TAKE AWAYS FROM GAME THREE

Chowan faced a 27-0 deficit at half. The Hawks outscored Shaw 47-21 in the second half and overtime.

The Hawks posted 140 total yards in the first half and exploded for 299 in the second half while holding Shaw to 106 total yards in the half.

Bryce Witt threw for 201 yards and four touchdowns but had three interceptions.

Deshaun Wethington posted his second straight 100+ rushing yard game with 106.

The Chowan defense that was on the field for 20:45 in the first half limited that time in the second half to 13:45. The Hawks caused four turnovers with three interceptions and a fumble recovery. Chowan also had a blocked field goal in overtime.

2019 CHOWAN HAWKS

RECORD UPDATING

Bryce Witt threw for four touchdowns to take over the top spot for most passing touchdowns in a career with 57. Witt is second all-time in career passing yards sitting behind Stover (5,865) with 5,322. Witt sits with 939 yards rushing and can become the first QB to rush for 1,000 yards. He sits in 11th for most career rushing yards.

NCAA DIVISION II STATISTICS

Bryce Witt's seven touchdown passes in a single game ranks at the top for most touchdown passes in NCAA this season. Witt is 3rd in the country in TD passes (11), 18th in passing efficiency (165.0), and 4th in Points responsible for (78).

Imeek Watkins' five receiving touchdowns in a single game ranks first in the country this season.

Deshaun Wethington leads the country in yards per carry with 10.06 yards an attempt.

Josh Berry, Arthur Radford and Kyree Burns rank 12th in the country in interceptions per game (0.7). Connor O'Brien ranks 12th in the country in tackles per game at 11.7.

Chowan is ranked in the top-25 in several categories:

17th - 3rd down conversion (51.3%) | 1st - Blocked Kicks (4)

13th - Blocked Punts (1) | 21st - First Downs Offense (71)

6th - Rushing Offense (282.0) | 10th - Scoring Offense (46.3)

20th - Team Passing Efficiency (167.55) | 7th - Total Offense (507.7)

20th - Turnovers Gained (8)

ROAD WARRIORS

- Chowan will have to be road warriors this season if they want to make it to the elusive CIAA Football Championship in Salem, Va. The Hawks will take on McKendree in Lebanon, Illinois in a non-conference game that marks the longest journey for the Hawks in program history. Chowan will have to travel to 2018 CIAA Championship selections: Fayetteville State and Bowie State the following weeks before finishing up the four game road swing with Virginia Union in Richmond, Virginia. The Hawks have six road games this season as contests against UVa-Wise and Lincoln (Pa.) are also on the road.

OVER A DECADE WITH PLACE

- Head Coach, Tim Place, enters his twelfth season at the helm of the Chowan football program. Under Place's direction the Hawks have seen four winning seasons including three in the last four years. The first came in 2012 with a 6-4 record and finished second in the CIAA with a 5-2 mark. In 2015 and 2016, Chowan finished with a 6-4 record but 4-3 clips in the league. Last season, the Hawks finished 6-4 with a 4-2 mark in the CIAA. The team finished 6-2 among DII opponents.

Communications

Chowan University's Office of Athletic Communications provides a full service public relations shop to members of the media. Game day services include credentials, statistics, photography, and post-game access to coaches and student-athletes.

The Office of Athletic Communications is located on the second floor of the Helms Center.

TIM PLACE / HEAD COACH / 12TH SEASON

TIM PLACE enters his 12th season at the helm of the Hawks football program.

During the 2018 season, the Hawks finished with a 6-4 overall record and a 4-2 mark in the CIAA. Chowan posted a 6-2 record against Division II opponents with two losses against Division I Campbell and Davidson. The Hawks produced a program best 15 selections to the All-CIAA lists including their first All-CIAA First Team Running Back in Tyrell Freeman. Freeman became the second Hawk to rush for over 1,000 yards while breaking the single-season and career rushing records. Bryce Witt broke the single season passing touchdown mark. Donald Boone was selected as a multiple organization All-American including the program's first-ever American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) First Team All-American.

The Hawks ranked in the top-10 nationally in scoring offense and total offense. Chowan finished first in total offense (511.7 yards per game), second in the CIAA in scoring (41.9 points per game), rushing yards (2335), rushing yards per game (233.5), passing yards (2782), passing yards per game (278.2), interceptions (13), and third in sacks (24).

In 2017, the Hawks finished with a 4-6 overall record and a 4-3 mark in the CIAA. Chowan faced four NCAA DII Football Championship teams including National Runner-Up, West Florida. Nine Hawks garnered All-CIAA honors and eight CIAA Player of the Week selections.

Place guided the Hawks to a 6-4 overall record and a 4-3 CIAA record during the 2016 campaign. Under Place's direction, the Hawks jumped out to a 4-1 record to start the season with their lone loss to Division I Campbell. After the loss, the Hawks bounced back to win three straight contests to tie the program mark for consecutive wins. Chowan garnered a then, program best 10 All-CIAA selections (seven Second Team selections) and 18 CIAA Player of the Week honors. Randall Dixon broke the single game mark for passing yards with 404 yards in a 47-14 win over Johnson C. Smith. Dixon also tied the single game mark with five touchdown passes in the victory against Livingstone and Johnson C. Smith. Dixon was one of seven to be named to the All-CIAA Second Team.

Under Place, Tyree Lee finished his career with a DII program record 2,114 yards and 24 touchdowns. Lee is the only Hawk to produce back-to-back 1,000 yard seasons. Lee broke his own school record with a 243 yard rushing performance against Lincoln (Pa.) and rushed for a school record four touchdowns against Virginia Union. Lee picked up All-CIAA Second Team honors, as well as, two CIAA Player of the Week honors.

In 2015, Place led the Hawks to a program best record of 6-4 for the second winning season in program history with the first coming during the 2012 season under Place. The season was highlighted with the program's first ever win over a Division I Delaware State, 31-30, on the road and defeating CIAA perennial powerhouse Winston-Salem State for the first time. Nick Hahula became the program's first CIAA Special Teams Player of the Year and earned First Team All-CIAA honors along with OL Michael Lugo being named to the First Team as well.

During the 2014 season, the Hawks finished with a 2-8 overall record and 1-6 in league play. Despite the record, the Hawks were in every game. Kemaree Alcorn anchored the defense while earning a CIAA All-Rookie Team selection and was named NCCAA All-American Second Team. Defensive back, Marcel Burns Jr. was also named to the CIAA All-Rookie Team. Roderick Lindsey added an All-Super Region I Third Team accolade.

The 2013 season was fruitful despite the 4-6 overall record and 3-4 record in CIAA play. Defensive stand-out TJ Batchelor earned Preseason BSN All-American and USA College Football All-American honors. Chowan started off the season against two DI programs: Charlotte and Sacred Heart. The Hawks would finish the season 4-4 with three of those losses within 10 points. Robert Holland finished his career holding nine Chowan receiving records including: career yards (4,351), receiving touchdowns (43), and career receptions (43). Holland ranks second in NCAA history in career receptions and 10th in career yards. Holland became the second Hawk to be named CIAA Offensive Player of the Year. Holland earned CIAA First Team honors and was named USA College Football All-American and BOXTOROW All-American. Holland was also named All-Super Region I Third Team. The Hawks garnered three All-CIAA Second Team honors in Aeon Blake, Jason Ampy, and Dakorian Desamme.

Place guided the 2012 team to the first winning season in DII history and only second ever winning season since Chowan became a four-year school in 1993. The Hawks went 6-4 overall and a program best 5-2 in CIAA play finishing second in the CIAA Northern Division behind Elizabeth City State. TJ Batchelor was named Don Hansen and BSN All-American status and became the first Hawk to be named All-Super Region I Second Team. Batchelor and offensive lineman Jobari Coleman-Wilson were named All-CIAA First Team. In addition to their success on the field, the Hawks had their second-ever representative on the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team with Austin Tallant earning the honor in 2012.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Chowan, Place was the head coach at Urbana University for two seasons after being the assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at Urbana since 2002. Place guided the Blue Knights to an 11-11 overall record during his stint as head coach. During the 2006 season, Place led the Blue Knights to a 5-6 overall record and rose to 10th in the NAIA national polls. Place led the Blue Knights to their second winning season in program history with a 6-5 overall record and was ranked for six consecutive weeks in the NAIA national poll. During his tenure, Place had 23 student-athletes named all-conference, two student-athletes garner NAIA All-America Honors, and two student-athletes be named to the NAIA Football All-America Scholar-Athlete team. In 2004, as the defensive coordinator, Place was named Mid-State Football Association's Assistant Coach of the Year after producing one of the league's premier defenses.

Prior to Urbana, Place spent two seasons at Ravenna High School in Ohio as head coach. Place came to Ravenna after a season at Division I Western Carolina University as an assistant coach and academic coordinator.

Place would make stops at Eureka College (1997-1999), Hartwick College (1996), and Greene Central High School (1992-1996) after starting his collegiate coaching career at Christian Brothers Academy as an assistant coach. At Eureka, Place coached then-NCAA DIII's all-time leading receiver in Kurt Barth. Barth would later become head coach at Eureka.

Place graduated from Washington & Lee University with a Bachelor's degree in Psychology. At W&L he was a four-year member of the football team and two-year letter winner. He received his Masters degree from SUNY-Albany in Counseling Psychology.

Place and his wife, Jennifer Zak Place, have two children, Nathaniel and Claire.
