OPENING FACEOFF

SETTING THE SCENE

Colgate opens the 2023-24 season on home ice, hosting UConn at the Class of 1965 Arena Saturday and Sunday. The Raiders are coming off their first ECAC Hockey championship in 30 years, finishing with a 19-16-5 record, including an 11-8-3 mark in ECAC Hockey action.

Colgate won five straight games in the playoffs to make its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014. The team picked up four wins over top 10 opponents last season, defeating No. 6 Harvard and No. 1 Quinnipiac in the regular season. The Raiders beat the No. 2 Bobcats and No. 6 Crimson again in the ECAC semifinals and championship.

A NEW ERA BEGINS

Colgate begins its new era under Mike Harder '97, who was named the Donald F. Vaughan Head Men's Hockey Coach in June following the retirement of long-time head coach Don Vaughan.

Harder, the program's all-time leading scorer, returns to Colgate after spending six years (2013-2019) as an assistant coach for his alma mater. As an assistant, he compiled 89 wins with a pair of ECAC Championship appearances and an NCAA tournament bid.

LAST SEASON NOTES

• Colgate Men's Hockey won the ECAC Hockey championship for the first time in 33 years last season with a 3-2 defeat of Harvard in the title game.

• The Raiders did not lose a single game in the playoffs, winning five straight contests. Colgate defeated Dartmouth in the first round, swept St. Lawrence on the road in the quarterfinals, and beat top-seeded Quinnipiac in the semifinals.

• The team made a trip to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2014 but fell to Michigan in the regional semifinals. The Raiders finished with a 19-16-5 record, including an 11-8-3 mark in the conference.

• Head Coach Don Vaughan announced his retirement at the end of the season after 30 seasons behind the Raiders' bench. He left with 470 victories, making him the winningest coach in program history. His feats included six 20-win seasons, four NCAA tournament berths, and two ECAC Coach of the Year awards.

• After graduation, seniors Matt Verboon and Colton Young both signed professional contracts. Young signed with the Greenville Swamp Rabbits of the ECHL, while Verboon went to his home country of Switzerland to play with HC Lugano of the National League.

SCOUTING THE HUSKIES

UConn finished the 2022-23 season with a 20-12-3 record, including a 13-9-2 mark in Hockey East play. The Huskies reached the Hockey East quarterfinals before falling 2-1 to UMass Lowell. Connecticut enters the season receiving votes in both the USA Today and the USCHO polls.

The Huskies return their point and assist leader from last season in sophomore Matthew Wood, who tallied 34 points by 11 goals and 23 assists. He finished tied for seventh in Hockey East in points. Senior Hudson Schandor had 32 points during the 2022-23 campaign, notching 11 goals and 21 assists. Ryan Tverberg also recorded 30 points with 15 goals and 15 assists.

Logan Terness and Arsenii Sergeev split time in goal last season. Sergeev posted 11 wins, while Terness led the way in GAA (2.53) and save percentage (.913). UConn added a familiar face to Colgate over the summer in former Clarkson goalie Ethan Haider.

RETURNING TALENT

The Raiders return 20 guys from last year's championship team. Those players accumulated 202 points with 62 goals and 140 assists.

Senior defender Nick Anderson is Colgate's top returning point scorer after notching 29 points with three goals and 26 assists, which finished fifth-most in ECAC Hockey. Anderson enters the season as the fourth-highest returning defenseman point scorer nationally. He is also fourth in the country among active defenders in career assists (50) and tied for eighth in career points (56).

Ross Mitton (9-18-27) finished tied for 11th in the conference in assists last season. Mitton came through when Colgate needed it, notching three game-winning goals, all of which came in overtime. The senior ranked tied for third in ECACH in game-winners. Additionally, Ethan Manderville was second on the squad in power-play goals (seven).

Alex DiPaolo ranked tied for third on the team in goals in 2022-23 with 11 and totaled 26 points after dishing out 15 assists. The junior was also a force in the faceoff circle, finishing fourth in the conference in wins (354) and tied for seventh in percentage (.557).

On the defensive side, senior Pierson Brandon led the league in blocked shots (84), and Tommy Bergsland placed fourth in the category (59). Anderson and Reid Irwin also recorded 43 blocked shots each

SOLD IN NET

Goaltender Carter Gylander had a standout year in net. The senior led ECACH and placed fifth in the nation in saves with 1044, breaking the program record for most saves in a season. He has 1,886 career saves, ranking tied for fifth most among active goalies. The netminder is also tied for seventh in career wins with 32. Gylander fell second in the league in saves per game last season, averaging 26.77 per contest after recording 13 games with 30 or more stops, including two 40-plus save games. Additionally, his 2.46 GAA ranked fifth best in the conference.

Gylander helped lead the Raiders to the conference title with a 40-save performance in the semifinals against No. 2 Quinnipiac and a 34-stop game in the championship against No. 6 Harvard. His performances earned him the ECAC Hockey Tournament Most Outstanding Player Award.

HOW WE RANKED LAST YEAR

The Raiders finished third in ECAC Hockey in goals (113) and fourth in goals per game (2.83) after tallying 310 points, averaging 7.75 per contest, falling third-most in ECACH in both. The squad also led the league in blocked shots (502).

Colgate finished second in the league in power-play goals (34), also tied for ninth most in the nation. Additionally, the Raiders sat second in the conference in shots on goal (1,163) and faceoff wins (1,202).

THE NEW GUYS

Colgate announced the addition of six players, including four first-years and two transfers for the 2023-24 season. The newest Raiders consist of five forwards and a defender. They come from five different states and one Canadian province.

LETTER ON THE SWEATER

The Raiders named Pierson Brandon as the team captain this season and Reid Irwin and Ross Mitton as alternate captains. Brandon wore an 'A' on his sweater last year, while Mitton and Irwin will be donning a letter for the first time.

GONE CAMPING

Two Colgate players participated in NHL development camps this summer. Carter Gylander attended the Detroit Red Wings camp, while Ryan McGuire was at camp with the Minnesota Wild. Additionally, three former Raiders attended NHL training camps, including Bobby McMann (Maple Leafs), Trevor Cosgrove (Islanders), and Chris Wagner (Avalanche).

NEW STAFF, WHO DIS?

Head coach Mike Harder announced three new staff additions over the summer. Zach Badalamenti and Anthony Walsh joined the Raiders as assistant coaches, while Liam Conway returned to Hamilton as an assistant coach/director of hockey operations.

Badalamenti worked as an assistant with the Dubuque Fighting Saints (USHL) during the 2022-23 season. He also has experience coaching at Trinity College and his alma mater, the University of Wisconsin - Stevens Point. Walsh served as an assistant coach with the US National Team Development Program since March 2022 and also spent time at SUNY Fredonia. He brings ECAC experience as a former player at Yale. Conway worked with the Raiders as their director of hockey operations during the 2021-22 season before spending last year on Bowling Green's staff in the same capacity.

HEAD COACH MIKE HARDER '97

THE DONALD F. VAUGHAN ENDOWED CHAIR OF COLGATE MEN'S HOCKEY FIRST SEASON (AS HEAD COACH) | COLGATE '97

Mike Harder '97 was named the Donald F. Vaughan Head Men's Hockey Coach in June 2023.

Harder makes his return to Colgate after spending six years (2013-2019) as an assistant coach for his alma mater. As a coach for the Raiders, he compiled 89 wins with a pair of ECAC Championship appearances and an NCAA tournament bid.

Decorated Playing Career

Harder, Colgate's all-time leading scorer, produced 214 points during his collegiate career. He graduated ranked fourth all-time in goals scored with 88 and second in assists for 126 points. He went on to earn 1997 All-America honors and was a Hobey Baker finalist. As one of the Raiders' greatest to lace up the skates, Harder was elected to the Colgate Athletics Hall of Honor in 2008.

One of 13 nominees for the The Hockey Humanitarian Award, Harder led the team in scoring for four straight seasons. A two-time All-ECAC All-Star, he won the Steve Riggs Memorial Award twice for gentlemanly play and a high standard of ability; the Rob Ries Memorial Award once for a player who provides inspiration and leadership; ECAC Merit Medal; and four times was named Colgate's Best Offensive Player. He was named to the ECAC All-Rookie Team in his first season when he led the nation with six shorthanded goals, and Colgate in scoring with 46 points.

Professional Hockey Experience

After earning his degree in international relations, Harder played 13 seasons professionally across North America and Europe. Included were stops in the American Hockey League (AHL) along with European League ventures in Germany, Austria, Finland, Sweden and Italy. He helped Hartford claim the AHL's Calder Cup in 2000, and was a key figure in a 2004 championship in the German Elite League of Deutsch Eishockey Liga.

Colgate Coaching Career

Harder began his coaching career at Colgate in 2013-14 as a volunteer assistant. He played a key role in the program's breakout campaign that saw the Raiders ranked 13th nationally in both major polls after advancing to the NCAA tournament as an at-large selection.

After being promoted to assistant coach in July 2014, Harder was instrumental in guiding the Raiders to a 22-12-4 overall mark and an appearance in the title game of the ECAC Hockey Championship for the second consecutive season.

During his time in Hamilton, Harder served five years as the director of recruiting. His first recruiting class led the nation in points and included a Hobey Baker finalist.

Leader, Mentor, Entrepreneur

As the founder and hockey director of Hockey Club Reno Ice, Harder spent the last four years building a program and community from the ground up. He spearheaded the Reno Hockey Academy, a membership-based skills program. Today, the program has over 500 youth players of all age levels, a para ice hockey team, and a semi-pro team.

Looking Ahead

Harder returns to Hamilton as the 15th head men's hockey coach in program history. He takes over a program coming off its first ECAC Hockey Championship since 1990 and first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2014.

The 2022-23 Raiders ranked No. 18 in the final USCHO poll of the season under Don Vaughan, who recently announced his retirement being the third longest tenured coach in Division I. In 30 years behind the bench, Vaughan has the most wins in program history (470).
