NCAA FCS PLAYOFF HISTORY

1982 - First Round
Colgate 21, Boston University 7
September 27, 1982
Andy Kerr Stadium, Hamilton, N.Y.

Defense can win ballgames. And that's one of the reasons that Colgate was able to defeat Boston University 21-7 in the first round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs at Andy Kerr Stadium.

Colgate's defensive unit paved the way forcing seven turnovers by the Terriers including five fumble recoveries, two interceptions and a blocked punt. All but one of the scores were set up by Red Raider take-aways - or BU give-aways. Senior linebacker Dave Wolf was again the ringleader with 15 tackles, and Carl Boykin came up with a handful of clutch plays.

Boykin, coming off a concussion suffered the previous week, recovered a fumble to set up Colgate's second touchdown, blocked a punt that led to Brian Byrne's field goal and a 15-7 halftime lead, and intercepted his sixth pass of the season to stop a late BU drive.

Colgate quarterback Steve Calabria gave the Terriers fits all afternoon, completing 16 of 36 passes for 180 yards, one good for a seven-yard touchdown to Rich Erenberg. Not surprisingly, the drive was set up by a turnover; BU fullback Dave Rutherford fumbled away the ball to linebacker John McCabe.

Colgate's other two first half scores - a two-yard Calabria keeper for a touchdown and Byrne's 26-yard field goal - also were set up by BU mistakes. Terrier tailback Paul Lewis fumbled prior to the second touchdown and Boykin's blocked punt set up the field goal.

BU's only score came in the second quarter when George Wilcox crashed over from the one to climax an 80-yard drive in 18 plays. It enabled BU to close the gap to 12-7.

BU had a chance to get back in the game early in the second half, when Tom Krasco intercepted a Calabria pass on Colgate's first possession and returned it four yards to the Red Raider 39. The drive ended at the 31, however, with Wolf and Chick Pritchard stopping Lewis on short-yardage on third and fourth down.

Colgate took off on a 69-yard march that was capped by Gil Terenzi's one-yard drive into the end zone. A 14-yard run by Calabria, a 16-yard dash by Stacy Hall, a 13-yard completion to Tony Rogers, and an 11-yard screen pass to Terenzi on third-and-nine kept things moving.

BU never was able to get rolling again, with a Tim McMullan interception ending one drive, a fumble stopping another before it started, and Boykin's interception with 2:46 left in the game putting a lid on things.

1982 - Quarterfinals
Delaware 20, Colgate 13
December 4, 1982
Delaware Stadium, Newark, Del.

The Colgate season ended in the mud and sunshine when Delaware came-from-behind to defeat the Red Raiders, 20-13, before 11,448 spectators at Delaware Stadium in a quarterfinal game of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Trailing 13-12, Delaware scored the winning points with 8:22 left in the game when Cluff Clement dove over the stacked-up middle for a touchdown on a fourth-and-goal play from the one-yard line. Clement followed with a two-point conversion run.

Colgate's first score resulted from a Delaware turnover, Rick Titus fumbling at the Colgate 42, and Tory Mongeon recovering for the Red Raiders. Two running plays netted five yards before Steve Calabria, Colgate's stellar sophomore quarterback, passed to Mike Bone for a first down at the Delaware 39.

On the next play, flanker Joe Kozak got Delaware's Jim Newfrock to turn the wrong way on a post pattern inside the five and hauled in a Calabria pass for a touchdown. Brian Byrne's kick gave Colgate a 7-0 lead.

Staying primarily on the ground, the Hens drove 73 yards in 13 plays as Rick Scully scored a touchdown on a one-yard sneak. Delaware did not get even, however, as Colgate tackle Chick Pritchard blocked K.C. Knoblock's placement kick.

But after that, the Hens would hold Colgate without a first down for more than 22 minutes, well into the third quarter, and to minus three yards rushing for the game.

Delaware took a 12-7 halftime lead, when Dan Reeder broke off the right side for a seven-yard run into the end zone.

On the fourth play of the final period, Colgate regained the lead as John Hoff returned a Titus punt 57 yards for a touchdown and a 13-12 edge. A pass for two points dropped incomplete.

The last two challenges by Colgate were turned back by Schmitt - with an interception at the Delaware 25 and a deflection of a pass at the Delaware two as time ran out.

Colgate had its back placed against the wall early in the contest when junior tailback Rich Erenberg suffered a separated shoulder on the Red Raiders' second series of the game.

Did You Know?

Colgate has appeared in two Associated Press Division I polls. The first appearance was in the poll of Oct. 13, 1942, when Colgate was ranked ninth, followed by the poll of Nov. 9, 1977, when the Raiders were ranked 20th.

NCAA FCS PLAYOFF HISTORY

1983 - First Round
Western Carolina 24, Colgate 23
November 26, 1983
Whitmire Stadium, Cullowhee, N.C.

Quick and speedy Western Carolina, down 23-0 early and trailing by 16 at the half, scratched and clawed its way back in the final two quarters and scored a 24-23 victory over Colgate.

For the second straight year, the Red Raiders were eliminated with star running back Rich Erenberg on the sideline. Erenberg missed the whole game with ligament damage to his right knee suffered against Connecticut in the last regular season game.

Colgate opened the scoring in the first quarter, when Joe Kozak hauled in a 36-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Steve Calabria. Mike Powers kicked the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

The Red Raiders really geared up in the second quarter. Hall vaulted into the end zone from a yard away at the end of a 49-yard march to make it 13-0, but Powers' extra point attempt was wide. Then junior fullback Bob Clark rumbled eight yards into the end zone to increase the lead to 20-0 with 3:59 gone in the quarter.

That touchdown was set up when cornerback Dave Reed returned a Catamount punt 34 yards to the 50. A 23-yard scamper by Hall helped things along.

The Colgate defense, changing coverages often to deal with receivers Eric Rasheed and Kristy Kiser, continued to frustrate the Catamounts, and set up the offense when Marty Murphy recovered a Melvin Dorsey fumble at the Western 35. Powers eventually booted a 36-yard field goal to make it 23-0.

Everything was rolling toward a second-round matchup with arch-rival Holy Cross. Then suddenly, Colgate's offense went comatose as WCU went to the air.

Giving up on an ineffective running game, quarterback Jeff Gilbert threw seven straight times to push the Catamounts to a touchdown just before the half. The score came on a 19-yard connection to Rasheed, who gained 141 yards on seven receptions before the game was over.

WCU's second-half rally began with Biasucci's 51-yard field goal on the Catamounts first possession of the third quarter, and then Gilbert hit Kiser with a 27-yard touchdown pass with 14:14 left in the game. Biasucci kicked the extra point for the margin of victory.

The pass to Kiser came after Colgate gambled and lost on a fourth-and-one at its own 44. Hall tried to punch over the left side, but was stopped cold by Richard Dukes and Tiger Greene.

1997 - First Round
Villanova 49, Colgate 28
November 29, 1997
Villanova Stadium, Villanova, Pa.

Going against the number one Division I-AA team in the country, Colgate came up with a great effort despite yielding three fourth quarter touchdowns which gave Villanova University a 49-28 win in the first round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs at Villanova Stadium.

Villanova opened the scoring on the first possession of the game driving 80 yards in nine plays for a 7-0 lead. Jay Strippoli caught a 5-yard pass from quarterback Chris Boden for the TD. Mark Kiefer added the extra point.

Colgate came right back with a 61-yard, seven-play drive to tie the contest at 7-7. Sophomore running back Ed Weiss, who carried 20 times for 80 yards, capped the march with a five-yard TD run. Adam Federico kicked the conversion.

The Wildcats broke the tie with one minute left in the first quarter on Kiefer's 25-yard field goal for a 10-7 advantage.

In the second quarter, Colgate took a 14-10 lead when junior wide receiver Corey Hill caught a five-yard pass from Ryan Vena.

The see-saw battle continued with Villanova jumping back into a 17-14 lead with 9:30 left in the first half, when Brian Westbrook caught a 38-yard touchdown pass from Boden. Seven minutes later, Colgate went back in front 21-17 on Vena's 28-yard TD run.

But on the ensuing kickoff, Westbrook ran the pigskin back 89 yards for a touchdown to give the Wildcats a 24-21 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, Villanova increased its lead to 27-21 on Kiefer's 22-yard field goal but Colgate came back again to take a 28-27 lead with 30 seconds left in the quarter. Hill caught an 11-yard touchdown pass from Vena to complete a 67-yard, 10-play drive.

In the fourth quarter, Villanova scored on a pair of one yard runs by Boden and Westbrook's four-yard dash to advance to the second round of the playoffs.

1998 - First Round
Georgia Southern 49, Colgate 28
November 28, 1998
Paulson Stadium, Statesboro, Ga.

Four-time national champion Georgia Southern exploded for 21 third-quarter points en route to a 49-28 win over Colgate in the first round of the 1998 NCAA Division I-AA football playoffs.

The first half was a see-saw battle between both teams' offenses leading to a 21-21 tie. Colgate took the opening kickoff and marched 81 yards to the Eagles' three-yard line, but the drive was stopped when fullback Lydelle King fumbled on third-and-goal.

Georgia Southern took advantage of the first turnover of the game and moved 97 yards in 16 plays with quarterback Greg Hill scoring on a two-yard run for a 7-0 lead.

On the ensuing possession, freshman Phil Bowman gave Colgate excellent field position with a 31-yard kickoff return to the CU 42. Eight seconds into the second quarter, senior wide receiver R.J. Gregory grabbed a 21-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Vena. Adam Federico's extra point attempt tied the contest.

After stopping the Eagles on the following possession, Colgate moved in front 13-7 with 9:41 left in the first half when Neal Gomez capped a 53-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run. A bad snap on the extra point attempt prevented the conversion.

GSU took advantage of its second break when the Red Raiders appeared to have the Eagles stopped deep in Colgate territory. Hill fumbled at the CU seven-yard line, and Colgate cornerback Brandon Tinson picked up the ball on the three-yard line, but fumbled it back to the Eagles at the CU seven. On the first play, Bernie Cunningham bolted over for a touchdown to give GSU a 14-13 lead.

Colgate came back with a 78-yard drive in 10 plays to retake the lead, 21-14. Vena scored on a one-yard run, then connected with wide receiver Corey Hill on the two-point conversion.

Near the end of the first half, the Eagles capitalized on their great field position after Cunningham's 46-yard kickoff return to the 50-yard line. Six plays later, Adrian Peterson scored the first of his three touchdowns on a two-yard run to tie the game.

In the third quarter, Georgia Southern's powerful ground attack exploded for three touchdowns to move ahead, 42-21. Colgate closed out its scoring with 7:49 left in the game when Gregory grabbed a 34-yard pass from Vena for his second score.

Illinois State 56, Colgate 13
November 27, 1999
Hancock Stadium, Normal, Ill.

Aveion Cason ran for 156 yards and three touchdowns as Illinois State rolled to a 28-0 halftime lead and defeated Colgate, 56-13, in the first round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

Illinois State turned three second-quarter Colgate turnovers into touchdowns in building its big lead at Hancock Stadium.

The TD's came during a three-minute burst that began when Jon Laurenti blocked a Colgate punt and Kernard Killingsworth returned it 20 yards for a touchdown.

Following the blocked punt, Illinois St. came up with turnovers on the next two series, leading to touchdown runs of 16 and 3 yards by Cason.

The first turnover was a fumble recovery by Ryan Szokola at the Colgate 32, followed by an interception at the Colgate 32 by Galen Scott.

Just prior to the interception of a Ryan Vena pass, the senior quarterback suffered a separated left shoulder forcing him to retire for the remainder of the game.

Illinois State opened the scoring with 2:49 left in the first quarter, when quarterback Dusty Burk connected on a 29-yard pass play to Laurenti on fourth-and-19.

After taking a 28-0 halftime lead, the Redbirds rolled for three more touchdowns in the third quarter. Trailing 49-0, Colgate scored late in the third quarter on a 20-yard pass to Ryan Ojeda from freshman quarterback Tom McCune.

McCune, who replaced Vena, completed 8-of-15 passes for 107 yards and one TD in his first extended action of the season.

Colgate's final touchdown came with 6:14 remaining, when junior tailback Randall Joseph ripped off a 77-yard touchdown run. Joseph finished with a game-high 176 yards on 17 carries.

ROAD TO THE 2003 TITLE GAME

In 2003, Colgate became the first and only Patriot League team to reach the finals of the Football Championship Subdivision. Enroute to the championship game, the Raiders defeated Massachusetts (19-7), Western Illinois (28-27) and Florida Atlantic (36-24), before losing to Delaware.

NCAA FCS PLAYOFF HISTORY

2003 - First Round
Colgate 19, Massachusetts 7
November 29, 2003
Andy Kerr Stadium, Hamilton, N.Y.

Despite treacherous weather conditions, Colgate ran its record to 13-0 on the season in a hard-fought 19-7 victory over Massachusetts in the first round of the Division I-AA playoffs.

UMass took more than two hours to make the drive from its hotel in Syracuse to Hamilton because its team bus slid dangerously on the road on more than one occasion.

The Minutemen got on the board early courtesy of a nifty special teams play. Leroy Brooks blocked Jason Sutton's punt attempt, which was picked up by James Ihedigbo and returned 25 yards for the touchdown. However, that would be the only touchdown scored by UMass all day.

The Raiders evened the score thanks to the first of two J.B. Gerald touchdown receptions. The senior receiver caught a 13-yard pass from junior quarterback Chris Brown with just over nine minutes left to go in the first half. Gerald led all receivers on the day with seven catches for 91 yards and the two scores.

Brown started the drive with a 45-yard pass to junior Luke Graham, who caught six balls for 82 yards on the day. Despite the driving snowstorm that hampered both offenses, Brown would go on to complete 17-of 37-passes for 209 yards and two touchdowns.

The next Raider score was a product of tough defense and heads up special teams play. UMass lined up to punt from its own 10-yard line and fumbled the snap. Junior Mike Chrystie tackled the UMass player who recovered the fumble at the Minutemen six-yard line, and the Raiders were in business.

Two plays later, junior running back Jamaal Branch took the handoff and bullied his way into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown run and a 13-7 Colgate lead, which the Raiders would take into halftime.

The third quarter was a defensive stalemate between the two squads, with the weather and two tough defenses holding the normally high-powered offenses well below their season averages.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Minutemen started a drive deep in their own territory. A completed 17-yard pass was fumbled and recovered by sophomore Josh Wurst to give the Raiders excellent field position.

The Colgate offense would need just one play to capitalize on the turnover. Gerald beat his receiver down the middle of the field and Brown hit him in stride for a 30-yard touchdown pass to give Colgate a 19-7 lead. Gerald's rush attempt for the two-point conversion failed, but it did not matter, as the Raider defense would not give UMass anything over the rest of the quarter in pitching a defensive shutout.

2003 - Quarterfinals
Colgate 28, Western Illinois 27
December 6, 2003
Andy Kerr Stadium, Hamilton, N.Y.

Colgate staged a come-from-behind 28-27 victory over Western Illinois in the NCAA Division I-AA quarterfinals, extending the nation's longest winning streak to 20 games, and making the semifinals for the first time in school and Patriot League history.

Colgate opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 12-play, 80-yard drive led by junior quarterback Chris Brown. Brown found juniors DeWayne Long and Mike Chrystie for two completions to move the Raiders into Western Illinois territory.

A pass interference call on WIU and a first down run by junior Jamaal Branch moved the Raiders inside the Leatherneck five-yard line. Brown threw a pass to a diving J.B. Gerald for the touchdown.

The Leathernecks came back with a field goal at the end of the first quarter to cut the Raider lead to 7-3. Colgate's defense forced Western Illinois to kick after a long kickoff return.

Western Illinois took a 10-7 lead in the second quarter after quarterback Russ Michna threw a nine-yard touchdown pass to Randall Moore. On the ensuing kickoff, Long returned the ball 50 yards to the Western Illinois 32-yard line to set up a Raider score. Brown completed two passes, and Branch found the end zone on a one-yard run to give Colgate a 14-10 lead at the half.

WIU made a field goal to open the second half which cut the Raider lead to 14-13. In the fourth quarter, junior Luke Graham caught two passes from Brown, as did Gerald. As Colgate drove into Western Illinois territory, the game reached a turning point following an ejection of a WIU player for arguing a defensive penalty. The resulting 32 yards worth of penalties on WIU moved CU close enough so that Brown was able to connect with sophomore fullback Ben Evans for a one-yard touchdown to give Colgate a 21-13 lead.

Western Illinois responded with a touchdown to cut the lead to 21-19, but failed to convert the two-point conversion, but scored another touchdown to take a 27-21 lead.

The Raider defense forced a three and out by Western Illinois with just over three minutes to play. Gerald returned the punt to the Western Illinois 25-yard line with the crowd of over 5,000 going wild. Brown hit Graham in stride for a 24-yard completion to the one-yard line. Two plays later, Branch scored his second touchdown of the game to give Colgate the victory.

NCAA FCS PLAYOFF HISTORY

2003 - Semifinals
Colgate 36, Florida Atlantic 24
December 13, 2003
Lockhart Stadium, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.

Colgate earned a 36-24 victory over Florida Atlantic behind a career-high 45 carries from junior running back Jamaal Branch that extended the nation's longest winning streak to 21 games.

The Raider defense picked off FAU quarterback Jared Allen three times. Colgate's offense, which controlled the ball for nearly 43 of the game's 60 minutes, helped CU wear down the FAU defense and limit the big-play capabilities of the FAU offense.

Quarterback Chris Brown improved to 18-0 as Colgate's starter after throwing for 207 yards and three touchdowns and rushing for a career-high 78 yards and another score.

Colgate opened the game with a 12-play, 85-yard scoring drive. Branch capped off the five-minute possession with an eight-yard touchdown run, his 29th of the season, and a new Division I-AA record. Branch also set new I-AA records with 430 carries, 2,271 yards and 12 100-yard games on the season.

After building a 9-0 lead, Brown threw an interception at the Colgate 45-yard line. FAU took advantage of the miscue to cut the deficit to 9-7, but that would be as close as it would come.

In the second quarter, Brown found junior wide receiver Luke Graham for a six-yard touchdown to cap a seven-minute, 80-yard drive that put Colgate ahead, 16-7. On the ensuing kickoff, junior Mike Rava booted the ball high and short. It bounced into the hands of senior Nate Thomas, giving Colgate its longest onside-kick conversion ever. Colgate reached paydirt in three plays, capped by a 14-yard touchdown pass to Graham from Brown that extended the Raider lead to 23-7 at halftime.

FAU notched a field goal to open the second half, but Brown took the Raiders on yet another 80-yard drive, which ended with Brown finding junior DeWayne Long for an eight-yard score that gave Colgate a 30-10 lead. FAU cut the deficit to 30-17 heading into the final quarter, but on second down senior Brian Anderson intercepted Allen's pass and returned it 17 yards to the FAU 34-yard line. Branch and Brown alternated carries until Brown took a bootleg around left end and raced into the end-zone for a 36-17 CU lead.

FAU pulled to within 36-24 after returning a blocked punt for a touchdown, but the day belonged to the Raiders, who advanced to the national championship for the first time in school history.

2003 - Championship
Delaware 40, Colgate 0
December 19, 2003

W. Max Finley Stadium, Chattanooga, Tenn.

The Colgate Raiders suffered their first and only loss of the season in the Division I-AA Championship, 40-0, to Delaware. The loss was their first in 432 days, a streak of 21 games.

Junior running back Jamaal Branch won the Walter Payton award as the best player in Division I-AA. Branch is the second Raider to win the award (Kenny Gamble won the inaugural award in 1987). After playing sparingly in the season opener, Branch rushed for 2,326 yards and 29 touchdowns on 450 carries, all of which set new Division I-AA records. He rushed for at least 100 yards 12 times and broke the 200-yard mark four times en route to being named Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year.

In his first season at the helm, head coach Dick Biddle's team lost its first four games before finishing the season 6-5. Ever since, Colgate has been a Patriot League force, winning three league championships and at least seven games in every season.

Junior quarterback Chris Brown, a backup in 2002, won the final three games of that season to help the Raiders capture the league title. He passed for 2,832 yards and 22 touchdowns and rushing for nine more in 2003, to run his career record as a starter to 18-1.

A pair of standout wide receivers, senior J.B. Gerald and junior Luke Graham, often played hurt but still caught 74 and 77 passes, respectively, and stretched opposing defenses. In addition, senior tight end John Frieser, a three-time all-Patriot League pick, was a mismatch for defenses all year long. Seniors Marc Scalfani and Rene Vargas of the CU offensive line were both named All-Americans.

Senior linebacker Tem Lukabu, a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award for the top defensive player in Division I-AA, finished with 105 tackles and was the key to a defense that finished in the top 10 in the nation for the third time under Biddle.

Senior strong safety Sean McCune, who has been a fixture in the Raiders' secondary for four seasons, notched 96 tackles in addition to three interceptions. Senior defensive back Brian Anderson, who broke his foot midway through the season, came back to post three interceptions in the playoffs. The defensive line of seniors Rob Hannah, Josh Sabo, Nick Susko and junior Adam Leeman put pressure on the opposition's quarterback all season.

November 29, 2008
Villanova Stadium, Villanova, PA.

Sixth-ranked Villanova rolled to 420 yards of total offense en route to a 55-28 win over Colgate in the first round of the NCAA Division I FCS playoffs at Villanova Stadium.

Villanova opened the scoring when Matt Szezur returned the opening kickoff 91 yards for a touchdown. After a long delay for a Villanova injury, Joe Marcoux missed the extra point.

On Colgate's first possession, the Raiders drove deep into Villanova territory, but wide receiver Pat Simonds fumbled at the 16-yard line. The Wildcats' Marquis Kirkland picked up the fumble, and returned to the Colgate 27-yard line. Five plays later, Aaron Ball scored on a six-yard run for a 13-0 lead with 9:26 left in the first quarter.

Later in the first quarter, Colgate took over on the Villanova 46-yard line following a punt. The Raiders moved to the Villanova 12-yard line, where they faced fourth-and-one. Jordan Scott rushed for the first down to keep the drive alive. Then on third-and-goal, the Wildcats were called for pass interference in the end zone, giving the Raiders an automatic first down at the 2-yard line. Scott scored his record-tying 55 rushing touchdown as Colgate trailed 13-7 with 1:22 remaining in the opening quarter.

Villanova came right back for a 20-7 lead when Angelo Babbaro capped an eight-play, 68-yard drive with a five-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. The Wildcats scored three more times before halftime for a 41-7 lead. Szczur scored on a four-yard run; wide receiver Phil Atkinson tallied on a 65-yard end-around play, and Ball scored his second TD on an eight-yard run.

In the third quarter, Villanova scored on a 16-yard pass play from Chris Whitney to Szczur, before Colgate tallied its second TD of the game. Scott scored on a one-yard run to cap a 13-play, 73-yard drive.

Villanova closed out the third quarter scoring on a one-yard run by Anthony Lucidonio giving the Wildcats a 55-14 lead.

The fourth quarter saw Scott score his third touchdown on a one-yard run. Then Pat Simonds caught a 12-yard touchdown pass from Greg Sullivan with 4:31 left for the final points of the game.
