COLGATE LACROSSE GAME NOTES

RAIDERS HOST #16/18 ARMY WEST POINT IN KEY PATRIOT MATCHUP

Colgate returns to Patriot League competition Saturday when No. 16/18 Army West Point visits Crown Field at Andy Kerr Stadium for a 1 p.m. faceoff. The Black Knights stand alone atop the Patriot League at 3-0, while Colgate enters at 1-2. Today's game is the first of five straight conference matchups for the Raiders.

Army leads the all-time series, 28-10. But the Raiders are 3-2 against the Black Knights since head coach Mike Murphy made the move to Colgate after seven seasons as an Army assistant coach. Two of those Colgate victories came last season -- an 8-5 triumph at West Point to earn the Raiders a share of the Patriot League regular season title, and the thrilling 11-8 victory in Annapolis for the Patriot League Tournament championship.

RAIDER TRIO TIED FOR TEAM GOALS LEAD

Sam Cleveland, Chase Wittich and Anthony Abbadessa are tied for the Colgate lead with 11 goals apiece. Peter Donato and Cleveland each have nine assists, and Cleveland is the point-leader with 20 ... Chandler Millstone's second-quarter assist last Saturday against Fairfield marked his first collegiate point in his 40th career game ... Collin Orr (6-of-9) and Peter Marchetto (5-of-12) combined to help Colgate post an 11-10 edge in faceoffs against the Stags ... Jack Stebbins led the Raiders against Fairfield with four ground balls to match his career high ... John Baker caused two turnovers to equal his career high ... Connor Murphy caused one turnover and leads the team with seven for the season.

DONATO, CLEVELAND NET THREE-POINT GAMES

Sharpshooting Fairfield used a 7-0 first-half run to build a big early lead and then held off Colgate in a 12-7 decision here Saturday.

Six different scorers accounted for Colgate's seven goals, with rookie Sam Cleveland netting a pair to go with an assist. Peter Donato posted a goal and two assists for a matching three-point game, while Cam Williams had a goal and an assist.

DEFENSE SHINES IN RIVALRY MATCHUP

At the very last breath of another closely contested Central New York rivalry game, Cornell eked out an anguishing 6-5 decision over Colgate on March 15.

Anthony Abbadessa scored twice for the Raiders, who rallied from a 5-2 deficit late in the third quarter. Abbadessa had the middle of three Colgate goals that forged a 5-5 tie over the last 8½ minutes. Colgate goalkeeper Brandon Burke posted a season-high 13 saves. Burke in consecutive games against the Big Red has compiled 29 saves. He had a career-high 16 in last year's overtime contest.

Burke for the season ranks third in the Patriot League in goals-against average at 8.72 and fourth in save percentage at .524.

CLEVELAND, STEBBINS SCORE TWICE AT BOSTON U.

No. 18 Boston University took advantage of first-half perfection in the faceoff-X to defeat Colgate 11-6 in Patriot League action last Saturday.

First-year attacker Sam Cleveland contributed four points on two goals and two assists. It was Cleveland's best performance since he had three goals and three assists in the win over Binghamton. Junior Jack Stebbins also had a two-goal game to match his career high.

RAIDERS HALT HOBART, 7-6

Colgate's defense clamped down in the closing crucial minutes and the Raiders outlasted Hobart 7-6 on March 8. Six different Raiders accounted for Colgate's seven goals, with Cam Williams the only one to double up. It marked Williams' second straight two-goal game.

Sam Cleveland scored a goal with two assists for a team-high three points, while Jack Stebbins contributed a goal and an assist. Brandon Burke made nine saves and allowed just the six goals, only two of which came in the second half. The Raider defense blanked Hobart over the final 20:07.

ABBADESSA PATRIOT LEAGUE OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Anthony Abbadessa found the net four times Feb. 27 to help Colgate outlast Bucknell 11-10 in an overtime thriller. For that effort, the sophomore attacker is this week's Corvias Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week.

Abbadessa scored Colgate's first three goals as the Raiders rallied from a 5-1 deficit to draw even by halftime. He tied the game again at 6-6 early in the third quarter with his fourth goal of the game and sixth of the season.

RAIDERS OUTLAST BUCKNELL 11-10 IN OVERTIME

Midfielder Eric Foote scored the game-winning goal in overtime to lead Colgate to a thrilling 11-10 victory over No. 20 Bucknell in the Patriot League opener Feb. 27. It marked Colgate's fifth consecutive win over the Bison.

Attacker Anthony Abbadessa found the back of the net four times in the game, tying his career-high, while attacker Chase Wittich added two goals of his own. Foote notched another goal in regulation, tallying two on the day. Joe Delaney, Duncan Hoskinson and Jack Stebbins each registered goals in the Colgate victory.

In the overtime session and after a timeout with 2:14 left, Foote scored the game-winner from about 10 yards out.

Mike Murphy

and 51 points, while Walsh topped the squad with 33 goals to finish his career with 139 goals and 203 points. Those numbers placed second in both categories in the Colgate records book.

Murphy joined the Raiders after serving as an assistant coach at Army. In his seven seasons with the Black Knights, Army was consistently ranked among the best defensive teams both in the Patriot League and nationally under his mentorship, during which he also guided some of the most prolific goalkeepers in Academy history.

Murphy joined Army after spending two seasons at Division III Denison in Granville, Ohio, where he was in charge of the Big Red's defensive unit, goalies and faceoff personnel. He also served as an assistant on Denison's football coaching staff and held a position in the Department of Athletics, Physical Education and Recreation as an instructor.

Prior to his work at Denison, the University of New Hampshire graduate served as head assistant coach/defensive coordinator at Wingate from 1999-2001. The Beverly,

Mass., native helped the Bulldogs to their first NCAA Division II National Semifinal appearance in school history as the squad posted a 27-17 record in Murphy's three seasons on its sideline, while 14 players garnered All-Deep South honors. His 2001 defensive unit finished the season among the national leaders in scoring defense (12th), winning percentage (7th) and goals-against average (10th).

Murphy also enjoyed one-year stints at Pfeiffer and Merrimack after his graduation from the University of New Hampshire in the spring of 1996. He was a three-year letterman for the Wildcats.

Murphy is a member of the USILA Division I All-American Committee as well as the USILA Division I Poll Committee. He serves as chair of the Patriot League Men's Lacrosse Coaches Committee, and also serves on the IMLCA Division I Coaches Advisory Board.

Murphy and his wife, Jennifer, are the proud parents of two children: son, Colin; and daughter, Dylan Emma.

Mike Murphy has his Raiders on a roll.

The Colgate men's lacrosse head coach just completed his fourth season and already has posted a pair of Patriot League regular season championships, one postseason title and two trips to the NCAA tournament.

In 2015, Colgate tied Navy for regular season honors and then swept to the Patriot League championship on the Midshipmen's home field. The Raiders knocked off Army 11-8 in the title game.

Colgate in four seasons under Murphy has a 41-24 (.631) record that ties for the second-most wins over any four-year period in program history. The Raiders are 22-13 (.629) against Patriot League competition and twice have finished the season ranked among the nation's top 15.

Named to his first head coaching position on July 20, 2011, Murphy led the 2012 Raiders to a Patriot League regular-season title en route to the best campaign in program history. Colgate finished 14-4, including a 6-0 road mark, a 6-2 record against nationally-ranked opponents, and a win over undefeated No. 1 Massachusetts in the opening round of the NCAA tournament.

The NCAA bid was Colgate's second post-season appearance and its first as an NCAA at-large recipient. The Raiders also secured their first tournament win and advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals for the first time in school history.

The 2015 championship season saw the Raiders picked to finish fifth in the Patriot League before the year began but compile a 6-2 record that tied Navy for top honors. Colgate then swept past Bucknell and Army in the conference tournament for their first automatic berth since 2008.

All-Star performers from the team were Matt Clarkson and Ryan Walsh, who both earned USILA All-American honorable mention nods in addition to their All-Patriot League First Team and Patriot League All-Tournament Team status. Walsh also was named MVP of the Patriot League tournament. For the season, Clarkson led the Raiders with 30 assists

Mike Murphy, pictured here with his wife, Jennifer, and their children, Colin and Dylan Emma, is in his fifth season as head coach of Colgate Men's Lacrosse. The Raiders earned bids to the 2012 and 2015 NCAA tournaments and have captured two Patriot League regular season crowns and one tournament title.

Michigan 9 COLGATE 8

Feb. 14 -- Oosterbaan FH, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Colgate	1	3	2	2	--	8
Michigan	4	3	1	1	--	9

ANN ARBOR, Mich. -- Colgate nearly rallied from a three-goal second-half deficit before falling 9-8 at Michigan.

Michigan scored the game's first three goals and never trailed, although Colgate did cut the lead to one on four different occasions. The Wolverines led 4-1 after the first quarter and held on from there inside Oosterbaan Field House.

Peter Donato and Chase Wittich scored two goals apiece for Colgate in its opening game of the 2016 season.

Michigan's Kyle Jackson was the scoring leader with four goals, while Mikie Schlosser added two.

Late Michigan goals in the second and third periods were decisive. Schlosser scored with nine seconds left in the first half to push the Wolverine edge to 7-4 heading to intermission. And then Jackson scored with less than a second remaining to cap the third quarter to make it 8-6 heading into the final stanza.

Colgate allowed a Michigan man-up goal just past the midway point of the fourth quarter that made it 9-6. The Raiders then rallied behind Donato and Cam Williams tallies.

Williams scored with 4:32 remaining, but Colgate wasn't able to score the tying goal.

Eric Foote returned from a season missed by injury to score Colgate's first goal of 2016. Donato assisted on the man-up tally that pulled the Raiders within 3-1.

Jack Stebbins and Wittich went back-to-back early in the second, and rookie Sam Cleveland also scored his first as the teams finished 3-3 for the period.

COLGATE 11 Binghamton 4

Feb. 20 -- Crown Field, Hamilton

Binghamton	0	3	1	0	--	4
Colgate	3	3	3	2	--	11

HAMILTON -- Colgate said hello to its 2016 home schedule with an 11-4 victory over Binghamton.

Four Raiders found the netting for multiple goals, led by first-year attacker Sam Cleveland's hat trick. Anthony Abbadessa, Eric Foote and Chase Wittich added two goals apiece as Colgate posted a balanced attack throughout.

The Raiders scored three goals in each of the first three quarters before coasting home with two in the final 15 minutes. Colgate's defense, meanwhile, limited Binghamton to just one second-half goal to help extend a 6-3 halftime advantage.

One week after being stung by a pair of late-period goals in a 9-8 setback at Michigan, Colgate scored twice Saturday in the closing seconds of the second and third quarters.

Wittich tallied just three seconds before the halftime horn to extend Colgate's lead to three goals, and then Tyler Rigo found the netting with seven seconds left in the third quarter. That goal highlighted a 5-0 closing finish for the Raiders.

Colgate scored three consecutive goals to start the game and five straight to finish.

The Bearcats won nine of 11 faceoffs in the first half, but Colgate turned the tables for a 5-3 margin in the second half. Collin Orr handled the second-half duties and finished 7-of-13 for the Raiders. Colgate completed 16 of 17 clears, while Binghamton was 14-of-16.

Colgate's defense not only limited the Bearcats to one second-half goal but also forced 15 turnovers. The Raiders committed 10 after being charged for 16 last week at Michigan. And Brandon Burke made nine saves.

2016 SEASON REVIEW

COLGATE 11 Bucknell (ot) 10

Feb. 27 -- Crown Field, Hamilton

Bucknell	4	1	3	2	0	--	10
Colgate	1	4	4	1	1	--	11

HAMILTON -- Midfielder Eric Foote scored the game-winning goal in overtime to lead Colgate to a thrilling 11-10 victory over No. 20 Bucknell in the Patriot League opener.

It marked Colgate's fifth consecutive win over the Bison.

Attacker Anthony Abbadessa scored four times, tying his career-high, while attacker Chase Wittich added two goals of his own. Foote notched another goal in regulation, tallying two on the day. Joe Delaney, Duncan Hoskinson and Jack Stebbins each registered goals in the Colgate victory.

The Raiders were down by as many as four goals, trailing 5-1 early in the second period. Colgate rallied with four unanswered, led by two Abbadessa goals, and knotted the game at 5-5 by halftime.

Colgate came out striking in the third period, adding four more goals to grab a 9-8 lead heading into the final period. Wittich scored the Raiders' lone goal in the fourth quarter to give them a 10-8 advantage with 13:57 left.

In the overtime session, the Raiders lost the faceoff on a violation but solid defense by goalie Brandon Burke caused a Bucknell turnover. After a timeout with 2:14 left in OT, Foote scored the game-winner from about 10 yards out.

Lehigh 12 COLGATE 9

March 5 -- Ulrich Complex, Bethlehem, Pa.

Colgate	2	1	4	2	--	9
Lehigh	4	3	2	3	--	12

BETHLEHEM, Pa. -- Chase Wittich scored his second career hat trick but Lehigh fought off a second-half Colgate rally to defeat the Raiders 12-9.

Colgate grabbed a 2-1 lead on Wittich's first goal with 3:13 left in the first quarter. But Lehigh scored three times in the last 2:17 of the period to lead 4-2 after 15 minutes.

It was 7-3 Mountain Hawks by halftime and 9-4 late in the third quarter until Colgate scored three goals in the final 2:25 to pull within 9-7 heading to the fourth.

Lehigh scored midway in the final period to push the lead back to three, but Cam Williams and Sam Cleveland answered in a 35-second span to draw the Raiders within 10-9 with still 6:17 remaining.

The Raiders had a man-up opportunity but couldn't take advantage, and Lehigh tacked on a pair of goals in the closing minutes.

Williams and Cleveland posted two goals apiece, and Wittich added two assists to his three-goal output for the third five-point game of his young career. Wittich has scored at least two goals in all four Colgate games this season.

Wittich scored his three goals on just four shots. Cleveland scored his first collegiate man-up goal.

Hobart	1	3	2	0	--	6

GENEVA, N.Y. -- Colgate's defense clamped down in the closing crucial minutes and the Raiders outlasted Hobart 7-6 on a Tuesday afternoon.

It was another bump-and-grind game between these Central New York foes, who have been meeting in lacrosse for nearly a century. Colgate now has won four of the last five against the Statesmen, but they haven't come easy.

This one followed a familiar script: hard-fought, low-scoring, down-to-the-wire.

Tyler Rigo tied the game with 10 seconds left in the third quarter when he alertly rebounded and put back his own saved shot. Then Cam Williams scored his second goal of the game midway in the fourth, somehow finding a sliver of daylight to get it past Hobart goalkeeper Jackson Brown.

But the Raiders hardly were home free. Hobart gained possession with 5½ remaining and poured shot after shot at the Colgate goal. Raiders keeper Brandon Burke finally found one he could handle right at the 1-minute mark.

Colgate played keep-away for the final 60 seconds and walked off with a satisfying third victory of the season.

Six different Raiders accounted for Colgate's seven goals, with Williams the only one to double up. Sam Cleveland scored a goal with two assists for a team-high three points, while Jack Stebbins contributed a goal and an assist.

Burke made nine saves and allowed just the six goals, only two of which came in the second half. The Raider defense blanked Hobart over the final 20:07.

Williams scored his second of the game and sixth of the season near the midway point of the final period, and the Raiders held on from there.

Boston University 11
COLGATE 6

March 12 -- Nickerson Field, Boston

Colgate	1	2	2	1	--	6
Boston U.	3	3	2	3	--	11

BOSTON -- No. 18 Boston University took advantage of first-half perfection in the faceoff-X to defeat Colgate 11-6 in Patriot League action.

The Raiders were limited in quality possessions all afternoon. In the opening 30 minutes, BU claimed all 11 faceoffs to go into the locker room leading 6-3. Boston U. finished the game 18-of-21 on faceoffs.

Colgate in the second half committed 12 of its 14 turnovers to tamper any hopes of a comeback. The Raiders were held to just two total shots in the fourth quarter.

First-year Colgate attacker Sam Cleveland contributed four points on two goals and two assists. It was Cleveland's best statistical performance since he had three goals and three assists in the Feb. 20 win over Binghamton.

Junior Jack Stebbins also had a two-goal game Saturday to match his career high. Cam Williams and Anthony Abbadessa chipped in the other two Raider goals.

The Raiders were solid on clears, finishing 19-of-20. BU was 16-of-23. Shots favored the Terriers 34-31. Colgate worked up a 13-5 advantage in the third quarter, but then the Raiders were outshot 11-2 over the final 15 minutes.

In addition to Stebbins' two goals, he also set career highs with four caused turnovers and four ground balls.

Cleveland is the team leader with eight assists and 17 points. He has nine goals to team leader Wittich's 10.

John Baker (6) and Backe (5) led the Colgate defense with career highs in ground balls.

Cornell 6
COLGATE 5

March 15 -- Crown Field, Hamilton

Cornell	0	3	2	1	--	6
Colgate	1	0	2	2	--	5

HAMILTON -- At the very last breath of another closely contested Central New York rivalry game, Cornell eked out an anguishing 6-5 decision over Colgate.

Cornell freshman Zach Ward capped a big day with his second goal of the game -- and his career -- for the winner just as the final horn sounded.

The Raider defense, stellar all afternoon, was closely monitoring Big Red senior scoring leader John Edmonds. But while Colgate held Edmonds without a goal, his second assist of the game found Ward at close range and the rookie didn't miss.

The clock struck triple-zeroes just as the ball was finding the net.

Anthony Abbadessa also scored twice for the Raiders, who rallied from a 5-2 deficit late in the third quarter. Abbadessa had the middle of three Colgate goals that forged a 5-5 tie over the last 8½ minutes.

But the Raiders never could re-capture the lead and missed by a tenth of a second forcing overtime against Cornell for the second year in a row.

Tuesday's meeting was the 50th in this series and the Big Red won for the 11th straight time and 22nd in the last 23. Last year in Ithaca, Cornell fought off a late Raider rally to prevail 10-9 in overtime.

Colgate was looking for its first win over Cornell since 1997 and its first home victory since 1964.

Both defenses were rock solid. The Raiders forced 14 Cornell turnovers, while the Big Red forced 12.

Burke posted a season-high 13 saves and Cornell's Donville had 14. Burke in consecutive games against the Big Red has compiled 29 saves. He had a career-high 16 in last year's overtime contest.

Fairfield 12
COLGATE 7

March 19 -- Crown Field, Hamilton

Fairfield	5	3	2	2	--	12
Colgate	1	1	2	3	--	7

HAMILTON -- Sharpshooting Fairfield used a 7-0 first-half run to build a big early lead and then held off Colgate in a 12-7 decision.

The visiting Stags scored eight goals on their first 11 shots and led 8-2 at halftime. Fairfield expanded the margin to 11-4 and 12-5 in the fourth quarter before the Raiders tacked on a couple of closing goals.

Colin Burke scored three times and TJ Neubauer twice during Fairfield's seven-goal run over an 11:51 stretch of the first half. Burke and Neubauer tallied four goals apiece.

Six different scorers accounted for Colgate's seven goals, with rookie Sam Cleveland netting a pair to go with an assist. Peter Donato posted a goal and two assists for a matching three-point game, while Cam Williams had a goal and an assist.

Millstone's second-quarter assist marked his first collegiate point in his 40th career game. Collin Orr (6-of-9) and Peter Marchetto (5-of-12) combined to help Colgate post an 11-10 edge in faceoffs.

Stebbins with four ground balls and John Baker with two caused turnovers equalled their career highs.

Stags attackman Burke with his four-goal performance has 11 in his last three games; Neubauer in addition to his four goals had a game-high five ground balls.
