GAME PREVIEW

The Mississippi College men's basketball team will welcome rival Delta State to A.E. Wood Coliseum for the first time since the 1995-96 season on Saturday for a 4:00 p.m. tip-off time.

This will be the 75th meeting between the schools, dating back to the 1953-54 season, a 65-65 tie. While the Statesmen took a large lead in the series in the early years, the Choctaws won 14 of the last 21 contests before MC dropped to Division III and the American Southwest Conference. The two teams last played in 1995-96 when MC picked up a 50-49 win in front of 3,000 fans.

Head coach Don Lofton is in his 11th season at the helm, winning his first two games of the season for his 180th career victory. Lofton has compiled a 108-31 (.777) record at home, including a perfect mark in the 2005-06 season.

Tristan Moore's driving layup with :04.5 seconds remaining gave the Choctaws a 73-72 win over Lee University on Monday night in A.E. Wood Coliseum. MC picked up their fifth win in the last six games when the Flames' game-winning attempt came just after the buzzer. Five Choctaws scored in double-figures, led by Moore's 13 points, going 3-of-4 from the three-point line.

The Choctaw defense has been the key to their success this season as they are 7-0 when their opponents shoot less than 50% from the field, while they are 0-5 when opponents go over the 50% mark. The bench has also been vital this season with MC going 5-1 when the reserves outscore the opponents.

Tory Rice, who leads MC with 15.8 points and 9.0 rebounds per game, tallied his seventh double-double of the season with 12 points and 10 rebounds. Moore (10.2 ppg) also leads the team with 55 assists and ranks second on the squad with 19 steals. Johnny Rucker is averaging 12.3 points per game and tied a season-high with four assists to go along with 12 points against Lee.

Freshman Stacey Mack earned his first career start on Monday night, putting up 12 first-half points and going 4-of-7 from the field and 3-of-3 from the free throw line. Mack started in place of senior Rayner Fredrick (7.5 ppg), who leads the team with 28 steals. Fredrick plans to be back in the lineup for Saturday's game with DSU.

The Statesmen are led by head coach Jim Boone, who led the team to the GSC regular season championship and a "Sweet 16" appearance just last season. Since opening the season at 3-5, DSU has been rolling as of late, winning three straight and 7-of-9.

Sophomore Devin Schmidt, who was the GSC Freshman of the Year last season, leads the team with 17.7 points per game, including 27 points on Monday in the win over Shorter. Former Choctaw Laquavius Cotton is averaging 9.7 points per game and is shooting 47% from the three-point line. He has scored in double-figures in three straight games, including a season 19 against Shorter.

HOME COURT SUCCESS

Head Coach Don Lofton has posted a 108-31 (.777) record in Clinton in his 11-year tenure at Mississippi College.

The 110-101 win over Sul Ross State last January was the 400th for MC in A.E. Wood Coliseum, dating back to 1977 when the building was dedicated. The first home win came against Belhaven that season, 72-64.

The Choctaws have had five undefeated seasons at home in school history ('90-'91, '97-'98, '98-'99, '05-'06 and '07-'08).

LAST TIME OUT

Tristan Moore's driving layup with :04.5 seconds remaining gave the Choctaws a 73-72 win over Lee on Monday night. The Flames' last-second attempt came just after the buzzer and MC won their fifth game in six attempts.

Moore led the team with 13 points, while five players scored in double-figures, including Tory Rice, who tallied his seventh double-double of the season with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

Jervon Johnson went 7-of-9 from the three-point line, leading Lee with 21 points. Cory Billingsley had 20 points.

NEXT UP

The Choctaws will get back on the road when they travel to face West Georgia in Carrollton at 7:00 pm (Central). The Wolves won this season's earlier meeting between the teams in Clinton, 92-81.

Don LOFTON HEAD COACH

Head coach Don Lofton enters his 11th season at the helm and 31st with the program, overall.

The Choctaws went through their final season in the American Southwest Conference and Division III during the 2013-14 year, going 11-14 and finishing 8th in the league standings. Senior Lakin Ford and junior Emmanuel Ezejiro earned All-ASC honors.

The 2012-13 season saw the Choctaws advance to the ASC Tournament for the 15th time in 15 tries and as they earned the #3 seed from the East Division with a 15-11 record, overall. Junior Brandon Blake was named a D3hoops.com All-South Region selection, while also earning a spot on the All-ASC Team. Senior Adam Smith was a Second Team selection, while Turmonte Ragland earned an All-Defensive Team selection.

The Choctaws advanced to the ASC Tournament in the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons, making them the only team in the league to qualify for every tournament. In 2011-12, MC landed Trevon Malone on the All-ASC First Team.

In the 2009-10 season, Lofton led the Choctaws to their 22nd consecutive winning season and a trip to the American Southwest Conference Tournament. MC finished 19-7 overall and 14-6 in the ASC, while finishing second on the East Division.

In the 2008-09 season, the Choctaws advanced all the way to the ASC Championship Game before being ousted by Texas-Dallas. It would be the 10th time in 11 tournaments that the Choctaws advanced to the championship game. MC led the league with a .509 field goal percentage.

Lofton had an incredibly successful run as head coach of the Choctaws for four years from 2003-2006. In four seasons at the helm, Lofton produced a 92-23 overall record including two American Southwest Conference Championships and back-to-back appearances in the "Sweet Sixteen" round of the NCAA Tournament.

In the 2005-06 he led the Choctaws to a school record 29-2 season that ended with another appearance in the "Sweet Sixteen". Lofton collected NCAA wins over Maryville University and Maryville College as a regional host of the first and second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Choctaws were the highest ranked team in the NCAA South Region rankings the entire season.

In the 2004-05 Lofton led the Choctaws to the third most wins in school history (24) and just their second appearance in the NCAA Tournament "Sweet Sixteen" round. The Choctaws were ranked #1 in the NCAA South Region ranking every week and won their seventh ASC East Division title in eight years. They also beat Maryville College in the second round of the NCAA tournament.

After taking over the program from Hall of Fame coach Mike Jones, Lofton maintained the same level of success with four straight appearances in the ASC Championship game. That same season Lofton kept the streak alive by leading the team to eight straight wins to end the season and reach the title game. His team also led the ASC in scoring defense.

In 2002-03, Lofton's original season as Head Coach, he led the Choctaws to their fourth ASC Championship in six years. MC won 20 games and appeared in the NCAA Division III National Tournament for the sixth straight year.

Lofton was also a vital part of the success achieved by the basketball program during his tenure at MC as an assistant coach. As the recruiting coordinator, he was responsible for maintaining the talent level necessary to keep the Choctaws in the upper echelon of teams in the country year in and year out. He also filled the position as the primary assistant to former head coach Mike Jones and was vitally involved in building the program to where it is today.

"Coach Lofton has been around Mississippi College basketball for a long time," said Athletic Director Mike Jones. "He knows the game and has been a big part of the success that we have enjoyed and experienced over the past years. He knows what it takes to be successful here at MC and has proven that during his 10 seasons."

Lofton built himself the reputation of being a top recruiter and talent evaluator. Since MC's move to Division III in the 1996-97 season, he has helped recruit some of the best talent in the American Southwest Conference. With him filling the role of recruiting coordinator, the Choctaws made five straight appearances in the NCAA tournament. They also won the ASC Championship three five of five seasons. During his last three seasons as an assistant, the Choctaws had five first team All-ASC selections and one ASC East Division Player of the Year.

Lofton began his coaching career at Mississippi College as a graduate assistant in 1978-79, working for Coach Doug Hines. He also served in the same capacity during the 1979-80 season. Before returning as an assistant, Lofton coached at West Jones High School in Laurel, Miss., for four seasons. He began as an assistant coach and was the head coach for three seasons, 1982-85. He led the Mustangs to several outstanding seasons and was named Coach of the Year in the Southern Athletic Conference in 1982-83.

Lofton was honored after the 1998-99 season by the National Association of Basketball Coaches for his outstanding service with the Merit Award.

A 1974 graduate of Brookhaven High School, he began his college career at Mississippi College, playing football and golf. He received his bachelor of science degree in business administration in 1978 and completed the master of education degree in 1983. Don and his wife Madelyn have three children: Davis, Jay and Elizabeth.

ASSISTANT COACH

Assistant men's basketball coach Josh Brooks is entering his 7th season on the coaching staff of the Choctaws. Brooks returned to MC after a four-year playing career and one season as a student assistant.

In his six seasons with the Choctaws, MC has advanced to the American Southwest Conference Tournament each year. The 2012-13 season saw the Choctaws land Brandon Blake on the All-ASC First Team and the D3hoops.com All-South Region Team.

In the 2008-09 season, Brooks helped lead the Choctaws to a 20-7 overall record and an appearance in the American Southwest Conference Tournament Championship Game.

After leaving MC, Brooks stayed in the Jackson area, coaching one season at Jackson Prep before spending two seasons as an assistant to Kenny Bizot at Hillcrest Christian. Brooks helped lead the Cougars to an Overall State Championship in his first season on the bench.

Brooks moved to the college coaching ranks as an assistant at Belhaven where he spent two seasons.

In 2004, Brooks took the head coaching job at Hernando High School in north Mississippi. In his first season, Brooks led the Tigers to a 10-15 record, a notable improvement over previous seasons at the school.
