THE STORYLINE

The No. 25 Harvard football team will open its 142nd season, as the Crimson travels down to Kingston, Rhode Island to take on Rhode Island. Harvard, which is coming off a perfect 10-0 slate in 2014, visits the Rams, who are 0-2 this fall. Video for the game will be available on GoRhody.com.

The Crimson, which was the only undefeated team in Division I last season, has won 14-straight games, the second-longest active streak in Division I (Ohio State, 15). Harvard has also won 10 consecutive road games, the longest such streak in the FCS (Football Championship Subdivision) and the third-longest streak in Division I (Ohio State, 14; Florida State, 12).

OPENING DAY

Harvard has won 12 of the last 14 season openers and is an impressive 116-23-2 (.830) in the first game of the season. Under current head coach Tim Murphy, the Crimson is 15-6 on opening day.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday's game will be the second all-time meeting between Harvard and Rhode Island. The Crimson won the first game in 1923 at Harvard Stadium 35-0.

THE NUMBERS

The Rams are coming off a 35-7 loss in their conference opener at Albany last week. Quarterback Paul Mroz completed 17-of-38 passes for 180 yards and had a 21-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kharyi Denny in the fourth quarter. Denny finished with 79 receiving yards on four catches, while running back Harold Cooper ran for 66 yards on 16 carries. Defensive back Tim Wienclaw paced the URI defensive effort with 12 tackles on the day.

Harvard opens its season while much of the country is already in its third week of play. The Crimson, which captured a share of the program's 16th Ivy League title last season, went 10-0 overall and 7-0 in conference play in 2014 and was voted to finish first in the Ancient Eight this fall.

TIM MURPHY

Thomas Stephenson Family Head Coach for Harvard Football
Springfield '78

22nd season at Harvard, 147-62 overall, 104-43 Ivy League
 29th season, 179-107-1 overall, 114-48 in conference

By any measure, Tim Murphy has led Harvard's storied football program to its most prosperous era since the early 20th century. He looks to continue that trend in 2015, as he enters his 22nd season as the Thomas Stephenson Family Head Coach for Harvard Football.

One of the game's finest teachers and motivators over the last quarter-century, Murphy is Harvard's all-time winningest coach, and since the formation of the Ivy League in 1956, only two Ivy coaches have compiled more wins than his 147. His Harvard teams have captured eight Ivy League championships (1997, 2001, '04, '07, '08, '11, '13, '14) and have combined to own the NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision's best record over the last 14 seasons (114-25, .820).

Murphy is the first Harvard coach since the iconic Percy Haughton to lead the Crimson to three unbeaten, untied seasons in his tenure (2001, '04, '14). Having previously coached five seasons at Cincinnati and two at Maine, Murphy owns career records of 179-107-1 overall, 147-62 with the Crimson and 16-5 in The Game, the annual rivalry tilt between Harvard and Yale.

A six-time selection as New England Coach of the Year (1988, '97, 2001, '04, '11, '14), Murphy was the American Football Monthly Division I-AA National Coach of the Year in 2004 and was also honored as a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award for the top FCS coach nationally in 2001, '04 and '11. He was the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston Head Coach of the Year in 2001 and '11 and has also been recognized as the American Football Coaches Association District I Coach of the Year (2001) and the Scotty Whitelaw ECAC Division I-AA Coach of the Year (1997). Murphy was also named the inaugural recipient of the Ivy League Coach of the Year Award in 2014.

Under Murphy, Harvard has claimed Ivy titles in five of the last eight and seven of the last 14 seasons. In those 14 seasons, starting with 2001, the Crimson has posted the third-highest winning percentage in all of NCAA Division I, trailing only Boise State and Ohio State. Harvard has logged at least seven wins in each of those 14 years, an Ivy League record. No other Ivy team has strung together seven such seasons in a row.

Every four-year player Murphy has recruited to Harvard has been a part of at least one Ivy League-championship team. Murphy is just the fourth head coach to man the Harvard sideline since 1950.

Since 1994, Harvard has had 102 first-team All-Ivy League selections, five Ivy Rookies of the Year, nine Ivy Players of the Year, nine first-team All-Americans and 25 players who have been drafted or signed professional contracts, including six-time Pro Bowl center Matt Birk '98 and starting NFL quarterback Ryan Fitzpatrick '05.

In addition, 20 of Murphy's Harvard players have received national academic recognition (either CoSIDA Academic All-America or the FCS All-Academic Team). Before sending two players to the CoSIDA Academic All-American team in 2008, Harvard had a national-best six players recognized on the All-District 1 team.

The Crimson has had 10 or more All-Ivy honorees in each of the last 16 seasons, with program highs of 11 first-team picks and 20 total mentions in 2007.

Harvard completed its 17th unbeaten, untied campaign in 2014, going 10-0 overall and 7-0 in league play to earn the program's 16th Ivy crown. Harvard was the lone undefeated team in Division I for the 2014 season. The Crimson capped the perfect season, its third under Murphy, with a 31-24 victory over Yale in The Game, extending the win streak over its archrival to a program-record eight straight games. Harvard also hosted ESPN's College GameDay on the day of the Yale game, becoming the second Ivy League school (Penn in 2002) to host the premiere college football television show.

In 2013, Harvard went 5-0 on the road en route to a share of the Ivy League title, going 9-1 overall and 6-1 in the conference. The Crimson topped Yale, 34-7, defeating the Bulldogs for the 12th time in the last 13 games.

Murphy's sixth Ivy title came in 2011, when Harvard clinched the outright Ancient Eight crown before the last week of the season for the first time in school history. A 45-7 win at Yale capped a perfect Ivy season and a 9-1 overall campaign. All nine victories came by double digits. The 35-21 victory at Columbia was Murphy's 118th at Harvard, breaking Joe Restic's program record.

Murphy and Restic have rewritten Harvard's storied football records, and the two coaches remained close until Restic's passing in December 2011. In the spring of 2008, Murphy joined Restic as Harvard coaches to be honored with the National Football Foundation Eastern Chapter's Ron Burton Distinguished America Award, given to a former football player who has carried the lessons learned on the field to his larger community.

The 2008 Ivy-champion Crimson finished the year ranked 14th in the FCS Coaches Poll. In a game that will go down in history as one of equal importance and dominance, the 2007 championship season was capped by a 37-6 victory at Yale against a previously undefeated Bulldog team that was highly ranked in both total offense and defense.

The 2001 Harvard squad posted the school's first undefeated, untied campaign since 1913, while the 2004 team went a step further by going 10-0 to mark the first perfect season with at least 10 wins since 1901. The Crimson posted a 7-0 Ivy record in 2007 and a year later went 9-1 overall while sharing the Ivy crown with Brown. Murphy's 1997 Crimson also went 9-1, 7-0 in the Ancient Eight, and won the Ivy title, Harvard's first in 10 years.

The 2012 AFCA president and a past president of the Division I-AA Coaches Association, Murphy has presented at several high-profile events, including coaching clinics at Notre Dame and Southern California. In 2010, he was part of a small envoy of college head coaches to visit American servicemen and servicewomen overseas as part of the USO/Morale Entertainment Coaches Tour. Murphy went on a weeklong trip that included stops at McConnell and Scott Air Force bases before going overseas for visits to eight countries in nine days with visits to bases and vessels.

Murphy is Harvard's first endowed coach. In October 1994, Thomas F. Stephenson '64 M.B.A. '66 established a $2 million endowment fund that supports the head football coach in much the same way that an endowed chair supports a professor. Stephenson chose to name the fund for members of his family, who have been active participants in the Harvard community for four generations.

The 2004 season stands as arguably the Crimson's finest in more than 100 years. The Crimson went 10-0 on the year and had an average margin of victory of 20.5 points. Harvard scored at least 31 points in nine of the 10 games, had a double-digit winning margin in eight games, held its last six opponents to 14 points or less, dealt two shutouts and allowed just one touchdown in the last three games.

Harvard finished the year as the only undefeated school in the FCS and one of just five unbeaten in all of college football. The Crimson finished the season ranked No. 13 in the final Sports Network Division I-AA national poll and the ESPN/USA Today poll, marking Harvard's highest finish in the national rankings since the formation of the Division I-AA polls. Harvard's final Sagarin Rating stood 37th among the 239 Division I football schools.

The 2004 Crimson had 15 players, then the most in school history, named All-Ivy League. Among those were Fitzpatrick, who earned selection to play in the East-West Shrine Game and the Hula Bowl, and Clifton Dawson '07, who went on to become the Ivy League's all-time leading rusher in 2006.

Murphy's 2001 Harvard squad finished 9-0 overall and 7-0 in the Ivies, and was ranked No. 19 in the final Sports Network poll. Harvard committed just nine turnovers, averaged 445.0 yards in offense and scored at least four touchdowns in every game.

Previously, Murphy led Harvard to the 1997 Ivy championship, when his squad finished 9-1 overall and 7-0 in league play. It marked the first time in school history that the Crimson had posted a perfect Ivy record.

Murphy was named head football coach at Harvard Dec. 6, 1993. He came from the University of Cincinnati, where that fall he had directed the Division I-A Bearcats to their finest record in 17 years. Murphy's first head coaching position was at the University of Maine, where, in 1987, he led the Black Bears to their first NCAA Division I-AA playoff berth.

At Cincinnati, Murphy led the Bearcats to an 8-3 record in 1993, their first winning campaign since 1982 and the school's best overall mark since 1976 (9-2). Cincinnati was the fourth-most improved team in Division I-A (an increase of five wins over 1992).

This success came after Murphy inherited a program that had a condemned stadium, no practice facilities and the loss of 19 scholarships after being placed on probation for infractions incurred by the previous coaching staff. He attained all of his short-term goals, including NCAA compliance, an improved graduation rate, reconstructing the strength and conditioning program and development of a successful major college team. When Murphy took over at Cincinnati in 1989, he was only 32 years old and was the youngest Division I head coach in the nation (along with Dave Rader at Tulsa).

While improvement was consistent throughout his tenure, it all came together in 1993. In that summer, Cincinnati was recognized by the College Football Association for being one of only 20 Division I schools to graduate a minimum of 70 percent of its most recent recruiting class. On the field, the Bearcats had their third-highest point total in school history (302), and set school marks for most offensive plays, most first downs and fewest turnovers. In addition, Cincinnati won that year's Independent Football Alliance championship.

Murphy started his head coaching career at Maine, in 1987 and '88, when he became the youngest head coach in the country (at age 30) upon succeeding current Dartmouth head coach Buddy Teevens. His first team finished with an 8-4 record (the Black Bears' best record in 23 years), shared the Yankee Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA tournament for the first time in school history.

Murphy also has extensive experience as an assistant coach. He was the offensive coordinator at Maine in 1985 and '86, when the Black Bears both rushed and passed for more than 2,000 yards in the same season for the first time in school history. He was the offensive line coach at Boston University for three seasons, from 1982 through '84, and helped the Terriers to Yankee Conference titles and NCAA Division I-AA playoff berths each year. Murphy was also the defensive line coach at Lafayette in 1981, when the Leopards posted their best record in school history (9-2), just one season after the squad went 1-10.

Murphy began his coaching career as a part-time assistant at Brown in 1979 and was promoted to assistant varsity offensive line coach the following season. A native of Kingston, Mass., he graduated from Silver Lake High School in 1974. He then attended Springfield College, where he became a four-year starter and was a small college All-New England linebacker as a senior.

He graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1978 and earned a master's degree in education from Springfield the following year. Murphy did additional postgraduate work at Boston University and was accepted to the J.L. Kellogg Graduate School of Business at Northwestern and the Colgate Darden School of Business at Virginia.

Murphy was chosen to sit on the board of trustees of the American Football Coaches Association in January 2005 and was named to Springfield's All-Decade Team in 2006. In October 2007, the night following Harvard's 27-10 victory over Princeton, Murphy was inducted into the Springfield College Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2015, Murphy joined Harvard's Faculty Committee on Athletic Sports.

Murphy resides in Wayland with his wife, Martha Kennedy Murphy, and the couple's three children: Molly Kennedy '14, Conor Timothy '16 and Grace Katharine '18.
