

ASSISTANT COACH ROHAN NARAINA

Rohan Naraina returns to Coastal Carolina as an assistant coach on Karrie Miller's women's soccer staff, having spent the last two seasons as the head women's soccer coach at Southern University. Naraina was an assistant at CCU for the 2002 season.

Naraina was Southern's first-ever head coach, and in the inaugural 2003 season, he led the Jaguars to a third-place finish in the Southwestern Athletic Conference and a 6-7 overall record.

During the 2002 season, Naraina helped the Chanticleers to their first winning season in school history and helped bring in a recruiting class that would be part of a Big South regular season championship in 2003.

Naraina brings 19 years of coaching experience to the Lady Chants, coaching at the high school, collegiate and international levels. He spent four years as the head coach of Coker College's women's soccer program before his first stint at Coastal.

Naraina is a native of Guyana, South America, and grew up in London, England. He lived in England for 10 years before moving to the United States at the age of 16. In America, Naraina played soccer at Theodore Roosevelt High in Washington, D.C. He was team captain of the 1980 State Championship team and was selected the Washington Post's "Player of the Year."

Naraina played collegiate soccer for nationally-ranked North Carolina Wesleyan College, helping lead the program to the NCAA Division III National Tournament in 1984. Naraina was the team captain and selected to the All-South Region teams in 1983 and 1984. His playing career ended in 1984 due to a knee injury, but he remained at NC Wesleyan as an assistant coach of the men's and women's programs during the 1985 and 1986 seasons.

Prior to accepting the position at Coker in 1998, Naraina spent eight years at Beaufort Academy in Beaufort, S.C., where he served as Athletic Director and Head Coach of the boys' and girls' soccer programs. His teams won eight state championships and he was tabbed South Carolina's Coach of the Year eight consecutive seasons.

Naraina is a staff member of the men's and women's Guyana National Teams that compete in the CONCACAF region. In 1999, Naraina was chosen to the coaching staff of Guyana's Men's Olympic Soccer Team. He also is a state coach for the South Carolina Girl's Soccer Olympic Development Program. Naraina holds a FIFA Olympic License along with his NSCAA National Coaching License.

Naraina and his wife, Nalini, also a Guyana native, were married in 1995 in Guyana. They have a four-year old daughter, Nikki.

COASTAL CAROLINA WOMEN'S SOCCER EARNS NSCAA ACADEMIC AWARD

For the third straight season, the Coastal Carolina University women's soccer program was honored with the Team Academic Award from the National Soccer Coaches

Association of America. The award was presented to programs earning a cumulative 3.0 grade-point-average or higher during the 2003-04 academic year. Coastal had a 3.29 cumulative grade point average and featured Candice Doten, who was named to the NSCAA/adidas Scholar-Athlete All-Region Third Team and was a two-time Big South Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

2006 KARRIE MILLER WOMEN'S SOCCER CAMPS

The 2006 Karrie Miller Women's Soccer camps will take place on the Coastal Carolina campus in the last week of June. There will be a day camp for ages 6-12 and a residential camp for ages 10-18.

The day camp is designed to offer an enjoyable and rewarding learning experience in the game of soccer. Emphasis is placed on developing and improving the fundamentals of each camper and promoting a better understanding of the game.

The residential camp is designed to give field players and goalkeepers of all ability levels training in basic and advanced techniques on an individual level in smaller groups. The sessions will be designed technically and tactically to develop the players to their fullest potential.

All of the camp staff members will be college players and coaches with experience on the women's collegiate level.

For more information on the 2006 Karrie Miller Women's Soccer Camp, please call Rohan Naraina at (843) 349-2418.
