Coastal routs UNC Pembroke, 86-44 on Thursday

Coastal Carolina prepares to travel up the coast to UNCW on Sunday

CONWAY – Frontcourt players Aja Blount and Naheria Hamilton combined for 32 points and 19 rebounds to lead Coastal Carolina to an easy 86-44 win over outmatched UNC Pembroke Thursday night at the HTC Center. The Chanticleers improved to 6-1 on the season while the Braves fell to 5-3 on the year.

Blount, a sophomore forward, had 18 points while Hamilton, a senior forward, had 14 points to pace five Coastal players in double figures. Hamilton also pulled down 11 rebounds to register the 21st double-double of her career while Blount was just two rebounds short of getting her third career double-double.

Junior guard Zacharyia Esmon had 13 of her 18 points in the second half, while backcourt players DJ Williams and Tiara Davis had 14 and 11 points, respectively.

For the game, Coastal hit better than 50 percent of its shots from the field (29-of-56) and held UNC Pembroke to just 14 field goals on the night. The Chanticleers also hit a season-high 10 three-pointers and in typical fashion, the Chants held the rebounding advantage, 41-31.

UNCP was led on the offensive end of the hardwood by Tee Graham who finished with nine points.

Davis knocked down three consecutive three-pointers in the final minutes to give CCU its largest lead of the game at 83-40 with three minutes left in the contest.

Coastal took control early and never looked back. The Chanticleers used a 15-0 run early in the first period to take a commanding 22-4 lead. At halftime, the advantage was 42-22 with Blount and Hamilton showing their muscle inside. The duo combined for 24 points and 14 rebounds at the break.

Coastal Carolina's next game is at 2 p.m. Sunday (Dec. 8) at UNC Wilmington before returning home to host Wesleyan next Thursday (Dec. 12) at 7 p.m.

Coastal Downs UNC Pembroke in Season Opener, 64-48

CONWAY - A stretch of 16 unanswered Coastal points during seven minutes of the third and fourth quarters helped propel the Chants to a 57-41 victory over UNC Wilmington Saturday afternoon at the HTC Center. Also aiding in the victory was the scoring effort of Jas Adams, who tallied a career-best 25 points.

Coastal improves to 2-1 with the victory while handing UNCW (2-1) its first loss of the season.

Adams shot 8-of-20 from the field. Half of her attempts were from beyond the arc, and she made four baskets from distance. The senior guard added five rebounds and led the Chants with three steals. Adams has led the Chants in scoring in each of the last two games, and has at least 15 points in each of Coastal's three games this season.

Coastal's scoring streak began with 3:35 remaining in the third quarter when DJ Williams hit a jumper, followed by an Adams 3-pointer and field goals from Breeelyn Blanding and Kaylin West.

The streak continued into the fourth quarter with seven straight points, five of which were scored by Adams. UNCW broke the streak at 7:46 of the fourth, but Coastal had already taken a 15-point lead to essentially seal the win.

The Chants led by a single point, 30-29, when the streak began.

Williams closed the game with 11 points while shooting 3-of-11 from the field and 5-of-6 from the line. She nearly had her second double-double of the season while pulling in nine rebounds.

Coastal out rebounded UNCW 55-35, with Naheria Hamilton's 10 boards leading the way. A total of seven Chanticleers had five or more rebounds in the win.

The Chants closed the game shooting 33.3 percent from the field while holding UNCW to a meager 20.6 percentage.

Coastal opened the game's scoring on a free throw from Blanding, and led for the entirety of the contest.

The Chants finish off their season opening four-game home stand on Monday when they host Allen for a 6 p.m. game at the HTC Center.

Head Coach Jaida Williams

Jaida Williams

• Alma Mater: Cal Poly Pomona, 2005

Jaida Williams was named the sixth head women's basketball coach in Coastal Carolina University history on April 11, 2013, and is entering her seventh season as the head of the Chanticleers.

Williams helped usher in a new era of Coastal Carolina women's basketball in 2016-17 as the Chanticleers completed their first season of competition as members of the Sun Belt Conference. The Chants went 13-16 overall, including an 8-10 record in Sun Belt games to place eighth in the conference. Williams and the Chants recorded Coastal's inaugural Sun Belt victory against Arkansas State on Jan. 17, 2017 at the HTC Center, and finished the regular season strong by winning four of their final five games. Senior point guard Ced Gibson became the first student-athlete in program history to be voted All-Sun Belt after placing in the top 10 in conference in seven statistical categories.

Williams' third season in 2015-16 saw the Chants finish with a 12-18 overall record for the second consecutive year. That record included a 7-13 mark against Big South opponents in Coastal's final season of competition in the conference. Coastal finished ninth in the Big South, and lost a heartbreaking 67-64 decision on a three-point buzzer beater in the first round of the conference tournament. The 2015-16 season included several notable wins, including Coastal's first-ever victory over Clemson on Nov. 15. The Chants also snapped a 45-game losing streak to Liberty with a 58-51 win over the Flames on Feb. 20 in Lynchburg, Va. Finally, Coastal's 105-15 win in the season opener against Mid-Atlantic Christian marked the program's largest-ever margin of victory. Coastal placed two student-athletes on All-Big South teams as Ced Gibson was voted a second team selection and Olivia Carlton made the conference's All-Academic Team.

In her second season, Williams led the 2014-15 Chants to a 12-18 overall record and a 6-14 mark against Big South opponents. Williams' team boasted the Big South's second-highest scoring offense, averaging 69.0 points per game, and the third-highest scoring margin at +3.7 points. Coastal also finished near the top of the conference standings in most rebounding categories, including first overall in defensive rebounds (27.70 per game) and second overall in rebounding margin (+5.6).

Williams also guided her student-athletes to several individual successes in the 2014-15 season. AJ Jordan finished the season as the Big South's leading scorer averaging 16.9 ppg, and earned first team All-Big South honors for the second straight year under Williams' guidance. Jordan also received Big South Player of the Week recognition on Jan. 19, as did junior Anna Vogt on Dec. 22. First-year Chanticleer Jas Adams was a Big South All-Freshman Team selection at year's end, and was twice tabbed the conference's Freshman of the Week during the season. Overall, three of Coastal's starters (Jordan, Vogt, Ced Gibson) finished in the league's top-20 in scoring, while two (Vogt, Alexis Robinson) ranked in the top-10 in rebounding.

Williams led Coastal to a 15-16 overall record and a 10-10 Big South mark during the 2013-14 season, her first on the Chanticleer sideline. The Chanticleers' 15 wins were the most since the 2009-10 season, while the 10 conference victories marked the most since the 1993-94 campaign. In addition, Coastal won a Big South Tournament game for the first time since 2010.

Three of Williams' starting five were all-conference performers, including AJ Jordan (first team), Angelica Henry (honorable mention) and Karsen Sims (all-freshman). Williams also mentored Alexx Puckett to a Big South Player of the Week honor -- the first for a Chanticleer since the 2010-11 campaign.

Williams laid the foundation for success at Coastal Carolina during her inaugural season, featuring her teams' up-tempo style of play. In 2013-14, the Chanticleers averaged 71.9 points per game, ranking second in the Big South Conference. In addition, Coastal shot an impressive 41.4 percent from the field and a league-best 34.6 percent from beyond the arc. Moreover, Jordan ranked third in the conference averaging 16.6 points per game, becoming the first Chant to average 16-plus points since 2006-07.

Several records were broken in Williams' first season, highlighted by Angelica Henry recording Coastal Carolina's first ever triple-double with 30 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists against Charleston Southern in the opening round of the Big South Tournament. The Chanticleers also set program records with their 4-0 start to Big South play, largest margin of victory in a conference game with a 30-point win at Longwood on Dec. 28 and largest margin of victory in a Big South Tournament contest with a 35-point victory against Charleston Southern on March 4.

Williams came to Conway after serving on head coach Jennifer Hoover's staff at Wake Forest. She spent the 2012-13 season as the Demon Deacons' assistant coach and recruiting coordinator where she built a top-20 recruiting class. In addition to her duties as recruiting coordinator, Williams also served as the team's offensive coordinator, helping the 2012-13 Demon Deacons average 67.6 points per game in the historically tough Atlantic Coast Conference.

In addition to her on-court duties at Wake Forest, Williams also helped the Demon Deacon student-athletes to a 3.2 grade point average while also serving as the program's alumni relations representative.

Prior to her time in Winston-Salem, Williams spent time with Ganon Baker Basketball, where she traveled the country working with WNBA players as a skills development coordinator.

Williams previously served on the staffs at Iowa, South Florida and UC Santa Barbara. She was at UCSB for three seasons from 2008-11. While at UCSB, she helped the Gauchos twice win the Big West regular-season and tournament titles. UCSB made an appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 2009 and received a berth into the WNIT in 2011. Her recruiting classes were named the tops in the Big West in both 2008-09 and 2009-10. She also helped in the development of Mekia Valentine, who was drafted by the WNBA's New York Liberty in 2009.

Williams joined the Gaucho staff after two seasons as an assistant at the University of South Florida from 2006-08, where she assisted with recruiting, game preparation and player development. During her stint at USF, she recruited a top-16 class and made a pair of WNIT appearances.

Before joining the staff at South Florida, Williams was the director of operations at the University of Iowa for the 2005-06 season.

As a player at Cal Poly Pomona from 2002-05, Williams helped the Broncos to a 23-7 record her senior season. Graduating in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in journalism, Williams helped lead Cal Poly Pomona to a spot in the NCAA Division II Tournament Regional Final before losing to Seattle Pacific.

Williams played her first two collegiate seasons at Barry University, helping the Buccaneers to a 21-9 record as a freshman, earning Sunshine State Conference's All-Freshman team honors. In her sophomore season at Barry, Williams led the team in scoring and rebounding, averaging 15.8 points and 9.9 rebounds per game earning recognition on the All-SSC First Team and as a Kodak All-American honorable mention.
