THE FIRST PITCH

WELCOME TO OMAHA
›› The University of Louisville baseball team starts up play at the College World Series on Friday at 7 p.m. ET against Oregon State at Charles Schwab Field in Omaha. The game will be televised on ESPN and can be heard on 93.9 The Ville and 970 WGTK.

THE CARDS RETURN TO AMERICA'S HEARTLAND
›› Louisville is back in Omaha for the sixth time in program history and the first time since 2019. The Cardinals previously reached the College World Series in 2007, 2013, 2014, 2017 and 2019. Louisville's deepest run came in its most-recent trip, reaching the bracket final in 2019.

LOUISVILLE'S PATH TO OMAHA
›› The Cardinals started the road to Omaha by winning the Nashville Regional, just the second time in program history the Cardinals had won a road regional. Louisville then defeated Miami in three games in the Louisville Super Regional to punch its sixth ticket to the College World Series.

THE LOUISVILLE SIDE OF THE BRACKET
›› Louisville will take on Oregon State in its opening contest Friday night. The Cardinals will then play either Arizona or Coastal Carolina on Sunday. Oregon State defeated the Cards in the 2013 CWS in the only previous meeting between the two programs. Louisville's last meeting with Coastal was a loss in the 2002 Athens Regional. Meanwhile, the Cardinals notched a 13-1 mercy rule victory over Arizona in Arlington, Texas, back in February of this season.

LOUISVILLE IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

›› Making their 14th NCAA Championship appearance in the 19 seasons under head coach Dan McDonnell, the Cardinals are 56-34 overall in NCAA postseason games during that span.

›› Louisville won a road regional for just the second time in program history after sweeping its way through the Nashville Regional. The last time the Cards won a regional on the road was in 2007 at Missouri.

›› Louisville played in its 10th super regional, all since 2007. The Cardinals are one of five programs to have appeared in 10 super regionals during that time – Florida State, LSU, Florida, North Carolina.

›› The Cardinals were among nine ACC teams selected to the 2025 NCAA Championship – Clemson, Duke, Florida State, Georgia Tech, Louisville, Miami, NC State, North Carolina and Wake Forest.

›› Louisville has now advanced to the College World Series for the sixth time in its 15 NCAA Championship berths. The Cardinals are 39-14 in NCAA Regional games, 13-10 in NCAA Super Regional games and 4-10 in College World Series games.

›› The Cardinals are appearing in the College World Series for the fifth time since 2013, tied for the second-most among all programs over that time.

›› Louisville competed against 13 of the other 63 teams in this year's NCAA Championship field during the regular season going 13-13 against those teams.

›› The Cardinals played five of the 16 regional hosts during the regular season – No. 1 Vanderbilt, No. 2 Texas, No. 5 North Carolina, No. 9 Florida State and No. 11 Clemson – posting a 7-4 mark in those 11 games.

›› During his previous 20 seasons as a collegiate coach entering 2025, including his final two seasons as an assistant at Ole Miss in 2005 and 2006, McDonnell advanced to 15 NCAA Regionals and 11 NCAA Super Regionals to go along with five College World Series berths.

›› The Cardinals have just one player on the current roster who played in the NCAA Tournament prior to this year. Brennyn Cutts is the lone Cardinal to have experience in the postseason, playing in the 2024 NCAA Lexington Regional for Indiana State. Cutts allowed just two runs in a complete game effort to send the Sycamores to the regional final.

ONE OF THE NATION'S ELITE BASEBALL PROGRAMS

›› Louisville owns the fourth-most wins in the country (791) since Dan McDonnell was hired in 2007.

›› The Cardinals have been to six College World Series during McDonnell's tenure including five since 2013, the second-most nationally.

›› Louisville is one of two schools (LSU) to have played in eight Super Regionals since 2013.

›› The Cardinals have had 105 players drafted since 2007, the most in the ACC.

›› From 2014-24, Louisville had 24 players make their MLB debut, the third-highest total of any college baseball program.

›› Louisville had nine former players active and on a MLB roster on Opening Day in 2024, the most of any program in the country.

TEAM NOTES

›› Louisville has reached 40 wins for the 14th time under Dan McDonnell. Prior to his arrival, the program record for wins was 39.

›› The Louisville offense has tallied double digit hits in 34 games this season, going 29-5 in those contests.

›› Louisville has scored 10 runs or more in 23 games this season, including 13 ACC contests.

›› The Cardinals are 37-6 this season when outhitting their opponent and 1-15 when losing the hit battle.

›› Louisville is 20-4 when it hits two or more homers in a game.

›› Louisville is 29-4 when it limits the opposition to five runs or less and 38-9 when its opponent is kept in single digits.

›› The Cardinals have 18 come-from-behind wins this season, including five walk-off victories.

›› Louisville is 202-5-1 when leading after eight innings since the start of 2019, including a 25-0 mark this season. The Cardinals are 690-20-1 (.971) when taking a lead into the ninth inning during Dan McDonnell's tenure.

›› Entering the 2025 season, Louisville led all ACC teams in total wins, conference wins, runs, doubles, triples, RBIs, stolen bases, innings pitched, ERA, shutouts, saves and opponents' batting average since it joined the ACC prior to the 2015 season.

›› UofL has stolen 1,159 bases since joining the ACC in 2015, more than any other conference team has attempted.

›› Twenty-four Cardinals have made their Louisville debuts this season, including 14 that made collegiate debuts.

PLAYER NOTES

›› Eddie King Jr. heads into the College World Series on a tear, going 20-for-36 (.556) over the last 10 games with six doubles, seven homers, 17 RBIs and 11 runs scored. King took home Nashville Regional Most Valuable Player honors after hitting .500 (6-for-12) with four RBIs in the three games. The senior led the Cardinals in home runs and RBIs last season and has set new career marks in both this spring with 15 and 56, respectively. The senior has been at his best against the best competition throughout his career, as 31 of his 36 home runs have come against Power Four teams. All 17 homers he has hit this spring have come against Power Four teams or in the postseason.

›› Jake Munroe was a junior college All-American and the career home run leader at John A. Logan before transferring to Louisville. Since his arrival in The Ville, Munroe has been a mainstay in the middle of the Cards order. Munroe hit three home runs in the Super Regional to become the fourth Louisville player to reach double digit home runs this season. In six postseason games, Munroe is hitting .400 with three homers and a team-best seven runs scored.

›› Lucas Moore has been the ultimate weapon at the top of the lineup for the Cards. Moore leads the Cardinals and the ACC with 83 runs scored, third-most in all of Division I. The speedy outfielder is also the national leader in stolen bases going 51-for-52 this spring. He also ranks second in the ACC in hits, fifth in triples and ranks as the toughest hitter in the ACC to strike out. Moore's 51 stolen bases are the second-most in a single season in Louisville history. His 83 runs scored are tied for third-most in program history and most since Adam Duvall had 83 in 2009.

›› Matt Klein had an excellent first month to begin his junior campaign, hitting .342 with 26 RBIs in 22 games before getting hit by a pitch and missing the next two months. Klein made his return to the field off the bench in Louisville's ACC Championship game against Pitt, but didn't return to the starting lineup until the NCAA Regional. Klein homered in each of the first two games of the regional and has reached base in all six games during the postseason.

›› Zion Rose had an exceptional freshman campaign that saw him hit .380 with 19 extra-base hits and 32 RBIs while finishing with more walks than strikeouts. The 2025 season has seen more of the same but with more damage. Rose is hitting .315 with 30 extra-base hits and a team-leading 63 RBIs. The increase in production hasn't affected his plate discipline though, as he has 30 walks and eight HBPs to just 35 strikeouts. Rose has also increased his production on the basepaths, going 30-for-33 in stolen bases.

›› Alex Alicea has gutted out the back half of the season, despite playing with an injured thumb. The Louisville shortstop had five hits during the NCAA Regional and reached base all four times in the final against Wright State. A switch-hitter normally, Alicea has only hit left-handed since the start of May. Despite never previously batting left-handed against left-handed pitching, Alicea is 5-for-11 with four RBIs hitting left-on-left this season.

›› Patrick Forbes has pitched just 66.0 innings this season after missing time due to injury. However, the right-hander has racked up strikeouts at an astounding rate. After his nine strikeouts against Miami in the super regional opener, Forbes surpassed the century mark and is just two shy of cracking Louisville's top 10 single season totals. The Bowling Green, Ky., native leads the ACC and ranks third nationally with 14.59 strikeouts per nine innings. Forbes has struck out nine or more in seven starts this season.

›› Tucker Biven served as Louisville's closer each of the last two seasons, but has recently taken on a new role. The junior pitched in the weekend rotation in the final two weekends of the regular season and then again in the two postseason rounds. Biven has received a no-decision in all four starts, but allowed just five earned runs over 17.1 innings with 15 strikeouts.

›› Ethan Eberle began the season as a key reliever for the Cards, but has since moved into the weekend rotation. The southpaw has allowed three runs or fewer in six of his last seven starts, including a dominant showing in the regional final. Eberle set new career marks with 6.1 shutout innings and 11 strikeouts in Louisville's regional-clinching victory over Wright State. He then gave up just two runs over five innings in game three of the super regional.

›› Justin West was having a tough junior season through two months, sporting a 12.00 ERA after giving up five runs without recording an out at NC State on April 11. However, the lefty has been lights out since that time. In the 11 relief appearances that have followed, West has given up just two runs over 17.1 innings (1.04 ERA) with 21 strikeouts. The junior picked up the win against Vanderbilt in the NCAA Regional with 2.1 shutout innings out of the bullpen.

›› Wyatt Danilowicz and Jake Schweitzer have been a dynamic duo at the end of games for the Cardinals. Schweitzer is 4-2 with a 2.15 ERA and three saves in his freshman season, while Danilowicz also has three saves and a nearly-identical 2.25 ERA. Opponents are hitting a combined .177 against the pair in nearly 70 innings of work. Schweitzer threw three shutout innings for the win in the series-clinching victory over Miami, while Danilowicz has five hitless innings in three postseason appearances.

CARDINALS PITCHING LEADING WAY IN POSTSEASON
For much of the regular season, it was the offense that led the way for Louisville. However, it was the pitching staff that set the tone for the Cardinals in the regional and super regional rounds.

Louisville pitchers have allowed just 12 earned runs over 53 innings with 64 strikeouts and held opponents to a .192 average. Louisville leads all 64 postseason teams with a 2.04 ERA in the NCAA Tournament.

Patrick Forbes, Tucker Biven and Ethan Eberle have been outstanding in six starts. The trio has combined for seven earned runs in 31.1 innings with 42 strikeouts.

The bullpen has been excellent as well. The quartet of arms that have multiple relief appearances in the postseason – Brennyn Cutts, Justin West, Wyatt Danilowicz and Jake Schweitzer – have allowed just one run in 18.2 innings.

ALICEA NAMED BROOKS WALLACE AWARD SEMIFINALIST
Louisville shortstop Alex Alicea was one of 30 players nationally to be named a semifinalist for the Brooks Wallace Award, which goes to the best shortstop in the country.

Alicea has been a key piece for the Cardinals both at the plate and defensively in 2025. The switch hitter has a .310 batting average with 14 extra-base hits and 47 runs scored, and is tied for third in the ACC with 30 stolen bases in 36 attempts.

On the defensive side of the diamond, Alicea has just three errors in 200 chances this season and has committed just one error since March 16.

FIVE CARDINALS EARN ALL-ACC HONORS
Louisville had five players named to the All-ACC teams following the regular season.

Lucas Moore and Zion Rose were each first team selections, with Eddie King Jr. on the second team and Tague Davis on the third team. Davis and Ethan Eberle were named to the All-Freshman team as well.

The five players on the All-ACC teams were the most for the Cardinals since having eight recognized in 2022.

CARDS GO BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 2008 IN RECORD INNING IN ATLANTA
Louisville had a second inning to remember in the opening game of the series at Georgia Tech. The Cardinals sent 19 men to the plate in the inning, 14 of which reached consecutively, and scored 13 runs on their way to a 16-2 win.

The 13 runs matched a Louisville record for a single inning, equaling the total the Cardinals scored in the opening frame against Western Kentucky on April 23, 2024.

During the outburst, Zion Rose, Jake Munroe and Eddie King Jr. hit back-to-back-to-back home runs. It was a feat the Cardinals had not accomplished since Justin McClanahan, Chris Dominguez and Andrew Clark did so at Ohio State on April 16, 2008.

DAVIS SETS LOUISVILLE FRESHMAN HOME RUN RECORD, NAMED FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN
Tague Davis had a reputation for big power as a standout at Malvern Preperatory School, and that power has been on full display during his freshman season.

Davis leads the Cardinals and tied for the ACC lead in the regular season with 18 home runs, helping him earn Freshman All-America honors from the NCBWA and Perfect Game. The freshman has three multi-homer games this season, all coming in ACC play.

Davis is third among freshmen across all three levels of NCAA baseball in home runs and has set the Louisville record for home runs by a freshman, surpassing Alex Binelas (14 as a true FR in 2019) and Chris Dominguez (15 as a RS-FR in 2007).

CARDINALS TURN IN RECORD DAY ON BASEPATHS AGAINST FLORIDA STATE
Louisville has been one of the best teams in the country when it comes to stolen bases during Dan McDonnell's tenure. However, the Cards have never had a better day than they did in game two against Florida State.

Louisville set a program record with 14 stolen bases in the Saturday victory over Florida State, surpassing the previous record of 10 against Eastern Kentucky in 2013. The 14 stolen bases were the fourth-highest total by a team in Division I this season, while no other Power Four program has reached double figures in a game.

The Cardinals tied the ACC record for stolen bases in a game – Notre Dame against Chicago State in 2019 – and set the ACC record for most in a conference game.

MOORE FLEXES POWER AND SPEED
Lucas Moore has been one of the top players in the ACC this season and put himself in rare company during the Florida State series.

In game two against Florida State, Moore swiped four bases as part of Louisville's record-setting effort. The sophomore then hit a pair of homers, including a grand slam, in the run-rule victory in the finale. Moore followed it up with another four stolen base showing versus Eastern Kentucky.

Moore is one of three Power Four players this season to have a game with four or more stolen bases and another with multiple home runs. However, Moore is the only one to accomplish both things against a Power Four team.

CARDS HIT THE CENTURY MARK ON THE BASES, ONLY TEAM WITH THREE OVER 30
With its milestone day on the basepaths against Florida State, Louisville surpassed the century mark in stolen bases. The Cardinals have stolen 100 or more stolen bases in 10 of the last 12 full seasons.

The Cardinals lead the ACC with 155 stolen bases entering the College World Series. Louisville is seventh nationally and first among Power Four programs. The Cards also led the ACC with 82 stolen bases in conference play, more than any other team attempted.

Lucas Moore leads the country with 51 on the season, the second Louisville player to steal 50 in a single season. Alex Alicea and Zion Rose are each tied for third in the ACC with 30. The Cardinals have three players with 30 stolen bases for the first time and are the only team in the country to have three players with at least 30. Louisville has the only three players in the College World Series with 30 stolen bases.

FRESHMEN ARMS LOGGING BIG INNINGS FOR CARDS
Louisville pitching coach Roger Williams returned just seven arms that pitched for the Cardinals during the 2024 season, leaving a lot of innings up for grabs.

A large portion of the void left on the mound has been filled by freshmen this spring. Louisville's freshmen class, plus TJ Schlageter who did not pitch at all last season, has

NOTABLE NUMBERS

5 The Cardinals are appearing in their fifth CWS since 2013, tied for the second-most nationally in that span.

1 The Louisville pitching staff ranks first in ERA during the NCAA Tournament with a 2.04 mark.

accounted for 39.1 percent (206.0 IP) of the team's innings this season.

Ethan Eberle is 6-2 and pitching in the weekend rotation, while Schlageter is 3-2 with a 4.82 ERA. Jake Schweitzer is 4-2 with a 2.15 ERA in 37.2 innings out of the bullpen as well, while Jack Brown is third on the team in appearances.

MOORE STREAKING THROUGH 2025 SEASON
Centerfielder Lucas Moore had a good freshman year in 2024, but he is currently in the midst of a breakout sophomore season.

Moore leads the ACC in stolen bases and runs, ranking first and third nationally in each, respectively. The sophomore enters the College World Series with 83 runs scored, tied for the third-most in a single season in Louisville history.

Moore saw his 35-game reached base streak come to an end at Clemson, tied for the fifth-longest at Louisville since 2000. He also put together a 22-game hit streak as well, just the sixth Louisville player to hit in at least 20 straight since 2000.

CARDINALS AMBUSHING OPPOSING PITCHERS EARLY
The Louisville offense has been excellent this season and its done its best damage early in contests.

The Cardinals have scored 200 runs in the first three innings this season, including 106 in the first three innings of their 30 ACC games.

In conference play, opposing starting pitchers worked 136.2 innings while surrendering 110 runs.

CARDIAC CARDS WINNING IN DRAMATIC FASHION
With Louisville's 4-3 win over Kentucky on April 8, the Cardinals recorded their fifth walk-off victory of the 2025 campaign.

Louisville opened the season with a 4-3 walk-off victory over Texas and also notched an 8-6 walk-off win in the series opener against St. John's, a 9-8 walk-off win over Morehead State and an 11-10 walk-off victory over Cal. The five walk-off wins have surpassed the Cardinals' total of three from the 2023 and 2024 seasons combined.

Two of Louisville's five walk-off wins have come with the Cardinals trailing entering the ninth inning. Louisville has two wins this season when trailing after eight innings after going 3-76 in the same scenario from 2020-24.

CARDINALS PUT TOGETHER RECORD OFFENSIVE SHOWING AT NC STATE
The Louisville offense has been really good throughout this season, but no day was better than the 25-8 victory in game two at NC State.

The 25 runs were the most in an ACC game for the Cardinals since joining the league in 2015, and the most in any game since scoring 32 in a win over Alabama A&M on April 26, 2019. The 17-run margin of victory was the largest ever for the Cardinals in an ACC game as well.

Louisville's eight doubles and 21 hits were its most since having the same against Bellarmine on April 12, 2023, and its six home runs were the most since hitting six against Akron on March 5, 2022. The 14 extra-base hits were the most since the 2019 Alabama A&M game as well.

FORBES NAMED TO GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD MIDSEASON WATCH LIST
Right-hander Patrick Forbes was one of 45 players across the country on the midseason watch list for the Golden Spikes Award.

Working as the Friday night starter for the Cards, Forbes was 2-1 with a 3.89 ERA in seven starts at the midway point. The junior had 65 strikeouts in 37.0 innings, ranking third in the country in strikeouts per nine innings and fourth nationally in total strikeouts.

Forbes struck out nine or more in five of his first seven starts, including a career-best 13 on March 28 against Cal.

DAVIS, FORBES EARN MIDSEASON ALL-AMERICA RECOGNITION FROM PERFECT GAME
Tague Davis and Patrick Forbes were each recognized for their strong work in the first half of the season as Perfect Game released its midseason All-America teams.

Forbes was on the Third Team, while Davis was named to the Freshman First Team.

Forbes was the ACC leader in strikeouts through his first seven starts, and Davis led all Division I freshmen with 10 home runs.

LOUISVILLE PICKED NINTH IN ACC PRESEASON POLL
The Cardinals were picked to finish ninth overall in the ACC preseason poll by the league's head coaches.

The 2025 season marks the first with 16 teams in the league after the additions of Cal and Stanford. With the expansion, the ACC has eliminated divisions and teams will be ranked 1-16 in the standings.

Louisville won five regular season division titles in its first nine full seasons as a member of the league since joining in 2015.

CARDINALS OPEN SEASON UNRANKED
For the second consecutive season, the Louisville program opened the year without a national ranking.

The Cardinals were not ranked in any of the five national preseason polls. However, Louisville was receiving votes in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association poll.

Louisville went from unranked in the preseason in 2007 to a College World Series appearance in Dan McDonnell's first year. The Cardinals also reached the Super Regional round in 2022 after opening the campaign outside the polls.

FIVE CARDINALS NAMED CAPTAINS FOR 2025 SEASON
Tucker Biven, Eddie King Jr., Matt Klein and Zion Rose along with newcomer Kamau Neighbors were selected as captains for the 2025 season.

A native of New Albany, Ind., Biven is in his third season with the Cardinals. The right-hander served as the closer for the Cardinals in 2024, going 4-2 with a 3.82 ERA and recording five saves. Biven was one of three Cardinals to play with the USA Collegiate National Team last summer.

King Jr. is the longest-tenured player on the roster in 2025, heading into his fourth season in a Louisville uniform. The senior outfielder hit .322 last spring, leading the Cardinals with 14 home runs and 43 driven in.

A local Trinity High School product, Klein will put on the uniform for his hometown school for the third season in 2025. He posted a .297 average with 15 extra-base hits and 24 RBIs while splitting time behind the plate last year.

A Freshman All-American in 2024, Rose returns for his second season in The Ville. The Chicago native led the Cardinals with a .380 average, notching 19 extra-base hits, driving in 32 and finishing with more walks (19) than strikeouts (18) in his freshman campaign. Like Biven, Rose played with the USA Collegiate National Team in the summer.

Neighbors is set to play his first season with the Cardinals after transferring to Louisville from Cal State Northridge. For the Matadors in 2024, the switch-hitter finished with a .305 average, 12 doubles, 29 RBIs and 48 runs scored.

LISTEN TO THE CARDS ALL SPRING LONG
For the 10th consecutive season, all regular season contests along with all postseason games will be broadcast on local radio. 93.9 The Ville will serve as the flagship station for the 10th straight season alongside 970 WGTK.

Sean Moth will serve as the Voice of Louisville Baseball for his 24th season and will be on the call for all Louisville baseball games this spring.

LOUISVILLE CONTINUES TO EXCEL IN CLASSROOM
Continuing to pair on-field success with academic achievement, the University of Louisville baseball program has yet another successful run in the classroom during the spring semester.

The Louisville baseball team wrapped up the spring semester with a 3.553 cumulative team grade point average, the highest semester GPA in program history. The Cardinals have now finished with a 3.0 or higher in 28 consecutive semesters. Thirty-nine student-athletes turned in a 3.0 GPA or better during the spring.

The span of 28 straight semesters with a team GPA of 3.0 or better coincides with unparalleled success on the field for Louisville, which has five College World Series appearances, eight NCAA Super Regional berths, 11 NCAA Regional bids and eight conference championships during that time.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall capacity of more than 4,000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted nine NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022) and seven NCAA Super Regionals (2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2025).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center. Prior to the 2015 season, the University of Louisville partnered with ANC Sports for the installation of a new LED video board in right-centerfield at Jim Patterson Stadium. The all-digital surface more than quadrupled the size of the previous video space and measures 36-feet wide and 23-feet tall.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The playing field was completely resurfaced in the summer of 2013 providing the Cardinals with one of the nation's best surfaces. The exterior of the ballpark has elements that mirror UofL's nearby football facility.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound. The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

Prior to the 2023 season, enhancements were done to the entrance and concourse of the stadium. A new entry gate featuring six new columns with arched entry ways was built in addition to the third base concourse being widened to provide additional space for concessions while improving the flow of patrons.

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices along with The Henry Davis Locker Room, which officially opened in Spring of 2024. Behind a lead gift from the former No. 1 overall pick, the locker room features state-of-the-art lockers for each player, upgraded bathroom and shower facilities and even includes a barber shop. The building is also home to a weight room and training room – newly updated in 2024, a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, equipment room and laundry facilities.

The Cardinals have won nearly 78 percent of their games at Jim Patterson Stadium since opening the gates during the 2005 season. Of the 16 NCAA postseason rounds contested at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Louisville baseball program has advanced through 13 of those, including winning the 2025 NCAA Super Regional to clinch the program's sixth College World Series appearance. In NCAA Championship games at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Cardinals have produced a 39-11 record overall.

| NOTES | 2025 All-ACC First Team | 2025 Nashville Regional All-Tournament Team |

Became the second player in Louisville history to steal 50 bases in a season ... Reached base in 35 consecutive games from Feb. 16 - April 17, tied for the fifth-longest at Louisville since 2000 ... Had a 22-game hitting streak from March 12-April 17, just the sixth Louisville hitting streak of 20 or more games on record ... Gave Louisville an opening night win with a 10th inning walk-off single against Texas on Feb. 14 ... Picked up three hits and scored three times against Butler on Feb. 26 ... Went 4-for-6 with three RBIs and two runs scored in the win at Virginia Tech on March 22 ... Hit a leadoff home run against Cal on March 29 for his first career long ball ... Went 8-for-10 with a triple, homer, eight runs scored, seven RBIs and three stolen bases in the three-game series against Boston College ... Went 7-for-13 with eight RBIs in the series against Florida State, tallying a career-high four stolen bases in game two and his first career multi-homer game with a career-best six RBIs in the series finale ... Matched his career highs with four runs and four stolen bases against EKU on April 29 ... Had four hits and five RBIs in the win at Georgia Tech on May 9 ... Had his fourth four-hit game of the year against Wake Forest on May 17 ... Homered in the NCAA Regional opener against ETSU on May 30.

In 2024 ... Played in 48 games in his first season, making 22 starts (19 in CF, 2 in LF, 1 at DH) ... Finished with a .318 average, six doubles and a triple ... Drove in 14 and scored 30 runs ... Went 17-for-21 in stolen bases, ranking sixth in the ACC during the regular season ... Made his Louisville debut on Opening Day, starting in left field against Indiana State ... Was the first Louisville true freshman to start in the season opener since Tyler Fitzgerald in 2017.

Lettered three years in baseball at Badin High School ... Three-time All-State selection ... Hit .426 for his three-year career with 27 doubles, 10 triples and 130 runs scored ... Also stole 99 bases, including 51 during his sophomore season ... Ranked No. 450 overall player and No. 9 in the state of Ohio by Prep Baseball Report.
