13 THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT COLGATE HOCKEY

1 Colgate wraps up the road portion of its 2015-16 schedule this weekend with league contests at Dartmouth and Harvard. The Raiders begin the two-game set Friday at Dartmouth before heading to Cambridge, Mass., the following evening for a matchup with the Crimson.

2 Since the start of the 2012-13 season, Colgate has been nearly unbeatable when leading after two periods, holding an impressive 40-2-5 mark when in front at the start of the third. The Raiders are 5-0-0 this season when leading their opponent after 40 minutes.

3 Three has been a magic number for the Raiders since the beginning of the 2013-14 season as they are 38-8-1 when scoring three or more goals in a contest during that span. Colgate is 5-5-0 this season when scoring three or more goals in a game.

4 Colgate tries to continue its winning ways against Dartmouth this weekend as it enters Friday's matchup with a 5-6-1-1 mark in its last eight matchups against the Big Green. The Raiders posted a 3-0-1 mark against Dartmouth last season, but the Big Green won the first meeting between the two programs this season, 3-2, at Starr Rink Jan. 23.

5 Colgate was picked to finish fifth in the ECAC regular season standings according to both preseason polls released by the league on Sept. 22. The coaches' poll saw the Raiders receive one first-place vote and 90 total points. In the 17th annual ECAC Hockey Media Poll, Colgate garnered 257 total points.

6 The Raiders have been putting the puck on net more often in recent games, averaging 37.0 shots on goal during their last five contests, an output that is nearly nine shots per game higher than their season average (28.2). Colgate has attempted more than 40 shots in two of those contests, including a season-high 47 shot attempts against St. Lawrence on Jan. 29.

7 The Raiders look to continue their dominance at the faceoff dot as they rank fourth in the nation in faceoff winning percentage (54.2%). Colgate, who has won the faceoff battle in 21 of 30 games played this season, has four players [Mike Borkowski, Adam Dauda, Evan Peterson & Tylor Spink] listed among the top 100 players in the nation in faceoff winning percentage.

8 Senior Tyson Spink has paced the Raiders offensively this season, leading the team in goals (12), assists (18) and points (30). Spink ranks in the top 10 in the ECAC in all three categories, highlighted by ties for fourth place in both assists and points.

9 Colgate's senior class continues to lead the way offensively for the Raiders as the quintet has accounted for 94 of Colgate's 199 points this season (47.2%). Of the Raiders' 75 goals in 2015-16, 37 have come from a member of the senior class.

10 Senior Tylor Spink has excelled against Dartmouth during his career, amassing 12 points (3g,9a) in nine previous games against the Big Green. Spink picked up a pair of assists in the team's first meeting this season at Starr Rink on Jan. 23.

11 In terms of generating offensive chances, Colgate has been at its best in the first period, out-shooting its opponents by a combined total of 291-263 (+28) during the opening frame through 30 games. In contrast, opponents have controlled play against the Raiders during the final two periods of regulation, holding a 369-255 (-114) edge in shots taken during the second and a 320-290 margin (-30) in shots attempted during the third period.

12 The 2015-16 season serves as Colgate's final campaign in its original indoor home facility, Starr Rink. The home of Raider hockey since 1959, Starr Rink will be replaced by the Class of 1965 Arena for the start of the 2016-17 season.

13 Wondering why 13? The number is lucky for all things Colgate. The University celebrates Colgate Day every Friday the 13th. Colgate was founded by 13 men with $13 and 13 prayers.

HEAD COACH DON VAUGHAN

23rd Season | St. Lawrence '84

Don Vaughan enters his 23rd year as head coach at Colgate and has the most wins in program history. He begins the 2015-16 campaign with a career record of 370-357-84.

Under Vaughan's tutelage, Colgate has enjoyed six 20-win seasons, three NCAA tournament berths, and 21 appearances in the ECAC Hockey tournament.

Additionally, he has guided the Raiders to nine ECAC semifinal clashes, including appearances in the ECAC Tournament championship game the past two seasons. The two-time (2000 & 2014) ECAC Coach of the Year has mentored four Hobey Baker Award finalists, five All-Americans, two ECAC Players of the Year, an ECAC Goal-tender of the Year, two ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District I honorees, three ECAC Merit Medal recipients, a Hockey Humanitarian Award winner, a Senior CLASS Award selection and 46 All-ECAC Hockey selections.

Vaughan's disciples have also enjoyed success at the professional level, with 13 former Raiders from Vaughan's time behind the Colgate bench having gone on to appear in at least one NHL contest. That total includes former standouts Chris Wagner and Kyle Baun, who both made their NHL debuts during the 2014-15 regular season.

His commitment to success is not limited to the ice, however, as Vaughan has continually demonstrated the importance of education to his student-athletes. During his tenure, Vaughan has graduated 99 percent of his players. Since the creation of the award in 2000, Vaughan's athletes have been named to the ECAC Hockey All-Academic Team more than 100 times.

The Raiders enjoyed another stellar campaign during the 2014-15 season, compiling a 22-12-4 overall mark and an 11-7-4 record in league play, advancing to the title game of the ECAC Hockey Championship for a second straight season. Colgate was ranked for a majority of the campaign, reaching as high as No. 4 in both polls during a three-week span in late October-early November.

Vaughan reached a personal milestone during the campaign as he posted the 350th victory of his career with a 3-0 shut-out of Northeastern on Oct. 17, becoming just one of 11 active coaches at the Division I level to have reached the plateau during his career.

The Raiders enjoyed plenty of individual success during the 2014-15 year. Senior defenseman Spiro Goulakos was the recipient of the prestigious Senior CLASS Award, given annually to the most outstanding senior student-athlete in Division I men's hockey. Sophomore goaltender Charlie Finn was recognized as the Hockey Commissioner's Association National Player-of-the-Month for October. Junior forwards Kyle Baun and Tyson Spink were both named Third-Team ECAC All-League. Vaughan led Colgate to a highly successful 2013-14 campaign that saw the Raiders post a 20-14-5 overall record and earn an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in nine seasons. Piloting a youthful lineup that featured 17 underclassmen, Colgate recorded eight victories against ranked competition and spent the final two months of the season listed in the national polls, fittingly ending the season tabbed 13th in both the USCHO.com and USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine rankings.

The Raiders excelled in ECAC play during the 2013-14 season as it posted a 13-6-3 ledger against league competition on its way to a second-place finish. For his efforts, Vaughan was recognized as the Tim Taylor ECAC Hockey Coach of the Year award for the second time in his career.

Colgate enjoyed one of the finest moments in program history in January 2014 when it recorded a shootout victory against No. 1 Minnesota and a shutout of No. 2 Ferris State to capture the Mariucci Classic. Freshman goaltender Charlie Finn was named MVP of the event while forward Darcy Murphy and defenseman Spiro Goulakos joined Finn on the All-Tournament Team. Finn and Goulakos would be recognized again at the end of the season as both players were named Third-Team All-ECAC Hockey while Finn also landed on the league's all-rookie squad.

The 2012-13 season saw Vaughan coach his team into the national rankings once again after a six-game winning streak in December and into January of 2013. He tutored a pair of ECAC Hockey All-Rookie Team honorees and an ECAC Hockey Rookie of the Year Finalist.

In 2011-12, the Raiders were ranked for most of the season and achieved its highest ranking since 1999-2000 after being ranked seventh in the USA Today/USA Hockey Magazine National Poll in December. Under Vaughan's tutelage, Austin Smith led the nation in goals with 36 and was named an All-American and the first Colgate player to be named a Hobey Hat Trick Finalist. He was the second ECAC Hockey Player of the Year under Vaughan and was a first team all-league selection.

In his 15th season, Vaughan guided the Raiders to an 18-18-6 record and a spot in the ECAC semifinals. On February 16, 2008, he became the school's all-time winningest coach as Colgate blanked Union 8-0. On November 11, 2007, the President of Colgate, Rebecca S. Chopp, announced the creation of the Donald F. Vaughan Endowed Coaching Chair for Men's Ice Hockey.

During the 2005-06 campaign, Vaughan continued to lead Colgate to new heights. His Raiders captured their second ECAC Hockey regular-season title in three years, and won 20 games for the third straight season for the first time in program history. Four of Vaughan's Raiders earned all-league recognition, including Mark Dekanich, who became the first player in school history to receive the Ken Dryden Award as the league's goaltender of the year.

Vaughan returned from a one-year hiatus to guide Colgate to 25 victories, the most in his tenure, during the 2004-05 campaign. Vaughan's skaters advanced to the ECAC semifinals for the third time in his Colgate career. The Raiders earned a berth in the 2005 NCAA tournament, where they lost to Colorado College in a one-goal game in the Midwest Regional semifinals.

Colgate finished the season ranked 14th in the national polls. That year, Vaughan earned his 200th career coaching victory with a 3-1 win against Union on Feb. 18, 2005.

Vaughan first led Colgate to national prominence during the 1999-00 season. That year, he coached the Raiders to the NCAA East Regional and a final ranking of No. 9 in the USA Today/American Hockey Magazine national poll. Vaughan, who led his team to 24 victories, was honored as the ECAC Coach of the Year and received the Howard Hartman Award as Colgate's Coach of the Year.

He recorded his first 20-win season as Colgate's head coach during the 1994-95 campaign. With 20 victories, he became the first coach in school history to win 20 or more games in a season within his first three years behind the bench. For this accomplishment, Vaughan was honored by his Colgate peers with the Howard Hartman Award.

Vaughan began his coaching career as a player/coach with the Enschede Lions of the Dutch Professional Hockey League during the 1984-85 season.

He returned to the United States the following year to serve as a graduate assistant coach at St. Lawrence University during the 1985-86 campaign.

He worked as an assistant coach at St. Lawrence under Joe Marsh for the next two seasons, specializing in the areas of penalty-kill and power-play strategy. He also served as the recruiting coordinator and head coach of the junior varsity team.

During his first season as a full-time assistant, the Saints participated in the NCAA tournament for the first time since Vaughan was a player.

In 1988, Vaughan helped coach St. Lawrence to the ECAC regular-season and tournament titles. The Saints advanced to the NCAA championship game, where they lost to Lake Superior State in overtime.

Vaughan left St. Lawrence in 1988 to become an assistant coach at Cornell University under Brian McCutcheon. Vaughan coached Cornell's special teams and coordinated recruiting and team travel. The Big Red reached the ECAC final four during both of Vaughan's two seasons with the program.

Following the 1989-90 season, Vaughan returned to St. Lawrence for his second assistant coaching stint under Marsh. Vaughan extended his personal string of ECAC final four appearances to six by helping the Saints to back-to-back trips to the Boston Garden. In 1992, Vaughan was part of his second ECAC tournament championship and made his third trip to the NCAA tournament. In all, Vaughan has appeared in 10 ECAC Hockey final fours and five NCAA tournaments during his 21-year college coaching career.

Vaughan played three seasons of varsity hockey for St. Lawrence from 1981 to 1984 after earning All-America status during his only season at Canton College. While with the Saints, Vaughan played in 96 games at the center position. In 1983, he helped his team to an NCAA tournament appearance and a first-place finish in the ECAC's West Region. Vaughan finished his career at St. Lawrence with 41 goals and 49 assists for 90 points. He graduated from St. Lawrence in 1984 with a bachelor's degree in economics, and later earned a master's degree in general studies from St. Lawrence in 1987.

He is a member of the American Hockey Coaches Association and is a former chair of that group's Division I Committee. He was also a member of the NCAA Rules Committee from 1998 through 2002. He currently serves on the NCAA Division I Men's Hockey Committee.

In 2004, Vaughan was presented with a Silver Puck Award by Colgate's Silver Puck Club for his work with the Raider hockey program. In 2005, he was one of two non-alumni to receive a Maroon Citation for his record of service to the university.

Vaughan stepped away from the ice during the 2003-04 academic year to serve as the university's interim athletics director. Under his leadership, Colgate achieved remarkable success. Five teams won conference championships, six coaches were honored as league coaches of the year, and the Raider football team advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA national championship game. Vaughan continues to serve Colgate in an administrative capacity as an assistant athletics director.

A native of Almonte, Ontario, Vaughan resides in Hamilton with his wife, Mariel. They are the proud parents of Mark (24) and Maria (22).

THIS WEEK: AT DARTMOUTH/AT HARVARD

LAST TIME OUT: YALE

Colgate wrapped up its season series against Yale Feb. 12 at Starr Rink.

The Raiders out-shot the Bulldogs, 36-28, but Yale netminder Alex Lyon stopped every shot he faced to record his fourth shutout of the season.

After 35 minutes of scoreless hockey, the Bulldogs broke the game open with two goals less than two minutes apart late in the second period. Yale added an insurance marker early in the third to determine the final margin.

COLGATE-DARTMOUTH SERIES HISTORY

The series versus Dartmouth is one of the most competitive on the Colgate record books as the Raiders hold a 48-45-6 record in 99 previous matchups with the Big Green.

Colgate has held the edge in the series of late, posting a 6-1-1 mark in the last eight matchups between the two programs. Dartmouth won the first contest between the two sides, 3-2, on Jan. 23 at Starr Rink.

The Raiders hold a 20-21-3 mark in true road matchups with the Big Green. Colgate has been victorious in each of its last three visits to Thompson Arena, including a 3-0 shutout of Dartmouth last February.

COLGATE-HARVARD SERIES HISTORY

Longtime league foes Colgate and Harvard have faced each other a total of 82 times in a series that dates back to the inaugural season of ECAC Hockey in 1960-61. The Crimson hold a 52-23-7 advantage in the series, but has just an 9-5-3 record against the Raiders over the last 16 meetings.

Harvard won the first meeting between the two schools this season, claiming a 4-2 triumph over Colgate in its final visit to Starr Rink on Jan. 22.

The Raiders are just 11-30-2 against the Crimson in true road contests. Colgate's most recent victory came at the Bright-Landry Hockey Center came in a 4-2 triumph on Jan. 18, 2014.

UP NEXT: RPI/UNION

Colgate closes out the regular season next weekend when it hosts Capital District foes RPI and Union in the final regular season games at Starr Rink.

The Raiders begin the two-game set Feb. 26 with a matchup against the Engineers. The game, slated for a 7 p.m. puck drop, is scheduled to be televised on the Time Warner Cable Sports Network.

Colgate concludes its regular season slate the following day with a 2:30 p.m. matinee against the Dutchmen. The game also serves as Senior Day, with the program honoring its five seniors in a ceremony prior to the start of the contest.

COLGATE GAME NOTES

opened the regular season ranked as the Raiders claimed the No. 20 spot in the USCHO.com preseason poll released Sept. 28.

The Raiders were one of five ECAC teams listed in the inaugural rankings for the 2015-16 season. Defending tournament champion Harvard led the quintet as it was one of a record 10 teams to receive a first-place vote to grab eighth place. Fellow 2015 NCAA tournament participant Yale was 12th, followed by Quinnipiac [18], St. Lawrence [19] and Colgate.

RAIDERS PICKED FIFTH IN BOTH ECAC POLLS

Colgate Men's Hockey was picked to finish fifth in the ECAC regular season standings according to both preseason polls released by the league in late September.

The coaches' poll saw the Raiders receive one first-place vote and 90 total points. In the 17th annual ECAC Hockey Media Poll, Colgate garnered 257 total points.

Defending ECAC Tournament champion Harvard was tabbed first in the coaches' poll, collecting nine first-place votes and 119 total points. St. Lawrence [102] claimed second while 2015 NCAA tournament qualifiers Yale [99] and Quinnipiac [93] were third and fourth, respectively. Union [65] was sixth, followed by Cornell [55], Clarkson [47], Dartmouth [41] and Rensselaer [36]. Brown [34] and Princeton [11] completed the poll.

Yale was the favorite in the media poll, receiving 10 first-place votes and 325 total points to edge out 2014-15 Cleary Cup winner Quinnipiac [10/322] for the top spot. Harvard was third [9/306] and St. Lawrence [1/268] claimed fourth. Union [177], Dartmouth [149], Clarkson [143], Cornell [139], Rensselaer [124], Brown [97] and Princeton [34] completed the poll.

RAIDERS GO CAMPING DURING OFFSEASON

Seven current and former members of the Colgate Men's Hockey program took part in 2015 NHL Player Development Camps during the offseason.

Rising junior Jake Kulevich was the busiest Raider of the offseason, taking part in development camps for both the Columbus Blue Jackets and Pittsburgh Penguins. According to research conducted by College Hockey, Inc., Kulevich was just one of 13 NCAA-level players to participate in two development camps in 2015.

Two Raiders - Kevin Lough and Tyson Spink - attended the Detroit Red Wings' camp together while Andrew Black and Darcy Murphy participated in the development camps of the Minnesota Wild and New Jersey Devils, respectively.

A pair of former Colgate standouts, Kyle Baun [Chicago Blackhawks] and Ryan Johnston [Montreal Canadiens], also attended development camps with their respective franchises.

RAIDERS AMONG NCAA ACTIVE CAREER LEADERS

Seniors Darcy Murphy, Tyson Spink and Tylor Spink, and junior Charlie Finn find themselves ranked among the top 25 active players in five statistical categories.

Tyson Spink is eighth among active players in points as the Williamstown, Ont., native has amassed 121 points in 140 career games. He also ranks fifth in career assists with 78 and 15th in game-winning goals with nine.

Tylor Spink is tied for 21st on the all-time scoring list with 105 points in 125 games. Tylor is also tied for 15th among active players in power play goals with 15. Darcy Murphy is one spot back of Tylor in 21st place with 14 career power play goals and is tied for 20th in career goals scored [45].

Finn, meanwhile, is sixth in career wins [44].

TYSON SPINK REACHES 100-POINT PLATEAU ...

Senior Tyson Spink became just the 51st player in program history to crack the century mark in career points scored with a three-point outing against RIT on Oct. 23 at Starr Rink.

Spink became the first Colgate skater to tally 100 points in his career since Austin Smith [2008-2012] surpassed the century mark during the 2010-11 season.

... BROTHER TYLOR JOINS HIM

Tyson Spink gained some familiar company on the list in mid-January as twin brother Tylor recorded his 100th career point with an empty-net goal at Union on Jan. 15. Given that they are twins, it is fitting that both Spinks recorded their 100th career point with an empty-net goal. Tylor is second on the team in scoring with 24 points in 30 games this season.

COLGATE GAME NOTES

TYSON SPINK SETS NEW CAREER HIGH FOR ASSISTS

Tyson Spink established a new career high for assists in a game when he dished out four helpers during Colgate's matchup with Mercyhurst on Oct. 4.

Spink has already matched his career high for assists, dishing out four apples in a 5-1 triumph at Maine on Jan. 9.

Spink is the first Raider to finish a game with four assists since Austin Smith tallied four helpers at Canisius on Dec. 20, 2009.

FINN AMONG PROGRAM TOP 10 FOR WINS, SHUTOUTS

Although he has more than a season remaining his Colgate career, junior netminder Charlie Finn is already firmly entrenched on a pair of program all-time lists.

Finn is currently sixth in career victories with 43. He needs six more wins to match former netminder Jeff Cooper [1982-85] for fifth place on the program's all-time list.

The North Vancouver, B.C., is also third in school history with seven career shutouts. Finn needs one more shutout to match Steve Silverthorn [2002-05] for second place.

MORE SHOTS NOT A PROBLEM FOR FINN

Junior netminder Charlie Finn has no problem facing an above average workload as he is 12-9-4 during his career when making 30 or more saves in a contest. Finn was flawless last season when recording 30 or more saves in a game, posting a perfect 6-0-0 record under such circumstances. He is 3-8-1 in 2015-16 when recording 30 or more saves. His most recent such performance came with a 36-save effort against No. 1 Quinnipiac on Feb. 6

BORKOWSKI NAMED CAPTAIN, MURPHY & LOUGH TO SERVE AS ALTERNATES FOR 2015-16 SEASON

Colgate Head Coach Don Vaughan and his staff announced the team captains for the 2015-16 season during the team's end of season banquet last April. Senior Mike Borkowski will serve as captain while fellow Class of '16 members Kevin Lough and Darcy Murphy were both chosen as alternate captains.

Borkowski tallied 20 points [6 G, 14 A] in 21 games last season despite missing part of the campaign due to what was thought to be a season-ending injury in November. Borkowski was out of the lineup for just 17 games, returning in February to help spark the Raiders to an 8-3-1 mark over the final 12 games of the season.

Murphy was third on the team in scoring during the 2014-15 season, tallying 11 goals and 15 assists for 26 points. He led the team with a plus/minus rating of +18.

Lough appeared in 37 games on Colgate's blueline last season, playing a key role in the Raiders being the sixth best team in the nation in scoring defense [2.13]. Lough also contributed offensively to the Colgate attack, chipping in two goals and seven assists.

SENIORS ON THE SCORESHEET EQUALS SUCCESS

When a member of the Class of 2016 has found the scoresheet during his career, it has meant good things for the Raiders.

Colgate boasts a winning rate of 62 percent or higher in games where Mike Borkowski [63.5], Tyson Spink [62.3] or Tyson Spink [62.8] have found the scoresheet during their careers.

The Raiders have fared even better when either Darcy Murphy [68.5] or Kevin Lough [74.1] have factored into the team's offensive output during their time with the Raiders.

HUNTER RACINE MAKES MARK IN DEBUT

Rookie forward Hunter Racine wasted little time in making an impact in a Colgate uniform, tallying two goals in the Raiders' season-opening win at Mercyhurst on Oct. 3.

What makes Racine's debut effort even more impressive is that he is believed to be the first Colgate player under long-time head coach Don Vaughan to record multiple goals in his first collegiate contest.

CORKEY CONTRIBUTING OFFENSIVELY FOR RAIDERS

Junior defenseman Brett Corkey has gotten off to a solid start to his junior campaign, tallying eight points [3g,5a] in the team's first 17 games. The leading point-getter among Raider blueliners this season, Corkey has already surpassed his career high in points. He dished out seven assists in 39 games during his rookie campaign in 2013-14.

KULEVICH CLUTCH FOR RAIDERS

When junior Jake Kulevich scores for the Raiders, odds are its going to factor heavily into the outcome of the contest. Of the defensemen's eight goals during his collegiate career, four have been game winners. Kulevich has two game-winning goals to his credit this season, notching the decisive tallies in victories against RIT [Oct. 23] and at Maine [Jan. 9].

KULEVICH NAMED NCAA.COM THIRD STAR

Junior defenseman Jake Kulevich was named NCAA.com Third Star of the Week on Feb. 8 after dishing out five assists during the Raiders' games at Princeton and Quinnipiac Feb. 5-6. The Marblehead, Mass., product established a new career high with four helpers against the Tigers and pitched in one assist the following evening against No. 1 Quinnipiac. Kulevich currently leads all Colgate blueliners in scoring this season with 13 points [3g,10a].

COLGATE GAME NOTES

DAUDA NAMED ECAC ROOKIE OF THE WEEK

First-year forward Adam Dauda was named ECAC Hockey Rookie-of-the-Week, league officials announced Jan. 19.

A native of Kitchener, Ont., Dauda dished out four assists to help the Raiders capture three of four points during their trip to the Capital District in mid-January.

Dauda began the weekend with primary assists on the first two goals in Colgate's 4-2 come-from-behind victory at Union on Jan. 15. He followed that performance with another two-helper effort in the Raiders' 2-2 tie at No. 20 RPI.

SEVEN FORMER RAIDERS TAKE PART IN NHL TRAINING CAMPS

A total of seven former members of the Colgate Men's Ice Hockey program were invited to NHL Training Camps in preparation for the 2015-16 season. Kyle Baun (CHI), Mark Dekanich (WSH), Spiro Goulakos (BUF), Ryan Johnston (MTL), Joey Mormina (TB), Chris Wagner (ANA) and Jesse Winchester (COL) all attended their respective franchises' preseason activities during the month of September.

COLGATE TO PLAY FINAL SEASON IN STARR RINK

The 2015-16 season marks the final year the Raiders will play in Starr Rink. The first indoor facility in program history, Starr Rink was opened in 1959 and dedicated to J. Howard Starr, hockey coach from 1932-50 and Professor of Physical Education Emeritus, on December 11, 1959.

NEW FACILITY TO BE NAMED CLASS OF 1965 ARENA

Colgate's new athletics facility, opening in October 2016, will be named the Class of 1965 Arena, thanks to a record-setting gift from the university's 50th anniversary graduates, it was announced in June.

Class members – led by gift chair Jim Himoff, Peter Desnoes, Peter Kellner, John McGonagle, and Robert Forster – offered more than $22 million in support for Colgate to mark their reunion this spring. Their generosity also ensured that Colgate hockey's home ice, located inside the arena, would be known as the Steven J. Riggs '65 Rink, in memory of classmate Steve Riggs, killed in Vietnam in 1968. Riggs was team captain and was inducted posthumously into the Colgate Athletics Hall of Honor.

RAIDERS TAKE PRESEASON TRIP TO EUROPE

Colgate Men's Hockey embarked on an once-in-a-lifetime opportunity in August as it traveled to Italy and Switzerland for a 10-day excursion.

Team members spent time exploring and learning about the Italian and Swiss cultures by visiting some of the world's greatest destinations and areas of cultural and educational significance.

The team also engaged in three exhibition contests while overseas, squaring off against teams from the European professional ranks.

COLGATE PLAYS IN INAUGURAL FRIENDSHIP FOUR EVENT

Colgate made history in late November as it took part in the inaugural "Friendship Four," an international hockey tournament in Belfast, Northern Ireland.

The Raiders joined Brown, Northeastern and UMass-Lowell in the two-day event, which took place Nov. 27-28 at Belfast Giants/SSE Arena.

In addition to their two games, the Raiders also took part in a variety of cultural experiences while in Belfast. Colgate visited local schools, explored the Titanic Museum and took a guided tour of the region.

DAUDA ENROLLS AT COLGATE; JOINS RAIDERS IMMEDIATELY

Colgate Men's Ice Hockey Head Coach Don Vaughan announced in late December that Adam Dauda has enrolled in Colgate University for the spring semester and will join the team immediately.

Dauda deferred his enrollment in Colgate for medical reasons in the fall. He was been cleared by university medical personal for all hockey-related activities and played his first game for Colgate Dec. 29 against Brown in the Sheraton/TD Bank Catamount Cup, recording an assist in his collegiate debut.

A native of Kitchener, Ont., Dauda begins progress towards his undergraduate degree when classes for the spring semester commence on Jan. 18.

RAIDERS ADD GAMES TO TELEVISION SLATE

Fans of Colgate Men's Ice Hockey soon will have more ways to watch the Raiders than ever before.

TSN and College Hockey Inc. unveiled the network's 46-game U.S. college hockey schedule on Tuesday and Colgate is slated to appear twice on Canada's largest sports network.

The Raiders' matchup with Brown on the opening day of the Friendship Four tournament in Belfast, Northern Ireland, highlights the two games. That contest, the first regular-season game to be held in Europe, is scheduled to appear on TSN's flagship station Nov. 27 at 11 a.m. EST.

Colgate's contest at ECAC Hockey foe St. Lawrence is scheduled to air live Jan. 29 on TSN2 at 8 p.m.

That game is also scheduled to appear live in the United States on the American Sports Network.

Both of Colgate's contests in the Friendship Four are scheduled to air live on Time Warner Cable Sports in New York. Those two contests give the Raiders a total of four games on the regional network with home tilts against Clarkson (Dec. 4) and RPI (Feb. 26) also on the docket.
