bahamas, claiming a 47-38 rebounding advantage vs. Mississippi State before outrebounding Maryland 51-25. The plus-26 rebounding margin against Maryland is the largest for the Cardinals since finishing plus-28 against Evansville on Nov. 25, 2020. The margin is the largest for UofL away from home since plus-30 against Northeastern on Nov. 28, 1986. It was the largest rebounding advantage against a current Power Five program since a plus-29 vs. Virginia Tech on Feb. 6, 1986. Louisville held a decisive 46-30 rebounding advantage over NC State in its first ACC outing and a 32-28 edge against the Wolfpack on Jan. 12.

■ Davis, King Sign with Louisville Basketball -- D'Ante "Tae" Davis, 6-6, 175-pound guard from Warren Central High School in Indianapolis, Ind.; and Fredrick King, a 6-10, 220-pound center from Mangrove Cay, Andros, in the Bahamas; each signed a national letter-of-intent to continue their basketball playing careers at the University of Louisville.

Davis averaged 13.5 points and 6.2 rebounds per game as a junior last season in helping Warren Central post a 19-7 record before falling to 4A state finalist Lawrence North by a point in the sectional semifinals. The younger brother of current UofL sophomore guard/forward Dre Davis, Tae is ranked among the nation's top 150 players, including No. 139 by Rivals.com and No. 147 by 247Sports.com. He was an AP high honorable mention all-state selection as a junior in 2020-21, an All-Metropolitan Interscholastic Conference honoree and was named to the Indiana Basketball Coaches Association Underclass All-State Supreme 15. Davis had transferred to Warren Central for the 2020-21 season after his father, D'Andre Davis Sr., became the school's head coach after previously serving six seasons as an assistant coach at Lawrence Central. As a sophomore at Lawrence Central, Tae averaged 10.9 points and 4.7 rebounds per game in 2019-20.

Many collegiate programs became aware of King when he joined the NBA Academy, where he averaged 23 points and 12 rebounds to lead his NBA Academy Latin America team to a 3-0 record at the NBA Academy Games in San Luis Potosi, Mexico in September. In his top two games in the NBA Academy International event, King scored 31 points and grabbed 16 rebounds in an 82-61 win over NBA Africa Red, and totaled 29 points and 13 rebounds in a 93-87 victory over The Skills Factory. King, who turns 18-years-old in February, was the first Bahamian to enroll at the NBA Academy. Before his move to the NBA Academy in January, King's C.I. Gibson team was the GSSSA runner-up last season.

■ Mack Was Out for First Six — Chris Mack, who mutually departed from UofL on Jan. 26, served a university-imposed suspension for six games from Nov. 8 through Nov. 27. The University concluded that while Mack was a victim of an extortion attempt by former assistant coach Dino Gaudio, Mack failed to follow University guidelines, policies, and procedures in handling the matter. The sanctions imposed upon Coach Mack were unrelated to the extortion attempt itself and the ongoing NCAA process. During the suspension, Mack was prohibited from having contact with the men's basketball coaching staff or student-athletes. Mike Pegues, the Cardinals' interim head coach for the final dozen games of the 2021-22 season, served as acting head coach during Mack's suspension and led Louisville to a 5-1 record and the Baha Mar Hoops Bahamas Championship. Pegues was the coach of record for those first six games and finished the season with a 7-11 record as a head coach.

■ Louisville Retired Russ Smith's Number 2 Jersey -- The University of Louisville retired men's basketball All-America guard Russ Smith's No. 2 jersey number in a halftime ceremony of the Cardinals' Jan. 22 game against Notre Dame in the KFC Yum! Center. Smith's No. 2 is the fifth number retired in the Louisville men's basketball program, joining No. 8 Charlie Tyra (1953-57 at UofL), No. 31 Wes Unsel (1965-68), No. 35 Darrell Griffith (1979-80) and No. 42 Pervis Ellison (1985-89). He helped the Cardinals reach two NCAA Final Fours, two Big East Tournament Championships and one with the American Athletic Conference, two regular season co-conference titles (one Big East, one American), three straight NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and the 2013 national title (later vacated).

Following his collegiate career, Smith was selected by the Philadelphia 76ers in the second round of the 2014 NBA Draft with the 47th overall pick, and was subsequently traded to the New Orleans Pelicans. ■ Cards Sixth All-Time in the Polls — Entering this season, Louisville is one of only five schools to be ranked in the AP Top 25 poll at least once during each of the past 18 seasons (since 2002-03), excluding preseason polls (others: Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, North Carolina). Louisville has been ranked in the Associated Press poll on 657 occasions, tied for sixth most all-time. UofL has been among the top ten on 302 occasions, including 14 times in the 2019-20 season. UofL has been ranked among the nation's top 16 in the preseason poll six of the last 10 years (5th in 2020-21, 16th in 2017-18, 13th in '16-17, eighth in '14-15, third in '13-14, second in '12-13, ninth in '11-12).

Louisville finished among the Top 15 in the AP poll in 2019-20 for the 25th time, sixth-most all-time. The 2019-20 season marked the fifth time Louisville remained ranked in the top 13 of the AP poll through the first 18 polls of the season (also 1974-75, 2012-13; polls for 1956-57 and 1966-67 were fewer than 17 weeks).

Louisville has been among the top ten of the AP poll on 302 occasions (sixth-most all-time, 14 of 19 polls in 2019-20) and has been ranked in the top five 136 times (ninth most all-time, nine in 2019-20). With UofL's No. 3 national ranking in the Dec. 23, 2019 AP poll, 2019-20 was the first season in 53 years that the Cardinals remained in the AP Top 5 through the first eight polls (since the 1966-67 season). UofL was ranked as the nation's top team in the AP poll for two weeks in the 2019-20 season.

■ Success vs. Top 25 Foes -- Louisville has won 45 of its last 101 against AP ranked opponents, falling to No. 9 Duke on Jan. 29, 2022 in its last Top 25 matchup. UofL has a 62-69 record against Top 25 teams over the last 12 years (1-2 in 2020-21). The Cardinals have been victorious 10 of the last 29 times it has faced an AP top-five foe. UofL has won 23 of its last 56 games when facing Top 10 teams, spanning the last 12 years.

■ First-Year Payne — While Kenny Payne is Louisville's 23rd men's basketball head coach, he will be the 20th to coach his first major college game as head coach of the Cardinals. Only John C. Hel-dman, Jr., Rick Pitino, and Chris Mack had prior major college head coaching experience among first-year UofL coaches. Before guiding UofL for 30 years, Hall of Fame coach Denny Crum had been an assistant at UCLA after four years as head coach at Pierce Junior College.

■ Conference Success at Home — Louisville has protected its home court well in conference competition in recent years. The Cardinals have a 64-24 record in its conference home games over the last 10 years (.727). UofL has produced an 8-1 or better home record in league play in three of the last 10 years, including 9-1 in 2019-20. In ACC home games over the last eight years, Louisville's 50 wins (50-21 record) is fifth-best in the league behind Virginia (60), Duke (59), Florida State (58) and North Carolina (55). In road games, UofL is tied for fourth with 34 ACC road victories in its eight years in the league (34-36 ACC road record).

■ Cards Came Off a COVID Pause -- Louisville's Dec. 29 game vs. Wake Forest was its first off a pause in basketball activities due to multiple COVID positive tests in the program that forced the Cardinals off the court and to postpone its Dec. 22 game at Kentucky. There were 11 days between games when UofL faced Western Kentucky on Dec. 18 and its next game against WFU on Dec. 29.

■ 12th Season in KFC Yum! Center --

UofL played its 12th season in 2021-22 in the spectacular KFC Yum! Center, located on the banks of the Ohio River in downtown Louisville. The 22,090-seat multi-purpose arena was built at a cost of $238 million and includes 71 luxury suites, 62 four- or six-seat premium boxes, over 2,000 side-court club seats and four party suites with a seating capacity of 32 each.

UofL’s men’s and women’s teams have permanent locker rooms. There are five additional team locker rooms, two officials locker rooms, five star dressing rooms, a full-function media work room and a full-sized basketball practice court on the event level. The seven levels of the arena (including the upper catwalk) include a collective 721,762 square feet, or roughly the area of 13 football fields.

After passing through the one and a half acre landscaped entry plaza that features a basketball-themed fountain, entering fans can visit the 2,500-square foot UofL adidas store or head to their seats using one of the eight escalators or seven elevators within the building.

Lounge space is abundant within the arena. Four spacious donor rooms are available for Cardinal fans, including three that overlook the Ohio River. The 7,000-square foot main concourse restaurant overlooks the river and a main concourse sports bar has views directly into the arena bowl. Two 4,000-square foot club lounges on the event level, as well as the terrace club and premium box lounges, provide amenities for their respective patrons. The KFC Yum! Center served as the site for the NCAA Men’s Basketball Tournament second and third rounds in 2012 and 2015, the NCAA South Regional in 2016 and 2019 and was the site for the 2012 NCAA Women’s Volleyball Championship. A 2023 NCAA men’s basketball regional will be staged in the KFC Yum! Center.
