THE OPENING KICKOFF

SETTING THE SCENE

A clash with top-of-the-table Lehigh awaits a Colgate squad looking to snap a three-game losing skid. The Raiders narrowly fell to Patriot League foe Lafayette last weekend, whereas the Mountain Hawks took down Holy Cross their last time out for their third win in a row.

CRAZED KOZLOWSKI

Junior linebacker Cole Kozlowski leads the Patriot League with 11.7 tackles per game this season, good for the second-highest average in the FCS. He is also second in the FCS and third in the entire country (FBS or FCS) with 117 total tackles this year, the most by a Raider since T.J. Holl '18 logged 121 stops in 2018. Kozlowski is one of only 10 Raider defenders to log 100+ tackles in a season in the past two decades.

OWNING THE TRENCHES

Colgate is second the Patriot League with 4.8 yards per carry on the ground this season. The Raiders have two running backs in the league's top-10 for most rushing yards per game, and have also been stout against the run on defense. Colgate's front seven has only conceded 140 rushing yards per game this year, the second-lowest mark in the conference.

VOGELER'S VERY GOOD

Sophomore kicker Luke Vogeler has proven to be one of the most reliable special teams weapons in the Patriot League this year. He has made 10 out of his 12 field goal attempts, good for the best percentage in the conference (83.3). He has made more FGs than any other kicker in the league and averages one FG per contest, the best average in the league. He also has not missed an extra point this year, and is sixth in the conference for scoring with 53 points.

FCS PUNTER OF THE YEAR WATCHLIST

Senior Shelby Pruett was one of 13 specialists placed on the Augusta Sports Council FCS Punter of the Year Watchlist. He is averaging 40.3 yards per punt for his career, putting him on pace to break the current all-time program record of 40.9 yards per punt set by Mike Kovach '83. So far this season, Pruett's big leg is averaging 42.8 yards per punt, the highest in the Patriot League and the 25th best mark in the FCS.

RECORD BOOK WATCH

Treyvhon Saunders' 163 receptions rank fifth all time, just eight catches behind Pat Simonds '09 for the most ever by a Raider. Sitting at 71 catches so far this year, the junior can also break the program record for most receptions in a season currently set at 77 by Luke Graham '05 in 2003.

Michael Brescia currently ranks third in program history for most rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with 32 scores on the ground. He trails Ryan Vena '99 and Gavin McCarney '13 who ran for 33 and 35 rushing touchdowns, respectively.

SCOUTING THE MOUNTAIN HAWKS

Sophomore running back Luke Yoder is third in the Patriot League with 82 rushing yards per game. He leads the potent Lehigh run game that is first in the conference with 1,827 yards and an average of five yards per carry.

CAREER DAY

Junior linebacker Cole Kozlowski added a career-high 17 tackles against Lafayette last week earning him an honorable mention for Patriot League Defensive Player of the Week. He also tied his personal best with 10 solo stops. Kozlowski's 17 tackles are the most by a Raider since T.J. Holl '18 made 18 against Cornell back in 2018.

SPECIAL TEAMS SPECIALTY

Colgate leads the Patriot League in nearly every special teams category so far this season. Luke Vogeler has the highest FG% (80%) and is the only kicker in the league without a missed an extra. Shelby Pruett has the highest per punt average (42.9), and the squad also boasts the best kickoff return average which is 16th in the FCS (23.2).

RUNNING RAIDERS

Colgate is second in the Patriot League with 4.8 yards per rush. The Raiders are also fourth in the conference with 1,465 total rushing yards despite being second-to-last in the Patriot League with only 308 attempts.

PASSING PROWESS

Raider QBs have combined for the second-most completions in the Patriot League with 199 on 322 attempts. Part of the success comes from the clean pockets as Colgate has only conceded eight sacks this season, the fewest in the league.

SPECTACULAR SAUNDERS

Junior Treyvhon Saunders sits first in the Patriot League and fourth in the FCS (ninth in the country) with 71 receptions through nine games in 2024. He is also third in the conference with 629 receiving yards.

DYNAMIC DUO

The Raiders have two running backs in the league's top-10 for rushing yards per game. Junior Marco Maldonado places 10th with 36.3 yards per game while sophomore Chris Gee rushes for 44.6 yards per contest.

SIDELINE SWITCH UP

Former Defensive Quality Control Coach Devin Altland has stepped into an assistant coaching role in charge of corners, while Nathan Trawick has stepped into defensive line duties for the Raiders. Brandon Williams and Brady Thompson have also joined the staff as Offensive and Defensive Quality Control Coaches, respectively.

AYE, AYE, CAPTAINS

Five Raiders were voted captains for the 2024 season after a team-wide election. Michael Brescia earned the title for the third-straight season while Mike Slivka was named for the second year in a row. Treyvhon Saunders, William Parker, and Christian Sweeney all don the captain patch for the first time.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

Coach Stan Dakosty added a familiar face on the sidelines this season, hiring his father, Stan Dakosty Sr., in a Senior Analyst role. Dakosty Sr. is one of the most prolific high school coaches in Pennsylvania high school football history, retiring last season as the 12th winningest head coach in the state. He accumulated 326 wins over the course of his 40 year career, all at Marian Catholic, and won a state title in 1990.

RAIDERS IN THE PROS

Running Backs Coach Jared Livingston took part in the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Fellowship this summer, spending two weeks with the Green Bay Packers during OTAs and off-season workouts. He joined Colgate Football Class of 1977 Mark Murph who is in his 17th and final season as the Packers' President and CEO. Colgate Director of Football Operations Abbey Paduano also attended the 2024 NFL Women's Forum in February, one of only 40 women working in college athletics selected to attend.

LUCKY NUMBER 13

Colgate considers 13 to be its lucky number. The University, which celebrates Colgate Day every Friday the 13th, was founded by 13 men on $13 with 13 articles and 13 prayers. The 13 stripes as a graphic element pay homage to those student-athletes who have come before, and to those who earned their stripes competing for championships.

STAN DAKOSTY

FRED '50 AND MARILYN DUNLAP HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Stan Dakosty has been a part of seven of Colgate's 10 Patriot League titles and every FCS playoff win, both as a player and a coach. That made him the perfect choice to join the list of legendary head coaches who have lifted Colgate Football to its level of prominence.

Dakosty was named Fred '50 and Marilyn Dunlap head football coach in August 2021. The 30th head coach in Colgate Football history, he previously earned the associate head coach title in 2016 after originally being named to the Raider coaching staff back in 2007. He served as the co-defensive coordinator from 2019-21 and held the position of recruiting coordinator as the Patriot League began its new scholarship era from 2012-20.

Dakosty's run of Patriot League titles includes the 2003 run to the national championship game. In 2015, the Raiders conquered New Hampshire and James Madison on their way to the FCS quarterfinal.

In similar fashion, Colgate put together 10 wins for just the fourth time in program history in 2018. The Raiders got there by putting together an amazing run of near-perfection over their first nine games. Colgate in streaking to 9-0 allowed just 29 points during that span and tied the NCAA FCS record with five shutouts in one season.

Over a seven-game stretch, Colgate allowed 3, 0, 0, 3, 0, 0, and 0 points. The Raiders knocked off James Madison 23-20 on a game-ending field goal in the first home playoff contest since 2003.

The Raider defense led the nation in scoring defense at 9.3, total defense at 237.7 and Dakosty's secondary led the nation in pass efficiency defense with an 88.77 rating, and was also No. 2 nationally in passing yards allowed per game under Dakosty's direction. This despite the fact that the Raiders finished their season against arguably the toughest three-game stretch in program history in Army, James Madison, and North Dakota State.

The 2015 to 2018 stretch of Colgate football saw a combined 31-16 overall record during its four years and an amazing 21-3 mark against Patriot League competition. That resulted in three conference titles, three NCAA playoff victories, and two trips to the FCS quarterfinals.

In his first year at the helm, Dakosty coached the Patriot League Rookie of the Year Michael Brescia who helped lead the Raiders to a 5-1 conference record and a second-place finish.

Last year, Dakosty led the Raiders to a 3-2 league record, including an upset over nationally-ranked Lafayette on the road. The Raiders were rewarded for their success with 10 All-Patriot League selections, the most since their 2018 championship season.

Two seasons ago, Colgate was the only school in the Patriot League to play two FBS opponents after opening the season at Stanford and closing the Raiders' non-conference slate at Army West Point. Six Raiders earned spots on the 2022 postseason All-Patriot League Team, including punter Shelby Pruett who garnered the title of First Team Punter. Three Raiders also landed a spot on the Patriot League All-Academic Team to cap off the season.

While serving as the defensive back coach, Dakosty coached defensive backs Abu Daramy-Swaray and Tyler Castillo to All-America honors in 2018. Under Dakosty's guidance, the Raiders had a defensive back grab a spot on the All-Patriot League Team for eight consecutive seasons, including back-to-back seasons in 2017 and 2018 with three Raiders earning First Team honors. In 2018 Dakosty also coached Ben Hunt IV, who won the Dick Biddle Coaches Award.

Under Dakosty's tutelage, Mike Armiento and Castillo, completed their Colgate football careers in the top five in career interceptions. The two defensive backs also hold a spot in the Patriot League's top seven career interceptions, highlighted by Armiento, who is tied for second all-time.

Dakosty returned to his alma mater in 2007 from Division III Amherst, where he coached running backs for two years.

He began his coaching career as an undergraduate at Colgate, serving as a student assistant and assistant video coordinator in 2003 before working with the tight ends in 2004. Colgate won the Patriot League title and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA Championship Game while posting a 15-1 record in his first year on the staff.

He worked with the team's tight ends and fullbacks over the first three seasons before switching to the secondary.

Before coaching, Dakosty played two years of varsity football for the Raiders, helping them to the 2002 Patriot League championship before he suffered a career-ending injury.

Dakosty graduated from Colgate in 2005 with a degree in history and educational studies. While on the Amherst staff, he earned a master's degree in education in addition to his social studies teacher's certification at the University of Massachusetts in 2006.

He was a standout quarterback and defensive back during his high school days at Marian High School in Tamaqua, Pennsylvania. Dakosty remains linked with Coal Region football and has helped recruit several area players to the Hamilton, New York, campus. He helped land former Hazleton Area standout Nate Eachus back in 2007, and also North Schuylkill grad Ed Pavalko a few years later. Eachus went on to become an All-American running back with the Raiders and played professionally with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Dakosty's father, Stan, is a hall of fame football coach in the state of Pennsylvania at Marian Catholic High School.

Dakosty and his wife, Jess, reside in Hamilton and are the proud parents of three children: Stanley, Nora, and Tommy.
