THE FIRST PITCH

A WEEKEND ON THE ROAD

>> The University of Louisville baseball team continues its five-game road swing with a three-game set at Duke. The series gets underway on Thursday night at 8 p.m. ET. The first two games of the weekend will be televised on ACC Network with the finale on ACC Network Extra. All three games will be available on 93.9 The Ville.

BACK ON TRACK IN LEXINGTON

>> Louisville picked up a midweek victory over Eastern Kentucky on Tuesday, winning 17-7 in seven innings in Lexington. Bayram Hot and Tague Davis hit back-to-back homers in the first inning, and Ben Slanker hit his second grand slam of the season in the fourth.

DUKE SERIES HISTORY

>> Louisville is 10-6 all-time against Duke with all 16 previous meetings coming since the Cardinals joined the league in 2015. Louisville was swept the last time the two teams met, losing three straight one-run games in April of 2023.

JACK COOMBS FIELD DEBUT

>> Louisville and Duke have met 10 times in Durham, including once in the ACC Championship. This will be the first time the Cardinals have played at Jack Coombs Field, having played all 10 previous contests at Durham Bulls Athletic Park.

ONE OF THE NATION'S ELITE BASEBALL PROGRAMS

- » Louisville owns the fourth-most wins in the country (811) since Dan McDonnell was hired in 2007.
- » The Cardinals have been to six College World Series during McDonnell's tenure including five since 2013, the second-most nationally.
- » Louisville is one of two schools (LSU) to have played in eight Super Regionals since 2013.
- » The Cardinals have had 111 players drafted since 2007, the second-most in the ACC.
- » From 2014-25, Louisville had 25 players make their MLB debut, the fourth-highest total of any college baseball program.

TEAM NOTES

- » UofL is 62-41-2 in its 105 all-time ACC series (one series ended 1-1, one ended 1-1-1) since joining the league and is 69-33-1 in its series finales during that span, including a 25-20-1 record in rubber games.
- » Entering the weekend, the Cardinals rank top 15 nationally in batting average, hits, runs, runs per game, slugging percentage, on-base percentage and triples.
- » Louisville had just one home run with multiple runners on base in the first 15 games of the season. The Cardinals hit six such homers in two games against Marshall – four three-run, two grand slams – and have added four more since.
- » The Cards had nine offensive innings with at least seven runs scored last season. Louisville already has seven this spring.
- » Louisville is 214-5-1 when leading after eight innings since the start of 2019, including a 10-0 mark this season. The Cardinals are 698-20-1 (.971) when taking a lead into the ninth inning during Dan McDonnell's tenure.
- » Entering the 2026 season, Louisville led all ACC teams in total wins, conference wins, runs, doubles, triples, RBIs, stolen bases, innings pitched, ERA, shutouts, saves and opponents' batting average since it joined the ACC prior to the 2015 season.
- » UofL has stolen 1,219 bases since joining the ACC in 2015, more than any other conference team has attempted.
- » Eighteen Cardinals have made their Louisville debuts this season, including 13 that made collegiate debuts.

PLAYER NOTES

- » Tague Davis set the Louisville freshman home run record with 18 long balls in his first season. The first baseman tied for the ACC regular season lead in home runs and was the first Louisville freshman to hit double-digit homers since Alex Binelas in 2019. Davis homered in five consecutive games from March 6-11, joining Mark Jurich in 2004 as the only Cards to homer in five straight since 2000. Davis heads into the weekend as the national leader in RBIs at 57. The sophomore is also second nationally in home runs, third in total bases and ninth in hits, leading the ACC in all four categories. He's also fourth in slugging percentage and 12th in runs.
- » Wyatt Danilowicz transitioned into a starter role this spring and came out of the gates with six shutout innings in his first career start against Michigan State. He has one-upped that start in each of the last two weeks, turning in consecutive starts of seven shutout innings with just two hits allowed against North Carolina and Pitt. The southpaw struck out a career high 11 in the win at UNC. Danilowicz became the first Louisville starter with consecutive starts of 7.0 shutout innings since Reid Detmers in 2019, and the first with consecutive ACC starts of 7.0 shutout innings since Brendan McKay in 2017.
- » Bayram Hot split time at second base in 2025 in his first season with the Cardinals after transferring from Marist, hitting .326 with three doubles and three homers in 92 at-bats. The senior has started every game this spring at third base and has been excellent at the plate. Hot leads the team with a .419 average and currently ranks top six in the ACC in batting average, hits, on-base percentage, doubles and hit by pitch.
- » Ben Slanker turned in an All-MAC season at Ohio in 2025, hitting .302 with 21 homers and 69 RBIs. He homered in each of the first two games of the season, but struggled to the tune of 1-for-16 from Feb. 15 through March 8. He found his form again recently however, going 14-for-37 (.378) in 13 games with five homers and 22 RBIs. Slanker has also drawn 15 walks and two HBPs during that time.

MCDONNELL SECURES 800TH VICTORY

With the series sweep of Central Michigan, head coach Dan McDonnell reached the 800-win mark.

At the time of his 800th win, there were 21 active head coaches with 800 wins at the Division I level. Only current Mississippi State head coach Brian O'Connor got to 800 wins faster than McDonnell – 1149 games vs. McDonnell's 1164.

McDonnell is also the first coach in Louisville athletics history to reach 800 career wins.

ROSE SELECTED CO-CAPTAIN OF LOU GEHRIG COMMUNITY IMPACT TEAM

The team is presented by Phi Delta Theta and the Live Like Lou Foundation and was selected based on outstanding achievements in three key areas – demonstrating a substantial commitment to their community through service and philanthropy, embodying the generous spirit and character of Lou Gehrig, and making remarkable contributions to the success of their respective teams.

Louisville has now been recognized in all three years of the team’s existence, as Kamau Neighbors was named to the 2025 team, while Dylan Hoy was an honorable mention selection on the inaugural team in 2024.

ALICEA NAMED TO BROOKS WALLACE AWARD WATCH LIST

Junior Alex Alicea was named to the Brooks Wallace Award Watch List by the College Baseball Foundation.

This marks the second year for Alicea on the watch list for the award given out annually to the top shortstop in the country. Alicea was a semifinalist for the award last season.

DANILOWICZ EARNS ACC PITCHER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Left-hander Wyatt Danilowicz was named the ACC Pitcher of the Week following his stellar start against Michigan State during the opening weekend.

Danilowicz was the first Louisville to earn the conference’s Pitcher of the Week honor since Sebastian Gongora in April of 2024.

Making the first start of his collegiate career, the southpaw retired the first eight batters he faced, including striking out the side in order in the second. Danilowicz struck out the side in order again in the fifth, on his way to a new career best of nine strikeouts.

The senior allowed just three baserunners on the day, pitching six shutout innings in the longest outing of his career.

TRIO OF CARDS EARN PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA HONORS

Tague Davis, Lucas Moore and Zion Rose each were recognized on preseason All-America teams this spring. All three were on the D1Baseball and NCBWA preseason teams, while Moore and Rose were also members of the Baseball America and Perfect Game selections.

Davis was a Freshman All-American in 2025 after hitting .283 with nine doubles, 18 homers and 52 RBIs. The 18 home runs were tied for the most by any player in the ACC during the regular season and set the Louisville freshman record, surpassing Chris Dominguez’ 15 in 2007.

Moore was a second team All-America selection as a sophomore, hitting .341 with 10 doubles, three triples and five home runs. The centerfielder led the team with 92 hits, 85 runs scored and went 53-for-54 in stolen bases. The 53 stolen bases led the country and were the second-most in a single season in program history, and he was the first Power Four player to steal 50 or more bases since Trea Turner in 2012. His 85 runs scored led all Power Four players and ranked second nationally and were tied for the second-most in program history.

Rose proved to be one of the elite power and speed combo players in the country in 2025. The Chicago native hit .310 with 16 doubles, three triples and 13 home runs, while going 31-for-34 in stolen bases. Rose also scored 64 runs and led the Cards with 67 RBIs. He ranked fourth in the ACC in stolen bases, fifth in RBIs, fifth in triples, seventh in runs, 11th in hits and 12th in total bases last year while transitioning to a full-time outfielder.

CARDINALS OPEN SEASON RANKED INSIDE TOP 10

Coming off a sixth College World Series appearance, Louisville will head into the 2026 season ranked as high as No. 8 in the preseason polls.

The No. 8 ranking is the highest preseason mark since the Cardinals opened up the 2023 season as high as fifth in the polls.

Louisville was ranked between fourth and sixth in the final polls of 2025.

MOORE, ROSE NAMED TO GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Junior outfielders Lucas Moore and Zion Rose were each part of the 55-man Golden Spikes Award preseason watch list. Louisville was one of 13 schools to have multiple players on the list.

Moore and Rose each spent the summer with the USA Collegiate National Team and have been named preseason All-Americans.

Brendan McKay won the Golden Spikes Award in 2017, while Corey Ray was a finalist in 2016.

DANILOWICZ, SCHWEITZER ON STOPPER OF THE YEAR PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Louisville pitchers Wyatt Danilowicz and Jake Schweitzer were each named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Preseason Watch List. The two arms paired together to form one of the top end-of-game duos in 2025.

Danilowicz missed all of 2024 due to injury before getting back on the mound last spring. The southpaw ended up leading the Cards with 28 appearances, posting a 2.70 ERA in 33.1 innings with 52 strikeouts.

Schweitzer had just five appearances and six innings under his belt at the end of March last year, but the season's final two and a half months saw him take the mound 20 times to finish with a 4-3 record, three saves, and a team-best 2.34 ERA.

CARDS FOURTH IN ACC PRESEASON POLL

Louisville was picked to finish fourth in the 2026 ACC Baseball Preseason Coaches Poll.

Louisville received 196 overall points in the poll. Georgia Tech (237) will open the season as the preseason favorite, narrowly edging out North Carolina (236). Florida State (221) sits one spot ahead of the Cards, while Clemson (185) rounds out the top five.

The Cardinals own five ACC regular season titles in their first 10 full seasons as a member of the conference but are searching for their first since 2022.

YEAR 20 FOR DAN MCDONNELL

Louisville has become one of the premier baseball programs in the country over the last two decades, and it's done so on the shoulders of head coach Dan McDonnell. The 2026 season marks the 20th year for McDonnell in charge in The Ville.

Over the previous 19 seasons, Louisville ranks fourth nationally with 793 wins and has reached Omaha on six occasions – a huge feat for any program, but especially for one that had only been to one NCAA Tournament prior to McDonnell's arrival in 2007.

Under his leadership, the Cardinals have won 12 conference championships spread across three different leagues, made 14 NCAA Regionals, 10 Super Regionals, 6 College World Series, and had 111 MLB Draft picks.

EXPERIENCED TOP OF THE LINEUP LEADS CARDS INTO 2026

As Dan McDonnell embarks on his 20th season at the helm of the Louisville program, he'll do so with an experienced group atop his lineup.

Juniors Alex Alicea, Lucas Moore and Zion Rose, along with sophomore Tague Davis make up one of the most dangerous offensive quartets in the country. That quartet combined to hit .312 in 2025 with 45 2B, 37 HR, 245 R, 193 RBI and 120 SB.

NOTABLE NUMBERS

Tague Davis has hit a home run in 16 different games this season.

Moore was an All-American that led the country in stolen bases and finished second in runs, Rose was top 12 in the ACC in six different offensive categories, Alicea was a semifinalist for the Brooks Wallace Award, and Davis was a Freshman All-American that set the program record for freshmen home runs.

CARDS LOOKING FOR LEAP FORWARD FROM SOPHOMORE ARMS

Louisville had 22 different pitchers throw at least one inning during the 2025 season, 11 of which were true or redshirt freshmen. The Cardinals racked up 220.2 innings from freshmen arms last spring, the fifth-most among Power Four programs according to 64 Analytics.

All but 4.0 of those innings return in 2026, and associate head coach Roger Williams will lean on the sophomore class of arms to take a step forward this spring.

Ethan Eberle earned a weekend spot as a freshman and pitched to a 6-2 record and 4.65 ERA in his first season. Jake Schweitzer was one of Louisville's top bullpen weapons, leading the team with a 2.34 ERA in 25 relief appearances. The Cards also got significant innings from Jack Brown (42.1 IP) and TJ Schlageter (30.1 IP), the latter of which was in his second season after sitting out the 2024 campaign.

CARDS DOMINATING ON THE BASEPATHS

Under Dan McDonnell, Louisville has been among the top teams in the nation in stolen bases. The Cardinals have finished with 100 or more stolen bases in 10 of the last 12 full seasons, including a program-record 162 in 2025.

Lucas Moore led the country with 53 stolen bases last season on just 54 attempts. Moore was the first Power Four player to swipe 50 bags since Trea Turner in 2012, and the only Division I player in the last 20 years with 50 or more stolen bases and just one or fewer caught stealings.

Not to be overshadowed, Alex Alicea and Zion Rose stole 34 and 31 bases last year, respectively. The Cardinals had three of the eight Power Four players that swiped at least 30 in 2025, all three of which are returning this spring.

Louisville was the first Division I team since Texas Southern in 2022 to have one player steal 50 or more and two others steal at least 30 in the same season, and the first Power Four program to do so since at least 2000.

ANOTHER CHALLENGING SLATE AHEAD FOR CARDS

The 2026 season will once again feature another difficult schedule for Louisville. The Cardinals are slated to play 22 games against teams that made the NCAA Tournament one year ago, including postseason rematches against Vanderbilt and Miami.

Louisville will play 18 games, seven at home and 11 on the road, against teams ranked in at least one of the preseason polls.

Louisville's schedule features 34 games at Jim Patterson Stadium, including opening the season at home for the first time since 2023 and just the third time in the last decade.

CARDINALS IN NATIONAL TV SPOTLIGHT

Louisville will be featured prominently on national television this spring, as the Cardinals will play 11 games across ESPN networks.

The Cardinals are scheduled to appear on the ACC Network for nine games this season, while the road half of the Battle of the Bluegrass will air on SEC Network and the annual Battle of the Barrel matchup at Vanderbilt on ESPN2.

PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

3-1 W-L	3.08 ERA	53 K
-------------------	--------------------	----------------

- » Has back-to-back starts of seven shutout innings with just two hits allowed against North Carolina and Pitt
- » First Louisville pitcher with consecutive starts of seven shutout innings since Reid Detmers in 2019

CARDS ON THE RADIO

For the 11th consecutive season, all regular season contests along with all postseason games will be broadcast on local radio. 93.9 The Ville will serve as the flagship station for the 11th straight season alongside 970 WGTK.

Sean Moth will serve as the Voice of Louisville Baseball for his 25th season and will be on the call for all Louisville baseball games this spring.

Louisville will be showcased five times at home inside Jim Patterson Stadium. The Cardinals will play televised home games against Notre Dame, Stanford and Kentucky along with the last two against Clemson. In addition to the road games at Kentucky and Vanderbilt, the Cardinals will play road TV contests at North Carolina and Wake Forest to go with the first two games at Duke.

FOUR CARDINALS NAMED CAPTAINS FOR 2026

Alex Alicea, Wyatt Danilowicz, Peter Michael and Zion Rose will serve as the captains this season. Rose has been voted a captain for the second consecutive season.

Alicea is in his third season with the Cardinals. The junior shortstop was a Brooks Wallace Award semifinalist as a sophomore and a member of the NCAA Nashville Regional All-Tournament Team. Alicea hit .307 last year and ranked third in the ACC with 34 stolen bases.

Danilowicz will suit up for his fourth season at Louisville this spring. The southpaw led the Cardinals with 28 appearances on the mound last season, finishing with a 2.70 ERA and 52 strikeouts in 33.1 innings.

Michael is set to begin his second year at Louisville after transferring in from Northwestern. The senior made 13 starts last spring, 12 on the weekend, and posted a 4-3 overall record with a 4.83 ERA.

Rose enters his third year with the Cardinals as one of the top players in the country. The junior ranked fourth in the ACC in stolen bases, fifth in RBIs, fifth in triples, seventh in runs, 11th in hits and 12th in total bases as a sophomore and spent his second straight summer with the USA Collegiate National Team.

CARDS WELL REPRESENTED WITH TEAM USA

Following the run to Omaha, three Cardinals spent a portion of the summer competing with the USA Collegiate National Team.

Outfielders Lucas Moore and Zion Rose were part of the national team that went to Japan for the 45th USA vs. Japan Collegiate All-Star Series. First baseman and left-handed pitcher Tague Davis participated in national team training camp and was part of the Collegiate National Team Prospects squad.

SIX CARDINALS SELECTED IN 2025 MLB DRAFT

Louisville had six players taken over the 20 rounds of the 2025 Major League Baseball Draft.

Patrick Forbes (29th overall, Arizona Diamondbacks) became the 10th player in program history to have his name called in the first round. Jake Munroe (Round 4, Pick 109, Los Angeles Angels), Matt Klein (Round 6, Pick 167, Colorado Rockies), Tucker Biven (Round 13, Pick 381, Washington Nationals), Eddie King Jr. (Round 16, Pick 473, Pittsburgh Pirates) and Justin West (Round 18, Pick 554, New York Yankees) were also selected.

The six total selections were the most for the Cards since having seven in 2021.

LOUISVILLE CONTINUES TO EXCEL IN CLASSROOM

Continuing to pair on-field success with academic achievement, the University of Louisville baseball program has yet another successful run in the classroom during the fall semester.

The Louisville baseball team wrapped up the fall semester with a 3.607 cumulative team grade point average. The Cardinals have now finished with a 3.0 or higher in 29 consecutive semesters. Forty-two student-athletes turned in a 3.0 GPA or better during the fall.

The span of 29 straight semesters with a team GPA of 3.0 or better coincides with unparalleled success on the field for Louisville, which has five College World Series appearances, eight NCAA Super Regional berths, 10 NCAA Regional bids and eight conference championships during that time.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall capacity of more than 4,000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted nine NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022) and seven NCAA Super Regionals (2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2025).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center. Prior to the 2015 season, the University of Louisville partnered with ANC Sports for the installation of a new LED video board in right-centerfield at Jim Patterson Stadium. The all-digital surface more than quadrupled the size of the previous video space and measures 36-feet wide and 23-feet tall.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The playing field was completely resurfaced in the summer of 2013 providing the Cardinals with one of the nation's best surfaces. The exterior of the ballpark has elements that mirror UofL's nearby football facility.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound. The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

Prior to the 2023 season, enhancements were done to the entrance and concourse of the stadium. A new entry gate featuring six new columns with arched entry ways was built in addition to the third base concourse being widened to provide additional space for concessions while improving the flow of patrons.

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices along with The Henry Davis Locker Room, which officially opened in Spring of 2024. Behind a lead gift from the former No. 1 overall pick, the locker room features state-of-the-art lockers for each player, upgraded bathroom and shower facilities and even includes a barber shop. The building is also home to a weight room and training room – newly updated in 2024, a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, equipment room and laundry facilities.

The Cardinals have won more than 77 percent of their games at Jim Patterson Stadium since opening the gates during the 2005 season. Of the 16 NCAA postseason rounds contested at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Louisville baseball program has advanced through 13 of those, including winning the 2025 NCAA Super Regional to clinch the program's sixth College World Series appearance. In NCAA Championship games at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Cardinals have produced a 39-11 record overall.
