Opening Tip

- Tonight's game with Missouri is the Chants second road game of its' first road trip of the season.
- It is also CCU's second and final game of the Collegiate Hoops Roadshow.
- CCU and Missouri have only met twice on the hardcourt, with the Tigers winning both games of the series.
- Both of the previous games have also been in Columbia with the Tigers winning the first game 94-69 back in 1993, and winning the next time they met in 2001, 75-61.
- The Chants are entering the game coming off their first loss of the season, a 79-78 defeat at USC Upstate...After trailing by 12 in the second half, CCU came back to take a seven-point lead, only to lose on a late field goal from the Spartans...A desperation heave for CCU missed the mark at the horn.
- Missouri is a perfect 5-0 on the season after defeating Mississippi Valley State 83-62 in its' first game of the Collegiate Hoops Roadshow.
- This will be the Tigers sixth consecutive home game to open the season.
- Like the Chants, Missouri has four players averaging in double-figures led by D'Moi Hodge's 17.0 points per game; next are; Noah Carter (12.6), Kobe Brown (12.4), and Nick Honor (10.8).

WHAT IS A CHANTICLEER?

Chanticleer (SHAWN-tuh-clear) gives Coastal Carolina one of the most unique nicknames in all of sports. Chanticleer comes from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales and came to Coastal Carolina when the University was a member of the University of South Carolina system. A Chanticleer is a rooster who rules the barnyard with cunning and wit. His competitiveness never wanes as he battles to the end, using his brains to come out on top every time.
