COLGATE RAIDERS
1-5, 1-5 PATRIOT LEAGUE NORTH
VS
ARMY BLACK KNIGHTS
6-7, 3-5 PATRIOT LEAGUE NORTH

LIVESTREAM: ESPN+ | STATS: STATSBROADCAST.COM

OPENING TIPS

- Colgate returns to action and to Patriot League North Division play with a two-game home series against Army.
- The Raiders did not play last weekend at Bucknell after a Bison team member tested positive for COVID-19. That test later was amended to a negative result by the lab doing the testing.
- Colgate and Army split the opening weekend series. The Raiders opened with an 87-76 victory before Army bounced back for a 72-53 result in the Sunday contest.
- Katlyn Ghavidel is coming off her best collegiate weekend. The Texas guard scored 18 and 17 points against Holy Cross thanks to a combined 9-of-19 from 3-point distance.

COLGATE NOTEBOOK

NOTES OF INTEREST ON THIS WEEKEND'S GAMES AGAINST THE BLACK KNIGHTS

● Colgate and Army meet for the 74th and 75th time in women's basketball, with Army holding a 47-26 advantage. The Raiders have won four of the last six meetings, including this year's 87-76 triumph to begin the season. Last year, Colgate and Army put on a show for the Hamilton fans in a 100-93 Raiders victory that set 14 Colgate, Cotterell Court or opponent records. Head coach Bill Cleary is 4-7 against Army during his Raiders tenure.

● Last year at Colgate, Cleary's fourth season at the helm, produced one of the best records in Raiders history. Colgate finished 19-11 for the most regular season wins and second-most wins overall. Only the 2003-04 Patriot League champions did it better at 21-10. That title campaign and last year's success are the only two overall winning seasons in 33 years of Division I competition.

● Katlyn Ghavidel turned in the best weekend of her collegiate career two weeks ago at Holy Cross. The Texas guard score 18 and 17 points in the two games, sparked by a 9-of-19 effort from 3-point distance. Ghavidel's four made 3-pointers on Saturday were a career high until she topped that effort with five made threes in 10 attempts Sunday.

● Ghavidel from 3-point range has picked up right where she left off last season -- and from her high school playing days. The junior guard is second among Patriot League leaders in 3-point field goals made at 2.7 and seventh in 3-point shooting percentage at 39.0. She's also 23rd in scoring at 9.3. Ghavidel ranked second nationally for career high school 3-pointers made with 478, setting the Texas state record.

● First-year Morgan Frank came off the bench two weekends ago and delivered Colgate's initial double-double of the abbreviated 2020-21 season. Frank in the Sunday finale at Holy Cross scored 12 points and added 10 boards to go with two assists and two blocked shots.

● The Raiders really are a walking wounded unit. After losing four seniors from last year's 19-11 team, Colgate this season has lost four more would-be starters to season-ending injuries in Nia Ahart, Taylor Langan, Holly Lueken and Ava Williams. Then two weekends ago at Holy Cross, first-year forward Lindsay Blackmore missed both games because of injury and sophomore guard Alexa Brodie went down Sunday in the closing minutes with an injury. Colgate played the last 2:35 of that contest, a tough 63-62 loss, without a player on the floor who played any competitive collegiate minutes a season ago.

Despite her injury, Brodie remains off to a hot start to 2020-21. The point guard is tied for the Patriot League lead in 3-point shooting percentage at 50.0 (7-of-14). She stands seventh in scoring at 13.7, up from 6.0 during her rookie season, and is fifth in assists (3.8), seventh in assist-to-turnover ratio (1.6), eighth in free throw percentage (79.2) and ninth in minutes (33.3). The Pennsylvania point guard poured in a career-high 21 points in Colgate's opening win at Army and has scored in double figures four times.

Keelah Dixon returned to action this season in a big way. The senior guard scored 30 points opening day to spark the Raiders, becoming the ninth in program history to reach the 30-point plateau. Dixon had 23 in the first half on 10-of-14 shooting. She ended the game 13-of-23, posting career game highs for points, rebounds (7), assists (4) and minutes (34).

Dixon ranks 15th in the Patriot League in scoring at 10.8. See Patriot League statistical rankings Page 4.

Blackmore had a sparkling collegiate debut, scoring 15 points and grabbing 7 rebounds in the opener at Army. The first-year forward leads the team in rebounding at 4.5.

Tiasia McMillan earned her way into the starting lineup for her collegiate debut. The Florida forward scored eight of her season-high 11 points in the fourth quarter of the Sunday game against Boston University as Colgate made a late run in a four-point loss. McMillan leads the team and ranks 10th in the Patriot League in steals at 1.3.

The future is bright for a Colgate side that lost four to graduation after last season and another four who would be starting this season because of injuries. The Raiders played the Sunday finale against first-place Boston University with one sophomore and four first-years on the court over the final 5:54 of a tight ballgame.

The Raider closing five of sophomore Brodie and first-years McMillan, Blackmore, Frank and Ariel Loiter combined to outscore BU 14-7 over that final 5½ minutes in the 62-58 defeat.

Colgate is positioned in the Patriot League's North Division along with Army, Boston University and Holy Cross. The teams are schedule for four games against each opponent, two home and two away. The top two finishers qualify automatically for the Patriot League tournament.

All Colgate games take place on Saturdays and Sundays, with the regular season's final day set for Sunday, Feb. 28.

Colgate last year fashioned a 6½-game improvement over the previous season's 12-17 record and finished above .500 in the Patriot League for just the third time at 11-7.

It was a heck of a season and a building block for sure in Cleary's fourth campaign at the helm. More talented young players are on the way and the 2019-20 squad definitely set the bar higher.

Cleary is joined on the bench again this year by assistant coaches Lauren Ellis (fifth season) and Katie Curtis (fourth season). First-year staff members are assistant coach Alex Stewart and director of basketball operations Sarah Shaw.

Colgate led the Patriot League in 2019-20 in scoring offense (69.1), assists (16.8), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.2) and turnover margin (+4.3).

Graduation and a preseason injury have eliminated the top five scorers from last year's Colgate team. Brodie is the leading returning scorer at 6.0. Gone are Rachel Thompson (16.8), Abby Schubiger (10.5), Tegan Graham (9.2), Haley Greer (8.1) and Taylor Langan (6.4).

Thompson departed as one of the most prolific performers in Colgate history. She finished among the program career top 10 in scoring (sixth), rebounding (third), field goal percentage (third), free throw percentage (sixth), assists (second) and steals (sixth), among her many accomplishments.

HEAD COACH, FIFTH SEASON AT COLGATE

Bill Cleary continues to raise the fortunes of Colgate Women's Basketball since taking over as the program's 10th head coach in March 2016.

The Raiders in 2019-20 posted a remarkable season – arguably the second-best in team history. Colgate finished 19-11 for the most regular season wins and second-most wins overall. Only the 2003-04 Patriot League champions did it better at 21-10.

It was just the second winning season in 33 years of Division I play. The next best record was 14-14 back in 1990-91.

Cleary's charges fashioned a 6½-game improvement over the previous season's record and finished above .500 in the Patriot League for just the third time at 11-7. Colgate's third-place finish resulted in Cotterell Court hosting its first Patriot League Tournament Quarterfinal matchup.

The third-place finish was the program's best in 16 years, harking back to the 2003-04 Raiders sweeping their way to the program's only regular season and tournament championships. It marked just the third time a Colgate team finished over .500 in 30 Patriot League seasons.

A postseason invitation to the WNIT was a possibility for the Raiders before all sports seasons were halted by a coronavirus outbreak.

Season of Firsts and Bests

Colgate led the league in 2019-20 in scoring offense (69.1), assists (16.8), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.2) and turnover margin (+4.3).

Other records of note from 2019-20 included:

The 79-52 victory at NJIT was Colgate's largest season-opening win in 29 years and the second-largest to begin a season in program history.

Colgate's 88-51 victory over Siena on Dec. 4 was the largest for the program since 2001.

The Raiders at 8-3 (.727) opened with the program's best regular season nonleague record.

One of the best seasons in Colgate Women's Basketball history earned the appropriate recognition from Patriot League coaches. Rachel Thompson earned Colgate's first All-Patriot League First Team selection since 2006, and she and Abby Schubiger teamed to give the Raiders two selections on the All-League team for the first time since 2004. Schubiger earned All-Patriot League Third Team honors.

Thompson also was named to the All-Defensive Team for the second year in a row, while Alexa Brodie picked up Patriot League All-Rookie Team honors.

No fewer than 14 Colgate, Cotterell Court or opponent records were broken when the Raiders outlasted Army 100-93 on Jan. 5.

Four Straight NCAA Berths

Bloomsburg's 102 wins during that four-year

NCAA run were the most in school history, and the 2012 NCAA tournament bid was the program's first in 20 years.

Cleary during his time at Bloomsburg coached four PSAC East players of the year and four freshman of the year honorees.

Philadelphia Roots

A native of the Philadelphia suburb of Broomall, Cleary began his career with one season as an assistant men's basketball coach at Towson and two years as a men's basketball graduate assistant at Georgia Tech under Paul Hewitt.

Cleary is a 1998 graduate of Villanova with a degree in political science. He and his wife, Jackie, are the parents of sons Billy and Chase.

2020-21 NOTES

- Coming off fine weekend at Holy Cross, averaging 5.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and shooting 5-of-8.
- Career highs with six points in Sunday's finale against Crusaders after grabbing nine rebounds Saturday.
- Scored first four points of collegiate career on 2-of-2 shooting in last year's 88-51 win over Siena.
- Saw action in eight other collegiate games, five of which wrapped up 20-plus-point victories.

- Three-time All-Conference honorable mention at Batavia HS.
- Helped Bulldogs to 2016 Dukane Conference title and regional championship.
