- >> UofL has stolen 1,004 bases since joining the ACC in 2015, more than any other conference team has attempted.

PLAYER NOTES

- >> Zion Rose was a catalyst in Louisville's lineup as a freshman, especially in ACC play. Rose ranked second among ACC hitters with a .396 batting average in conference play and sixth with a .479 on-base percentage. He led the Cardinals in average, hits, runs, triples and on-base percentage in his first season of ACC play. His .380 overall average was the top mark of any Power Five freshman during the regular season.
- >> Eddie King Jr. turned in a breakout junior season in his second season on the field as a Cardinal. He finished as Louisville's home run and RBI leader after launching five homers in three-game series against Notre Dame. Over the final month of the regular season, King hit 12 home runs in 19 games.
- >> Tucker Biven was the leader of the Louisville bullpen last season, taking over the closer role for the Cardinals. Biven finished the year with a 4-2 record in 24 appearances, picking up five saves. Biven closed out eight of Louisville's 16 wins in ACC play and recorded more than three outs in 13 of his appearances.
- >> Patrick Forbes slides into the spotlight as Louisville's opening night starter in 2025. The junior began his career as a two-way player getting 93 at-bats as a freshman versus just 9.1 innings on the mound. Last season, Forbes worked primarily out of the bullpen with a 3.72 ERA in 12 appearances. He had one plate appearance in 2024, getting hit on the hand on the only pitch he saw and missing a month as a result. Forbes will work as a pitcher only in 2025.
- >> Matt Klein takes over as the primary catcher this spring. The Louisville native split time as a backup in 2023 before having his season cut short due to a knee injury. Klein shared the starting role as a sophomore in 2024 and posted a .297 average with 10 doubles. He had a breakout summer with Cotuit in the Cape Cod League, hitting .375 in 25 games and is in line to play a large role for the Cardinals in his junior season.

The sophomore was the 14th different Louisville player to be on the preseason watch list since 2009 and the first since Jack Payton in 2023.

Rose led the Cardinals with a .380 batting average last season, the top mark of any Power Five freshman during the regular season. He finished the season with 19 extrabase hits, 32 RBIs and 42 runs scored, while swiping 10 bases.

BIVEN ON NCBWA STOPPER OF THE YEAR PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Tucker Biven was one of 76 pitchers named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Preseason Watch List.

The right-hander is the first Louisville player to appear on the preseason watch list since Michael Kirian in 2021. Former Louisville closers Nick Burdi and Lincoln Henzman won the Stopper of the Year award in 2014 and 2017, respectively.

Biven posted a 4-2 mark with five saves working as the closer in 2024. In 24 relief appearances, he turned in a 3.82 ERA, striking out 40 in 35.1 innings.

CARDS FACE CHALLENGING SLATE IN 2025

Louisville will open the 2025 season with games against No. 7 Texas, No. 13 Oklahoma State and No. 12 Arizona in the Shriners Children's College Classic.

The three contests against top 15 teams set the stage for a very challenging 56-game schedule. Louisville will play 11 different opponents ranked in the preseason top 25 in 22 overall games – 11 of which will be away from home.

The Cardinals will play 32 games overall against teams that played in the 2024 NCAA Tournament, including four of the eight teams that reached the 2024 College World Series.

LOUISVILLE COUNTING ON NEW SOURCES OF PRODUCTION

With 25 newcomers on the roster in 2025, the Louisville offense and pitching staff will have a lot of production to replace from last year's squad.

The Cardinals return just 36.4 percent (700 of 1922) of at-bats, 27.3 percent (24 of 88) of home runs and 35 percent (169 or 483) of innings pitched.

Zion Rose leads the way offensively after leading the Cardinals with a .380 average as a freshman, while Eddie King Jr. is back for a fourth season after pacing the way with 14 long balls and 43 RBIs in 2024. Alex Alicea, Matt Klein and Lucas Moore all saw significant time last spring as well.

On the mound, Louisville returns just seven pitchers that threw last year. Tucker Biven's 35.1 innings in 2024 lead the returning group, while Patrick Forbes and Colton Hartman combined to make 12 starts and threw 29 innings apiece.

McDonnell and his coaching staff welcome 25 newcomers into the fold for the 2025 campaign, 10 of which came from the transfer ranks – six four-year, four junior college.

Louisville added six veteran transfers from four-year schools, led by 2024 ABCA Third Team All-American outfielder Garret Pike (Toledo) and 2024 Missouri Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year Brennyn Cutts (Indiana State).

The Cardinals also dipped into the junior college ranks 2024 All-American infielder Jake Munroe (John A. Logan), who competed alongside right-handed pitcher Eli Hoyt (Madison College) with the NJCAA Baseball USA All-Star Team last summer.

In addition to the transfers, Louisville added yet another top-25 recruiting class for the 16th time in McDonnell's 18 years. The Cardinals did not have a high school signee selected in the MLB Draft for the second consecutive year, despite having five players ranked in the top 200.

LOUISVILLE PICKED NINTH IN ACC PRESEASON POLL

The Cardinals were picked to finish ninth overall in the ACC preseason poll by the league's head coaches.

The 2025 season marks the first with 16 teams in the league after the additions of Cal and Stanford. With the expansion, the ACC has eliminated divisions and teams will be ranked 1-16 in the standings.

Louisville won five regular season division titles in its first nine full seasons as a member of the league since joining in 2015.

CARDINALS OPEN SEASON UNRANKED

For the second consecutive season, the Louisville program will open the year without a national ranking.

The Cardinals were not ranked in any of the five national preseason polls. However, Louisville was receiving votes in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association poll.

Louisville went from unranked in the preseason in 2007 to a College World Series appearance in Dan McDonnell's first year. The Cardinals also reached the Super Regional round in 2022 after opening the campaign outside the polls.

FIVE CARDINALS NAMED CAPTAINS FOR 2025 SEASON

Tucker Biven, Eddie King Jr., Matt Klein and Zion Rose along with newcomer Kamau Neighbors were selected as captains for the 2025 season.

A native of New Albany, Ind., Biven is in his third season with the Cardinals. The righthander served as the closer for the Cardinals in 2024, going 4-2 with a 3.82 ERA and recording five saves. Biven was one of three Cardinals to play with the USA Collegiate National Team last summer.

King Jr. is the longest-tenured player on the roster in 2025, heading into his fourth season in a Louisville uniform. The senior outfielder hit .322 last spring, leading the Cardinals with 14 home runs and 43 driven in.

A local Trinity High School product, Klein will put on the uniform for his hometown school for the third season in 2025. He posted a .297 average with 15 extra-base hits and 24 RBIs while splitting time behind the plate last year.

NOTABLE NUMBERS

The Cardinals have stolen at least 100 after leading the ACC with 105 in 2024.

Louisville will play 32 games against 2024 NCAA Tournament teams, including all three on the opening weekend.

A Freshman All-American in 2024, Rose returns for his second season in The Ville. The Chicago native led the Cardinals with a .380 average, notching 19 extra-base hits, driving in 32 and finishing with more walks (19) than strikeouts (18) in his freshman campaign. Like Biven, Rose played with the USA Collegiate National Team in the summer.

Neighbors is set to play his first season with the Cardinals after transferring to Louisville from Cal State Northridge. For the Matadors in 2024, the switch-hitter finished with a .305 average, 12 doubles, 29 RBIs and 48 runs scored.

FEELING AT HOME INSIDE JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since opening the gates at Jim Patterson Stadium in 2005, the Cardinals have won over 77 percent of their games in the ballpark posting a 514-152 record (.772 winning percentage).

The Cardinals are 142-45 on their home field since the start of 2019, winning the 2019 and 2022 NCAA Regionals and the 2019 Super Regional round at home to secure their fifth NCAA College World Series berth. Louisville set a school record for home wins with 36 in 2016 and the Cardinals have registered 30 or more wins at home in six of the last nine full seasons.

CARDINALS TO PLAY EIGHT NATIONALLY TELEVISED GAMES IN 2025

Louisville will play eight nationally televised contests during the 2025 season – seven on the ACC Network and one on the Big Ten Network.

The national TV schedule includes ACC home games against North Carolina (March 16), Cal (March 30) and Florida State (April 27) along with a non-conference date with Oakland (March 12). Louisville will also be featured in national television coverage for its home games against Kentucky (April 8) in the Battle of the Bluegrass and Vanderbilt (May 6) in the Battle of the Barrel. The Cardinals will play at Indiana (April 1) on the Big Ten Network.

Fifty-two of Louisville's 56 regular season games will be televised on an ESPN network, with all of Louisville's non-nationally televised home games and road conference games airing on ACC Network Extra.

LISTEN TO THE CARDS ALL SPRING LONG

For the 10th consecutive season, all regular season contests along with all postseason games will be broadcast on local radio. 93.9 The Ville will serve as the flagship station for the 10th straight season alongside 970 WGTK.

Sean Moth will serve as the Voice of Louisville Baseball for his $24^{\rm th}$ season and will be on the call for all Louisville baseball games this spring.

DAN McDONNELL RADIO SHOW IN 2025

The Dan McDonnell Radio Show returns to the airwaves for its third season in the spring of 2025 with 10 shows set to be broadcast live on 93.9 The Ville and 970 WGTK throughout the season.

TRIO OF CARDINALS COMPETE WITH USA COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM

Tucker Biven, Patrick Forbes and Zion Rose each donned the Stars & Stripes last summer competing with the USA Collegiate National Team.

Biven and Forbes were each part of the roster that competed in the International Friendship Series against Chinese Taipei. Forbes started the opening game of the series and allowed just one run while striking out five in four innings. Biven worked 2.2 scoreless frames in the series finale, punching out five of his own.

Rose competed as part of the Summer League Tour roster, playing against various collegiate summer league all-star teams across the Carolinas, Virginia and Tennessee. Rose picked up three hits and stole a pair of bases in four games.

TWO CARDINALS SELECTED IN 2024 MLB DRAFT. FIVE OTHERS SIGN PROFESSIONAL CONTRACTS

The Louisville program continued to pump talent into professional baseball in 2024 with two players chosen in the MLB Draft and five others signing professional contracts.

Sebastian Gongora (11th Round, Baltimore Orioles) and Kaleb Corbett (20th Round, Tampa Bay Rays) each had their name called, giving Louisville 105 MLB Draft selections under Dan McDonnell.

Five other student-athletes off the 2024 team signed contracts with independent leagues – JT Benson (Lake Country DockHounds, American Association), Ryan McCoy (New York Boulders, Frontier League), Luke Napleton (Lake Country DockHounds, American Association), Riley Phillips (Great Falls Voyagers, Pioneer League) and Evan Webster (Florence Y'alls, Frontier League).

LOUISVILLE CONTINUES TO EXCEL IN CLASSROOM

Continuing to pair on-field success with academic achievement, the University of Louisville baseball program has yet another successful run in the classroom during the fall semester.

The Louisville baseball team wrapped up the fall semester with a 3.486 cumulative team grade point average. The Cardinals have now finished with a 3.0 or higher in 27 consecutive semesters. Forty-four student-athletes turned in a 3.0 GPA or better during the fall.

The span of 27 straight semesters with a team GPA of 3.0 or better coincides with unparalleled success on the field for Louisville, which has four College World Series appearances, seven NCAA Super Regional berths, nine NCAA Regional bids and eight conference championships during that time.

ELEVEN FORMER CARDINALS ON MLB ROSTERS IN 2024

During Dan McDonnell's tenure, the Louisville baseball program has become a pipeline into professional baseball. The Cardinals have had 105 student-athletes selected in the MLB Draft over the last 18 years and had 43 former Cardinals in professional baseball at the end of the 2024 season.

Louisville's reach is stretching across the highest level of baseball, as 11 former Cardinals were on MLB rosters during the 2024 season - Nick Burdi (Yankees), Henry Davis (Pirates), Reid Detmers (Angels), Adam Duvall (Braves), Tyler Fitzgerald (Giants), Chad Green (Blue Jays), Bryan Hoeing (Marlins/Padres), Matt Koch (Rockies), Bobby Miller (Dodgers), Josh Rogers (Rockies) and Will Smith (Dodgers).

Louisville has had 24 players make their Major League debuts since the start of the 2014 season, the third-most of any program in the country.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall capacity of more than 4,000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted nine NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022) and six NCAA Super Regionals (2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center. Prior to the 2015 season, the University of Louisville partnered with ANC Sports for the installation of a new LED video board in right-centerfield at Jim Patterson Stadium. The all-digital surface more than quadrupled the size of the previous video space and measures 36-feet wide and 23-feet tall.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The playing field was completely resurfaced in the summer of 2013 providing the Cardinals with one of the nation's best surfaces. The exterior of the ballpark has elements that mirror UofL's nearby football facility.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound. The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

Prior to the 2023 season, enhancements were done to the entrance and concourse of the stadium. A new entry gate featuring six new columns with arched entry ways was built in addition to the third base concourse being widened to provide additional space for concessions while improving the flow of patrons.

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices along with The Henry Davis Locker Room, which officially opened in Spring of 2024. Behind a lead gift from the former No. 1 overall pick, the locker room features state-of-the-art lockers for each player, upgraded bathroom and shower facilities and even includes a barber shop. The building is also home to a weight room and training room – newly updated in 2024, a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, equipment room and laundry facilities.

The Cardinals have won nearly 78 percent of their games at Jim Patterson Stadium since opening the gates during the 2005 season. Of the 15 NCAA postseason rounds contested at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Louisville baseball program has advanced through 12 of those, including sweeping the 2019 NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional to clinch the program's fifth College World Series appearance. In NCAA Championship games at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Cardinals have produced a 37-10 record overall.
