THE SERIES

Coastal Carolina and Georgia Southern will meet for the 13th time in series history. The Eagles hold an 8-4 advantage in the all-time series, while the Chanticleers are 3-4 against Georgia Southern at Brooks Stadium.

The programs first met in 2006 and have faced each other in every season since 2017. Coastal won four consecutive meetings from 2020-22 before Georgia Southern answered with three straight victories. The Eagles won last season's matchup 45-40 in Statesboro and earned a 26-6 victory during their most recent visit to Brooks Stadium in 2024.

THE COACHES

RYAN BEARD is in his first season as the head football coach at Coastal Carolina after being named the fifth head coach in program history on Dec. 11, 2025. Beard arrived in Conway following three seasons as the head coach at Missouri State, where he helped guide the Bears through their transition from the FCS to the FBS level. Prior to becoming Missouri State's head coach, Beard spent three seasons as the Bears' defensive coordinator. His coaching career also includes stops at Louisville, Central Michigan and Western Kentucky.

CLAYTON HELTON is in his fifth season as the head coach at Georgia Southern. Helton has guided the Eagles to four consecutive bowl appearances, including a victory over Appalachian State in the 2025 Birmingham Bowl. Before arriving in Statesboro, Helton posted a 46-24 record as the head coach at USC, leading the Trojans to the 2016 Rose Bowl title and the 2017 Pac-12 championship. His coaching career also includes stops at Memphis, Houston and Duke.

BE A MAN (BAM)

- What is BAM? It's about standing on your own two feet and learning to take responsibility for yourself. We expect everyone associated with our program — players, coaches, and support staff — to live up to that responsibility. We have to follow laws, university rules, and NCAA regulations and take our one standard — BAM — very seriously.
- BAM has nothing to do with gender. It has everything to do with being a great leader. A great leader has respect for others and cares about other people in his or her charge. Everybody on our team is somebody's son or brother, and there is a responsibility associated with that.
- Our mission at Coastal Carolina is that we're going to put a team on the field that anyone associated with Coastal is going to be proud of. While winning is an important part of that, it also means that you never, ever, ever take a play off. You always give 100 percent of everything you have. This is not just football. We expect that in every endeavor our players undertake.

WHAT IS A CHANTICLEER?

- A Chanticleer (SHAWN-tuh-clear) gives Coastal Carolina one of the most unique nicknames in all of sports. Chanticleer comes from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales and came to the University when it was a member of the USC system. A Chanticleer is a rooster who rules the barnyard with cunning and wit. His competitiveness never wanes as he battles to the end, using his brains to come out on top every time.

- Ryan Beard brought several familiar faces with him to Conway while assembling his first Coastal Carolina staff, including his brothers-in-law, offensive coordinator Nick Petrino and defensive coordinator L.D. Scott.
- Petrino, Scott, special teams coordinator Nelson Fishback and inside linebackers coach Connor Benado all previously worked with Beard at Missouri State.

The international group joins punter Andrew Ginsberg and long snappers Mitch Weisenborn and Gavin Carrick in a revamped specialist room.

BROOKS STADIUM

- Brooks Stadium opened on Sept. 6, 2003, for the inaugural home game of the Chanticleer football program. Scoring a touchdown with just seconds left on the clock, the Chanticleers defeated Newberry College 21-14.
- With a gift from the late businessman Bob Brooks, the stadium was named in honor of Brooks' children Coby Garrett and Boni Belle.
- Brooks, who grew up on a farm in Loris, S.C., was the CEO and founder of Eastern Foods, Inc., creators of the Naturally Fresh line of products, and chairman of Hooters of America, Inc.
- Brooks Stadium was designed and built with the capability to expand from its inception. That original design came to fruition as Coastal embarked on another two-phase expansion in the spring of 2017 that brought the capacity to approximately 20,000.
- The first phase boosted the seating capacity to 15,000 and included adding seats to both corners of the end zone nearest the field house, expanding the sections closest to the field on both sides toward the scoreboard, and expanded the upper deck on the east side.
- The infamous Surf Turf was added in the Spring of 2015 marking the transition from natural grass to artificial teal turf.
- Prior to the 2019 season, a second level and premium suites were completed on the west side to increase the capacity to 20,000. The cost of the two-phase project was $31.8 million.

RYAN BEARD

FIRST SEASON — WESTERN KENTUCKY '12

Ryan Beard, the fifth football head coach in Coastal Carolina program history, joined the Chanticleers in December 2025. He arrived in Conway after a rapid and highly successful rise through the collegiate coaching ranks, most recently serving as head coach at Missouri State University, where he earned national recognition as one of college football's top young defensive minds.

Beard became Missouri State's head coach in December 2022 at just 33 years old, becoming the youngest head coach in school history. Over the next three seasons, he led one of the most significant transformations in the program's modern era, guiding the Bears from an FCS playoff contender to a competitive FBS program in its inaugural season at the highest level of college football.

In 2025, Missouri State completed its transition to the FBS and Conference USA under Beard's leadership. The Bears posted a winning record in their first FBS season and earned the program's first bowl appearance, marking a milestone moment in school history. Beard's team was built on a strong defensive foundation, with Missouri State ranking among Conference USA leaders in total defense and rushing defense while consistently limiting opponent production.

Beard's defensive pedigree was evident throughout his tenure. Prior to becoming head coach, he served as Missouri State's defensive coordinator from 2020-22, overseeing a dramatic turnaround that returned the Bears to national relevance. His defenses ranked among the national leaders in sacks, tackles for loss, and takeaways, and helped guide Missouri State to back-to-back FCS playoff appearances for the first time in more than three decades.

During the 2024 season, Beard's Bears finished with a winning record and earned a national ranking at the FCS level, with the defense leading the Missouri Valley Football Conference in sacks per game and ranking among the nation's leaders in turnover margin. Multiple players earned all-conference and All-America recognition under his direction.

Before his time at Missouri State, Beard coached at several prominent programs, including Louisville (2017-18), Central Michigan (2019), and Western Kentucky (2016). His experience spans multiple conferences and levels of competition, including the ACC, MAC, and Conference USA, providing a strong foundation in recruiting, player development, and scheme implementation.

A native of Bowling Green, Kentucky, Beard played collegiately at Western Kentucky University, where he was a multi-year contributor in the secondary during the program's transition to the FBS. He earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors during his playing career and was recognized with Western Kentucky's Iron Man Award for toughness and durability.

Beard holds both a bachelor's degree and a master's degree from Western Kentucky. He and his wife, Katie, are the parents of four children: Beau, Lainey, and twins Jacob and Kailey.
